MORE POWER COULD MEAN 27,000 WORKERS HERE

MORRY'S STORY

BY MORRY ZENOFF

Senator Mechling goes to Washington. A tremendous public relations campaign has worked in many of the other counties—but enough in Clark County to a thousand-vote majority—enough to win over the north.

A handsome young man with a typewriter, a trailer, a wife, wins because he was in the right place at the right time. He capitalized on some public squabbles that automatically put him to jump into the role of the hero while the other side was a bunch of villains and sad sacks.

Education and background in publicity, promotion, advertising, public speaking has been the key to his victory. For it is a politician very early. He knew when to say nothing, when to say something, when to appear on the scene, when to be in the background. In writing his own radio and newspaper, he talked in generalities, yet struck at the opposition in spots that would catch on with most people.

He cannot help but feel sorry for the loser—Molly Malone.

He lacked the one thing that Mechling wins with—ability to be a politician.

He is now becoming an ex-senator. An ex-senator because he is no longer believed by the people of Nevada would re-elect him for the United States Senate's only engineer.

He figured people would understand that engineers just raised to be public relations, politicians and after-dinner speakers. He thought people would understand that he is best in a pair of engineering boots, and spread out over a man's board, or studying water tables to see whether this desert acreage could be reclaimed by irrigation. Molly would understand that he was fighting with the who spout kilowatts in order to bring power to Nevada.

Molly thought the people would understand that his power and water knowledge was what was best for the state during this period of development where one wrong engineering decision could make or break the state's future chances for a glorious industrial empire.

During the campaign, Molly would say to many of his followers—The people thought I was crazy when I said there is no available for Nevada at Shasta Dam. Then they looked and that I was right. Now they're trying to stop us from it—but I leave it to me, I can engineer a way.

Too late, Molly—

Senator Mechling goes to Washington now . . . the winner by a landslide and votes . . . the winner because he showed the writer's mightier than the engineer's drafting board.

Harmon, Foley Explain County's Part in Social Picture; Other Business

Harmon, County Commissioner, told Henderson Chamber of Commerce members that with mapping out zoning for the townsite, to give them a basis to work on a meeting on Tuesday. The meeting should be held by the local C of C, Harrogate.

Wide licensing of business in effect by the first of the year, District Attorney Rogerson announced at the session. The unincorporated status of the town was analyzed by the attorney, who cited financial reasons for not incorporating.

Taxes would be inadequate if this change were made, he indicated.

Board members were elected at the meeting, and officers will be selected soon, it was announced.

New board members are Harold Baldwin, Charles Bontrager, Loyal Burkholder, Charles Dohrenwend, James Farnsdale, Mrs. J. J. Ivary, Lou La Porta, F. A. McGonigle, Frank Plasha, Frank Schreck, Hershel Trumbo, and Harve Perry.

A committee appointed to see merchants about placing Christmas trees around the downtown section includes Morry Zenoff, Harve Perry, and Bruce Gates.

Mr. C. DeMoss Moves to Phoenix

Mr. DeMoss, local commercial artist, is moving to Phoenix, Arizona, in the coming presidential election. He will return to Henderson from Phoenix in order to vote for republican candidates he advised.

"New York stinks! I'll never go back," DeMoss said of his former home for 12 years, explaining that he is fond of the southwest. DeMoss studied at the National Academy of Design, and at the Art Students League.

A native of Iraho, DeMoss lived in Sun Valley before coming to Henderson. He is enthusiastic about Magazine Las Vegas, terming it a quality magazine on a low budget. Design and good layouts are emphasized on the monthly publication he said.

The DeMosses, who have lived at 210 Basic Road, have been married eight years and are the parents of three sons. The boys are Robert, 7, Billy, 4, and Richard, 2.

During the war the artist was with the public relations staff of the Army Air Force, stationed at Central Pacific hotspots.

Strategy Is Key to Basic-Kingman Tilt

By GEORGE HARGRAVE

Strategic football is the reason Basic remains undefeated this week. In the Kingman game on Basic's second series of downs the Wolves got on the move and didn't stop until Don Warren hit the middle of the Bulldog line for the first score. He then carried the ball over for the conversion. The ball changed hands back and forth for the remainder of the quarter.

In the second quarter the Wolves' offense began to roll, but a fumble and a Kingman recovery on the five yard line prevented them from going all the way. Tom Barksdale, Kingman's stand-out fullback, went into the end zone to punt. The punt was blocked and rolled into the end zone out of play, giving Basic two more points. The score board now showed Basic 9, Kingman 0.

It looked like Kingman was to be denied. A pass from Joe Nova to Fred Covarrubias put the ball inside the Basic 10-yard line, but the Wolves' defense stopped them cold. With a minute to go before the end of the half, Basic gambled and lost the ball on downs in the mid-field. Following three incomplete passes and with but two seconds remaining in the half, Kingman's Joe Nova went back to pass. Although Don Fietz broke through Fand it looked like Nova was nailed, he got the pass away. Fred Covarrubias was waiting to receive and ran for the touchdown. The conversion attempt was no good. Half-time score was Basic 9, Kingman 6.

Following the Basic Homecoming festivities with Queen Louise Autry and her attendants, Kingman came out and made the Basic defense look ragged as Tom Barksdale ran an end sweep for eight yards and a TD. This ended a 70-yard drive. The try for extra point was good, and for the first time this season the Wolves were on the short end of the score.

It wasn't until mid-way through the fourth quarter when Don Fietz put a nice kick on the Kingman one-yard line, and the Bulldogs' receiver, Bill Kerr, was tackled so hard he fumbled the ball which rolled into the end zone. Don Detomassi promptly fell on the ball and Basic was out in front again. The try for conversion was missed.

The last score of the game came when Virgil Weese, Basic's outstanding tailback, ran around his right end for a TD. Norman Craft's kick was good, and the final score was Basic 22, Kingman 13.

I would like to tip my hat to the Wolves' two defense halfbacks, R. Chastain and Jarry Tillman, who did a nice job in this game. But on the whole it was a "team" win.

Madge Wiley, Roy Daz Married at Rites At Little Church of the West, Las Vegas

The former Miss Madge Wiley and Sergeant Roy Daz were married on October 17 at a small informal wedding at the Little Church of the West, Hotel Last Frontier, Las Vegas.

The bride is a sixth grade teacher at Henderson grammar school, and her husband, a veteran of Korea, is stationed with the army at Camp Cook, California.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Zellar of Wells, parents of the bride, were present, and Mrs. Lucy Daz and Miss Lily Daz, mother and sister of the bridegroom, traveled from Montebello for the ceremonies. Miss Lynn Laughery and Mrs. Anne Wright also attended.

The bride, a 1951 University of Nevada graduate, was attired in a pale pink taffeta dress, with a high rolled collar in front, and a deep square neckline cut at the back. Her small, close-fitting velvet hat, also tinted pink, was trimmed with pearls. She carried an orchid, and black accessories completed the costume.

A forest green suit, complemented with black accessories, was chosen by Mrs. Zellar. Mrs. Daz wore a beige print dress, also with black accessories, and both women wore bronze-colored chrysanthemums.

Miss Jean Rhodehamel, maid-of-honor, was dressed in a navy blue two-piece dress with white hat and gloves. Her flowers were white chrysanthemums.

John Ala of Montebello was best man at the affair, and Judge A. S. Henderson officiated.

After the ceremonies, the group went to dinner at Hotel Last Frontier. The bride will continue with her teaching position, and Daz returned to camp following a weekend honeymoon.

The bridegroom, formerly a resident of Montebello, expects to be released from the service in September, 1953.

20 Percent of BHS Students Achieve First 6-Week Honor Roll, Dooley Says

About 20 percent of Basic high school students are listed on the first six-week period's honor roll, Principal J. A. Dooley announced this week. "That's a good record, but I'd like to see the percentage higher," he commented.

Phi Beta Sigma, highest "A" honorary at BHS, members include Lola Farnsworth, Pat Lansing, Nelda Prince, all seniors; sophomores are Shelia Brancfield, Edith Head, Ben McGimsey, Sandra Smith, and freshmen Jane Anne Boyce, Bernard Fumagalli, Douglas Lottridge, Sharry McBeath, John Millick, Jean Newell and Bonnie Roberts.

Seniors on the regular honor roll are Louise Autry, Gerald Clements, Barbara Davis, Bob Devlin, Don Fields, Cecelia Gonzales, Barbara Jones, Claire Korthis, Jane Lottridge, Arlene Martin, Ruth Myers, Abigail Odell, Helen Riggins, Mary Rowlinson, Mary Sanchez, Sandra Smith, Margaret Vincent, Phyllis Ware and Caryn Yeager.

Juniors are Gertrude Block, Shirley Cannon, Mary Church, Romona Church, Larry Clark,

Potluck Supper To Be Held By Altar Group

A family potluck supper honoring Father Anton Stoper, Father Peter Moran's new assistant, is scheduled for Sunday at 5 PM at the Parish hall of St. Peter's church.

St. Peter's altar society is arranging the affair, and all families of the parish are invited.

Mrs. O. J. Scherer, president of the Altar Society, extended thanks this week to all who helped to make the recent social dance a success. Mrs. Edith Brennan of Carver Park won the door prize during the evening.

Mrs. Roert Allen is chairman of the dinner party, assisted by Mesdames Gladys Crowley, Tony Gallegos, C. G. Moler, O. J. Scherer, and William Sanner.

Natural Gas Pipeline Completion Date Set for May, June, 1953, at Meeting

The natural gas pipeline will be completed in May or June of 1953, it was announced recently. Spencer A. Covell, representing Sanders and Porter, New York City, and W. D. Vance and Jerry Lauk of Las Vegas Natural Gas company, met with plant heads last weekend.

Industrial officials present included Fred Gibson, Western Electro-chemical company; A. T. Newell, Stauffer Chemical company; Vernon Bell, Manganese, Inc.; Rollin Smith, Titanium Metals corporation; L. J. Grindell, U. S. Lime Products; R. Peterman, Pioche Manganese company; O. J. Scherer, O. J. Scherer company, and A. J. Shaver, engineer of the Colorado river commission.

Bids for the pipeline will be let in January, and 100 construction days will be necessary to complete it, Lamb said.

The pipe is contracted, and only minor details need be ironed out, it was announced.

Size of the pipe has been enlarged 12 inches to accommodate future expansion, and pipeline capacity will be enlarged by 60 percent, the engineer added.

The line will carry 20 million cubic feet a day for this area, or seven billion cubic feet a year. Revisions in the original plans are complete at the present time.

The possibilities of a steam power generating plant, using natural gas for fuel, was mentioned by Shaver. The power shortage is causing the CRC to consider such a project, it was announced.

Covell, representing the underwriters of the pipeline, also is making a study of the natural gas needs of the industrial area. He has conferred with company heads in gathering information.

Mrs. Grace Byrne, Chamber of Commerce secretary, pointed out the growth of the town, predicted future expansion figures, and outlined ideas concerning natural gas for fuel and heating.

Railroad Pass Opens Bingo Tonight! Hires Chef for Famed Chuck Wagon

Bingo! The popular time-filler moves to our area this week—tonight in fact—as Railroad Pass casino inaugurates a nightly program of 15 games. The games will start at 8:20 and the management plans to offer attractive jackpots which will include both the combined investments of the players and the management.

Also sharing in the announcement of more Pass offerings is that the famous Chuck Wagon is now back on. Chef Eric Diggs has been contracted to handle the food and his reputation on the coast promises diners-out something new and interesting.

Dancing will continue to be on the Pass program every Friday and Saturday, as well as the Bingo series—which runs seven nights a week.

Stanley Hickman Now Overseas

Private First Class Stanley Hickman, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Hickman of 154 Manganese, is now serving with the Marines in Hawaii. His brother, Brent, is also a member of the armed forces. Stanley is the sixth Hickman boy to serve his country.

He was recently thumbing through a copy of Colliers when he spotted a familiar-looking hat in a picture. He then scrutinized the photo and saw that the lady wearing the hat was his mother.

The picture was taken at Saint Thomas earlier this year when former residents gathered there as the once-inundated town was temporarily on the surface.

Mrs. Hickman was playing an organ in the photograph. "Even while we were celebrating," she says, "we had to move our chairs a couple of feet every few minutes, as Lake Mead began to rise and again cover our old hometown."

Basic Team Primed for Barstow

Mr. and Mrs. Henderson, may I have your attention? What I have to tell you is for all of you. It has to do with 35 boys, all football players. And so far their record shows that they are fair players; the only unbeaten team in the state. Five wins and no defeats isn't anything to "sneeze at."

The boys go out on the field, not to work as individuals, but as a team. They fight to win for their school, their public, and on two occasions they have dedicated themselves to win for individuals for whom they felt they should play their hearts out.

This week the going gets rough—undefeated Barstow, California. There is no argument about it: Basic will be a three, possibly a four, touchdown underdog. Last year Barstow romped over Basic 48-0. We know that two weeks ago they beat Needles 50-6. The Basic boys feel that they owe this game to ex-coach Estes McDaniel, whom they feel they "let down" last year in the Barstow game. This game will be dedicated to Coach-McDaniel.

"Friday night Basic will have the highest spirited team ever to play on Church Memorial Field." This is a quote from one of the football players. Yes, Mr. and Mrs. Henderson, this is the game to see. The Basic boys will "shoot the works" Friday night. Come out and back them up.

Union-Company Wage Discussion To Continue

Negotiations will resume at a later date between Stauffer Chemical company and Western Electrochemical company and union officials of the Boulder Canyon trades council.

Offer of the companies of a four-cent an hour wage boost was refused by the union recently, and discussion has been under way since that time to come to an agreement.

About 700 employees are involved in the wage dispute, still at a stale-mate as the HOME NEWS went to press. Tuesday's conferences were held in the presence of John Pfau, United States mediator and conciliator from Washington, D. C.

The union's counter proposal of a 12-cent-an-hour increase has been presented to company executives.

Rotary Agenda Features Four BHS Debaters

Two Basic high school debate teams will discuss world problems at Rotary meeting, on Friday at 12:15 PM. Mrs. C. K. Robinson, BHS speech instructor, also will attend.

"Should We Ban the Atom Bomb?" will be the subject of Bruce Kressler and Don Reck. Steve Lottridge and La Mar Cully have for their topic, "Should We Have World Government?"

MRS. E. M. McDONIEL VISITING IN PASEDNA

Mrs. E. M. McDoniel and her three-year-old daughter, Linda, are staying with Mrs. McDoniel's sister, Mrs. Cleo Isom, in Pasadena. Mrs. McDoniel will undergo medical treatment during the visit, and Mrs. Isom's husband, who was badly burned in a plant accident last spring, is still under a specialist's care.

Expert testimony given in Las Vegas this week pictures what could be in Henderson in the foreseeable future if additional power could be obtained.

Appearing before Senator Malone's public works hearing, Roy A. Watkins, head of the air force titanium committee, said the industries here could employ 27,000 workers and pioneer an industry which would eventually replace most of the nation's steel production in both military and civilian economies.

Watkins said the new metal was found to be best suited for airplanes, plane engines, and guided missile production. He added that only the high cost of titanium stands in the way of the industry taking its place in the metals field at this time.

"But until further power is forthcoming, Henderson industries are not able to meet one-eighth of their present contracts," Watkins said.

"This is not a war baby," he said. "Titanium is here to stay . . . God has been better to Nevada than any other place as far as this valuable metal is concerned. The whole nation thanks Senators Malone, Pat McCarran and Governor Charles Russell for saving the plant from being torn down following World War II," he said.

Rex Lloyd, chief of the bureau of mines office at Boulder City, said the cost of titanium might be brought down to two dollars a pound in the foreseeable future through the current investigations of "several hundred" technologists.

F. E. McCreary, Rhor Aircraft corporation engineer, who said his company had 40,000 pounds of titanium under contract and could envision the day the new metal would supplant existing materials as much as 50 per cent.

"Titanium has a wonderful future," he said.

Other witnesses told of the ideal climatic conditions of southern Nevada, where low humidity prevented spoilage through oxidation, an experience of the nation's only other plant—operated by DuPont in New Jersey.

Auxiliary Signing Up New Members

The membership campaign of the American Legion auxiliary is in full swing. Mrs. O. R. Lindesmith, president, announced this week. Their enrollment quota is due on October 27, she explained.

Two teams are competing in rounding-up recruits, and the winning squad will be entertained by the losing group. Captains are Mrs. Jack Muldoon and Mrs. J. K. Bayne.

The auxiliary's poppy sale will be held on or around Armistice day this year, and the group is planning its program for the sixth graders for the Coordinating council's Hallowe'en party.

Rotary Agenda Features Four BHS Debaters

Two Basic high school debate teams will discuss world problems at Rotary meeting, on Friday at 12:15 PM. Mrs. C. K. Robinson, BHS speech instructor, also will attend.

James Coleman Killed In Action

Mr. and Mrs. Fay Coleman of Whitney received word that their son, Sgt. 1st class James A. Coleman, who had been listed as missing since April, 1951, was killed at Chirpori, North Korea.

Sgt. Coleman, born at Hillsdale Indiana in 1928, attended schools in both Clinton, Indiana and Ranville, Illinois. He enlisted in the army in September, 1946, was stationed in Japan for 18 months then was stationed in Fort Knox, Ky. where he finished his enlistment. After having volunteered for overseas duty, he was sent to Chirpori, North Korea.

Sgt. Coleman is survived by his parents, six brothers and three sisters.

VFW Auxiliary Schedules

The quarterly business meeting of Veterans of Foreign Wars, Auxiliary, district No. 5, will meet on Sunday at 2 PM at the VFW clubrooms, 705 North Fifth street, Las Vegas.

Mrs. Oval Todd of Henderson will preside, and appoint chairmen of committees. All auxiliary members will serve refreshments.

Mrs. Homer Sprague, a former resident of Pittman now living in Las Vegas, visited the local meeting president for Nevada, and group last week. She is departing also make her official calls at Las Vegas tonight, and to Overton on Tuesday. Mrs. Sprague visited in Boulder City on Monday.

A plant and a check for a gift were presented to Mrs. Sprague by the local auxiliary, when she visited here.

Brian Reive Celebrates Third Birthday

Three-year-old Brian Reive celebrated his birthday with a party on October 17. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Blake Reive.

A merry-go-round cake was a highlight of the afternoon. A Halloween theme was carried out in most of the decorations, however.

Special guest was little Randy Gierhart, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Barney Gierhart of Las Vegas, who arrived in Southern Nevada from Germany several months ago.

Attending were Randy Gierhart, Guy Nallia, Sandy and Cindy Odell, Helen Shepp, Christine Stevenson, Marilyn Waldman, and Margaret Wynham.

Mrs. McClanahan Entertains PTA Mother's Club

Mrs. A. R. McClanahan entertained the Parent-Teachers association mothers' club at her home for a surprise breakfast party recently. Mrs. Wally Ross was co-hostess.

Mrs. Ed. Wertzbaugh won the prize for being the least prepared for the impromptu affair, and Mrs. Claire Aumond took the best prepared award. Mrs. Herb Hill placed first in the game award.

Attending were Mesdames Frank Erickson, Aksel Barka, Herb Hill, Claire Aumond, John Kramer, Wendell Hall, Ed. L. Wertzbaugh, Wally Ross and A. R. McClanahan.

Robert Parks, U of N Senior, Tours Plants

Robert Parks, Henderson student attending the University of Nevada in Reno, was among the 12 electrical engineering students who took a three-day tour of various electrical plants in the San Francisco bay area.

The purpose of the trip is to bring the students in contact with modern electrical developments, said Professor I. J. Sandorf, head of the electrical engineering department of the university.

All 12 students are seniors at the university. While on the tour, they will visit a microwave and TV station, a steam plant, the Westinghouse electrical plant, and other institutions.

JUDY GODWIN ELECTED TROOP CHAIRMAN

New officers of Girl Scout troop No. 109 are Judy Godwin, chairman; Judy Hamblin, scribe; Leslie Ullom, treasurer; Andrea Ormas, Judy Simpson, and Mary Jamison, court of honor.

Echo and Rockhounds were selected as names for patrols at a stem for the girls, and Billie Cureton, Sandra Detomasi, Margaret Butler, and Johanna Winlow were named patrol chiefs.

Attending were, Billie Cureton, Mary Jamison, Virginia Hammond, Sandra Detomasi, Judy Hamblin, Judy Simpson, Andrea Ormas, Pauline Stevens, Bertha Worth, Maxine Taylor, Sue Guinn, Leslie Ullom and Faye Courtright.

VOTE NO ON SLAVE LABOR LAW

Question No 1 On The Ballot

- MORE REASONS. WHY -

The working men and women of Nevada have suddenly found some new friends. At least, they tell us they are our friends and they're determined to save us from a fate worse than death.

Perhaps it's about time to look these new found friends in the face and find out whether their friendship is worth keeping. Perhaps it's time to ask why, after all these years, they suddenly have become deeply concerned over the welfare of the men and women who work for a living.

These new friends of ours—and I use the word loosely—tell us that they are going to kill the union shop to save us from the union bosses. They didn't stop to ask whether we wanted the union shop killed or whether we wanted to be saved from what they call "union bosses".

Well, if they didn't stop to ask us, we'll tell 'em. In blunt words, we wish they would spare us their "friendship" or perhaps invest it in a wage increase that we can spend at the meat counter or corner grocery store.

For one thing, union people want the union shop. On the record of the best evidence available, union people the country over, want to keep their union Security. And time after time they have made it plain—not only by fighting for it with all their strength, but by voting for it time and time again.

For several years, the Taft-Hartley Law required a secret election to decide whether a union could enter into a union shop agreement. In thousands of cases in every section of the country and among every kind of working man and woman, these government-conducted, secret ballot votes have approved the union shop.

In election after election, union members went to the polls to answer the question of whether they wanted their union to enter into a union shop agreement with their employments. And in 98 per cent of the cases, the union members said yes, they wanted a union shop agreement. And they said it in such overwhelming majorities that their attitude could not possibly be mistaken.

In fact, the sentiment among union members in favor of the union shops was so overwhelming that even the sponsors of the Taft-Hartley Law—and nobody has ever accused them of being pro-labor—agreed to end these foolish elections. So the law was amended and the union shop elections were knocked out.

In the face of this overwhelming support of the union shop among union members, doesn't it seem strange that these new friends of ours suddenly want to save us from the union shop? Who are they trying to kid? Who are they trying to fool?

Deep in their own hearts, they must know these facts as well as you and I know them. What are they up to, then? Why are they hiding behind this nonsense about the "right to work" when the very target of their attack is, in fact, no target at all.

The reason, I think is plain. We've said it before and we'll say it again. The only right the sponsors of this bill are concerned with is the right to smash unions, the right to stuff low wages and long hours down our throats, the right to chain us to our jobs.

Calling this bill the "right to work" is a pure, unadulterated lie. It gives no man the right to work anywhere. It only gives the employer the unquestioned right to let a man work—at any wages the employer wants to pay, under any conditions the employer allows, and for any length of time the employer can get away with.

It gives no man a guarantee of any job, it assures him of work nowhere and at no time. But it does give the employer a free hand to run a sweat shop, to force a man to accept any pay in order to keep his job, to accept any kind of discrimination or humiliation or exploitation in order to keep a loaf of bread or a bottle of milk on his dinner table.

This unquestioned right to make a slave of the working men and women of Nevada is the only right with which this bill is really and truly concerned. But the bill's sponsors know, as you and I know, that to establish that "right", they must first weaken and then destroy the organized unions of the working men and women of this state.

And that's the job they set out to do. They count no cost; they are not concerned with your welfare or mine; they hide their ugly purposes behind the sweet talk of the "right to work". They want only the unquestioned, dictatorial right to enslave a man or woman, to work them at sweat shop wages and for sweat shop hours.

You and I know this is wrong. We know it's an evil and black design. We know because this bill hits us square in our pocketbooks, lands splash right on our dinner tables. But what of the other people of Nevada—the small business man, the professional man, the service trades, the entertainment owners? What happens to them?

They too, are being hit, whether they know it now or not. And whether they know it now, they will most certainly know it later if this bill becomes law.

For when the working man and working woman can't afford to buy the meat or the groceries they sell at the corner grocery store; when they can't afford a movie; when they cut down on the gas and oil they buy; when they can't meet their dentist and doctor bills—when these things happen—and happen they will if this bill is passed—then the businessman, the professional and all others will know too.

The wages the working man and woman receive in their pay checks are the lifeblood of the prosperity of our communities. These are the wellsprings of the income that feeds into stores of every kind, into theatre box offices and across counters. This is the foundation of the well-being of our community.

When the wages run low, the community's prosperity fades and sometimes dies. When the wages run low, all of us suffer together.

Is this what we want? Is this the price we must pay—not just a few of us but all of us—for the greed and profithunger of a few blind and selfish men?

When you add up all the facts and lay them side by side with the myths, to use a polite term, perpetrated by this bill's sponsors, there can be only one intelligent, one justifiable conclusion.

If democracy is to have any meaning; if the working men and women are to safeguard their unions and, by that token, their wage and hour standards, their welfare plans and their wellbeing, if all of us are to live by the best traditions of American democracy, there is only one answer to this "right to smash unions", this right to "low wages and long hours", this "right to return to the sweat shop" bill.

We must speak out with all the strength and vigor at our command. We must say to our families and our friends, our neighbors and our business acquaintances; think long and think well before you vote on this bill. There is much at stake, not just for us who are its immediate victims, but for all of us who live and work and prosper together.

Cut through the lies, cut through the legends, cut through the false and phoney friendship for the working man and woman. When you get to the bare bone, you'll see the ugly face of union smashing; you'll see the tortured faces of sweat shop workers and hungry children.

There can be only one answer: a resounding NO. For Nevada marches together, its working men and women, their unions, the business and professional men and women, the farmers and miners—all of us together in the solid American democratic tradition. Let's not break it now.

This Is Really Putting It To You Straight How This Slave Labor Law Will Really Work

QUESTION NUMBER 1 ON THE BALLOT

1. Can an employer then pay wages to anyone lower than those established in a collective bargaining agreement?

YES! An employer can hire new employees and order them not to join a union and pay them whatever he chooses. There is no law that forces the employer to do anything. The Taft-Hartley Law took care of that.

2. Can unions still engage in collective bargaining?

A union can bargain with the employer from now till doom's day. And with non-union employees he won't have to sign an agreement.

3. Can unions bargain with employers on wages and working conditions?

You can bargain into eternity. Again, thanks to Taft-Hartley, under this law all you would get would be a smirk from the employer.

4. Must an employer recognize a union representing a majority of his employees?

Recognize them for what? To Bargain, but he won't have to agree to a thing, only tell you he is willing to bargain.

5. Will employees still have the right to join a union if they wish?

Secretly, yes. Openly, no! They will have the threat of discharge hanging over their heads.

6. Must employees join a union if they don't want to?

This is the point that knocks democracy in the gutter. The majority no longer rules. If 98 per cent vote for union, the 2 per cent can start tearing away the conditions the 98 per cent try to build. One may say, I didn't vote for that president and U. S. Congress; I won't abide by their laws. Try it and see where you land. But it is the same thing only imposed on the working man and woman. This is class legislation. If such a law is necessary, THEN WHY are professional associations exempt?

7. Will present wage, hours, and conditions of employment agreements remain in effect?

Well, for a short time. There is no one to enforce it but the Union. This is a long range program with an open shop and through bargaining the employer will be able to reduce these agreements to nil.

8. Will it cancel ONLY that part of a union contract which compels you to join a union before you can get a job?

To cancel any part of an existing agreement that has been validated by the NLRB before the expiration date is a matter for the Supreme Court to decide. This point was recognized by the proponents of the Taft-Hartley Law.

9. Will returning Service men still have all their G. I. rights without being FORCED to join a union?

The returning G. I. feels that joining a union is the best and cheapest insurance he can carry—Job Security! And the forgotten dough boy, who ate the gas in World War I and was kicked around for 20 years by greedy employers, in most cases, led the fight to organize the union. Let the Sponsors of this bill show their Purple Hearts or service records.

10. Will employees retain the right to strike for better wages, hours, or all other conditions of employment?

Should employees strike under this law, the employer would fill his place of business with non-union members. And when the striking employees starved out, they would have to crawl back to the employer and beg for a job on any conditions; and will probably be told they have enough employees—so, out the window goes any agreement the employees ever had with their employer.

Let's clean up the mess in Wash- ington. VOTE REPUBLICAN IN NOVEMBER. Pd. Advt.

Send a man to the Senate to do a man's job. Vote for Senator Geo. W. Malone. Pd. Advt.

Let's Get Friendly

By Marjorie Friend

RICK and MARY LOU Barger and son Rickey are moaning the half-moved blues this week. Their new home is at 39 Church street. A boon to working mothers will be the nursery for pre-school children to open by December at St. Timothy's Episcopal church. My baby-sitting problems are under control, however, with gentle Mrs. ELAINE DAILEY coping with my two-year old DONNIE.

Tall, dark, and friendly WOOD- Y NELSON no longer is handling our advertising. He resigned this week. My neighbor, DAVE KILPACK, is home at 19 Oregon way after spending the weekend in Rose de Lima with his broke reg. Mrs. Kilpack and little blonde PATRICIA meet Dec. 1 and me nearly every morning around 8:30 when the bakery man stops nearby. MRS. BLAKE REIVE entertained guests at a reception yesterday afternoon and evening. The occasion: the 50th wedding anniversary of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. JOSEPH HILTZ. BILL and GRACE BYRNE are displaying unique paintings by Indian artist Woody Crumbo in their apartment. People who do things department: RUTH SHUPE and BET-TINA SMITH are snipping out junk items out of felt, Christmas stockings, children's skirts, etc. Our backshop is no longer dis-cumblumeraed... we now have linotype operators and pressmen to spare... but last week we nearly hired BUDDY LAWLER, bartender at Johnny Duncan's bar in Whitney. Bud, a show business veteran, actually worked as a linotype operator at the L. A. Times for one week... getting primed for his role in Frank Capra's movie, 'Mr. Smith Goes to Washington'

BERT HAVENS has the first piece of television equipment in town... TV or not TV and all that... PAUL and ROSEMARY COAT-ES are remodeling their Ocean street home of late... to exped-ite Rosemary's frame-building business, and Paul's painting... One of the winners of a heap- ing box of groceries at Prime Meats and Provisions supermar- ket anniversary doings last week- end was PEARL THANEL... who was all excited about the surprise. RICHARD LINSCHOTEN RECEIVES NAVY DISCHARGE Richard Linschoten, 21, will make hi shome in Henderson, he sai dafter hes recent discharge fro mthe U. S. navy. The son of es Miller, Ray Martinez, Paula Mrs. Bibbie Combs, he is a vet-eran of four years spent in wa- ters near Japan, Korea, and China.

Send Molly Malone back to the U. S. Senate. A True Neveadan, a Veteran with a record of Service to Veterans. Not an uncertain quantity. You know what he stands for. AMERICA FIRST! Pd. Advt.

To My Friends in Henderson: I would like to take this means to talk to you: It is difficult to talk to all the peo- ple in Henderson personally, although I am endeavoring to do just that. As you know, I reside in Boulder City, but have worked in Henderson and I know the problems confronting the peo- ple in this section. It is my opinion that our present county commission has let you down in many ways. If an issue is a "hot one," they avoid it; if one that concerns money, they are broke; if it concerns roads, they are already committed to other plans, years in advance. Nothing less than a threat of a grand jury investigation or a threat of a march on the Court House can bring action. This is wrong. These office holders of many years standing are NOT representing the people! I am angry at the lackada- sical attitude of our elected county commissioners! I am a fighter! I do not avoid issues. I WANT to fight for the rights of the people of Clark County. The residents of Henderson, Whitney, Pittman, Boulder City, etc. and of course, Las Vegas... BUT I can't fight if you do not back me at the polls! November 4th, go to the polls with two objec- tives. The first to be an Amer- ican and secondly a member of a political party! VOTE for the men and wom- en who will work for the peo- ple; for the good of their coun- try, state and nation. But THINK when you mark your ballot! I humbly solicit your sup- port for 4 (four) year county commissioner. I will pledge you my honesty and promise to give you a square deal in- stead of a RAW DEAL. I will be for the people and not for any faction. Sincerely, Geo. K. Campbell Pd. Pol. Adv.

Exemplars Meet At Campbell Home

Mrs. Gordon McCaw discussed China at a recent meeting of the Sigma Exemplar chapter of Beta Sigma Phi at the home of Mrs. Robert Campbell. Chiang Kai-shek's controversial book, "China's Destiny," was reviewed by Mrs. Lawrence Odell, and Miss Mary Jo Parker traced political aspects of the country from the monarchy era to modern times.

The group met for the first time since they received their exemplar degree, recently conferred by the Xi Xeta chapter of Boulder City. Mrs. Odell presided during the session, when the club discussed plans for the annual Christmas party to be held with the Phi chapter.

Mrs. Campbell is social chairman of the Lake Mead City council, it was announced. The council is scheduling social events for members of the Boulder City and Henderson chapters, she said.

Mrs. E. L. Wertsbaugh was named the exemplars' delegate to the Coordinating Council during the meeting.

A silver bowl, awarded to Miss Parker, publicity chairman, by the Las Vegas Review-Journal last week, was displayed throughout the evening.

At the recent meeting, Mrs. Katie Butler, leader outlined the patrol system. Present were Mrs. Eugene Baird, Mrs. Richard Balmer, Mrs. Gordon McCaw, Mrs. Nina McLellan, Mrs. Lawrence Odell, Miss Mary Jo Parker, Mrs. Lawrence Rostine, Mrs. Eugene Slavin, Mrs. E. L. Wertsbaugh and the hostess, Mrs. Robert Campbell.

H Baptist Plan
Henderson's first convention is slated for next year, when the Nevada Sierra Baptists plan to meet here.

The announcement came from the Rev. George W. Rothery, pastor of the Henderson First Baptist church, and the Rev. and Mrs. John Hargrave. They returned last weekend from the organization's conclave at Raddon.

Construction on the new Baptist church began this week, and will be completed by the convention date, Mr. Rothery said.

Larry Martin To Return Next Month

Larry Martin, local draftsman, will return from a five-month European tour early in November, it was reported this week.

After attending the Olympic events in Helsinki, Martin travelled to the Arctic circle and journeyed through Scandinavia, Germany and France.

He will visit with his family in London before returning here by plane. Martin lives at the home of Professor and Mrs. A. C. Terrill, 15 Water street.

A. C. Terrills Entertain

Miss Inis Jennings and Mrs. Jewell Barger, who recently celebrated birthdays, were honored guests at a party at the home of Professor and Mrs. A. C. Terrill recently.

Members of the adult Bible class of the Community Church, organized by Mrs. Terrill in 1942, attended the affair. Mrs. Terrill still instructs the group each Sunday.

Also attending were Mrs. Frank Erickson, Mrs. Bert Gillaspie, Mrs. W. L. Witt and Mrs. Franeece Sher-

Nevada Day October 31

Governor Charles H. Russell has proclaimed October 31 as Nevada Day and urged all Nevadans to participate in the state's 88th birthday celebration in Carson City.

"To observe fittingly this historic day, all State, County and Municipal offices, and the University of Nevada, shall remain closed. It is my desire that all places of business in our State, wherever convenient, join in ceremonies marking this anniversary. Carson City will again be the center of our birthday celebration. Committees are working untiringly to present another outstanding program for the thousands of visitors, young and old alike, who will crowd our capital city."

East Bound Bus Schedule Changes Again

The schedule for east-bound busses passing by the travel center in downtown Henderson has been changed again recently.

The early stage to Boulder City and Kingman now leaves at 7:20 A. M.; at 10:50 A. M. to Boulder and Lake Mead; and at 11:30 A. M. to Boulder, Kingman, and Phoenix.

Evening buses depart at 8:05 P. M. for Boulder, Kingman, and Phoenix; and at 8:50 P. M. and at 10:20 for Needles and Phoenix.

SCHOOLS TO BENEFIT FROM FOREST MONEY
Public schools and county roads in 14 Nevada counties will benefit in the amount of $57,078.45 from a pro rata share of national forest receipts for the last fiscal year, Governor Charles H. Russell announced today.

Guard Force Has Long List
Of Odd Jobs at Ti-Metals

By Marjorie Friend

Nursemaids to Titanium Metals Corporation workers are I. S. "Rich" Richardson Jr. and his eight-man security force.

In addition to checking employees in and out of TMC gates, the guards have a long list of activities including fire prevention, patrolling plant areas, mail delivery, car parking supervision, courtesy driving, housekeeping and all types of investigations.

The 32-year-old supervisor of the guards believes that he and his staff are the first line between the employer and the employee. An unofficial suggestion plan, wherein workers submit ideas to the guards to pass on is part of the public relations aspect of the job.

"It's essential that a guard enjoy his work," Richardson says, adding that "I wouldn't have another job for anything." His team must keep in close touch with employees and plant affairs, he emphasized.

"TMC has a strict security program, well enforced," the supervisor, tall and redheaded, said. Several small blazes in cars have been extinguished by the guards recently, and each officer is thoroughly familiar with the use and location of equipment.

Richardson, who speaks with a broad "A" accent, eastern style, worked 14 years for the Ford Co. in his hometown, Somerville, Massachusetts.

During the war years, not one case of sabotage and not one fire was reported at that company, Richardson says. Since he has worked with Ti-Metals, no case of sabotage has been discovered there either, he added. Richardson holds the rank of deputy sheriff of Clark County, and cooperates with that department.

The young supervisor has been married a little more than a year to his blonde wife Georgia, who works in the auditing office of the Desert Inn.

The couple lives at 215 Atlantic, where they make a practice of splitting the household chores. Both husband and wife enjoy hunting, fishing, and swimming. They like to hike through the desert, picking up old cacti to use in making Christmas gifts.

Firmly opposing opening Henderson to liquor and gaming, Richardson commented, "If a man has to drive several miles before gambling his money, then he has time

Townsite Topics did not appear in last week's edition of the HOME NEWS, due to technical difficulties. Last week's column is being run this week, with up-to-date items added to the bottom of this pillar.

Last Week

Happy birthday today to Sylvia Spicer, on Friday to Lloyd D. Holbery, Willy Maroney, Virginia Engel, Mamie Vincent, Elizabeth Crawford, Terry Neilson, Arthur Lory; on Saturday to Frenchy De Jong, Pratt Prince, Patricia Prince, Gary Day, Irma De Jong, Ed Werts baugh, L. I. Waggoner, Gerald Letz, Linda Bailey, P. J. Cooney; on Saturday to David Bondurant, Larry Bellingeri, Diana Doremus, Erma Powell; on Monday to Gary Cordill, Paul Berge, Mrs. L. M. Haselton, Max Hinton, Heidi Coates; on Tuesday to Marian Huhn, Norman Craft; and on Wednesday to Margaret Paulk, Israel Larkin, and Arlene Bunker.

Wedding anniversary greetings today to Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Larkin; on Saturday to Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wertsbaugh.

Riley Oxford

Mr. and Mrs. Riley Oxford and children, Judy, Donna Lee, and Buckie, spent last week visiting in San Diego, California. The family's pets, Flea-Bite, the dog, and Pepper, the kitten, enjoyed the trip, too.

Bob Shutt

Bob Shutt motored to California for the weekend. Now what's in California that Southern Nevada doesn't have?

Cora Brewer

Mrs. Cora Brewer of San Diego spent several days here visiting her daughter, Mrs. P. A. Chastain, and family, at 239 Basic Road.

Bob Wainright

Guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Wainright recently were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lauerman of Van Nuys, California. Mr. Lauerman, who is production manager for Crest Laboratories, and his wife had been vacationing in Ensenada, Mexico.

Sue and George Ann

There's a couple of gals who are always together. They go to school together, and do many other things together. But when they have appendectomies almost on the same day—that's too much. The girls and Sue Leming and George Ann Miller.

Dick Balmer

Dick and Barbara Balmer moved from Basic to Parkway to a Magnesium street last weekend. We neighbors will miss them as well as their boy, Stevie, and family dog, Lady.

Around the Village

By Lorraine Loose

Lots of activities have been going around the village recently. In fact I was surprised to know my good friend Jerry Calderon and Hubby Carmel, took a quick trip down to Los Angeles to find a place to live, and a few days ago the Calderons dropped in to say goodbye to me... hated to see them move, but it meant a nice promotion for Carmel, who is with the Bonanza Airlines.

Weekendin' on the coast last week Mr. and Mrs. Tom Mann visiting friends in Burbank.

I talked with Dorothy Williams recently and she and her husband, Jack, spent a weekend visiting Dorothy's folks at Parker, Arizona. Dorothy was thrilled especially over the arrival of a new little nephew, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith formerly of Bullhead. While in Parker, Dorothy and Jack visited with Dorothy's folks, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Couch, and returned with Jack's dad, J. W. Williams, who visited here in the Village a week or so. Jack and Dorothy live at 105-A.

Sure are a lot of deer hunters this year. I know I could never get a complete list but here goes on some of them... Bill Engel, Duane Smith, Bob Cordell, Ernie Winn, Rupert and Stevie Sendlien, Wayne Yeoman, Larry Parryman, and son Perk, Tommy McKnight and wife Doris, Riley Hensen, Chucker Hunter, and Dave Caldwell.

Birthdays this month include Virginia Egel on the 17th, Duane Smith the 14th, Sue Hess on the 6th. Mom Lomand tells me that her daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Armond Jones of Kimball Manor are the proud owners of a beautiful Pontiac. Things I have enjoyed lately: Having my friend Vi Caldwell back with us again... Having Fern Raymond drop in to show me her lovely Smocking... Having a nice visit with my good friend Carolyn Cordell who is always a very busy lady... seeing Lu Bontrager and Dorothy Taylor and wishing them luck in their new business venture... Having a lovely lunch with Irene Domingas and mother, Mrs. White Enchaladas Umm... Winning Twenty off Hubby Dave on the Henderson, Ely game... and one off the Henderson-Boulder game... Don't think I'll make it.

24 Leaders Study Scout Skills Course

A 16-hour training course for Girl Scout leaders was concluded by 24 women this week. Program planning, outdoor skills, songs and dances, were included with the aims of scouting on the training agenda. Operating Brownie and Intermediate groups was studied, along with tin can cooking, one-pot meals, and aluminum and reflector cooking. Typing were also scheduled. Volunteer trainers in charge of the project were Mesdames Robert, B. U. Hill, Sturm, and Walter Kubic. Re-elect Senator Geo. W. Malone this November. A True Nevadan with many years service record to prove it. Pd. Adv.

Pittman Party Line
By Rae VonDornum

The success of the Pittman Penny Parade Banquet is a real example of what team work and community spirit can accomplish. Not only are the members of the Pittman Women's Club to be commended for their work in making the affair possible, but also the people of the town who came out and supported it.

Our thanks also go to Bonanza Printers who donated the tickets, the House of Price and Bill Byrne who donated door prizes, and the Swanky Club for their help and hospitality. The fishing outfit which was raffled at the banquet was donated by Dick's Grocery and added $54.00 to our playground fund. The prize was won by Aksel Barka of Henderson.

A vote of thanks is also due the candidates who attended the banquet or sent alternates to represent them. Candidates attending were Clifton Young, Bob Maxey alternate for Tom Mechling, Bill Byrne, H. E. "Dee" deVilliers, George Harmon, Aubrey Pagan, George Rudiak, Judge Charles Dohrenwend, George Von Tobel, James G. Ryan, Stubb DuBravac, George K. Campbell, Gordon Colton, Joseph Kachulis, Bill Embray, Alvin N. Wartman, William Duetsch, alternate for Dorothy Brimacombe Ed Fike, alternate for Molly Malone Dryden Kuser, Robert O. Gibson and Dan Oram who spoke on behalf of Governor Adlai Stevenson.

Candidates who were unable to attend who sent cash donations for the playground fund included Walter S. Baring, George Albright, L. E. "Ty" Tyson, Archie C. Grant and Maude Frazier. Bill Byrne also made a cash donation.

THE VROMANS
Mr. and Mrs. Ed Vronman and their three boys have recently moved to Pittman from Coeur D'Alene Idaho and have purchased Johnson's Garage. Mr. Vroman is an experienced mechanic and will do general auto repair work in his new location.

GLORIA BROWN
Condolences and get well wishes are both in order for Gloria Brown who had the misfortune to cross swords with the flu bug this week. No one worked harder to make the Pittman banquet a success than Gloria and she was the saddest gal in town because she was too sick to attend.

THE STEBBINS
Art and Chrysteen Stebbins and small son Troy have moved from Pittman to Las Vegas where they recently purchased some lots and expect to build a new home.

GENE WARD
After hearing the report that Gene Ward had broken a leg I went calling to find out all the details of this mishap. Gene did a few callsthenics to prove to me that both legs were in fine shape and told me no one was more surprised than he to find out one of them was broken. Glad it turned out to be just a rumor.

THE McKEES
Mr. and Mrs. McKee who have had their trailer home parked on the Roberts property have moved to San Diego, California, wher Mr. McKee has been transferred.

SGT. HAROLD SCHMIDT
Word has been received by Bernice Daily that her brother, Sergeant Harold Schmidt is on his way home from Korea. Sergeant Schmidt expects to be discharged from the army soon after his arrival in the States.

WOMEN'S CLUB
The Pittman Women's Club met on Tuesday, October 7th at the home of Laurel Roberts. Members attending were Babe Ryan, Margarette Dearth, Billie Somerville, Frances Pitcher, Evelyn Matonovich, Gloria Brown, Emily Kimball, Leola Zuber, Madge Dickover, Estelle Marriot, Ethel McKee and your reporter.

No Extra Power At Basic Plant, Governor Says

"There is no excess power at the Basic plant," Governor Charles Russell said last week at a public hearing attended by state and local power authorities. The governor, chairman of the Colorado River Commission, the possibility of BMI loaning power to Las Vegas.

"Industries at Basic are using all the Boulder power they have contracted for plus any they can get from other sources," the CRC chief explained.

"Use of 'off-peak' Arizona power was pointed out by A. J. Shaver, CRC chief engineer, as a solution to the Las Vegas area water shortage no being considered.

Contracts calling for 450 kilowatts of power from Arizona utilities are under discussion, although the final decision depends on the Arizona authorities.

Mrs. Lola Means Elected Chief Of Mother's Club

Mrs. Lola Means was elected president of the Carver Park Mothers club at a recent meeting, when Mrs. Erma Powell presided. Teachers were introduced during the session, and the group decided against a milk program.

The rest of the officer's slate includes Mrs. Genevieve Smith, first vice president; Mrs. Trilma Hughes, second vice president; Mrs. Helen Andreason, secretary, and Mrs. Thora Hardy, treasurer. All mothers of Carver Park school children are invited to attend the meetings, scheduled for the third Tuesday of each month.

To Improve Power System

As Henderson expands, it may be necessary for occasional power outages to occur, although only one such incident is foreseen at this time.

The only outage currently planned will result on an undetermined date when a new switching arrangement is installed. The new set-up will assure the community of electric power even when emergencies arise.

At the present time, three circuits served by a 10,000-kilowatt transformer provide power for all areas east of Water Street. Two other circuits served by 6,000 kilowatts feed all places west of Water Street.

The proposed arrangement will make it possible for each of the two major lines to serve as an auxiliary to the other, according to R. P. Feist, local manager for California-Pacific Utilities Company. Each of the two lines will be able to serve the entire community in an emergency, provided that a peak load does not exceed the capacity.

A power outage here recently was caused by the transfer of a 69,000-volt Basic Management, Incorporated, power line. A California-Pacific construction crew cooperated with BMI in moving the line, in order that it would bypass backyards in the new Federal Homes tract and, instead, run along property lines. The work was accomplished within four hours.

Sole purpose of future power outages will be the improvement of service, says Feist. They will be kept at an absolute minimum, he says, and will occur late at night, if possible, when they will inconvenience the least number of persons.

Tuscarora Smoke Screen

IT WAS bitter cold in the new camp of Tuscarora in 1870, as only a chilly Elko County night can be. A roaring fire in the massive stone fireplace of the crude saloon smoked a trifle and threw a wall of welcome heat. But all eyes were on the card table where a game of championship proportions was in the making. Silver had not yet been discovered. Cash was scarce. Bets on the rough table were in little heaps of nuggets, the raw, coarse gold, winking in the yellow light of the lamps and fireplace.

Higher and higher went the betting, and the tension in the crowded room rose with it. The barkeep came and went, but even his activities failed to divert a glance from the pressures building up around the table. Someone would leave this game with a fortune! One of the onlookers quietly melted back into the darkness of the doorway, and faded from sight. Not an eye left the table to follow him. Higher went the betting.

The departing "onlooker" stepped out into the cold starlit night. The keen air cut him to the bone as he scrambled into well-planned activity. From behind the log shack he picked up a handful of common ore sacks, making a handy bundle of rags. In a moment he had hoisted himself to the crude sod roof of the crowded saloon, and tip-toed over to the rock chimney, from which gushed clouds of heavy wood smoke. Whipping out his empty ore sacks, he thrust them tightly and securely into the chimney. Then he quietly slipped down from the roof, and edged inside and among the crowd around the game again. His absence had not been noticed by the intent circle around the table. Even the billows of black smoke, now gushing from the blocked stone fireplace went un-noticed. The betting went higher. The players were dry-lipped, hardly breathing.

But now the smoke was thick. Eyes were smarting, men were coughing and choking, and the trick was discovered. With a roar of surprise and panic, the entire crowd plunged through the door and out into the clean freezing air of the night. With them went the trickster, sweeping the table clear of its nuggets as he went. He evidently then returned with the crowd, and mingled with them, as he was never detected, nor was the gold recovered.

The discovery that the nuggets were gone from the table brought forth an angry realization of the real plan. Again the men rushed out into the night and made a search. A few smarter than the rest investigated the chimney and pulled out the sacks. By now it was clear what had happened. Everyone was suspicious of everyone else, but no one could prove who had pulled the trick! For a while the thinking was more of lynching than of gambling. And with every man distrusting his neighbor, the game was broken up for the night, and most of the players cleaned out of their nuggets as well.

The Tuscarora smoke screen made a fortune that night for at least one clever rascal with the nerve to pull the trick.

Carnation Velvet Fudge
... With Variations

Delicately smooth and creamy

5 cups sugar
2 tablespoons corn syrup
3 squares butter chocolate, shaved
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 cup Carnation Milk, undiluted
3 tablespoons butter
1 cup nuts, chopped
Mix all ingredients except butter and nuts. Boil until syrup reaches 234°F. or until a soft ball is formed when a small amount is dropped in cold water. Remove from heat, add butter. Cool until lukewarm, and pour into buttered pan. Cut into squares.

Velvet Kisses—Instead of pouring into pan, drop from teaspoon onto waxed paper to form kisses.

Velvet Nuggets—Continue heating till fudge loses its gloss. Mold into small balls and roll in nutshells or grated coconut.

Velvet Roll—Continue heating into a long roll. Roll in chopped nuts or walnuts. Wrap in waxed paper and chill. Cut in thin slices to serve.

Whitney News

BY LUCILLE CARTER

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bennett are proud new grandparents. Their son, Bob Bennett, and his wife, of Whittier, California, presented them with a grandson recently. Bob is a railroader and was sent to Caliente, Nevada on a trip during the weekend. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bennett drove to Caliente to spend Sunday with him.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Sweeney are among the deer hunters.

Last Thursday at 12:30 a.m., Glen Duell thought he was seeing things. He called Nola to see if she could see it too. They saw an object that was higher up than the mountains, very bright with all the colors of the rainbow. The object would fade, get bright again, sway from side to side and dip up and down. Nola and Glen watched it for several hours before giving up trying to figure what it was. Although they thought no one would ever believe them, lo and behold, a newspaper stated the next afternoon that some people in New Mexico and Arizona had seen a "ball of fire."

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil R. Scott of Albuquerque, N. M. were weekend guests at the Fred Scott home. The Cecil Scotts are aunt and uncle of Fred.

Our deepest sympathy goes to Mr. and Mrs. Fay Coleman, who lost a son in action in Korea.

Bob and Loretta Williams have a pair of valuable high-bred dogs. They are Black Laborador Retrievers. They bought them in Montana and sent one of them back to Wisconsin to be trained last summer.

Speaking of the Williams, they have returned from a successful deer hunting trip. J. C. Cox was taken to a hospital in Las Vegas last Thursday morning. He had high fever and one side was sore. He is much improved now, I'm glad to say.

Dorothy Gunn had to miss a few days of school last week because of the flu.

I realized that our town was growing recently, when I went into the postoffice and saw two clerks, instead of one, busy with customers.

Mr. Jack Staford left for Reno, to spend a short vacation.

Mrs. Mert Wilber and daughter Marilyn, left for So. California. Mrs. Wilber made it a combined business and pleasure trip. They went down to San Diego to visit Mrs. Wilber's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. John Chambers.

A belated happy birthday to Nancy Sherman and Melvadean Swinney.

Linda Mack and Dorothy Gunn gave a surprise slumber party in honor of Melvadean Swinney recently. The girls that enjoyed the evening of games and refreshments were Mary Coleman, Nora Smith, Rossie and Lola Brener, the honoree and the hostess. The party was held at the home of Dorothy Gunn.

Our school has been known as Duck Creek School, but the title has been changed to Whitney School.

Karl and Tommy Johnson spent a week with their grandparents. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bailey.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl McMillan have returned here to live. They formerly lived here, then moved to Tucson, Ariz. to live for a while.

Mrs. L. B. Dean went to Los Angeles for a few days.

Another one of our courts has changed hands. Mrs. Bass sold Sunset Court to Mr. and Mrs. Willis Robinson.

I'm glad to say that Margaret Crosthwait is out again after having to stay in with a sprained ankle.

Also glad to hear that Henry DeCarlo is better after being ill for a week.

Mrs. Oscar Bray returned home a short time ago, after going to Wash. to attend the funeral of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Fritz Reinking.

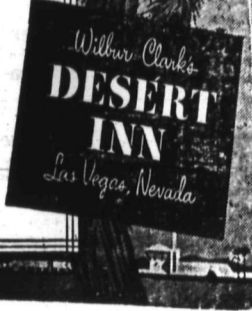

Whitney residents that have gone deer hunting are Nina and Luis Brenner, Carl Fossette, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Bray, Harold Brown, O. R. Spear, Bob and Loretta Williams.

Increased Cost for Local Pupils Foreseen at Recent PTA Meeting

An increase of 14 cents per child per day will be needed for the present school year, Mrs. Lyl W. Burkholder reported at a meeting of the Parent-Teachers Association recently.

About 225 persons attended the session, when school finance was the main topic. Cost of each child during the last year was $1.11, Mrs. Burkholder explained.

Miss Roxie Copeenhaver of Las Vegas discussed allocations for maintaining and repairing schools, and Miss Maude Frazier explained the processing of state funds.

Mrs. Frank Schreck arranged the panel discussion and question period, and Mrs. William Compton presided in the absence of Mrs. William DeWolf.

An audiometer will be purchased to be used in line with the audio-visual education program, it was decided during the meeting. The budget recommended by the executive committee was approved.

Naomi Circle Spanish Dinner

The semi-annual Spanish dinner staged by the Naomi circle of the Community church, is slated for November 5, from 5 to 7:30 P.M. at townsite lounge No. 2.

Advance reservations may be arranged by calling Mrs. L. A. Longley at 1020-W2. Tickets will be priced at $1.50 and half-portion are 75c.

Cornerstone Ceremonies

Pledges of donations were added to the mounting building fund of the Community Church at the laying of the cornerstone ceremonies recently.

A dinner party held on the floor of the new structure preceeded the rites. Mrs. Walter Smith was chairman of the affair, assisted by the women's circles.

"The new building will be useful to the community in general as well as the church," the Rev. Ford Gilbert said. The new edifice, with a 3500 foot floor space, has been needed for dining and recreational quarters, it was pointed out.

Majority of the construction work so far has been accomplished by the men of the church, to whom the women provided refreshments.

Basic High Band, conducted by W. C. Wooten, played several numbers, and the Sullivan sisters furnished the dinner music.

Dr. Phillips Chief Speaker At Rotary

New developments in medicine were cited by Dr. Lorne Phillips of Rose de Lima hospital at a meeting of the Rotary club last week. Dr. Phillips returned recently from the national convocation of the American College of Surgeons at New York City.

Experiments now in progress to transplant vital organs were explained by Dr. Phillips. Blood vessel banks and new methods of heart operations were mentioned by the speaker.

America ranks first in medical science," Dr. Phillips declared. The ASC group has helped to raise standards of the profession and of hospital operation since its organization in 1913, he added.

Senator George Malone discussed the power hearings here briefly during the session. Shortage of power and the necessity of constructing Bridges and Glen canyon dams was stressed by the senator. "The whole southwest will benefit by these projects," Malone said.

F. A. McGonigle, vice-president, presided at the meeting, and Morry Zenoff, program chair-

Scout Leaders Map Annual Calendar

Liberty bell-shaped door hangers, urging Hendersonians to get out and vote, were distributed over this area by Boy Scouts on Saturday, November 1, as part of a national scout project.

Calendar for the coming year was outlined at a recent meeting of BSA leaders, N. D. Van Wageningen, chief local executive, said.

A court of honor, when the boys receive awards and advancements is slated for November 13. Other events scheduled include a district first aid meeting in January, a camporee in April, and the National Jamboree next summer.

Gene Cameron, new scoutmaster of Troop No. 22, was introduced during the evening.

Mrs. Baxter Leads New Altar Guild

Mrs. L. W. Baxter was elected directress of the recently organized Mary and Martha Altar guild of St. Anthony's Episcopal church at a meeting last week.

Other officer sare Mrs. Doris Hardy, sub-directress, and Mrs. Shirley Shortslieve, secretary-treasurer. Next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Lois Reddaway, 407 Ilmenite way, on Tuesday, October 28.

Chief speaker for the session was the Rev. Robert L. Stevenson who reviewed the duties of the altar guild.

Eagles Plan Card Party

A card party is slated for the Townsite apartment lounge on Saturday at 8 PM by the Fraternal Order of Eagles, Aerie No. 2672, and its auxiliary.

Proceeds from the affair will go to the Damon Runyan cancer fund drive, which has been sponsored by Eagles in this area for several years.

Mrs. Jack Rexroat and Mrs. Terry Chaffin are co-chairmen for the auxiliary, and John Helbrink is chairman for the lodge.

Game prizes and door prizes will be awarded. Tickets to the party may be purchased from the members.

U of N Senior, Former Resident Wins Award

Miss Barbara Hendrickson, University of Nevada student formerly of Henderson, was named as the winner of a Major Max Fleischman Scholarship of $500.

The Committee on scholarships and Prizes recently announced the selection of four new recipients for scholarships and prizes who will take the place of the winners who did not return to the university this fall. The announcement was made on behalf of the committee by Loring B. Williams, chairman.

The Major Max C. Fleischmann Scholarship is awarded, not only for excellent scholastic records, but for promise of becoming effective citizens in students. The students must show qualities of leadership, good character, high personal conduct, and a spirit of cooperation.

Miss Hendrickson is a senior student at the university and is a member of the Delta Delta Delta social sorority.

Cradle Shower Held at Home of Mrs. Nallia

Mrs. Carroll Williamson was guest of honor at a cradle shower at the home of Mrs. Robert Nallia on Sunday. Co-hostess at the affair was Mrs. Charles Connor.

A bassinette held the gifts, and decorations on the buffet table include a bouquet of pink roses. A bottle vase filled with pink roses topped the cake.

Miss Mary Jo Parker won two of the prizes for games, and Mrs. David Malcolm won one award.

Attending were Mesdames Tom Williamson, David Malcolm, Elmer Buescher, Robert Nallia, Carroll Williamson, Charles Connor, and Miss Mary Jo Parker.

What chance do you think a lone wage earner has to obtain decent wages, hours and working conditions by just asking his boss for them, especially if his boss happens to be a big corporation? The employer is likely to say "either work on my terms or get yourself another job."

Labor Unions were organized by wage earners to give them the chance to bargain with their employers on more equal terms, and so obtain:

HIGHER WAGES-SHORTER HOURS-BETTER WORKING CONDITIONS

The American standard of living of which we are all justly proud was won for the people of America by the wage and salary earner organizing in Labor Unions, through 75 years of effort and sacrifice—blood, sweat and tears.

Labor Unions are part and parcel of the American Way of Life—they are as American as Apple Pie.

The Labor Unions of Nevada have a right to be proud of their record. The average income of the worker is higher in Nevada than in 47 other states. And this standard has been won in most cases by friendly negotiations between Nevada Labor Unions and Nevada Employers.

In the last ten years how many strikes or picket lines in Nevada can you remember?

It is not strikes or picket lines, but the RIGHT TO STRIKE OR PICKET WHEN NECESSARY which have made these gains. It is the right to strike or picket which has given the worker the RIGHT TO WORK UNDER DECENT CONDITIONS.

DON'T LET THIS RIGHT BE DESTROYED

Today the standard of living of every wage and salary earner in Nevada is under direct attack. A little group of unfair, dictatorial employers, aided and abetted by professional labor baiters and trouble makers, imported from outside this state, is trying to cripple and destroy the Nevada Labor Unions.

They are trying to destroy the right of the working man to work under decent wage, hours and job conditions, by selling the people a bill of goods under the mis-leading label of "The Right to Work."

DON'T BE MISLED

Remember wherever such anti-labor laws have been passed, wages have gone down and the whole community has suffered. If the labor unions go down, so will your income, whether you are a wage earner, farmer, small business or professional man.

Remember, when the working man is prosperous, his pay checks circulate through the whole community, and everyone is prosperous.

LET'S KEEP IT THAT WAY IN NEVADA

"JUST A MOMENT PLEASE"

THE CHRISTIAN'S HOPE
THE FOUNDATION OF THE CHURCH

In Mt. 16.18, we learn that the Church of Christ is built upon the rock-ribbed truth that "Jesus Christ is the Son of the living God." No part of the foundation is human; this New Testament structure does not rest upon one of the Apostles or Prophets, but upon the one and only Christ, God's blessed Son. In Co.3.10.11, the Inspired Record reveals that, "other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ." Thus, the Church does not rest upon Mary the mother of Jesus, nor upon his cousin, John the Baptist, nor upon any human being. The foundation is compared to a "stone", "a tried stone", and "a precious corner stone" in Isaiah 28.14.16. In laying the foundation in Corinth, Paul preached "Christ and him crucified." Peter, laying the foundation in Jerusalem in Acts 2, proclaimed the Death, Burial, and Resurrection of Christ; thus, Paul and Peter preached the same Lord and laid the identical foundation. John promulgated the "doctrine of Christ" and grimly warned anyone who dares go beyond it. 2 Jno.9. Jesus taught that if we would "hear His sayings and do them" we would be like the man who builded his house upon a rock that withstood the battering storms. One cannot successfully build an eternal building upon a physical or material foundation. Therefore, it behooves us all to build on Christ.

Record Albums Are Available At Library

Record albums from Henderson library were exhibited at the recent Nevada Library association conference in Las Vegas, Mrs. Lydia Malcolm, local librarian, announced. The only recording set-up in Southern Nevada is found, she explained.

A desert cactus and insect arrangement, also shown at the conclave, currently is on display at the library, along with non-fiction books on the subject.

Mrs. Malcolm introduced Professor James R. Dickinson, director of the Las Vegas branch of the University of Nevada, chief speaker of the session. "The States' Libraries" was his topic.

The group voted to increase financial support to the state library at Carson City, Mrs. Malcolm reported. The state library can buy technical and scientific literature which can be loaned out to libraries all over Nevada, she explained.

Among the musical albums on the shelves here are Tchaikovsky's Nutcracker Suite, excerpts from Wagner, and Ferde Grofe's Grand Canyon suite.

Welcome Wagon Visits To Begin In November

Visits to newcomers in town will begin in about a month. Mrs. Don Detomasi, Welcome Wagon hostess, announced this week. Mrs. Detomasi still is conferring with merchants and civic groups in organizing the service program.

Baskets with presents and invitations from businessmen and clubs will be carried to the homes of new residents in November. Others on the hostess' calling list are brides-elect youngsters on their sixteenth birthdays, families who have moved from one Henderson home to another and mothers of newly arrived infants.

Groundwork for the local branch of the national service was started here last month. Mrs. Detomasi is in charge of the Henderson project, and Mrs. Bunny Harris is key hostess of the Las Vegas area.

"Everyone inclusively has cooperated with me in establishing the program," Mrs. Detomasi said. &9H St Timothy's

A nursery for pre-school children two years of age and older will open in about a month at St. Timothy's Episcopal church, the Rev. Robert L. Stevenson announced this week.

Designed to help the working mother, prices will be reasonable, the vicar said. Mrs. Doris Reid and Mrs. Genevieve Toohey will operate the nursery, where hours tentatively are set from 8 AM till 5:30 PM Mondays through Fridays.

The first church-sponsored nursery in Henderson, the project already has been approved by Episcopal authorities. A board of directors will be arranged at a later date.

Stevenson returned from Los Angeles last weekend, where he shopped for nursery furniture. He made a side-trip to Tiajuana, Mexico, accompanied by another minister.

Mrs. Reid arrived here several months ago from her native country, England.

Pattersons Witness World Series

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Patterson, Jr., and family are established in their new home, 38 Church street, after a vacation in the east.

Patterson saw the world series by his father, who accompanied him to the game at the Columbia Club, New York. The elder Patterson once trained for the New York Yankees team, but though after a hunting accident he lost a leg at the age of 21, running his baseball career.

Mrs. Patterson, visiting in Chicago suburb of Winnetka, at Evanston, watched the famous games on television. She stayed with her aunt, Mrs. William De-rey, whose husband is a former owner of the Beach Edgewater Beach Hotel.

While in the midwestern city the local couple made the rounds of well-known night clubs and restaurants. "Chicago night clubs are not so spectacular as Las Vegas hotels," Mrs. Patterson remarked.
