Compliment Kids For Behavior On Halloween

Halloween 1955 was reported one of the most successful holidays in the history of the city. More than 500 children appeared in the first annual Halloween Parade under the direction of the Elks Lodge. Many beautiful prizes, donated by Henderson merchants, were awarded the children for their parade costumes. The Victory Theatre also donated 35 show tickets which were given out as prizes.

The Halloween party in Pittman, sponsored by the Childrens Theater Group under the Recreation Department, was attended by 97 children and parents and prizes were awarded for most original and funniest costumes.

Dances held by the Junior Treasurers and Basic High School students were also very well attended.

Only one report of vandalism was reported to the local police, this was minor damage to a fence on the Bill Byrne property. Police Chief George Crisler said he is very proud of the city's young people for their behavior on Halloween both this year and in 1954.

NEW PTA GROUP WILL ELECT OFFICERS NOV. 8

Officers of the Park Village Parent Teacher Association will be elected at a meeting to be held at the Park Village School on Tuesday, Nov. 8, at 7:30 p.m. Mrs. Val Cannon, formerly with the Carver Park Mothers' Club is in charge of organizing the new PTA group which was approved at a recent meeting of the executive board of the Elementary School PTA. Frank Plasha, president of the Townsite and Basic Elementary PTA, sent the new unit best wishes and promised the support of his group.

Present enrollment at Park Village School is 650 students with 1500 attending Basic and Townsite. The need for a separate organization was apparent, Mrs. Cannon said.

PTA members who wish to join the Park Village group may have their dues and membership transferred to the new unit, Mrs. Cannon said.

Parents wishing further information about the new group are invited to call Mrs. Cannon at FR 2-8255, or Miss Inis Jennings, principal of the school at her office, FR 2-4361, or at her home evenings, FR 4-3713.

100 Buxom Beauties Attend First Lesson of Slim and Trim Course

Buxom beauties started the (fat) ball rolling with a real bang Monday evening when they converged on Townsite Elementary School auditorium more than 100 strong to enroll in the new 12-week Slim and Trim course sponsored by the City Recreation Department.

Registration for the course will be taken at tonight's meeting. Those unable to attend are asked to send their name in with a friend or drop a postcard to Ina Gallinger, 202 Tungsten St.

Weight, measurement, and posture improvement charts will be kept on each student to show what progress is being made.

Basic exercises were discussed and demonstrated at the first session. These include body

Junior Chamber Reports Lumber Has Been Stolen

Local Jaycees have reported the disappearance of lumber purchased for use on the drag strip. Since none of the workers took it away, it is evident that it has been stolen.

Members of the organization request that the person or persons who made off with the lumber return it to the location from which it was taken. The drag strip, sponsored by the Junior Chamber for the use of local youth, is designed for the safety of the young hot rod enthusiasts and safe driving competition.

"We'll give it a jolly good try!"

That's the way Britisher Don Campbell, the world's speedboat king, sums up his chances of cracking his own record of 202.32 miles per hour when he makes another assault on the mark this weekend at Lake Mead.

Campbell told Boulder City and Henderson News reporters Wednesday that the Bluebird goes in Lake Mead's waters today. Just when the official record try will be made hadn't been announced by deadline but it will be held on the one kilometer course at Boulder Beach.

Campbell said he expects to make a few preliminary test runs today and Friday with the record attempt possibly coming Saturday or Sunday. The Britisher wasn't certain what time of day the try would be made, but added that it would all depend on the weather conditions.

The unsettled condition of Lake Mead was largely blamed for Campbell's failure to break the record on Oct. 16. Following a trial run the Bluebird sunk in 50 feet of water but has since been repaired and pronounced in excellent condition.

Woodruff Elected C of C President

Robert "Bob" Woodruff was elected president of the Chamber of Commerce at a meeting held Oct. 25 by the newly elected board of directors.

Clifton "Doc" Coleman of service was elected vice-Texaco service was elected vice-president; Mrs. Lena Celine, second vice-president; and Hershel Trumbo, treasurer. Mrs. Cecile Becker of Services Unlimited was later appointed secretary by President Woodruff, replacing former Executive Secretary Grace Byrne who helped in the organization of the local chamber and has held the position since the first group of officers were elected.

It was announced that Fritz McGonigle and Dr. J. Coogan will meet soon with Otis Wright of the State Highway Department to discuss the proposed fenced freeway on Boulder Highway.

MCCARRAN FIELD TO BE EXPANDED, ROTARIANS TOLD

Contemplated expansion of McCarran Field and a history of the traffic volume increase at the airport were detailed to members of the Henderson Rotary Club by Manager Bob Minton last Friday. Minton was introduced by Morry Zenoff, program chairman.

Minton told the Rotarians that in 1948 the passenger traffic totaled only 35,106. Last year the figure was 311,619. Six years ago, he said, only six flights arrived at the port. The number had jumped to 37 in 1954.

To accommodate the influx, Minton reported an expansion program is now underway but probably will require about four years to complete. Land is to be purchased to extend both the north-south and east-west runways and all facilities are being expanded and improved. Eventually, Minton said, private planes will also be quartered at McCarran Field and hangars will be constructed to accommodate them.

Of interest to many was Minton's explanation that the fire fighting facilities have improved considerably in recent weeks

Morry's Story

Tale of Two Cities

BC—Bill Belknap, as honest a guy as you'd ever want to meet, was called in for jury duty this week. In the questioning to see if he qualified, Bill was asked if he had ever read anything about the mail fraud case that was to be brought before the jury.

Bill said no and the lawyers' questions started coming hot and heavy with—"You mean you never heard or read about this when the papers had headlines about it."

Ordinarily, it would seem everyone in the area would have read about it.

But you can't reckon with this fellow Belknap's time. When he's away from newspapers, he's away.

It just so happened that when the big mail robbery plan hit the headlines, Belknap was in no man's land—fighting the Colorado River rapids about a mile deep into the canyon that borders the river. The only contact with civilization is by mule team and government short wave radio.

When Bill was dismissed from jury duty, he had a feeling they thought he was fibbing. They should have asked him where he was during that week — then his answer would have been enough—unless the lawyers don't know the Colorado river. For sure, they don't know Belknap—or they would not have raised their eyebrows like they did.

Basic—talking about great photographers—such as Belknap is—I wish to tell you about another—Bob Woodruff, who does such a job servicing the people of Henderson.

What makes me happy about Bob this week is that he was selected as president of the chamber of commerce.

He has a job to do and he is a long enough business man in the town to know its problems. In addition, he has originality and fresh ideas, all of which should go far in booming Henderson's future.

Good luck to you Bob—and we're always at your service.

BC & Basic—the big football game between Boulder and Henderson next Friday (not this Friday) is, as far as I'm concerned, the major inter-city event of the year. It is a natural for rivalry. It is a natural for developing inter-city friendships and it should bring to the Basic stadium that night the largest crowd of the year.

Just like Minnesota and Michigan fight for the Little Brown Jug and other schools have gadgets as items to fight for as part of the tradition, I herewith offer a gadget for the two teams to fight for—if they want it—

It is an old five gallon milk can which was used during the Comstock days in Virginia City—I will have Don Campbell, the English speed boat king, fill it with Lake Mead water from underneath his Bluebird boat—and we will call it the—Lake Mead-Bluebird-trophy.

If you folks at the two schools want it, contact me and I'll set it up—and have Campbell at the game to present it to the winner on the field following the game.

Everyone should plan to make the big Boulder-Basic game the annual BIG night . . . and each year gala activities will be added to make the game stand for more than just a football game.

You folks will be as happy as I was to learn this week that my daughter, Vicki, sat up in her hospital bed for the first time since she was hit by polio a month ago . . . she still has a long siege in the hospital and the doctor tells me I'll soon be able to go in to see her there.

With Bill Balknap

Do you have the same problem I do about always picking Mondays to need haircuts?

Don't know why, but every time I look in the mirror and decide it's time for either a haircut or a violin case, it turns out to be Monday. Have you ever tried to find a barber on Monday?

For a long time I thought I must be out of step with the world. But recently I've decided it's the barbers, who are out of step.

After all, who wants to waste a perfectly good Saturday getting a haircut? You're usually heading for the hills anyway, and need all the hair you can muster to keep warm. Especially if, like me, your forest has a big clearing in its middle.

And if you head for the wide open spaces over a weekend it means you won't waste time shaving. So comes Sunday night or Monday morning and the big clean-up, you naturally decide you'd look even sharper with a trim job 'round the ears. You're all cocked and primed for a haircut. I usually make a note to this effect on the back of my hand with a ballpoint pen, "Haircut!"

Then at the appropriate moment after lunch on Monday comes the horrible realization that all good barbers are out fishing.

Now ballpoint pens are marvelous gadgets. But I've yet to find one (even those we sell at the PHOTO CENTER) whose writing will last on the back of my hand from Sunday night until Tuesday.

So along about Thursday morning Fran will say at breakfast, "Willie, you MUST get a haircut. I hate to have you looking shaggy. Please do it TODAY!" Generally speaking, this brings action.

You'd think with enough fishing lessons, Jason Lucas and Ray Cole'd be a whiz at catching bass.

Not so. I can be in the hottest spot on the lake, with people taking limits all around me, and never get a nibble.

Some goes for bird shooting. I can be out with Collins and Ransy, the first day of quail season. When we come back to the car after a couple of hours they'll both be filled up. I'll have maybe two poor shot-up little quail.

Guess you just have to be a horn-gone-getter.

But when it comes to photographing these sports, that's a different matter. Somehow I can usually manage to be in the right spot at the right time.

We have on special Kodak Pony 35mm cameras. This is an exceptionally fine tool for making top quality color slides. It takes standard 35mm Kodachrome film (or black and white). The lens mount collapses so you can slip the camera easily into a pocket. And sharp? You'll wonder how pictures can be so crisp and perfect when the camera costs only $24.95.

And if you want to buy a Pony camera or any other photographic equipment, on our convenient lay-away plan, a few dollars a week will have it paid for by Christmas.

If you're a 35mm color slide fan (and who isn't?) come in and shop our selection of hand viewers, slide mounts, slide view boxes and projectors. These items are naturals, too. If there's a color slide hound on your Christmas list.

Vicki Zenoff Says Thank You To Polka Dotters

(Mrs. Virginia A. Fenton recently received a letter from Mrs. Clara B. Crook of Milwaukee, Wis., written in behalf of Vicki Zenoff who was stricken with polio this summer. While the letter was addressed to Mrs. Fenton, it was intended for all members of the Polka Dotters and is printed here in its entirety. Editor's note.)

Dear Mrs. Fenton: We've been hoping that Vicki would be able to express her own thanks to those wonderful Polka Dotters but she is still flat on her back.

Vicki and I (her mother) have talked over many times what she could say to you—to all of you. You cannot imagine what it means to a sick person to be so completely overwhelmed with sincere thoughtfulness and tender sympathy—especially from friends Vic hasn't even met yet. We consider all of you our very good friends and thank you most sincerely for the many nice things you've done—the "Victory for Vicki Dance"; the "eGt Well Dance"; the check for our local polio foundation; the many cards; and the lovely stuffed animals.

Thank you again. Vicki is making progress, though slowly. She will be hos-

Mann Is Elected Radio Club Head

Jerry Mann was elected president of the Southern Nevada Amateur Radio Club at a meeting held recently in Victory Village.

Elected to serve with Mann were: Rex Elder of Las Vegas, first vice president; Ray Warner of Boulder City, second vice president, and Tommy Mann, Jr., Henderson, third vice president.

Other officers elected include Ray Poinsner, treasurer; Harold Jones, corresponding secretary; Dick Elkins, recording secretary; and Columbus Emma, Boulder City and Dick Lawrence, Henderson, activities managers.

There was a large attendance at the meeting and the new president found that several of the "hams" are interested in starting operating on the six meter band. This, he said, will establish dependable communication within a radius of 100 miles, regardless of weather conditions. This type of communication is very useful in emergencies and civil defense work.

Young Mike Williamson Feted at Three Parties On His Third Birthday

Michael David Williamson celebrated his third birthday on Sunday, October 23, with three birthday parties each complete with birthday cake, candles, and ice cream.

The first party, with a large group of neighborhood children present, was held in the morning; and a second party for another group of children was enjoyed in the afternoon. The third party occurred in the evening when Michael and his grandmother, Mrs. Thomas Williamson, had a joint party in celebration of their mutual birthday.

Michael David is real glad that he is only one year older regardless of the three birthday parties. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll E. Williamson of 422 Federal St.

Christian Science Topic For Sunday Announced

Man's true nature as child of God will be set forth at Christian Science services Sunday.

The Lesson-Sermon on the subject "Adam and Fallen Man" will include the account of Christ Jesus' healing of the man "which had a spirit of an unclean devil" as recorded in Luke (4).

Among the correlative passages to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy is the following (259:6 The): "The divine nature was best expressed in Christ Jesus, who threw upon mortals the truer reflection of God and lifted their lives higher than their poor thought-models would allow—thoughts which presented man as fallen, sick, sinning, and dying."

The Golden Text is from Ephesians (5:8).

Visitors to Mead Expected to Reach 3,360,000 by '66

Mission 66 will be of tremendous benefit to the Lake Mead National Recreation Area, according to its Superintendent, Charles A. Richey.

Faced with a rapid and ever-increasing visitation and travel to its areas, the National Park Service has embarked upon an ambitious but necessary planning program known as "Mission 66."

This study is designed to determine the requirements necessary to bring National Park Service developments in balance with the visitorial needs by 1966, the Golden Anniversary Year of the National Park Service.

How important this program will be to the Lake Mead National Recreation Area was emphasized by National Chairman Lemuel A. Garrison during his recent visit.

Travel to the Lake Mead National Recreation Area totaled 587,436 visitors in 1946; this year, a decade later, it is estimated that the visitation will exceed 2,400,000; by 1966, a count of over 3,360,000 visitors is forecast by most recent approximations.

Such increases in travel call for long-term planning in the many phases of operation, including programs for interpretation, protection, concession development, maintenance and operation, employee housing, staffing requirements, personnel improvement and training.

Increased visitor use of the Lake Mead National Recreation Area as envisioned in the Mission 66 prospectus will require additional use areas around Lake Mead and Lake Mohave. The necessity of the construction of a circulatory road system to make the use areas readily accessible will be needed. In these use areas, development of utilities and further camping facilities will be necessary.

To accommodate an estimated increase of 300 percent of use of personal boats, additional launching and docking facilities must be created to handle this recreational activity.
"The Lake Mead National Recreation Area and every part of the National Park System will benefit by the development planning of Mission 66, which is primarily designed to provide more adequate facilities for public generally," Mr. Garrison predicted.

Did you ever attend a meeting of the Henderson Planning Board? Its almost' as comical as some of the meetings of the City Council. Comical perhaps isn't the proper word, since the decisions of this Board are seriously important to the future development and economic stability of our City. Before going further on this subject, let me say that my criticism does not apply to the Chairman, Frank Morrell. The Chairman is only one vote on the Board, but unfortunately he is surrounded—with one exception—with men who by their actions certainly leave no other conclusion but that they aren't even familiar with their duties and procedure'

Let's deal with the past meeting of the Board when the application of Sam Pearlstein for a use permit covering his property on Market Street was considered. The City ordinance provides that anyone may appear before the Board and give fact and evidence why the application should not be granted. The City ordinance also provides that any property owners within 300 feet may register their objections. In the case of Pearlstein's application, not one property owner in business within six hundred feet of his property objected, and by their absence of objection it is assumed they approved. However, at this meeting, Frank Price, owner of property in Pittman and Reverend Corcoran of St. Timothy's Episcopal Church here appeared before the Board. Price made a great to-do about the fact that—and I quote—"you fellows made a deal with us people in Pittman when we agreed to come into the corporate city that you would only allow liquor and gaming in Pittman." Since when do honest public-office seekers or public-office holders make "deals" to grant exclusive privileges to certain groups in a city, in consideration of their support. Reverend Corcoran, who is a very eloquent gentleman, and of whose position I am deeply respectful, advised the Board that he was against the granting of the use permit. Out of a population of 12,000 people, these were the only two people to appear before the Board to object, and neither one of them own any business property in the area of the property petitioned for.

Now let's get back to the Planning Board, where we started. The Planning Board holds these so-called public hearings. A couple of people appear, say their piece, and then the public hearing is declared closed. Then a member of the Planning Board makes a motion that they have a vote on the issue and they vote. At no time has there been one word of discussion of the issue — back and forth—with the applicant, in the regular session of the meeting of the Board. Not one merchant in the entire city of Henderson is represented on the Planning Board. One is in the real estate business, one the insurance business, one the plumbing business in Pittman, and two are employed in supervisory positions at the plant.

What happened to the street-paving program? Just how much longer are we people going to have to put up with these almost impassable roadways—and I don't only mean downtown, I mean the residential districts as well. It's absolutely disgraceful. If you're short of money, I suggest to you city-fathers that you could well effect some economies on that pay-roll, and you'll have the money to do what's needed for the people. Now, there's certainly an "undiplomatic" thing to write, isn't it.

Will someone please remove that broken-down washing machine from the Post Office corner. It's been there for a couple of months now. It was such an eye-sore someone humorously put a sign on it for donation to the "City Beautiful" campaign. It's collected a lot of trash.

Vesper Circle Has Many Activities

Mrs. Jean Nallia, 343 W. Basic Road, was hostess at the regular meeting of the Vesper Circle of the Community Church on Tuesday evening of last week.
The meeting was opened with a prayer by Mrs. Harriet Boyd, who also read the devotional. A special feature of the program was an article entitled, "How Christian is Your Family Life," read by Mrs. Joyce Littler.

Many articles of clothing and household items were brought to the meeting in connection with the drive being made to help the migrant workers.
Members continued plans enthusiastically for entering into the celebration of the 13th anniversary of the Community Church to be held Nov. 8. As their share in the buffet supper, the group will furnish the salads. On this occasion, anniversary gifts will be presented to the church by the several circles, and the Vesper circle has contributed substantially to these gifts.

To brighten the fall social calendar, the membership planned an outing at Mt. Charleston. Mrs. Anita Mooring and Mrs. Romola Burk was appointed co-chairman of the event.
Mrs. Vivian Erickson announced that the November meeting would be held at the home of Mrs. Joanne Lea, 120 Ash St., with Mrs. Lillie Parry and Mrs. Carol Fuller as co-hostesses. Mrs. Rae Smalley will be in charge of the program.

Present at the meeting were the Mmes. Betty Angley, Lillian Braun, Harriet Boyd, Romola Burk, Vivian Erickson, Carol Fuller, Arlene Gilbert, Ethel Jilbert, Mary Hagen, Barbara Garvey, Joyce Littler, Anita Mooring, Helen Nave, Beth McCallum, Joan Nallia, Gladys Nuwash, Lillie Parry, Rae Smalley and Melba Pope.

Halloween Party
Among the gay Halloween parties held during the last week was one given by Linda Madsen, 101 Ash St., for a group of her friends. During the evening they played games appropriate to the occasion and also bobbed for apples and had a spook house. Present were Tina Yates, Mary Anderson, Connie Gleason, Cathy O'Roolin, Coleen Madsen, Gayle Berry, Wanda Horne, Sharon Jones and the hostess.

Mrs. Ivory Chest Speaker At Gardeners Meeting

Mrs. John Ivory of Ivory's Henderson Gardens was guest speaker at a recent meeting of the Desert Gardeners Club held at the home of Audrey Norton, 219 Water Street.
General gardening information, what and when to plant, and how to improve the growing conditions and appearance of various shrubs and plants, were included in Mrs. Ivory's talk.

Club members discussed the possibilities of planting shrubs and flowers in the planters at the local post office building, as it was decided, because of the water shortage, to abandon the garden project on the Youth Center grounds.

A plant exchange between members for the improvement of their own yards is another project of the group. A sunshine gift award will start with the next meeting.

Rebekahs, Oddfellows Launch Drive to Build Home for Aged

A goal of $100,000 to build and maintain a home for the aged in Nevada was set for the Rebekah and Odd Fellow lodges in this state, it was announced by Gertrude Seevers of Hawthorne, president of the Rebekah Assembly of Nevada. The figure is to be reached in three years, according to plans made by the Grand Lodge IOOF and the Rebekah Assembly. Mrs. Seevers told the members of Cactus Rebekah Lodge No. 40 at her official visit, Wednesday night, in the IOOF hall.

Working for the home is one of the projects chosen by the Rebekah president for her term. Among the other projects are having members assist in polio, cancer and youth work and Mrs. Seevers congratulated the local lodge for helping the teen-age club be kept open. She also advocated that each lodge endeavor to be on the honor roll of the Association of Rebekah Assemblies.

During her talk, Mrs. Seevers pointed out that more publicity should be given to the IOOF Educational Foundation, which lends money to any worthy college student and not just to children of members of the Order. She also reminded members of the scholarships available from both the Rebekahs and Odd Fellows.

Preceding the banquet and meeting was a brunch, served at the home of Vice Grand Clara Turner. During the banquet Lavonne Oppinger sang "Together" and "My Task," accompanied by Juanita Kay Layton. The banquet was served by members of the American Legion Auxiliary in the Legion Hall.

In addition to the president, dignitaries and first time visitors introduced were Anita Tension, marshal of the Rebekah Assembly; Clarine Nolting of Kingman, past president of the Rebekah Assembly of Arizona; Dorothy McDougall of Las Vegas, past president of the Rebekah Assembly of Arizona; LaPriel Fields of Las Vegas, past president of the Rebekah Assembly of Nevada; Neil H. Holmes, Boulder City, past grand master of the Grand Lodge of Nevada; John H. Shipp, grand marshal of the Grand Lodge of Nevada, and also the Grand Encampment; Pearl Jones of Las Vegas, noble grand of Oasis R.L. No. 31, and state treasurer of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Patriarch Miltant; Estella Gifford, district deputy president, Queen of the Lake R.L. No. 20, Hawthorne; Myra Brown, district deputy president, Las Vegas; Marie Woodhouse, district deputy president, Kingman, Ariz.; Dulcie Wright, noble grand, Kingman R.L. No. 12, Arizona; Lydia Thomasson, past noble grand, Dollie Letbetter, Mildred Meins, all of Kingman; Ruth Rogers, Olive Branch D. L. Number 48, Redwood City, Calif.; Lucy L. Lockett, Esther R.L. No. 5, Newport, R. I.; Violet LaCroix, district deputy president, Boulder City; Isabella Botts, Las Vegas; and Helen Leonard, Las Vegas, color bearer of the Rebekah Assembly and member of the Theta Rho Board of Control.

Mrs. Seevers was presented with a gift, and a collection was taken for her project. Her first name was spelled out in verses recited by eight officers and was followed by a humorous skit by Joe Kine, Corty Cooper, Neil Holmes and John Shipp, also a song parody written by Wilma Cooper.

Noble grand Agnes Johnson announced invitations received to attend events at lodges in

SERIES OCTOBER 1, 1953-$20,000.00
(PART OF AN AUTHORIZED ISSUE OF $750,000.00)
NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the City Council of the City of Henderson, Nevada, will, on Monday, the 17th day of November, 1955, at the hour of 9 o'clock,
P.M., Pacific Standard Time, at the regular Council Meeting in the City Court, in Henderson, Nevada, receive sealed bids and publicly open the same for the purchase of its City of Henderson, General Obligation Water Improvement Bonds, Series October 1, 1955, in the aggregate principal amount of $20,000.00.
Said bonds of said series shall be in the denomination of $1,000.00 each, consisting of 20 bonds numbered consecutively from 1 to 20, both inclusive, bearing date as of the first day of October, 1955, maturing serially in regular numerical order on the first day of October, $5,000.- 00 in each of the years 1958 to 1975, both inclusive, and bearing interest at a rate or rates not exceeding five percentum per annum, payable semiannually on the first days of April and October in each year, commencing April 1, 1956, both principal and interest being payable in lawful money of the United States of America, without deduction for exchange or collection charges, at the office of the City Treasurer, in Henderson, Nevada. Bonds maturing on and after October 1, 1961, shall be subject to prior redemption, in inverse numerical order at the option of the City, on October 1, 1960, or on any interest payment date thereafter, for the principal amount thereof with accrued interest to the redemption date and a premium computed in accordance with the following schedule:

2% of the principal amount redeemed, if redeemed on or after October 1, 1960; and on or before April 1, 1960; and No premium, if redeemed on or after October 1, 1965.
All of said bonds shall constitute the general obligation bonds of the City, and shall be payable from general advalorem taxes, subject to the limitation imposed by the Constitution of the State of Nevada.
All of said bonds were authorized to be issued by the voters qualified to vote thereon at a special municipal bond election held by said City on the 30th day of August, 1955.
The City reserves the right to sell and deliver at a later time or times all or any portion of the balance of the water improvement bonds authorized at said election in the aggregate principal amount of $20,000.00.
Bidders are required to specify:

a. The lowest rate of interest and premium, if any, above par, at which such bidder will purchase said bonds; or
b. The lowest rate of interest at which the bidder will purchase said bonds at par.
Said bonds shall be sold to the bidder making the best bid, subject to the right of the corporate authorities to reject any and all bids and re-advertise. It is permissible to bid different interest rates for the issue of bonds, but none of said bonds shall be sold at less than par and accrued interest, nor shall any discount or commission be allowed or paid on the sale of said bonds. The best bid will be determined by deducting the amount of the premium bid, if any, from the total amount of interest which the City would be required to pay from the date of said bonds to the respective maturity dates at the coupon rate or rates specified in the bid, and the award will be made on the basis of the lowest net interest cost to the City. The lowest net interest cost will be computed without reference to the possible redemption of bonds prior to maturity. The purchaser must pay accrued interest on the bonds delivered from the date of the maturity date to the date of delivery. All bids shall be sealed and, except for the bid of the State of Nevada, if one is received, shall be accompanied by deposit of five percent, either cash or certified check, of the amount of the bid, which shall be returned if the bid is not accepted. The good faith deposit will be credited to the purchaser (without accrued interest) at the time delivery is made, and if the successful bidder shall fail or neglect to complete the purchase of said bonds within thirty days following the acceptance of his bid, the amount of his deposit shall be forfeited to said City, and in that event the corporate authorities may accept the bid of the one making the next best bid or, if all bids are rejected, such corporate authorities shall re-advertise said bonds for sale.
The purchaser shall not be required to accept delivery of any of said bonds which are offered and made available for delivery after a reasonable time from the date of the acceptance of his bid; and if said bonds are not so offered and made available within said period of time, the good faith deposit will be returned to the purchaser upon its request.
If there be two or more equal bids, and such bids are the best bids received, and not less than par and accrued interest, the corporate authorities shall determine which bid shall be accepted. The City reserves the privilege of waiving any irregularity or informality in any bid.
Delivery will be made as soon as practicable to the successful bidder at the office of the City Treasurer or at some bank in Henderson, Nevada, or at the successful bidder's request, as requested.
The legality of the bonds will be approved by Messrs. Frazier, Horvath, Dick & Dawson Attorneys at Law, 600 Table Building, Denver, Colorado, whose opinion, together with the printed bonds and a certified transcript of the legal proceedings, will be furnished to the purchaser without charge by the City.
Dated at Henderson, Nevada, this 2nd day of October, 1955.

BUREAU OF RECLAMATION SEEKING JOBS APPLICANTS

Applications are now being accepted by the Bureau of Reclamation for numerous jobs, according to M. H. Mitchell, chief of the regional personnel branch. Applications for all positions should be filed with Mitchell at the Bureau of Reclamation.

Positions for which applications are being accepted include cartographic draftsman, engineer, engineering aid, fil-gardener, guard, janitor, laborer, messenger, oiler, painter, pump operator and stenographer.

Mitchell pointed out that acceptance of applications for the positions does not necessarily mean that vacancies exist, but a reasonable number of applications must be kept on file for normal turnover and pending operations.

Additional information may be obtained at the Bureau of Reclamation office.

Desert Dwellers . . .

By WALLY WALLIS

Naturalist Lake Mead National Recreation Area

★ ★ ★ ★

Just the other day, a Great Horned Owl swooped into the fenced inclosure at the Boulder City disposal plant in search of small rodents. In its wanderings, the large owl became mired in one of the settling ponds.

Walter Stout gave me a call and asked me to come over and take a look. I did, of course, because one does not have too many opportunities to examine live owls at close range.

Wet mud clung to the great owl's feet and feathers. When it attempted to take to flight, this additional weight was just too much. The bird was able to fly but a short distance.

Although it resisted capture by flying limited distance and by attempting to hide in fence corners and under the flumes, the owl made no attempt to strike at us. However, throughout the entire operation of getting the bird poised in suitable photographic positions, it made most menacing cracking noises with its bill.

After we had taken several pictures of the bird and much of the mud had flaked off, we threw it high into the air. With this necessary assistance the owl flew off into its desert home.

When Esther Wideen, National Park Service mails and file clerk, told her husband, Walt, that she had seen a "cute, little snake" it was more than he could believe.

Esther generally has a fear of snakes which was born from teasing by her brothers years ago. When she saw our tiny, four inch ground snake, there was just no other expression except "cute."

The tiny, red and black snake was brought into my office several days ago by Mrs. Maud Dalley of Henderson. She found it in her back yard beneath an old tire.

From the way she talks one would think that the Desert Dwellers were really invading her yard. During the summer Mrs. Dalley has discovered scorpions, centipedes, several types of lizards, and even a rattlesnake at her back door-step!

It was a large white bird which settled down on the swimming pool at the Lake Mead Lodge, last week, and swam around as if he "owned the place." When I examined it, I discovered that it was a Lesser Snow Goose which had apparently settled down for a brief rest while on its southward migratory trip.

The Lesser Snow Goose is nearly all white. It is one of our smaller geese. Around its face and bill the coloration is rusty. The tips of the wings are jet black.

This bird can hardly be considered a desert dweller but merely a desert visitor. It summers in the far north and moves southward in the fall.

With a little artificial source of water, some cactuses find it difficult to determine what the

Marwood A. Doud's

Mad About Dogs

I have been invited to serve as judge at the fall Flower Show next Saturday and at the Silver State Kennel Club's Dog Show next Sunday.

I am a little disappointed at the apparent lack of interest shown in this special event. With the extraordinary quality of purebred dogs in Vegas, Henderson and Boulder, one would think that fanciers would be begging for entry blanks. I've still got some and they're available for the asking.

Joe Cox just phoned to say they would accept entries right up to 10 a.m. Sunday, the sixth, and, by-the-way, if you are sufficiently familiar with certain breeds or groups, to properly place the ribbons, you'd be doing your good deed for the week if you'd call Dudley 2-3608 and tell Joe that you'd be happy to serve as one of the judges. It's good experience and educational.

Sometimes people do things that reflect the poorest judgment perceivable. Certainly a young pup has nothing to offer vacationers, as they motor across the country, stop at motels and dine in public restaurants. Neither does a long trip have anything but trouble to offer the puppy.

Some tourists from New Jersey, brought the cutest little Corgi in, the other evening. They guessed that, perhaps he had worms or something? As a matter of fact, this juvenile canine is cutting teeth, and suffering from distemper—with all of the attending discomforts, convulsions and messes. I'm wondering whether he'll improve sufficiently, within his allotted few days, to be able to continue traveling, and, while working hard to repair his broken health, I keep thinking of the hardships to be endured later.

Remember, there are plenty of entry blanks for next Sunday's Dog Show, which will be held at the City Park in Las Vegas. You may pick yours up at the Boulder City News Office or at the Pet Service rendezvous, 424 Avenue B, in Boulder City.

Botfelds Move

Mr. and Mrs. Bernie Botfeld and son, Rickey, have sold their home at 122 Ocotillo St., and have moved to Van Nuys. The Botfelds have resided here for the past three years and he was connected with Titanium Metals. Botfeld has taken a position in the new atomic experimental division of North American Aircraft Corp. in Glendale.

Poche Guests

Mrs. R. Hartley and daughters, Peggy, Ann and Donna, of Pioche were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Walker, 108 Ocotillo St. The two families were friends when the local people lived in Pioche. Donna, youngest of the Hartley daughters, joined her young hostesses, Beverly and Jacqueline Walker, on their "trick or treat" excursion through the neighborhood in celebration of Halloween.

Twins Observe Birthday

Linda and Sharon Shue, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Shue of Paradise Valley, who formerly lived in Henderson, celebrated their fifth birthday last Sunday afternoon at a party at their home. Various games provided fun for the children, and after the gifts were opened, they shared a decorated birthday cake, ice cream and punch.

Invited were Cathy and Lora Lynn Taney, Wendy Darling, Gayla Rostine, Mary Eddie, Susie and Linda Little, all of Henderson, Larry and Helen Snyder, Carol Stapleton, Sarah and LeMar Lister, and Linda and Sharon. Also present, in addition to Mrs. Shue, were the Mmes. Victor-Cavallier, John Q. Taney, Henry Snyder, her daughter, Val, and granddaughter, Teresa, and Mrs. Jess Lister.

"Trick or Treat"

No news would be complete this week without mention of the "trick or treat" activities of the neighborhood youngsters last Saturday evening. Beginning about dusk, a happy swarm of children bedecked in everything from skeleton costumes to fairies and goblins came to call and demand their "trick or treat." Some very original costumes showed the ingenuity of mother's skill with the sewing machine and were proudly worn by the small fry. Among these were two young Davy Crocketts, whose caps of "coonskin" were the regulation kind, but whose fringed suits had been adapted from none other than some discarded sacks which had graced the doghouse prior to the great day. However, a thorough washing, a clever needle and a few tucks, drapes and alterations made them into the real thing for the big occasion. These two were part of the parade of about 120 children who made their way to your writer's door during the evening. It was a pleasure to greet each one and find that as a whole they were all polite, well-mannered and thrilled with the chance to show off their costumes. It is a far cry from the days when we were growing up and Halloween meant wrapping up in a sheet and ringing door bells and running when someone came. Or—as some more daring "kids" did—soaping windows, turning over flower pots, and doing other damage and mischief. "Trick or treat," as we first remember it, started about ten years ago where we lived—the children wanted their treats, but they still looked upon Halloween as a time for doing damage—and so it was to save them that the handout was given. One very small fry, when being overlooked in the gang which appeared at the door, yelled loudly, "well, I guess I'll have to trick." Her threat brought quick appeasement. Today, however, Halloween means "trick or treat" and the "treat" is a pleasure for givers and receivers alike!

Home from Hospital

Bob Jilbert, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Jilbert, 573 Federal St., returned home Monday from Rose de Lima hospital where he had been receiving treatment for two days following injuries received on Saturday in a teen-age attack. Indications are that his injuries are not serious, his mother reports.

X-rays were taken to reveal whether the head blow he received might have caused serious head or back injuries.

"pot" drawing. So who wins the jackpot at the Henderson Rotary meeting? This columnist!

In the distance, I could hear some plaintive soul wailing "foul." I couldn't blame him. It was almost as bad as what happened at the Henderson Lions meeting Monday eve.

One of the guests at the meeting was F. L. Claussen of Colton. Ticket stubs were distributed and the big moment came for the drawing. Being a guest, Claussen was invited to draw the lucky number, and he drew (g'wan, I know you already know the punch line)—his own number.

Being editor of two newspapers simultaneously has distinct disadvantages, as for example, athletics. Come Friday night, two footballs are going to be kicked off in this area along about 8 o'clock, one on the Ben Church Field in Henderson where the Wolves host Blythe and on the Boulder gridiron where the Eagles entertain Gorman.

As much as I enjoy football, for obvious reasons, I'm going to miss one of the games. I could be diplomatic and view the first half of the Basic-Blythe clash and the second half of the Boulder-Gorman festivities. I'll undoubtedly wind up by flipping a coin and witnessing four quarters of one contest or the other.

Fortunately, no showdown decision will be required on Friday, Nov. 11.

That's the evening prep gridiron schedule makers have decreed that both Basic and Boulder will perform on the same field at the same time.

So much has been written in the "big city" dailies the past few days about two Henderson lads winning the Carnegie Medal for heroism that we dropped by their respective schools this week to have a chat with Clark county's heroes.

Without detailing the incident, 13 year-old Howard Giles II and 15 year-old Bailey (call me LeRoy) Willoughby have been cited nationally for saving the life of Dana Peterson of Whitney during the summer of 1954. The heroic rescue occurred in Lees Canyon in the Charleston area.

And what does being awarded the Carnegie Medal mean to Howard and LeRoy? Frankly, nothing—yet.

The reaction for both was the same.

"All we know is what we read in the newspapers."

No letter to inform them of their award, no medal, no nothing—yet.

Red-haired and slight Howard Giles is the son of Howard and Miriam Giles of 548 Burton St. The family has lived here for the last three years, coming to Henderson from that romantic city of Niagara Falls, N. Y. That's where Howard was born. The eighth grader is the oldest of three children and his main hobby is stamp collecting. Once a week, naturally, he delivers the Henderson Home News. He's also a member of Boy Scout Troop No. 34.

Kinky-haired LeRoy is a pleasant 15 year-old negro Basic high school freshman, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Stingley who reside at 2C Lincoln in Carver Park. He's lived in Henderson for the last six years but almost, but not quite, is a Clark county native. Before moving to Henderson, he lived in Las Vegas for eight years. LeRoy was born in the State of Washington and has three brothers and two sisters. His hobby is photography and he hopes to someday be an electrical engineer. While winning the Carnegie Medal was an important event in his life, one derives the idea that equally impressive to LeRoy is the fact that he's been promoted to practice with the Basic high school varsity football team until the end of the season. He probably won't play in any of the varsity games this season (LeRoy was a defensive end on the Jayvee squad) but then he still has three more years in which to earn his monogrammed "B."

There's a thumbnail sketch of Henderson's two youthful heroes. And would they risk their lives again to save a life?

Quite obviously the answer is in the affirmative, Carnegie Medal, or not.

Community Chest Board Members Name President

I. S. Richardson, Jr. was elected president of the local Community Chest, following the election of 21 board members at a meeting held Tuesday evening with B. U. Hillis presiding. Bob Olsen was elected treasurer and the secretary will be appointed by the president.

Board members elected to serve three year terms included Mr. and Mrs. I. S. Richardson, Jr., Aubrey Pagan, the Rev. Stanley Quebe, Mrs. Billie Somerville, Mrs. Bernice Roberts and Pat Routh.

Two year term members elected were Keith Curry, Bob Olsen, Lois Curry, Bernice Gaither, Bernice Cantwell, Dorothy Dietrich and Ruth Ball. One year members elected were Jo Kachulis, Mary Jo Todd, B. U. Hillis, Oval Todd, Ralph Burke, Virginia Sturm and Judy Richards.

Hillis reported that funds in the Chest amount to $4,000 which will be distributed to various organizations as soon as possible. He reported that the Girl Scouts had submitted a budget of $2,000 and the Veterans Welfare a budget of $500. A petition for $300 was also received from the Rev. Peter V. Moran for an athletic program. Other organizations which have been benefiting from the Chest are the PTA, Henderson Welfare and Youth Activities.

The question of whether the Chest has outlived its usefulness was discussed since the Girl Scouts and Veterans Welfare were the only groups submitting a budget. It was suggested that a drive be sponsored for Henderson Welfare and the Girl Scouts. No action will be taken on the matter until the new board is seated.

Boulder Jaycees Hit Jackpot; Land Three Regattas in 1956

Boulder City's energetic and ambitious Jaycees have landed not one—but three nationally important regattas for Lake Mead in 1956!

The announcement was made this week by Jaycees President Earl Gilmore who attended a regional meeting of the American Power Boat Association held in Bakersfield last week.

Dates are only tentative but unless changed, a stock outboard regatta will be held June 10; on Oct. 13 and 14, a regatta for Gold Cup type or unlimited hydroplanes has been programmed along with the regular inboard regatta; and on Aug. 11-12, a division championship for stock outboards, which would embrace the 13 Western states, is slated.

Actually, President Gilmore explained, the Aug. 11-12 division championship for the 13 Western states has not been officially awarded to Lake Mead; "but we definitely have the inside track for that important event," he said.

While all three major events will bring thousands of boating enthusiasts to the Lake Mead area, the most national publicity probably can be expected for the Oct. 13-14 event for unlimited hydroplanes of the Gold Cup class.

Some of the top boats, their drivers and owners who can be expected for that regatta include Guy Lombardo and his Tempo IV; Ray Crawford of Los Angeles and Zephyr Fury; Miss Thriftway and the boat's driver and designer, Stan Jones; Stanley Sayers and Slo Moshun of Seattle; Henry J. Kaiser of Lake Tahoe and an unnamed boat; Bill Stead of Reno who also is working on a new boat; and Stanley Dollar who undoubtedly will be behind the wheel of either one of his own craft or pilot one of the top entries. There's also a good possibility that Gale IV and V of Detroit will be entered in the race plus another top unlimited hydroplane, "Breathless."

Don Campbell's Bluebird does not qualify as an unlimited hydroplane, but Gilmore suggested that the Britisher undoubtedly would be on hand to attempt more record attempts, in conjunction with the regatta.

Jaycee President Gilmore said this week that his organization definitely would require assistance in staging the regattas.

"It's too big for one organization and will have to be a community effort," he said. The Jaycees, however, will continue to spearhead the activities and officials of the National Park Service also have reported they will cooperate to the fullest extent.

In addition to Gilmore and Mrs. Gilmore, also attending the APBA Association meeting in Bakersfield last weekend were Chuck Richey, National Park Service superintendent, and Hal Whitehouse, operator of Lake Mead Marina.

Planning Board Opposes Townsite Liquor, Approves Freeway Setback

Sam Pearlstein lost another round in his fight to open the central business district to liquor and gambling when the City Planning Board last week cast a three to two vote against his application for a use permit which would allow this type of business in the former recreation building on Market Street.

Saying it appeared that certain commitments had been made by the City Council to Pearlstein, Frank Morrell, chairman of the board, made a motion that this application be sent to the Council with no action taken by the Planning Board. Other members did not approve this and Morrell's motion failed.

Robert Deitrich, Frank Plasha, and George Coroneos voted against the use permit and Frank Morrell and Robert McBride were in favor of granting it.

Frank Price, owner of the Alibi Club in Pittman, protested the granting of the use permit as did the Reverend Robert Cochrane, Vicar of St. Timothy's Episcopal Church who said he wished to go on record as opposing the opening of the Townsite district for liquor and gaming.

Chairman Morrell was the only board member present at the last meeting of the City Council when Lou F. LaPorta brought up a discussion of the use permit sought by Pearlstein and asked if the Council would give him any assurance that a license would be granted if his building was suitably remodeled.

Mayor James B. French said if a good hotel or really good restaurant was opened in this district he would not oppose the granting of a cocktail bar, if that was what it took to get a good restaurant here. Other Council members present apparently agreed with the Mayor. Paul Dickover, Councilman from the Pittman Ward was not present at the meeting.

Pearlstein has one more round to go in his fight, he can still appeal his case to the City Council who have the last say on the issuance of the use permit.

At an executive session, held previously, the Planning Board voted to recommend an amendment to city ordinance number five establishing the 30 and 40 foot setback for future buildings on Boulder Highway in accordance with the new fenced freeway proposed by the State Highway Department.
