

MAYOR SEEKS TO PROVIDE COMMUNITY WITH CITY OWNED CEMETERY

Morry Zenoff's

Morry's Story

Dear Mayor Bill . . .

I see by the papers that the governor has called a special session of the legislature—which means you'll be up there this weekend representing Henderson—in your other job as assemblyman.

Now — mind you Bill — do a good job.

Keep in mind you are there to carry out President Ike's wish to help the unemployed during this temporary recession. Don't get embroiled in politics over something as important as all that. Just keep in mind you have many people right here in town who could use another 13 weeks of unemployment benefits.

Sure — I think you should make sure the migrant laborers don't get in on the act. Let them go back to the state they came from to get some help.

But, the home-towner. The fellow who has been part of this community's life — deserves some help. Inasmuch as the city government can't help him — and because a Santa Claus hasn't come around to solve his job problems — why, heck Bill, this method of having the states do it along with the government's help sounds like just what the doctor ordered.

Now — another thing — how about having the legislature run the show this time. Don't get turning the job over to some state department to legislate. The state department can do the details like licking the stamps that go on the envelopes, but you guys do the thinking Bill.

Because this is an election year don't let politics take over. Tell the boys at the front that they'll be appreciated better if they get the job done in a hurry — so that people without jobs will know where their next loaf of bread is coming from.

We have confidence in you — old boy — now bring home the bacon, Mayor Bill — I mean — Legislator Bill.

Say — folks — please note that pretty big three-quarter page ad we're carrying today from the hi-falootin J. Magnin store on the swanky Vegas strip.

Well . . . it's like this. They wanted to reach you people with that 11 buck dress which they feel is the highest-styled thing to ever come out of the desert — so they up and asked us to reach the folks for them.

Happy to serve . . .

Vacation Almost Ends In Tragedy When Baby Drinks Paint Thinner

Little Larry Gloyd, Jr. returned home safely with his mother, Joy Gloyd, and grandmother, Mrs. Paul McMurdy, after almost turning a pleasant visit with relatives into a tragedy.

Mrs. McMurdy, together with her daughter and grandson were visiting at the home of her sister and brother-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Sweeney, at Ontario, California. Larry, an active 18 month old, is at the inquisitive age and it was thought by all the adults in the house that everything had been put out of his reach.

Sweeney had been doing some painting around the house and a container of paint thinner was overlooked and left where Larry could reach it — and did. The baby drank part of the paint thinner and spent several days in the hospital in serious condition, but was completely recovered by the time the party returned home.

During their stay in Southern Cal. Mrs. Murdy and her daughter also visited Mrs. McMurdy's mother, Minnie Just at Torrance; and her sister Mrs. Barbara La Grace and her family at Tarzana.

Mrs. La Grace and daughters, Susie and Debby, accompanied the local women on the return trip and will spend two weeks at the McMurdy home, 335 W. Basic.

Mrs. Gloyd and son Larry Jr. are presently residing at the home of her parents while Larry, Sr. is serving in the Armed Forces.

Funds For Ambulance Reach $1000 As Four Large Donations Received

City Finance Director Don Dawson yesterday reported that one fourth the quota for the new ambulance has been raised, with approximately $1,000 now in the fund. The goal set for the purchase of a new ambulance is $4,000. More than half of the present fund was received in four large donations, Mr. Dawson reported.

A large thermometer sign was made last week by the Fire Department and has been placed on the lawn in front of the building which houses the Fire and Police Departments. The thermometer topped by an ambulance, uses dollars as degrees of temperature, with the maximum of $4,000 at the top. As donations are received, the temperature rises and, tho it is not quite so rapid as an ordinary thermometer in this weather, City officials are very well pleased at the response of our residents, to this worthy cause.

The largest donation made thus far was a $500 contribution made by the Housing Authority of Clark County.

The 2nd largest amount is a $20 contribution by an anonymous resident, with Boy Scout Troop 34 the third largest donater making a contribution of $10.

In third place is a $20 contribution by an anonymous resident, with Boy Scout Troop, 34 the fourth largest donator making a contribution of $10.00.

Cards, inviting donations to this fund, have been sent by Mayor William Byrne to all of the homes in the city, making payments at City Hall for water and sewer — including those living in Victory Village and Carver Park. However, in the case of those living in apartments and trailer houses, the City has no way of contacting these residents.

This, Mayor Byrne said, is not intended as a slight. The Mayor issued an apology to these residents, whose names and addresses he was unable to obtain, and stated that contribution for the ambulance fund would be greatly appreciated from any and all residents.

Donations may be mailed in with water and sewer bills, or paid at City Hall or the Telephone Company's office. In Victory Village and Carver Park contribution will be accepted at the rental offices.

Our People Speak

By RAE VON DORNUM
WHAT QUESTION WOULD YOU LIKE TO HAVE ANSWERED IN THIS COLUMN?

HARRY PARSONS, Public Accountant and Tax Consultant, 30 Wyoming

What stumps you the most in making your income tax return?

MRS. J. H. LINFORD, housewife 383 Nebraska

I would like to ask a question regarding the expectations of the people, concerning the Police Department.

How can the police be expected to patrol all the streets and highways at all times, with the limited resources of our Police Department?

I am a policeman's wife and I, for one, know how many extra hours my husband is required to put in, on investigation of cases, because of the limited number of policemen.

My question is: Just how much protection do the people here want? What present duties of the police are they willing to give up if part of the force is laid off?

MRS. W. R. LOVE, 3C Carver Street, Carver Park

I would like to see a roller skating rink here. All of my family enjoy skating and there is not a roller rink in this area. If we had a rink it would give the children something to do, now that we have no show, and could also be used by adults in the evening.

In order to find out if others here share my opinion, that this would be a good thing, I would like to have answers to the question: Would you like to see a roller skating rink established in Henderson?

FRANK WAY, Services Unlimited, 23 Water Street

In view of the present recession, do you believe that some type of controls should be used to curb raising wages and price increases?

MRS. ROBERT CLEVELAND, Housewife, 89 East Texas Ave.

Actually I have two pet peeves, both of which I would like to see answered in this column.

The first: Do you think children should be allowed to play pinball machines? I may be wrong, but I am amazed at the money youngsters put in these machines — and get nothing in return. I think they are worse than slots — with slots they would at least have a chance of getting something back.

My second question concerns the swimming pool. I have seen children swimming in the pool that I feel sure had impetigo. Even if open sores are not of a contagious nature, the child having them is exposed to infection by going in the pool. My question is: Do you think children with sores on their faces or bodies should be allowed to enter the swimming pool?

L. D. CARDWELL, Cardy's Radio and TV Repair, 223 Water Street

Last week I had the unpleasant experience of having my drivers license renewed. I started the week before, by going to the Victory Village Administration building on Wednesday, but upon arriving I found about 27 people waiting in line, ahead of me. Not wanting to leave my work while I waited in line, I decided to wait until the next week.

When I went over to get my license last Wednesday morning, I found the line as long as it had been the week before and being busy, I decided to wait un-

Mayor Bill Byrne this week came up with a plan which, if it materializes, will provide a city-owned cemetery for the welfare of the townspeople.

Feeling their was a need for the service along with the cities growth, the mayor decided that it would be more desirable to have such a project be city-owned and operated than in private hands.

"We will have excellent land available in the new Federal land layout," Byrne explained, "and it would be a fine service if the city would provide a properly planned and groomed and cared-for cemetery for its people. Las Vegas has one. Boulder City has one. We should have one. And we will."

Byrne indicated cemetery lots would be sold reasonably and in as large a number as local residents would want.

He has instructed his engineering department to plan the project and to pick an ideal site — probably near Black Mountain — for the final resting place of those who prefer to be buried in their own home city.

It is believed that as soon as Byrne receives his council's approval of the complete plans, that lots and services would be made available.

DAY CAMP FOR BROWNIES ENDS TODAY AT 2 PM

At 2 o'clock this afternoon the Brownies attending Day Camp at Townsite School Campus will stand retreat ending 6 days of fun and instruction.

Conducted June 17, 18, 19 and 24, 25, 26, the Day Camp was under the direction of Lucille Kubic and Florence Heber assisted by Betty Kramer.

This year's camp theme was Conservation — "Do A Good Turn." Smoky the Bear was the camp mascot.

The camp was divided into 3 units according to age. Unit 1 for 7 year olds was under the leadership of Dorothy Dietrich and Alma Halsey; Unit Two for 8 and 9 year olds was under the leadership of Claudia McGuire and Flora Kilpack; and Unit Three for 10 year olds was under the leadership of Georgia Rider and Mrs. R. K. Smart. Substitute unit leader for all units, was Inez Brooks.

Program specialists included: Urbalee Ives, who taught shell craft and bead craft; Bernice Roberts, folk dancing instructor and Ellen Compton, swimming instructor, assisted by Dianne Dietrich, Eileen Stokes and Edith Jo Barker. Life guards were Cookie Schreck and Jerry Blake.

Serving as program aides were: Rosen Phillips, Jada Kubic, Mary Raduziner, Margaret Alsebrook, Jana Marks, Lana Marks, Patty McGuire, Evelyn McGuire and Carol Plamondon.

Arlene Ruback served as the camp nurse. More than 40 Brownies, representing all the troops in the city between the ages of 7 thru 10 years attended the day camp. Activities started each day with flag raising ceremonies from 9 to 9:15 am and ended with retreat when the flag was lowered from 1:50 to 2 pm.

til afternoon.

I returned in the afternoon and found 22 people ahead of me and only the one man to take care of them. This was the deadline for my license as it would expire before the next Wednesday, so I was forced to let my work go and wait my turn in the line.

"My question is: Since Henderson is the third largest city in the state don't you think we are entitled to a little better service from the Driver's License Bureau than we are getting?"

Do you think we are entitled to have a man on duty here more than one day a week?

GRAND CANYON TOUR

The S. R. DuBravac's have long made their home in both southern and northern Nevada but only recently did they get around to making a trip to one of the scenic wonders of the Southwest — the Grand Canyon.

A few weekends ago they took their young son Stubby, and made the pilgrimage to the brilliant ravine that Mother Nature carved and painted some time in the past centuries.

Jean says that it more than lived up to all of the glowing descriptions everyone has given her in the past.

I COVER THE DESERT

By MERT INGHAM

About two months ago Supt. Charles Richey stepped into my office and said "Mert, how would you like to go on a portion of "Doc" Marston's river running expedition on Colorado River?"

The answer is obvious! This was indeed an event of a lifetime.

Last Thursday, June 19th, was the beginning of the adventure. I drove to St. George with Jack Speirs of Los Angeles, a writer for movies, radio and television; District Ranger Don Squires; Jeffrey Marston, grand son of "Doc"; and his pal, Jimmy Jordan of Boulder City.

We arrived in St. George about 3:30 pm and while Jimmy, Jeff, and Jack went swimming, I and Doc went to the store to purchase a month's supplies, which Don would leave at the Park Service Fire Camp after he dropped us at Whitmore Wash, deep in the Arizona strip.

Early Friday morning (5:30 am) we dragged ourselves from our air conditioned motel. Don, Jack and I squeezed in the cab of Dan's pickup truck while the boys wedged themselves in the rear, between bedrolls, supplies, radios and about forty gallons of water in milk cans and away we bounced toward Whitmore Wash.

After some six hours (74 miles) over desert roads we arrived at Whitmore and pried the boys from the rear of the truck. They were now caked and red-headed from the dust which boiled up from the desert trails we had been following. There, about a half-mile below, at the river's edge we could see the 3 brightly painted blue, and orange boats of "Doc's" party.

The boys manfully shouldered their packs and we slowly descended the steep cliffs thru the oven-like heat.

Suddenly, a casualty occurred. The bottom partially dropped out of the bag of fresh cherries Jack was carrying to the fresh-food starved party, but all was not lost, as you'll see later.

We arrived one by one, on the river bank and with barely a greeting to our hosts, we threw ourselves into the cooling river. On regaining our composure, we were introduced to the rest of the party.

"Doc" Marston was the party leader and boatman in the lead boat, the "Bootoo." With him rode Mr. Harry I'Anson of Los Angeles, an amateur photographer. Mr. I'Anson who had grown a white beard and had donned a "kilt" left by a lady passenger who left the party at Phantom Ranch. "Maggie" as he was nicknamed by the group looked like a true Scotch "Old Man of the Mountain" as he braced himself in the boat and took movies as his boat dashed and bounced over and through the waves on the rapids. Jack Speirs was also assigned to this boat and was presented the job of keeping careful records of the use of the precious gasoline.

In the second boat, the "Cactus," Jim and Jeffrey were assigned to ride with Doc's son Garth, and Buzzy Belknap of Boulder City.

I was assigned to the "Rattlesnake" with boatman Larry Sanderson, deeply tanned and bearded river veteran and Bryan "Bridgett" Rolands, a former officer in the British Navy and now a banker in San Francisco. He was so nicknamed because he was the chief cook and in charge of the food supplies. Also with us to Bridge Canyon was Dr. Schultz, an engineering geologist who was studying possible dam sites along the river.

Here at Whitmore, I replaced Chuck Richey on the last boat. I also learned later that Chuck rescued most of the cherries as he climbed out of the canyon, back to the truck which was to take him out of the area. Ah, yes, the cherries were sandy, but what's a little more sand after camping along the river and drinking sand laden water for 2 weeks. Each man had his job. I was radioman and also served as assistant can opener and dish dryer. Now, the party was organized and we were off on the rough waters of Colorado.

As I started this narration this afternoon I intended to give it to you in one article, however, space has run out, so we'll have to finish next week.

MAD ABOUT DOGS

By MARLOD A. DOUD

Perhaps you've been amused, as I have, when over-enthusiastic individuals try to brighten the genealogical background of their pets by pointing up the illustrious accomplishments of some of their ancestral ingredients.

The only indication of note, on Fleetfoot Frieda's registration certificate, is the evidence of a sire and dam, date of birth, color and markings, name of the breeder and of course, the breed.

To me, that's enough. I was sitting right in the middle of a "my-dog's-pedigree" session at a recent gathering — and I hope none of those proud possessors of pooches with famous papas, saw the smile that I felt pulling up the corners of my loud speaker.

The German Shepard is probably the most popular subject for this type of propaganda.

That's because there have been some famous movie specimens of the breed and because they comprise about 90 percent of the seeing-eye dogs.

Several of the participants in the said session had assured the other that either Strongheart or Rin-Tin-Tin appeared at least once in their dog's family tree when another broke in with the boast that both parents of her shepherd were members of the famous K-9 corps.

The only trouble with their reasoning is — that training must be applied to each individual and is not transmitted. The progeny may inherit the ability to make the most of his training, but if he isn't trained his ancestors may as well have been some unsung mutts.

It's a good thing we don't know how many well-trained dogs — or how many outlaws constitute the genealogical background of our dog 'cause I might be forced to make her live up to a reputation that was established by a handler that had all of the know-how and plenty of time to use it.

By the way, our pooch brought home a red, rubber dog dish a couple of weeks ago and we have been unable to locate the owner. Did you lose one?

Examination of 400 executives of a leading auto corporation revealed that 24 had heart ailments and 13 of these were not aware of their ailment.

Rayborn Predicts Future Expansion In Rotary Speech

"There ARE Millions in Our Future," was the theme of a talk given by John Rayborn, Manager of the local office of the Bank of Nevada before the Rotary Club on Tuesday.

Using the theme of our convention hall, Rayborn defended the area together with the Western States, against an article by Prof. Walter Wescott Webb in the May issue of Harper's Magazine entitled, "The American West, Perpetual Mirage."

An excerpt from the article, read by Rayborn, said: "No state has less to recommend it than Nevada. It is all desert and, once its minerals were depleted, it had little chance of prosperity and hardly enough people to maintain a state government. It solved its problem by creating an oasis of iniquity and license in a sea of moral inhibitions."

There are many things, Rayborn said, which he forgot, including our large number of churches — our universities — Lake Mead — Hoover Dam — our industries in Henderson — Nellis Air Force Base — the gunnery range — the Atomic Proving ground and test site — and the fact that we have no necessity to create emergency schools for the education of juvenile felons. NEVADA Rayborn said, turns out to have much more to offer than open gambling and easy divorces.

The speaker also pointed out that there are more bets placed at eastern race tracks than on all the gaming tables in Nevada.

Blessed with an ideal winter and perfect climate and a wealth of scenic beauty, Nevada is the "bridge state" over which thousands pass enroute to the West Coast, giving us an enviable chance to display our scenic and economic wares and healthful climate, as well as the more dramatic glamor of our resort industry.

Nevada, he pointed out, has many things to offer industry. Among these are our reasonable tax laws: No Blue Sky Law — no State Security Commission — no Corporate Franchise Tax — no State Income Tax —

Over the next ten years more than 120 million in resort, industrial, highway and civic projects are planned in Southern Nevada. Some of these mammoth projects are underway now and work on all the others is scheduled to start during 1958.

Nevada has always subscribed in the philosophy of LIVE and LET LIVE, Rayborn said. Nevada may shock some people, but it has never been accused of boring anyone.

NEVADA is not a Perpetual Mirage, he said in ending his talk, it would have been more apt to term it A Perpetual MIR-

He who keeps blowing his top will eventually land on his bottom.

The more speed, the mortality.

PICKETS ENTERTAIN DAUGHTER AND FAMILY

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Pickett of 107 Magnesium Street have as their house guests their daughter and son-in-law, Captain and Mrs. B. G. Morrow of Lorado, Texas and children, Maurice and Mira Dene.

Captain Morrow and his family returned last year from Okinawa, where he was stationed with the Air Force for three years, and since his return has been at Lorado Air Force Base in Texas.

Mrs. Morrow liked Okinawa and wouldn't mind going there again. Eight year old Michael has different ideas, in his own words — he wishes he could have come back home before he even went there.

Following their visit here, the Morrrows will be accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Pickett to Flagstaff Arizona for a visit with another daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Anderson and daughter, Barbara.

At the termination of the visit in Flagstaff, Mr. and Mrs. Pickett will return home and the Morrrows will continue their trip to Oklahoma City and Alabama, where they will visit with Captain Morrow's relatives before returning to Lorado.

FHA Gives OK To Subdividers

Pete Walters, State Director for the FHA in Reno, yesterday put his stamp of approval on Sierra Vista Addition and told the subdividers to proceed with construction.

Walters approval was received following a two day conference here between Harold Blaser, FHA Engineer from Sacramento, Cal., George Allen, City Planner for FRA from San Francisco; Frank Aregood of Los Angeles, representative for the land owners; Harry Stewart, representative for Henderson Brick homes, Inc.; Clay Lynch, City Administrator; and Robert Cordill, City Engineer.

The two FHA officials made a survey of the land on Tuesday and later made another survey accompanied by City Engineer Cordill, in order to see for themselves, the results of the French drains, which have already been installed, in reducing the ground water level.

The FHA officials were in complete agreement with the City's actions in their efforts to help this subdivision, and again pointed out the benefits to the city, the area and the potential home owners, in urging that the area be re-subdivided. However the legal impossibility of the owners to re-subdivide was recognized and approval for construction was given on the original subdivision.

Following their surveys of the area and a study of City Engineers Cordill's findings on the survey of the ground water which was started some time ago by the city, both Blaser and Allen agreed that the drains will handle this ground water problem satisfactorily, making the area suitable for residential development.

Lynch told the HOME NEWS in an interview yesterday that the work of City Engineer Cordill and the data he has compiled on the ground water problems, in a large part, was responsible for the FHA approval of this subdivision as control of the seepage water was the only thing holding up the start of construction.

FIREMEN DON'T HAVE A CHANCE

(This article, from the Chicago Fire Fighter, is reprinted here at the request of Mayor William Byrne. — Ed. note.)

When the fire trucks are delayed 40 seconds in traffic, people say: "It took them 20 minutes to get here."

When the truck races at 40 mph, it's: "Look at those reckless fools."

When four men struggle with an eight-man ladder: "They don't even know how to raise a ladder."

When firemen open windows for ventilation to reduce heat in fighting a fire: "Look at the wrecking crew."

When they open the floor to get at the blaze: "There goes the axe squad."

If the chief stands back where he can see and direct his men, people say: "He's afraid to go where he sends his men."

If they lose a building: "It's a lousy department."

If they make a good "stop" folks say: "The fire didn't amount to much."

If lots of water is necessary: "They are doing more damage with water than the flames."

If a fireman gets hurt: "He was a careless guy."

If a citizen gets hurt: "It's a crazy department."

If a fireman inspects a citizen's property: "He's meddling in somebody's business."

If he wants a fire hazard corrected: "I'll see the mayor."

If he gets killed and leaves a family destitute: "That's the chance he took when he joined the department."

JR. TREADERS DANCE

Recreation Director Dalby Shirley announced yesterday that a Junior Treaders dance will be held tomorrow evening at the recreation center. The dance will start at 8 pm and it will end at 10:30. All Junior Treaders are invited to attend. Admission will be just a nickle.

AT YOUR SERVICE — These two service station men are busy as bees these days, tending to the spanking brand new Texaco station at the intersection of Boulder Highway and Basic Road — adjoining the new Safeway store. On the left is Norman Gray, local man, who manages the station for owner Takashi Masuda — who also owns a station in Boulder City. A gigantic grand opening celebration is also planned by Masuda — shortly. Watch the HOME NEWS for details. Meanwhile, stop in and try the newest gas station in town, for they're open for business. Also helping there is Rudy Lucero.

Lynch Children Protect Crickets As Dad Directs Insect Spraying

City Administrator C. I. Lynch is being aided in his efforts to rid the city of insects by his two daughters, Geraldine, 6 years old and Peg Eileen, 5 — except for crickets, which are the Pittman area was treated with insect spray on Thursday and the two youngsters caught two toads, during an outing at Warm Springs on Sunday — brought them back to Pittman and turned them loose to catch any insects not exterminated by the spray.

On Tuesday the 500 trees, planted last spring by the City Beautiful Committee, were sprayed with DDT and spraying operations in other sections of the city are scheduled in the immediate future.

While this insect slaughter is going on Geraldine and Peg Eileen are protecting their own insect pets from being killed by the spraying, being carried on by the City, under their father's direction.

The two Lynch youngsters are very fond of crickets and of late have caught a sizeable number which they have been keeping as pets. Some of these have been turned loose under the sink, where they forage for their own food and entertain Mrs. Lynch as she goes about her household duties.

Others are presently housed in Mason Jars, whose lids are well perforated to provide air for these pets, which are fed a diet of lettuce leaves. Lynch says the symphony music provided by his daughter's many musical pets is really pleasing to the ear and if a "cricket on the hearth" brings good luck, the Lynch home should be really loaded with this commodity, since it holds not "a cricket" but a whole colony of these happy creatures.

The crickets are not intended to live in glass houses forever. Geraldine and Peg Eileen have already made a bargain with their father and their next allowance is earmarked to provide suitable dwellings for "Jimmy" and his host of friends who are presently living in Mason jars.

The Five Cent Cigar Is No More But A Nickle Still Brings The NEWS And Gives You Some Change

The American dollar might well be called the symbol of vanishing values — whether, inflation or our going off the gold standard has brought this about is beside the point — you get very little today for a dollar.

As the dollar diminishes in buying power, the half-dollar replaces the quarter and the former nickle values are cut in size and sold for a dime.

The five cent cigar, the nickle candy bar, and other comparable items are so long gone they are almost forgotten, and to give a child a penny is a fairly useless gesture — unless of course, it is to pay the tax on the quarter you give him for candy.

There is, however, one thing you can still get with pennies — the HENDERSON HOME NEWS — delivered to your door — and for less than a nickle.

We are striving to hold the line and not raise the price of your hometown newspaper and in order to do this, all subscriptions have been made payable

Mine Assessment Moratorium Bogs Down In House Committee

Senator Alan Bible reports that strong opposition has arisen against the mine assessment moratorium bill in the public lands sub-committee of the House of Representatives and he has been advised that favorable action on the bill is unlikely.

In view of this situation, Bible advises that all mine assessment work should be done in accordance with present and existing statutes.

The bill, introduced by Senator Bible in February, passed the Senate following extensive committee hearings on May 19. Since that time legislation has awaited committee action in the house.

Senator Bible stated that he believed this legislation would

IMPROVE STREETS IN CARVER PARK

The Housing Authority of Clark County is improving the paving in Carver Park with the work now underway by Ideal Asphalt and Paving Company.

The work will consist of adding a new strip of pavement, 5 feet in width, to each side of all of the streets in the project, giving an additional eight feet of width to each street. A new access road is also being paved.

This road will start at the northeast end of Lincoln Street and will connect with Vegas Wash Road, between Carver Park and Valley View.

With these improvements, the Housing Authority hopes traffic congestion in Carver Park will be relieved to some extent. It also believes the dust nuisance will be lessened by the cutting down of unpaved areas which must be kept available for parking.

World Health Organization reports that malaria eradication has been nearly achieved in 9 countries or territories, is under way in 15 others and has been initiated or planned in 16 more.

Asked by a reporter whether he favored the status quo, the new legislature replied, "The status is O. K., but please don't quo me."

GOOD NEWS FOR GIFT SHOPPERS

Today we'd like to tell you about some of our extra-special bargains, and describe some of the new things we've added to stock.

We had a number of calls for infant feeding spoons and pearl-on-a-chain necklaces. We have these now, priced at $1.00 and $1.24 respectively. We also had requests for sterling silver and gold-filled neck chains, and have a good supply now, priced from $1.32.

With the younger set in mind, we bought a supply of boys' and girls' stretchy bands for all famous character watches, which are priced at $2.20 each. We also have many other watch bands in all types and lengths, from $1.95 up.

Another watch band deal we should tell you about is the Spidel factory close out special on one men's style and one ladies', the former being an expansion type which regularly sold for $12.95, now selling for $6.95, and the latter the "slim lizard" expansion marked down from $9.95 to $5.50.

For practical homemakers, we bought Oneidacraft stainless steel knives, forks and spoons. 16-pc. starter sets are $14.95 and $19.95.

We should like to tell you too that for a limited time only Community silver is offering all open stock pieces in the "Carnation" pattern 1/2 OFF. This also applies to 1847 Rogers "First Love" and "Eternally Yours."

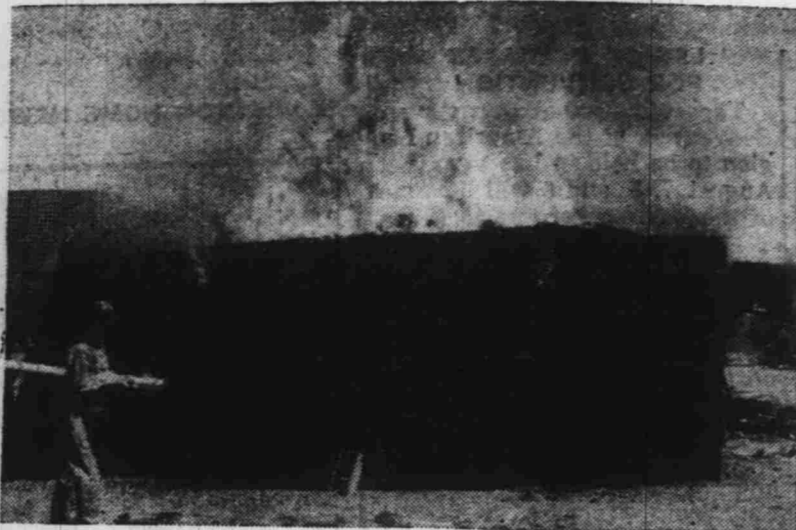

One of our favorite salesmen, with whom we have dealt for 12 years, gave us a very good buy on some sample necklace and ear-ring sets in satin-lined gift boxes. These are lovely, prong-set pieces, exquisitely styled for evening wear, and we can sell them at the unbelievably low price of $9.90.

Then too, if your boy needs a good utility watch, we sell them for $10.95 — nurse's watches for only $28.60, incabloc, 17 J. stainless steel cased and with nice band. We are also offering a 17 J ladies' or girls' watch in a gold-filled case with high dome crystal for $22.00.

HAULOCAUST — A fire is ignited in an old tin building, piled high with wood and other inflammable material, in the last fire drill held for the first Fire Department, Vocational Education Class. Alan Stanz holds the nozzle, backed up by two other firemen, waiting for the water to be turned on.

FIVE SECONDS LATER — the flames have been lowered by the fog nozzle, and the fog pattern of white can be seen in front of the black smoke rolling up from the fire. Alan Stanz still holds the nozzle, and back of him are Captain Ted Russ, Ernie Lomprey and Chief Don Richard.

EXTINGUISHED — Just 12 seconds after the fire fighting started the flames are completely extinguished and not a spark remains. Hubert Giles and Ted Russ can be seen inside the building where the fire was started, surveying the remains of the wood and other inflammable material which less than a quarter of a minute before made a red hot inferno of the tin shack.

Fire Dept. Enthusiastic As First Vocational Ed. Class Graduated

With the close of the first year of on-the-job training for senior boys from Basic High School at the local Fire Department, Fire Chief Don Richard is very enthusiastic about this Vocational Education Program.

The seven boys who worked with the Department during the last school year, Alan Stanz, Ernie Lomprey, Rex Newell, Brian Leming, Jim Wooten, Gary Shaw and Ronnie Neiman, all passed their final exams with flying colors, receiving one school credit for 180 hours of study in fire fighting and one credit for study in related subjects. Tests were given by Chief Richard with the results turned in to Ben Cowan, in charge of Vocational Training at the high school.

The students attended regular classes at the high school, taking courses in fire fighting, first aid, and other related subjects at the Fire Department during evening hours. In addition each member of this class worked three nights each week at the Department and participated in two hour fire drills on Saturday and Sundays.

Students, on shift were assigned regular duties, working with the other firemen on fire calls and in caring for the equipment. Altho the training is not as extensive as that given the regular firemen, each boy was trained to do his job in a workman like and efficient manner.

Buildings were set up and ignited by the regular firemen and the actual extinguishing of the flames was a part of the training given the students.

Thru these controlled fires, the proper kind of nozzles, chemicals and other fire fighting measures were taught.

In speaking of the Vocational Educational program, Lt. Paul Hansel, shift commander at the Pittman Fire Station said, "the boys who were in training were a Godsend to us, giving us immediate man power when need-

DEAR MARCIE

By MARCELLA DUNCAN

Dear Marice:

I am a girl 13 year old. I know a girl who is doing lots of things she shouldn't be doing but her mother doesn't know it as her mother works odd hours.

Should I tell the girl's mother or mind my own business? I hate to see my friend go "to the dogs" when maybe I could help her.

What do you say, Marcie?
Nancy.

Dear Nancy:

Do you two girls attend the same church? If so, your priest or minister would be only too happy to talk to your friend. If not, your school principal — and there is quite a difference between a "rattle-tale" and a real friend. If you are really a friend, you'll know what I mean.

Dear Marice:

Golf widows, poker widows and gambling widows have nothing on me.

I'm a fishing widow and don't tell me to go along and fish! I would but I'm deathly afraid of water.

But must I go on suffering from loneliness every weekend — and sometimes during the week, too?

Another Widow.

Dear Widow:

The answer to this one is entirely up to you.

If you'd rather suffer from loneliness constantly, go right ahead, but have you ever thought of curing yourself of this "water phobia" of yours? This can be done, you know — all it takes is a little time and a lot of determination and you'll lick it.

Write me then and tell me about "the big one that got away!"

Dear Marice:

How old are you? Or do you object to telling your age?

My family and I are having a discussion and we are divided: half the family says you are young, and have gained knowledge from books; the other half says your kind of knowledge can only be gained from experience — (the way you talk to teenagers and handle the problems of married people, etc.) Who's right?
Guessing.

Dear Guessing:

I should live to think you are ALL right!

I should like to think you are even after raising three lovely daughters (and one husband) I am young enough to talk on the same level with today's teenagers, as well as mature enough to rationalize on their problems and the problems of the older generation, too.

If this be the case, then no one loses the discussion in your family.

Just keep "a-readin' and a-ritin'" and I'll still be — "doin' Dear Marice" when I'm dodderin'" Hev! That's not far off either! I'll be 50 pretty soon! Sh !

ROSE DE LIMA NURSES CEDAR CHEST DRAWING

The Nursing Staff of the Rose de Lima is currently sponsoring a raffle of a beautiful Lane Cedar Chest filled with linens. Proceeds are earmarked for the Nurses Scholarship Fund.

All of the articles were donated by the nurses and other members of the hospital staff.

The local appliance store not only has offered the group a prominent place in their window to display the raffle items, but aided them in getting the lovely blonde cedar chest at a discount.

Printing of the raffle tickets was donated by the Lucky Star Club.

Tickets may be purchased by contacting any of the hospital staff or at Gunville's. Price is a 50 cent donation.

The drawing will be held on June 27th at 3:00 pm. Winners need not be present.

THE O'CALLAGHANS — Mr. and Mrs. Mike O'Callaghan are shown with their three children, in their Frontier Highway home, shortly before Mike left for Washington, D. C. to attend Georgetown University during the summer. Mrs. O'Callaghan's mother, Mrs. Gordon Atkinson of Denver will visit at the O'Callaghan home until the middle of July, when her daughter, and grandchildren will accompany her to Denver where they will spend the rest of the summer. The O'Callaghan children, left to right are Colleen, Mike and baby Terry O'Callaghan writes the HOME NEWS column "Sports Mike".

O'CALLAGHAN STARTS CAREER AS TEACHER WHEN LOSS OF LEG ENDS CAREER IN ARMY

By RAE VON DORNUM

Donal N. "Mike" O'Callaghan left recently for Washington, D. C. where he will attend Georgetown University during the summer, studying diplomatic history and U. S. Constitutional government. Mike was awarded a scholarship to Arizona State at Tempe, but chose Georgetown instead as he felt he would gain more knowledge in the fields of history, economics and government which he will teach at Basic High School next fall.

Mike attended Gonzaga University at Spokane, Washington in 1948 and in 1950 was graduated from Boise Junior College, Boise, Idaho with an Associate of Arts Degree.

In February 1954 he entered the University of Idaho where he received both his Bachelor's and Masters degree in Psychology and Guidance when he was graduated with the class of 1956.

The summer after graduation, he attended Colorado State at Greeley, working on his Doctorate.

Coming to Basic in the fall of 1956, Mike taught history and economics the first year, and last year taught history and served as student counsellor.

During the two years he has been at the local high school, O'Callaghan has completed a full year of college work at Nevada Southern University, attending night classes in six different fields, to help round out his education.

This is not a bad scholastic record for a fellow who never intended to go to college at all — preferring, in his younger days, a career in the U. S. Armed Forces or the ring.

Mike was doing well in both of his chosen fields until February 1953 — having served a hitch in the U. S. Marine Corps, another in the U. S. Air Force — he was at this time a member of the U. S. Army in Korea.

He was progressing in his career at the same time, having represented the State of Idaho while at Boise Junior College, in the Inter-Mountain AAU Senior Division boxing championship finals, he continued his ring training in the service and was looking forward to a try at professional boxing when his hitch in the Army was terminated.

All these plans for the future were blotted out in February of 1953 by a direct hit of an enemy 82-mm mortar shell.

Mike has only one regret in life — the fact that his mother did not live to see him give serious thought to higher education.

Born in 1929 in La Crosse, Wisconsin, Mike and his two sisters were raised on a dry farm during the depression, with the family's main source of revenue raised by selling cream to the local creamery and raising pickles for Hines.

The three children attended school in a one room schoolhouse where all 8 grades were taught by Mrs. O'Callaghan. Twenty-seven children in grades one thru eight, attended the school.

Mike entered high school in Ironwood, Michigan at the age of 12 years and was graduated from Wynona, Minnesota high school at 16. His mother, who was a straight "A" student all thru high school, worked as a waitress to pay her way thru college, where she also achieved a straight "A" average. She was anxious for her son to continue his education and he was equally anxious to join the Armed Forces.

Falsifying his age he entered the U. S. Marine Corps and served in the So. Pacific. His 17th birthday was spent on Kwajalein in the Marshall Islands. In 1948 he received his discharge with the rank of Sergeant.

He worked for a number of months as an ironworker at Richland, Wash. where a bridge was being built on the Yakami River, before entering Gonzaga University.

His second enlistment was following graduation from Boise Junior College, when he enlisted in the U. S. Air Force, first serving in Texas and later transferred to Great Falls, Montana where he was an Air Policeman.

As a result of this duty, he captured a civilian gunman, wanted throughout the north-west for shooting a bartender and stealing a taxicab at gunpoint — for this he received a commendation from the chief of police, the mayor and a number of service clubs in Great Falls, and the Air Force sent him to Intelligence School in Denver, Colorado.

From July 1951 to January 1952, he was in charge of intelligence activities for the Military Air Transport Service from Fairbanks, Alaska to Shemya Island in the Aleutian chain.

This duty was too inactive to suit Mike, and he took an examination for Army OCS at Ft. Richardson, Alaska and after passing the tests was discharged from the Air Force and enlisted in the Army on the same day.

He was sent to Fort Ord, Cal. where he entered Leadership School, but upon graduation he refused to enter Officers Candidate School, requesting a combat assignment instead.

"I wanted action," he says "and I really got it in the Army." He was sent to join the Second Division as a Private in the Infantry, where he was assistant automatic rifle man, working his way up to the rank of Sergeant and Platoon Leader at the time he was wounded in February, 1953.

Prior to this, on Christmas Eve, 1952, he was hit with a hand grenade. The wounds were minor and he did not leave the front lines, where he received first aid treatment.

This battle was fought on T-Bone Hill and Mike captured one of the Mongol Raiders, who was cut off from his battalion during the action. For this he received the Bronze Star with "V" for Valor and a seven day leave in Tokyo.

When injured the second time in February, 1953, he was hit with an 82-mm mortar shell, which killed one of the patrol leaders, standing about 25 feet away from him. His left leg was blown off below the knee and in addition he had a broken pelvis, broken back and broken left hip.

Hit at 11:30 pm he was removed from the battlefield at 6 o'clock the next morning when the enemy was driven back, and taken by helicopter to a mobile Army Surgical Hospital, behind the lines where seven day of blood transfusions were required before he could be sent to a hospital in Tokyo. In May he was returned to the United States and hospitalized in San Francisco.

In September his stump was revised and he was fitted with an artificial limb and entered a walking class. At the end of October he became the first member of this class who learned to walk again, a fact which was brought about through a very unfortunate happening, which gave nationwide publicity to him and his buddy, Tetsuo, Nakahama, who lost both legs on Heartbreak Ridge in Korea. The two men were pulled out of a taxicab in San Francisco by five young hoodlums and were stomped, kicked and beaten while unable to defend themselves. The taxi driver was an elderly man and was too badly frightened to attempt assistance — he pulled up the street and radioed for the police.

The public was incensed at this outrage and so was Mike, who made up his mind before being picked out of the street, bruised and battered, that he would learn to walk — but quick — this type of thing was not going to happen again. As a result of his determination, he was walking at the end of the next month and on December 1, was discharged from the hospital. He entered the University of Idaho on Feb. 1, 1954, just 13 days less than one year after being wounded in Korea.

Active in university affairs, he was a member of the athletic board of control, wrote editorials for the university newspaper, and was elected to the student executive board by the biggest majority ever polled by any candidate at the University of Idaho. He was also an officer in Phi Delta Kappa and upon his graduating with both his Bachelor's and Masters Degree, was selected one of the top ten students in the graduating class of 700.

Mike met his wife, the former Carolyn Jean Randall of Twin Falls, while both were students at the University of Idaho and they were married in August, 1954. The couple have three children, Mike, 3 years old, Colleen 14 months, and Terry three and a half months old.

RECKLESS DRIVING CHARGE FOR RONALD J. MARTIN
Ronald J. Martin, 40A, Victory Village, appeared before U. S. Commissioner Elton Garrett on June 16 to answer charges of reckless driving with a motor vehicle.

Martin was apprehended at Vegas Wash at 10 pm June 15 by Park Ranger Harlan Rowland when he drove his car below the rope barriers in the restricted beach area. The defendant pleaded "guilty" and was fined 10 dollars by Commissioner Garrett.

Acting Supt. William Superbaugh of the LMNRA said: "Infractions of this type may seem very minor to some people, yet when one realizes the danger of running over adults and children lying on the beach, or the danger of running people colliding with the vehicle in this area closed to automobiles, it takes on a much more serious aspect — the threatening of human life. In the interest of public safety I would like to remind those using the beach facilities and drives of automobiles and boats to use extreme caution aed a florist shop in Twin Falls and are now living in Denver, Colorado, where they have established another business.

Mrs. Atkinson is presently a guest at the home of her daughter, at 145 Frontier Highway, and will remain here until the middle of July. At the end of her mother's visit, Mrs. O'Callaghan and the children will accompany her to Denver where they will spend the rest of the summer.

During his stay in Washington, D. C. Mike plans to visit his sister Mrs. F. B. Shrake in Norfolk, Virginia. His brother-in-law is a Lt. Commander in the U. S. Navy, stationed at Norfolk.

CYO JUNIORS
On Tuesday June 17 the CYO Junior League Team pressed their bid for championship of the LVMBF Junior Division by downing the Twin Lakes team with a score of 13 to 5 at Hadland Park, Las Vegas.

Behind the powerful hurling of Marvin Buescher the CYO boys came from behind in the third inning (5-1), to insure the third straight win. The week before they picked up wins from the Las Vegas Athletic Club and Horse Shoe Insurance.

Young Buescher has been the starter in all events, so wins are all credited to him.

The CYO team is tied with the North Las Vegas Lions for first place both teams having a 3 win and 0 loss record.

Bank Of Nevada Donates $50 To Boys' Club

The Henderson Boys Club last week received a donation of $50 from the local branch of the Bank of Nevada, given on behalf of the employees at the Bank.

The money was presented to Chief of Police George Crisler, treasurer of the Boys Club, by Assistant Manager J. C. Rayborn. In making the presentation, Rayborn said he felt the Boys Club was a wonderful thing for the youth of our city and was high in his praise for the work being accomplished.

The $50 donation, Crisler said will be used to purchase sporting and athletic equipment for the club.

Membership in the club is open for boys from age 4 — years and up and all sports may be participated in by any age group.

Interested applicants should contact the Chief of Police for information and membership applications. Membership in the club is free, Crisler said.

PINK ELEPHANT SALE
The Emera Club met on Friday evening, June 20, at the home of Mrs. Douglas Johnson. Members voted to hold a "pink elephant" sale at the regular meeting in July. Mrs. Johnson was the recipient of the sunshine gift.

Present at the meeting were Mesdames: Waldo Highfill, Lloyd Sager, Jean de Montague, Earl Williams, Arlen Harris, Walter Kubic, Charles Dohrenwend, Dan McLeod, Homer Turpin, Jr., Mel Hastings, Harry Ulery, C. G. Shay, Alfred Beaumont and hostess Mrs. Johnson.

team are: Paul Weir, Frank Schreck, Larry Evans, Dennis Drake, Henry Sena, Larry Elliott, Gary Bates, John Hinkell, Marvin Buescher and Stubby DuBravac.

SP MIDGETS
The local parochial school's entry in the Midget Division of the LVMBF laso is tied for the first place division in the American League. Tied with them is Dick's Hardware and the Horse Shoe Club's entries.

On Monday June 16th at the Madison Field the Henderson boys met the Nellis team and downed them by a score of 6-2. Later in the week at John S. Park Field they set St. Josephs down with a 8-5 loss. One of the highlights of the latter game was a triple play that scored 3 out in such short order that the other team left the field muttering: "What happened?" This baseball oddity is being heard in some quarters as possibly the only one of it's kind in the history of the midget league.

Participating in this athletic phenomena were the following players: Ronald Bates, Myron Buescher and Reece White. Local youngsters on the roster of the St. Peter's team are: Mac Montoya, Bobby Phelps, Kit Watson, Reece White, Dennis Petrich, Terry Shearin, Jimmy Sanchez, David Jacobs, Eddie Allres, Ronald Bates, Jimmy Vincent, Myron Buescher, John Rose and Larry Shindler.

To date wins are evenly distributed with right-hander John Rose having two and another righty, Myron Buescher also having chalked up two.

Myron Buescher is the younger brother of Marvin Buescher who huris for the junior group. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Buescher of 10 E. Basic Road. Their father was formerly affiliated with the International League and has done all of the training of his sons.
