BASIC VS. RANCHO!

A WELCOME ADDITION to the city's entertainment life is promised here as this sign went up on the theater. Negotiations are now going on for a new owner to supply the city with regular film fare.

Police Seek Raise For Their Chief, Call on Lawyer

All is not over in the latest city fracas over the fire and police raises, especially when it comes to the position of police chief, held by George Crisler. It seems when the city council Monday night refused to up Crisler's salary equal to that of Fire Chief Richards—of $699 a month—the rest of the policemen were somewhat irked and they immediately sought the advice of their attorney, Mike Hines.

Latest advices from their section indicate the belief that when the community voted recently for the raises, the mandate also called for a raise for the chief of police.

Hines, at a recent council meeting, also indicated he was not satisfied unless the retroactive pay clause was honored back to Feb. 1. The council this week made it effective as of July 1, the start of the budget year.

GETS CAMPAIGN OFF THE GROUND—Assemblyman James I. Gibson launched his campaign for re-election, with a mammoth weather balloon bearing his name. With Gibson are Nerene Ray, Charlotte Hayes, Mrs. Gibson, and Lola Barton.

The Basic Wolves face their biggest obstacle to an undefeated season when they meet the Rancho Rams tomorrow evening on the local field. Never before in the school's history has its football team gone this far with an unsullied slate.

Not only do they meet the strongest team on the schedule but they will enter this fray with a great number of the squad ailing.

Les Dickens and Harry Brown, two backfield stalwarts came out of the Prescott game with their sides raw from an unusual occurrence. The hip pads were soaked by the torrential downpour and adhered to the skin and now they are both just able to walk but Coach Cummings is hopeful that by game time they will be able to run.

Terry Sullivan sprained his ankle Tuesday night and his services are problematical. Bill Skupa is suffering from a sore knee, Joe Ullom has a pulled muscle, and Darryl Monahan missed classes from a flu attack. Larry Evans, another running back, is out for the season.

Rancho, however, is in good physical shape. Chuck Razmic, genial mentor of the Rams, and former head coach of the Wolves, has watched the local team in action once this season and has had scouts in attendance at the Blue and White contests.

Norm Craft, erstwhile Basic star, and on the Rancho coaching staff, has diagrammed Basic formations in previous frays and the Rams know what they may expect unless Coach Cummings has something up his sleeve to surprise the Vegas.

When Coach Razmic was contacted by this newspaper, he had this to say, "Basic is a well-rounded, well-coached team. We respect it but do not fear the Wolves. Our team is in good physical condition for this game. Our defenses have been set up to be alert to anything unusual and I'm sure that the Rams will give an excellent account of themselves in the game Friday night."

The Rancho team will be accompanied by a large contingent of its supporters and we hope our local fans will turn out en masse. Game time is set for 8 p.m.

Gibson Explains Unemployment Compensation

Henderson Assemblyman James I. Gibson said yesterday that he has been contacted in recent days for information concerning Assembly Bill 348 which concerns unemployment compensation, and would like to clear up any misunderstanding of the legislation which he introduced.

Gibson said that the inquiries indicate considerable misunderstanding of the bill since very few of the persons have read it.

The two main points, Gibson said, which are of interest and seem to be most generally misunderstood are: (1) Does the bill cause any delay in processing unemployment claims? and (2) Does the bill deny anyone unemployment compensation?

"The answer to both questions is emphatically 'no,'" Gibson said. "The bill has no effect on the unemployed person other than it may require some additional information from him when he first files for unemployment compensation. Its only effect is on whether a previous employer of the individual is charged directly for the person's compensation or whether that compensation comes from the general fund, which occurs when the employer had no control over the cause of the individual's leaving his employ."

Gibson continued, "In order to be accurate in the facts or the effect of this law since its institution July 1, 1959, I requested a statement from Richard Ham, executive director of the Employment Security Department, State of Nevada, under whose direction the unemployment compensation laws are administered. He said in a letter dated October 14:

"You asked whether implementation of this legislation which requires notifying base-period employers of claim filing and issuing non-charge or charge rulings has delayed payment of benefits to any claimant. In my opinion, it has not. Procedures as established allows the preparation of the monetary determination as swiftly as before. No benefit is held up in the central offices merely because of the ruling process. Nor is there any need to hold claims in the local office because of the new procedures and as far as I know, this is not being done."

"Time lapse figures on first pay orders seem to indicate that inception of the new procedures starting with the third quarter of 1959 has not delayed payments.

Gibson continued, "Concerning the second question raised above, I should like to quote from the bill itself, which was specifically drawn so that no benefits would be denied to any claimant. Paragraph seven of section two reads:

"No ruling given a base period employer under the provisions of this section may constitute a basis for the disqualification of any claimant." Gibson commented that this wording clearly sets forth the fact that no one will be denied compensation because of the effect of this legislation.

Ham's letter continued, "My own feelings about AB 348 are exactly as I expressed them in your presence before the committee and you will remember at that time, under questioning, I stated that in my opinion, the bill would in no way be harmful to the claimant."

Gibson said that the provisions in the law are already law in 36 other states, and were only passed after extensive hearings in committee. The bill was reported out by the labor committee, a seven member committee, five of which were Oscar Jepson (D) chairman, member of the Railroad Brotherhood; James Ryan, (D) Clark, at that time president of AFL-CIO; Roger Bissett, (D) Washoe, Attorney for the AFL-CIO; Clarence Collins, (D), who was supported by the Mine, Mill and Smelter work-

Prize Drawings At Vegas Village

In appreciation of the patronage of the local residents, the Vegas Village Shopping Center in Henderson is holding prize drawings at the store each Saturday at 7 p.m. for the next 3 weeks.

Each week the Shopping Center is giving away 3 gift certificates; one for $25.00, one for $10.00 and one for $5.00 and on the day of the final drawing, November 5th, in addition to the gift certificates, a beautiful television set will be added to the prizes.

The winner need not be present to win, but only Henderson residents are eligible. For each $1.00 purchased, The Shopping Center is giving their customers a coupon entitling them to a chance to participate in the drawings.

On Saturday, the first prize drawings were made and Mrs. Liola Beck of 363 Nebraska was the winner of the $25.00 gift certificate. Mrs. Pat Keenan of 185 Frontier was the winner of the $10.00 certificate and Mrs. H. M. Baucumm of 437 Republic won the $5.00 certificate.

Bryne Warns of Increased Tax Load If Hospital Bond Issue Is Passed

The citizens of this community were warned yesterday by Mayor Bill Bryne that if the proposed $3 million bond issue for Southern Nevada Hospital is approved by voters on Nov. 8 that local property taxes will be higher.

"County Assessor Jimmy Bilbray told me this week that in order to meet the payments on this new bond issue, if passed, every home owner would be paying from $15 to $20 a year more in property taxes," Bryne stated. "Bilbray also told me the bonded indebtedness of the county is approaching a ridiculous point," Bryne said.

Bryne added he personally felt additional hospital improvements at the county hospital would be of no actual value to Henderson and Boulder people because of the fine hospital facilities right in the city.

"We're taxing the people enough with our own bond improvement projects, and I don't feel it time to add more on each person's load," Bryne said.

AN EDITORIAL

"Vegas Wash Road Becomes Death Highway"

The tragic death Tuesday night of a recently retired navy man on Vegas Wash Road points up again the need of national park service study of the driving hazards of that much-traveled highway.

If you don't know what we mean, try driving it by yourself—especially that portion between the Vegas Wash beach turnoff and Lake Mead Lodge.

There are at least three stretches that require you to hang onto your heart as you try desperately to stay away from the inches high curb on the road's edge—which if you dare look over—is a sheer drop-off to death.

Apparently the park service is too busy taking guests out on Lake Mead to impress them with the new boat they have than to concentrate on placing road-guards along the precipices that will lead to more deaths—maybe yours—or mine.

A mention by you to your congressman could right this situation pronto—for, the only ones the park service run for cover for are the congressmen who set up their budgets annually.

These gentlemen certainly would not have let any legislation detrimental to labor get out of the committee.

The bill then passed the Assembly by a vote of 39 to 6, and the Senate by a vote of 12 to 4, and was signed into law by the Governor. At the time the bill was signed," Gibson said. "I stated that if anything harmful to the laboring man resulted from it, I would personally endeavor to correct it, and so far I have received no information on any harmful effects of this legislation."

lems of growth. The evening's program, under the chairmanship of Morry Zenoff, will also feature honor awards for community service, thank yous to the out-going board of directors and installation of the new board and officers.

The dinner for the largest crowd ever to fill the golf club quarters will be prepared by Hersh Trumbo and his special committee of chefs. Serving will be done by the high school's usherettes.

BYRNE A CANDIDATE FOR STATE GAMING BOARD; WOULD RESIGN AS MAYOR

Mayor Bill Bryne is one of those being considered by Governor Grant Sawyer for the vacancy on the state gaming control board. Others being considered are Clesse Turner, county commissioner, and former Las Vegas police chief, Ray Sheffer.

When contacted here about it, Bryne said that if he were successful in his bid for the $15,000 a year job, he would be required to resign his position as mayor. His term still calls for another year of service.

The state vacancy occurred when Las Vegas selected gaming board member, George Ullom, as city manager.

City Becomes Golf Center October 29-30 With Running Of Big Open Tournament

This city will become the golf capital of the state October 29-30 when the Black Mountain Country club runs its third annual open tournament.

Featuring the event will be the $1,500 champion flight with $500 going to the winning pro, which should attract some of the finest players in the southwest into coming here.

Heading the list of entries thus far received are Jack Levovitz of Burbank who won last year, and Howard Capps, pro at the Desert Inn who has won national fame as the conductor of the Tournament of Champions.

Leading amateurs will include Henderson's own Bob Taylor, who ranks among the top three in the state, Lynn Creason, last year's state champion and this year's Desert Inn winner.

There will be additional flights with awards in each.

Highlighting the social program surrounding the tournament will be the Calcutta Auction wherein players are auctioned to followers who then participate in the money pool.

Malone Promises New Post Office Here If Elected Congressman

"I don't say this as a come-on for people to vote for me, but I do say sincerely that if I'm chosen to be a member of congress, I won't dilly-dally like they've been doing in Washington in getting Henderson a post office."

So spoke ex-senator Molly Malone on a visit here this week, after he had learned how red tape, etc. had blocked an assignment by the postmaster general of a new building to relieve the cramped quarters now being suffered thru.

"I didn't spend 10 years in Washington for nothing," Malone added, "and I know the postmaster general as well as I know my own name, and I'm sure nothing more than a phone call and a few salient facts will produce the results you need out here. I can't understand why my worthy

INTERNATIONAL CREDIT UNION DAY HONORED

Mayor William B. Byrne has proclaimed that October 20 will be observed as International Credit Union Day in the City of Henderson. This date has been designated by President Eisenhower to call attention to the work of the credit union movement in encouraging personal independence through self-discipline and wise management of resources.

Employees of Titanium Metals Corporation of America at Henderson have one of the largest and most active credit unions in the State of Nevada. The Titanium Employees Federal Credit Union was organized in 1953 and since that date has processed almost 5 million dollars in loans to its members. It now has over $650,000 in assets. It is associated with the Credit Union National Association (CUNA) organized to promote the advancement of economic democracy through credit unions.

Credit Unions are organizations of people saving together and lending to each other at a low rate of interest, for good purposes. They are chartered by the Government and operate under law and Government supervision. However, they are democratic and are run entirely by members who elect the various officers and committee men who actually direct the affairs of each credit union.

WHEREAS, the credit union idea—with its inherent philosophy of individual initiative and economic democracy—has gained wide acceptance in the United States; and in many other countries, too, it is helping to bring people together in a spirit of mutual cooperation; and

WHEREAS, by training people in the habits of thrift and financial responsibility, credit unions help strengthen qualities which provide a basis for the progress of both men and nations;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, W. B. BYRNE, do hereby declare Thursday, the 20th day of October, 1960, to be observed as International Credit Union Day in the City of Henderson.

W. B. BYRNE, Mayor. DATED: October 6, 1960.

Service Man In Surprise Visit

Lewis Sherman, 66 Oklahoma, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lon Sherman returned home from Korea. Although his family expected him home and had been looking for him every day, they were completely surprised to see him come walking in. He flew into McCarran Field and called his brother in Boulder City to come and pick him up.

His wife, Miyo was ironing when he walked in and was so startled and she couldn't say anything for a few minutes. His mother had just walked in carrying an arm load of groceries and was so surprised and she dropped them on the floor.

After joining the Army in 1954, Lewis studied ordinance in Fort Riley, Kansas. Furthering the Ordinance Course, he was sent to Atlanta, Georgia for another 12 weeks. Upon completion he was sent to Fort Lewis, Washington where he was processed for overseas duty.

"Next thing knew I was in Okinawa. It was there I met Miyo and we were married two years later in a triple ceremony. The ceremony lasted 3 hours. I wore a kimono and my bride, the traditional Japanese bridal costume weighing 75 pounds. She stands less than five feet and weighs under a hundred pounds so it was really an ordeal."

A short time later he was sent back to the United States leaving his wife in Okinawa. A year later, they both traveled to the Fort Riley and Fort Rucker, Alabama, he was sent to Korea in 1959.

Lewis was in Army Aviation and traveled about 60,000 miles in the time spent overseas. He was assigned to the 6th Transportation company. Using light helicopters, he participated in many rescue missions and medical evacuation of army personnel, to the Ascoma City central hospital, some 22 miles from Seoul.

"Helicopters were the only thing to use as they could land on a dime in country where there are no runways and we could take our patients direct to the doorstep of the hospital."

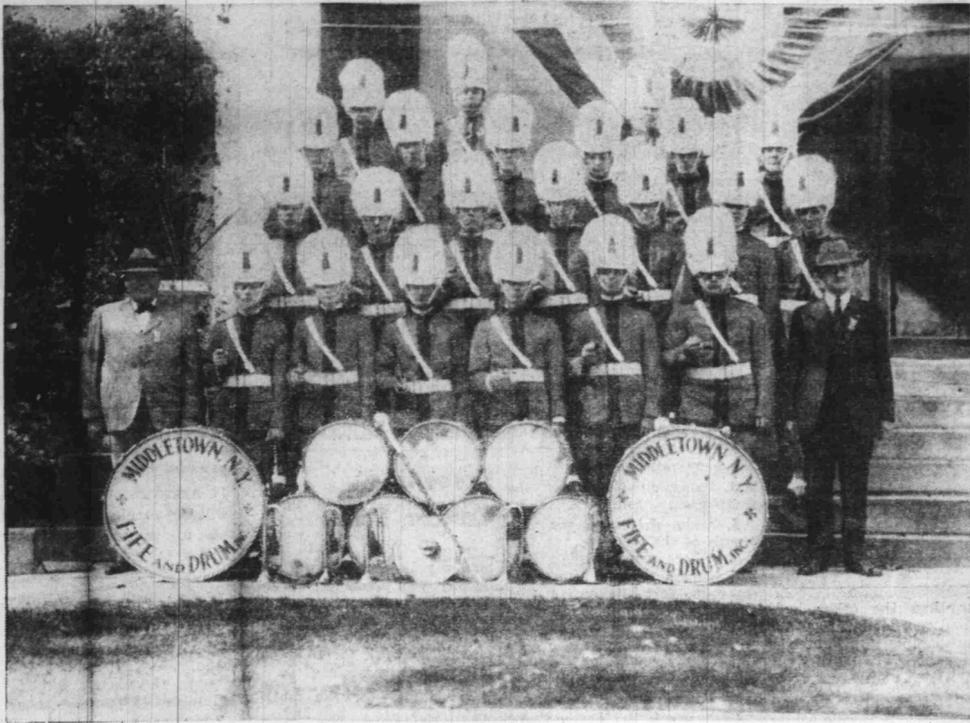

While there is no open war in Korea, there would be if the United States and the United Nations were to withdraw. The demilitarized zone of 1000 meters is flanked on one side by the North Koreans and the South Koreans on the other. Our army will probably have to stay there indefinitely, as the situation is no better than a stalemate, relates Lewis.

In Pan-mun-jan, on the 38th parallel, there is a building housing the conference table. The demilitarized zone is so strictly observed, there is a string dividing the table. The Communists sit on one side and the Americans and the United Nations on the other. Both sides have loud speakers. Each side tries to outdo the other in describing the virtues of its politics, said Lewis.

"A North Korean pilot flew his plane to the American side and gave himself up as long as political asylum would be assured. He doesn't recall any of our men or the South Koreans going to the other side so our propaganda must be the most effective," said Lewis.

His overseas assignments have taken him to Tachikawa, Japan, Wake Island, Honolulu before returning to Travis Air Force Base in San Francisco, then on to McCarran Field in Las Vegas.

Lewis is to report to Fort Eustis, Va. November 21st His

Home of the Week

THE LIVING ROOM OF THE O'DELL HOME, showing the lovely fireplace and beige surfwood walls. The room is almost completely of beige with bright orange at intervals in rare contrast.

The Lawrence O'Dell Family 521 National Street

The absolute simplicity of the L. C. O'Dell living room in pale beige walls, matching pale beige wall-to-wall carpeting with the beige surfwood ¾ walls breaking the lines, all were outstanding as you entered the large square living room. The accent splash of color was in the mural at the end of the room which was entitled, "Spring Bough" in bright and shaded orange.

Picking up the bright orange were cushions and a stool with the upholstered modern furnishing in mauve frieze and two dark green occasional chairs. Lined oak tables and hi-fi stereophonic ensemble blended with the light walls.

The wide fireplace, on the outside wall was in pale beige "weeping joints" with gold fireplace accessories. The hearth was of brown and beige ceramic tile and all designed by a brother-in-law of the O'Dells, Jack Barquist, of whom they sung their praises.

The high modern windows were across the room completely to each side of the fireplace and cornered, continuing on the other wall with beige draperies. A planter filled one corner with a bountiful arrangement of greenery.

The planter divider was of beige and brown ripple wood and separated the living area from the dining room under a squared arch. It contained decorative driftwood, philodendron and ivies, all hardy and green.

The almost white carpeting continued into the large square dining room which also served as an entry from the front door, which was very noticeable for the gold inlay of climbing roses in the long, narrow glass.

The dining room was furnished completely in mahogany with a dining room set, secretary, television and a rose love seat. The dark furniture was a striking contrast to the pale beige walls.

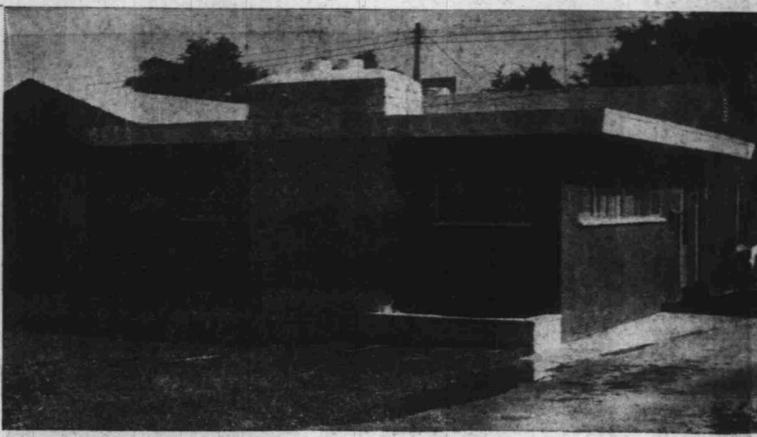

As we sat in the comfortable kitchen, Mrs. O'Dell explained that they had done most of the remodeling in the early summer and were very comfortable now, with plans of just a few more changes. The kitchen was highlighted with a neat tile floor of beige and white resembling a ceramic pattern. The curtains were of brown and yellow figures on white and the breakfast set of yellow.

Looking out into the backyard, a pale green high block fence could be seen surrounding a spacious and neat backyard. A patio continued from the back door to a barbeque where "many summer evenings had been spent," according to Mrs. O'Dell.

The bath walls were done in a zola-tone flecked beige which looked very different and practical with rose-beige accessories. The tile flooring was white and the shower all green.

Cynthia's room, the 10 year old, was all in yellow with one wall done in a ballet scene of pale green showing the dancers on ice skates and short colorful costumes. The bedspread was of yellow baby chenille and furnishings of limed oak. She had her miniature doll collection around the room and had a full-length mirror on the door that looked very appropriate.

Sandra, the 11½ year old daughter, had a bedroom of green with one wall figured in a pink ballet scene with splashes of green and purple in the cosgrey furnishings were used and

THE LAWRENCE O'DELL HOME at 521 National is in a terracotta color with splashes of white throughout and a wide driveway to the large fenced-in backyard.

Umbrella trees were very neat and furnished shade for the front yard.

A wide driveway ran the length of the home to the fenced-in back yard. Mrs. O'Dell had been a genial hostess and was self-assured in the fact that Henderson was home to them as her husband, Larry, was a native Nevadan and she has been here since 1942. The girls go to school at St. Peter and have never known another home.

Larry was in the Marine Corps 4 years and spent 3 years in the Pacific area during the war. Mrs. O'Dell proudly stated that she is a graduate of Basic High here and had seen many changes

Present

Cancer Pads

Mrs. Dorothy O'Dell, chairman for the American Cancer Society, was presented recently with 200 pads for cancer patients. The American Legion Junior Auxiliary Post No. 40 completed the work for their summer project.

The tables for the meeting were decorated by Mrs. Le Fevre, with red, white and blue boxes and flags for the presentations. Later the girls made masks for Halloween.

The November meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Le Fevre, 11 Arkansas street when there will be an election of officers; also exchanges of names for the Christmas party.

Attends Plumbers Convention

Mr. Ralph Crowley, of the Crowley Trailer Park in Pittman, spent the past week in Reno, Nevada attending the Plumbers Convention.

Visiting in the Crowleys home is a friend of many years, Mr. Bill Stolz of Sacramento, Calif. He visits them in the fall each year and plans to return this weeknd.

A NOTE OF INTEREST TO THE FRONT DOOR is added by the gold inlay of climbing roses in the long, narrow glass on the natural finished entrance. The white of the grillwork is repeated in louvered white shutters, planters and fireplace.

Herpetologist Here: Young Mike Pfeifer

By Anna Marie Webb

One of the most interesting teenagers I have met in Henderson is Mike Pfeifer, 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pfeifer of 676 Blackmore Drive. The Pfeifers moved here 3 years ago from Borger, Texas. Mike's father is employed at American Potash, and his mother is a receptionist at the Convention Center. Mike's 8 year old sister, Patty helps feed and take care of his pets.

Herpetology is the branch of zoology that describes reptiles and amphibians.

Through his friend John Berger of 680 National, Mike became interested in the desert and reptiles, amphibians, turtles, lizards, and snakes. Mike credits John with teaching him a great deal about the desert; and Mr. Bayles, his eighth grade teacher, and Mr. Riddle, his seventh grade science teacher, also helped him learn more about his hobby. Mike also has a series of books on reptiles which he has enjoyed using. The two boys like to go for walks in the desert, usually with a .22 or a bow and arrow.

At the present time, Mike has two snakes, a four-and-one-half foot long bull snake which he has had one year and considers quite tame, and a garter snake which he has had two years. During the two years, the garter snake has grown from nine inches to twenty-seven inches. He keeps these snakes in his room in cages. These cages have a glass front with wooden sides, back, and bottom, and a screen top which is lifted up for feeding and cleaning purposes. The garter snake enjoys eating water dogs and lizards, while the bull snake feasts on birds, bird's eyes, chipmunks, and rats.

Besides feeding, care of the snakes consists mainly of cleaning out the cages. Mike accomplishes this by taking the two snake cages out in the back yard and combining the two snakes in one cage while the empty cage is cleaned, and then this process is repeated to clean the second cage. The snakes are left out in the sun for about one hour and then returned to Mike's room. "Too much sun is fatal to a snake," stated Mike, adding, "Most snakes come out at night." The snakes also need to be washed off occasionally.

Although Mike has two non-poisonous snakes now, he has had a total of nine sidewinders. He described how he caught one of them. He and John were walking in the valley between Boulder City and Henderson. Upon noticing an interesting looking hole, the boys looked inside and saw the sidewinder. The snake was trapped by putting a forked stick behind its head and then it was picked up behind its head and put into a container. Mike said that it is far less risky for two persons to capture a poisonous snake. "I would not attempt it alone," he said. Mike had a prairie rattler when he was living in Texas. He found this snake while he was on the desert hunting with a bow and arrow.

Mike also has two pickled snakes kept in jars out of the sun to prevent their fading. One is a nine-inch sidewinder and the other is a fourteen-inch sand snake which is not commonly found in this area. The solution used to pickle the snakes is composed of formaldehyde and water in a ratio of 10:1. A hypodermic needle is used to get the solution into the bloodstream.

We couldn't help but ask Mike about his family's reaction to his interest in snakes. He said his parents didn't like them at first, but they don't mind them now. "In fact, the family took care of them this summer while I was away," he said.

Mike also has had two turtles for one year, a snapping turtle which likes to play dead and a painted terrapin. The turtles are kept in a bowl and eat dead fish, worms, cold meat, and lettuce.

This active ninth-grader lists as his interests besides amphibians and reptiles, walking and hunting with a .22 or bow arrow with his friend John, and the Boy Scouts. He is a Life Scout and particularly enjoys the Wildlife Campouts at Lake Mead and Mt. Charleston. He had made a couple of talks to the Boy Scouts about his hobby, and he is going to speak to Rotary this fall. He listed Social Studies and World history as his favorite ninth grade studies and is looking forward to studying biology next year. Mike will be very happy if he can tie in his interest in rep-

Mrs. Bartlett Attends Women's National Convention

By ANNA MARIE WEBB

"The Challenge of a Changing World" was the theme of the 1960 Convention of the National Association of Bank Women held from October 9 through October 13 at Pasadena, Calif. Mrs. Selma Bartlett, bank official of the local branch of the Bank of Nevada, attended along with two other delegates from Las Vegas. This was the 38th Annual Convention, and there were 524 persons in attendance from all over the United States, including Hawaii. Sweden also was represented.

This is the fourth convention of the National Association of Bank Women that Mrs. Bartlett has attended. She stated that the convention is held every year with two main purposes: the election of officers and the exchange of ideas. The NABW has a membership of 3300 bank officers.

Mrs. Bartlett was very enthusiastic about the very interesting and stimulating speeches, panel discussions and workshops. Two speakers with especially interesting talks were Dr. Esther F. Hays of the University of California who spoke on radiation, and Dr. Helen C. Lodge, who spoke on education.

There was a very excellent panel discussion entitled "Women's Viewpoint in a Changing World," featuring five speakers from different fields: a research librarian, a doctor, an educator, a journalist and a banking official.

There was also a trip to points of interest in the area.

Shirley Watson Baptist Speaker

The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Missionary Society took place recently at the First Baptist Church for the first fall session, it was reported by Shirley Watson. The meeting was conducted by Wanda Willis, society president.

Each woman signed her name, birthday and wedding anniversary on a slip of paper at the close of the meeting and drew a name of her prayer pal, the name to be revealed during the December meeting.

Mrs. Fred Pennington gave a report to create interest in the mission field.

Mrs. Osko, the minister's wife, gave the devotional, "Prayer and the Need of Prayer."

The meeting was then turned over to Mrs. Watson for the evening's program.

Mrs. Watson gave a report on the Lake Tahoe convention she attended in July, speaking about the two missionaries, one from Alaska and the other from Thailand.

Sister Visits

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kubic, 226 Zinc, hosted Mr. and Mrs. Herb Carlin and their four children Charles, Louise, Larry and Bruce from Beaumont, California over the weekend. Mrs. Carlin is a sister of Mrs. Kubic.

Also guest of the reunion dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Lou Fleming of Las Vegas. This was the first trip in a year for the Carlins and they enjoyed a drive to view the lights and activities in Las Vegas.

Nevada Can Save Its Entire Population, Civil Defense Meeting Points Out

By ANNA MARIE WEBB
Last Saturday Mrs. Betty Reynolds attended the bi-annual meeting of the Nevada State Women's Civil Defense and Disaster Council at Carson City.

This was an eight-hour conference for the purpose of extending the civil defense program. Mrs. Reynolds went under the directorship and authorization of Henderson Civil Defense Director George Campbell.

Mrs. Reynolds cited these several important highlights that were stressed at the meeting. The first important consideration is the continuity of government. In case of war or national emergency, our government must keep going. Our present law concerning this problem is inadequate. A law needs to be passed that will cover the possibility of government heads being killed or injured in a national emergency, and would allow for the necessity of appointing other leaders.

On a county level, local authorities should be appointed to take over communications, and the County Board of Commissioners should appoint their successors.

Fourteen states have already passed laws concerning these government problems. Nevada should surely be included among these progressive states.

A second important consideration is a 200-bed emergency hospital. There are three necessary steps in organizing an emergency hospital. There must be a location to store hospital equipment. A custodian must be appointed to operate the hospital. And doctors and nurses must be contacted about receiving their permission to tend patients in case of war. Veterinarians, due to their medical training, would be helpful in the emergency hospital program.

A third important feature of the civil defense program is a warning system. Mrs. Reynolds emphasized the need of a warning system to let us know of the event of a state of emergency. This must be organized on a state level. Ham operated radios would be used.

To illustrate the need of this warning system program, Mrs.

Reynolds said that recently there were three unidentified planes sighted over Canada. Nevada did not learn of this incident until two weeks after it happened.

Drug stores also must be contacted to allow for medicine and anti-biotics to be taken to the emergency hospital at the time of need.

Grocery stores must be contacted to provide for the even distribution of food to all residents of the community in time of an emergency.

Immunization and shots for adults and children are an another important factor to be considered. It was brought out at the meeting that the United States is considered a comparatively sterile country. Our tap water is so pure that generally speaking Americans have lost a great deal of their natural immunity to such diseases as typhoid, tetanus, measles, mumps, diphtheria, small pox, because of their lower standards of sterility, and because they are exposed to diseases more often than Americans, other countries have a more natural immunity to diseases.

One question that will be checked into thoroughly is whether or not mines and caves in the area can be used for fallout protection, storage of food supplies, and emergency hospitals.

Of course, all of the before-mentioned factors of the Civil Defense Program must be carefully worked out and organized before a national emergency arises, demanding the immediate operation of this program.

Mrs. Reynolds also emphatically stated that it is important for Nevada to have fallout shelters because Nevada is not considered a target state, and it will be possible to save almost the entire population of the state. Mrs. Reynolds also proudly stated that since September 12, the dedication date of the prototype shelter at her home, there have been 512 visitors to inspect the shelter.

Also at the meeting, a very important message from Claude Shipley, Director of the Nevada State Civil Defense Agency, quoted a secretary of the Communist International, who said in 1930, "Our time will come in 20 or 30 years. In order to win, we shall need the element of surprise. The Bourgeois will have to be put to sleep, so we shall begin by launching the most spectacular peace movement on record. The capitalist countries will rejoice to cooperate in their own destruction. They will leap at another chance to be friends. As soon as their guard is down, we shall smash them with our clenched fists."

Mrs. Reynolds emphasized how important it was for every American to understand the significance of this Communist speech and how it applies to our lives today.

Graduates of this course are trained to teach others how to use radiological monitoring instruments to detect and measure fallout which would be widespread after a thermonuclear attack. The students receive free tuition and a portion of their travel and living expenses paid. To qualify for the courses they must have a knowledge of college-level science and algebra, have some teaching experience, and be willing to pass their knowledge on to others in their own communities. TABLE TOPICS TEACH MIND MIND REACTION

The October 11 meeting of the Basic Toastmasters Club was called to order, at Railroad Pass, by Educational Vice President Dee Towne. The invocation was by Lee Warden.

Topicmaster Bob Moore presented some Table Topics that were the result of considerable effort and required some fast thinking on the part of the members.

Glenn Muchow was Toastmaster for the evening and his performance was consistent with the excellent record he has maintained since joining the Basic Club. Two of the speeches were Ice Breakers by Jim McGee and George Vaughan. McGee's speech carried the unique title "McGee's Maneuvers." The other two speakers, Mel Dunway and Jim Pendlebury, were delivering their second speeches. Dunway's speech on "Waste" dealt with the waste of our labor pool, such as prisoners, unemployed persons, etc., while our forests are burning down through lack of manpower. Pendlebury's speech was a condemnation of the present system by which politicians seek office. His contention was that radio and television are cold, and lack the personal touch; and that these two methods of communication will never effectively replace the old Torchlight Parade and Town Meeting Type of rally.

Jim Schaack was the General Evaluator and he was assisted by Lloyd Hudlow, Ken Sullivan, Jack O'Dwyer, and Ted Beck. Jim Pendlebury was awarded the honor for Best Speech of the Evening. Ken Sullivan won a "double header." He was rated as best evaluator and also won top honors for the best discussion of a Table Topic.

The next meeting is Tuesday evening, October 25. The place is Railroad Pass, and the beginning time is 5:15 p. m. Any men who are interested are welcome to attend as guests.

HIGHWAY 93 CONVENTION OPENS HERE NEXT WEDNESDAY

All members of the North American Highway Association are urged to make plans now to attend the annual meeting which will be held here on October 26, 27 and 28.

This year's convention should prove to be the most important ever held in that Alaska, Mexico Canada and the rest of the states are pulling together for the purpose of advertising, dissemination of information and the promotion of the North American (93) Holiday Highway.

Field director Dick Ransom is nearing the end of a membership drive, which began in Nogales, Arizona on June 1, and took him all the way to Edmonton, Alberta, Canada. He plans to complete the membership campaign by convention time.

Ransom has collected well over $10,000 and secured more than 100 new members for the association.

He and president Clark Mason wish to express their appreciation to the chamber of commerce, their managers, and the numerous individuals, for the excellent cooperation, assistance and support extended during this most recent drive.

Approximately 175,000 new brochures have been distributed to members in the States, Alaska, Mexico, Canada and to numerous points well off the route.

Of this number, Ransom has personally distributed 75,000 to members while covering the route for membership dues. The national office in Ely has shipped some 70,000 to members in Mexico, Alaska, Canada, automobile clubs, etc., in addition to hundreds of individual requests Paragon Press, printer of the brochure, shipped 34,000 directly to association officers for distribution in their respective areas.

Registration for the convention will be from 3 to 5 p. m. the first day at the Colonial Inn followed by a get-together cocktail hour at Lake Mead Lodge.

Mayor Bob Broadbent will welcome everyone at 9 a. m. Thursday. This meeting marks the 32nd and the first for Boulder City.

Merchants of the Week

AMONG THE SMALLER APPLIANCES are the Clyde Wilsons with a background of table, desk and TV lamps, as well as living room furnishings. The couple work together in owning and operating the furniture and appliance store and service most of this area.

MR. AND MRS. CLYDE WILSON, of Hi-Way Furniture and Appliance Company are pictured beside one of their new television sets and a mirrored reflection of other merchandise. The first of October marked their first anniversary of the store on Boulder Highway.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Wilson HiWay Furniture and Appliance

"We've moved away and moved back to the state of Nevada 3 times now and we've decided this is the best place in the world and we're going to stay!" agreed Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Wilson, owners and operators of Hi-Way Furniture and Appliance Company.

Their place of business is located on Boulder Highway in Pittman and was formerly known as McConnell Furniture Company for the past 5 years. They observed their first anniversary the 1st of October and consider this area "on the boom and as compared to other parts of the country, shows great promise." Mr. Wilson said "according to salesmen and men that ought to know, some parts of the country are having a recession, but Southern Nevada is definitely forging ahead and I think will continue to do so, with a great future for business and homes. We're sold on it and intend to stay this time."

The Wilsons recently observed their 25th wedding anniversary and have one son, Kenneth who is 8½ years old. They owned and managed The White Bunny in Las Vegas on South 5th St which is a wholesale and retail ice cream products business from 1953 to 1957; owned and operated a motel in Bend, Oregon for 2 years and he worked 17 years for Chicago-Burlington-Quincy Railroad out of Nebraska in the Purchasing and Stores department.

He was located at Nellis Air Force Base during the war in 1943 and learned to love this country as his wife, Vivian did. "When we first knew this place, Henderson wasn't anything. There were the plants and the Townsite homes, that's all and we've seen it grow and learned to appreciate the arrival of strangers here coming to work and buying homes here."

The Wilsons have stocked all their modern furniture and appliance store to where it is a one-stop shopping center for the home. "People go by our store on the highway and sooner or later will come in," Clyde Wilson said. "Also, we've been in business long enough that we have a lot of return customers that keep us on our toes. We figure that sooner or later everyone will stop in our store since they all go by here to the Lake and consequently come in to look around. We draw customers from all over: Las Vegas, Nellis, Boulder City, Paradise Valley, Charleston Heights and of course, Henderson," he said.

"Shopping for furniture or appliances is a family project," Mrs. Wilson said. Sometimes it starts out to be the woman's job, but before the order is signed, she 'has to go get Dad.' A man will buy the car and the woman will buy the clothes, but before furniture is taken out of here, both the husband and wife usually show up which is as it should be," she concluded.

The 3800 square feet of store space is brightly decorated in shades of green from medium to light green, white acoustic ceilings and floors of brown and beige tile. Modern, provincial and early American furnishings are throughout the store in room-like arrangements to completely equip a home for easy and comfortable living, including the finishing touch of custom-made draperies and carpeting.

Small appliances of all descriptions are available at Hi-Way Furniture with refrigerators, freezers, washers, dryers, stoves, radio, television sets, record players, stereo all there to see and buy. "As of yesterday," Mr. Wilson said, "we have the dealership of Estey electronic organs which is an outstanding line of the East."

I asked the Wilsons if they had any hobbies. "I would love to go back to Nebraska and do a little pheasant hunting which I used to do, but can't see how I can get away," he said. "When you have a business, you mostly work. I like to fish and hunt, but don't have much time. We keep the store open 6 days a week from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. and close on Sunday and it doesn't give you much time away."

They think Henderson is quite a place and has the potential of being a large city

STUDENT OF THE WEEK

Sixteen year old Renee Louise Griggs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frosty Griggs of 261 Circa Way, is Vice President of the Junior Class for the school year 1960-61 at Basic where she is studying the Commercial Course. Renee was born in Vinita, Oklahoma on August 17, 1944. She came here 1 1/2 years ago and has attended Basic all her high school years.

She hasn't made up her mind yet as to what her future plans

Letterman's Club
Presiding over the Letterman's Club as President, is Les Dickens; the Vice President is John Jacobson; and the Secretary-Treasurer is Dick Derrick. The Board of Directors are Senior member, Frank Schreck and Junior member, Craig Ballew. The Ways and Means Committee is made up of Marv Bouscher, Larry Jones and Dave Arkell.

Remains Undefeated!
About 50 Basic fans traveled to Prescott, Arizona Friday to watch the Wolves take another victory. The final score was 6-0 despite the very rainy weather. To quote several of the players about the weather, "We had to swim to make the touchdown!"

Good luck, boys, in the remaining games! The next game is this Friday against Rancho High and is here at home.

New Students
Peggy Meiker, age 14, is from Tulare, California, where she attended Tulare Western High School.

She is 5' 4" tall and has brown hair and eyes. Her future plans include being either a secretary or a housewife. She thinks Basic is a very nice school.

Around And About Basic
Mike Beard, who are you going steady with?? Gay Batty, are you still going with Don Jackson?? Alice Sullivan and Bill Haney are back together!

The Sophomore Reverse is to be held November 19. The theme for the dance is "Some Enchanted Evening."

Senior girls had their pictures taken Friday for the annual. Also, any girl that didn't get her picture taken Friday for some reason was able to have them taken at Carlyle's over the weekend.

The Junior Class rings are being ordered now so get your order in! Orders must be made no later than next week.

REX NEWELL is shown pouring water on the home at 102 West Basic that was destroyed by fire recently as the owner, Charles Fancher looks on next to him. The family of 6 lost everything being unable to save personal effects as the fire was well underway when the local department arrived.

will be, but she either wants to go into the business field in some way or be a beautician.

Her achievements since being at Basic have been various. She was in Spanish Club for two years; G.A.A., three years now; Wolverines in her Sophomore year and was treasurer; Usherettes this year and is secretary; Commercial Club this year; and is Vice President of the Junior Class. Also, she has been in two talent-assemblies; went to Reno last spring for a speech contest; has been on the "B" honor roll all through high school; and is in the Order of Rainbow for Girls, and is Charity right now, and will be installed as Worthy Advisor next April or May.

Renee's main interests are meeting new and different people, traveling, being around people, especially happy people; and like all girls, she likes boys.

Mexican foods are her favorite dishes and red her favorite color. She has two special songs, "Walk, Don't Run" and "Theme From a Summer Place." She especially likes English and U. S. History, but says she really likes all of her classes this year quite well.

In her spare time she enjoys being with people and helping someone in some way.

Dancing is tops in her list of hobbies with cooking, sewing ("When I'm in the mood for it"), and reading following.

"Snobbish and stuck-up people that never smile because they think they are better than anyone else" is her pet peeve.

DOUG HAAG BAGS BUFFALO

DOUG HAAG is shown with the rifle he used when he went buffalo hunting in Wyoming recently.

By Ingrid H. Pearson
Douglas Haag, 255 Tungsten, is probably one of the very few hunters, who has shot a buffalo in recent years. They are almost extinct and only exist in small herds protected by the United States Government. Before settling of the Western United States, these animals with their weight of more than 1,000 lbs. were the main source of food for the Indians of the plains. Doug tells me that in the past years he hunted in Nevada with very little success, so he said "When my brother-in-law Henry Stanko of Casper, Wyoming in-vided me for some real shooting. I took him up on it." He and his friend W. "Rink" Rinker of Las Vegas took the truck and were on their way. Doug's brother-in-law is part-owner of the Rocky Mountain Meat Packing Company, which has a contract with the owner of a buffalo herd to shoot a few of them this fall. After processing the meat, they sell it to food chain stores like Safeway, which in turn advertise "Buffalo Meat" as a delicacy throughout their stores.

A jeep took the hunting party to the grazing place of the herd and from about a 200 feet distance the owner pointed to a buffalo and said: "This looks like a good one"—or—"That one there" and everybody in the party got a turn. Doug explains "The best spot to hit one of these buffaloes is right under the ear, where the ear bone is connected with the neck bone. They fall instantly and you avoid ruining any meat." All in all, Doug's comment was: "Well, I don't know, it seemed like shooting a milk-cow."

But before this unique experience Douglas Haag and "Rink" Rinker went out and did some real hunting on the plains of Wyoming. "The most fun was antelope-hunting" Doug tells me, "they are so fast, but with so many of them, it is only a matter of time before you hit one." Both hunters came home with a buck and an antelope each, quartered and wrapped in multiple layers of paper. "It surely was a successful and eventful trip for us" Doug said and looked longingly at his rifle, and probably wishing he was still out in the woods instead of back at the plant. He works for Titanium Metals Corporation of America as Supervisor of the Sponge Control Section of the Members of the local Eagles Club enjoyed a pot luck dinner and card game at the Eagles Hall recently.

POT LUCK DINNER

Mrs. John Halsey won the door prize. Eugene Harris had high score in canasta while Bell Fanner was low. In pinochle, Ted Carter was high and Nora Carducci had the low score. Cindy McClanahan was the winner in scramble.

Alma Halsey was honored with two beautifully decorated birthday cakes. The cakes, a surprise to Alma, were baked by Evelyn Harris and Madalyn Harris.

After the card games were completed, the men furnished the ice cream to serve with the birthday cake.

The remainder of the evening was spent visiting.

Process Department.
But Douglas is not only an avid hunter, but also an ardent fisherman and a world traveler. He and his wife, Betty took a European junket last year. They first went to Switzerland where Doug's father came from and he still has some aunts, uncles and cousins. Since the relatives speak nothing but their native tongue, Doug spent months preparing for this trip by studying the German language through a record course with special emphasis on conversational speaking. Both Doug and Betty were awed by the beauty of the Swiss Alps and took many pictures.

They then went to Spain and Portugal where Betty was the linguist of the two. Her knowledge of the language and customs made it possible for them to see a slightly different side of these countries, than the average tourist would see.

Betty is a former local elementary teacher.

NIMROD AT AGE OF TWELVE

Twelve year old Terry Kizzia bagged a 171-lb. deer, a beautiful 4-pointer, in the Pony Springs area north of Pioche. He went hunting with his father Newell "Red" Kizzia, who bagged his buck on opening morning. Terry got his deer the second day. This was Terry's first year of eligibility and, needless to say, his parents are very proud of him. While the shot was not a long one, 125 yards, the buck was on the run and Terry downed him on the first shot.

The Kizzias live at 10 New Mexico Way.

Walter Baring
Here Tonight

U. S. Representative Walter Baring, seeking his fifth term in Washington, will be the guest of the Henderson Democratic Club from 8 to 10 p.m. today.

Baring's appearance at the Club's Kennedy-Johnson Headquarters, located at 43 Water Street, was planned Tuesday evening at a regular meeting. Mike O'Callaghan, club president, told the members that punch and coffee would be provided by the Clark County Democratic Central Committee. A club committee consisting of Stan Davis, Lura Winall, and Pearl Osborne will coordinate the evening activity.

O'Callaghan said, "The meeting is open to the public and ample opportunity will be provided for each person and every person to talk to our Congressman." Baring will also give a short formal talk beginning about 8:30 p.m. and will dwell on the current campaign. The Henderson Club planned additional activity for the remainder of the campaign and for coming months. Committees for election day work, election evening party, and precinct activities were appointed and names will be published next week in the HOME NEWS.

Plans for a campaign paper were revealed and met unanimous approval of the members. O'Callaghan stressed, "This paper will contain interesting and informative columns by Senator Howard W. Cannon, Senator Alan Bible and Representative Baring. It is the feeling of our club that such a paper will stress the value of our party because we have so much to offer." Club members will also contribute ideas and articles to the publication.

Club members enjoyed refreshments served by Annetta Davis and Pearl Osborne at the conclusion of the meeting.

Any additional information about the Club can be obtained by calling FR 2-4464 between 3 p.m. and 5:30 p.m. every day.

New LDS Church

Regular services in the new LDS church on Cholla street, will not begin until October 30, according to Third Ward Bishop Tharol Leffer.

Services for the Third and Fourth Ward, and the Lake Mead Stake, had been announced to begin next Sunday, but according to Bishop Leffer, there is still some work which must be completed before the move is made.

Sunday church meetings and auxiliary meetings throughout the week will be held as usual in the Church on Ocean street, which houses four Henderson wards and activities of the Lake Mead stake which are under the direction of Stake President James I. Gibson.

Scheduled for Thursday are the Stake leadership meetings for the Sunday School at 7 p.m., and the MIA at 8 p.m. at the Ocean street Church.

Bishop Leffer said an official announcement will be made and the schedule published before the move is made to the new church. Moving the two wards will outline a new schedule of meeting times for all four Wards and the stake.

President James I. Gibson has set the dedication date for the new chapel for early next year.

OPTIMISTS PLAN DIAMOND FOR MIDGET LEAGUE

Thursday night the Optimists Club will hear a report on the boys' baseball diamond it is anticipating constructing for the Midget League in the city park.

There will be a discussion on equipment that will be needed to put the diamond in shape for the boy's activities, and the following Saturday morning, Optimists will meet on the scene to do what they can in preparation of the project.

At the meeting last Thursday night at the Swanky Club, a first report on the baseball diamond was given by Bill Tredebeck, secretary.

Bill Compton, candidate for judge in the next election, was present to speak of his qualifications by Neal Burt, program chairman.

Mooney's topic was "Communism." Mooney is president of the North Las Vegas Optimists.

It was announced that there will be a smorgasbord dinner on November 12 as a fund raising event for the Boy's, which will be served smorgasbord style by the Mint, in Las Vegas.

Funds will be used for the baseball team. Tickets will cost $1.50 apiece.

Also other donation tickets are available from members for a cash drawing, with prizes of $100, $50, and $20 to be awarded first, second and third prize winners. They will cost 50 cents each, also to be used for the boy's fund.

ON THE BOULDER HIGHWAY, HENDERSON

HENDERSON STORE ONLY

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Van Slyck of Christopher, Ill. were recent guests of their daughter, Ann Elsea and her husband, Robert, 339 Tin Street. Although Mr. Van Slyck is retired, he came here to attend the Mining Congress. With the Van Slysks were Mrs. Elsea's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. James McIntosh of Covington, Tennessee.

by GEORGE CAMPBELL
DEAR MR. & MRS.
HENDERSON

Now that the campaigning is starting into the stretch, rumors are flying like mad. Have you heard the one about a certain labor leader endorsing a chamber of commerce president in the primaries, in preference to people running on the same ticket who were bonified members of organized labor?

Or have you heard the rumor of an offer of the convention hall manager job, to one of three mayors?

Then there is the rumor of a last minute smear campaign, to try to discredit me in the eyes of the public, sort of like they did Helen Herr.

After being in the community fourteen years, and being in the public eye for almost the entire time there is little one could do wrong, and not have it uncovered by this time.

So let the rumors fly, let the chips fall where they may, but let the people be discerning in their choice of commissioners.

The people of Henderson should by this time have their full, of letting the wrong people into our public offices. We have been the brunt of jokes all over the country, because of the action of some of our city officials.

In my opinion this is very bad for our city in general, prospective businesses are reluctant to invest, home owners are backward to making large improvements because of unsureness in our council halls.

Almost to the man our plant officials prefer to live outside Henderson. Why?

Almost to the business, our people in business are struggling. Why?

There are probably many theories as to our general backward condition, but I say look to ourselves in electing people without vision. Then correct this at the polls in November, choose men that have purpose, men that are not afraid to call a spade a spade.

We should start at the top, and choose wisely not for party but for the men you as the Boss would want working for you.

In both parties there are frauds, and opportunists. In both parties there are men of vision. In this modern world we the people have a chance to see and to judge, and to vote not as a machine, but as an American.

Now is the time to start correcting some of the opinions of Henderson. Now is the time to put a man on the county commission who will work to restore our standing in the County, the state and possibly the nation.

You have tried my opposition on two different occasions to not much avail.

Now is the time for a clean sweep, start with a new broom, one that hasn't been used by many factions.

Let's start being proud of our city.

Sincerely
George K. Campbell
Candidate for County
Commissioner

A PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR

WHEREAS, the newspapers of the nation during the week of October 15-21, 1960, are observing National Newspaper Week with the theme "Your Newspaper—Freedom's Guardian" and

WHEREAS, this slogan was produced, as part of their class work, by Students in Journalism at our state institution of higher learning, the University of Nevada, as the winner in a national competition among schools of journalism, and

WHEREAS, this theme is particularly appropriate during the year of a great national election in our nation and during worldwide political upheaval which is serving as a cloak for the enemies of democracy to seize control of the press and subvert by the minds of their fellowmen, and

WHEREAS, our newspapers are a potent force in bringing about desired civic improvements in our towns and cities because of enlightened public opinion shaped and nurtured by the free American press, and

WHEREAS, our nation's business system, built on moving goods from the shelf or showroom to the consumer, benefits largely because our newspapers help by their advertising columns to move goods, thus creating jobs and helping to build prosperity for Americans, and

WHEREAS, there is tremendous emphasis on youth today, both at home and abroad, and one of the greatest heritages we can give our youth is a free press that will keep their government free and their lives free,

NOW, THEREFORE, I GRANT SAWYER, Governor of the State of Nevada, do hereby proclaim the week of OCTOBER 15 to 21, 1960 AS National Newspaper Week in Nevada, and commend the Students in Journalism at the University of Nevada for their achievement as best in the nation in creating a slogan symbolizing the function of the U. S. free press, and urge all citizens to take time to reflect upon the theme "Your Newspaper—Freedom's Guardian" with special attention to the need in the world today for uncensored channels of information that will help to dispel suspicion and distrust among men.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I

No. 4 of a Series

The County Commissioners. After poring over so many pages of duties of both the higher-ups and the lower-downs, it seems to me that the County Commissioners and State Legislature members have more actual responsibility to the people than most of us realize. Perhaps that is why there are usually so many candidates for these offices—the desire for a feeling of power.

The data on County Commissioners takes up many pages in the Statutes, so just the highlights will be copied.

244.020. County commissioners shall be qualified electors of their respective counties. No county or township officer shall be eligible to the office of county commissioner.

244.040. Any vacancy occurring in any board of county commissioners shall be filled by appointment of the governor.

244.070. They shall elect one of their number as chairman of the board. The county clerk shall be clerk of the board.

244.080. All sessions of the board shall be public.

244.075. The clerk shall keep a complete record of all the proceedings of the board signed by the chairman and clerk kept at the office of the clerk of the board, and shall, during business hours, be kept open to public inspection free of charge.

244.095. No ordinance shall be passed except by bill.

244.115. The county clerk shall record all ordinances in a book kept for that purpose, together with the affidavits of publication by the publisher. (Incidentally, it says that only the title and not the full ordinance must be published.)

244.125. The county commissioners of any county are authorized to appoint a county manager . . . (who) shall hold his office at the pleasure of the board . . . and may be removed from office by the board at any time.

244.140. The board . . . shall have power and jurisdiction . . . to divide the county into townships and to change the divisions of the same, and to create new townships.

244.145. The board . . . shall have power . . . to establish, change and abolish election precincts, and to appoint officers of election. (But not within 30 days of any election.)

244.150. The board . . . shall have power . . . to levy, for the purposes prescribed by law, such amount of taxes on the assessed value of real and personal property in the county as may be authorized by law.

244.155. The board shall have power and jurisdiction . . . to lay out, control and manage public roads, turnpikes, ferries and bridges within the county, in all cases where the law does not prohibit such jurisdiction, and to make such orders as may be necessary and requisite to carry its control and management into effect.

244.160. The board . . . shall have power . . . to take care of and provide for the indigent sick of the county in such a manner only as is or may be provided by law.

244.165. The board . . . shall have power . . . to control the prosecution or defense of all suits to which the county is a party.

244.170. The board . . . shall have power . . . to offer and allow rewards for the apprehension or conviction of defaulting or absconding county or township officers.

244.175. Rewards for apprehension of murderers . . . (if) the board . . . believes . . . that the offering of a reward would tend to cause the arrest of the perpetrator or perpetrators of the crime, the board of county commissioners, or a majority thereof, is authorized to offer a reward for the arrest and safe delivery of such criminal or criminals to the proper officers. (No more than $500.)

244.185. The board . . . shall have power . . . to grant to any person, company or association a franchise to construct, maintain and operate a television installation system which requires the use of county property or that portion of the county dedicated to public use for the maintenance of cables or wires, underground, on the surface or on poles, for the transmission of the television picture.

244.190 Weather Modification Cooperative Agreements. 1. The boards of county commissioners of the various counties are empowered to enter into cooperative agreements with the State of Nevada, other counties of this state, or any private or public organization, and with private concerns engaged in weather modification (cloud seeding) operations.

2. The expenses incident and necessary for the participation of counties . . . shall be paid out of general funds of such counties, and the board . . . shall annually make an estimate of the expenses . . . and budget the same.

244.200. The board . . . shall have power . . . to examine and audit the accounts of all officers having the care, management, collection or disbursement of any money belonging to the county or appropriated by law, or otherwise, for its use and benefit.

244.210. Every demand against the county, except the salaries of the district judge or judges and the elective officers of the county whose salaries are fixed by law, shall be acted upon by the county commissioners. No demand shall be approved, allowed, audited or paid (by the county auditor) unless each several item, date and value composing it be endorsed upon the same, by the order of the board of county commissioners, together with a reference to the law, order, contract or authority by title, date and section authorizing the same.

244.273. The board . . . may authorize the use of county highway patrols and snowplows on private roads in the event of an emergency if: 1. Such equipment is used by the county in the area wherein the private roads are located; and 2. There is no privately owned equipment for immediate hire or rent in the area; and 3. The prevailing rental rate for the use of such equipment is paid by the owners of such private roads to the county for such use; and 4. Such equipment is operated by county highway employees only.

Sections 244.275 thru 244.290 explain the provisions under which the commissioners may lease, purchase, sell, auction, construct, repair, reconvey property belonging to the county.

244.300. The county commissioners of the several counties having a population of 7,000 or more, . . . are authorized and empowered to operate, manage, improve and maintain all public parks, golf courses, and other public recreational centers and areas, the construction of which has either been initiated or completed, and the title to which is held in the county. 244.305 tells how they may acquire land for such purposes.

244.305 says they may operate and maintain swimming pools or other recreational centers acquired by gift to the county.

244.310. No member of the board of commissioners shall be interested, directly or indirectly, in any property purchased for the use of the county, or in any purchase or sale of property belonging to the county, or in any contract made by the county for the erection of public buildings, the opening or improvement of roads, or the building of bridges, or for other purposes; but the board may purchase supplies for the county, not to exceed $30 in the aggregate, in any one month, for one of their number, when not to do so would be a great inconvenience, but the member from whom the supplies are purchased shall not vote upon the allowance of the bill.

The titles of the next few sections are as follows: 244.315 Advertisement for bids when contract exceeds $1,000. 244.316 Emergency contracts not exceeding $5,000 may be let without advertisement. 244.320 Commissioner cannot vote on contract extending beyond term. 244.325 Commissioners: Interests in contracts made in official capacity prohibited; contracts void: penalties. They seem to be self-explanatory.

244.335. The board . . . shall have power . . . to: 1. Regulate all character of lawful trades, callings, industries, occupations, professions and business conducted in their respective counties, outside of the limits of incorporated cities and towns. 2. Fix, impose and collect a license tax for revenue or for regulation, on such trades, callings, etc.

244.340. They shall provide by ordinance for the licensing of tent shows and circuses in their respective counties, provided: 1. Gives amount of fees to be charged, and 2. Gives special consideration to veterans' organizations.

244.345 is long, and tells regulations for the licensing of "a billiard or pool hall, dancing hall, bowling alley, theater, soft-drink establishment, gambling game or device permitted by law or other place of amusement, entertainment or recreation, outside of an incorporated city or incorporated town."

244.350. The board of county commissioners, the district attorney and the sheriff . . . are empowered and commissioned, to act jointly, without further compensation, as a liquor board, to grant or refuse liquor licenses, and to revoke the same whenever there is, sufficient reason for such revocation.

The section also describes the ordinances that must be enacted regulating the sale, fixing the hours of sale, prohibiting the employment or services of females or minors in the sale or disposition of liquor (?? Is this enforced??), and prohibiting the sale of liquor where it would be a public nuisance.

The title of 244.353 is Revocation, suspension of work permits, identification cards for licensed gaming establishments; appeals to county commissioners.

244.355 allows the board to pass ordinances "prohibiting horses, cattle, swine, goats or sheep from running at large upon any portion of the roads and highways within the district which are fenced on both sides."

244.360 is called, abatement of nuisances; penalty for official neglect.

244.361. They may, "by ordinance regularly enacted, regulate, control and prohibit, as a public nuisance, the excessive emission of dense smoke and air pollution caused by excessive soot, cinders, fly ash, dust, noxious acids, fumes and gases within the boundaries of the county."

244.365 is regarding stream pollution by sawdust.

244.366 is long, with details of construction, acquisition, operation and maintenance of water and sewer facilities outside of the limits of incorporated cities and towns. Among the powers is one "To prescribe and collect rates, fees, tolls or charges, including but not limited to the levy or assessments of such rates, etc. against governmental units, departments or agencies, including the State of Nevada and political subdivisions thereof, for the services, facilities and commodities furnished by such water and sewer facilities, and to provide methods of collections, and penalties, including but not limited to denial of service, for nonpayment of such rates, etc."

244.365 is Fireworks; Regulations and Control. 244.370 and 244.375 allows commissioners to exhibit at exhibitions, fairs, etc. and levy a special tax to cover the expenses. 244.380 They may also levy a tax "to cover the expense of exhibiting, promoting and publishing to homeseekers and the public at large, the agricultural, mining and other resources, progress and advantages of their respective counties."

The next pages tell all the regulations for calling a special election to issue county bonds in order to receive federal or other aid for public work, improvement or other public benefit. The public has a right to protest this action.

244.445. They may outside of the limits of incorporated cities "provide for the macadamizing, oiling, curbing, graveling, grading and regrading, paving, draining, cleaning, repairing, lighting, surfacing, and resurfacing, and widening of any county highway, underpass, tunnel or other passageway," and "provide for the construction, improvement, maintenance, vacation and preservation of county parks, playgrounds, and recreational facilities, and the preservation of walks, crossings, bridges, drains, curbs, gutters, storm sewers, drainage systems, sewerage systems and sewage disposal plants."

244.450 allows the commissioners to make a special assessment on land owners for part or all of the expenses of such improvements, except those "deemed to be for the general public benefit." However, 244.465 says "unless a majority of persons to be assessed shall petition therefor, no such improvement or work shall be ordered." And the landowners must be given four weeks notice of what is to be done, with all details as to expense, etc.

There follows several pages on assessments and how costs are apportioned. There is also more on the procedure for issuing bonds to pay for swimming pools.

244.640 and 244.645 tell how the commissioners may create a county fair and recreation board. "Two members of the board of county commissioners shall be appointed by the board of county commissioners to serve on the (Recreation board for the remainder of their terms of office." The commissioners also fill any county vacancies on the recreation board. They may loan funds for preliminary costs, and "acquire . . . any real property which the county fair and recreation board may deem necessary."

The rest of the chapter is on issuing bonds by the recreation board.

The titles of 245.010, 245.020, 245.030 and 245.040 require the commissioners to issue certi-ificates of election to county officers, require bonds if necessary, and require reports of county officers. They may also designate the days and hours during which the offices of sheriff, county recorder, county auditor, clerk, assessor and treasurer shall be kept open for business. 245.060 allows the commissioners to pay travel expenses of officers and employees if approved and are accompanied by vouchers and receipts.

245.170. When any vacancy shall exist or occur in any county or township office, except the office of district judge and county commissioner, the board of county commissioners shall appoint some suitable person, an elector of the county, to fill such vacancy until the next ensuing biennial election.

245.200 and 210 allows the board to grant leaves of absence, vacations, military leaves and sick leave to "any employee or appointed officer of the county who has been in the service of the county for at least one year." 245.250 allows the board to levy a tax for a county pension fund.

Well, I warned you this would be long—and it wasn't even half Now, maybe we will have more respect for the county commissioners!

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF HENDERSON

Next Sunday morning the pastor of the Presbyterian Church, now meeting in the Victory Village Auditorium, will speak on "Scalp Hunting and Missions."

A choir is now participating in the morning worship service each Sunday under the direction of Miss Joyce Daeschner. Practice is held each Sunday evening at 7:00 p.m. in the auditorium and all who enjoy singing—experienced or inexperienced—are invited to come and participate.

This Wednesday afternoon from 3:30 to 4:30 p.m. the pastor, Glenn H. Lutz, will hold a youth Inquirers' Class at the Manse, 119 Joshua Street.

The work on the new church structure, which was at a standstill during the summer months, has been progressing steadily since the middle of August when direction of the building work was put into the hands of the trustees of the church. Hal Smith is president of the Board and Harry Parsons is treasurer. Frosty Traasdale has been rendering service as foreman. Work on window frames is progressing in preparation for glazing.

WITH CATHY WENTZ at Nevada University

Greetings from the University of Nevada!! And how is the weather down there in our city of Henderson? Every student on campus is debating as to whether summer season is over and fall is coming on or not.

It is rather difficult to decide; one day, we swelter in the heat, and the next day we practically freeze. But that is beside the point; we enjoy it—hot or cold.

The new fall colors are beginning to peek through, and if one looks, he can see the newest shade of red, yellow, brown and green on the trees, shrubs and in the grass.

Perhaps the loveliest times of the year on the campus is Fall. The old buildings and even the new ones add to the hew of a colorful season, which is to come within the next few weeks.

College life, now in full swing, offers many extracurricular activities for the students—homework, dances, homework, clubs, homework, dates, homework—

Greek Pledges High in Number

After a busy week of visiting the Greek houses, attending teas and parties, a group of 117 confused girls were accepted as pledges in the University's four national sorority houses.

Kappa Alpha Theta led with thirty-five pledges; Pi Beta Phi, thirty-three; Delta Delta Delta, thirty-one; and Gamma Phi Beta, eighteen.

Kappa Alpha Theta

For the freshman girls and as a matter of fact, all pledges must live in the girls' dorms for at least one year, before they can live in the houses. Grades must be kept up, as well as the special study hours set up for the girls.

Fraternities Have Full Houses

Because of the housing shortage (as one of the biggest reasons) for the men, the frats enjoyed a big year for pledges. Approximately two hundred fifty men pledged to the various Greek houses at the University.

There are so many names that I shall merely list the different fraternities: Alpha Tau Omega, Chi Sigma, Lambda Chi Alpha, Phi Sigma Kappa, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Sigma Nu, Sigma Phi Epsilon and Theta Chi.

TUB Sponsors Top Movies

The Jot Travis Union Building, where the Student Union is located, has issued to the students and faculty members a list of the movies that will be presented each Sunday evening for the enjoyment of all.

Admission is free to all students, faculty and staff; the movies are presented in the Education Auditorium with two showings—seven and nine.

Being shown are some of the top movies produced in the country, "Affair to Remember," "Fraulein," "Harry Blace and Tiger," "Doctor's Dilemma," "Tunnel of Love," "Island in the Sun," "The Long Hot Summer," "The House of the August Moon," "April Love," and "The Roots of Heaven."

IN PASSING . . . Jerry Blake former student at Basic High, was in Reno for four days, visiting his brother Jeff, also a grad from Basic, en route to the Montana School of Mines.
