New Liquor Ordinance Would Limit Licenses by Population

Donald C. Peel served as spokesman for a large group of persons representing the newly organized Retail Beverage Association at Tuesday night's meeting of the City Council when a new liquor ordinance, proposed by the association, was read in title.

The proposed ordinance would limit the number of taverns to one for every 1250 population with the exception of 50-room hotels or 25-unit motels representing $100,000 in investment, exclusive of land costs, and shopping centers with a $250,000 investment exclusive of land.

Licenses would belong to the bar operator, not the club or premises on which it was in use and could be moved in the event it was to be used in a larger, better building and was approved by the City Council.

If for any reason the operator of any club should lose his license, no new license would be issued for the premises concerned unless the population had increased sufficiently to allow for an additional license.

Peel said that while some councilmen had voiced the opinion that this would tend to raise the price of licenses, he did not think this would happen, at least for several years.

He stated that Las Vegas and North Las Vegas have identical ordinances and that population increase had taken care of the situation and new licenses are being issued in both of those cities.

Councilman Frank Morrell brought out the fact that there was nothing in the ordinance to protect the bar owners. In answer, Lee Sharp of the Sportsman's Bar said he felt that arrangements could be made with the landlords to protect their interests.

Included in the ordinance is a clause stating that any license not used within 30 days of issuance is subject to revocation; however the Council would be empowered to grant an extension of 30 days.

Grocery store licenses would remain valid so long as they did not change location — at such time they would become void.

No person, firm or corporation would be allowed to own more than two licenses and no partner, associate, stockholder or individual proprietor could own more than two licenses.

City Clerk Ann Elsea reports there are now 29 active liquor licenses, not including the Lucky Star Club, which is closed. Under the terms of the proposed ordinance the population would need to reach 37,500 — almost three times the present

Max Bosse has been appointed a new member of the Traffic Advisory Board to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Walter Kubic.

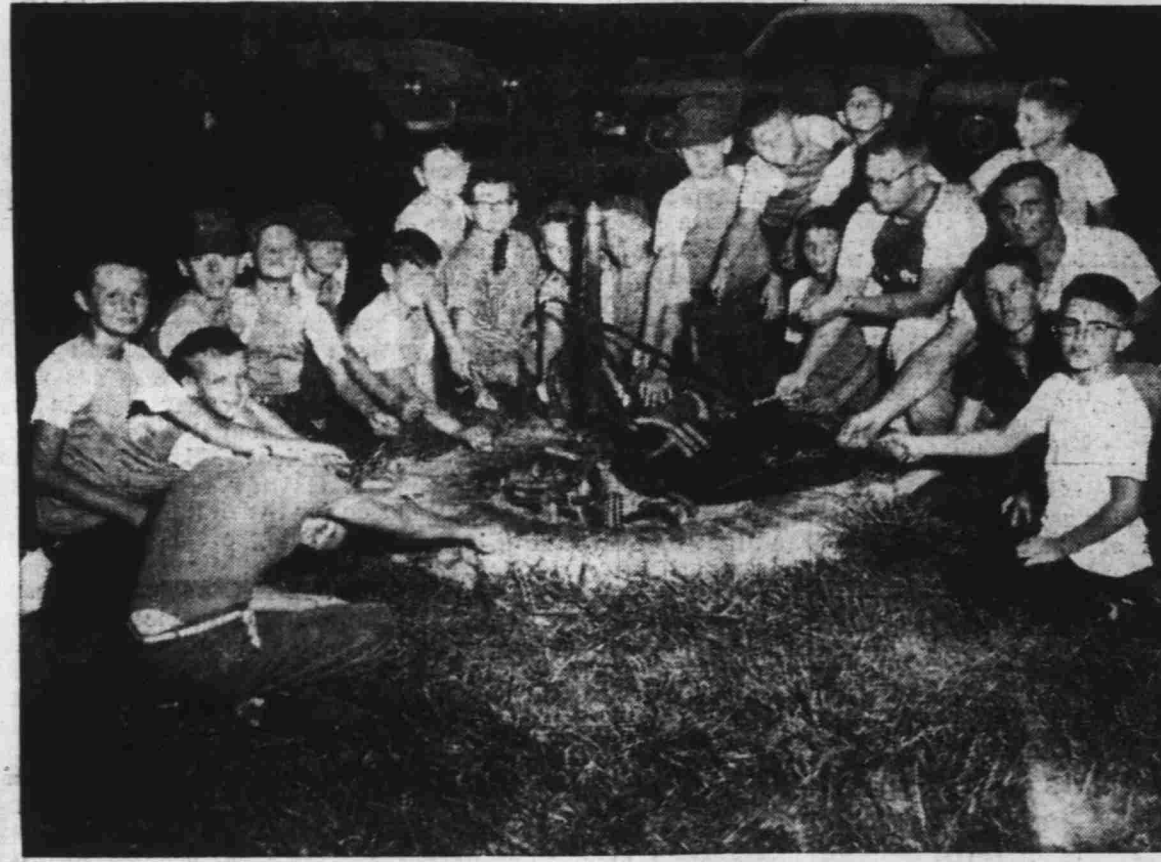

Bosse, who is with the transportation department of the Clark County school system was recommended for the appointment by Area School Administrator Lya Burkholder and Chief of Police George Crisler.

Traffic Member

His appointment by Mayor W. B. Byrne was unanimously approved by the City Council.

IT SEEMS MR. POLK EXPECTED CITY TO DO HIS WORK IN IND. PARK

SUN DEVILS — Members of the Midget League Sun Devils baseball team and coach Bill Sanner ended the season with a weiner roast held a few days ago at the city park. The boys and their coach are shown around the camp fire where they spent the evening talking over the events of the summer.

"We're ready to roll," Harry Polk told the City Council Tuesday night in a discussion of the proposed industrial park development program. However, a single word of correction inserted into the city's tentative agreement with Polk somewhat upset the apple-cart and lengthened the discussion to a full hour and a half.

Accompanying Polk to the meeting was W. T. Holcomb, engineer, who has been hired by Wells Fargo to work full time on the industrial park project.

Polk and Holcomb were anxious to learn when the engineering crew could go to work running the grades for a railroad spur, roads and section lines and when the city could start proceedings to obtain rights-of-way for these improvements.

Councilmen were somewhat taken aback as, in their opinion, the city had not agreed to do any of the physical work or obtain rights-of-way, but had agreed only to "assist" in the project.

The word — assist — had been erroneously omitted from the typed copy of the tentative agreement but had been inserted in the copies distributed to the councilmen.

All of the council members were agreed that the city could not do the engineering field work on the industrial park development. City Administrator Morris Weir said it was his understanding that Wells wanted help for 60 to 90 days in working out a master plan for the park but it was not his understanding that the engineering department was to run grades.

The two men were anxious to have the work of obtaining rights-of-way started, section corners located and the county road department contacted to determine what help could be expected in installing a road to the steam plant and another from Sunset Road to Frontier Highway.

Councilman Frank Morrell told Holcomb that none of this work could be started by the city until an agreement for the development was entered into with Polk and Wells.

Councilman Pete Mendive said he felt the project should be handled like a subdivision with plans submitted to the City Planning Board for approval before being considered by the Council.

Holcomb said he was somewhat disappointed as he had anticipated considerably more help than consultation. However, the two men revealed plans to set up a field office on the ground and start the work of planning the development.

The two men were assured of whatever help the city could give, outside of field work, and Weir agreed to consult with Holcomb either at City Hall or in Holcomb's office at any time. He also agreed to furnish whatever maps might be needed in planning the development.

It is anticipated that Holcomb will have his field office on the site within the next week.

DRAG STRIP OPENING DELAYED BY COUNCIL

Drag races tentatively scheduled by Recreation Director Dalby Shirley for September 24, will be delayed until October by action of the City Council.

Shirley, who ran the drag strip at a loss last year, asked the councilmen to decide whether they wish to continue operation of the track or lease it to private individuals.

The Recreation Director also asked that the maintenance department be sent to the track to determine the amount of work needed to put it in shape.

The future of the drag strip will be decided at next Monday's meeting of the Council at City Hall.

$50,000

Council OK's Polk Contract For Water Lines

The City Council voted on Tuesday night to pay Harry Polk and his associates $50,000 for the installation of water lines, previously discussed by the Council.

According to Morris Weir, city administrator, the installation will include a water main from Ash street to Vegas Wash road, north of the Valley View School, and across the highway. Another line would be installed from the triangle, near Dick census — to maintain the present licenses.

The ordinance will be on the agenda of the City Council meeting of September 18, when it will be read in full and open for discussion before being voted on by the councilmen.

Stewart Motors, across Boulder Highway where it will be tied into the existing 12 inch line.

Under the original proposal, payment will be made by the city on a ten year lease agreement.

According to Weir, these new lines will open the way for several new expansion programs including one or more subdivisions and a trailer park. The line in the triangle area will eliminate the present problems of low pressure and the collecting of dirt and rust in the dead-end lines.

Councilmen Frank Morrell and Jack Stevens abstained from voting on this proposal as each has land which will be served through the lines to be installed by Polk.

CAMPBELLS VISIT SON AT SAN DIEGO

Mr. and Mrs. George K. Campbell recently visited their son, Kurt, who is in boot camp with the U.S. Navy at San Diego.

They enjoyed viewing the sights around San Diego with their son and were pleased to learn that he is enjoying his life in the Navy.

Kurt will finish boot training soon and is expected home on leave about September 15, after which he will be given a permanent assignment. Young Campbell entered service with the Navy shortly after being graduated from Basic High School with the class of 1961.

FUSE CAUSES MINOR POWER POLE FIRE

A power pole on Water St. extension between Church and Mallory was found burning by the police. The fire department was contacted and the fire was put out.

According to an official from the California Pacific Utilities Company, a fuse evidently started the fire.

CITY WILL HELP CHAMBER PAY FOR BROCHURES

Brochures which were printed by Luskey Brothers for the Chamber of Commerce have already been of value to the city, Don Dawson told the City Council Tuesday night.

These advertising brochures were sent out with the prospectus for bonds and had the city paid to have them printed they would have cost more than half the amount Luskey is asking the Chamber for the brochures, Dawson said.

At the request of the Chamber, the City Council voted to pay half the Luskey printing bill and advised Dawson to take $181 from the amount budgeted for such items. The brochure, the Council agreed, is by far the nicest ever printed about this city.

WOLVES PREPARE FOR BOULDER

Head Coach Joe Cummings has been rotating two offensive units during scrimmage sessions this week as the opening game with Boulder City nears.

The other attacking unit has Ron Hubel and Terry Sullivan at the flanks, Mike Beard and Killer Boggs at the tackle positions, Cal Smith and Steve Hinkle at guards with Gary O'Dell at the pivot. Dennis Downer directed this group with Chuck Jilbert, Ellwood Belzer and John Hinkle as ball carriers.

The defensive units were selected last night but it must be said that the next few practices sessions will determine the starting lineups. The hustle of Hank Sena has caught the eye of the coaching staff and Cummings hopes he continues to sparkle.

LeGrand Jones and Pete Smith are nursing minor leg ailments, and Andy Mundy has a sore back. Otherwise the condition of the football squad is good.

The team selected Dave Arkell and Darryl Monahan to be co-captains for the 1961 campaign.

PUBLIC INVITED TO VIEW FALLOUT SHELTER

Fred Haney of 312 Beverly Way has now completed the installation of his fallout shelter and all interested persons are welcome to inspect it on Saturday, Sunday or any evening after 6:30.

The Haney shelter is the first all metal shelter to be installed in Southern Nevada. He will be happy to answer any questions anyone may wish to ask about the installation.

DON MEIGHAN ENJOYED DENVER GOLF TOURNEY

By HOWARD HILL

Golf is a sport that is rapidly becoming one of the nation's most popular pastimes, but there is no one who enjoys it as much as Don Meighan.

Don, a 17 year old Basic High School senior, played golf just about every day this summer at the Black Mountain Golf and Country Club.

The highlight of his summer golfing activities, matter of fact, biggest thrill in his three years of playing, was participating in the National Junior Chamber of Commerce tournament held in Denver recently.

The local golfer, along with three Las Vegas youths, represented Nevada in the field of 217 competitors. Don earned the right to play in the Denver tourney by taking second in the State finals held at Black Mountain.

Knocked out of the "A" flight the first two days of competition, the Basic High senior fired a 73-80-153, which was good enough for the 5th spot in "B" round action which had 112 competitors.

Don's first two days were played on a country club layout which measured 7300 yards. His last two days of competition was over a 6700 yard course.

"My putting was okay but it was getting on the green that bothered me," says Don.

On his first outing, Don, who lives at 600 Karen Way, fired a 79, but he only putted 23 times on the 18 holes. An example of his putting accuracy is shown on the first hole he played. The hole measured a little over 500 yards. Don's tee shot traveled about 150 yards. He followed with a four wood on his second swing but the ball dribbled only 10 feet. His third shot, also with a four wood, landed on the other side of a gully, then his fourth shot, with a three iron, got him out of the gully, and his fifth shot put him on the green. Then Don sank a 65 ft. putt which gave him a one-over par.

Besides the longer distance, the country club course had a good amount of traps, some streams, and a lake. These cause even the best pros a terrific hindrance.

It rained the day of the practice round but, according to Don, the weather was nice after that. The boys stayed at dormitories on the University of Denver campus and ate breakfast in the cafeteria, and the State of Colorado Jaycees provided lunches. Dinner was served in buffet style.

The boys had an 11 p.m. curfew. After their day's play and between their curfew, they were spectators at a stock car race, and witnessed the Denver Bears baseball team in action. "The payoff was a banquet at which Rev. Bob Richards spoke," relates Don.

Accompanying the four fellows to the mile high city was Lou Riggins, state golf tournament chairman. Hank Green-spun, publisher of the SUN let the group of five borrow his car.

Don played some outstanding golf against some tremendous teen age golfers this summer, and now he's anxiously awaiting to play with the Basic High School golf squad.

RELAXES AFTER SUMMER GOLF ACTION — Don Meighan, 600 Karen Way, goes over his experiences while representing Nevada at the National Junior Chamber of Commerce golf tournament in Denver, Colorado. His 73-80-153 was good enough for 5th place in "B" round competition.

Mantle connected for one round tripper Tuesday against Washington but his absence from the lineup in the Labor Day twin bill hurt his chances considerably. Mickey now needs 10 in the remaining 16 games or a 62½ percent pace to break the record. Maris failed in his last three games and is now behind Ruth's season's average in the 1927 campaign. He has to notch one in every two tills.

To be angry is to revenge the faults of others upon ourselves.

By Rae Von Dornum

One of the cutest Nevada anecdotes we've run onto in a long time is a murder story, assumedly true, recounted in a thesis written by local school Principal Robert Taylor on the origin and development of the local educational system.

This yarn was told in 1943 by W. Harold Kingsley, then clerk of the school board:

"About this time a poor old fellow came to live in a shack in Nevada. His young wife was getting a divorce. She had transferred her affections to another. The old man didn't seem to care. He even opened his little house to the couple — since houses were very scarce. However, the old timer did lose his temper when his wife's lover tried to throw him out of the abode. He up and shot the interloper. Then he turned himself into the police, confessing murder.

"When the prosecution in the subsequent trial had rested the judge directed the jury to return a verdict of 'not guilty.' The judge's remarks, reminiscent of early mining days and still somewhat typical of Nevada justice deserve a place in those portions of American annals of jurisprudence which are everlasting.

"The judge pointed out that the prosecution had proved the deceased was dead and that there had been a hole in his head, but that it had not been established that the hole was made by a bullet, that indeed they had produced no bullet, and that there was no evidence to support the contention that the accused had fired any fatal shot except the questionable confession of the prisoner himself — and that anyway the name of the accused was misspelled in the complaint."

Mr. Taylor's interesting history of our schools and the founding of this community is available to patrons at the local library and Librarian Lydia Malcolm is justifiably proud of this first book — strictly about Henderson — to be placed on the library shelves.

I'm only sorry Mr. Taylor didn't consult me before writing (page 2) of his thesis — especially that part which says "Duck Creek district, so named because of the absence of creeks and ducks."

As a mother, whose son received most of his elementary school education in the Duck Creek District (Whitney) I could have assured him that there WAS and IS a Duck Creek — now dry — which even had a swimming hole where my son spent endless happy summer days and which in the early 1940's furnished sufficient water to irrigate a big field of alfalfa which was located just west of Whitney.

I could also have eliminated the presence in this district of the "one - teacher school, the usual shacklike building with 'Chick-Sales' outhouse."

The Duck Creek students were transported to Las Vegas by bus (a station wagon driven by Billie Somerville who until recently resided on East Texas Street.)

When the construction of the BMI plant dumped 10,000 extra families into this area, a school for the Duck Creek students was established in the old COC camp on 25th Street in Las Vegas. This later became the Sunrise Acres School.

The Whitney school house — complete with well — was built by the U.S. Government in exchange for a part of the Duck Creek district which was added to the Railroad Pass district — later named the Henderson district.

If this sounds as clear as mud, I suggest you read Mr. Taylor's book which, with the inclusion of this excerpt, will give you a very interesting account of the beginning of our "City of Destiny."

Lions Club Opens Fall Season at Monday Meeting

The Lions Club, which has been in semi-retirement during the summer months, will open the fall season's activities with a meeting Monday night in the banquet room at the Royal Cafe.

President Mike O'Callaghan and his new officers will be present for the first time and plans for coming events will be discussed. Dr. E. R. Lindblom, program chairman for the meeting, hopes to have a speaker on hand to demonstrate the vision tester bought for the local school system through the joint efforts of the Lions and Kiwanis Club.

Mrs. Pat Winters will be honored because of the large number of old eye glasses she has been able to pick up for the Lions sight conservation program. The frames of these old eye glasses will aid needy children who need glasses. They are still being collected and may be left for the Lions at the Chamber of Commerce office or Woodruff's Basic Photo.

It was also reported that Deputy Sheriff John Silvera of Searchlight sent over a large collection of old glasses which were gathered up in that community for the Lions.

Plans for the donkey baseball game with the Kiwanis Club to be held September 29 on the Townsite School athletic field will be discussed. Also the light bulb sale which will be held the first week in November.

Members of the club will be decked out in their colorful new jackets which have recently been delivered. Of tan poplin they have "Henderson Lions" spelled out across the back in purple and gold letters and the Lions insignia decorates the front.

PURDYS RETURN FROM COLORADO

This reporter and family had a wonderful week in Denver, Colorado, where we visited my parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. N. Hansen, and my husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Purdy, of Black Hawk, Colorado. We also visited my husband's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. C.

D. Douglas of Denver. Most of our time was spent just visiting friends and relatives. The weather was beautifully cool. It rained several times in the mountain area while there, but we enjoyed it. If we would have stayed a day longer, we would have been sleigh riding, as it snowed all through the places we were.

This is the story of a little green parakeet who flew out of nowhere into the lives of my wife and myself and brought great joy and happiness to both of us.

It was just over three years ago that this little green bird flew out of someone's home and nestled in a tree among some foliage. All the importuning and other methods of trying to get him down failed. But the next morning, he flew through an open window into the place we were residing at and immediately became a favorite. He must have been attracted by the chirping of two other parakeets that we had brought from the east.

He was a remarkable bird in many ways, as friendly and jovial as could be. He was always at the table, nibbling away at the food we were eating, perching on our shoulder or on our hand and greeting every visitor with a beep.

Just this past Monday, Annetta, my wife, brought home a tiny toy poodle, aged seven weeks, to add to the confusion around the house. This little mite that does not weigh a pound would soon be friends with the two little birds or vice versa.

But their acquaintance was very short lived. When I arrived home Tuesday, Annetta, was in tears. "Lucky is dying," she sobbed. There was the poor little tyke, lying on his side on the bottom of the cage. He was still breathing as I reached in to take him out. He expired within a few seconds, lingering just long enough as though to wish me goodbye. We buried him in the back yard.

And in this very strange world of ours, as something is added, something else is taken away. How old "Lucky" was we never knew. One thing we both do know. We shall miss him.

ANOTHER BREAK AND ENTRY

A window was broken out of a back door by forcing the screen door open at the home of Ray Callahan, 18 Washington Way.

The incident was reported to police by Mrs. Nash, who is taking care of Callahan's home while the victim is on vacation.

According to police, the suspect unlocked the back door but it seemed that nothing was disturbed.

RING LOST; THEN FOUND UNDER BED

Harry Duty Jr., 7 E. Pacific reported to police that a $200 engagement ring was missing from his home.

Entry was made through an unlocked rear door.

A check of the house revealed that all the drawers and cabinets in the kitchen were open. A lazy susan, which had been on the kitchen table had been touched and the lid had been removed. A bathroom closet was open and the right rear bedroom had been opened.

Later Duty phoned the police department and informed them that the ring was found under a bed, but stated that 3-4 cheap 25c rings were still missing.

SOMEONE LIKES GUNS AND KNIVES

The home of Mrs. David Malcolm, who is employed at the library, was entered by someone cutting a hole in the back door, report police.

A .38 caliber revolver was missing as was a set of silver carving knives.

Mrs. Veda Williamson, 34 Ocean, also reported to police that a 12 gauge shotgun was missing from her home. Mrs. Williamson was away the month of July and just discovered the gun missing.

BURGLAR SMOKES WHILE HE LISTENS

While L. D. Cardwell, owner of Cardy's Radio and Television Repair Shop, 223 Water St., went to have coffee for approximately 25 minutes, someone entered through an open window of the residence on the front facing Water St.

There were no signs of malicious mischief even though a few drawers were open and some items were disarranged.

According to Cardwell, only things missing were a transistor radio and 6 packages of Chesterfield cigarettes.

The Reverend Buford Bush, pastor of the Church of the Nazarene, has announced a series of sermons to be delivered at the morning and evening services consecutively starting this Sunday, September 10, and continuing for three weeks.

The sermons will be entitled: "A Right Attitude Towards God," "A Right Conception of God," "A Right Attitude Towards Ourselves," "A Right Attitude Towards Sin" and "A Right Attitude Towards Holiness."

Morning services are held at 11 o'clock and evening services at 7:30. The Rev. Bush has issued a cordial invitation to all interested persons to attend these services.

TO MANAGE BOULDER CITY BRANCH

Joe Manix Joins Lopeman and Anderson Insurance Agency

Keith Lopeman of the Lopeman and Anderson Insurance Agency yesterday announced the opening of a Boulder City branch office with Joe Manix as manager and representative of the firm.

The new office will be located in the Manix Shopping Center, 529 Nevada Highway. The agency will handle general insurance including automobile, home, commercial, accident and health. In his new position, Manix will write all types of policies handled by the agency, Lopeman said.

Manix has resided in Boulder City for the past 26 years and until early this year operated a department store on Nevada Highway which was founded by his father in the early 1930's.

He was elected a member of the first City Council October 13, 1959. As one of the three top vote-getters in the election, Manix who ranked second on the ballot, was elected to serve as City Councilman for a four-year term. He resigned his seat on the Council a few weeks ago after serving almost two years.

Active in civic affairs, he is a member of the BPO Elks, Rotary Club and Knights of Columbus. His hobbies are hunting and photography and his favorite sports are golf and swimming.

Manix is married and the father of six children. The family resides at 1525 Fifth Street. He received his Bachelor of Science degree at the University of Notre Dame, South Bend, Indiana.

Aggressive ground-cover plants can cause serious damage to your young trees by "smothering" their roots. Careful gardeners protect their trees by building frames around the trunks sunk around a foot or more into the ground. Decay-resistant lumber is one of the most popular materials for this use. A thick mulch of crushed rock or peat moss is used to keep out weeds. Year-round beauty can be added to the frame by capping it around the top with six-inch boards faced with a colorful weather-resistant material like ceramic tile.

Planting bulb flowers, transplanting plants and other gardening chores can be quite tiring, and nerve-racking, too, unless you are properly equipped. A requirement for any gardener is a waist-high bench with shelves underneath. Surface the top with a water-resistant, easy-to-clean material like ceramic tile.

Are the breakfasts you serve your family nutritionally adequate? Far too many people eat poor breakfasts, which leads to mid-morning fatigue. Breakfast should always include high-quality protein, such as found in meat, as well as citrus fruit, milk, and cereal and/or toast. Ham slices, different sausages, bacon, Canadian-style bacon, lamb patties, dried beef and corned beef hash are a few meat suggestions.

5 Police Dept. Members End 30-Hour Studies

Now's the time most kids start back to school but five members of the police department recently finished and received certificates of accomplishment for a 30-hour class taken at Nevada Southern University.

The course, listed under Vocational Education, was titled "Instructors' Technique for Supervisory Police."

"Young students" completing the course included Chief Crisler, and Sergeants Floyd Osborn, Ben Kennedy, Jim Pugh, and Wilbur Perkins.

Add variety to the ways you serve nutritious liver. Brown one pound of sliced liver lightly on both sides. Put through a grinder with an onion. Season mixture with one teaspoon salt and a dash of pepper. Form into patties and brown thoroughly on both sides in lard or drippings. 4 servings.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Rae:

I just wanted to drop you a note to say that was a great story you wrote about Don Ashbaugh and I am so glad you wrote it. Many of us think of these things, but it takes some one like you to get them done. I have thought about Don a lot these last months and intended to drop him a line. Your story built the necessary fire under me, and I just wrote to him. The story was in the Boulder City News, as I suppose you know. That is where I saw it. I told Don it was what prompted me to write, so I hope he has seen a copy. Do be sure he gets one, won't you. I am sending my copy to Jason Lucas, as he always inquires about Don when he writes one of his occasional long missives.

Young Andy Ruckman is doing a bang up job on the News. It will be quite a loss when he goes back to Oberlin. But I am all in favor of his getting that degree.

Your story brought back memories of when I worked for Don, and learned the very same things you mentioned. He is a great guy, and one we who know him well will always remember with affection. It was a pleasure to read your tribute to him.

Sincerely,
Laura Bell

A stamp-saving game that American children get paid for playing

Today, thousands of American youngsters are buying U. S. Savings Bonds by saving 10¢ and 25¢ Savings Stamps each week. Stamps are sold at many schools, through the Treasury's School Savings Program and at most Post Offices. And as the stamp books are filled, they can be exchanged for full-fledged Bonds.

Here's how an eight-year school savings program works:

If they save this much each week	Bonds collected	Total Saved	Value at maturity
25¢	4	$75.00	$100.00
50¢	8	$150.00	$200.00

For further information write to your Savings Bonds State Director, or to the Savings Bond Division, U. S. Treasury Department, Washington 25, D. C.

... and a special note to grownups about U. S. Savings Bonds:

- You can save automatically with the Payroll Savings Plan.
- You now earn 3% interest to maturity.
- You invest without risk under a U. S. Government guarantee.
- Your money can't be lost or stolen.
- You can get your money, with interest, anytime you want it.
- You save more than money — you help your Government pay for peace.
- Buy Bonds where you work or bank.

History Assn. Sells Books at Hanger Hq.

By JIM SCHAACK

There seems to be a lot to talk about and to see even now on our "warmish" desert.

The best time nowadays to see desert life, particularly the animals, comes in the early morning or late evening, or, for the more intrepid, through the night.

During the heat of the day most animals, man included, seek the shelter of some cooler spot. And, if that spot is artificially cooled for still more comfort, so much the better.

If you happen to be comfortably situated in the cool of the living room, settled down in the easy chair, there may come to mind a million and one things you should be doing. But perhaps just now that doesn't matter, we'll let that go 'til this evening or tomorrow.

Just relax, and maybe, thumb through a book.

And what better book than something about nature and our desert? (And that's what I've been driving at all this time, of course — a plug for the Lake Mead Natural History Association.)

Let's talk about this Lake Mead Natural History Association: it's dear to my heart.

Most folks in town, if they were asked, would tell you there is no book store in Boulder City. They might look rather blank if you asked them what the Lake Mead Natural History Association is, or for that matter, where it is located.

Well, there is a book store in town, one that's rather specialized to be sure.

The Natural History Association (there's one at most national parks and monuments that you visit) was authorized for two general purposes; to disseminate information on the natural history of the area, and to use any profits to assist the National Park Service both to protect the area and for assistance in research in the area, or the profits may be used to purchase such things as a slide projector for use with campground, school and club talks.

The buyer of the carefully chosen book is sure he's getting good, accurate information, and in turn the money he's spending will be turned back to improve the area in which he's spending his money.

Our Lake Mead Natural History Association is really a shoe-string operation compared to similar organizations in other Park Service areas, such as Grand Canyon or Yosemite National Parks, but it takes time to build up such an organization.

That's what we are in the process of doing here. We have a good selection of publications on such things as geology, zoology and history.

If ghost towns interest you, there's a book with the fascinating title, "Ghosts of the Glory Trail." A few other titles picked at random from the bookshelf are, "Exploring Our National Parks and Monuments," and "Field Guide to Rocks and Minerals," and "Poisonous Dwellers of the Desert."

There are many other books, generally moderately priced, that are packed with information on the desert around us.

A lot of our visitors from such faraway places as New York and Ohio know that if they want accurate topographic maps on the Lake Mead area, they may be obtained from our Association. We often wonder how many IN town know this.

"We're thinking big on our plans for the future. Sometime in the not too distant future, we hope to be able to finance the publication of information booklets on our local desert area. They're needed badly.

I'll end this week's column with an invitation to all of you to come in and look over these books which are on display in the lobby of Park Service headquarters.

Some of the publications make excellent gifts for folks who may be interested but have never seen our desert.

PAINTERS & POTTERS TO ELECT OFFICERS

The Painters and Potters will hold their first meeting of the season at 8 p.m. September 13, in the art room of Basic High School. New officers will be elected and the year's activities will be planned. All interested persons are invited to attend.

Grace Church Sets Sermon: 'Is There Faith on Earth?'

"When the Son of Man Comes" is the sermon topic for Sunday morning at Grace Community Church Rev. Guy Holliday* has announced.

He is using for his text Luke 18:8 "When the Son of Man comes will he find faith on earth?"

Rev. Holliday also announces that "coffees" will be held again following morning worship in Fox Hall. An invitation is extended to all who attend the worship service to remain for the period of fellowship.

At 6:30 p.m. a youth banquet will be held for all youth from the 4th through the 12th grades who are interested in working in any of the three C.E. groups. The banquet will cost fifty cents. The program includes a film and introduction of new counsellors.

The Chancel Choir will sing for the first time since June.

Mrs. Madeline Garrett, Grace Community Church Chorister for many years, has resumed direction of the choir. The anthem to be sung by the choir is "My God and I" by Sergei.

Mrs. Sylvia Legler, Organist will play "Elevation" by Batiste as the offertory number and "The Heavens Declare His Glory" by Beethoven as the postlude. Marilyn Miller will play the prelude "Moonlight on the Chapel" by Felton.

All residents in Boulder City who do not have a church home are cordially invited to attend the worship services at Grace Community Church and to participate in the fall program of the church's organizations.

Frontier Radiator & Chassis Shop Opens

"We're not supermen but we get the job done right." This is an honest appraisal of co-owners Glen Barbe and Donald Workman, who recently opened Frontier Radiator and Chassis Shop at 35 E. Frontier Blvd.

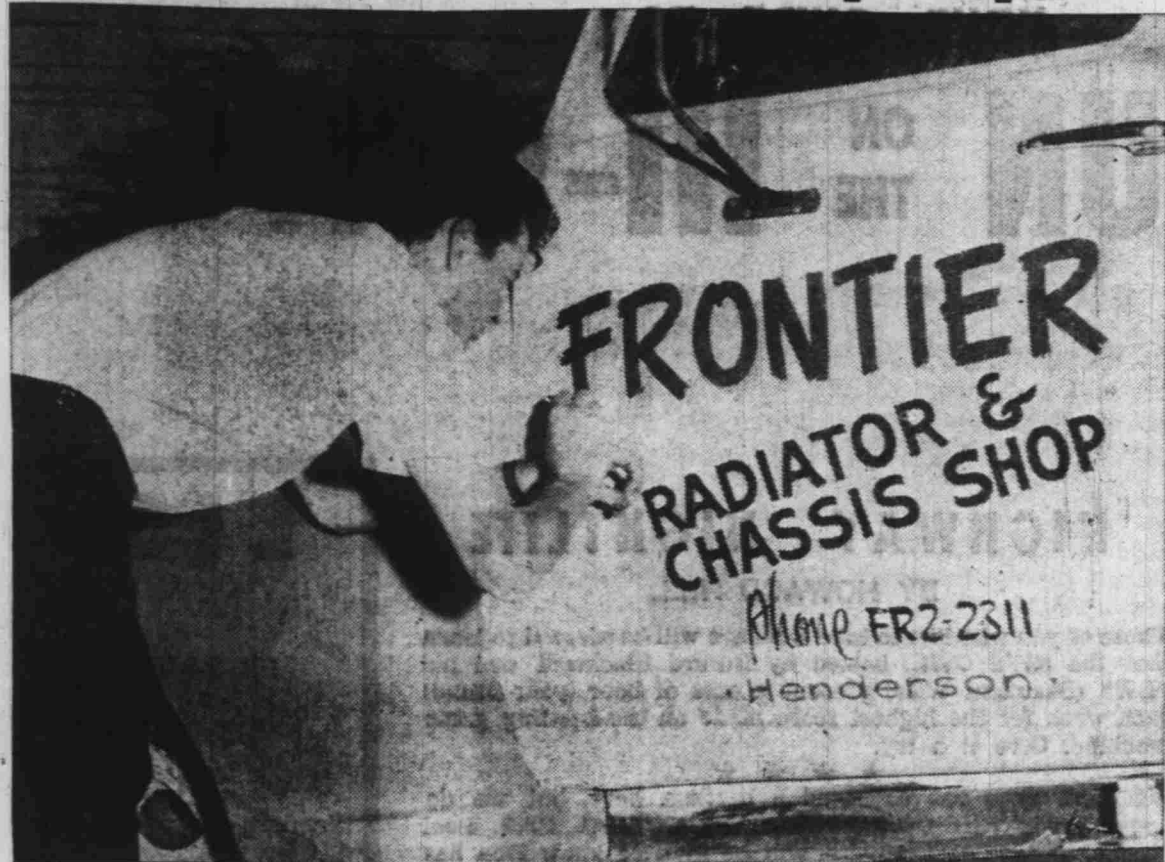

"Automatic transmissions, radiator work, front end alignment, motor rebuilding and general motorhauling are our specialties," states Barbe, a resident of this area for the last seven years.

Numerous out-of-town customers have followed Barbe to this new location which is an example of his vast experience in mechanical work, which included the position of shop foreman at two automobile dealers in Las Vegas. Add to this the experience of Workman, who has been at this type of business ever since he first started working, and you can see why Frontier Radiator and Chassis has built up such a good following for the short time they have been located on Frontier Blvd.

"We open at 7:30 six mornings a week and close whenever we finish all our work," says Barbe. The shop will be open at noon on Sundays, also, and 24 hour towing service is available.

"Actually, we can do all types of automotive work," concludes Barbe. True, Barbe, Workman, and mechanic Bob Wortman aren't supermen, but as a working trio they do a super job on your car.

Always remember that the person that you find fault with a great deal, will finally rebel.

HOPE YOU DON'T NEED THIS TRUCK — A sign painter shown above puts the finishing touches on the Frontier Radiator and Chassis Shop's tow truck which will provide 24 hour towing service. The new shop is located at 35 E. Frontier.

Councilmen Jack Stevens, Frank Morrell and Wilbur Hardy were appointed a committee of three to meet with Morris Weir and the maintenance department and determine which of the bids the city will accept.

A letter was received from Mark Leff offering heavy equipment owned by his company which is stored in the city yard for $19,000. If accepted, payment will be made by notes to be used as land payments. The equipment, a blade and bulldozer will be examined by the committee which will also determine what parcels of land would be involved in the transaction.

City Recreation Theme of Talk At Rotary Club

City Recreation Director Dalby Shirley was guest speaker Tuesday at the Rotary Club luncheon, speaking on the recreation program of the city and its hopes for future expansion.

He explained the man power needed for a well rounded program for all age groups and the many programs such as baseball, football, swimming, recreation center activities and the many other facets of the department.

Shirley commended the members of Rotary Club who have donated their time to the city as coaches and for the administrative work done by Rotarians who are members of the Boys' Club and other city sponsored organizations.

Shirley was later complimented at the City Council meeting by Mayor Bill Byrne, a Rotarian, not only for his fine talk at the Rotary meeting but for the excellent job he has done as recreation director.

The speaker was introduced by Paul Warner, program chairman for the meeting.

Dr. Lorne Phillips again offered the use of his Mt. Charleston cabin for the annual Rotary Club picnic. This includes the entire families of Rotarians and their guests.

The picnic, to be held September 17, will mark the fifth year Dr. Phillips has offered the use of his mountain cabin for the event.

Visiting Rotarians during the summer months numbered from 15 to 20 each week. With the end of vacation, most local members were present and only five visitors were present. These were Doug Douglas and Chet Tyree of Boulder City; Lorin Ronnow, Julian Moore and Maxwell Kelch of Las Vegas.

New Student Aid Foundation Organized by Local Residents

Five well known professional men and women yesterday disclosed that they have formed a Student Aid Foundation in Southern Nevada to provide financial assistance for students who require help to continue or complete their education.

Founders of the Student Aid Foundation are District Judge David Zenoff, County Commissioner Art Olsen, Director of Court Services Mike O'Callaghan, Attorney Audrey Dene Sullivan and Public Accountant Flora Dungan.

Of the five founders, O'Callaghan and Olsen are residents of Henderson and Miss Dungan for many years has worked as an accountant for the HOME NEWS.

"We feel sure that we can in some measure repay our benefactors by helping needy students in the community through the work of the Foundation," Miss Dungan said.

Judge Zenoff said it is planned to assist worthy students to continued their schooling, as well as to encourage others to return and complete their education if economic circumstances have forced them to leave school.

The five founders will serve as trustees of the Foundation. Mrs. Sullivan, former deputy city attorney of Las Vegas, will be legal advisor for SAF. Olsen, who for years has privately assisted needy students, will join Judge Zenoff on the solicitations committee.

O'Callaghan, who resigned as a teacher at Basic High School to direct the county's juvenile program, will head the advisory committee screening students for assistance, in cooperation with educators and counsellors of all local schools and Nevada Southern University.

MICHAEL REED BECOMES CITIZEN

Michael Reed, son of Mrs. Doris Reed, 262 West Basic Road, is starting his senior year at Basic High School as a citizen of the U.S.A. having obtained his citizenship during summer vacation.

Michael, the eldest son of Mrs. Reed, prominent English and drama teacher at the junior high school, was born in Ottawa, Canada. During his early life, he spent six years in Canada, two in Bermuda and two in his mother's homeland, England. The family has resided here for the past nine years.

GILLINS FAMILY VISITS DISNEYLAND

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Gillins and son, Wayne, 117 Cedar street, enjoyed a trip to Southern California over the Labor Day weekend. The trip was made especially to take Wayne to Disneyland where the family spent an entire day and reportedly had a very wonderful time.

YOCKEYS ENTERTAIN KIN FROM OKLAHOMA

Mr. and Mrs. William Yockey of 112 Cedar are currently entertaining visiting relatives from Lonapah, Oklahoma. The guests are Mr. and Mrs. Harold Yockey, her sister, Carol and sons, Rusty and Randy. During their stay here they are also visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Yockey and children, Shirley and Doyle, of 117 Yucca street.

SHEAS VISIT HERE FROM INGLEWOOD, CALIF.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Shea of Inglewood, California, were dinner guests at the home of Mrs. Isabelle Mack and her daughter, Karen, during a recent visit to this area.

Shea and Mrs. Mack, former high school friends in Inglewood, enjoyed reminiscing about the old school days. Also present were Mrs. Mack's daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Smith.

The young people provided background music by playing records which were popular during the 1930's.

Mr. and Mrs. Shea enjoyed a trip to Boulder Dam and commented on the delightful taste of the water here as compared to the "over-chlorinated" water which they have in Southern California.

the amazing growth and beauty of the plantings in the Smith yard, located next door to her own residence.

Lucille Bateman was accepted as a new member during the business session. Mrs. Palsgrove and Joyce Perkins were hostesses for the meeting.

Patio Gardeniers Hear Talk On Care of Roses

"Summer Care of Roses" was the theme of guest speaker Albert Sanders at a recent meeting of Patio Unit of the Desert Gardeniers held at the home of Tina Smith, 225 Major Ave.

The speaker said summer care of roses begins in March when the flowers receive food every four to six weeks and be sprayed with fungicide and insecticide regularly.

He explained that when the leaves turn yellow it may indicate the plants are receiving too much water. Over-watering and hot nights will also produce mildew, he said.

Florence Palsgrove spoke on

SLICER SLICES SPORT SHIRTS

According to police, a rear apartment at 2 Oregon Way was entered at the rear of a house and an unknown subject had used a knife or some sharp object to slice a number of articles.

Damaged by a sharp object was a hide-a-bed mattress, pillow, suit, 2 sport jackets, jacket, 3 pairs of slacks, 9 shirts, and 3 ties. All of the items were cut several times. A bank book, belonging to the person renting the apartment, was missing.

The tenant had been on vacation and he stated that all the doors were locked when he left. He found the back door open when he returned and found that someone had cut the screen out of a window in the bathroom. Footprints were found in the alley to match the prints left at Dr. Babtkis' office, where a recent entry was made.

Every one is eagle-eyed to see another faults and deformity.

Effective Prayer is Christian Science Theme for Sermon

Effective prayer will be a theme dealt with at Christian Science services Sunday in a Lesson - Sermon entitled "Substance."

Scriptural readings will include the account in Luke of the Master's parable about the two men, one a Pharisee and the other a publican, who went up into the temple to pray.

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy this citation will be read (p. 2): "What are the motives for prayer? Do we pray to make ourselves better or to benefit those who hear us, to enlighten the infinite or to be heard of men? Are we benefited by praying? Yes, the desire which goes forth hungering after righteousness is blessed of our Father, and it does not return unto us void."

The Golden Text is from Hebrews (3): "We are made partakers of Christ, if we hold the beginning of our confidence steadfast unto the end."

IOOF, Rebekahs Schedule Picnic In BC Saturday

The annual district picnic for all Rebekahs, Odd Fellows, their families and friends will be held Saturday, Sept. 9, in the public park by the swimming pool. The meal will begin between 4:30 and 5 p.m., but anyone wanting to swim should come earlier, according to Marjorie Mechem, noble grand of Cactus Rebekah Lodge No. 40, IOOF.

Each family is to bring food to share and their own table service. Rolls and beverages will be supplied by the committee in charge.

The Scout house is to be rented. Swimming is available in the pool, at the regular prices.

A personal note to my readers:

Since the Class of 1961 included Barbara Moritz, last year's Wolf Howl writer, I was chosen to take her place for the school year of 1961-62. My name is Laurie FitzHarris, and I'm a senior at Basic. I hope to do as good a job as Barbara to make my column a success.

The summer months have found many of the Basic students busy with sports, jobs and vacations. Sherri Johnson and Donna Boyce enjoyed a trip to California where they visited such scenic places as Disneyland, Pacific Ocean Park, and San Francisco. . . . Some fun, Sherri???

Sheri Trent made her annual trek to Texas for a summer month of fun with close friends. . . . Sugar Stokes spent the last two weeks of her summer vacation visiting an aunt in California. . . . Iowa was the place Jim DeSart slated for a trip. . . . Ellouise Howes and her family spent two weeks in Utah visiting relatives. . . . Deannie Campbell recently returned from Texas. . . . Karen Lindblom traveled to her home state of Wisconsin for a visit.

Margaret Nallia, Nancy Rhoden, Mary Lou Davis, Gary Reese, and Norman Davis taught swimming lessons at the Youth Center. Laila Park was a life-guard at the Black Mountain Country Club.

Dick Jones, Ron Hubel, and George Miller worked hard (?) at Safeway all summer. . . . Eugene Moritz worked in Vegas as a student apprentice plumber. Dave Arkell resorted to Carson City for a job as did Leslie MacNeil. . . . Renee Griggs and Leslie Sullivan have been working pretty steadily at Vegas Village. Albert Carroll, Glenn Charles, and a few others have been working as bus boys at the Stardust Hotel. . . . Gail Mapp was employed as a secretary at the Tropicana Hotel. Dana Froom and Dianna Kelly worked as car hops in East Las Vegas.

Alpha Beta Opens Fall Season With Saturday Coffee

Other new officers of the group are Jan Leamaster, vice president; Marian Cummings, recording secretary; Edie Campbell, parliamentarian; and Jean Armstrong, alternate to the City Council.

The new social calendar was received for approval and plans were discussed for the initiation of fall rushees. Ways and means projects were also discussed.

It was announced that the next meeting will be held at the home of Dolly Booth, 110 Cedar street.

How Should You Choose An INSURANCE AGENT?

With caution! Over the years you will see a lot of the person from whom you buy protection and you want to be right, the first time.

Look for experience and dependability in your agent. Be sure he is willing to work hard for your business, burn up some shoe leather and not dodge a night call.

You'll be happier if the man you choose is a local, independent agent who handles all lines, not just a few of the more popular ones. We think that we can fill the bill. Call us.

BEWARE OF BALLYHOO VITAMINS

"Vitamin deficiency" has become a kind of catch phrase. Yet it relates to health, the province of your physician.

Should you suspect that you need vitamins, consult your doctor. Let him decide what vitamins, if any, are required.

How much more sensible a procedure than to succumb impetuously to nonprofessional ballyhoo for all-purpose, bargain vitamins.

Rely on your physician's advice. When he writes a prescription, we are prepared to fill it promptly.

Lake Mead Lodge Construction Slated Within 2 Months

Lake Mead Lodge, year-round resort and only food and lodging facility in the Lake Mead Recreation Area, will start construction within 60 days under a broad expansion program that entails an expenditure of more than $1 million, Donald Morrison, president of Hi-Way Hotels, Inc., announced.

The lodge is located on the western shore of Lake Mead, off Nevada State Highway 41, roughly between Henderson and Boulder City, and about 35 miles from Las Vegas. Associated in carrying out the project are Hi-Way Hotels, Inc., owners and operators of the lodge; George T. Collins and Roger Erickson, independent building contractors, Los Angeles; Arthur Froehlich and Associates, architects, Beverly Hills; R. C. McCorkle and Associates, financing consultants, Hollywood; and Kenneth L. Stillwell, financial analyst who made the feasibility study, New York.

"The growing popularity of Lake Mead as a family recreation spot, particularly for visitors from nearby California, Nevada, and Arizona areas, plus the success we have enjoyed in operating the lodge during the last several years, we feel definitely warrant immediate expansion of our facilities," Morrison said.

The modernization and expansion program, when completed, will give the lodge: a total of 167 rooms; a second swimming pool, Olympic size; complete private marine docking and boat rental facilities; a skeet shooting range; and modern riding stables. Restaurant facilities also will be modernized and enlarged.

Present lodge accommodations include 37 rooms, restaurant, swimming pool, picnic area, a natural small boat harbor, and a 12-mile beach frontage on Lake Mead. Most popular recreational pursuits are fishing, hiking, rock hunting, lake swimming, and skin diving.

The gravy or sauce is an important part of a Swiss steak or any other braised steak serving. This is because in cooking by moist heat there is a certain amount of flavor lost to the drippings. By making use of the drippings in gravy, the most flavor and nutrients are saved.

HINTS FOR HOUSEWIVES Are You Chubby? Better Read This:

BY KATHERINE EVERSON

 Instant non-fat dry milk is as basic and handy as your milk dress.

It will come to your rescue during most any cooking emergency. You can use it in dress-up dishes for special occasions. You can use it with equal ease in simple everyday dishes.

Add instant non-fat dry milk to dishes not using milk to increase their nutritive value; add it to casseroles and chowders already rich in milk to enhance their nutritive value.

Cream vegetable with instant non-fat dry milk for low calorie good eating. To make 1¼ cups medium sauce: blend two tablespoons flour, one half teaspoon salt and dash of white pepper into two tablespoons melted butter. Gradually add 1 cup water, stock or bouillon and one half cup instant non-fat dry milk; cook, stirring constantly until sauce thickens.

To transform instant non-fat dry milk into glamorous, fluffy peaks for garnishing desserts and other dishes: add non-fat to an equal part of water, fresh or frozen fruit juices or canned fruit syrups and whip into stiff peaks.

In recipes calling for whipped non-fat dry milk and whipped egg whites, sprinkle non-fat on egg whites, add water called for in recipe and whip.

Here's a short - cut for when a chiffon pie calls for whipped non-fat dry milk: sprinkle non-fat over the partially set gelatin and whip the two together.

Trimming Calories
 By trimming down excess calories it's easy to plan an appetizing reducing diet around regular family menus, say U.S. Department of Agriculture nutritionists. This way the weight-watcher can build new food habits that will continue even after the reducing period is over. These carryover habits are essential to prevent the lost pounds from returning.

One suggestion from nutritionists of the Department's Agricultural Research Service is to make use of seasonings that add practically no calories, such as spices, herbs, vinegars, or tart fruit juices. Many embellishments, such as rich sauces, gravies, dressings, or table fats have more calories than the food they are served with.

For instance, an average half-cup portion of plain boiled and diced potato is only 45 calories; when mashed with milk and fat added, it jumps to 115 calories; and when pan-fried it can reach 240 calories — over five times the original value.

Granted, plain boiled or baked potato has little appetite appeal. But just a little seasoning — a teaspoon of butter, some chopped fresh parsley, salt, and pepper — can make it appetizing and still hold the calories to 78.

A low - calorie tomato and lettuce salad, one medium tomato and two leaves of lettuce, furnishes only 35 calories; with a tablespoon of French dressing or commercial salad dressing, it goes to 95 calories; with a tablespoon of mayonnaise, its reaches 145 calories.

These sample menus show how calories can be trimmed from a dinner menu for a person requiring 3,000 calories a day to make a menu for a person on a reducing diet of 1,200 calories a day:

High Calorie Dinner (approximately 1290 calories)
 Beef pot roast — 3 ounces, mashed potatoes — ½ cup, green peas, buttered — ½ cup, rolls — 2 small, butter or margarine — one teaspoon, fruit cup: orange — ½ small, apple — ½ small, banana — ½ medium, plain cookie — 1 medium.

Low Calorie Dinner (approximately 450 calories)
 Beef pot roast — 3 ounces, mashed potatoes — ½ cup, green peas — ½ cup, whole-wheat bread — 1 slice, butter or margarine — ½ teaspoon, fruit cup: orange — ½ small, apple — ½ small, banana — ½ medium.

BY ANCESTRAL GRANDFATHER

Thomas Deakin Receives Deed For Land Purchased in 1774

By RAE VON DORNUM
Thomas E. Deakin recently received a unique and priceless gift from his grandmother, Mrs. Thomas C. Moore of Portland, Oregon — a deed to a piece of land in the Province of New York, which was purchased by his grandfather — five generations removed — two years prior to the signing of the Declaration of Independence.

Dated: "The thirty-first day of March in the fourteenth year of our Sovereign Lord George the Third by the Grace of God of Great Britain, France and Ireland King," the deed is hand written on a sheet of paper more than two feet square. Deakin feels that the deed itself may be worth many times more than the price his ancestor paid for the land which is believed, was the first sale of land from a land grant of several thousand acres made by King George III to a man named William Harper.

Lott 36, purchased by James More (Deakin's ancestral grandfather) encompassed 110 acres.

The interesting legal description of "Lott Number Thirty-Six" reads as follows: "Starting on the Delaware River at a creek named 'Cook' begins at a beech tree blazed on four sides and two notches above each blaze, being the South West corner of Lott Number Fourteen and runs thence South thirty degrees West thirty-five chains to a stake and stones, being the North-West corner of Lott Number Fifteen; Thence South sixty degrees West forty chains to a stake and stones being the North-East corner of Lott Number Sixty; Thence North thirty degrees West twenty-five chains to an ironwood sapling marked as above, being the South-East corner of Lott Number Fifty-Eight; Thence in a direct line to the place where it first began, containing in all one hundred and ten acres."

The contract of sale was made between "William Harper of Cherry Valley in the County of Toyon and Province of New York, yeoman of the one part and James Moore of Cherry Valley, aforementioned, in the said county and province, blacksmith of the other part."

Written in the old English style and with the letter "F" used in the place of "S," the deed is quite difficult to read and Deakin is hoping to find someone familiar with this type of document who can fully explain the paper to him.

He is presently making inquiries as to what disposition has been made of this property in the intervening 187 years since his grandfather purchased it and is also interested in learning the value of the document, or if it has any value other than its sentimental value as an heirloom.

Deakin, an Airman First Class at Nellis Air Force Base, has resided here for six years. His wife is the former Constance Jean Shawl of Henderson and they have two small sons, Steven and Stuart. They are making their home at 105-A Victory Village.

A swimming pool often needs a wind screen. On cool or breezy days, a sheltered lounging area makes life around a swimming pool or patio more pleasant. One idea might be to ring your terrace with a curved wall, simply built with ceramic tile facing and set off with planting boxes.

CAP Cadet Speaks At Kiwanis Meet

Cd. Lt. Robert Friedrichs, Cadet Commander of the Clark County CAP Squadron, presented a report and showed slides of his recent exchange trip to eastern Canada as representative of the Nevada Wing, Civil Air Patrol.

Cadet Friedrichs was chosen as one of 135 young men of high school age throughout the United States to act as an "unpaid Peace Corp" to nineteen nations which have similar organizations. The group to which Cadet Friedrichs was assigned met with some forty European and South American cadets in a tour of Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island, and Quebec.

Cadet Friedrichs expressed his thanks to the local Kiwanis Club for providing him with the official exchange uniform, and the equipment needed for the tour, especially since this was the first time in the 21 year history of the Civil Air Patrol that an exchange cadet has been chosen from Southern Nevada.

He was introduced to the club by Kiwanis member Rev. Terrill Kramer who is also chaplain for the Clark County CAP Squadron, and who made the announcement that the squadron
