A Step Into the Future

We, the Senior Class of '66, are honored to dedicate the El Lobo yearbook to Mr. Marlan Walker, a man who has devoted much time to students and activities at Basic High School and is always an available friend to any student who desires special help. He serves as the Head of the Language Department at Basic High School. Mr. Walker sponsors the Spanish Club, the Aristocrats, and the Latin Club which were established to promote the usage of the language he teaches, and to quote Mr. Walker, "I am interested in anything that will foment the foreign language program." He gives unstintingly of his vacation time to organizing and sponsoring student trips to Mexico in an effort to further an interest in the languages. These trips are for the purpose of not only gaining practical experience in conversing in a foreign language but also to observe the customs and points of interest in our neighboring country, Mexico.

In addition to his regular classes and club sponsorship at Basic High School, he also teaches a Spanish class at Nevada Southern University. Mr. Walker was formerly the Bishop of the First Ward of the Latter Day Saints Church and is at present Stake Seminary President and Second Councilor in the Stake Presidency. He is an outstanding member of his community and contributes greatly to its progress.

We hope this dedication will make up in some small way for the countless hours, days, and weeks that he has spent making many opportunities available to the students of Basic High School.

To the Class of '66

Since the beginning of his time on this earth, man has applied his intelligence to the unraveling of the riddles of his environment. The sum total of his achievement to this day we term as Knowledge. It has been learned that by applying this Knowledge, more rapid progress can be made in discovering the answers to the riddles yet unsolved. The process by which each human being gains an understanding of this Knowledge is termed Learning. People who achieve a significantly high degree of mastery in the understanding of certain aspects of this Knowledge try to help others to learn; these people we address as teachers.

This teaching-learning process is a matter of yesterday and today. Of all the riddles of his environment, none is more fascinating, challenging and intriguing than the riddle of Tomorrow—that "STEP IN THE FUTURE."

Little has been added to the Knowledge of tomorrow since the dawn of the first day. What little has been learned is frightening. Let us take a "STEP IN THE FUTURE!"

What Knowledge we have of tomorrow seems to tell us that certain forces in our world are catapulting cataclysmically toward vigorous inexorable conditions that would be intolerable to the continued existence of man. Growth in our population is out-running our ability to produce food, two-thirds of all people do not have enough to eat! A thermo nuclear war can destroy our world! Our natural resources, coal, oil, minerals and even water will be totally depleted; air pollution poses a threat for human annihilation. Death on the highways and in the air dooms a major portion of our population! Juvenile delinquency; the deterioration of family life; degeneration of law and order; racial hatreds uncontrolled; these are the riddles of "A STEP IN THE FUTURE."

But what of hope for tomorrow? Complete mastery of disease? Routine travel to the moon, planets and even other galaxies? Less time required for work and more time for learning and relaxation? More of the good things of life for every human being?

Yes, "A STEP IN THE FUTURE" can be thrillingly beautiful. It is yours for your labor.

Budgets and Program Planning Occupy School Board Time

The School Board of Trustees, as the governing body, formulates the policies of the school district. The Board welcomes teachers, parents, and the general public to its meetings because attendance shows a continuing community interest in ten public schools.

Members of the audience are encouraged to express their views concerning the matters under discussion. However, rules and regulations have been established because of limited time.

The Board meets regularly on the second and fourth Thursdays of each month at 8:00 in the Board Room of the Clark County School District Education Center to discuss all business that requires immediate action. Special meetings are called by the President when pressing business is at hand, or upon written request of three of the Board Members.

All the members of the School Board are deeply interested in the welfare of the students in the Clark County School District. They are persons of varied occupations, from housewife to doctor, but every one of them has spent much time working with youth. They are concerned with making our school district most efficient so that we as students can obtain the best possible education.

Good Luck Class of '66

Basic High School
Pacific Avenue
Henderson, Nevada 89015
October 12, 1965

To The Class of 1966:

The future is tomorrow—but, tomorrow becomes today—and, today becomes yesterday.

I hope that each one of you is acutely aware that you are not living in a static society. Even though each future still has its foundation in the present and the past, today's time dimension—when related to changing events—is very brief. One cannot indulge in lengthy procrastination in his pursuit of a bright future; if he does, the gap between what was and what is becomes insurmountable.

One of the most common forms of procrastination is the substitution of wishful thinking for positive action. This is perhaps the most effective way of assuring that your future will be your dead past. Except for acts of God or nature, events don't just happen. They are most often the results of either deliberate actions or the failure to take deliberate actions.

Please don't let this graduation be your first and last step into the future. Rather, let it be the first of many well-planned and well-timed steps; then I know you will achieve the bright future each one of you deserves.

Respectfully yours,

John A. Dooley

John A. Dooley,
Principal

Estes McDoniel, Assistant Principal

Basic High School students are very fortunate to have such members of the school administration as Mr. McDoniel, Mrs. White, and Mr. Smith to help us through various problems we may incur.

Mr. McDoniel, Assistant Principal, serves in the supervisory capacity. He is the general supervisor of athletics but also devotes time to organizing intermural and intramural activities. It is his duty to approve and schedule all assemblies and to co-ordinate the calendar of activities for the school year. Mr. McDoniel is responsible for all citizenship records and original referrals of discipline. Arranging for substitute teachers is another one of his important duties.

Mrs. White, Dean of Girls, is primarily concerned with activities. Her duties include the coordinating of the school clubs and activities calendars. Textbooks and stock and non-stock requisition are under her control. Mrs. White is responsible for correlating the honor rolls and for organizing student secretarial and clerical work.

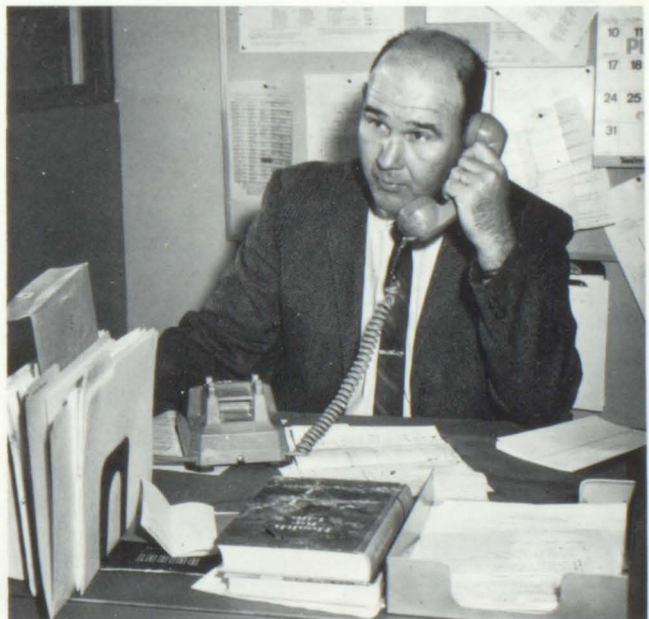

Mr. Smith, Dean of Boys, works in co-ordinating the bus schedules and student transportation. He is also responsible for injury care and reports of accidents and student insurance. Mr. Smith is the Assistant Athletic Supervisor and Chairman of the Physical Education and Drivers' Education Department. Attendance admits and audio-visual materials and supplies are also under his supervision.

. . . and Sore Feet

Since a few minor wrinkles have been ironed out of the phase system, it has become an extremely successful addition to the English program. Through this method, students are given a more specialized program of study. During their first three years of high school, students are subjected to courses in composition, literature, and oral communications. Senior English prepares college-bound students for the many difficult writing assignments they may encounter in a continuance of their education.

Foreign languages afford an escape from the monotony of everyday language. Many hours of study are required to master any language, but with the help of a fine group of teachers and instructional aids such as tape recordings, records, and the facilities of the language laboratory, many students are able to conquer the foe in three or four years of continuous work. Students are taught the customs and background of the native people while they learn to read, write, and converse in the language.

For those who have a lot of air and know how to use it, music falls as a natural course of study. The Music Department develops students' skills as well as provides entertainment for the Student Body and the community of Henderson. Each year the band and chorus present several concerts, and are engaged in the county musical festival. The chorus also presents an operetta or a musical. Band members are kept busy with performances at football games and basketball games, and added activities in the spring when the parade season unfurls. The Music Department at Basic is one of the school's most active faculties.

Using basic skills, the art students progress from elementary art to the more modern and complicated. An art festival is held every year in which the art students participate by displaying works of art they have completed during the school year.

Mathematics ranks as a near necessity in the modern world of rockets and computers. The math department covers a large scope from basic general math to a complex course in trigonometry and calculus. The higher phases of the program present an interesting challenge to students with exceptional abilities.

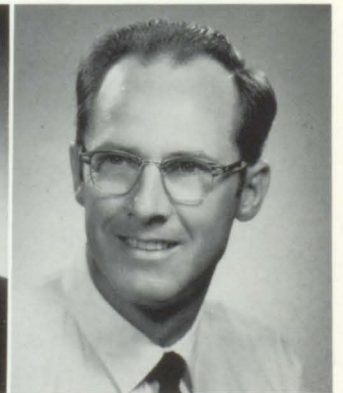

"Increased understanding of the principles of the universe and the creatures which inhabit it," could easily summarize the goals of the science department. With knowledge of the processes which take place in our universe, we are better able to adapt ourselves to its ever changing condition. Without this learning we are faced with a world of perplexing problems.

Students venturing into the arts and crafts department find a variety of challenging projects to excite their artistic abilities. The creation of ceramic and mosaic works in addition to the many other skilled applications provide an interesting prospect to the art-minded.

Industrial Education courses acquaint our young men with the skills used in the industry and technical fields. Students who wish to enter into a certain trade build their high school curriculum around a foundation of vocational training in the chosen trade. For those drawn toward architectural drawing, an extensive program of drafting is offered.

An innovation in teaching team teaching methods has been introduced to the Social Studies Department at Basic and seems to provide an interesting variety for the students involved. This new program offers the student a more complete picture of all aspects of the social sciences because of the differences of teacher opinion and background. Freshmen study world history. The field narrows to United States history for juniors, and then in government seniors reach the peak of specialization.

Would you repeat that, please?

Mr. Botts, Distributive Education Field Superintendent, has become a familiar personality to many Basic High students, especially those who are in need of a job. He is kept very busy hunting jobs for students and teaching them the proper retailing methods.

Tomorrow's bookkeepers and secretaries are today's Business Education students. This department strives to produce office personnel that will work with efficiency in the offices of tomorrows business firms.

. . . From Soup to Band-aids

In harmony with the recent drive across the nation to promote better physical health among the people of the United States, our Physical Education Department has developed an organized program of physical exercise. A combination of rigorous exercise and skill developing sports give variety to the program. Screaming muscles and aching joints often seem to be the only noticeable results of our efforts, but over a period of time, more satisfying results are obvious.

Students who have special problems are helped to get a well-rounded education through the efforts of Miss Linda Meikle, a new teacher at Basic.

For students who wish to enlarge their knowledge of literary works or for those who are forced to do research to meet the requirements of certain courses, the library waits with open doors. Students find Mrs. Martha Millick, librarian, eager to help with any problems or questions they run into in their search for understanding.

Nurses, Mrs. Katy Lee Butler and Edith Bigelow, greet ill students with a sympathetic smile and attempt to make them as comfortable as possible until the patient can be taken home.

Preparing our future homemakers for the difficult job ahead of them is the job of the Home Economics Department. The girls learn to use the proper methods by trial and error. The aroma that sometimes envelops the home economics living area may not be too pleasant, but maybe it will save discomfort in the future.

Whenever a student encounters a problem, the counselors are the first to be considered as the means of finding a solution. The counselors and secretaries are kept from boredom with an ever varying schedule of duties. Students receive help without ever being aware of it when they are presented with a carefully selected schedule of classes at the beginning of the year.

Other duties of the counseling and secretarial staffs include: sending and receiving transcripts, enrolling new students, administering achievement and college board tests, securing scholarships for worthy students, and handling the foreign exchange student program.

Keeping us full and happy are the jobs of Joyce Diggins, Clara Patton, Dona Allen, Joan Mortensen, Barbara Bradshaw, Wanda Gibson, and Marguerite Evans, Manager.

Keeping every crack and crevice clean occupies the time of Homer Everly, Ralph Newell, Russell Shaffer, Jim Martinez, Harold McCoy, and Lawrence Anderson.

Making Basic High School the best is the aim of Jim Gibson, President; Wendy Dietrich, Secretary; Kerrie Sullivan, Treasurer; and Clarence Swinney, Vice-President.

These Students Pilot Our Government

Our Student Council held its first meeting in Room 38 on September 10 and began scheduling and discussing the activities for the new school year. Jim Gibson, President of the Student Council, called the meeting to order and led the Pledge of Allegiance . . . Wendy Dietrich, Secretary, called roll . . . Treasurer Kerrie Sullivan gave the treasurer's report, and Mr. Dooley, Principal, attended and advised the Council on various matters of importance. This was the procedure followed for each of the succeeding meetings as the Council became actively engaged in many school activities.

Student Council is the governing body of Basic High School. The members attend meetings and establish the school policies and procedures. It is the policy of the Student Council to award Silver "B" pins to students who have shown outstanding qualities in academic and extracurricular activities.

Student Council money-making projects included sponsoring after-game dances and painting the names of students on their respective student parking lot spaces. Student Council also entered an elaborately decorated float in the Homecoming Parade.

Outside regularly scheduled meetings Student Council members also attend joint meetings with the surrounding area high schools to collaborate their ideas and to inform the other high schools of our school projects and aims.

Seniors: Randall Whitney, Mary Lee, Pete Arkell, Vickie Howes and Les Charles.

Juniors: Dennis Ballew, Rick Heitert, Floyd Martinez, Lindsay Wurzer, Cindie Bray, and Linda Bowling.

Good Representation Is Important in Student Government

Representatives are responsible for attending the Student Council meetings and reporting to their individual classes the topics discussed and the outcome of each. It is their duty to obtain constructive suggestions from their fellow students and present these suggestions to the Student Council for their discussion and approval. They plan the special activities which occur during the school year such as the Homecoming Parade, car caravans, and Bermuda Shorts Day.

SENIORS

Leading the best class are Lee Erickson, Secretary; John Williams, Vice-President; Joe Tram, President; and Karen Eck, Treasurer.

Seniors Lead the Way

We seniors are nearing one of the goals of our lives. Since we first entered school, our ambition has been to graduate from high school.

Now that we are at the threshold, most of us are reluctant to leave the security of regular routine and venture to the unknown. The knowledge and friendships we have acquired will be stored in our memory forever.

Most of us have survived the numerous ordeals presented over the past year such as six weeks examinations, phase tests, various entrance tests for college, try-outs for plays, clubs, and sports. At the time these occurred, we thought they were great challenges. We tackled the job, and when it was completed, we felt satisfaction.

We now face a new and different challenge: further education, service to our country, employment, or marriage. These tests cannot be judged by answers on paper. They can only be fulfilled by what we have acquired, acknowledged, and accepted over the past four years.

As we go through life, each of us gives part of ourself to everyone with whom we have contact. The class of 1966 hopes to leave our very best to each of you.

The pink rose has been chosen as our flower with wine and pink for the class colors.

Today, more than ever before, great stress is placed on knowledge. Where but at Basic High School could we obtain a more basic and complete knowledge to STEP INTO THE FUTURE.

A special thanks goes to our advisors, Mr. Beatty, Mr. Empson, Mr. Huffey, and Mrs. McDaniel who have done a wonderful job helping us.

DEBBIE WINNINGHAM SPENDS SUMMER IN AUSTRIA

Dear Basic High:

After an exciting flight to New York City, a wonderful ten days with 650 other AFSers on board ship, a 20-hour train trip through Germany, and a four-day stay at a private boarding school with the three oldest of my boat family, I was finally in Austria!!!

Such a life! No rat-race for money; people took time to really enjoy life. I lived in a doctor's family. If he felt like taking the afternoon off, he did. Austria, like most European countries, is a country of "socialized" medicine, but his income was still in the upper-crust of society.

The country was beautiful. There were many peasants still wearing their native costumes and using horses for a great deal of the farm hauling. Everything was so green that it was like a fairytale. Even in what the natives called weed fields, there were millions and millions of tiny flowers. Much of the city I was in dated back 2,000 years to the time of Roman Occupation. A lot of the roads are still granite cobblestones, and there wasn't a single back street, alley, or sidewalk that wasn't paved. Shop-owners all lived above their shops on the main streets of Austrian towns. I lived above a clothes shop, and on the second floor was my host father's office. The many old styles of architecture were fascinating—most of the churches date from the prosperous and rich Baroque period. Also seen were some Gothic and Romanesque styles. Austria seemed quite prosperous. There was much road work being done, and many shops also. A lot of it, I was told, was the last of the War reconstruction. After the War, this part of Austria was occupied by the Americans, and surprisingly, there didn't seem to be very much animosity against us in the minds of the people.

The people were mostly good-looking. The wonderful friendliness of the people, as a whole, was almost overwhelming. The children all looked like Hansel and Gretel, and the babies had the biggest faces I had ever seen.

I went with Dr. Steidel on his country calls sometimes, and some of them were like stepping back in time; others were like the most modern farms in America. Here a farmer's wealth is still, to some degree, the number of cows he has.

My second family lived high in the Austrian Alps, near Salzburg. Every week we took ten-mile hikes to the tops of the surrounding mountain peaks. All the breath-taking views were like scenes from "Sound of Music."

I was also lucky enough to spend a week in Vienna. I think this must be one of the most beautiful cities in the world. Here I saw the Lippizaner Horses perform.

Yes, this was truly a wonderful experience. I only wish you all could have shared it with me. Someday after I've learned a lot more German, I'd like to go back and talk again with these wonderful people.

Debbie Winningham

To teachers and students:

I would like to tell you how glad I am to have the opportunity to stay here in Henderson, and to attend Basic High. I believe that I have seen most aspects of American life this year, good and less good. U.S.A. being the leading nation in the World, it means a lot to an European to see what life in U.S.A. really is like.

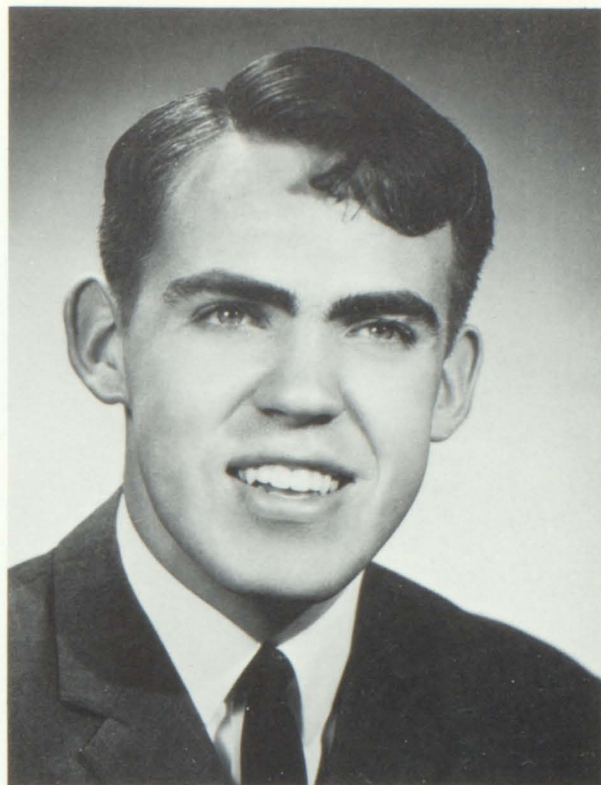

I also would like to thank you all for what you have done for me. From my very first day here, I have felt welcome among you, and every one of you has contributed to make this year here the wonderful experience it has been for me.

On my part, I hope that I have given you a little new knowledge about what things are like in my part of the world. In many ways life in Norway is quite similar to that in the U.S. but the dissimilar background of people in our two countries makes a big difference in some fields. I shall be very happy if I have answered some of the questions you might have had about Norway, in a satisfactory way.

I feel that I have many good friends here, and my memories from Henderson and Basic High will be only the best.

Thank you.

Bjørn O. Bergholtz

UNDERCLASSMEN

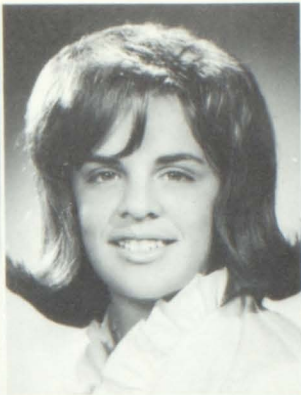

At the head of the junior class are Danny Hill, Vice-President; Mary Ann Miller, Secretary; Steve Augspurger, President; and Kathy Wooten, Treasurer.

Hang On, We've Almost Made It!

The time that we have waited for so long is finally here; we have completed our junior year and are going to be seniors. We look back at a year filled with laughter and anticipation. Between decorating for the Junior Prom, preparing for the Junior Carnival and Slave Sale, and ordering class rings, we found that we were studiously involved with stacks of books until the late hours of the night. Now we see the seniors going for the last time to the school they love, and we wonder what our feelings will be at this time next year.

We appreciate the work done by our advisors, Mrs. Geuder, Mr. Ruth, Mr. Horan, and Miss Meikle who have done a wonderful job helping us.

Juniors Stage Carnival

"Don't you think we're too young?"

Nothin' says lovin' like somethin' from the oven.

Help! I need somebody!

Hi-Ho, Smalley!

Planning the sophomore activities are Cynthia Pagan, Treas.; Candy England, Secretary; Ted Schutz, President; and Mike Kelly, Vice-President.

Two Down, Two to Go

As the year now ends, a sophomore looks back on what he has done with pride. He knows he has had to work hard to leave the immaturity and the undergrads and is now looking forward to the responsibilities of adulthood. The sophomores proved to be hard workers this year when they produced a successful Sophomore Reverse. A sophomore has shown his youthful spirit at pep assemblies and at football games. If he has shown his spirit at these places and not around the corridors, he may then call himself a mature person. To be a leader in later years, an under classman must have established his rules in life before joining the upper classmen.

We would like to thank our sponsors, Mr. Purcell, Mr. Workman, Mr. Burgwardt, and Miss Walsh who have helped us through this year.

A munchy bunch aren't they?

So that's what we are having for dinner.

Leading the Freshman Class are Gary Smith, President; Marsha Irons, Vice-President; Shelley Sanders, Secretary; and Vicky McGinty, Treasurer.

Look Out, Here We Come!

We are Freshmen . . . Yes, everyone has to start somewhere. As freshmen, we admire the upper classmen, and wonder what it will be like when we reach that age. We find the school work much harder and we realize that we're going to have to work to achieve good grades. Although we are the slaves, freshmen aren't all bad . . . Who won the competition cheer? And who won the trophy for the best Homecoming float? So you see, you've got something coming up for you. We have many things planned for the future years to make Basic High a greater school. Basic High is opening it's doors to our future achievement. Basic we hail thee . . . we are proud to be freshmen, and we hope we will make Basic proud of us.

Our special thanks go to our sponsors: Mrs. Anderson, Mr. Shiles, Mr. Creaks, Mrs. Hysong.

National Honor Society has one main purpose, to promote scholarship. It does this by the use of films, having speakers, and tutoring students who need help. National Honor Society also has several projects during the year to earn money. Most of the money is used to give a scholarship to some deserving senior in National Honor Society. Only students with at least a 3.00 average are eligible. Freshmen are not eligible.

Los Aristocratas Dicen "Hola"

Los aristócratas es un club formado por estudiantes que cursan el tercer o cuarto año de Español. En nuestras reuniones, que son celebradas en las casas de los miembros, se practica y habla el Español además de gozar de comida española. También tenemos otras actividades, tales como un viaje a la frontera de México, cantar los villancicos de Navidad, y mirar películas españolas. El señor Walker, nuestro director, ha dedicado mucho de su tiempo para hacer un éxito de esta organización.

The Spanish Club is the largest, most active, and most popular language club on the Basic High School campus. The successfulness of this club can be attributed to the club's many activities and the members' enthusiastic participation in these activities. The initiation banquet, the Christmas celebration, and monthly club meetings are the highlights of the club's yearly calendar. Señor Walker, the club's sponsor, and the elected club officers work diligently each year to make their club the best. The Spanish Club solicits the membership of all Spanish students that are willing to work for a good time.

Voulez-vous vous joindre a notre cercle? Il ne vous faut que parler en peu de francais. Puis vous pouvez assister a nos réunions et prendre part de nos activités diverses et amusantes.

A nos réunions nous essayons d'augmenter notre connaissance de la France et des Francais. De temps en temps nous avons des fetes avec les membres des autres cercles d'étudiants de langues ici a notre lycée. Nous avons, par exemple, une grande fete de Noel, ou tout le monde chante des chansons de Noel en francais, en espagnol, en allemand et en latin. Les Espagnols y apportent toujours leur "piñata" et tout le monde chante des chansons de cher les bonbons la-dedans.

Si vous voulez vous amuser bien et faire la connaissance de la France et des Francais aussi, nous vous ferons bon accueil a notre cercle!

Les étudiants du Francais Parlent avec "culture."

The German Club for 1965 is a select group of people who stress the understanding of the German speaking peoples of the world.

The Executive Committee, or officers and Mr. Reber, drew up the constitution for the club during the earliest part of this year, and embodied within its content is the above statement, to be followed by all future generations of German Club.

At the beginning of each year all new members are allowed the privilege of participation in traditional initiation, an excellent example of tyranny and persecution; Es tut mir leid.

German Club also hails freedom of opportunity and loyalty to Basic High and the United States.

Et Tu Brute?

The long and glorious reign of the Romans is about to end again. This is the last year for Latin Club. Its members study Roman culture and traditions. They hear speakers on Roman life and they try to observe artifacts from the old world. The two greatest activities of the Latin Club are the initiation banquet and the joint language club Christmas party. The officers have accepted Roman names: Pontifex, Maximus, Consul, Quator, Praetor, and Aedile.

The Future Nurses Club gives girls who are interested in medicine an insight into the medical profession. This is achieved by having guest speakers such as doctors, nurses, dental hygienists, and others who speak on relative topics to their profession. Films, film strips, and demonstrations are given to help the girls better understand the topic. Also, every year we visit one of the hospitals in the Vegas Valley area. This year we plan to visit the new Health Center.

Mrs. Tabor, Mrs. Rose, and Mrs. Phillips from the Womens Medical Auxiliary are in attendance at and participate in the meetings. We are fortunate to have as our sponsor Mrs. Butler, who is also our school nurse.

Through this club, we as future nurses, gain an insight into the medical field and prospective careers.

The Future Homemakers of America is the national organization of students studying homemaking in junior and senior high schools. Future Homemaker activities extend and enrich homemaking education classroom experiences. The goal of the Future Homemakers of America is to help individuals improve personal, family, and community living.

The State officers are elected annually, two from each of the five statewide districts. Last year Sue Ann Steiner was privileged to represent Basic as a state officer. This year Kay Steiner, who is the President of the Basic chapter, received the honor on being elected State Historian.

This year's chapter activities include: The District Round-Up, the State Convention, the Sweetheart Ball, and many money-earning projects to help enlarge our scholarship fund.

Future Teachers of America is a national organization designed especially for students who are interested in teaching. At the beginning of each year, we have a barbeque for new members, and at the end of the year, the underclassmen prepare a dinner in honor of the seniors in the club, the club alumnae, and Mr. Burkholder, our chapter's namesake.

Future Teachers of America's activities are not only of the "hail-and-farewell" variety. This year we sent representatives to the Nevada State Future Teachers of America convention in Fallon, Nevada. We celebrated Halloween with a Hobo-Pie Party, and we have projects and functions planned for the future.

The Business Career Club is an organization designed for the primary purpose of introducing the business world to the future business leaders of Basic High School.

Through the year a variety of different programs are presented to stimulate and guide club members. In the past years, we have had skits, field trips, speakers, and films. Also, there have been demonstrations by cosmetic experts and modeling representatives to show the proper way to wear make-up and dress at school and on the job.

During the last part of the year we have speakers representing several different phases of office work. This year we expect to have a secretary, an office executive, and a local personnel director to speak to the club.

We hope that at the end of each year, the future office worker from Basic High School will have a better insight into the business world.

Interact Promotes Better Understanding Between Nations

The Interact Club was formed on October of 1965. It is the first Interact Club formed at Basic High. The club is sponsored by the Henderson Rotary Club. The main projects include service to our school, community, country, and international relations. There are 30 boys in Interact which include 15 seniors, 10 juniors and 5 sophomores. Interact meets every second and fourth Monday of each month. The fourth Monday is reserved for the monthly dinner and program.

“Safety First”, Say Our Delegates To The Governor’s Safety Council

Last December, the Nevada Youth Traffic Safety Association held its fourth annual conference in Carson City. At the conference were representatives from every high school in Nevada. The delegates discussed various aspects of traffic safety within the state.

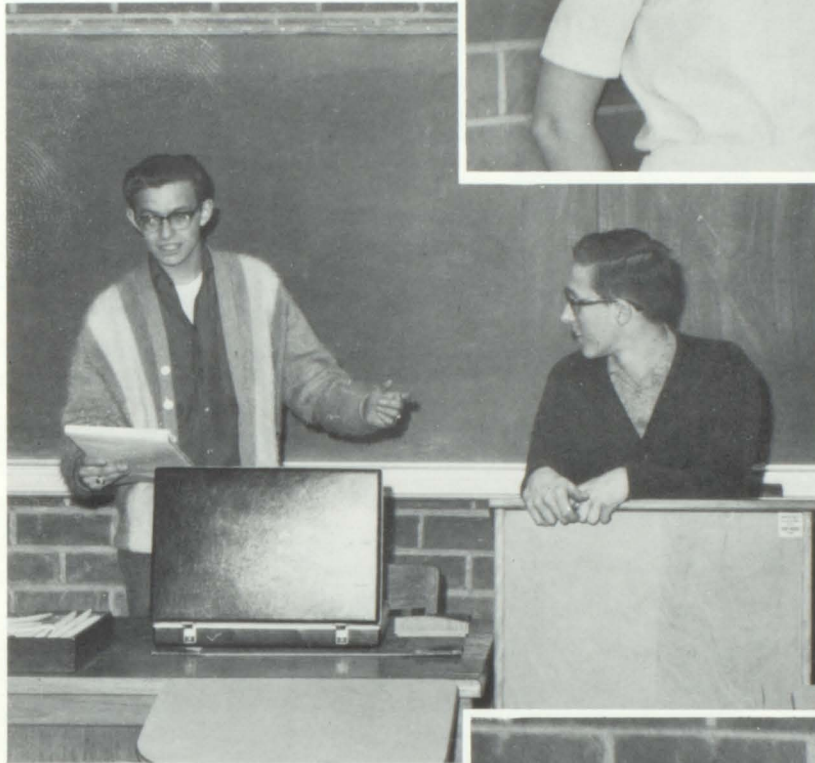

At the conference it was voted to change the name of the organization to the Nevada Youth Safety Association. By doing this, they broadened their field of safety. It now includes all areas of safety within the state from home safety to mine safety.

The organization is sponsored jointly by Harrah’s Club in Reno, the Nevada P.T.A. and the Nevada Safety Council.

This season, debate teams throughout the country have had as their topic, Resolved: that the Federal government should adopt a program of compulsory arbitration in labor-management disputes in basic industries. This is the third year that the Basic teams, under the direction of Gerald Parsons, participated in county and state tournaments. The debaters have put forth a great deal of effort in order to represent Basic well at the contests.

Distributive Education is a program of instruction which teaches marketing, merchandising, and management. The Distributive Education Clubs of America, DECA, is a program of youth activities which supplements Distributive Education. DECA's goals are (1) to develop a respect for education which will contribute to vocational competence and (2) to promote understanding and appreciation for the responsibilities of citizenship in our free, competitive enterprise system.

Basic High School received its Charter on April 4, 1961, when Mr. Ben Cowan was D.E. Coordinator.

DECA members believe in competition. The free enterprise system has been the key to the growth of our great American economic system. Under this system we have a free choice, free market, the right to compete, and rewards for work.

The Trade and Industry Club is a service organization, organized to serve Basic High School. It has undertaken many worthwhile projects in order to make Basic High a better school.

In the past, Trade and Industry Club has made the sign on top of the gymnasium, repaired and repainted the benches on campus, and also the football benches. It made the letters for the bulletin board by the office, and sold license plates denoting we are from Basic High School.

Trade and Industry Club entered floats in the Industrial Days Parade last year and in the Homecoming Parade this year. We had a Hot Dog Roast at Boulder Beach and two taco parties, both held at the home of our sponsor, Mr. Lawrence.

Heading the Pep Club are Mary Lee, Secretary; Karen Eck, President; Patsy Sena, Treasurer; Lee Erickson, Vice-President.

Contributing pep and color to the varsity sport activities were the girls in the Basic High Pep Club. Along with learning new cheers and handmovements, the girls undertook the responsibility of forming a card section. Other activities included taking a bus trip to Needles and building a float for the Homecoming Parade. The girls were quite proud of their float and should have been—it won first place in its division!!

The 1966 El Lobo staff sought to produce an annual that Basic High students would both enjoy and cherish. The staff members strived for clever captions, informative copy, interesting lay-outs, and eye-appealing ads. The staff worked many hours and made tireless efforts which we felt proved to be worthwhile when the 1966 annual was completed.

A special acknowledgement and appreciation goes to Mrs. Verdena Purcell, El Lobo advisor, who gave of her time and guided the staff members and photographers in all the various aspects of yearbook production.

the Lone wolf

Carol Sessions, Editor; Mr. Beatty, Advisor; Les Charles, Sports Ed.; Clarence Swinney, Asst. Sports Ed.

This year, the members of the journalism class have dedicated their time and effort toward improving Basic High School's school paper.

The name of the paper was changed from the Lobo News to The Lone Wolf, and was published five times a year.

Every issue was planned with originality of make-up as the key factor. This, coupled with complete and accurate coverage of Basic High School news and events, provided a busy year for the journalism students.

Before each issue could be published, the editor made page editor assignments. The actual work was then assigned by the page editors and the reporters were directly responsible to the page editors.

The stories had to be first written from the information gathered by the reporters.

The stories or "copy" as it is called were then typed and copy-read for errors. After corrections had been made, the stories were retyped and copy read a second time. By the time the copy was ready to go to the printers, each reporter knew his story word for word.

The last few days before the printer's deadline, the journalism class was involved in much activity. Lay-outs had to be planned, cuts were cropped, headlines had to be written, and always the last minute problems occurred concerning too much copy for one page, and not enough copy for another page. Somehow, the deadlines were met, and The Lone Wolf went to press on time.

If the students enjoyed reading the school paper this year, and believe it reported the events at Basic High accurately, adequately and fairly, then The Lone Wolf staff believes the year was worthwhile.

Students Speak Out At Sun Youth Forum

Each November students from Clark County high schools meet at the Convention Center to discuss current affairs and express their opinions. The selected topics this year were: International Affairs, National Affairs, State and Local Affairs, Education, Civil Rights, Juvenile Affairs, and Man in Our Society.

Outstanding students of the various groups are chosen to summarize the discussion that took place during the day. Kim Patterson was the only summarizer from Basic.

After a long day of discussion and hard work, the students were entertained by the Checkmates, Trini Lopez, and Reese and Martin.

Tassels, Boots, and Gloves

Every year many girls try out for Desertaires, but only the twenty-six highest rated are chosen. These girls, selected by faculty members, are judged on posture, poise, personality, rhythm, and must maintain a high scholastic average. This year eighteen new Desertaires were welcomed into the group, while eight second year members returned. They often march upon request for various parades, benefits, and football and basketball games. Each year begins with installation of officers and ends with an awards banquet in May, which marks the close of another year of drill. But even though the year has come to an end, they will never forget the early morning practices, the fund raising activities, the bus trips to and from Las Vegas, the diligent work that went into each performance, the frustrations, and most of all, the joy of success.

The American Field Service Winter Program was founded in 1947. Its purpose from the beginning has been to create greater understanding between peoples of the world by bringing students from abroad to study in the United States secondary schools and live with families in America for a year,

The Americans Abroad Programs are an outgrowth of the Winter Program and were started by returnees who, once they had returned home, wanted to give young Americans a similar opportunity to understand another country. There are now two phases of the Americans Abroad Programs—The Summer Program which was initiated in 1950 and the School Program which began in 1957.

The Americans Abroad Programs involve family and school experiences and present intellectual and personal challenges which add greatly to the student's education and general awareness.

The Henderson Chapter of the American Field Service was formed in the fall of 1964 with Mr. Loren Anderson serving as its first president. Mr. Frank Rocha was elected Coordinator of the Students Abroad Committee and Mrs. Joe McBeath headed the committee for the selection of a home for incoming exchange students. These officers were retained for a second year thru 1966.

SEASON ENDS WITH CROWNING OF QUEEN KATHY

Lee Erickson, Patty Green, Pat Bowling, Sonny Hopkins, Queen Kathy Davis, Jim Campbell, Shirley Barton, Karen Campbell, Arlan Crowl, Vickie Howes.

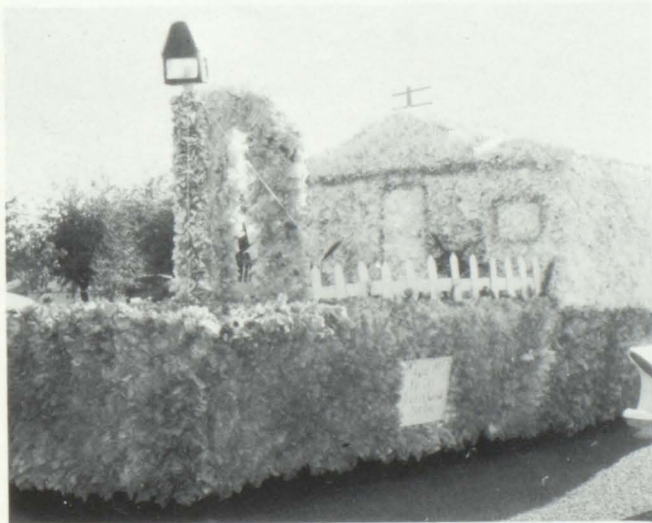

The 1965 Homecoming celebration, "My Fair Lady", was once again filled with the last minute rush to finish the floats and the throne; but when the wheels finally rolled, there was a feeling of relief and accomplishment.

The Homecoming parade triggered the events, followed by our victory over Valley High School that evening. The prelude to the game was the crowning of our Queen, Kathy Davis. The band and the Desertaires combined efforts at halftime to honor and entertain the alumni and students of Basic High School.

The Homecoming dance climaxed the two-day festivity. Following the theme, the Multi-Purpose room was decorated as a flower garden. Everyone's endeavors made it truly a success.

J.V.'S ADD SPIRIT TO JUNIOR VARSITY SPORTS

We're from Basic and we're the best,
We've got the team that meets the test,
We're gonna win over all the rest,
Because our boys have ZEST!!!

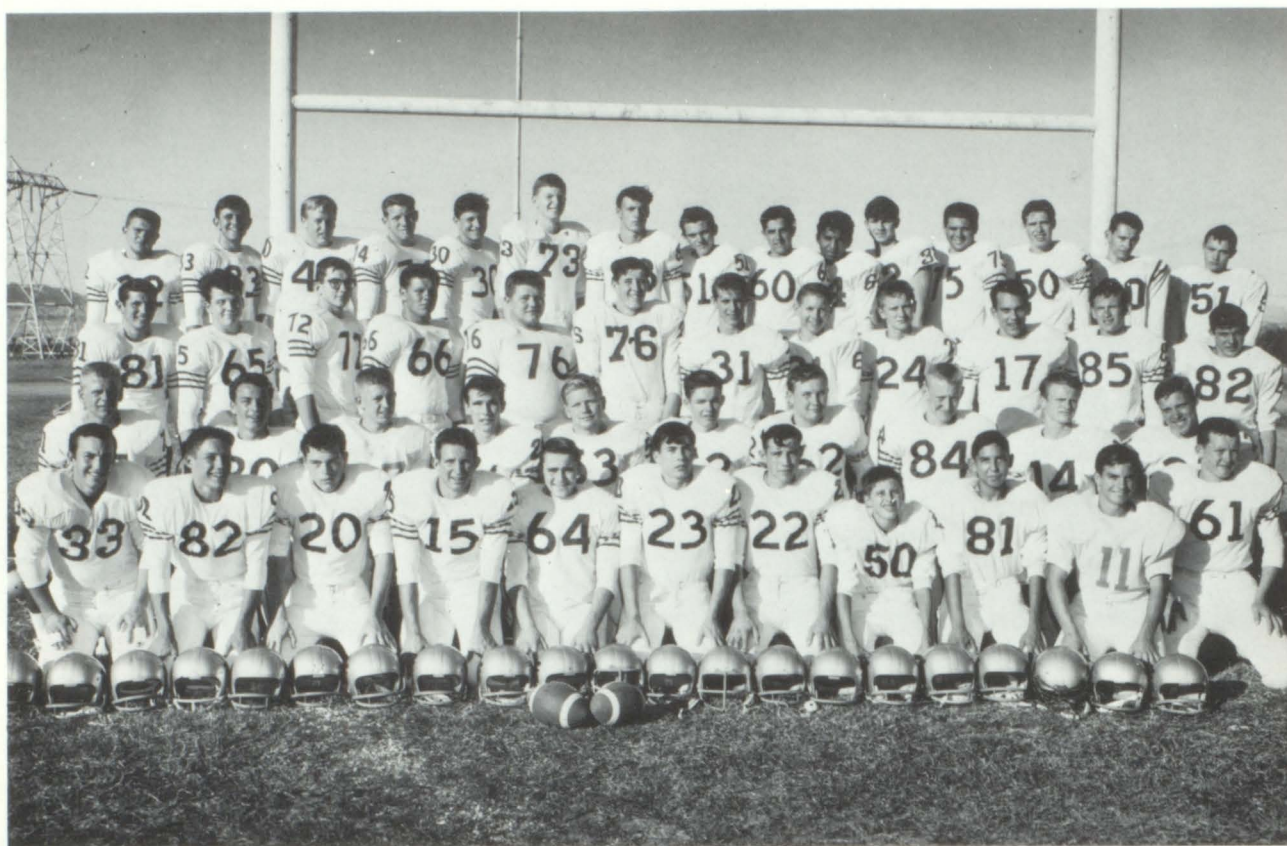

As in the past, the varsity cheerleaders led the Wolves to victory. The cheerleaders did much to promote school spirit by introducing many new cheers in the pep assemblies. They also presented many interesting and exciting skits which made the year more enjoyable. The year 1966 was truly one of the most spirited years Basic has ever had.

Bob Radley

Joe Tram and Jim Campbell were outstanding both on offense and defense. Tram's 90 tackles and Campbell's 89 are good reasons for both of them to be named MOST VALUABLE PLAYERS. Both Joe and Jim played the positions of defensive and offensive tackles.

A second award will go to the OUTSTANDING DEFENSIVE PLAYER. For his hard and timely tackles and great pass defense, Bob Radley receives this award. Bob was an outstanding player in his positions of left halfback and defensive safety, and is a worthy recipient of this award.

Sonny Hopkins

This year Basic gives another award to an outstanding football player, the MOST INSPIRATIONAL PLAYER. The receiver of this award is Sonny Hopkins for his high spirit throughout the season and his giving this high spirit to the rest of the team. Sonny played offensive fullback and defensive line-backer. We hope the presentation of this trophy will become another Basic tradition.

Coach Shellinger graduated from the University of Wyoming. Mr. Shellinger was the first Recreational Director of Henderson. A year later he became a full-time teacher and was appointed assistant football coach and assistant basketball coach. His most successful year at Basic was 1961 when the team was first in the Zone Tournament, and was runner-up in State. The students would also like to acknowledge Mr. Shellinger for the fine plaques now hanging in the gym.

The 1965-66 Basic High School basketball team has been a fine group of young men to coach. I feel they always gave 100% maximum performance in practice as well as the game. If I were to use two words to describe these young men, I would say they were dedicated and devoted to both basketball and Basic High School.

This group had a keen desire to continually improve and would never accept the fact they might be out-manned. Their background proved that this is the type of man we are proud to graduate from Basic High School.

Special recognition for outstanding performances and contributions to our Basketball Team, the Administration, teachers, Pep Band, Cheerleaders, Pep club, Custodians, and most of all the Students of Basic High School, who went far beyond the call of duty in the support of our team.

THE 1966 BASIC HIGH TRACK TEAM

On Your Mark—

Coaches Ken Reber and Jim Kibler

Although the Basic Wolves are not looked upon as threats in the "AAA" division of track, they do plan a few pleasant surprises in certain events. The returning lettermen and newcomers with a bright future will add depth and confidence to the squad.

Returning lettermen are Steve McDonald, Stuart McDonald, Bill Cox, Bob Radley, Martin Puschnig, Jordan Dodd, Steve Pittman and Mike Galbraith.

Newcomers who show promise are Bjorn Berg-holtz, Charles Morris, Rick Cox, and Dan Higley.

We are weakest in the field events and strongest in the relays and distance events. Last year our relays went to state and this year we hope to represent Basic once again in the state meet. We have a great deal of speed this year, and our distance and field events should improve. Our hurdlers are working hard and should be pretty good this season. We hope to send someone to state in shot put and discus. Our sprint men are improving immensely and should have a very good season.

Our coaches this year, Mr. Kibler and Mr. Reber, have really helped; with their help and our spirit, we should have a very good season.

Tennis is one of the newer sports at Basic High School. This is the second year as a recognized sport, and Basic is well represented in the County. Fifteen boys compete for a chance to represent their school on the courts. Each player deserves special commendation for his efforts because it is mostly an individual effort when a game is won.

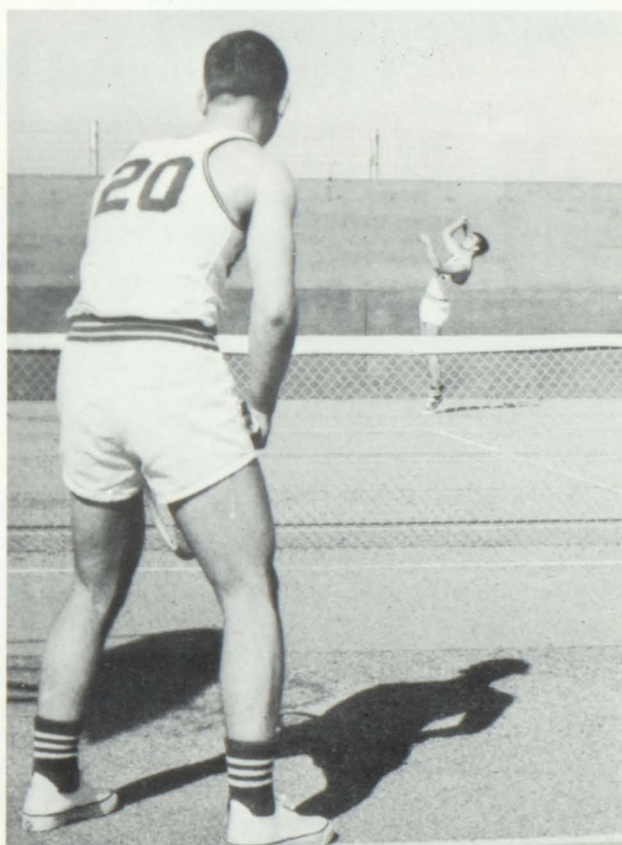

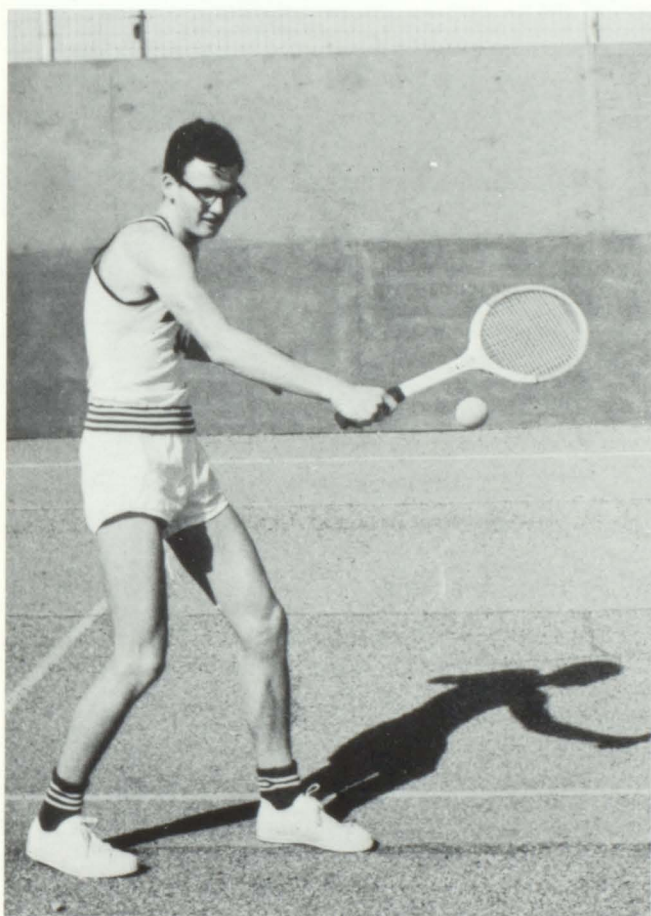

At each match, five singles—and two double games are played. The players are placed in order from one through fifteen, according to playing ability, by competing among team members. During a match the first five players play singles and the next four play doubles. The players work hard to remain in the top nine so they will be assured the opportunity of playing in the matches. The only returning lettermen from last year are Scott Bennion and Jim Blink.

Tennis is fast becoming a popular sport in the schools, and we look forward to an even more successful season next year.

They'll bowl you over

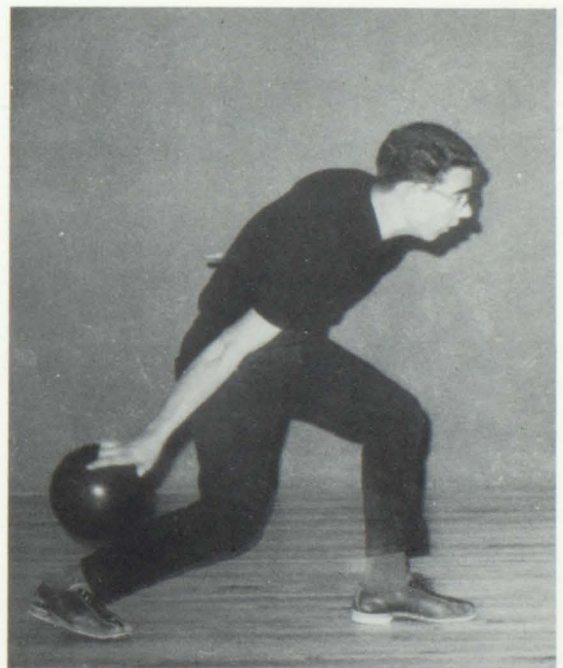

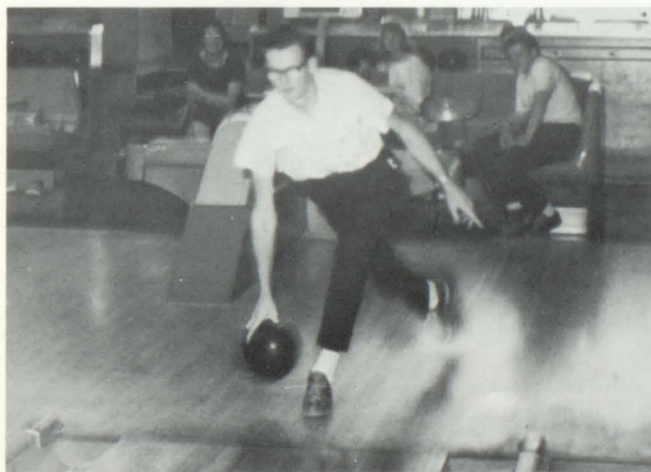

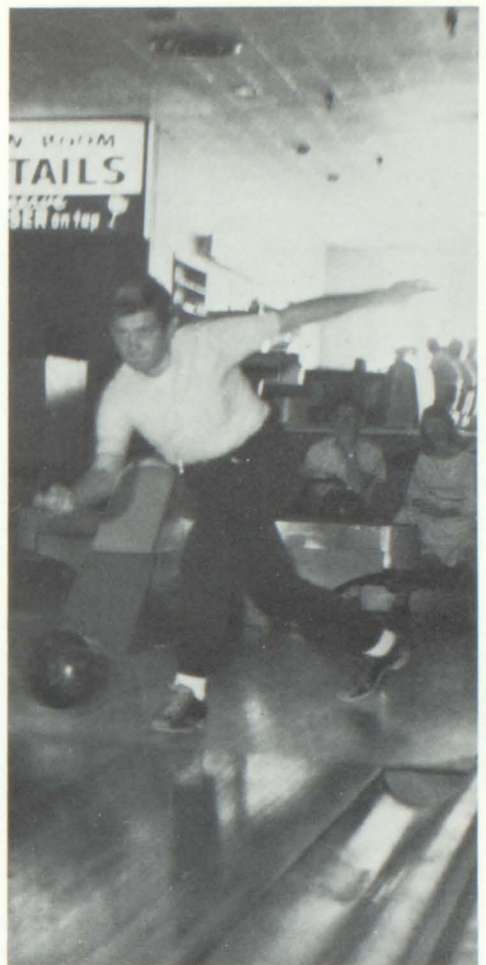

The eight team Clark County High School Bowling League is now in its second year of its existence is an outgrowth of an idea conceived by Mr. Frank Feil of Rancho High School, Mr. Frank Rocha of Basic High School and Mrs. Dorothy Robinson of Basic High School. It was felt by these three that there was a definite need for more carry over sports in the High School athletic program. These sponsors recruited Las Vegas High, Nevada Southern University and Western High School. All sponsors from these schools donated their time and transportation to help the league organize. After three years the other schools in the area joined while Nevada Southern University withdrew and presently the league includes all area high schools.

In 1964 the league received the sanction of the Clark County School District and became officially a part of the athletic program. All schools are now permitted to award monograms for varsity competition. Although only twenty bowlers represent the schools in interscholastic competition each Tuesday from November through February there are anywhere from twenty to a hundred students in each school that are directly involved in the program striving for positions on the varsity or junior varsity teams. Bowling and tennis are the only team sports in which both boys and girls compete.

Basic High School has fared well in league standings since its beginning. This year eleven of our students have received letters. This year's letter winners are: Earlene Mitchell, Lynda Wylie, Thelma Pederson, Velma Pederson, Patsy Small, Christeen Smith, Dennis Hargrove, Ray Chaffin, Terry Gray, Scott Kramer and John Henderson.

The Swingingest Sport of All!!

Jim Campbell—Senior

It appears that after an improved football season, excellent wrestling record, and fine basketball effort, Basic High School again is going to challenge "the Big Schools" for athletic domination in Southern Nevada. The 1966 Baseball Team will attempt to continue this rebirth of athletics at Basic. The team has pledged itself to work diligently and bring to the school a successful season; one the student body will be proud of.

This year's ball team is dotted with exceptional players from last year's team along with many new young faces who will be called upon to play in this "rebuilding" year. We hope to add a little interest to baseball here and encourage more students, faculty, and townspeople to take an active part in this popular game. See you at the park.

Coach Rosch

If you treat a person as he is, he will remain as he is. If you treat him as though he were what he could and should be, he will become what he could and should be.
