Lake Mead Lodge has been sold. A new deal is in order — that will bring expansion, modernization and more traffic to the famous little oasis on the largest man-made lake in the world.

D. E. Morrison of Los Angeles has purchased the place and as soon as clearance thru the department of interior is obtained there will be some 20 units added to the rooms-for-rent section plus an overhaul of the air conditioning and other comfort items.

A 15 year contract has been negotiated. It is judged that it will take 60 days for final clearance of all papers.

Several bidders sought to obtain the lodge, including one from local interests and one from Las Vegas.

REGISTRATION SAT. FOR SWIM CLASSES

The swim program director has announced there shall be a second registration for swimming lessons on Saturday, July 18, 1959, beginning at 9:00 a.m. until 12 noon.

All classes are open for registration with the exception of the beginner class for seven and eight year olds. Everyone is urged to register for the last two sessions of the summer. The third session will begin on July 20 and the fourth session on August 3.

Mary Marshall-John Cassidy Vows Repeated At LDS Chapel

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick John Cassidy are at home at 4A Victory Village, following a honeymoon trip to the southern Nevada and Southern Utah park regions.

Mary Valene Marshall, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Marshall of 443 Republic st., was united in marriage on June 20 to Patrick John Cassidy. Officiating was bishop Edward C. Bunker of Las Vegas.

The bride wore a gown of white Chantilly lace in a tunic style over white slipper satin. Her bouquet featured pink roses and white carnations. The fingertip veil fell from a crown of seed pearls.

Attending her sister as matron of honor was Mrs. Marris Brinkerhoff, Salt Lake City. She wore a dress of cream and black lace and carried pink carnations.

Sally Watson, Shirley Barnum and Judy Brinkerhoff served as bridesmaids. All wore identical frocks of nylon organdy in shades of yellow and blue with cascade bouquets of blue and pink carnations.

Best man was Rex Daniels, the groom's uncle. Ushers were Reuben Barnum and Jack Hunter.

Elaine Brinkerhoff and Connie Marshall, the bride's nieces were flower girls. They wore white nylon organdy dresses and carried nosegays of blue carnations.

Mrs. Marshall chose a pink lace dress, while Mrs. Cassidy chose a brown and white satin gown. Each wore pink carnation corsages.

One hundred guests attended the wedding and reception. Mrs. Palma Black was mistress of ceremonies for the reception program which featured vocalists accompanied by Miss Leslie Sullivan.

Vocalists were Verlene Sullivan, Louise Prince, Marguerite Cooper and Robert Hinton.

A three-tiered wedding cake shaped like a four leaf clover was served.

The new Mrs. Cassidy is a senior at Basic. Cassidy is a 1957 Basic graduate and is employed as an assistant welder.

Schools Will Add 12 New Teachers

The Henderson school system has gained an additional teacher for the coming year and has room for 11 more, according to school administrator Lylal Burkholder.

While 17 of the 120 teachers resigned, 18 new people were hired to bring the total teaching staff in the elementary, junior high and high schools to 121. Seven of the vacancies are in the elementary school staff with 4 in Junior High School.

With the transfer of the 9th grade to the Townsite campus, the high school lost five teachers. Townsite, however, gained 11 faculty members minus four resignations.

Main reasons for resignation were transfer to another position and marriage.

Resignations were accepted from: Mesdames Elaine Bigelow, Glenda Hougland, Arlyn Rodgers, Winifred Shaw, Miss Barbara Haws and Miss Helen Nussair in the elementary schools.

James Barnhart, Norris Matson, Lawrence Williams, Miss Maurine Winters, Mrs. Marian Cummings, Mrs. Gertrude Cunningham and Mrs. Josephine Strong tendered resignations at the high school while junior high teachers Dale Riddle, Mrs. Laren Fleming, Miss Shirley Huskinson and Miss Shirley Daugherty will not teach here this year.

NEW TEACHERS

New teachers in the elementary schools include Miss Pauline Cunningham, Miss Anne Gibson, Miss Millie Ross, Mrs. Anita Mooring, Mrs. Jean Arkell, Mrs. Audrey Norton, Mrs. Samuel Schultz, Samuel Ware and Burt Gillis.

The Junior High School hired Richard Bayless, Dale Christofferson, William Langenbacher, Joe Schultz, James Wahl, Misses Maxine Yeoman, Barbara V. n Cleye, Jo Ann Phillips and Mesdames Sarah Larkin, Beverly Littlefield and Alice Pope.

Two new faces at the high school will be Donald Taylor, who transferred from Junior High, and Mrs. Gladys White, a transferee from Park Village school.

NEW CARVER PARK TENANTS

The list of new tenants moving into Carver Park from June 19 to June 30, has been announced by Jimmie L. Hullum, Project Manager, and is as follows: R. B. Vincent, S-Sgt. K. E. Larkin, D. Meacham, E. Sauter, E. B. Wells, C. A. Brown, N. L. Gardner, W. E. Bearup, L. Paez, W. R. Jones, A-1C L. Ruffin, T. G. Gross, A-1C F. Moore, A-1C G. E. Blair, A-2C Bartlett, J. T. Chastain, A-1C B. B. Green.

The first week of life is the most crucial among Nevada babies. For the year ending the 30th of June 1958, no less than 64 per cent of the state's 222 infant deaths occurred at ages under one week.

Nazarene Bible School Program Is Sunday Morning

Commencement exercises for Nazarene church will be on July 19 at 9:45 a.m.

A total of 91 young people enrolled, making it the largest enrollment thus far. The largest enrollment thus far. The average attendance at the school has been 79 youngsters each evening.

Reverend Wilfred Stukas is the pastor of the church, and is in charge of crafts. Teacher for the nursery school was Mrs. Janie Schultzy, assisted by Mrs. Irene Morris, Mrs. Willa Jean Munn and Miss Sylvia Goodnow. Beginner teachers were Terry Stukas, assisted by Mrs. Roberta Jackson.

Primary teacher was Mrs. Ruth Egan, assisted by Mrs. Eleanor Myers and Miss Mary Anderson.

Community Church Starts Repairs

The Community Church is beginning a program of repainting and repairing, according to William Kling, chairman of the build committee of the church.

Work parties gather regularly each Wednesday evening. Work has been planned by John Ryan, Charles Hawkins, Victor Howard, Roger Peebles, and other men.

The first project was the repainting of window frames, the doors and trim. The church office and library have been insulated for greater comfort during summer weather.

An engineering study of air flow and cooling in the nave was made by Victor Howard and by Roger Peebles. This together with the repairs to the cooling system made under the direction of William Kling, have made the congregation more comfortable during services.

Plans have been made for re-landscaping after the streets are paved and the grading determined.

An "Art in Worship" group is being started, with the thought of using arts and crafts for the enhancement of worship.

The church recently inaugurated the use of Sacred Design bulletins which are striking and beautiful.

The average American consumes his own weight in food every 50 days; a healthy child does so in about 10 days, while aged persons do this only once in 65 days.

near Water and Ocean, will sharpen mowers, saws, etc.

Going on vacation but have no place to leave that precious house plant? Did you know that Marje Ivary will "plant-sit" your treasurers?? Marje has started a new service too, of tending flower boxes and planters, this she plans to do on a monthly service charge, feeding the plants when necessary, etc.

Marje keeps some of the teachers plants all summer, reports them and gives them expert care. She does likewise with the school plants.

Some people have been very disappointed when they bought landscaping materials from out-of-state firms who do not know local soils and their special requisites. Looking for an expert? —we have one right here — at Henderson Gardens on Water Street.

Marje will bake ceramic objects, too. (I have a couple to take down there.) She has joined the country-wide group working on mosaics, and is making a mosaic table.

Incidentally, Henderson Gardens will be closed from 1 to 4 during summer months.

Harve Perry was clearing out a line of colored Samselite luggage at terrific bargains, but we are late. (Only 2 pieces are left.) Several of the new homes in Hillcrest have "sold" signs out. Others show the signs of recent occupancy. The first homes are looking more original with the additions of fences, flowers and shrubbery and varied trim.

If you want some pretty souvenirs, Walgreen Drug has some jeweled ones that would please any-and-every body.

PERMITS ISSUED FOR 51 HOMES IN TRACT 4

Tract 4 home permits have been issued, it has been announced by Pat Doherty, Superintendent of Building. The new homes will be of frame and stucco construction. Permits for 51 homes were issued.

The homes have been valued at $14,000. (with out lot), but the selling price is as yet not known. The owner is Dabena Homes Inc., the builders are Truall Builders, Inc., and they are represented by Dan C. Russell.

$270 Vandalism Dangers Traffic

Citizens of Henderson were asked to report any "street-light vandalism" to the police department yesterday as 12 lights valued at $270 have been found broken during the past month.

Last week both yellow caution lights were broken at the intersection of Frontier and Boulder Highways, according to Dick Feist of California Pacific Utilities Co. The vandalism has occurred mainly on Basic Rd., Victory Rd., Tugsten, Vegas Wash Road and on the alley crossing Gold, Platinum and Zinc Sts.

Feist told police officers that when the glass cover to the mercury vapor lamps is broken, light dispersion in intersections is faulty and usually the lamp itself is punctured.

A broken lamp costs $22.50 and some were destroyed almost immediately after being replaced.

Our People Speak

By RAE VON DORNUM
Do you believe surplus monies from the water and sewer utilities, over and above the operation and maintenance costs and the redemption of bonds, should be used for other operations of the city? If not, where would you suggest the money should come from to perform the additional public services rendered by the city?

MRS. ROBERT A. BLAKE, house wife, 117 Yucca Street.

I feel that the money comes into the city and after all of the debts are paid, it is all right to use it for other needs of the city. That is the way we take care of our own money, we supply our needs, pay our debts and use the rest of it in anyway we wish to.

MRS. RALPH PURDY, Co-owner Desert Sporting Goods, 546 Federal Street.

I believe the surplus monies should be put into the General Fund to be used for administrative purposes. A city has to receive money from other sources besides just licenses and taxes in order to provide services.

All cities actually receive benefit from water utilities, garbage collections, etc.

If the city did not operate the utility business, they would receive a franchise fee from these utilities which would go into the General Fund.

E. M. TURNER, Service Station Proprietor, 79 Atlantic Street.

Surplus money, over and above costs and bond redemption is essentially an operating profit and should be expended for any city expense.

If not, the surpluses would have to go into a reserve or into investments; and such reserves are impractical if other expenses are outstanding.

Such expenses still have to be met, either by taxation or on debt incurrence, so it revolves back into a situation of a vicious circle — that is — why raise taxes to meet one type of expense, when an unused profit results from another operation.

MRS. DALBY SHIRLEY, secretary, 26 Lowery Street

I think we should pay our bills and then concentrate on other sources of revenue — right now I don't think we have any choice except to use utility funds for the general operation of the city.

I think probably we are putting too much emphasis on the sale of land. Everyone seems to think we are going to be able to pay off the National Debt with this, but I don't think there will ever be that much.

I don't think personnel should be cut, the city is understaffed as it is.

JOE KELLER, Barber, Men's Dormitory, Victory Village

I believe that if the General Fund is not sufficient to take care of the Police and Fire departments and other spending necessary to running of the city properly, then we should use some of the surplus money from the utilities for this purpose.

If the General Fund is sufficient without the use of any of this surplus, then cut the water and sewer bills for the benefit of the public.

MRS. ROBERT TAYLOR, house wife, 412 Republic Street

We have some very civic minded men in our town and so I suggest we could have a partial volunteer Fire Department, then too, our councilmen might feel that they could forego payment for the counsel they give us.

We could also make a study of towns with similar problems and learn how they have met their problems.

MONDAY SESSION FOR EAGLES AUXILIARY

The regular monthly board meeting met last Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Ted Carter at 86 E. Texas St.

Mrs. Charles Ruliffson disclosed plans to start a membership contest immediately. Each member is encouraged to sponsor a new member during the campaign.

Refreshments were served following the board meeting. Present were Mesdames Fred Ives, Cleo Weese, P. D. Harris, A. R. McClanahan, John Halsey, Charles Ruliffson, Ted Carter, Eugene Priskey, John Yeager, Ed Thomas.

Rev. Talley Jarrett Conducts Episcopal Services Sunday Morning

The Rev. Talley Jarrett, City Missioner of Las Vegas, will celebrate the Holy Eucharist and preach the sermon at St. Timothy's Episcopal Church this Sunday, July 19, at 9:30. He will be substituting for the Vicar, the Rev. Robert Cochran, who is away at the Episcopal Church's summer camp at Lake Tahoe.

Fr. Jarrett, who has been in Las Vegas just a year, is a mission priest who works for the Missionary District of Nevada.

His task is to establish new Episcopal Church work in Las Vegas, particularly in and around the Twin Lakes — West Charleston areas. Before coming to Las Vegas, Fr. Jarrett served in the diocese of Colorado and was a chaplain in the United States Air Force.

Two of St. Timothy's lay readers will conduct the office of Morning Prayer this Sunday at 8 a.m. and church school classes will be held at usual at 9 a.m.

KAYREN ORR, JERRY CAMPBELL RECITE WEDDING VOWS

Miss Kayren Ruth Orr and Jerry R. Campbell were married on May 31 at the First Baptist Church, with Rev. David C. Hudson, officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Marion Orr, 503 North 11th St., Las Vegas; the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Guthrie of 107 Manganese St.

The double ring ceremony was attended by 52 guests. Organist was Mrs. Paul Crum, soloists was Jay Henderson Jr. Selections were "I Love You Truly," "Because" and the "Wedding March."

Matron of honor was Mrs. H. L. Crow, sister of the bride. The best man was Perry Daniel Dichter, husband of Mrs. Jay Henderson Sr. was usher.

The bride was given in marriage by Robert L. Guthrie.

The bride's dress was powder blue nylon over lace netting, with three quarter length sleeves, a tight fitting waist, and full skirt. The neckline was scooped at the back with bow streamers. Her accessories were white satin brocade. Her bouquet was pink roses centered with an orchid.

The matron of honor wore a blue silk ballerina dress, her accessories were white, her bouquet was pink carnations.

The bride's mother wore a blue polished cotton dress with silver grey accessories, and had a corsage of pink carnations.

The groom's mother wore a navy blue silk shantung dress with pink accessories, and wore a pink carnation corsage.

A reception was given at the was decorated with white and first Baptist Church. The church pink carnations and white candles. Presiding at the serving table were Charlene McBride, Leona Sloan, Alice Henderson and Mrs. David Hudson. In charge of the guest book was Brenda McBride; at the gift table was Shirley Watson. The table was decorated with white candles in silver holders, pink and white carnations, pink bows were tied with lilies of the valley. A three tier cake centered the table.

Following a honeymoon trip to Arizona, New Mexico, Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, Colorado, Wyoming, Idaho, Oregon and California, the couple are making their home at Chanda Arms, at 2304 Santa Ynez, Las Vegas.

The new Mrs. Campbell attended Basic High in her senior year, having transferred from North Salem, Oregon. She is a graduate of the 1959 class. She was active in Girls Glee Club and GYM Jamboree. She is now employed by Wayne's Body Shop as a secretary.

The groom attended Basic High three years, graduating from Phillips Junior College in Berger, Texas with the class of 1956. He is employed by Southern Nevada Telephone Company as a test boardman.

During World War II, no less than 36 percent of all women in the United States were employed.

CHAMBER PLANS EXPENSIVE YEAR

The Henderson Chamber of Commerce revealed plans to double its activities next year at the Thursday lunch meeting at the Royal.

If members agree when the project comes up for vote next month, the Chamber will spend $13,000 next year to advertise the community. Chamber expenses last year were $6,700, according to Financial Progress committee chairman Hershel Trumbo.

The proposed plan will increase dues to $40 for businessmen employing one to three employees, $80 when four to six are on the payroll, $160 for a business with eight to 16 workers, $240 a year for those who employ 16 to 50 men and $600 annual dues for firms with over 50 employees.

Associate membership will cost $80.

Trumbo recommended the added revenue to increase cost of the brochure form $900 to $2,500. $1700 will be used for highway signs in contrast to $400 spent last year. The Chamber would spend $2000 on community projects next year, triple the amount laid aside for donations and double the size of the Christmas program.

President pro tem Lyl Burkholder appointed Keith Lope, Doc Coleman and Trumbo to apply for a larger share of tax money at the next county commission meeting. (Two and a half cents per $100 is taxed thruout the county to aid Chamber of Commerce.)

Bob Woodruff, Christmas committee chairman, told the members Bill Wagner of the Sportsmen has offered to lead a deer hunting party in November to raise money for the Christmas decorations.

Anyone interested in joining the party and donating his kill to the C of C barbecue is asked to call Woodruff at FR 2-7627.

Trumbo reported "a good chance" the State basketball tournament will be held in the Convention Hall outside Las Vegas.

On Tuesday to Edgar Blair, Ray Collins, Johnny Manix, Edwin Herbert, Lori Dawn Benson, Carol McCall, Mary Kay Morton, Michael Shipp, Darrell Stubbs, Gary Slack; on Wednesday to Opal Chesley, Anne Heywood, Danny Piant, Bessie Williams, Arnold Zamalloa, Jessie McCormack.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARIES

July 16: Gene and Porter Absett; Phyllis and Jim Ewing, on July 17 Helen and Carroll Short; Mabel and Skippy Barnson, July 18: Rose and Joe Marino, July 19: Lillian and Clyde Romine (1914); Daisy and Robert Carson, July 20: Helen and Bill Little (1920); Helen and Lee Searls, July 21: Virginia and George Campbell (1941); Lillian and Bill Paris (1934), July 22: Edna and Will French; Madeline and Elton Garrett. Congratulations to them all!

BUSY BEES

Among the volunteer workers who have been helping to fix up the new Girl Scout Camp at Fox Tail Canyon, are the Seabees of Division 11-14, under Commander Robert D. Austin. He lists them as Stephen R. Bowles (Ray), William D. McCullough (Bill), Harry C. Hall, Richard L. Frances (Curley), Clarence M. Bush, James E. Hemphill, Richard A. Koeb, Russell R. Manning, Thomas N. Raynor, James V. Starke, Thomas C. Hogan, Douglas L. Petty, William J. Powell, David J. Kelly, Walter A. Jones, Wm. T. Kleist, Robert D. Gray, Jerry L. Dean and Richard E. Leonard.

BATHING BABY

Ma Porter, in Lakeview, has a baby bathinette she would like to dispose of. She says it is white with blue trimming, and has all the necessary accessories. Her phone number is 645M.

NICKS NEWS

Ruby Nicks, of 76 Lakeview, phoned with items about three members of the family. Daughter Ivetta, with Husband Don Moore and their two children, Donna and Marvin, left Thursday to live in Mason City, Iowa. Don will work as an accounting clerk. Until they find their own place, the young family will live on his father's farm. They will also visit his sister, nearby. Pfc Tom Nicks of the Marines was home recently, before returning to Hawaii. Son Willie, A-1c petty officer in the U. S. N., arrived home last Friday on 30 days leave. On August 1 he will go to San Diego, California, and from there back to Japan for 2 years.

KINE COMPANY

The Joe Kines of 639 Avenue C had as visitors four days last week. Midren's brother James B. Newberry, his wife and four children — and Mrs. Newberry's brother, Paul David West. They were traveling from Joplin, Mo. to southern California.

FORMER RESIDENTS

Two sets of former residents visited town, this past week. Mel and Irene Bloom and children stopped to see friends, on their way to California from Cleveland, Ohio. Mel has an interesting job now — designing prisons! Also here were the Orson Nazers, of Blanding, Utah. Orson finally retired!

CRAZY AIRWAVES

The other day, I watched an entertaining kitchen quiz show on Channel 4 KOMO-TV, Seattle. Washington! Those days when "slats" block Channel 2, swirl your dial on the next three numbers.

Be sure to mark the date on your calendar — Saturday, July 25. Free leis and punch will be provided, and the meal itself prepared from authentic recipes. Hazel Cooper is in charge.

CARSON TRIP

Daisy and Bob Carson and 4 children, of 659 Avenue H, are back home after a very enjoyable week in California. They were house guests of the Jim Ewing family (former neighbors here) in Los Angeles, and also visited the Joe Simpson family in El Monte (former neighbors, too.) Two highlights of the vacation were a day at Marineland, where Bubbles the Whale attracted all ages; and a trip to the San Diego Zoo. Daisy says both she and the children were enchanted with the new section featuring baby animals of all types — from newborn chicks to bouncing bears. Youngsters are allowed to feed and pet some of the infants, under supervision.

SON JOHN

Our son John arrived home Tuesday night, to stay a week before getting ready to go to the east coast for a month. He will teach school at Chino Valley, Arizona, again this next term. When he visited his sister Jeanie, in Las Vegas, they spent the whole evening reviewing Japanese phrases for her to use in her telephone switchboard communications with the east of the new show at the New Frontier.

NEW NAMES, PLEASE

Let's have some new names in this column. You folks who are still unknown to me, please ph. 86 with your items about trips, company, babies, etc. etc. Starting next week, I'm going to open the telephone book and choose names of strangers — so don't be surprised if you are one of them! Perhaps you have lived here for years, and never did anything you consider news-etch to get in the paper? Tech, etc.

Let's Go Shopping

WITH VIRGINIA MORRISON

Is there someone special in your family about to have a birthday? Before you decide too firmly in your mind what you will give, stop in and see Anne Gleason. She has some very beautiful wallets in light and deep colors. One set in particular is manufactured by Buxton and contains a French purse, cigarette lighter and cigarette case. It is trimmed in simulated jewels and would be just the thing for evening wear.

Boulder General Sales and Repair is under new ownership. Don McHenry has sold the business to W. H. Smith who has been very active in organizing the Choppers Club. Stop in and wish him luck.

If you are anticipating another deduction soon, Mother Goose Baby Shop has all the necessary items to make the baby more comfortable. This shop carries the famous Cosco line — high chair, swing, stroller and jumper. Since these items are made of good sturdy metal, they will last thru the childhood of more than one baby.

Flowers convey all the thoughts that we sometimes find it difficult to say. Special occasions seem to take on a deeper meaning when we remember to observe them with a living memento. Call Hayward Flower Shop and brighten the life of a friend who perhaps is confined in the hospital or is unable to take part in an active life.

Bob Bradley at Richfield Service Motors has the answer to all ailments which befall cars. He is highly trained in the automotive business and will be more than happy to spend all the time necessary to put your car in tip top running order. While you are waiting you might like to look over his line of Mercury motors and Ski Boats.

The Visitors Bureau has a fine selection of colored slides of all the scenic places in the area. Prices are reasonable and friends or relatives who are not fortunate enough to be living in such a colorful part of the country would be interested in having permanent pictures of all these wonders.

Now is an excellent time to tackle that painting job in the kitchen and bath that you have

Barbara Bates To Become Bride Of Robert Berg

Grace Community Church has been chosen for the wedding of Miss Barbara Bates and Robert Berg Saturday at 8 p.m. The Rev. Earl S. Fox will perform the ceremony.

Miss Bates is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Bates and her fiancé is the son of Mrs. Nora Gorman.

Barbara graduated from the local high school in 1958 and attended Chapman College in Orange, California last year. She plans to enroll at Nevada Southern this fall and major in Home Economics Education.

Berg is a graduate of the local class of 1948 and is employed by the Department of Water & Power. They plan to spend their honeymoon in San Francisco, California.

Ralph Berg, La Vern, California, brother of the bridegroom, will act as best man and the bride's attendants will be Mrs. Olinda Long, matron of honor; Mrs. Georgia McCullom and Miss Darline Middleton, bridesmaids. Dale Chesley, Henderson and Larry McCullom will seat the guests at the church.

A reception will follow the wedding in the recreation hall of the church.

Mrs. Jane Downing, Las Vegas, gave a miscellaneous shower for Miss Bates recently at her home. Mrs. Frances Clair and Kitty Hatch were co-hostesses.

Another pre-nuptial party was given at the home of Mrs. Albert Franklin. The decor of the party was in white and yellow — the colors which Miss Bates has chosen for her wedding.

been putting of for so long. Fine Dutch Boy paints are available at the Uptown Hardware Store, and Bill or Bud will be glad to advise you on supplies and amounts needed for your do-it-yourself project.

That's all seeya next week.

No Walk-Out For Henderson Steel Workers

Henderson's 365 steelworkers will not go on strike if the United Steelworkers' representatives do not reach an agreement with the steel industry, Van Englestead, United Steelworker spokesman for Southern Nevada said.

The local contracts are written in such a way that union members in the Henderson plant will not walk out until a month after the nation-wide strike.

PISTOL TOURNAMENT

The regular monthly National Rifle Association Approved Pistol Tournament of the Henderson Pistol Club was held on the last Sunday in June, at the Police Pistol Range on Vegas Wash Rd.

Because of a strong, gusty, cross wind which affected the shooters, lower than normal scores prevailed. Results:

Auto License Purchase Lag

Purchasing of automobile licenses for the past two weeks at the County Assessor's Henderson office has not been very active, according to clerk Delores Hatfield.

Altho the July total sales is not known, last month 4,590 licenses were bought by Hendersonians.

A $3 fine will be levied beginning August 1.

RAY MARTINEZ

The dust has cleared and Sweden has consumed all available ardent spirits in honor of Ingemar Johansson's victory over Floyd Patterson. And Sweden has every right to erupt in pandemonium. Johansson, who was once publicly called "coward" by his countrymen, returned to the bright Scandinavian country with the Heavyweight Boxing Championship of the World.

Johansson is the champion but not for very long. This writer predicts a 10 round knockout by the dethroned Patterson in September. The champ will be cautious in waiting for Ingo's stunning short fight. Therefore, the fight will last 10 rounds.

STENGEL'S STAFF

Many times we hear of Casey Stengel's brilliance as a baseball strategist. Far be it from me to say that he isn't. I do believe a considerable amount of praise should be given the Yankee coaching staff as each member is qualified and capable of managing a major league club.

Bill Dickey, one of baseball's immortal catchers, is a member of the group. Under Dickey's tutelage, Yogi Berra, who once had two left feet, was the American League's Most Valuable Player several times. Dickey's latest pupil, Elston Howard is considered among the best catchers in the league.

The Yankee's most successful years have been with catching personnel such as Bill Dickey and his two prize pupils, Berra and Howard.

A team can't win with mediocre catching and good pitching. However, a ball club can win with excellent catching and mediocre pitching providing the hitting is good.

On television, people often see Casey motioning towards the bullpen for a lefty or a righthander. If the situation is crucial enough, the decision to change pitchers may turn the tide. As usual, the Yankees come thru, and win the ball game. Stengel is then highly commended for such a smart move.

The television camera fails to show Jim Turner, the Yankee pitching coach suggesting to Stengel that Larson has had enough, and Shantz could relieve. Old Casey takes heed to the advice given because Turner happens to be the best in his business, making pitchers out of throwers. Vic Ras-chi, Allie Reynolds, Joe Page, Whitey Ford, and Bob Turley are proof enough of Turner's proficiency as a pitching coach. We can't forget Frankie Cossetti, infield coach of the Yankees. He is responsible for the almost perfect performance of the Yankee keystone combination. The Yankees lead in double play performance year after year.

Being a thrower myself, I know how important double plays can be. There is nothing more beautiful to watch than a double play. Especially when there is one down, bases loaded and the ball is beginning to look like a watermelon to the stickman.

Speaking of the Yankees, what has happened to them this year? The pin strippers are just off to a slow start, and come Sep. Casey and his boys will be at the top of the heap. The Yankees will win the American League Pennant and the World Series.

Just how mad can an individual get? This question takes me back about 7 years ago in Butte, Montana.

In 1952, I had the opportunity of playing for the Las Vegas All Stars. We were fortunate enough to tour the Northwest for a month.

Butte, Montana happened to be one of our many stops. I don't think I'll ever forget this town. After losing to the Butte team, I was so mad I could not even recognize a neighbor whom I had known for many years, Chuck Trueworthy of Henderson.

Lee Dane, a lefty, was pitching a brilliant game. Lee had given up but 2 hits, and had struck out ten men. Dane walked 2 men in the last of the ninth inning. Action in the bullpens had already begun. Jerry Martin, at this writer were heating up. I was sure I wouldn't be called as Lee Dane was a lefty and certainly the coach wouldn't follow with a lefty. I guessed wrong!

The coach gave the bullpen crew a signal for a lefty to take the long walk.

The bullpen was situated in deep right field. I began my walk to the mound, and the fans — 11 hundred of them — started with their little choice words. I distinctly heard, "take your time you hot dog, you'll be taking your shower soon enough." I felt like I was walking into

Roller Rink To Profit From BPW Ice Cream Social

The roller rink to be built at the youth center will reap the profits when the Business and Professional Women hold their tenth annual Ice Cream Social on Friday, July 31.

The social is held in the yard of Mrs. Ruth Ball's home which will be lighted by colored Japanese lanterns. Wilma Keenan is ticket chairman for the social.

Other chairmen are Eleanor Walker, cake, Ida Belle Riggins, ice cream. The ice cream and cakes served will be homemade.

Four Generations Visit W. Halls

Three couples are visiting the Walter Hall family at 11A Allen Project. The visit is a form of family re-union since the families have been separated for 5 years. The visitors like the city and climate so well that they are considering making a permanent home here.

Guests are Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Begley, Mrs. Hall's mother and stepfather; Mr. and Mrs. David Kazon, and baby, David Jr.; Mrs. Hall's brother and sister-in-law, also the Kazoons' daughter and son-in-law. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence King and baby Leonna Kay, which makes four generations of Mrs. Hall's family being reunited.

The visitors came here a week ago from Lexington, Kentucky. The Hall family has six children, Lauvatis, Johnny, Walter, Linda, Sandra and Wayne.

Dinner Given For S. M. Rand

S. M. (Toby) Rand who recently retired from the city plumbing board was honored at a dinner at the Lucky Star Club. Attending the dinner were Pat Doherty, Superintendent of Building, William McGuire, Charles Rech, George Coroneos, M. D. Danneberger and a guest Alex Coroneos.

Rand had been plumbing inspector since May 11, 1954. He retired on June 30. The friends presented Rand with several gifts at the dinner.

DON SMITH ENDS TRAINING

Army Pvt. Donald R. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard T. Smith, 613 Federal St., completed his advanced individual training recently at Fort Ord, California.

hell and little did I know the hell I was going to get. I had always boasted about not having butterflies before games. After this game, "butterfly" became my second name.

The score was tied 2 to 2, the bases loaded, and I down. I struck out the first batsman to face me. By this time I finally realized I was in a ball game, and I had better get to work.

The second man to face me squared away to bunt. I had thrown a low curve. Somehow the stickman managed to get under the ball. At this point I was probably as bewildered as Patterson was in his last fight. No person in his right mind would ever think of bunting with two outs. At any rate, this lad did!

Only by instinct did I rush towards the plate. The ball was in the air and headed directly towards me. The ball seemed to be propelled by a gust of wind as it fluttered over my head. I back peddled and tripped over the mound. I landed flat on my back. The ball hit my glove and trickled out. All I could see were the base runners crossing the plate. The game was over and I was the goat.

The fans poured out of the stands to congratulate us on our fine performance. Mr. Trueworthy, then vacationing in Butte came over to the dugout to offer me some words of encouragement. I was so mad I couldn't recognize my neighbor. All I could see then was a conglomeration of faces looking at me in pity.

The next morning I picked up the paper, and there was some big goofball, flat on his back. This clipping I wanted to keep as a constant reminder, but somehow I lost it between stops.

Months later, I was in Friendly Food Market purchasing a loaf of bread. I looked behind me, and there was Mr. Trueworthy. He smiled. I knew I had seen this person somewhere before. I was as apologetic as any one could possibly be. We did have a long talk, and both of us came to one conclusion. Little Ray was pretty hot under the collar that day.

COM. CHURCH BIBLE SCHOOL REGISTRATION EXTENDED; CLASSES STARTS ON MON.

Registration for the Community Church Vacation Bible school will be continued thru Sunday July 19. Enrollment may be made thru Mrs. John Wilson or the area registrars in each section of town. Mrs. Wilson will also be at the church Sunday between 9:30 and 11.

The school staff has planned the program according to the interests of each age group. Teachers will have the help of special material to make Bible lessons vital and rewarding. Craft work projects have been chosen to go along with the spiritual theme, and at the same time to fit the needs of children of different grades.

Primary and kindergarten children will make plaques of plaster and other materials. Middle-grade children will use copper for their project. Junior high young people will have a chance to try their hands at an old art which has returned to great popularity, that of making mosaics from bright colored chips of ceramics and other material.

The vacation school offers 2 weeks of full and interesting morning activity to the young people of the community, at a time when many children are looking for a fresh outlet for their energy.

The bible school will begin at 9 o'clock on July 20, and will dismiss at 11:30 each morning.

Expenses Needed For Jr. Police Rose Bowl Trip

The Junior Police Drill team hopes to march in the Rose Bowl Parade if citizens will come to the rescue and contribute funds to make the trip.

The drill team received a first place trophy in the Damboree parade, received second place in both the Henderson Industrial Days Parade and the Las Vegas Helderorado Children's Parade.

The sixty-four boys saved nickels and dimes to purchase the unit flag, their brown and black uniforms, helmets and the rifles which are replicas of the Army 1903 Springfield rifle.

Market Town Foundation also helped them to purchase the equipment.

Officer George Bibby will assist Officer Larry Tabony in teaching the boys drills for the hoped-for parade experience.

Donations may be sent to the Henderson Junior Police, Police

Emera Club Meets Friday

The Emera Club will hold their regular monthly meeting Friday at the home of Mrs. John Alverson, 413 Zirconium Way at 8 p.m.

ATTEND LEGION CONVENTION

Residents who attended the Annual District II Convention of the American Legion and Auxiliary at Ely were Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Lindesmith, Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Crisler, and J. Riley Bembrey.

Mr. Lindesmith, who is president of District II auxiliary, conducted the session which brings to a close the meetings under the present officers.

Lindesmith attended the Masonic Grand Lodge which was held at Reno, prior to joining Mrs. Lindesmith in Ely.

The American Legion District Convention was conducted by Fritz Crisler, the commander of District II.

Mrs. Crisler is the president of Basic Post 40 of the American Legion Auxiliary. Riley Bembrey is the Post 40 commander.

Following the convention, Mr. and Mrs. Lindesmith went to Reno where Mrs. Lindesmith attended the Grand Assembly for the Order of Rainbow Girls.

Mrs. Lindesmith was awarded the Grand Cross of Colors by the Supreme Assembly for her service to the Rainbow organization to which she has devoted eight years.

She has worked with Rainbow since its inception three years ago, and had worked for Rainbow five years in Grand Junction, Colo.

While in Reno, the Lindesmiths visited a son and his wife and viewed a new grandson, Carl Russel, born to the O. R. Lindesmith's Jr. on May 16.

THURSDAY, JULY 16, 1959 HENDERSON HOME NEWS

Toastmistress Met Thursday

Toastmistress met Thursday night at the Golf Course Club House. Acting as president was Ellen Shirley.

Verla Purdy, the Topicmistress, chose sports for the one minute unprepared speeches.

Laura Tydings, for the second time, received baseball as her subject. She does not follow the sport, so had a challenging subject. Topic evaluator was Lura Tydings, timer was Marion Mooz.

Virginia Joyce was Toastmistress. Lura Winal was the timer and Bernice Sanger was the evaluator for the five minute speech by new member Jerri Rosenberg.

A letter was read from recreation director Dalby Shirley, inviting the group to rent the municipal facilities for summer recreation.

Plans were made for the forthcoming installation of officers. A special dinner meeting will be held at that time with guests invited to attend.

The group plans to continue meeting at the golf course during the summer months.

Matilda Hillis had a guest, her sister visiting from out of state. Las Vegas guests were Dee Coffman and Clare Wentzell.

Several members were on vacation. Eleven members were present.

EXTENSION FOR SUNSET DRIVE WILL BE ASKED

City Planning Commission members will ask Henderson City Council to draft a resolution requesting Clark County to extend Sunset Drive to the limits of the city, it was decided at a recent meeting.

The proposed road would be a direct route to McCarran Field and the Strip.

The planning board approved a plan to annex 40 acres in Section 28 to the city. The acreage which was recently sold to Dave Jamison and associates for a warehouse, sold for $60 an acre. In the sales agreement, it was specified that the land would be annexed to the city.

A public hearing to change an ordinance which requires that zoning changes be made thru ordinance, will be held.

In the past, zoning changes have been accomplished by public hearings of the Planning Commission and passage by council. Technically, according to City Administrator Clay Lynch, the zoning should be accomplished by ordinance. Bob Dietrich is the City Planning Commission chairman.

Formal Rites Install Kiwanis

The International Room of the Stardust Hotel was the scene for the formal installation of officers for Henderson's new Kiwanis Club last Saturday, at which R. E. Kesterson was formally inaugurated Kiwanis president.

Visiting dignitaries from Apple Valley, Antelope Valley, San Diego and Oakland, Calif., included Dan Turner, governor of district 28, and Jack Pursel, Las Vegas Kiwanis president.

Kesterson's oath was administered by Pursel after Turner presented the Henderson group with its charter.

Installed with Kesterson were Wesley Miller, vice president; and Gerald Pico, secretary-treasurer. The board of directors includes Jim Gibson, Keith Lope, man, Jack Hallahan, Frank Pryor, Robert Cordill, Ralph Kramer and Don Dawson.

The group, which sponsors the Key Club youth activities, is scheduled to meet, Monday, July 20 at the Royal.

Chairman Of Eldorado Group

The Eldorado Valley Advisory Group at its recent meeting re-elected all incumbent officers: L. R. Douglass, chairman; A. T. Newell, Secretary. Three new members recently appointed to the Group by Governor Sawyer were inducted; these being Harley Harmon, Clark County Commissioner; Tom Campbell, Realtor; Leonard Atkinson, Businessman.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Atkinson were appointed to the Feasibility Committee by Chairman Douglass. The Feasibility Study Committee now includes the two above mentioned, Norman White as Chairman and M. J. Christensen.

Colorado River Commissioners H. R. Rowland and E. A. Moritz attended the meeting in the interest of the Commission, as did John Bonner, Special Assistant to the Attorney General, and George Hardman of the Department of Conservation and Natural Resources.

LEWIS GUNN FAMILY MOVES TO WASHINGTON

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Gunn of 297 West Basic Road will be leaving soon to make their home in Vashon Island, Washington. The Gunns have lived in Henderson the past 9 years.

Gunn was an employee of the postal department in Washington when he asked for a transfer to Nevada because of arthritis. The family moved to 91-B Victory Village in 1950. Gunn worked at the Las Vegas post office.

The family was active in church work. They helped to form a Sunday School in the Victory Village Auditorium. Gunn was the school superintendent, while Mrs. Gunn was a teacher. At that time, the Baptist church met in school rooms at the Townsite School. The Gunns seldom missed a service. With other members they contributed to the construction of the present Baptist building located on Atlantic Street.

Gunn changed jobs to work on the construction of the Wherry houses at Nellis. Still later, he became an insurance agent, and has sold insurance since then.

The Gunns purchased their present home on West Basic Road when the first stucco houses were built. The Gunns enjoy growing trees, flowers, grapes, and, at times grown vegetable.

The Gunns began attending the Community Church in 1953. Mrs. Gunn started teaching a Sunday School class. Lew started an adult Sunday School class. He has taught the class for a number of years. He also held various church offices; last year was elected as the church moderator.

The Gunn family includes four children—Cathy, 16, Johnny, 13, Mary, 11, and the baby born on March 14 at Rose de Lima is named Betsy Ann.

Intending to move to Alaska, the Gunns placed their home on the market. The home was sold, but the Gunns decided not to move quite so far away since the trip with the baby might prove difficult. Possibly later they will go to Alaska.

Cathy is very reluctant to leave Basic High. She has been active in school and church functions. Cathy belonged to the band and was a majorette, in Deseritares, president of the Spanish club this year, made two trips to Mexico, and held school offices. Cathy began piano lessons when she was seven, and later was the organist at the Baptist church.

Mr. and Mrs. Gunn helped with P-TA, scout work, and chaperoned almost weekly at the Junior Treader dances held at the Youth Center several years ago, when Cathy was in the seventh and eighth grades.

CHURCH OF NAZARENE HOLDS BIBLE SCHOOL

Children from four to seven have registered for the two-week session of the Church of the Nazarene vacation Bible school.

Classes begin each evening at 6 o'clock and continues until 8:30. During the sessions, Rev.

Wilfred Stukas teaches crafts that will be co-ordinated with the study program. Hubert Wingerd will supervise recreation and Mrs. Hubert Wingerd is in charge of music for all of the classes.

Theme for the Bible school is "Adventure in Work and Worship at Church."

Crafts and other skills will be demonstrated at the end of the program. A special program will be presented with the regular Sunday School service at 9:45 a.m., Sunday July 19.

READING PROGRAM IS STILL OPEN

Youngsters who have not yet signed for the summer reading program may do so, as the registration is still open. Three hundred children have enrolled in the three reading centers of Pittman, Victory Village and the Henderson Library.

The program will be completed on July 31, when all the children enrolled in the area-wide program will gather at the library for a party.

Many teachers believe the reading program is very important since without it the children get out of practice reading, and by fall have forgotten sounds and letters. Practice is especially important to the younger children just learning to read.

2nd SWIM REGISTRATION SAT. MORNING

A second registration for the third and fourth sessions of swimming lessons will be held on Saturday, July 18, 1959, beginning at 9 a.m. until 12 noon. All classes are open for registration with the exception of the beginner class for seven and 8 year olds. Everyone is urged to register for the last two sessions of the summer. The third session will begin on July 20 and the 4th session on August 3.

POOL ATTENDANCE SHOWS INCREASE

An increase in swimming at the BMI municipal swimming pool has been reported by Dalby Shirley, recreation director.

An average of 355 swimmers have attended the pool each day during the month totalling 11,012 admittants.

There are 535 registrations for the Red Cross swimming classes which are given during the morning hours. The pool is open to the public in the afternoons.

Last year's total attendance was 25,000. If business continues, Shirley said, the pool could be almost self-sustaining.

CHAD COMBS TO PREACH AT COMMUNITY C. SUNDAY

Chad Combs, will preach in the Henderson Community Church Sunday, July 19. His sermon will be titled "Drifting and Dreaming." Combs will be ordained as a Presbyterian minister in services in Reno this month.

Combs, his wife and son are having a short visit with parents and friends before returning to Maryland where he will begin his ministry. Combs spent his early life in Boulder City and Henderson. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Combs, now living at 4330 Hayes Place, in Las Vegas.

As a student in Basic High School, Combs was president of the senior class, and active in dramatics and public speaking. He won the state American Legion oratorical contest and the Lion's Club speaking contest for this area. On graduation, he was honored by being given the Smith-Scholarship to the University of Nevada.

His attendance at the University was broken by military service. He enlisted in the army during the Korean War. Wounded by a sniper in Korea, he was hospitalized in Japan for three months. He was awarded the Bronze Star medal, the Purple Heart, Military Order of Wrang for distinguished military service, and Korean Presidential Unit Citation.

After completing three years in the service, Mr. Combs returned to the University, where he continued his activities in public speaking and in religious leadership. While on the Reno campus he was representative to the student Senate, Chairman of the Inter-Faith Council, and

LAKE MEAD ANGLERS and ANCHORS

By MAC EDDY

When the water is smooth and calm and the sky cloudy, fishermen will find that fishing the surface with top-water lures makes best catches.

Poppers are among the favorite lures for surface strikes. The popper should be moved in a twitching motion by moving the rod tip.

Late in the evening or early in the morning are ideal times to use surface lures.

During these hot summer days fish on the bottom with live bait or deep-running artificial lures.

EMERGENCY RATIONS
When going on a pleasure cruise or a fishing trip, take along some emergency rations.

Lake Mead is big and if you should cruise some distance away from the harbors and have motor trouble or encounter rough water forcing you to seek safety in a cove or on the beach, those extra rations will look mighty good.

Your favorite market will be able to supply you with a wide choice of canned meats and other canned foods that are ready to eat.

These foods can be transformed into a very tasty meal by cutting away the top of the can, then place can over a fire and heat the food.

EASY INSTANT
Tea or instant coffee may be made by filling a jar with water and adding tea bags and letting it brew in the sun. The sun will soon bring the water to a fairly hot temperature and your drink is made.

Beware of where you set the jar. It could cause a fire unless you rest it on several thickness of foil paper. There is also danger in the jar exploding unless the lid. This is a good way to make iced tea as it will never become cloudy.

SAFETY CHECK LIST
Keep Low — and step in center when boarding your craft.

Use the right motor — too much power can damage your boat and may swamp it.

Do not overload — seats do not indicate capacity. Two or 3 adults may be a full load under many conditions.

Avoid sharp turns — fast, sharp turns are hard on equipment and dangerous.

Provide life preservers for all passengers. Wear one or have it ready for immediate use.

Tell people when and where you are going — your chances of rescue are improved 100 percent.

If you capsize, hang on to the boat.

Think — do not panic. Keep clear of swimmers.

In rough water, keep low in the boat and quarter into the waves at low speed.

No smoking while taking on fuel.

All ski boats must have an observer aboard in addition to the boat operator.

Keep the aspirin supply safely away from children. Aspirin accounted for one-fourth of 16,000 accidental poisonings recently reported to poison control centers, and 90 percent of the aspirin poison cases were children.

SEN. CANNON RAPS TAXPAYERS ASSN. ON "FALSE PROPAGANDA"

WASHINGTON — U. S. Sen. Howard W. Cannon said today that the Nevada Taxpayers Association was "using false figures in a deliberate propaganda campaign to sabotage federal aid to education legislation" which would greatly benefit the State.

Cannon said that, from information furnished him by the U. S. Treasury Department, Nevada would receive a pro-rated share of $1.17 for every $1.00 contributed to the Murry - Metcalf Education Bill, of which he is a co-sponsor.

The Nevada Senator charged that the NTA "drew their figures from a hat" in a recent published statement claiming that the program would cost Nevada taxpayers $500,000 more than they paid into the program.

Reality and Life

by Rev. Clayton H. Gill, Ph.D.
Community Church

It may be that television is making people hungry for conversation. At any rate, I find remarkable conversations springing up here, there and everywhere.

My theory is that the long hours of watching, listening, absorbing, may be creating a widespread need to say a few words, just to be heard for a change. There may also be an effect on subject matter. Is the glittering television screen a bit like the gold watch old fashioned stage synopsists swung slowly before the eyes of their subjects? If so, the incantations that go with it may finally lose their grip upon us.

It is my hypothesis that after people sleep they awake. While this theory may not seem very profound, it is. It suggests that as Jesus might have phrased it, life is more than hypnosis and God numbers even the twitches of our eye muscles.

Whatever the cause, I am constantly running into people who have something to say. Not only that, but they often make remarks that are startling and full of meaning. For example, several young people were telling me about a church camp they recently attended. They were enthusiastic. This was the best camp they had ever seen, they said.

"What did you like most?" I asked.

"The vesper services," they replied. "And we had classes on nature, on missions, and on growing up emotionally and spiritually." Mere words can not convey the teen-age eagerness which infused these memories. One said, "Camp made me realize how much I want to grow up and be a real person."

A college student started another conversation with this question: "If Christ was the Son of God, didn't that give him spiritual powers so far beyond ours that it is useless to try to follow him?"

A newspaperman made the following observation: "When you say that a human being is a child of God, you are saying something in the language of religion that can be said in no other way." The same person also made the comment that church services can take the form of an entertainment, with people enjoying the musical, ritual and oratory.

A psychologist told me he was looking for a church "where my children can learn about the spiritual and ethical heritage of Christianity. In the church I attend," he said, "the children play games most of the time and the teachers keep talking about birds and gardens."

Examples could be multiplied. There is a repair shop where coffee and good conversation are always brewing in Henderson. A labor mediator I know is studying the conversations of the New Testament as models of considerate truthfulness. A merchant started up a fascinating conversation on selling, education and evangelism. This followed a sermon on the theme: "God—Salesman or Host?"

Along with these stimulating conversations, of course, there are those that do not take place. A young man from Las Vegas came to church one Sunday. He said he wanted to talk. He was nervous and his hands were shaking.

He was a school teacher, he said. He had been offered a public relations job by an acquaintance who worked for a casino. He wanted to discuss it. We made an appointment. He never came.

Some conversations occur only in the secrecy of the confessional. A hotel employee once came to me as his minister. He was deeply troubled. The guest list of his hotel often included the names of nationally known criminals. The management required employees to keep these names secret. Was it a sin for him to work under such conditions? He felt it was, but to be able to speak of it, he needed the ground of absolute trust.

A person can often measure

HENDERSON HOME NEWS THURSDAY, JULY 16, 1959

his growth by the realms of freedom in his conversation. "Let's be honest," one man told me. "I'm a drunk — but before I was drunk I was something even worse — a stinker." This man is basically O. K. What a contrast between his freedom to speak and the inhibitions of many conversations. He will change, I am sure.

A minister often confronts the problem of inhibitions and distrust. Many people shy away from conversation with ministers. Sometimes they are afraid that the minister will pry and judge. Even more often, the minister is a symbol of a self-judgment they have made with in their own hearts. They can't quite accept the role of a minister as that of a human being.

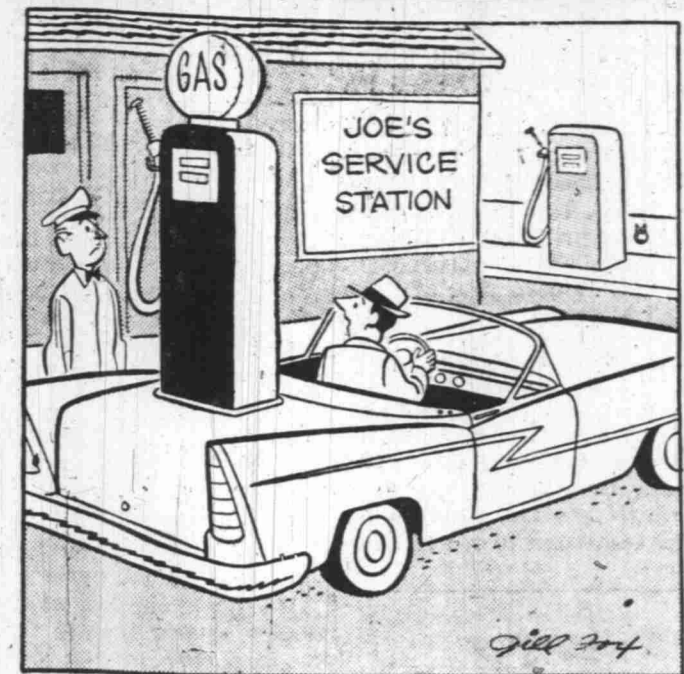

Inhibitions also grow out of our inability to accept ourselves that television, newspapers and as human beings. Why complain the mass communications industries so often take the form of stylized meaninglessness? There are deep reasons for arranging life in such ways that too much will not be said. Even party hostesses will put "conversation pieces" on display. Such objects can protect us from getting into either conversations or silences that have meaning.

This can be valuable, not only for sheer diversion, but for meaning itself. Talk about trivialities enables persons to feel one another out, to discover if there is the integrity and warmth to make meaningful conversation possible. I have often thought of this in connection with preaching. The continual one-way direction of sermonizing is a real risk. One bares his soul in public, knowing well how many different attitudes can enter into the hearing. The old saying is that some families always have roast sermon for Sunday dinner.

Yet as Christian love deepens in church life, and the reverence of clergy and laity alike, the words spoken by a pastor are more and more enveloped in real conversations and dialogues. Sometime these take place in the pulpit itself, but whether there or not, in life. One of the great directions of contemporary church life grows out of our urge to speak about the meaning of existence. You can't do that very well to a screen, or a piece of paper, or a loudspeaker.

BRADY'S GREET ZOEBISCH AFTER FOURTEEN YEARS

Mr. and Mrs. Al Zoebisch and their three children, of Seattle, spent a day last week visiting with the James Brady family of 110 Allen Project V. V. Mrs. Zoebisch and Mrs. Brady worked together at the Los Angeles Port of Embarkation, during World War II, and hadn't seen each other since 1945, but they have corresponded all this time by writing and sending pictures to each other. They had a good visit talking about old friends, and comparing their families.

The Brady's have seven children ranging from age ten years to eight months.

URGES NEVADANS TO TAKE POLIO VACCINE
Nevada's been too lackadaisical in using Salk vaccine against the paralytic type of polio and could easily fall prey to one of the epidemics that are still occurring around the nation, the state department of health warns.

"In the Salk vaccine we have AT HAND a weapon of tremendous value against paralytic polio," says Dr. Leroy E. Burney, surgeon general of the federal public health service, "and we should use it to the limit this year to check such outbreaks as have occurred in Detroit and Des Moines."

Know Your PTA

(Editors Note — This is one of a series of articles on PTA, being brought to you by this newspaper in cooperation with the PTA and its Regional Vice - President, Mrs. R. A. Swift, in an effort to encourage more active parent participation in PTA for the benefit of our youth.)

POLICIES OF THE PARENT TEACHERS ORGANIZATION
The PTA is a democratic organization. Local units are encouraged to be represented at council, district, state and national meetings and conventions and to assist in formulating objectives, determining policies and electing officers.

The basic policies as set forth in the national by laws affirm that the organization shall be educational, shall be noncommercial, nonsectarian and nonpartisan; shall seek neither to direct the administrative activities of the schools nor to control their policies; and shall not enter into membership with other organizations except such international or national organizations as may be approved by the National Board of Managers.

The basic aim of the National Congress has been to help parents, teachers and other interested persons to gain knowledge of the child — his growth, his development, and his needs. It has encouraged learning for doing; it has fostered study as a basis of action. It has held that sound projects to promote the welfare of children and youth in home, school, church, and the community can be developed only on the trustworthy basis of accurate knowledge of the child, his needs, and his environment.

Study must precede action; it is the initial step in any parent-teacher program. The large number of parent and family life education study groups indicates how deeply parent-teacher members feel the responsibility to educate themselves. But their responsibility does not end there.

PTA members have always felt it their duty to inform legislators and the general public of the needs of children and youth. They have sought to create an informed public opinion on issues and conditions affecting the education and welfare of children and young people. Parent-teacher workers, for example, took a leading role in promoting juvenile courts, school lunch programs, safe school transportation programs, and child labor laws.

The local association, the most important unit of the Congress, carries out its program thru the work of committees, a democratic practice that enables many persons to share responsibility. Members are privileged to decide what action shall be taken on committee reports and thus determine the course of action of the association.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Mr. Zenoff:
With the completion of the class on Law and Nursing given at Southern Regional Division I want to express my appreciation, and that of the registered nurses enrolled, for the contribution that you made to the course on June 22.
You will be interested to know that in the evaluation of Law and Nursing, which each student made with their final examination, that the outside speakers were mentioned as highlights of the course. You were so gracious in answering questions posed by the members of the class.
I hope that I may call on you at some future time when this class is again offered.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Helen Gilkey,
Dean

Talking Sports...

By BURT HOFFMAN

When we left you on Tuesday, Washington was celebrating its only series victory and Walter Johnson in the twilight of a brilliant career had notched a triumph in a relief capacity. The calendar grinds on inexorably and it's a year later another October, and another fall classic. The Senator repeated in the American League and the Pittsburgh Pirates dethroned the Giants in the National.

Johnson, despite his years, still the ace of the Nat's pitching staff won the opener and repeated in the fourth game and the Senators had the Pirates down 3 games to one. However, they never took the fourth one as the Bengals rallied to tie up the series and in the climactic finale the Pirates shelled Johnson in the seventh inning and won out 8-5.

So, we come to the year 1926. The Yankees, having failed to win the pennant the two previous years, represented the junior circuit and the St. Louis Cardinals under the leadership of Rogers Hornsby took the pennant in the older league. For the third year in succession, the series went down to the wire. The Yankees, heavy favorites, because of a lineup that included Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig, Tony Lazzari, and other sluggers also had a remarkable pitching staff. But there was one man who proved to be a thorn in their side.

It was old "Pete," Grover Cleveland Alexander, who downed them twice and then came in at the behest of his manager in the seventh inning with the bases loaded to face Lazzari with his team ahead 3-2. How he fanned Lazzari to retire the side is well known to fans of baseball. Alexander got through the eighth and retired the first two men in the ninth. Babe Ruth stood as the last hope of the Yankees and reached first. Gehrig was up at the plate, but never did get a chance to swing his bat. For some inexplicable reason, the Babe tried to steal second but Bob O'Farrell's throw nipped him and the series was over.

The next two years it was all New York as first the Yankees swept through the Pirates four straight and then repeated against the Cardinals in similar fashion. That brings us to 1929 and and Howard Ehmke story which, we have already related to you. The Philadelphia team had finally won a pennant after fifteen seasons, most of them spent in last place. Connie Mack had broken up his famous team of 1914 by selling his stars to other clubs.

With the Athletics leading the series two games to one, the Cubs under Joe McCarthy, who was to later be so successful with the Yankees, took an 8-0 lead in the bottom of the seventh in the fourth game at Philadelphia. What followed still remains a nightmare to Cub fans. The A's came up with ten big runs and sank the Cubs. In the final game, the Athletics overcame a two run deficit in the ninth inning by scoring three times to wrap up the series.
That series brings us up to the end of the roaring twenties — that started with the emergence of the Yankees as an American League standard bearer with six pennants in nine years and the commencement of a tradition that has lasted for forty years — and which is still true today. The Yankees are the team to beat.

PERSONALLY SPEAKING

By MAURA DWYER

CONNORS' VACATION

Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Connor, 143 W. Basic, are now home from a vacation trip to Ensenada, Mexico. Chuck got in some deep sea fishing and was happy with his haul of three yellowtail and a barracuda. The latter belied its ferocious reputation somewhat, and was comparatively easy to land, but those yellow-tails really put up a fight and provided some fine sport before they were safely aboard.

The Connor children had to forego the fishing expedition but currently are having an opportunity to use the lariat instead of rod and reel. Last weekend they went to Pioche to stay at the Netties Ranch, whose owners are longtime friends of their parents.

RHEES' IN L. A.

Last week Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Rhee, 684 Blackmore, travelled to Los Angeles to attend to business matters and are now home following a three-day absence.

SMOKE SIGNAL

"Smoke Mamma" said Rory—"Smoke? Where?" I asked, looking around for the smouldering cigarette, since these very limited conflagrations cause him unlimited concern. This time I was on the wrong track. "Smoke, smoke," he repeated impatiently—"out there." Out there it was—a little way down the alley in back of us. A small, but for its size, quite spectacular fire, was underway. Apparently the dry grass fringing the alley had become ignited and now was burning like tinder, possibly aided by some inflammable trash. A plume of smoke was rising and flames were beginning to lick the adjoining woden fence. Fortunately Mr. Evan Leavitt was at hand and he and son Jimmy promptly doused the fire before any real damage was done, and the only memento of the occurrence is a small blackened area on the fence.

MIKE ARKELL TRAVELS

Mike Arkell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Arkell, 312 Karen Way, has been vacationing in Washoe Valley and Reno. Mike traveled there with Herbert Nye, also of Karen Way. The trip was via airplane.

Donations Being Received For Skating Rink

Henderson teenagers will get their skating rink if donations continue. Donations have been received from the Junior Treaders in the amount of one hundred dollars. The Business and Professional Women have promised to turn over all profits from their tenth annual ice cream social for construction of the rink.

Dalby Shirley estimates the cost to be between $800 and $1,000. The skating rink would be built on the existing side patio between the youth center and the pool. Charges would include changing the fence area, and constructing a railing to protect the huge windows of the Youth Center.

Plans for the rink were submitted to the Recreation Board earlier this year, but completion of the project is entirely dependent on donations.

While the Youth Center provides many activities, several teenagers spear-headed a drive for a skating rink this year, stating that they believe this activity will prove very popular.

EAGLES AUXILIARY MET ON MONDAY

The regular monthly business meeting of the Eagles' Auxiliary was held Monday evening at the Aerie Home at 8 p.m.

Refreshments were served by Mesdames Mel Hastings, P. D. Harris and A. R. McClanahan. Members present were Mesdames Lawrence Weider, Jack Halsey, A. R. McClanahan, Lois Ruhnan, John Hietbrink, Charles Ruliffson, P. D. Harris, Harry Herman, John Yeager, Floyd Henman, Eugene Prisbury, Mel Hastings, Cleo Weese, Elmer Riggins, Ed Thomas.

Those who plan to go to the lake on July 27 for the July Social are asked to be at the hall by 7 p.m. and to contact Jean Presbrey about transportation. Those who wish to play cards at the hall will meet at 8 p.m. The swimmers will return by 10 to enjoy refreshments at the hall.

ATTEND BPO CONVENTION IN MINNESOTA

Mrs. Art Wagner president of the BPO Does No. 135 has returned from a National Convention held in Minneapolis, Minn.

Mrs. Elayne Mitzell, past president of the Does attended the Convention as Supreme Color Bearer, a post to which she was recently elected. Mrs. Matilda Morris, president of the Boulder Does, also attended.

Art Wagner, and children, Susan and Bobby, stayed with Mrs. Wagner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stell in Glenwood Springs, Colorado during the convention.

The Wagner's also visited former Henderson residents, Mr. and Mrs. John Laune in Los Angeles California for a short time.

SCRIBE MEETS JACKSON AT CARD-REDLEG GAME

By MIKE O'CALLAGHAN
Five years have passed since Larry Jackson looked at me and said, "O'Callaghan, I am on my way to the majors and nothing is going to stop me." Quite a statement from a young fellow that faced another long summer in the minors, but coming from Larry Jackson it was something I expected and took for granted. Jackson had been a "Big League" the first time I met him in Boise Junior College. Don't ask me what makes a "Big League" in any sport. It is a combination of factors that cannot be given in words. Character, confidence, physical stamina, intelligence, and appearance all play a part in judging such a person but the exact quantity and quality of each is unknown. I can say that the lack of any of these factors is a guarantee that the athlete will never be really "Big League."

Almost an hour passed before Larry and I walked out into the street and approximately thirty kids with their pencils were waiting for the winner. Without hesitation the pitcher started to sign autographs and signed every ball and piece of paper before he left the scene and came over to the station wagon. Maybe this is the deciding factor that points Jackson out as being "Big League."
It was a good feeling to finish a perfect afternoon by visiting with Larry and his family and talking over college days. It had been a long time since I had visited with either of them and we covered many names in our discussion of a few hours. The addition of two children, a boy and a girl, to their family made the setting complete in their St. Louis home.

I left Larry and his wife later that evening and went down to visit with the gang at the George Washington Hotel. It was here that I heard a Cincinnati pitcher say, "Jackson? He's the best in the league."

LDS Barbecue And Parade Set For 24th

An "Around The Block" parade will celebrate the settlement of Utah when youngsters of the LDS church begin the march on July 24.

A pit barbecue will be held in the evening of the 4, sponsored by the Third Ward, under the supervision of bishop Delmar Davis. The entire Stake membership is invited. The dinner will begin at 5:30 at the church grounds, followed by dancing in the recreation hall.

The MIA road shows of the stakes will be sponsored the same week.

EAGLES AUX. PLAN SWIM, CARD PARTY

A swimming and card party is being planned by the Eagles Auxiliary for July 27. The swimming party will be in the early evening at Vegas Wash Beach, followed by the card party at 10 p.m. at the Eagles hall on West Pacific and Basic Road. Refreshments will be served.

Larry has proven that he is strictly "Big League" and earned a position on the National League All-Stars during the 1957-58 seasons, pitching in both games. This afternoon he was facing the Cincinnati club after defeating the Milwaukee Braves five days before when he held them to seven hits.

Handsome Gino Cimoli, the number two man on the Card batting order, hammered out a home run in the first inning and Stan Musial did likewise in the fourth. From there the Cards went on to a shut-out victory. Larry struck out Pinson, Bell, Kasko, Pena and Robinson twice during the game as he earned his fifth victory for the season. Almost 17,000 St. Louis fans went home pleased with what they had seen.

Several hundred fans with pencils and papers waited outside the players room asking for autographs as they came from the showers. Some players bulled their way thru the crowd without paying attention and others did their best to sign as many papers and balls as they could.

It was a hot afternoon and many of the fans left within a matter of minutes, but others held on to see their heroes. Ernie Broglio, coming to the door to let me in to see Larry, was immediately swamped with pencils. He signed at least twenty autographs before he closed the door.
