Old Vegas Fort Nears Completion

Morry Story By Morry Zenoff

The Basic Wolves versus the Boulder City Eagles:

It makes your adrenalin flow.
On the football field -- Friday night at eight -- in Boulder City.

Talk about the Summit Meeting -- Sadat, Carter, Begin -- next week -- this Boulder - Henderson game has got them all beat. It's the Summit that out - summit's the Summit.

Especially for those of us who have seen all 29 of the past battles between these teams. And now -- for all of us to see again -- this 30th meeting -- the oldest rivalry in Southern Nevada -- the Minnesota - Michigan Little Brown jug of the Big Ten -- the Yale - Harvard of the Ivy League, the U.S.C. - U.C.L.A. of the Far West ... the Reno-UNLV game -- this little school contest competes with them all.

The inequality in the numbers of students attending the two schools -- has often given one school the edge in numbers over the other --- and still does -- with Basic now twice the size in student body to Boulder.

But -- in fight - fight, fight -- in super - human performances by the men on the field ... this is it. It's the BIG game. So BIG we've often editorialized it should be the last game of the season -- played in the Silver Bowl, no less, for the Boulder field cannot hold the crowds that turn out and Basic's field, too.

Who can forget those tell - tale moments when Kirby Trumbo, and the big Kraft kids, Keith Lopeman, Jim Anderson, Dick Jamison, -- oh so many fine greats -- thundered down the gridirons of yore ... carrying Basic's colors. Who can ever forget the drives and skirts and daring runs of Joe Kine, Bill McCormick, Tick Segerblom, Danny Ahlrtom, and, oh, so many more.

Whether behind twenty to zero, or ahead, the teams battled until the final gun. It was the BIG GAME.

And here we have it again -two home towns -- neighbors but rivals -- squaring off. The coaches, Evan Wilson of Boulder and Emilio Camillone of Basic -need do nothing to charge up their young men, save to hand over the football and let them

One Car Rollover Kills Two

A one-car rollover on Highway 41 near the Lake Mead Marina Friday, took the lives of two Henderson teenagers and injured four others, according to the Nevada Highway Patrol.

According to the Highway Patrol those killed were Albert Maestas, 17 of 150 Ivy St., and Brenda Lucero, 15 of 3575 Sage Circle.

Harold Gray, 18 and Sandy Gray, 15, both of 2030 Shoshone Lane, were listed in stable condition in the intensive care unit at Sunrise hospital. Both sustained severe head injuries. Charlene Tuft, 15, of 424 Scenic Drive, was treated and released, and Kerry Hancock, 18, of 730 Center St., was listed in fair condition. Hancock sustained a fractured vertebrae and other injuries.

The car, reportedly driven by Maestas, was traveling west on State Route 41 at a high rate of speed about 3:55 a.m. when it swerved off the road and overturned, the NHP spokesman said.

Pittman To Be Discussed

A meeting to discuss the improvements project in the Pittman area will be held to-night at 7:30 in the Pittman Women's Club, according to City Manager Bob Campbell.

The City of Henderson has received approval from the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development to proceed with the Pittman Improvements Project.

As requested by area residents last April, the improvements will consist of park restrooms, street paving, curbs and gutter and street lights.

Area residents are encouraged to attend this meeting to review and comment on the final proposal and the alternatives that are possible.

RIVERA RETURNS -- Rafael Rivera, the first white man to discover Las Vegas Valley in 1830, is immortalized with this huge bronze statue which graces the entrance to the fort at Old Vegas. $40,000 Grant To Remodel Senior Center

A $40,000 grant from the office of aging has been awarded to Henderson for the renovation of the senior citizens center in the Civic Center, according to Bob Campbell, city manager.

The $40,000 will be used for remodeling of rooms 6 and 7 and for fixing the kitchen facilities so that eventually the Meals on Wheels program can be carried on there.

In announcing the award, John B. McSweeney told Campbell that the total amount of requests received was $528,945 for the $284,000 available. "Obviously,

Construction of the frontier fort of Old Vegas, located between Las Vegas and Hoover Dam on the Boulder Highway in Henderson, is nearing completion.

A replica of the Mormon outpost which colonized Las Vegas Valley in 1855, Old Vegas is geared for family recreation, tourism and motion picture productions.

The $3½ - million fort will feature a Sutler's Store, Hondo Cantina, Commandant's Quarters and Theatre, Blacksmith area and a Territorial Photographer.

An 11 - foot - tall bronze statue of Rafael Rivera near the Boulder Highway beckons motorists to enter Old Vegas. Rivera, nearly 150 years ago, was the first white man to discover the marshy meadows and taste the cool springs of the valley --- not too far away from the statue that immortalizes him.

Like early settlers, visitors will enter Old Vegas on a wooden plank bridge across the Las Vegas stream Inside the aging adobe walls of the outpost, history of a turbulent era become a reality.

The Sutler's Store is a carbon copy of the provisionary outlet the frontier forts had, and will function as a souvenir shop as well. Visitors here will also be able to purchase a personalized souvenir edition of the Old Vegas Territorial newspaper.

A rip · snortin' saloon and cowboy steakhouse comprises the first floor of the Hondo Cantina, which will feature an intriguing and unique interior conception. The second floor will function as a 225 - seat banquet room.

Visitors to the Commandant's Quarters may partake on a brief tour and see the coming attractions of Old Vegas. In the adjoining room, the 300 - seat Commandant's Theatre, a multi - media film presentation will depict the history of the area on a huge screen with stereophonic sound. Dale Robertson narrates the film.

The Blacksmith area will bezz with activity and the Territorial Photographer will have numerous costumes on hand for visitors to pose in.

Robert Shelton is president and chairman of the board of the Old Tucson Corporation which operates Old Vegas, Old Tucson and the Old West Corporation.

Shelton purchased the rundown Old Tucson property in 1959 and eventually built it into the world famous movie location that it is today. It ranks as Arizona's second greatest paid tourist attraction—next to the Grand Canyon—thanks to Shelton's ingenuity and enterprise.

He envisions the same success story for Old Vegas, but on a much broader scale. The frontier fort represents the first of three phases to the project.

Other officers of the Old Tucson Corporation are Johnny Mitchell, honorary chairman; Jerry Blackwell, vice president and treasurer; and Cecil Simmons, vice president and secretary.

Simmons, along with major stockholder Art Lurie, are the only Las Vegans acting in official capacities. They are co - owners of Wonderworld Discount Liquors, the largest liquor retailer in Southern Nevada.

Simmons is also a veteran of the gaming industry. He was part owner of the Desert Inn Hotel & Country Club from 1960 - 67. When the Hughes Tool Company purchased the property. Simmons served as consultant and casino manager from 1967 - 71.

Key personnel at Old Vegas include Wayne Byargeon, general manager; Pete Peters, publicity director, and Phyllis Fetter, sales director.

Peters is the only Las Vegan in this group, having been an award-winning sports writer and editor with the Review - Journal. He has also worked on the Valley Times and the Sun. Peters has an extensive background as a executive in the hotel industry and is a gaming expert.

Old Vegas is situated on nearly 125 acres of land in the shadow of Black Mountain. The fort occupies only eight acres. The property slopes generally from southeast to northwest.

Casey Doss Construction Company of Henderson is building the fort. Jerry Cook of Hollywood is construction coordinator. David Welles & Associates of Las Vegas are the architects.

Designer Floral School in Denver. Colorado was the closest and fit, best into summer vacation schedule and the weather was cooler than in Henderson. Besides lectures and research reading on floriculture, most of the time was spent in practical lab work of turning out 8 to 10 arrangements daily in the mornings and afternoons spent in evaluation and touring top notch floral shops, wholesale growers, greenhouses, Denver Wholesale Flower Market, as well as manufactureers and distributors of vases, pottery, baskets, ribbon, ect.

The week that they each did 50 corsages, ladies of the Denver convalesent homes were given floral tributes, which they wore with pride to dinner, or even pinned to their bathrobes. The next-week was wedding design with a contest to see who could come up with the most unusual bouquet. If the students wished . they could volunteer to go help service a wedding by pinning on corsages, boutonnieres, or handing out flower baskets to attendants. The fourth week was, on funeral design

Most of them either worked in a flower shop and were sent by the employer to enhance skills, or were currently owners of shops who felt the need for additional training. Mrs. Muzingo was the only novice to this type of work. She feels that it was really an enjoyable and rewarding way to spend a summer vacation.

To the voters of Clark County, a special hello from Roy Woofter, the first choice among Democrats for District Attorney. His extensive county-wide background directly affecting your well-being overshadows by far the other persons aiming for that important office. One of the candidates only shouts words and vague promises with not enough actual experience to warrant belief; another is big money's choice and tool for the power structure, while the third was decisively defeated the last time he tried for the office operating as a Republican. No question -- the Democrat for D.A. is Roy Woofter.

TOUGH

ACCOMPLISHED

Roy Woofter has accomplished many objectives for the people of Clark County during his years of public service. His background as a crime-fighter includes firsthand knowledge of the law from Public Defender's office through Justice of the Peace to District Attorney and City Commissioner. He organized the Consumer Fraud Division and Young Citizens Counsel and his role in decision making includes public projects, housing, police and fire, economic development, parks and recreation. Test Fire Your Shotgun

Most bird hunters know little, if anything, about what comes out of their shotgun when the trigger is pulled; but it only takes a few minutes to learn, and it could mean the difference in the number of clean kills scored this hunting season.

All that's needed is a roll of wrapping paper or several sheets of newspaper. Draw a 30-inch circle and pin the paper target to a frame or suitable exact loads you will be shooting. The number of pellet holes within the 30-inch circle shows the effective pattern you can expect on a well - placed shot at a flying target.

Around 50 percent of the shot will be within the circle. The percentage varies with the choke and can range from almost 75 percent on a full choke to only 40 percent with cylinder bore (no choke).

To determine percentage, divide the circled holes by the shot pellets contained in the load you shoot. For example, a 12-gauge shell with 1½ ounces of No. 7½ shot contains some 395 pellets. If the circle has 229 holes, the percentage is 58.

Co What's Las Vegas Really Like?

[EBITER'S NOTE; -Over nine million people visited Las Vogas, Nevada in 1927. As a practical guide to this world famous entertainment center for those who plan to visit in the future, we asked a former resident to give our readers an insider's viewpoint. From 1950 to 1956 Frank Plasha [a native West Virginian worked as Personnel Manager of Titanium Metals Corp. Henderson, Nevada, a few miles from the fabled Strip. He served on a number of Mayor's commissions, was a Nevada state member of the Henderson Rotary Club. In W. Va. Plasha taught at Kingston High School received the Alumnus of the Year award from W. Va. Tech in 1966, and after World War II received his M.S. degree from Cornell University.]

Our TWA 727, flight 3 out of Pittsburgh, was thirty minutes from Las Vegas' McCarran International Airport. The young man on the aisle seat opposite me and my wife Katy leaned over and excitedly asked,"What is Las Vegas really like?" He heard us describing to the stewardess our experiences of desert living in the early 50's and now we were his "instant experts" on the mysteries of the gambling mecca.

"What are you looking for?" I responded. "If you want a family vacation, great fishing in Lake Mead, spectacular sonery. peaceful stillness of desert night - it's there. If you want a frenetic merry - go round of imcomparable entertainment, super stars galore, unbelievable food to satisfy any gourmet or ethnic taste, azure blue skies and searing sunlight -- it's there.".

"And of course, there's the legalized gambling, decide in advance how much you can afford to lose (famous last words) and don't be greedy when you win." I'm certain the young man never heard our last advice; our plane was coming in for a landing and he had the glazed look of anticipation common to all first - time visitors.

What is Vegas really like? It's & kaleidoscope of vivid impressionions and faint memories. One cannot do justice in a single article to the varied cross currents of the Vegas world of work and world of entertainment. So stay with us through this two part series for a different viewpoint.

Let's begin at the beginning ... Temperature 410. We're on the final leg of our long journey to a new job at a place we've never seen and a place not on the map -- Henderson, Nevada. "We" are my wife Katy and daughters Pam (4) and Cindy (2) in an asthmatic Ford 6 with a block office in a pan on the floor to keep us cool. It is August 1951and after we left Kingman, Arizona on our desert journey to the oasis of Boulder Gity I began wondering if I had made a terrible mistake in accepting a job in such a barren wasteland.

First impressions: shimmering, blinding waves; miles and miles of nothing but miles, and miles; long - eared jack rabbits confused and bowled over like ten pins by night drivers) weary gas station attendants fatigued by the oppressive hear. What hardships those pioneers endured! Then, as we turned a sharp curve. there is was Boulder Dam! Spectaeular! And the heart quickens it beat at the sight. A few more miles and we come upon a true oasis --Boulder City. Green, cool, trees, lawns, water, civilization. We stay in Boulder overnight and next morning drive to our new home in Henderson. 1950 population of Henderson less than 4,000; population today · over 20,000. In 1950 a total of 160,000 people lived in the entire state of Nevada. Las Vegas' population was appoximately 25,000

in 1950; the 1980 projection is 500,000 by the University of Nevada, What accounts for the meteoric growth of Vegas and Henderson and Clark County?

Recently we visited with Oran and Bonnie Gragson in Vegas. Oran served as Mayor of the city during the late 50's and through the 60's as the area experienced boom and growth. We also visited with one of the pioneer publicists of the strip --Art Force of the M.G.M. Grand Hotel. We're grateful to both Oran and Art for their inputs.

RECREATION.

Your "recreation" in Vegas can be limited to a cab ride from the airport to your hotel and an escape from real values to the fairvland of air conditioned casinos, plastic chips, screaming crap shooters, lounge entertainment, and main room shows. Pity! Sad! For you have answered the siren call of the blazing neon signs and neglected the other side of a genuine Nevada vacation.

indoor man - made -pleasures with the outdoor natural attractions ... this is the ideal Vegas vacation which so many tourists

Nature has been kind to the Vegas area, Fishing? I have caught mountain trout in the wilderness of the Utah Uintahs and the Ruby Valley mountains of Northern Nevada, I have fished W. Va.'s New-River and Greenbrier - and caught my first redeye with a homemade pinhood in Paint Creek. - New York's Finger Lakes and Eries Presque Isle lagoons have given me many hours of fishing joy. The ultimate? Lake Mead, Nevada has everything.- Size: over 500 miles of shoreline, 115 miles long, 255 square miles. Beauty: miles of towering cliffs and secluded inlets plus picnic areas and beaches make up Lake Mead. Fishing: no closed season to catch blue - gills, trout, and my favorite large mouth bass. A tip; ask the natives to point out the location of gypsum beds, cast towards the beds, and Iguarantee the large mouth bass will hit.

If fishing is not - your turnon, then take a drive Combine the sybaratic to the Mt. Charleston area about 35 miles northwest of Vegas. You'll be surprised. Yes, there is an alpine forest, cool summer temperatures, and snow in winter on Mt. Charleston. There are wildflowers, desert type trees such as joshua and yucca, and familiar pine, and waterfalls and trails for hiking. The area has camping and picnic area and skiing. Another recreational surprise is Tule Springs ten miles northwest of Vegas. Here is an oasis of nerly 700 acres owned by the city which features good picnic facilities, tropical palms, a man - made lake, and archeological diggings. I color photography is your hobby then a "must" on your trio is a visit to the Valley of Fire. Here is a state park that combines vivid colors with unusual rock formations and Indian rock writings. It's an easy drive via routes 91 and 40 to the upper area of Lake Mead.

Just a few hours of driving time takes you to Grand Canyon, Bryce and Zion Parks, and Death Valley. And, of course. one of the seven wonders of the world is located about 30 miles from Vegas -- Hoover Dam, or Boulder Dam according to many of the natives. Special tours are conducted by government guides and your elevator trip down is an experience to be remembered forever.

Take time on your visit to Vegas and really smell the roses nature provides, Fish and swim in Lake Mead, marvel at the uniqueness of Mt. Charlesto, Tule Springs, desert

National Wildlife Range. Take time, one clear night, to shut out the blazing neons and casino clatter, and walk into the desert quiet to listen to the stillness and study the sharpness of heaven's jewels - this is solace, comfort, exhilaration without need for artificial stimulus.

A national publication lists Las Vegas among the five most equally and fairly appraised cities in America . . . In fact, appraisals of the Las Vegas Strip prompted a leading newspaper to say, we have no doubt the appraisals are accurate, even to the large resort businesses which experienced the bigger increase.

...The Christian Sons

The Christian Sons is a male gospel trio from the mountains of Western Colorado. The group consists of three brothers, Dan, Wendel and Van Chriestenson. They are the sons of Rev. R.A. Chriestenson, pastor of the Assembly of God Church in Paonia, Colorado.

In the past two years, the Christian Sons have traveled over 100,000 miles from coast to coast singing in conventions, on television, youth camps, revivals and concerts, sharing the Good News of Jesus Christ. Many souls have been reached as a result of their ministry.

The ministry of the Christian Sons is one that will appeal to all age groups. From classical, to country, to contemporary, this one theme is contant: Jesus Christ is Lord! You can be assured that The Christian Sons won't be coming with a lot of loud, blaring instruments, and an offensive noise, but rather this is a quiet ministry that strives to lift up Christ at all

The Christian Sons will be at Neighborhood Church at 7:30 p.m. on Tuesday, August 29th and 7 p.m. on Wednesday, August 30th. Everyone is invited to attend.

The lowest point in the continental United States, Death Valley, is 100 miles from the highest, Mt. Whitney.

One of the hicest aspects of a yard storage structure is its "building" simplicity. You really don't build; you simply assemble by following complete step-by-step instructions appearing in the yards of many industrious people who find they need yard storage area.
