Henderson—the fastest growing city in the west—so acclaimed by magazine articles (see this month's Fortune) and by other publicity media, gets another shot in the arm this weekend with the start of sales, and soon to be followed by start of construction, of 311 more Freedom Homes.

The same builders who have already constructed three units—the first of 352, the second of 363 and the third of 81 at Manganes Park—will handle this project which will be built on a gradually rising stretch of land overlooking Vegas Valley, facing on the Vegas Wash Road and opposite Victory Village.

A model home has been opened at 74 Church street and Saturday morning and every day thereafter from 9 to 9 the public may make application. All homes will be three bedroom and the popular $400 down, $7995 full price and $48.09 principal and interest will be the FHA terms.

A waiting list of more than 200 has been on file with the company ever since the second project sold out six months ago. Plot plans and floor plans are displayed on the walls of the model home and guides will be on hand to handle the public. Representatives of Pioneer Title Insurance and Trust company will also be there to accept the applications and to place the money in escrow as the down payments are made.

DEADLINE HEADLINES

G. A. A. held its first meeting of the year last week. Twelve four year members, nineteen third year members, thirty second year members and thirty-two first year members registered for a total of ninety girls. Don't forget the meeting tonight.

Members of the Senior class are diligently studying play books in an effort to find a smash hit for the forthcoming Senior Play. Farce mysteries seem to hold the edge over the other types offered.

Connie Gorton's favorite letter seems to be T. Could it be the T in Teddy and Tommy?

WHO'S WHO All the girls seem to have grown suddenly fond of western music since the Pep Assembly Friday. The reason's name is David.

A certain miss by the name of Genevieve is certainly popular. Her latest dates are Rodney Blue, Jim Milleo, and Gordon Weese.

Marlene B. has her eye on a certain blonde senior boy. Et tu, Brutus.

Kenny G. seems to have found a new love in Sharon Loose.

USHERS CLUB A new and unique club was formed last week. Its purpose is to have trained ushers for all the affairs at Basic. The girls will also sell programs at all home games. The officers are: President, Suzanne Schwartz; Veep, Doris Gracia; Secretary, Treasurer, Marlene Blakely. The sponsor is Miss Lund.

ANNUAL "The Stone Age" is the theme decided for this year's annual. Asst. Editor is Connie Gorton. The other staff members will be announced later.

Margaret, who is dividing her time between canning fruits and vegetables and fishing for salmon in the Rogue River, says she is lonesome for all her old pals in Pittman and, "if you are not all cemented between the blocks of the community center building, would you a few scratches from some of you." Her address is 1830 N. Riverside, Medford, Oregon.

Belford, his wife Geneva and their three children, Mary, Glenda, and Patricia, reside in Las Vegas where he operated a garage on South Fifth street for a year and a half. Previous to their moving to Las Vegas, they lived in Victory Village and Al was an employee of The House of Price. Jasmin is occupying the living quarters on the premises.

RUSTY HOWARD
Rusty Howard, composer and director of square dancing on KLAS TV, last week brought a group of roller skating square dancers to the Sportsman's Club for their first public appearance.

Included in construction plans for the new high school gymnasium, the bleachers are of a portable type, and are purchased a year prior to the completion of the gym, to serve as added seating at the present time.

Negotiations are under way to shift a football game scheduled between Kingman and Henderson on the second of October to Oct. 16, in order to make use of the bleachers for the game. In that event, the game to be played at Henderson on the 2nd would be at Kingman on that date.

Here and There In Henderson

By C. A. REEVES

Hershel Trumbo, Chamber of Commerce president, had a busy week. He officiated as usual at his weekly Chamber meeting, at which Tom Campbell, chairman of the Las Vegas water district, spoke. He gave his assistance to the Jaycee's 'Bumper Late' campaign, and was in attendance at the ground breaking at the new bank, along with Spencer Butterfield and other dignitaries. He still found time to devote to his daughter Renee, like a doting father. Even had to wait in line a bit at Micklin's Tavern, for service. Due to the pressure of business at this eating hub, the Tavern should have elastic walls. Hershel has a lot of patience, and he knows all about the 'busy signal'.

Later on June Frick, Hershel's secretary and or chief of wireless operations, got a lunch break, and as she ordered, I feasted my eyes on the beauty that rivals the Nevada Sunset. It all was very hazy after that, but I imagine I must have muttered something and then stumbled out, unbelieving.

Captain Eather M. Leavitt of the Sheriff's force and Tax Investigator Keith Cambell were out on the Henderson Strip on the week end.

One of the heads of the Mutual Department said that only one cashier checked in "even" for the opening four day stint . . . maybe it was the machines and the tickets at fault and not the men.

Judge Richards said that he has never given a ticket to a rider of a horse yet, but he quickly added that there is always a first time.

Inseparables: William Kling, Walter Mueller, and Richard Waldman, all Wecco stalwarts. You seldom see one without one of the other genis somewhere close.

Ralph and Marie Fulton were held up in their vacation plans by the sickness of daughter Candace. They should be on their way soon to Laguna Beach area where they intend to get in a bit of deep sea diving. Ralph found a water-logged five dollar bill floating deep below the surface once, out near Vegas Wash Beach.

Frank Erickson, formerly of the McNeil company, working out of the plant, is newly located with Ruppert Plumbing of L. V. The Erickson's are now living at 311 Water Street and are having trouble with the tall grass that grew before they moved in.

This is 'old stuff' to us localites, but one of a group of fishermen in from Van Nuys, Calif. for some trout fishing at Nelson's Landing, was really raving with the 'ohs' and 'ahs' about the wonderful steak and the smorgasbord that he was served at Robert and Pearl Pfluger's Swanky Club. Another credit for Agnes Yarbrough, who presides at the cooking range there.

Larry Brown, who used to mix up your cherries, orange peel and olives at the Sportsman's Bar, is now serving in the same capacity at Railroad Pass Casino. Larry and Ann Jacobs of the Henderson Water Department make an attractive twosome. Larry's comment: "Maybe my water bills will be cheaper."

Another City Hall budding romance. Henderson City Works manager George Treem, the recent appointee; and Esther Miller, the Taste Tavern Toast. If looks tell stories, Esther thinks Treem is spelled d-r-e-a-m.

Mr. and Mrs. I. S. Richardson after an evening of dancing, shopping around to locate a special Italian delicacy which they are fond of. It seems that everyone is talking about food this week. I. S. is the Titanium Security Chief and Deputy Constable of Henderson, aide to Aubrey Pagan.

Ed Cook, 572 Federal Street, Electrolux Vacuum Cleaner salesman, is part of an unusual selling arrangement. Martha Diew, his niece, also goes along with Ed on his selling trips, and the two of them do very well. They cover an area of approximately 300 miles, and have won a special make camera, and a television set for their selling prowess.

Gladys and Lawrence Stephens of 207 Atlantic Street have already put $4000.000 into their home and are rightly proud of the results. They have added on much space, have built in cabinets, book cases and planters, and soft-fits. They still have extensive building in the offing. One item of which Lawrence is very high on, is the already built fencing that you just have to put in place, which is a product of the Panacalite Co., a local concern. Lawrence works for Titanium. Gladys works at the Alpine Village and is just as cute as they come, decked out in her working costume. Gladys has a penchant for flowers and has some beautiful house plants.

The Max Wellings are still on their honeymoon. Max and his bride got out of their car for some dreamy dancing and forgot to turn his headlights off, so wrapped up in his frau is he. (That Max everything brighter.)

Raymond Ramos is the new Chef at Railroad Pass. He prepares your salad at your table, and pies are made in his kitchen. (They're good.) Mr. Ramos formerly was at the Colonial House, in Las Vegas.

Mr. O. Atkin (he doesn't like his first name) formerly of San Bernardino, Cal., been in the mining business all his life . . . now lives here and intends to stay. He claims that most of Southern Nevada is virgin territory as far as the discovery of the mineral potential is concerned. Sars he has found some very good samples hereabouts, and that one day he wouldn't be surprised to see Henderson a larger city than Las Vegas. Gerrold Atkin, his son, works at U. S. Lime.

Lavon and Louise Madsen, 42 Basic Road . . . are from Lehigh, Utah, have 4 children; Kenneth, Beverly, Linda, and Janet. Janet attractive freshman, is studying commercial course. Lavon is a diesel truck driver.

Curtis Compton. This man at one time was a Deputy Sheriff stationed at Henderson. Curtis revealed a new avenue of his depth the other day when I learned that he paints animal and scenes in oil . . . hasn't done anything with the brush since his marriage . . . but since then his charming wife has been doing a great deal of artistic work. She designed and executed a delightful birthday invitation for their daughter's party last week. Cathy is the cutie's name and there is also a son, Curtis Jr.

Ed Wurtzbaugh has lived among us for a long time. Now resides with his family at 437 Burton Street in the new addition. Ed is business agent of the I.A.T.S.E. projectionists local for this area. Has been in such a capacity for the past year which has seen the greatest growth of the local. Ed has great ability and a lot of fortitude, both of which are put to extra duty nowadays when Ed finds that the days are long on work and short on sleep.

NEWS FROM BOULDER CITY

Congressmen Hold Hearings On Boulder Area Problems

The Bureau of Water and Power auditorium was packed to capacity Monday as interested citizens gathered to hear the pro and con of problems vital to the future welfare of this community.

The congressional committee was made up of Congressman Cliff Young of Nevada, Congressman Craig Homer of Long Beach, Sam Yorty of Los Angeles and John Rhoades of Mesa, Arizona. Alvin Wartman, local attorney, was chairman of the committee arranging for witnesses to appear at the hearing.

Bruce Eaton, city councilman, presented the official views of the City Council in regard to revisions of the Boulder City Bill as worked out by the Council.

The morning session of the all day meet was devoted to the Boulder City Bill which deals with the release of Boulder City from government control and setting up a local self government with eventual incorporation.

L. P. Davis represented the Employees Association of the U.S. Bureau of Mines on the issue pertinent to housing for federal employees. At present federal housing is not available for employees of the Bureau of Mines and Davis said he thought the employees should be given an equal opportunity to purchase government homes here, when they are offered for sale.

Represented also, were the Bureau of Reclamation, Department of Water and Power and the National Park Service whose interests were directed.

Region 3 Director E. G. Nielsen stated that the Bureau of Reclamation counsel believes the power can be delivered to the municipality as planned in the legislation proposed.

The representative of the Department of Water and Power stated that it was doubtful if the power contractors, whose contract runs to 1987, could re-allocate to private use the 20,000 kw of power which is going to the government to operate Boulder

City. V. Gray Gubler, Las Vegas attorney, was spokesman for 50 local businessmen who were opposed to restrictions in deeds to land, banning sale of liquor or allowing gambling on the property.

A lively discussion took place with the Reverend Earl S. Fox of Grace Community church and Herman E. Nelson of the LDS church representing members of the seven local churches in favor of the restrictive clause in the deeds.

Stephen F. Morehead, attorney for prime Lake Mead concessioner Fred Patterson, was critical of the Park Service for failing to keep promises made when Patterson took over the concession. Largely because of Park Service red tape and refusal to renew his contract, Morehead said his client had lost his $400,000 investment.

Supt. George Baggeley of the Lake Mead area declared that $230,000 had been lopped off the Park Service budget this year, with no funds included for capital improvements. He recommended an additional $100,000 for improvements.

Criticism from varied sources was heaped on Lake Mead Boat company, who has the boat dock concession. "Pitiful" was the word used by Max Kelch, who represented the area-wide development committee and the Las Vegas chamber of commerce, in describing the Lake Mead Boat company facilities.

The sportsmen got their views aired too, when Joe McLain, Las Vegas conservationist, opposed private development resulting in "honky-tonk" beach town resorts.

The problem of public lands was discussed, with the congressmen stating that a great problem before Congress is to revise the law and bring it up to date.

Mrs. Charles (Peggy) Hyde discussed the local school situation and said the biggest problem is the need of sufficient funds to maintain the schools here. She stated federal aid is needed.

Lyman Earl Wins 4-day GE Prize

In conjunction with the 1953 nationwide celebration of the 75th Diamond Anniversary of the General Electric company, J. Lyman Earl qualified as one of the two hundred outstanding General Electric appliance retailers in Southern California and who will be the guest of General Electric Appliance Company at the Hotel Sahara in Las Vegas. This achievement climaxed a 90-day sales program known as "G.E. Sweepstakes Campaign", which was initially launched to coincide with the Kentucky Derby in May.

Stephen B. Maher, manager of General Electric Appliances Co., distributor sponsoring this all-expense trip, stated that Earl will join other dealers arriving aboard a special train October 6, and will be the guest of his company during the four-day event.

Community Church Honors Teachers Tomorrow Night

Following the custom of many years, the public school teachers will be honored tomorrow night by the Grace Community church. The Fellowship supper will begin at 6:30 PM in the downstairs dining hall.

The Rev. Earl Seymour Fox will make the address of the evening on the topic, "Christ and Education." Entertainment has been planned, and newcomers are especially urged to attend and get acquainted. Families are requested to bring their own table service and two dishes of food, for the planned potluck meal.

This supper, regularly scheduled for the third Friday of the month, was postponed in order not to interfere with the home football game.

Trading Post To Open in Boulder Saturday Morning

A new shop has been added to Boulder City's list of modern stores. The Western Trading Post will open its doors for business Saturday morning at 8.

This attractive new enterprise is located at 324 Nevada highway. Customers interested in western type jewelry, curios, gifts, Indian handicraft, Indian leather goods and pottery, will find this an ideal shopping center.

An added attraction to the store will be desert type pottery which will be made by Dorothy Thurston who will create her individual styles and designs right at the Trading Post.

Owner of Boulder City's newest store is Vern Larsen, of Virginia City, Nevada, owner and operator of business interests in the historic little northern Nevada city.

Larsen has completely redecorated the interior of the shop in attractive and appropriate decor.

Lee Allred Wins Match

Lee Allred of Las Vegas won the first prize in the annual Hunter's Match sponsored by the Boulder Rifle & Pistol club, according to Wally Jonassen, president. The event was held Sunday at the local range, with forty competitors trying their luck at the running deer target.

Allred and Art Trimmer, another top winner, received boxes of ammunition donated by George Haynes of the Uptown Hardware Store. Money prizes were won by Mike Thompson, Pat Thompson, Harry Mann, Ted Munson, Buck Blaine, Al Brumwell and Dan Gallagher. Shooters were "fined" if they hit the "slow elk"—a painted cow which appeared occasionally to test reflexes and add amusement to the affair.

Assisting Pat Thompson, vice president of the big-bore division of the rifle club, were Curley Francis and Jonassen.

Thriftee Market No. 2 Invites Public to Grand Opening

Boulder City's Thriftee Market No. 2 is cordially inviting the local citizenry to its Grand Opening which is set for today, tomorrow and Saturday.

Prizes and surprises galore are in store for everyone attending the gala opening, according to a statement made by Bill Engel, owner and manager. The Engels have purchased the Robert W. Hooper home at 1501 New Mexico Street, and plan to make Boulder City their residence.

Mr. Engel and his wife have had wide experience in the grocery and market business, having owned a store at Davis Dam.

During their residence in Prescott, Arizona, they operated a wholesale grocery business and more recently were associated with Richardsons in Victory Village.

Jeanne E. Brothers Becomes Bride of Rodger W. Baier in California

Of interest to her many Boulder City friends is the announcement of the marriage, Sept. 18, of Miss Jeanne Elizabeth Brothers to Rodger W. Baier.

The lovely wedding took place in the San Marino Community Church with the Reverend James S. Stewart, minister of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, Newport Beach, Calif., officiating assisting Reverend Stewart was the Reverend Dr. Frederick C. Cropp, minister of San Marino Community Church.

In the absence of her father, the bride was given in marriage by Mr. Claud F. Harmon, long time friend of the family.

For the single ring ceremony the attractive bride wore a floor-length gown of knife-pleated tulle over satin, styled with fitted bodice and sweetheart neckline.

Her finger-tip veil was attached to a crown of venetian lace. She carried a cascade arrangement of white gardenias and lily of the valley.

Maid of honor was Miss Barbara Ann Brothers, sister of the bride. She was gowned in yellow and carried a bouquet of bronze yellow-tipped mums.

Bridesmaids were Miss Dorothy Baier, sister of the bride; Miss Elizabeth Ann Freitas, Miss Barbara Buss and Miss Peg Orr.

They wore identical floor-length gowns of taffeta and net, small taffeta caps with veils and net elbow length mitts.

They carried yellow mums. Miss Molly Mason of Corona Del Mar, Calif., was flower girl. William Higby of Ontario, California, served as best man.

Ushers were Robert Waid, Pasadena; Robert Smith, Hollywood; Richard Dickenson, Santa Ana; and Michael Callaghan, Hollywood.

Mrs. Gladys Brothers, mother of the bride, chose a gown of Rosewood colored chantilly lace over taffeta with matching accessories, complemented with a white orchid corsage.

The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Willard E. Baier, wore a ginger-brown taffeta gown with cocoa brown accessories and brown orchid corsage.

Immediately following the impressive wedding rites, a reception feted the couple in the Pool Terrace of the Huntington Hotel. Champagne was served and the guests danced to the music of the Huntington Hotel orchestra.

Four hundred fifty guests were present at the wedding. The new Mrs. Baier wore a heather blue gabardine wool suit with navy blue suede accessories for her honeymoon trip to an undisclosed destination.

Eagles Meet Barstow Friday

Tomorrow night the Eagles meet the Barstow Rifflans in Barstow.

The 19-0 win over Kingman last week was costly. The Eagles will be on the field without Bill Risley, halfback, who broke the little finger on his right hand in the Kingman game.

Bob Patterson, starting guard, pulled a tendon and reports are that he'll be back with the Boulder team in another week. Arthur Edwards and Jerry Berry were badly bruised but are expected to play tomorrow night.

Many improvements have been made in the Thriftee Market No. 2 here, included are an additional 1,000 sq. ft. of floor space which provides ample room for additional merchandise.

City Manager Harold Corbin Discusses our Problems Each Week in the NEWS

We had quite a hearing last Monday before a subcommittee of the House Committee on Interior and Insular Affairs. While three separate subjects were presented to the committee, the proposed Boulder City legislation was of prime interest to us.

I personally derived a great deal of satisfaction from this hearing because of the number of groups, organizations, and individuals that attended and made presentations. It was real democracy at work, and whether you agreed with this one or that one, you knew that the basic facts and problems of Boulder City were presented for these congressmen to consider. There is no doubt that Congress, as a whole, will be able to deal with this legislation on Boulder City much more ably because of this hearing.

Why, why, why, won't people realize that they cannot use our highways for speedways? Three more killed last week, practically in our city limits — the reason: speed. Clark County's accident death rate has now passed last year's total, and we still have better than three months to finish this year.

You can't beat the law of averages. If you insist on gambling with it, sooner or later it catches you and tags you out. I wonder who is going to be next?

State Tournament for Archers To Include Deer Hunt

A two-day State Tournament for Archers is scheduled for October 17-18, according to Merl Sage, president of the Las Vegas Archers club. The affair will be sponsored by the Hotel Last Frontier and the Silver Slipper. They will present trophy awards to the top archer in all classes, as well as to second and third place winners.

The state contest is for Nevada archers, and those living within 25 miles of the state line. One event of the tournament, however, offers $50 to the archer, from any state, capturing the top score.

A special deer season at Mt. Charleston has been granted in conjunction with the archers' tournament, with 150 out-of-state deer tags to be allowed for the archers hunting in the Charleston area.

George Knipp of the Outdoorsman in Las Vegas will present prizes for deer hunters, according to Sage. All contestants in the state tournament must register at the Outdoorsman, 717 Fremont St., where information is available.

Interior Changes Policy Regarding Allocation of Public Power

The Department of the Interior has changed a long-standing position in regard to the allocation and distribution of public power. Sen. George W. Malone (R-Nev.) was told this week by Ralph A. Tudor, under secretary of interior.

"The change will greatly enhance Nevada's chances of getting the 33,000 kilowatts of Central Valley Project power for which the Nevada Colorado river commission has a valid contract, into the state," Malone predicted.

The change is simply this: The Bureau of Reclamation now will allow the Nevada Colorado river commission, or any similar agency that has a contract for public power, to contract with private companies or municipalities for distribution of that power without such power being subjected to further withdrawal.

The switch in policy is along lines Senator Malone long has recommended.

Malone added that the change in power policy is a further and long step in solving Nevada's power problems.

"When I meet with the river commission I will strongly suggest that it again resume efforts to bring Nevada's allotment of CVP power into our state and to urge that additional electrical energy be allocated to Nevada up to the full 90,000 kilowatts," Sen. Malone said.

SPORTS CAR RACES SCHEDULED IN RENO OCTOBER 17-18

One hundred high-powered foreign built sports cars will clash in four races over a twisting 3-mile course in the National Sports Car Races at Stead AFB, Reno, October 17-18.

For the first time in sports car racing history drivers will have to qualify for starting positions in the 300-mile wind-up race. No qualifying laps will be required for the first three races—28 miles for novices, 55 miles for drivers who have not won a major race this year, and a 28-mile grind for cars with less than 1500 cubic centimeters piston displacement.

Sports car drivers are amateurs only in the monetary sense of the word. Professional drivers have found that sports car racing requires skill that no other form of car racing demands.

The safety factor embraced by Ned Dearborn, president of the National Safety Council. Drivers must take a strict physical before each race. They must wear crash helmets and safety belts during a race. And their cars must be equipped with fire extinguishers and first aid kits.

Contra to popular belief, sports car racing is not a one-man effort. Pit men, the men behind the driver, share whatever glory or failure encountered. They are the men who give the driver service, information—and if worst comes to worst, pick up the pieces of broken engine and prepare for next time.

They, too, are amateurs. The October races will be sparked by a keen rivalry between East and West Coast drivers. It will be the first time these sectional rivals have met. Both sections claim top drivers and cars.

The air might and the Survival School of the Strategic Air Command plus an array of fabulous sports cars from an earlier era will be on display.

PLEASE RETURN THE RACING HELMET

The widow of Dick Meyer, stock car racer who lost his life on the highway last week, asks that her husband's helmet be returned to her. Anyone knowing of its whereabouts kindly contact the NEWS office.

MEN WANTED!

Help! SOS! Bob Peck, Recreation Director, needs men, young and old, to help coach Midget Football. The turnout of young fry has been so terrific that he needs men to help coach. Practice is every night at 6:30 PM at the ball field.

JENNE AND CORBIN SAFETY CONSCIOUS

Chief Floyd Jenne and City Manager Harold Corbin have been touring the town, making a survey of hazardous traffic conditions.

Southern Nevada Community Concert Association Closes Drive Saturday

The annual one-week membership drive of the Southern Nevada Community Concert Association is now in progress and will close Saturday noon, Sept. 26, according to Mrs. J. D. Earl, director of the Association for Boulder City. Mrs. Earl emphasized that the Community Concert Association has no connection with the Las Vegas Opera Association, which has been receiving memberships on a continuing basis. The Community Concert Association memberships went on sale Monday, Sept. 21, and will be available during this week only.

The Longines Symphonettes, Alec Templeton and Marina Svetlova—ballerina will definitely appear on the Concert series, with two additional features (tentatively selected: Igor Gorin and The Song Masters) to be added, depending upon the membership drive. All concerts will be presented in the new Las Vegas high school auditorium, which has a seating capacity of over 1,500 and boasts the finest acoustics in Southern Nevada.

Memberships may be obtained from Mrs. J. D. Earl, Mr. and Mrs. Elton Garrett, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Sweet, Mrs. Russell Wood, Mrs. Claude Naffziger, Mrs. McCarrroll and Father J. R. Fredericks.

Attention!

The Recreation Association is holding a special meeting for the teenagers and townspeople in regards to the skating rink, present and future plans must be made. A very serious situation exists at this time. Rough tactics, "crack the whip" pushing, tripping and skating in the wrong direction can be seen on any night. The rink is dangerous because there is no supervision. Doc Armstrong has volunteered to teach the teenage group figure skating free of charge twice a week but many, many volunteers are needed or a serious injury may result to one of our children. This meeting is Thursday night, Sept. 24. Teenagers are urged to come early and the building will be open at 7 P.M. Parents may accompany their teenage children or the parents of the elementary age group can drop in at 8 PM for it is hoped that parents will recognize the seriousness of this development and will assist the Recreation Association as much as possible for the safety of their children. Remember, 7 PM for teenagers and 8 PM adults.

Ski Races Successful In Calm Weather at Lake Mead

Harry Laughinghouse of Long Beach took first place in the 75 mile open race for the second consecutive year in the 6th annual Lake Mead ski and boat races held over the past weekend. The trophy, donated by Earl Brothers, for the event several years ago, becomes the permanent award of any skier winning it three times.

The weather was excellent, in contrast to that suffered in the Regatta, and the affair was deemed successful by both viewers and entrants. The races were sponsored jointly by Edi Juan of the Lake Mead Boat Company, the Lake Arrowhead Yacht Club, and Pasadena Speed Boat Club. Arrangements were made by C. H. Glassbrook of Lake Arrowhead, Bruce Izatt of Pasadena, Edi Juan and Earl Brothers.

Awards to skiers, drivers and observers were made Sunday afternoon at the boat dock. Rudy Ramos, driving the "Phfft-Phfft," with Leonard Marcell as the observer formed the rest of the winning team in the 75 mile race, which was the 4th event of the races. Other places were taken as follows:

German Beef Pot Roast, Potato Pancakes Appear at R.R. Pass

German Beef Pot Roast and Potato Pancakes! That's only one dinner that Ramos prepares at Railroad Pass.

Ramos has taken over food service at the Pass. He at one time served clientele from all over the world at the famous Caliente Hotel in Mexico.

"Salad does not mean a thing to a meal, unless," Ramos stated, "you are served the dressing of your choice. Therefore, I believe in mixing a dressing, for you, at your table."

He went on to say that German Beef Pot Roast and Potato Pancakes are served nightly as well as chicken, seafood and steak.

"To top off a meal there must be a fine dessert. We specialize in homemade pies and because your pie must be just right we also serve cheese or ice cream at no extra charge."

Ramos will cater to private parties during the day with outstanding cuisine.

Registration Is Extended For Carver Park Kindergarten

Because the registration at the Carver Park Kindergarten is smaller than at first anticipated, the age will be extended to December 31. Those parents having

Alvin K. Smith On Furlough From Korea

Alvin K. Smith, on furlough from the Air Force, arrived here last week. He is the husband of the former Marion Barger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jewell Barger, of 207 Nebraska. He disembarked from the USS Sultan September 12, and began his furlough two days later.

For the past year he has been on duty with the 1993 Air and Airways Communication Squadron in Suwon, Korea. His base, near Seoul, was an emergency field for aircraft returning from raids on North Korea.

He is an Airman first class and a radio operator assigned to collecting Japanese, Russian and Korean weather information for fighter groups. His job, he says, was made difficult by Russian radio stations "jamming" his frequency.

Alvin served with the Merchant Service on the Aleutian and Alaska run and made one voyage around the world during World War II.

After visiting Mr. and Mrs. Barger for a few days, the Smiths left Monday for Excelsior Springs Mo. to visit Alvin's parents.

He reports to his new outfit, a radar group in Tierra Amarillo, New Mexico on October 19.

The Reverend R. L. Stevenson of St. Timothy's church, lovingly known to his parishioners as HOLIDAY POOL Co.

IN FRONT OF THE ACRE MOTEL 1145 SOUTH FIFTH ST.

LATE in 1861 the Indian tribes of Nevada Territory were being reduced to starvation. Most of the Indians hung around small stations and towns, and were fed out of charity by the whites. Their pine nut forests were gone, their streams filled with trash and the game driven away. As their condition became more desperate, Governor Nye became concerned, fearing the Indians without food would cause trouble.

On December 4, 1861, Governor Nye wrote the Commander of the Pacific for food to ensure peace with all the tribes, and his request was quickly approved. Food was loaded at Fort Churchill and two teamsters started out with a huge load along the Overland Trail. A telegram then arrived, in which the Overland Mail Superintendent reported an Indian uprising was threatened by starving Indians at Roberts Creek Station. Twenty-five mounted troopers were ordered to proceed at once to overtake the freighters and serve as escort along the trail. Meanwhile, Warren Wasson, the famous Indian Agent, left by special stage with an interpreter. Making an extremely fast trip, he soon passed both soldiers and teamsters on his way to the scene of the trouble.

Wasson arrived at Smith Creek, the first stage station in Shoshone country, on December 19. He held a pow-wow near the Reese River with Chief Totoa and about 100 members of his tribe who were destitute. The Chief assured Wasson of the friendship of his tribe and begged for food, which Wasson promised would soon arrive. He then dashed on across the desert, arriving at Roberts Creek the evening of December 21. Here, instead of the reported Indian attack, Wasson found 50 to 60 starving Indians who were being fed small amounts of grain by employees of the Overland Mail Company from their limited stocks. So peaceful was this situation, that Wasson spent only an hour at Roberts Creek and then dashed on again. He reported some 15 to 25 starving Indians at each stage station along the way, including Simpson's Park, Dry Creek, Grub's Wells, etc., and in each case the starving Shoshones were being kept alive by stage station employees.

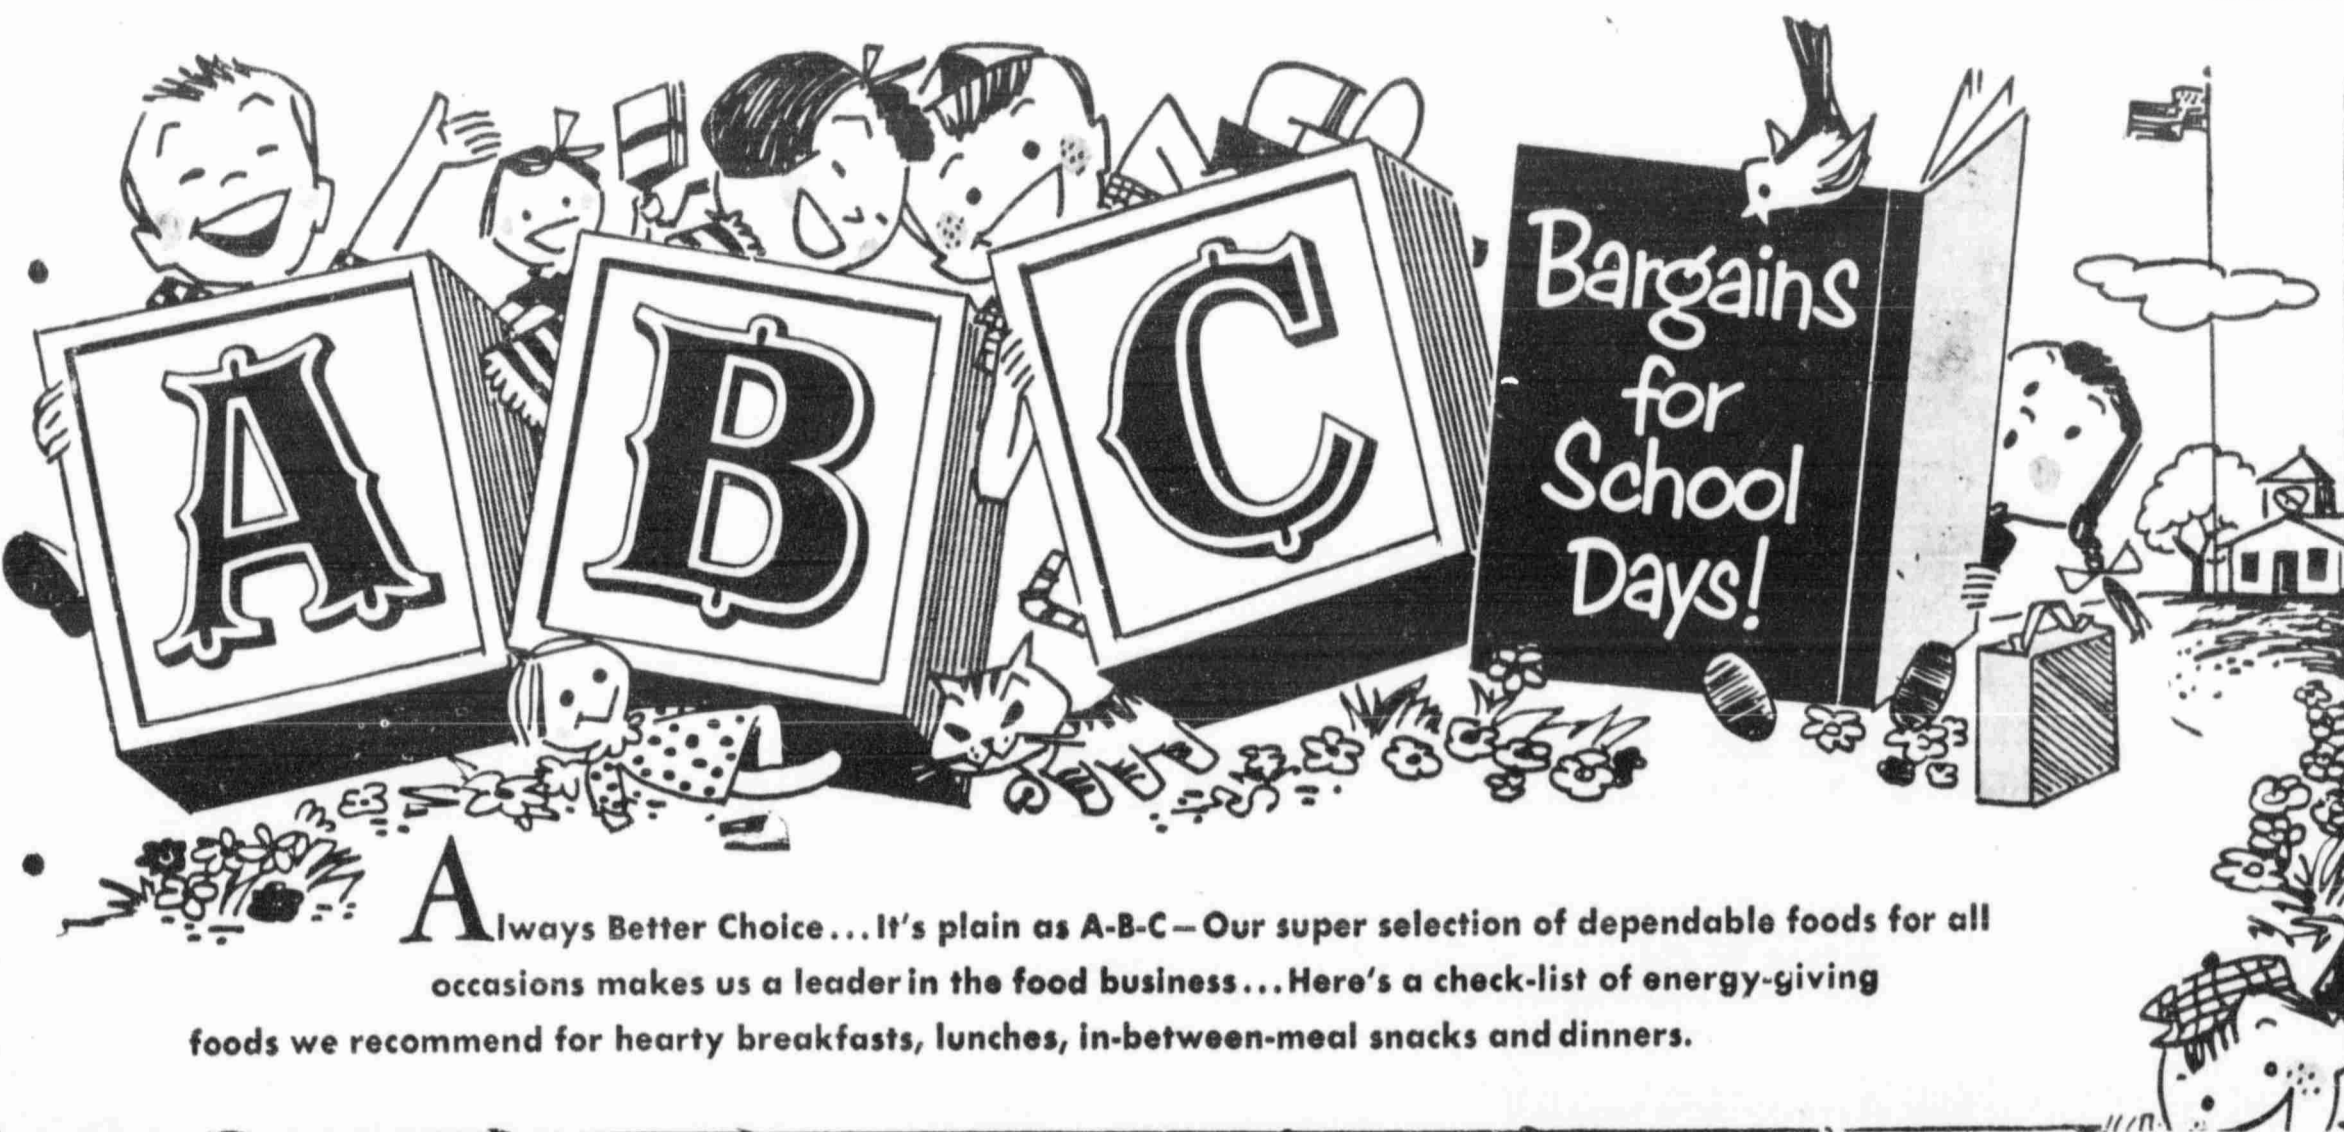

Wasson reached Ruby Valley at 8:00 A.M. on the morning of December 22, and found about 100 Indians led by an intelligent and youthful Chief by the name of Buck. Settlers of the Valley and the stage company had been feeding this group. Again Wasson went through his routine of "keeping the peace," assuring the tribes that food was on the way. There seemed to be no desire to fight on the part of any of the tribes, only a hope to get enough food to keep the Indian people alive through the winter. Wasson makes no estimate of the number of Indians dying from starvation or malnutrition before help arrived, but he states significantly that they were without horses and dogs. The food not only kept the peace but went a long way toward keeping the Indians alive through the winter.

Knights Of Columbus Plan Halloween Plans

Plans for the establishment of a Knights of Columbus council in the Henderson-Boulder City area are progressing rapidly and District Deputy Tom Mulroy of Henderson will outline the next steps for obtaining a charter at a meeting of all Catholic men this evening at the Swanky club.

District Attorney Roger D. Foley, present secretary of the Nevada jurisdiction of the Order, has issued a statement commending the organizing committee on the fine work done thus far and, speaking on behalf of State Deputy Rudy S. Lak, said, "The Knights of Columbus, recognizing the rapid growth of the Southern Nevada area, feel that the institution of this new council is a very worthwhile undertaking and will be a splendid asset to the communities of Henderson and Boulder City."

FAREWELL GIFT SHOWER

Fran Marriott was hostess recently at a farewell gift shower given for Marion Smith when she left her post at the local telephone office to join her husband on his return from Korea. The party was held in the telephone office in order that the operators who were on duty might be able to share in the fun and refreshments.

Present were Dorothy Harbert, Denelda Brown, Beverley Woods, Wanda Millis, Joan Monk, Helen Chauncey, Marjorie Sleeper, Dolores Luth, Rusty Henry, Vilate Home, hostess Fran Marriott, and the guest of honor, Marion Smith.

Council Makes Halloween Plans

The Henderson Co-ordinating Council met Thursday evening, Sept. 17, at the high school, and completed arrangements for the forthcoming Halloween festivities to be held on October 30 and 31. Parties will be held in school classrooms through the 6th grade on Friday, Oct. 30, and two parties are scheduled for the 7th and 8th grades and the high school on Saturday evening, Oct. 31. These affairs will take place at the Victory Village auditorium and the Basic high school auditorium and will feature an orchestra for dancing. Mrs. Ruth Ball is chairman of the Halloween program.

John Dooley gave a financial report on the swim program and declared it a complete success. Mrs. Christine Hamblin and Mrs. Chester Gaither were appointed co-chairmen of the Thanksgiving committee.

Representing the various organizations at the meeting were Chester Gaither for the Acacia Club; Mrs. Chester Gaither, Eastern Star Club; Mrs. Lena Cataline, Chamber of Commerce; Mrs. Marion Lindesmith, AAUW; Mrs. Margaret Jamison, Phi Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi; Mrs. Clark Carroll, BPW; John Dooley, Rotary; Henderson school and East Las Vegas; Mrs. Ellen Ireland, VFW Auxiliary Post 3848, and Mrs. Ida Belle Riggins, Henderson PTA.

Sunday, Oct. 4, has been selected as Worldwide Communion day. Practically every denomination will partake of the Holy Sacrament on this day, around the world.

ESTHER CIRCLE POTLUCK

A covered dish potluck lunch was served Friday, Sept. 11, at the home of Mrs. Duane Gilger at 22 Atlantic.

Funds raised at the luncheon will be used for missionary work abroad.

Mrs. Ralph Barber delivered the invocation and the benediction was pronounced by Mrs. A. C. Terrill, a guest of the circle.

Present were Mesdames A. C. Terrill, Ralph Barber, T. E. McCullough, Herb Crosby, R. F. Parissenti, Duane Gilger, Edrie Hansen and Mabel Turner.

The George Tuckers

Mr. and Mrs. George Tucker returned Saturday from a two week vacation trip which took them to Sutherlin, Oregon, Colfax, Washington, Vale, Oregon, Ontario, Oregon, and Nampa, Idaho, where they visited with friends and relatives.

We're All for One — On A Tray

Designed for a time-of-your-life party—our Barbecued Corned Beef Hashburgers. They are easy to cook, attractive to serve and the proof of it all is in the eating. It's a one-tray meal in keeping with modern ranch house living. Let the man-of-the-house carry it triumphantly to porch or yard for popular outdoor eating. It will match the appetites of good neighbors assembled for impromptu get-togethers.

Menus which include foods that can be arranged on one large serving platter or tray are most suitable for transporting to a cool, breezy dining spot. The hashburgers, on toasted buns, are prepared with a minimum of time and effort. Food trays need the impact of color and here it is in the sparkling green of fresh or frozen stringless beans and the relish garnishes.

- 1/4 cup tomato catsup
- 1 teaspoon prepared mustard
- 1 teaspoon vinegar

Combine catsup, mustard and vinegar and spread over top of hash slices during last ten minutes of baking. Cut buns in half and toast both cut sides. Place a slice of barbecued hash in each bun. DOLOR ESTORY

By Dolores Zenoff

That pretty little old lady seen around town with us is "My Mom" here for a visit. We love having her here on her first visit.

You've seen pictures and news-reels of one of the most important buildings on earth — the United Nations — on the East River in New York City. (Please refer to the editor's column for more details.) But, we were there.

While attending the Security Council meeting, Vishinsky sat almost within touching distance and looks like a grey-haired affable, elderly man. He seemed to be joshing with his cohorts at times. Only the sullen, sulking Russian henchman sitting directly behind him reminded you of the bitterness in the world today.

The rest of the members seated around the Council Chamber representing the U.S., China, Lebanon, Greece, France, Denmark, Colombia, Chile, United Kingdom, Pakistan and their aides, gave us the impression that we were sitting in on perhaps an American Legion meeting in some large American city. The mode of dress was strictly American type suits, four-in-hand and even bow ties, and Oxford.

Only when an important message delivered in French by the delegate from France on the Morocco question, with us listening in on earphones to the English translation while he orated and then the subsequent audible English translation to the members at large — only then did we realize that we were sitting in on a great body of men endeavoring to settle the world problems by arbitration. You realize that the Pakistan delegate's answer in flawless English was the voice of fifteen other nations in angry protest. Something must be done. And something will be done with conferences — not war.

Speaking of the French delegate, I must ask you, "How many languages do you speak?" I am ashamed of myself. I stumble thru German, get the gist of Spanish, know a few words in Jewish, and have a passable knowledge of Latin. I'm going to call Mrs. Renee Dickinson and take French lessons. Because if I go back to the United Nations I want to be able to pronounce Poussez and Tirez. You see it written on all doors. One is push — the other pull.

Back to the United Nations. Only a few women were in evidence that day in the Security Council Chamber. One French woman very smartly dressed, the other a Chinese in a Chinese outfit, high-necked and with the skirt slit to just below the knee. However, she did wear high-heeled pumps.

There must be dozens and dozens of lobbies in that huge building. Let me describe a few. The furniture, divans, chairs, end tables, etc., are strictly modern — black wrought iron. One lobby is done with green carpeting, pale gray walls, and rust leather cushions. Another is done with white leather and Persian rug wall hangings. Another with wall of a rose shade with gold leather. Another has cocoa rugs and green leather. The Security Council Chamber used light wood desks and chairs, and powder blue leather seats and gray carpeting. The press gallery was done in green corduroy padded school chairs. The walls throughout the room were dark blue velvet embossed in gold with draperies of the same design and material. There was much gray marble throughout. The other council chambers are similar in size and just as lavish with the use of color.

Western Union offers cable service to anywhere in any language, or secret language written in Roman letters.

A placard tells you that "It Happened One Night" will be shown in the Theatre somewhere in the building. Another placard tells you that the Little Theatre group meets in another room that night. The day is too short — there is too much to see.

The New York shops are offering: Mink collars and cuffs, mink buttons, and mink trimmed shoes. Green taffeta was the favorite of Bergdorf-Goodmans many windows. No one in New York wears

URGE PROTECTION FOR WHOOPING CRANES

As the whooping cranes—North America's largest and rarest migratory bird — head south from Canada this month in their annual fall migration, the public is urged to allow these majestic white creatures to make their way unharmed to their Texas wintering grounds. The plea was made jointly today by the National Audubon Society and the Fish and Wildlife Service of the Department of the Interior.

Seriously threatened with extinction, a mere 21 "whoopers" remained on the continent at the last count, made in April.

In their migration south last fall at least two cranes from the diminishing band were killed by gunners, one in Saskatchewan and one in Kansas, in spite of Canadian and United States regulations. Standing four feet tall and having a wingspread of seven feet, the average whooping crane is very conspicuous. In flight, its long neck and spindly legs are completely outstretched. Its white body and black wing-tips make the bird easily discern-able and its resonant "whoop" can be heard two or three miles away. Newspapers, radio, television, and such groups as garden clubs, sportsmen's organizations, and Audubon Junior Clubs are being enlisted in the drive to acquaint the public with the necessity of stopping the illegal shooting of the cranes.

Shoulder bags. (But Chicagoans and Milwaukeeans do.) Stores offer records to teach your parakeet to talk. Sweaters are bejeweled and embroidered for evening wear and have loopy turtle necks for sportswear. Tiffany's shows a diamond solitaire for $25,000. The horse drawn hansom cabs still meander thru Central Park. Apple pancakes are still a favorite at Reuben's.

So, hello, we are back.

able and its resonant "whoop" can be heard two or three miles away. Newspapers, radio, television, and such groups as garden clubs, sportsmen's organizations, and Audubon Junior Clubs are being enlisted in the drive to acquaint the public with the necessity of stopping the illegal shooting of the cranes.

The whooper is sometimes mistaken for a snow goose, white pelican, American egret, or whistling swan. Gunners, therefore, are being urged to refrain from shooting at ANY large white bird and to report the sighting of birds that might be whooping cranes to the nearest conservation officer.

Neighborhood Chatter

By Miriam E. Giles
A/2c Mrs. Michael Cutler of 11C East Washington St. in Carver has just returned from a months vacation with her four month old daughter, Cheryl Kay. They visited Mrs. Cutler's mother, Mrs. J. A. DeVol in Davenport, Iowa.

W most surprised to hear that Mr. and Mrs. John McArthur of 102 Basic Road have just returned from vacation in their home town of Lockport, New York. Our family used to shop in nearby Lockport when we were at our summer cottage at Roosevelt Beach in New York. Hi neighbor!

Mrs. "Mike" Green of 8B West Lincoln, in Carver has been working for the past three weeks as Cook? grille? girl? and waitress at the Tastee Tavern in the Townsite.

Charles Kortuis of Burton St., had a birthday anniversary and cake, Monday, Sept. 21.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dickert are on a week's trip to Denver, Colorado, where they have had the family homestead in the hands of a realtor. They are hoping to complete a sale and make Henderson a permanent home.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Peterson of 11D East Washington in Carver held a party for all the little friends of their daughter, Wanda Faye.
The happy occasion was the second birthday anniversary of Wanda.

Mrs. Bette Kump of Church St., is going to instruct in painting on copper at girl scout training in October. After seeing her fine portrait in pastels at the Henderson Industrial Days exhibit, it's a class one won't want to miss.

Mrs. Sheila Drake, of Lincoln St. in Carver is employed as a waitress in the dining room of Railroad Pass.

Mrs. Luther Dancer of 113 Octillo (which I as an easterner, have been informed is pronounced with the P's silent—and glad to know) St., is a comparatively new resident in Manganese park. She, and her family of eight children and one grandchild come from Walla Walla, Oregon.

Mr. Dancer is employed at Manganese Ore.

The school children were "dumbfounded" over Richard Doyle of Carver Park. It seems Richard fell a couple days before school started but thought he was all right. The day he registered to start school however, he began to feel bad and his mother took him to a physician, only to find that Richard was walking about with a cracked spine.

After being certain six months ago that she was going to move any day into her new home Mrs.

Thomas McKnight, formerly of Lincoln Street in Carver, has moved into her new home at 2316 Berkley St., in Berkley Plaza, in Las Vegas. Her sister, Mrs. Chester Boyd of Carver St., is a little lost without her sister's close companionship.

Women's Home League
The Women's Home League is hoping this is the last week they need meet in the VFW hall in Victory Village. They are hoping that all members and their husbands will turn out next Monday night at 6:30 to aid in painting and giving those last minute touches to Dormitory C, which are necessary to complete it for occupation of the organization.

All members, friends and husbands are asked to wear old clothes and come prepared to paint and then partake of a potluck supper to be set up in the VFW hall out of the paint-fumes. Please bring your own silver and place-setting.

At this week's meeting, food was wrapped in Christmas trimmings to be mailed to Women's League members in Russian German sector behind the iron curtain. At a meeting next month, it is asked that members bring canned meats, dried fruits, cake mixes not needing eggs, or similar articles to be gift wrapped and mailed to Letired English Salvation Army Officers. Another project set up is repairing many donated toys for Christmas gifts.

Saturday, Oct. 17, was the date tentatively set in which to hold a bazaar in Dormitory C, to raise money to organize the "Sunbeams" in the Henderson area and the Boy's League.

Open house, will be held in Dormitory C, Halloween, Oct. 31 in order to acquaint all the people with the organization that is being set up

Sure glad to see the street signs being put up on the tract "up Ocean Avenue Way" for just about everyone has been wrapping on just about everyone's door and I never heard of so many people not knowing where the streets are in their own home town—let alone confessing they didn't even know there was such a street. It won't be long now until we familiarize ourselves with them all.

A big "Hi" to Mr. Walter Kubie of 110 East Basic in the Townsite, as new maintenance man at the Basic Grammar High School this year — a big job in reference to the welfare of our children.

Elementary School Enrollment Shows Marked Increase

At the close of the first two weeks of the present school year, Loyal Burkholder, school superintendent announced that the elementary school enrollment had reached a high of 1892 students. September 9, when school opened 1738 students were enrolled; this was increased to 1865 Sept. 11, and 1892 on Sept. 13. These figures are an increase of 789 students over the 1949 enrollment, 741 over the 1950 enrollment; 560 over the 1951 enrollment; 461 over er the 1952 enrollment. A breakdown of the enrollment shows that there are now 227 students in kindergarten; 330 in the first grade; 200 in the 2nd grade; 209 in the third; 205 in the fourth; 216 in the fifth; 187 in the sixth; 172 in the seventh and 146 in the eighth.

High school enrollment has not varied much since the opening of school, only four additional students enrolling. The total enrollment is 479.

Professional engineers of Southern Nevada and their wives are meeting Friday evening, September 25, at the Silver Slipper ballroom. This "Ladies' Night" dinner meeting is the initial get-together of the 1953-54 season for the Southern Nevada chapter of the Nevada Society of Professional Engineers.

The program scheduled for the meeting is an address on "Unity Among Engineers" by Richard F. Walz, manager of the Electronic Computer Division of Bendix Aviation Corp., Los Angeles.

The Southern Nevada chapter of Professional Engineers is the largest in the state, and membership is made up of registered specialists in nearly all fields of engineering at the professional level. Newly-elected officers for the coming year are: Oscar J. Scherer, president; R. C. Barger, vice president; E. N. Reed, secretary-treasurer; and Elmo Bruner, K. T. Bronken and Allye Lawson, directors. Lifeguard Service Suspended At Beaches: Accidents Listed Supervision on swimming beaches at Lake Mead, located at Las Vegas Wash and Boulder Beach, has been terminated, according to George F. Bagley, superintendent of the Lake Mead National Recreation Area. The beach at Overton is also closed. While swimmers may continue to use the beaches themselves, all of the beach equipment—diving rafts, lifeguard line, parking barriers, and children's shallow water platforms have been removed. No lifeguards are on duty. Bagley emphasized the need for caution on the part of swimmers who do utilize the beaches in the absence of previous rescue services, and pointed out the fact that parents of young children should maintain close watch of these youngsters while they are in the water.

From June 1 through September 13, the lifeguards assigned to the beaches reported 147,485 swimmers visited the area. The seven lifeguards assigned to the two beaches performed 39 rescues during the summer, according to Miss Joan Miller, supervisory lifeguard, who was in charge of the beaches.

Miss Miller also reported 47 cases of injury to visitors which were treated or given first aid by the guards; most of these were cut feet that resulted when swimmers stepped on broken bottles, but several "freak" accidents also occurred. One of these took place when a mother failed to catch her three-year-old child who was jumping from one of the shallow water platforms, and the youngster's teeth laid open the mother's scalp. Several cases of skinned or cut noses and facial cuts resulted from diving in shallow water, and one man received a deep cut on the foot when he dropped a bottle which shattered on his instep. Three cases of hands cut by beer cans were reported.

While the formal swimming season may well be considered successful, the number of injuries and "pull-outs" indicates a lack of regard for their own safety by too many swimmers, in the belief of National Park Service employees concerned with the safety problems of the Recreation area. Too many swimmers attempt to swim beyond the point where their endurance can allow them to return to the shore unaided, and require assistance of the guards. Too many others are injured by scuffling on the beaches and diving rafts, or are the recipients of cuts caused by thoughtlessness of others who throw away or deliberately break bottles on the beaches, and in the water, NPS officials said.

Jaycees Collect For Returned War Prisoners

Jaycee activity for the past week was centered around the collection of funds for Southern Nevada's returned prisoners of war.

The club announced that contributions were received from the following merchants and business people: Foodland market; Pratt Prince barber shop; Byrne grocery; Kilday's meat market; Witt barber shop; Henderson Telephone company; California Pacific Utilities company; Henderson Appliance; Reliance Radio store; McKee shoe repair shop; Kiddie Korner; Gates service station; Van Valey shoe store; Woodruff Photo shop; Desert Pride cleaners, Pepsi-Cola, Henderson drug store, Fourong Jewelry; Turner and Coleman; Henderson Home Gardens; Morrell Realty; LaPorta Insurance; Perry's Men's shop; Taste Tavern; Richardson's Department Store; the Henderson Home News and office.

Gifts purchased with the collection money were presented to Cpl. Joseph N. Ramsey of Las Vegas and PFC. R. L. Yoss of Nelson at the Henderson-Las Ve-

Royal Neighbors Plan Schedule

Harmony Camp 10756 of the Royal Neighbors met on Friday evening, September 18, at the Victory Village auditorium and decided to hold a Stanley party at their next social meeting, which is scheduled for October 16. A ballot was taken on a prospective new member. Plans were also made to hold a rummage sale in the near future. It was announced that the next regular meeting would take place at the Victory Village auditorium on October 2.

At the conclusion of the business session a bingo party was held. Refreshments were served by Mabel Newton and Alma Gregory. Those who were present included, Mesdames Mabel Newton, Edrie Hansen, Alice Smiddy, Della Bernhard, Laurel Roberts, Wanda Parisenti, Ann Elsea, Opal Carr, Lula Erickson, Lucille Virden, Gertrude Scott, Doris Berge, Mary Virden, Zella Choate and Alma Gregory.

A gas football game last Friday.

In addition to the collection campaign, the Jaycees began the Scotch-Lite bumper campaign last week and canvassed the business district on Saturday.

Their scheduled meeting for last Monday night on the water bond election was postponed.

Dickover Plans Appreciation Sale Soon

The success of the Grand Opening sale at Dick's new Super Market in Pittman exceeded all expectations, according to owner Paul Dickover, who is planning another huge sale in the near future; an appreciation sale, which is his way of thanking the customers for their success of the grand opening.

Though it was not necessary to attend in order to be eligible to win in the grocery drawing, hundreds of people were present and the drawing had to be held out of doors as there was not sufficient room for the crowd inside the market.

Winners in the grocery drawing were: Edith Westfall, Eva Troyer, N. A. Higgins, and Ellen Marshall, of Pittman. Henderson winners were J. W. Adams, 692 Blackmore Dr., May Karr, 315 Tungsten, Nadine May, 93 B. Victory Village, Frank Dee, Wilma Kelley, 231 Pacific, Leolia Ann Farrington, 225 Barium, and Ruth Stapleton, 342 Nebraska and from Las Vegas, Annabelle Carinan.

The winning numbers were drawn from the same box that was used for the free chances on the seven television sets to be

Otis Hatch Family Returns from Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Hatch and children Judith, Donald and Lynn, of 23 Arizona Way, have recently returned from a six weeks trip which took them to Texas to visit with their relatives. At Austin, Texas, they visited with Mr. Hatch's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hatch, and at Blanco, Texas, visited with Mrs. Hatch's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Page.

given away by CBS Columbia.

Drawing for the television winners will be held in about two weeks in Los Angeles by the Ray Thomas Company, western distributor for the television company.

Phone Company Seeks Increase

Claiming a net loss for the fiscal year ended June 30, the Henderson Telephone company has applied to the Public Service Commission of Nevada for a rate increase. The proposed increase is to cover already planned expansion in keeping with growth of the town.

The increase asked for on residential rates is 100 per month while a rate boost of $2.00 per month is proposed for businesses. The company considers the jump moderate as compared with other areas receiving the same service.

Present rates are considered inadequate as they have not kept pace with the phone company's expansion program, nor, the company claims do they allow a fair return on investment.

In that the Public Service commission has been unable to complete its investigation and make its order in the matter, the commission has handed down a second suspension order for the case. The proposed increase has been set down for hearing before the PSC at the Justice Court in Henderson on October 1, at 10 AM.

Boulder, Basic Knights Of Columbus Seen

Plans are now being made for establishment of a Knights of Columbus council in the Boulder City-Henderson area.

District Deputy Tom Mulroy of Henderson will outline steps to be taken in obtaining a charter for the group at a meeting of all Catholic men in the region, to be held Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at the Swanky Club near Henderson.

Roger D. Foley of Las Vegas, present state secretary of the Nevada jurisdiction of the order, has issued a statement commending the organizing committee on the fine work done thus far on the project.

Speaking on behalf of State Deputy Rudy S. Lak of Reno, Foley stated, "The Knights of Columbus," recognizing the rapid growth of the southern Nevada area, feel that the institution of this new council is a very worthwhile undertaking, and will be a splendid asset to the communities of Boulder City and Henderson. In cooperation with the clergy, I urge all who are qualified to join do so.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE LESSON THIS WEEK

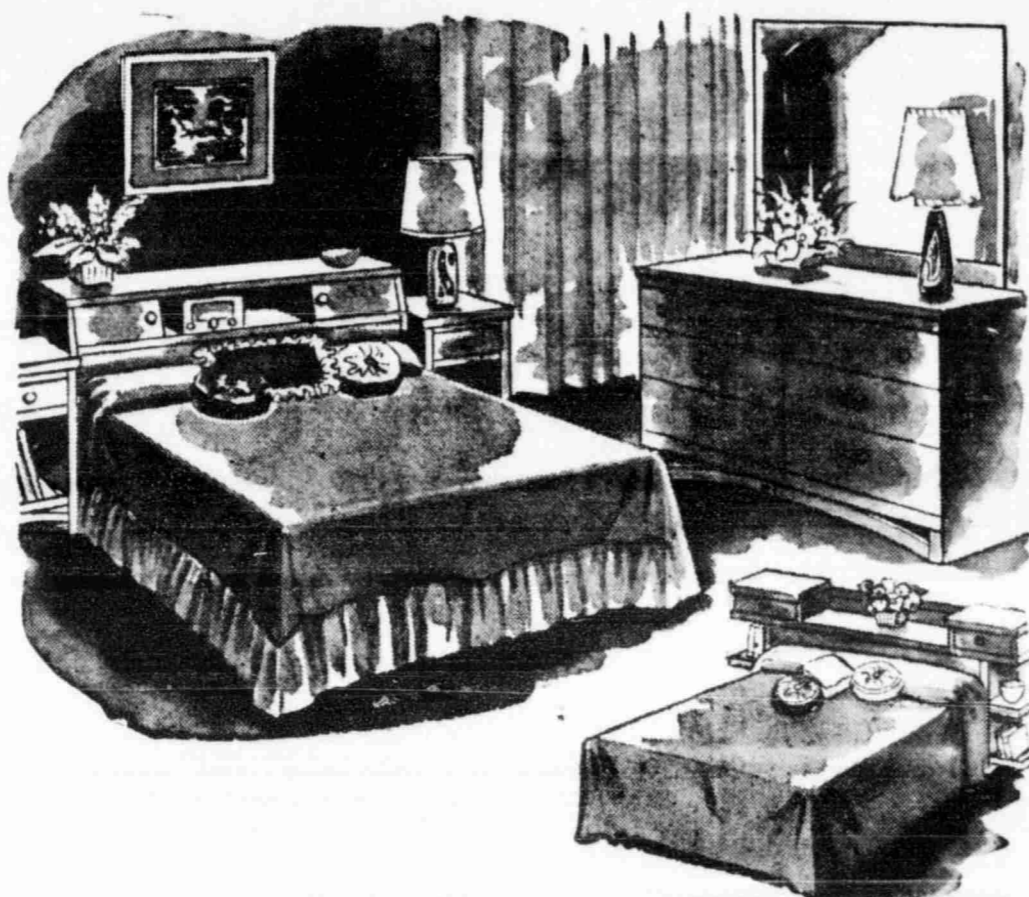

"Realty" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science services next Sunday.

The Golden Text is from Philippians 4:8. " whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things."

Citations from the Bible include a short statement by Paul in his letter to Timothy. "Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth." 11 Timothy 2:15.

Statement by

Basic Management, Incorporated

Industry at Henderson recognizes that adequate water is essential if we are to continue to grow. We know that water is essential to the growth of all other activities in the District.

The present plans of the Water District is the first step towards the ultimate solution of the problem of providing sufficient water for the growth of the area served by the District.

THE PROVISIONS OF THE DISTRICT'S CONTRACT FOR WATER WITH B.M.I. WILL NOT INCREASE THE AMOUNT OF WATER AVAILABLE TO THE PLANTS.

Although Henderson industry does not stand to gain anything directly by the passage of the bond issue, they will share in the continued increasing prosperity of the community.
