KINDERGARTEN CUT TO MAKE CLASSROOMS AVAILABLE FOR FIRST GRADERS

RELEASED WITHOUT BAIL

Minister Held In Death Of Woman Struck By Car

The Reverend Roy E. Partain, 47, of 1420 Palm Drive, Pittman, is free on his own recognizance pending an opinion of the District Attorney on the accidental death of a pedestrian here Saturday night.

Ann Cheshire, 48, of Chula Vista, California died in Rose de Lima Hospital early Sunday morning after being struck by Rev. Partain's car while she was walking with a companion down Boulder Highway toward Henderson.

Police said she died approximately seven hours after the accident near the Lucky Bar in Pittman.

Rev. Partain was first held on investigation of involuntary manslaughter, police said, but has since been released pending the outcome of a coroner's inquest and the opinion of the District Attorney.

According to the police, the victim was walking along the highway with the traffic and about five feet from the edge of the pavement with a companion, H. M. Austin of Palmdale, California, who not injured.

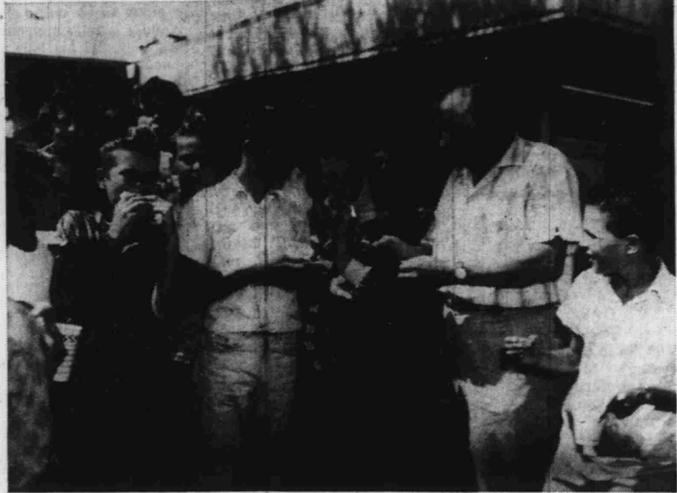

The investigating officers said they could not find the point of impact and could not determine how far the woman had been thrown. They said they felt the accident involved no negligence on Rev. was not injured.

Mrs. Cheshire and her companion had reportedly left the bar and were walking toward Henderson when the accident happened at 8:40 p.m. Sat.

Both Rev. Partain and a passenger Charles Kinney of 1420 Palm Drive said they did not see the two hikers until they felt the impact of Mrs. Cheshire striking the car.

Rev. Partain has been a minister of the Church of the Nazarine here for approximately six months.

LUCKY NUMBER—Danny Hill of 35 Wyoming Street was somewhat astonished when he bought a hamburger sandwich at the Frost Top and found a piece of paper inside it instead of meat. When he complained about the "paperburger" he was presented with a $5 bill and $5 in trade, a prize given to the purchaser of the 25,000th hamburger sold since the opening of the Frost Top exactly 60 days prior to Danny's purchase last week. The Junior High School student is shown here, surrounded by hungry and admiring friends as he collects his prize money from Owen Atkin, whose wife and two daughters operate the Frost Top on Atlantic Street near the Townsite School Campus.

Wolves feel better after 1st victory

By Burt Hoffman

The Basic Wolves balanced their 1962 ledger as they came from behind with a second half surge to gain their initial triumph of the 1962 campaign by downing Calexico 25-12 in the California city Friday night.

Bill Skupa, senior quarterback started the scoring for the Hendersonites in the opening period with a seven yard scamper to give the Blue and White a 6-0 lead.

The Calexicans took over in the second quarter and tallied twice to earn a half time lead of 12-6.

When play was resumed, Larry Elliott grabbed a toss from Skupa and sped into the end zone for 35 yards to knot the count. Elliott then booted the extra point to put Basic ahead.

Elliott then skirted right end for 60 yards to up the advantage and moments later took off around the other wing for 73 yards to put the game on ice.

The win should give the locals a big lift as they outdistanced the California crew in all departments.

One of the outstanding performances was turned in by Greg Sullivan at fullback who tore the big Calexico squad apart by crunching line smashers. He also was a bulwark on defense. Skupa showed vast improvement in the second half as did most of the thin Basic crew who were buoyed by the success of the offense.

The team came out of the game with no injuries and with a week off due to an open date will prepare for their next outing against Gorman October 5th.

Drinking champagne from a lady's slipper may be romantic, but eating the whole shoe is another matter: World Book Encyclopedia relates that the Chinese were forced to use boiled leather shoes as food during a famine in the 1500's.

Loyal W. Burkholder, Director of Area Schools, said last night that enrollments in the elementary schools in the Henderson attendance area have increased to the point where critical pressures for efficient instruction are being presented.

This situation is particularly significant with reference to the first grades. Enrollments in the first grades at Park Village and Valley View Elementary schools have reached an average of 31 pupils per room.

Efficiency in teaching the basic skills in reading and numbers is impaired in classes where enrollments exceed 25 for the first grade. All available classrooms in the Henderson Attendance Area are presently in use.

In order to organize additional first grades consideration is being given to a plan to free classrooms from other activities. At the present time eight two and one-half hour sessions of kindergarten are in operation in four classrooms of the Valley View and Park Village elementary schools. By inaugurating two-hour kindergarten sessions, eight sections extending from 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. could be conducted in two classrooms thereby freeing the other two rooms presently devoted to Kindergarten for the organization of additional first grade classes.

The reduced two-hour kindergarten sessions are presently in practice in other areas of Clark County where one-half day sessions in the elementary grades are required. Effectiveness of the two-hour kindergarten session as compared to the two and one-half hour sessions is not significantly impaired because the rest period for the two hour session can also be reduced because of the shorter work period.

A similar situation is developing with reference to first grade enrollments between the Townsite and Basic Elementary schools. If the present trend of enrollment increases continues, the reduced kindergarten session plan may be inaugurated to make possible the organization of new first grade between these two schools.

Henderson city schools opened this September with 636 more students than were enrolled in September 1961. This increase has produced class averages in all elementary grades ranging from 30 to 35 pupils.

If plans similar to the proposed kindergarten reorganization can be devised to offset the necessity of one-half day sessions this school year, relief will be available beginning with the 1963-64 school year when the Basic High School addition will be completed thereby relieving ten classrooms, presently utilized by the ninth grade, for elementary school use.

Also an additional elementary school for the Henderson attendance area is presently in the planning stage, Mr. Burkholder said.

BASIC ELEMENTARY PTA SERVING FREE DINNER TONIGHT

The Basic Elementary School Parent - Teacher Association will serve a free spaghetti dinner at 6 p.m. tonight in the multi-purpose room of the school. All members who pay their 50 cents annual dues are welcome to attend.

The first PTA meeting of the current school year will follow the dinner. The program will be entirely devoted to the introduction of members of the school faculty. There will be no speeches. All parents are urged to attend, enjoy a good dinner and become acquainted with their children's teachers.

Pool Shows $1000 Loss For Season

A deficit of around $1,000 was shown by the City's swimming pool for the year, according to City Auditor Don Dawson.

Income for the pool during its open season was around $2,500 while expenditures totaled around $3,500.

Dawson said that the pool is a recreational facility of the city which is not expected to pay its own way, due to the many swimming pools located in the city and the nearness of the Lake.

The pool officially closed on September 21. It closed shortly after Labor day for the public but has been kept available for the Henderson Junior high school.

Completion of the course qualifies marines to enter a technical school in preparation for duties with the aviation branch of the Marine Corps.

Court Action

A driving under the influence conviction in Judge Geo. Treem's municipal court was upheld in district court after it was appealed by Daniel Valles, 44.

Valles was fined $100 by the Las Vegas court and a bench warrant was issued when he failed to appear in Henderson to pay the fine. He was fined $50 by Judge Treem for the bench warrant.

Lawrence J. Newby, 25, pleaded not guilty to three charges and trial was set for October 30. Newby is charged with gross intoxication, no valid Nevada operator's license and failure to report an accident.

Fines of $25 each were imposed on Wiley A. Looper, 25, and Dennis Dean Martin, 20, when they pleaded guilty to gross intoxication.

Raymond E. Ervin, 52, was fined $15 on a speeding charge, and another charge of having no driver's license in his possession was postponed until Friday when Ervin has been asked to produce a valid license. A bench warrant issued for Ervin was rescinded.

Edgar D. Bentley, who failed to appear for sentencing on a DUI charge, had his $300 bail bond forfeited and a bench warrant was issued for his arrest.

Nelson R. Carlock changed his plea to guilty of interfering with an officer and was fined $50.

Andrew H. Sanders was found guilty of DUI and he

Golf Club Lists Rules For Flag Tourney

The Black Mountain Golf and Country Club Activities Committee will again host its monthly golf meet in the form of a Flag Tournament on Saturday, September 29. At its recent meeting, the committee also laid plans for the coming Black Mountain Open Tournament for October 26-28.

$200 Reward Offered For Return Of Stolen Guitar

the pick guard.

2. Fender Amplifier with a 15 inch speaker, brown with black and black plastic sides

A $200 reward has been offered by a local guitar owner for information leading to the recovery of $1,100 worth of equipment and his guitar, and any information which would lead to the arrest of the person who took the equipment should be turned in to Det. Sgt. Jack Perkins of the Henderson Police Department.

Perkins said that the equipment was taken from a 1960 Cadillac belonging to John Barrett of Pittman, when it was parked in front of the Ranch House Bar at approximately 2:30 a.m. Friday night. The left rear window had been broken out.

Perkins listed the stolen merchandise and asked everyone to study it carefully. Taken were:

1. Fender Guitar, cut-away model with the cut-away end cut off. Color black, it had been hand painted and the input jack had been moved. There was an initial "J" in on the cover.

3. One Gibson amplifier with Reverb Maestro.

4. One Rocco Brand foot pedal volume control.

5. Ten sets of guitar strings. Gibson brand.

Two men were arrested the same night for investigation of grand theft of a guitar belonging to Paul Easley and Ray Plunk.

Arrested were Eugene Floyd Hurt, 42 of 709 Utah, Boulder City, and Phillip R. Cooper, 22, of 473 Federal street.

The instrument was taken from the Magnesium Club when the owner returned to the club for a last check after placing the instruments in the car. Value of the theft was $300 which included an amplifier.

Hurt was released on $300 bail and Cooper was held in the city jail.

HEAVENLY DAZE

Yes, I've lived in a Townsite home Since nineteen fortytwo; I'm an old Desert Rat And I sort of like it, too. I hear the dogs bark at night, With a dismal sort of note; And I'm really on the Desert For they sound just like a coyote.

But where else could one ever find Such harmony and peace, As on the Nevada Desert; For on it . . . I have a lease. I've lived here sixty-seven years And still I live to tell; Although so many times I thought I really was in Hell.

They talk about those burning pits So one hot summer day; I thought I'd like to visit Hell To see if it's hot as they say. I started out and Satan said: "Come down, I'll treat you swell." He used all his enticing ways To lure me into Hell.

Satan thought about himself And laughed, and said with glee: "The desert will send her quota From Henderson, I see." He showed me around, until It was cooler by many degrees Than the heat of Nevada's desert; I thought that I would freeze.

He said, "now I'll just warm you up, On this I'll make a bet;" But for all he shoveled and shoveled coal, I didn't even sweat. So he called in a Satanic Imp With these instructions given: "Take her back to Henderson! She thinks that she's in Heaven.

MORRY'S STORY

by Morry Zenoff

Some dissa and data—Short shorts and casual comment:
 Builders and investors are approaching me on the streets of Vegas with more regularity these days — asking pointed questions about Henedrson.
 It seems Vegas acreage is so sky high, the builders of moderately priced homes can't pay the high freight and still come out with a profit.
 So—they want to take a leaf out of the book that Maslow of Desert Hills made famous —by building far enough from Vegas to get into the low land price area.

Acreage here is due to change hands and more and more homes and apartments are going to be built.
 Wonder what's happened to Mark Leff and his 1600 acres up near Black Mountain. He was going to build, develop, etc.

Since the city has no hold on his land like it has on others, requiring them to build or turn the land back, it looks like Leff will make his millions here on straight out land speculation.

No one was happier than Joe Cummings when he returned with his football team with a victory over Calexico.
 Then when he read the score of Western over Boulder, he turned green again — for soon he takes on Western with its great athlete—Lund. Remember how he burned up the boards as a basketball player, almost single-handedly winning the state title for Western last winter.

Talking sports — Bill Eggers, our city's wandering pro on the big golf circuit, failed to hit his stride on his home course in Portland last week and finished out of the money.
 He started well and it looked like he might win some of that green stuff like he did the week before in Seattle.

Talking sports — some more — I like Patterson tonight, though if Liston gets one clear shot at the champ, he'll knock him out into left field.

And the series—the world's series — I havva munch on Drysdale winning three — and leading his Dodgers to the flag. Maury Wills should drive the Yankees nuts. However, they say anyone betting against the Yanks is out of his mind. So—I'm out of my mind. I like the Dodgers.

How would you like to see your community improved.
 Here's your chance to help out—by just mailing in suggestions. The citizens Urban renewal board is going to consider all the ways the city can be improved physically—and then category them as to importance—then have the projects engineered after obtaining city council approval.
 Since this is your city—it

FALL CALENDAR BRINGS SOCIAL SEASON INTO FULL SWING

AUTUMN HAS TAKEN the housewife's entertainment efforts out of the backyard and into the home, with emphasis on stylish, beautiful table settings. The table shown here, one of 12 included in the Melamine Council's "Invitation to Dining" book, features a lovely blue and gold pattern on melamine dinnerware. Copies may be obtained by writing the Melamine Council, 75 West Street, New York City. Enclose 25 cents to cover mailing costs.

When the U. S. Navy first discovered during World War II that melamine, the hardest of all plastic material, made sturdy, long lasting dishes, no one expected this break resistant material to evolve into anything like today's beautiful but practical dinnerware. This exquisitely appointed table, set with melamine of patrician delicacy, illustrates how far the Navy's husky wartime baby has come.

This dinner service is classic both in shape and pattern, yet it will stand up in an automatic dishwasher as no other dinnerware can, and the rich blue and gold of its pattern is molded in so it can never fade or wear away.

The table, designed in traditional style expressly for the night "we have your parents and mine over for dinner," is from the book "Invitation to Dining" by the Melamine Council. The book is illustrated in full color and presents 12 imaginative table settings that can be duplicated easily.

An interesting note is the use of napkin rings, fast regaining their lost popularity, in this setting which features dinnerware pattern called "Golden Patrician". Its deep blue and gold are carried out by blue candles in brass candlesticks, and the low bowl of anemones in blues and reds makes a color bridge to the hot tomato bouillon that awaits its guests.

The balance of the menu, as suggested in the book, is roast pork with apple and onion dressing, glazed apple rings and duchess potatoes, head lettuce salad with Roquefort dressing and lemon meringue pie. What father-in-law could resist a meal like that?

"Invitation to Dining" is available by writing to The Melamine Council, 75 West Street, New York 6, N. Y. The Council asks only that you enclose 25 cents to cover the cost of mailing.

LOCAL AIRMAN TAKES PART IN "WILLIAM TELL"

Airman Second Class Jerry A. Duzat is participating in Exercise "William Tell," the Air Force-wide fighter weapons meet being held in this area through September 22.

Airman Duzat is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Grant, 1301 Frenchmen Street, New Orleans. He is an air policeman assigned to the 4520th Air Police Squadron at Nellis Air Force Base.

The Airman is a former student of Nicholls High School. He and his wife, the former Alfreda J. Flowers of Las Vegas.

"William Tell" provides a test of skills for pilots and support personnel in newly devised tactical concepts for limited and general war.

The intense competition also develops the effectiveness of tactical fighter teams in close air support and combat-ready maintenance of jet aircraft.

We owe the development of the luscious greengage plum, the "reine claudie" to Claude, Queen of Francis I (1515-1547). Queen Claude was a green-thumber, spending as much time as was possible in the garden in addition to producing seven children before she died at the age of 25.

VFW Auxiliary Hears Report On Convention

Highlights of the National VFW Convention in Minneapolis, Minnesota were reported by President Phyllis Zander at the recent meeting of the VFW Auxiliary to Basic Post 3848.

Mrs. Zander, a delegate to the convention, delighted the members with her account of the huge parade in which the Nevada Delegation, including delegates from Northern Nevada, handed out souvenirs of our colorful state during the march.

Plans were formulated for an evening of entertainment and honor when Department of Nevada President Doris Looney of Elko makes her official visitation on October 3.

An informal luncheon will be given at the home of Mrs. Zander and dinner will be at the Swanky Club. Later in the evening Mrs. Looney will speak at the regular meeting of the Auxiliary in the VFW clubrooms in Victory Village. Other Auxiliaries in the area have been invited to participate.

A fun party was held September 19, as the group's last social meeting of the summer. Hostesses were Mary Boyd, Ruby Reeder, Phyllis Zander, and Pearl Froman who helped supply refreshments but was unable to attend.

Topping off the evening of games and conversation was a "Who's Who" game. Each member wrote a description of another member present with everyone trying to guess "who." Gimmick prizes were awarded for the highest and lowest scores, creating additional merriment. Chef Mary Boyd surprised everyone with her excellent hot dogs on a stick as something different.

Others attending were Carol Englestead, Idella Bateman, Helen Grayce Kenworthy, Martha Lomphey, Eula McCullough, Bessie Cannon, Althea Dix, Julie Elkie and Rubylee Derrick.

State President Doris Looney To Visit Basic VFW Auxiliary

Mrs. Doris Miriam Looney, Department of Nevada President, will pay her official visit to Basic VFW Auxiliary to Post 3848 on October 3.

Mrs. Looney was initiated as a member of Front Line Auxiliary to Post 1401 in Washington, D. C., March 1, 1946.

She transferred her membership to Gaspar J. Salaz Auxiliary to Post 2350 in Elko, Nevada in November 1950. Since that time she has served as chairman of numerous committees and has held most of the Auxiliary offices including President. She is currently a one year trustee.

Mrs. Looney has also served as Chaplain of District One and in the Department of Nevada, she has served as Chaplain, Junior Vice President and Senior Vice President prior to her election as president. She has also been chairman of the youth activities and membership committees of the Department.

President Looney has selected as her theme for the year, "Through Teamwork We Grow and Serve", and as her thought for the year, "The efforts of one or two cannot bring results. It takes a team to be a winner."

As a special program for the year, Mrs. Looney has asked that each Auxiliary in Nevada own a copy of Demeter's Manual of Parliamentary Procedure, and to devote a portion of each meeting to the reading and study of Auxiliary, Department and National by-laws and the rules and regulations.

President Looney is a communicant of St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Elko, and a member of St. Elizabeth's Altar Guild in which she served two years as president. She also served as secretary of Women of St. Paul's Parish in 1961.

She is a former member of the Navy Mothers Clubs of America; and a Past Guardian Neighbor and current District Magician of the Neighbors of Woodcraft.

The Department President was born and reared in Philadelphia, Pa., and received her formal education in the public schools there. She attended Palmer Business College and until her marriage in 1920, was employed as a bookkeeper. Her first husband, the late Wm. S. Ingram, Sr., was a Veteran of World War I, with the 28th Division of Pennsylvania.

Her son, M. Sgt. William S. Ingram, Jr., has spent 19 years in service with the U. S. Marine Corps. He served in the Asiatic - Pacific theatre and Korea and is now stationed in Okinawa.

Her present husband, Samuel Looney has served in the U. S. Navy but not overseas. He is employed in the Hotel Casino in Elko. Mrs. Looney also has one married daughter and seven grandchildren. Her oldest grandson is in service with the U. S. Navy.

An American baby born in 1961 had a life expectancy of 70.2 years, the highest expectancy in our records.

UN CHAIRMAN—Mayor W. B. "Bill" Byrne has announced the appointment of Mrs. Harold Winall as United Nations Day Chairman for the City. He is shown here discussing the local UN Day program with Mrs. Winall. United Nations Day will be celebrated here and throughout the Nation on October 24.

Dr. and Mrs. Earl Gould returned Wednesday from Washington, D.C. where they enjoyed a three-week visit with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Reid and children, Lana and Rory.

Reid, a graduate of Basic High School, is a law student at George Washington University and also works for the Post Office Department as a mailman for the House of Congress, a position which he secured through the patronage of Congressman Walter Baring.

Reid has another year and a half of study to complete his course. After graduation he will move with his family to Southern Nevada and go into law practice here.

With plenty of time or touring the Capitol, Dr. and Mrs. Gould visited the Museum, FBI, the Mint and the White House. They were impressed with the beauty of the White House. They were still being picketed by protesters against atomic tests.

They also found the changing of the guard at Arlington Cemetery very impressive. They attended sessions of both the House and Senate, which both found interesting.

They enjoyed the many costumes one sees in Washington, with people from different countries dressed in native costume. Those from the African countries were described as particularly colorful.

They drove to Washington and on their return trip toured through the Ozark Mountains which they thought very beautiful and visited Meramec Caverns in Missouri. Dr. Gould said they thoroughly enjoyed their visit to Meramec Cave and he feels Nevada is "missing the boat" not to do something to make visits to Lehman Caves more attractive to tourists as he feels it is even more outstanding than Meramec.

They had a pleasant journey and Dr. Gould was very pleased that his "old Buick" used only one quart of oil in the entire eight days of traveling. The worst part of the road on the entire trip was the last 250 miles of the return trip on Route 66 through Arizona, Dr. Gould said.

U. S. Marines were in Nicaragua continuously from May, 1926, until January, 1933.

LEAVES IN HISTORY

A good wife was worth her weight in tobacco in the early 1600's. Passage from England to Jamestown for a would-be bride cost 120 pounds of leaf—worth about $440—which the lucky wooers paid happily.

During World War II, GI's in Europe used cigarettes as money. This was the most stable currency in Germany, Italy and France for two years after V-E Day.

Two U. S. reporters in New Guinea, who were trading tobacco for souvenirs, found they had unknowingly "bought" two native women. After some astonishment, they made an exchange.

Eye-Openers
MATURE VISION

Life—and mature vision—begins at 40. Changes start to occur in the lens of the eye. It becomes less elastic, sometimes makes it uncomfortable to focus on television, desk work or handicrafts. Reading glasses or bifocals may be prescribed to relieve this vision discomfort.

Around the age of 55, bifocal wearers may encounter almost a "blind spot" at arm's length, says the American Optometric Association. For shopping or dining out, newly developed trifocals solve the mid-distance problem, put the wearer completely at ease visually.

Don't believe the old wives' tale that using your eyes will wear them out! With proper lighting and corrective eyeglasses if necessary, older people should feel free to continue all the reading, writing, sewing and televiewing they wish. Night driving should be reduced to a minimum; mature vision doesn't adjust readily to the glare of oncoming headlights.

He has been a tireless worker over the years and has never hesitated when called upon. This is the kind of man we need to serve our organization, and I am extremely happy to have him on my team."

Allspice trees prefer to grow wild in the West Indies. Coriander, mentioned in ancient writings 5000 B. C., is one of the first spices used by mankind.
Basil goes beautifully with all tomato dishes: Sprinkle a little basil, salt, pepper, butter dabs and grated Italian cheese over tomato halves before broiling them.
Half cup of poppy seeds gives fine flavor, good texture to a white cake using 2 cups flour (or made from a box of cake mix).
When you peel onions, it's an acrid, volatile oil known as allyl sulfide in the vegetable which affects your tear glands and makes you weep.
To "smell of thyme" was a vote of approval in ancient Greece, for thyme was a symbol of elegance.

Allspice trees prefer to grow wild in the West Indies. Coriander, mentioned in ancient writings 5000 B. C., is one of the first spices used by mankind.
Basil goes beautifully with all tomato dishes: Sprinkle a little basil, salt, pepper, butter dabs and grated Italian cheese over tomato halves before broiling them.
Half cup of poppy seeds gives fine flavor, good texture to a white cake using 2 cups flour (or made from a box of cake mix).
When you peel onions, it's an acrid, volatile oil known as allyl sulfide in the vegetable which affects your tear glands and makes you weep.
To "smell of thyme" was a vote of approval in ancient Greece, for thyme was a symbol of elegance.
