

CITY COUNCIL COMPROMISES ON $5 MINIMUM WATER RATE

Armstrong's Vote Brings Decision

By MORRY ZENOFF

Your water bills, dear readers, from now on in will be $5 minimum per month, plus 16½ cents per 1000 gallons you use over 23,000 gallons a month. (Presently, you are paying $3 minimum and get 19,019 gallons for it.)

This solution to the city's major problem was arrived at a long about 10:30 last night in the regular semi-monthly meeting of the city council.

And your councilmen got to a vote only after two hours of hot and heavy discussion on the pros and cons — and only then because Councilman Gail Armstrong, who in every day life wields a mean carving knife as a butcherman in a Vegas meat emporium — broke a deadlock of two councilmen against and two councilmen for the water rate raise.

It was Gail's own motion of compromise that brought the verdict. In fact it was his two motions. One for the above figures, and the second which calls for paring down the city employees payroll by at least three people.

All this in order to help get the city out of the red — which it is in to the tune of some $50,000.

Councilmen Aubrey Pagan and Bob Kesterson fought tooth and toenail to stop the water rate rise. Pagan felt there were other ways to make up the deficit. Kesterson felt that a wholesale cut down in personnel would do it.

Councilmen Lou LaPorta and Bill Mainor championed the city administration's formula . . . which was to charge $2.67 to every water user and then each to pay for the water as used at the rate of 12.4 per 1,000 gallons.

They compromised with Armstrong and the final vote was 3-2 with Pagan and Kesterson standing pat.

The new rate plus the staff cuts will, according to the council and Finance Officer Don Dawson, gradually pull the city out of the red, enable the bond indebtedness to be paid off and will enable the city to continue giving the people the services it is giving in fire and police protection, recreation, street maintenance, etc.

The determination of which three will get the axe will be handled in a meeting to be held shortly.

The council will also consider cutting wages of its members in order to assist in the economizing, a citizen questioner at the meeting was advised.

Mayor Bill Byrne, during the cross-fire of argument that preceded the vote, remained adamant in his plea that the city must continue to give the people all possible services in order to have a properly run city and in order to keep it progressing.

He was joined in his thoughts by LaPorta, who pointed out that the 7,000 acres the city is acquiring from the federal government must be supplied with utilities so that growth and profit by useage of the new lands can be obtained.

The no-side — Kesterson and Pagan — felt that the city could go along just as well without raising rates — and at the same time satisfy the wishes of the people.

Several citizens in the audience were allowed to voice their opinions — and some were pro and some were con.

The only unanimous vote came when all five voted yes on Armstrong's second motion — for cutting down the staff.

Pagan's pet peeve — against allowing the proposed gun club federal land for a club site — won enough strength to beat the motion — Armstrong in this case swinging over to Pagan and Kesterson's side to bring a 3-2 naye majority. Armstrong felt the group should seek aid thru the county. It was also shown that the club was to be a membership by invitation setup and that the club had only 13 husbands and their wives presently on its rolls. Pagan stated it was out of line to grant 80 acres for so few people. Gun clubbers present said they planned to have a larger membership if th permit was granted.

Another three to two performance came about when Hank Jones' name came up for appointment to the city planning board. Armstrong at first sought to delay the vote until a future executive meeting but LaPorta and Mainor urged action right then and there. Armstrong finally agreed. Again Kesterson and Pagan stood pat on their noes.

Another planning board appointment will soon be made when John Peterson hands in his resignation. John Pearson's name was thrown into the hopper by Kesterson to fill Peterson's spot . . .

With some $2500 in donations to buy an ambulance, the council listened to bids — found none to their liking — and decided to study the offer of the state purchasing agent — which will enable the city to buy a new amulet (Studebaker Commander) at the saving of a $1000 — by buying a new one for $2600.

Denton Drug store owner Frank Denton was appointed to the city board of health, on the recommendation of City Health Officer Dr. Coogan.

New Year's Eve curfew was extended to 1 a. m. and the planning board recommendations were approved.

And thus ended another very important meeting in the history of the city. (And stormy, too!)

MORRY ZENOFF'S Merry Story—

Around The World In 80 Seconds

Far be it from me to tell you what to read, how to read, when to read — but may we let this column be a sort of a check list for you in helping you keep up with what's going on in the outside world.

I find I have to read the Monitor, Wall St. Journal, Newsweek, Time, Business Week, Reader's Digest to keep me informed. Sometimes the L. A. Times does a fair job of supplying us with what's with the world — especially its columnist — Bill Henry. Otherwise — nothing save crime and area news is at hand.

The events of the world are too great, too important, too interesting for you and I to let pass by. At the least it makes the most fascinating reading.

So — may I present the following summaries of important world stories — and we'll do this from time to time until the daily papers realize it is their job to do that and our job to bring you the community news.

Let's call it — "Around the World in 80 Seconds" (reading time that is).

These points stand out in the new crisis over West Berlin:

The United States is not retreating from its policy of firmness.

The United States is cooperating fully with its allies — Great Britain, France and West Germany.

There is no political schism on this issue in the capital between Democrats and Republicans.

The United States is not only prepared to undertake a new airlift, if necessary, but shows tendencies in guarded utterances by top officials, to take an attitude of "toughness" in dealing with the Communist East German Government if necessary.

The free West must stand unitedly against any Soviet attempt to change the four-power occupation status of Berlin, since this is the beginning of a campaign to shatter the Western position in Europe, Chancellor Konrad Adenauer told a Landtag (state) election audience in Munich.

Almost simultaneously here in Monne, Soviet Ambassador Andrei Smirnov told reporters that the U. S. S. R. intended to "give Berlin to the Germans" and that he believed "every thing would be settled by Christmas."

The $282,000,000 deficit that is staring California full in the face right this minute may prove to be just a drop in the bucket of this state's — and the West's — vast potential.

Growth in these parts continues at such a giant's pace that deficits of this size hardly seem worth scaring anybody.

Praise for Western realism in its attitude toward smaller nations, a bitter taunt that current Soviet bloc attacks on Yugoslavia are comparable with Goebbels' wartime propaganda and a strong hint that Peking's violent criticisms are aimed at Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev as much as at Belgrade have been heard in a speech by President Tito.

The Soviet Union is given an even chance of beating the United States into the sky with an atomic-powered airplane — possibly before the end of the year.

However, the director of the Pentagon's program for development of nuclear-powered aircraft says this country is on the threshold of success in building an atomic plane.

Services Pending For Heart Victim Frank Kernan, 70

Funeral services are pending for Frank Clayton Kernan, 70, who dropped dead on Market St. yesterday afternoon from an apparent heart attack or stroke.

The death was first discovered by James Van Valey, owner of Van Valey's Shoes and Men's Wear, who heard a loud 'bump' near the front of his store and thought some merchandise had fallen out of the show window.

On going to investigate, he found nothing amiss in the window so stepped outside and there found the man lying on the sidewalk in front of the store.

The police department was notified and upon arrival officers found the man dead and notified Coroner Aubrey Pagan. The body was taken to Bunker Bros. Mortuary.

Kernan resided at the Horizon Trailer Court, 1501 South Fifth Street, Las Vegas.

The Board of Health works in conjunction with the State Board of Health, having authority to issue health certificates to eating establishments, conduct inspections and order nuisances abated.

City Health Officer Dr. Coogan also supervises and assists in inoculation programs in the local schools.

Police "Save" Child When Calls To Fire Dept., Hospital Fail

Two local policemen did a rather ticklish job of rescuing 10 year old Phillip Flowers from an accident of his own creation on Saturday night after calls, made by his mother, to Rose de Lima and the local Fire Department failed to bring help.

The child was not in need of a resuscitator, but appearances warned his worried mother that he would be in need of an amputation if something wasn't done in a hurry.

Phillip just didn't realize what the results would be when he proudly put on a ring, which had been made by one of our high school boys. Using a nut in his jewelry making, this friend ground out the threads on the inside of the nut and had also ground it down and rounded off the outside corners.

The ring was slightly small for Phillip and his finger swelled and swelled, once the circulation had been cut off. All efforts to remove the ring failed and finally the boy's mother called the hospital.

"I'm sorry," she was told, "we have no facilities to take care of this. Call the fire department." The call to the fire department resulted in the following conversation: "I'm sorry. We have no facilities for anything like this, you had better call the hospital."

Mrs. Flowers, knowing the futility of calling the hospital, called the police department. "We'll send someone right over," said the officer at the desk.

Shortly after the call Reserve Sgt. Arthur Spear and Officer Charles Hitchborn arrived at the scene. Sgt. Spear, a machinist at Titanium Metals Corporation, had made a hurried trip to his home and picked up the proper tools for the job and went to work on the boy. By this time the finger had swollen terribly and was blue-black in color.

It looked like an impossible job, but Sgt. Spear finally managed to work a slim strip of metal under the ring to protect the lad's flesh and started the slow, tedious work of filing or sawing the nut in half.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Flowers expressed their gratitude to the police officers for their deed of mercy, as did little Phillip.

The Flowers, who reside at 105 Ivy Street, would like their neighbors to know that the prowler which may have been observed in front of their dwelling around 10 p.m. the night of Sat. Nov. 29, was the vehicle used by the two "good Samaritans" who came in answer to their call for assistance.

CLEAVENGERS VISIT FRIENDS HERE

Mr. and Mrs. Don Cleavenger, former residents now living at San Diego, California, were weekend visitors here and called on a number of friends and former neighbors during their two day stay.

The Cleavengers moved to San Diego following the cut back at Titanium Metals Corporation's plant here, where he had been employed as a machinist.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleavenger were accompanied on their visit by their three children, Ricky, Eddie and Jimmy, the newest addition to the family, who was born on October 11.

Among the numerous friends visited were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Porter of 550 Karen Way.

A Puerto Rican fruit called the West India cherry is said to be so rich in vitamin C that a glass of it would be equivalent to 85 glasses of orange juice.

Byrne Denounces Council Action On Incomplete Wage Adjustment

(Ed. Note. Following the meeting of the City Council on November 24, Mayor William "Bill" Byrne, believing it unfair to raise the salaries of a portion of the city employees, while refusing to raise others, wrote the following letter to the members of the City Council on Nov. 25.)

Gentlemen:
I feel it incumbent upon me to reiterate the opinion I expressed at the Council meeting last evening regarding the equity of including the supervisory personnel in the wage and salary increase.

The fact that the Council approved the increase to affect all categories thru Range No. 46, is commendable and solves a serious problem of correction of an inequitable wage scale; however, I feel very strongly that the Council erred when it concluded that the "supervisory" categories should be excluded from the salary increases.

The Ranges or Classifications established for the categories which were so established by the same process of study and survey as were all of the other Ranges, i.e., points graded for Mental Skill, Pre-employment Training, On-The-Job Training, Physical Labor, Responsibility, Hazards, Supervisory Duties, Other Duties, etc., and the net result of this point-grading, plus other factors such as prevailing wage-scales for similar positions in the area, establishes the particular Grade; hence, if this accepted process of job-evaluation establishes a certain wage or salary scale for Grade No. 55, for example, it is just as necessary and equitable that it be paid for Grade No. 55, as it is necessary and equitable that it be paid, for example, to Grade No. 35.

This is particularly true, gentlemen, when we are considering mere "living wages". I feel confident we will all agree that monthly wages in the $500 and $600 ranges do not afford a n y particular luxuries to the wage-earner in this day and age. I thoroughly agree that we are all charged with the very serious responsibility of the greatest economy of operation of our City's affairs but the saving of approximately only $3,000 in our next eight months operations by refusing these twelve deserving employees a needed increase at this time does not compensate for the continuing of an inadequate wage to them as against the commendable correction of that condition to all of the other classifications.

These people are charged with the responsibility of effecting economical and efficient administration of the departments; they have met that responsibility loyally; I do not feel we should tax that loyalty further by asking them to wait longer because their abilities and responsibilities pay

Judith Bradstreet, P. Mikkelson Wed In Double Ring Church Rites

Miss Judith Bradstreet became the bride of Philip Mikkelson Jr., in a double ring ceremony conducted at Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses in Pittman at 8 p.m. on Saturday, November 8. The Reverend J. D. Sizemore officiated at the rites.

The altar, where the bride was given in marriage by her father, was decorated with tall bouquets of gladioli and appropriate wedding music was played by Harriet Congdon at the piano.

The bride chose a ballerina length gown of pink taffeta with embroidered panels on the bouffant skirt and carried a shower of white carnations. Her pink shoulder length veil was held by a head band of pink satin.

Attending the bride were her two sisters, Barbara Boehm and Linda Bradstreet. They were dressed in identical gowns of pale green nylon net over taffeta with satin cummerbunds and wore pale green headbands. Each wore a corsage of pink rose buds.

Attending the bridegroom were his brother-in-law, Monte Hoult and Howard Boehm, brother-in-law of the bride. Ushers were Henry Stewart and Ronald Kaylor.

Mrs. Bradstreet chose a tan suit with matching hat and accessories for her daughter's wedding and wore a fur stole and red rosebud corsage.

The mother of the groom wore a suit of navy blue with black hat and accessories and a corsage of white gardenias.

Approximately 50 guests attended the wedding and the reception which followed at the Pittman Community Center.

The white damask covered serving table was centered with a beautiful three-tiered wedding cake, which was flanked by bouquets of pink gladioli. Miss Nancy Farris was in charge of the guest book.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Bradstreet, 215 South Texas Street. Prior to her wedding she was employed in the business office of the Home News.

Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Mikkelson Sr., of Van Nuys, California.

Out of town guests at the wedding and reception were: Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Mikkelson Sr., Wally Mikkelsen and Roger Mikkelsen, brothers of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Monte Hoult, sister and brother-in-law of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Boehm, sister and brother-in-law of the bride; and James Fennell, all of Van Nuys, California.
