THE COMMUNITY'S NEWSPAPER

Union Puts Stauffer On 72 Hour Strike Notice

The United Steelworkers of America Local 5282 put Stauffer Chemical Company on 72 hours notice at 3 p.m. yesterday that, if there is no change in the Company's position, a strike will start at 3 p.m. Saturday, according to Van Englestead, Steelworkers representative.

Negotiations for a new contract between Stauffer Chemical and the Steelworkers have been carried on for the past two weeks and, according to Englestead, broke down because the Company insists on changing some of the basic working conditions.

He explained that the reason for objecting to the change is that it is in direct conflict with union policy and also conflicts with conditions granted Steelworkers in other areas throughout the nation.

The steelworkers represent 200 workers at Stauffer Chemical which includes operations and most of the maintenance.

Other workers at Stauffer, represented by the machinists, Boilermakers, Operating Engineers and Carpenters unions, are expected to honor the Steelworkers picket lines if a strike is called, Englestead said.

Wolves To Host Vegas In Finale

The Basic Wolves write fins to their '63 football campaign when they entertain the Las Vegas Wildcats on the local gridiron tomorrow night.

This is the Homecoming Game for the Blue and White and also the last time the following seniors will don the moleskins, Ted Mundy, Bill Myers, Bruce Reid, and Milo Sager, backfieldmen. From the line, Bob Hawkins, Fred Gerard, Steve Hinkell, Mike Rikard, Terry Shearin, and Bill Bell wind up their high school football careers. Jim Vincent, senior center, who cracked a rib on the opening kickoff last week will not be available for this game and coach Callahan will miss his pivotman.

The Vegas threw a scare into Western before succumbing in the final quarter and offer a strong array of talent. The Wolves will have to revert to the style of play they exhibited in the last thirty minutes of the Rancho game to compete on even terms with their adversary. Game time is set for 8 p.m.

STATE FLAG—In honor of our State's birthday. We here proudly display the Nevada State Flag on this Nevada Day.

Today Nevada Celebrates 99 Years Of Statehood

by Rae Von Dornum
Today is the 99th birthday of the State of Nevada and has been proclaimed by Governor Grant Sawyer as Nevada Day, a legal holiday in our state.

Governor Sawyer urges that all Nevadans join in the ceremonies today in the State Capitol in Carson City which will be the focal point of Nevada's birthday celebration.

Governor Sawyer urges that the state offices be closed today and that the flags of our state and nation be prominently displayed.

Having determined that only two state flags will be flown in Henderson, we decided to display it on our front page in honor of the State of Nevada embarking on her hundredth year.

Until a few years ago it was very difficult to purchase a Nevada State flag. The late Rex Bell, then Lieutenant Governor of Nevada, took this up with the American Flag Company and since that time, the schools have been able to purchase Nevada flags from this company.

In our efforts to learn how many state flags would be flown here tomorrow, we called City Hall and learned that our City has no state flag but there was one at Basic High School.

Today we proudly display this flag on the front page of the Home News. It will be flying either at the High School or at the Junior High School.

The Nevada flag will also be flown at Valley View Elementary School where it has been flown daily, with our nation's flag, for the past three years. It is raised and lowered daily in a flag ceremony conducted by students at the school.

The state flag was officially adopted by legislative action March 6, 1929, and was described as follows: The body of the flag shall be cobalt blue. In the upper left quarter shall be two sprays of sage with stems crossed to form a half wreath. Within the sprays a five pointed silver star with one point up. The word Nevada shall also sprays, using the same type letters as Battle Born, to be inscribed in the following manner: At the upper point of the star the letter N with spaced between the points of the star. Above the wreath and touching the tips a scroll inscribed with the words Battle Born; the scroll to be golden yellow and the words black colored roman capital letters.

People Eaters And Beatniks Haunt Lady Eagles' Party

A hilarious evening of fun was enjoyed Monday by members and guests at the Eagles Auxiliary's Halloween party Monday night at the Eagles Hall. Visitors were Jo Wartman, Leona Span, Janet Lindley, Sandy Coleman and Berniece Kwicicen.

Prize for the most outstanding costume went to a group of four Purple People Eaters. Their costumes were made of burlap which had been dyed purple and they were described as "awful" with their hunched backs, pot bellies, hideous rubber masks and hands covered with rubber gloves with long claw-like finger nails.

Second place prize went to two "Beatniks" dressed as a man and a woman in all-black costumes. The lady wore black leotards and sweater, a black wig, and concealing glasses. The man wore black trousers and sweater, black cap and bushy beard and black mask over the eyes.

No one was able to identify the prize winners who, when unmasked, proved to be Belle Sanner, Jane Yeager, Winnie Fisher and Berniece Kwicicen as the Purple People Eaters and Evelyn Harris and Urballe Ives as the Beatnik lady and gentleman, respectively.

Other costumes included witches, clowns, Indians, hill billies, imps, a voodoo princess, a vampire lady and a robot monster from outer space.

A number of games were played, the one which caused the most excitement was a "Spook" game presented by Belle Sanner. This was presented in the dark and as Belle told a lurid tale of a dismembered corpse, the ladies felt objects in ten paper bags with a prize for the one guessing the most parts of the corpse concealed in the bags.

Billie Wieder was the best guesser. The ten bags contained real liver and brains for these parts of the body, spoons on a string for a spine, candy corn for teeth, prunes for big toes, Ing macaroni for intestines, and actual part of a joint.

Record of Bad Boy

A spectacular record of arrests for a recent visitor to Henderson, Lloyd Dorsey, 49, who was given 20 minutes to get out of town by Judge Earl Davis after he was arrested for drunk, was noted by Det. Sgt. Wilbur Perkins. Dorsey has chalked up 132 arrests where fingerprints were taken in 27 years. How many minor arrests he has incurred is not known. His record starts on October 15, 1936, and was to October 14, 1963 when he left Henderson.

He has been arrested in 18 states and in every state West of the Mississippi except Minnesota, Iowa and New Mexico. He has spent 630 days in jail; paid $893 in fines, and has had 364 1/2 days of suspended sentence. He has 7 1/2 years of probation, and has been arrested for drunkenness 95 times. He was arrested 12 times for vagrancy and 25 miscellaneous which includes mooching, pan handling and petty larceny.

California leads in arrests for Dorsey with 47. Scores for other states are Missouri 1; Oklahoma 2; Texas 3;

EDITORIAL WHO SHOULD BE ON THE CITY CHARTER COMMITTEE?

By MORRY ZENOFF

The time has arrived for the drafting of the constitution of Henderson.

It will be the design of living—in the form of a city charter—under which you and your family, me and my family, will live for the years to come. It must be designed right.

The right people must draft the framework. This is a call to action—of the people of this community to do the job by offering to serve as members of the official charter writing committee.

It will not be for a long term. It will be for say 90 days or so, and it will be time-consuming during that period.

It will be the most important period in the history of Henderson.

This newspaper herewith submits a list of names of local citizens who we feel are qualified to write the constitution. We intentionally left off the names of city council members—because we believe it is up to them to decide if they should want to draft the charter which they later may help run by re-filing for officers the no hold.

We suggest that Mr. Russ McDonald, an Oxford scholar, a native Nevanan, a lawyer, the official bill drafter for the legislator and the man who was called in by Boulder City to serve as the advisor and final author of the charter—he be hired immediately upon the election of 15 of the following qualified community citizens.

We urge and we pray that the following will offer to run for the charter-writing committee—for the best interests of this community's future:

view with a sponsor about to cancel his contract.

President Beverly Charlesworth, serving as Toastmistress in the absence of Sharon Jeffrey, introduced the speakers.

Topics were in the form of complaints with Topic mistress Verla Purdy serving in charge of the complaint department. As each member approached Mrs. Purdy's desk she was given her specific complaint in the form of a rebuttal by the complaint department.

Complaints included such items as, "having the fenders drop off your brand-new automobile; having the seams of your new dress split while you were at a public dance; having your bridge-work drop out while you were dining in public; and having the heel fall off your new and expensive shoe."

Horse Show Slated

Plans for the Boulder City Jaycees 6th annual horse show, to be held Nov. 30 and Dec. 1, got under way this week with the completion of negotiations with the Boulder City Horseman's Association for the lease of arena facilities.

Jaycee President Ray Nyman, in announcing the plans for the two day event, stated that the lease agreement with the association assures the Jaycees the use of the arena currently being constructed by the Horseman. Under the terms of the agreement the association will provide an arena in first class condition for the show.

As in the past the show has been registered with the Nevada State Horseman's Association and N.S.H.A. championship points will be awarded. The competition has been expanded over previous years and will include halter classes for the first time.

Highlight of the show will be the junior competition for the Kathleen Quinn Revolv-

Williams To Be Absent Monday Health Veto Action Doubtful

Unless City Councilman Wilbur Hardy can be won over to favor joining the County District Board of Health, the matter of overriding Mayor William Byrne's veto of action to join the district, will probably not be presented at next Monday night's regular Council session since Councilman Lorin Williams will be absent to represent the City at Southern Nevada Industrial Foundation meetings in the South.

Joining other state, county and city officials, Williams will attend a meeting in New Orleans, Louisiana, November 4, and Houston, Texas, November 6. The Council gave approval for the delegate to attend at the October 7 meeting.

Four Councilmen, Mrs. Ida Belle Riggins, Dale Roberts, ing Trophy. The trophy contributed by Mr. and Mrs. Joe Quinn of Tucson, Arizona is awarded annually to the high point contestant in the junior division.

The remum lists have been completed and will be mailed to former contestants this week. Entries close at midnight November 20. Information and entry forms can be obtained from Jaycee officers or show secretary, Ernst Kleespies.

Co-chairman for the annual vent are Jack Rants and Gordon Philbrook. Assisting as sub-committee chairman will be, Ray Nyman, awards; Henry Berti concessions; Norm Hodge, grounds; Fred Pendleton, promotion; George Wegren, admissions; and Ernst Kleespies, show secretary.

Dr. Paul T. Marshall and Williams, approved a motion to have the Mayor sign the resolution making the City of Henderson a member of the Health District prior to the next meeting of the City Council, however, on the fourth day after passage of the motion, the final day for a veto, the Mayor vetoed the action.

A 4-1 vote in favor of the motion would over-ride the veto, and Williams stated last Friday that he still favors joining the district if it would not hamper city business licenses. Mrs. Riggins said she still favored the action, as did Dale Roberts.

Councilman Wilbur Hardy, who served as chairman of the meeting when the motion to join the health district was passed and did not vote, said he feels that the City should have a legal opinion on just what the City is getting into if it signs the agreement.

Santa' Helpers Make Appeal For Dolls And Toys For Needy

One of Santa's finest and most dependable helpers is Red Southern of 402 Ilmenite Way. Each year, for many years, Mrs. Southern has cooperated in the Fire Department's repair and distribution of toys to children of needy families here by repairing and dressing dolls. Mrs. Southern is again making an appeal for dolls, which have been outgrown by their small owners or which are in need of repairs, to be used in this year's Christmas program. In addition to dolls, Mrs. Southern could also use thread, black, white or colored and almost any kind of buttons. This kind and generous lady, who spends so much of her time to bring happiness to others, reports that in past years the residents here have been most cooperative in donating dolls and materials for her doll repair shop. With the large increase in population she anticipates a greater need for toys and dolls this year and is hoping that the donations will meet the demand. The dolls can be delivered to Mrs. Southern's home or donors may call the Fire Department (565-8936), and they will be picked up. Be sure to include in donations, any odd pieces of dolls which you may find in the bottom of your own small daughter's toy box. Fire Chief Don Richards reports that anyone having toys which they wish to donate to the annual Christmas program for needy tots may deliver them to either the Townsite or Pittman fire station or call the Fire Department for pick-up. In these donations also, include spare wheels or other parts of toys, as very often it takes parts from several toys to rehabilitate one. All kinds of toys and games are acceptable for this program. After they are repaired and refinished, the toys will be delivered by Santa, who will take his tour around the city Christmas Eve in the fire truck.

Sign your own declaration of independence

You can do a lot for your independence—financially and personally—just by signing a slip of paper, like the one above, in your employer's office. The paper is an application for the Payroll Savings Plan. It authorizes your employer to set aside a small amount from your paycheck (you decide how much) towards the regular purchase of U.S. Savings Bonds. You hardly miss the money because you never see it. Your nest egg of Bonds builds up fast—automatically. And while your Bond dollars pile up to give you more financial independence in the future, they help guard your independence as a free American right now. These dollars help give America the strength it needs to stand up to the enemies of freedom. Why not tell your employer you want to join the Payroll Savings Plan—starting this payday?

And see if you don't feel pretty good about it when you sign your name.

- Quick facts about U.S. Savings Bonds
- You get $4 for every $3 at maturity
  - You can get your money anytime
  - Your Bonds are replaced free if lost, destroyed or stolen
  - You can buy Bonds on the Payroll Savings Plan

Safe Hunting—It's Up To You

Clogged and rusted barrels are the cause of many hunting accidents. Always be sure that the barrel and action of your gun are clear of obstruction before firing commences.

Never climb a tree or fence with a loaded gun. Always carry your gun so that you can control the direction of the muzzle even if you stumble.

No afterthought has the power to call back a careless bullet. Follow the advice of The House of Seagram which says that liquor has no place in the field. The time to enjoy fine whiskey is when the guns are empty and racked.

Never leave your gun unattended unless you unload it first. And when the hunting trip is over, carry only empty guns, taken down or with the action open, into your automobile, camp or home.

SCIENCE FACT & FABLE

PEOPLE HAVE PUT GREAT STOCK IN SOME ODD REMEDIES TO CURE THE COMMON COLD. SOME ENGLISH FARMERS USED THE ROSEMARY PLANT TO CONCOCT A TEA TO RID THEMSELVES OF THE SNIFFLES.

ANOTHER POPULAR REMEDY WAS THE VALERIAN PLANT, KNOWN TO ANCIENTS AS "ALL HEAL."

THE BEST EFFORTS OF SCIENCE HAVE NOT YET SOLVED THE MYSTERY OF THE COMMON COLD. MEANWHILE, IF YOU GET A COLD, YOU SHOULD SEE YOUR DOCTOR, GET PLENTY OF REST, AND DRINK MANY FLUIDS. CERTAIN DECONGESTANT COLD CAPSULES SUCH AS CORYBAN-D, HELP EASE HEADACHES, RELIEVE CONGESTION AND OTHER COLD ANNOYANCES.

IT'S A FACT!

Of all creatures who lived 200,000,000 years ago, only the cockroach (most primitive of the winged insects) has survived—virtually unchanged. As large and powerful as dinosaurs were, they lacked the adaptability to survive in a changing world.

Entomologists estimate that there are as many insects in every square mile of earth's surface as there are humans on the entire planet. Ask any home gardener — he'll surely verify this fact.

Insects, weeds, drought, poor soil and disease can play havoc with your lawn and garden—but none can do more damage in a short time than insects. Spectracide (Diazinon insecticide), a broad-range insecticide, provides positive control of chinch bugs, lawn moths, grasshoppers, ants and Bermuda mites. Spectracide will also control most destructive insects on your roses, and other ornamental shrubs, trees and flowers.

The Birds captured their seventh straight victory last Friday night, 26-14 over the Gorman Gaels in the Homecoming game.

Boulder trailed 14 - 12 at the half but staged a comeback in the second half for the third time this season.

The powerful Eagles with fullback David Slack, halfbacks David Belding and Ronnie Beard and quarter back Bob Rignell racking up the yardage gained on 363 yards on the ground and 14 first downs rushing.

Boulder lost Rignell and safety man Sammy Gutierrez late in the game. Rignell was rejected and Gutierrez suffered a knee injury.

The game Nov. 8 with Cedar City winds up the schedule with the south state play-off slated for Nov. 15.

B 1-24 caps City Manager la Mayor Albert Franklin announced today that the city council will be in executive session all day Saturday screening applications for the city manager position. It will convene at 9 a. m. in the council chambers.

Franklin states that 49 men have applied for the job from practically every state in the union. California led in number.

Salaries being received or expected fall in the $10,000-$13,000 bracket. The council expects to narrow the group down to 10 and then request that they come to Boulder City for private interviews.

Those rejected will be kept on file and letters of thanks will be written them. Franklin estimates that any overlapping of salaries between the new manager and that of former City Manager Curtis Blyth will be in effect only a short time. Blyth resigned in September with his salary continuing until Dec. 31. City Engineer Charles Brechler has been acting city manager with Blyth in an advisory capacity.

Safety Rules Vital at Home Pools

This happy family group seems to be getting full enjoyment out of inexpensive, new home swimming pool complete with both house. Life rings are valuable added safety feature. National Swimming Pool Institute, however, cautions against use of inflatable toys by youngsters unless they are good swimmers or are closely watched. Industry group points out they can give false sense of security when not used under responsible supervision.

All About Doga
BY Nikki Hartzell
Hi everybody! Hope you missed me. Thought I had enough columns ahead to cover my hunting vacation but what with two columns appearing in the same paper and then our getting snowed in at the deer camp, I can't seem to get caught up.
You know, I feel like Blondie of the "Dagwood and Blondie" comic strip—"Sometime I just must stay home and see what goes on when I am away!" I am not too sure whether I should admit to owning the black and tan male Doberman Pinscher and the blue female Great Dane. I understand they kept Doctor Carol Whitmoyer, our Boulder City veterinarian, quite busy rounding them up.
"Chance", my ten year old Doberman who should know better, just couldn't resist enlarging a hole in the gate of one of the runs. This hole had been made previously by a small dog and Doctor Carol and myself assumed it would not have any appeal to my big clowns. As it turned out, we could never have been more mistaken! Once they discovered they could get out of one run, they ate their way through the chain link on a second run.
It wasn't that they did not like Doctor Whitmoyer or even wanted to come home—they just like people and discovered the joy of visiting all the business establishments in the neighborhood. Especially the tavern next door where they got for handouts.
The Dobe had been previously trained not to jump over fences or dig, but I seemed to have goofed by omitting training him not to eat his way out. I apologize to all who were inconvenienced and thank Don Glaseman for having the courage to return my errant ones to their proper quarters a few times.
By the way, we did get one deer on our hunting expedition and Lou and Bill Palmer, who camped with us each got one. Had a grand time and hope to get in at least one more weekend hunt before the season closes.
Camped right next to us, and also snowed in for an extra stay in the "Rubys", were Nate and Ruth Rice, Larry and Jody Anthous, Bill and Marge Hober with their son Wayne and last but far from least Dick Henson and his sons Larry and Dennis.

DARLENE SOLOMON ENGAGED

Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Walden of 59 East Basic Road have announced the engagement of their daughter, Darlene Solomon, to Robert E. Friedrichs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer A. Friedrichs of 132 Continental Street.

The bride-to-be was graduated from Basic High School with the class of 1962. She was active in FHA, Drama Club, Chorus and a member of the Sun Youth Forum, All School Talent Show and Junior Class play. She was attendant at the Sweetheart Reverse.

Miss Solomon is presently employed as an IBM key-punch operator for Reynolds Electric Company at Mercury.

Her fiancé attended Boulder City High School where he was active in the Letterman's Club. He transferred to Basic for his senior year and was graduated with the class of 1962. He was a member of the chorus and the Sun Youth Forum.

Also active in the Civil Air Patrol, he was a member of the international air cadet exchange. He is employed as a radiological technician at the Nevada Test Site at Mercury. The wedding is scheduled for December 7, at Grace Community Church in Boulder City. After a honeymoon trip to Acapulco, Mexico, the young couple will make their home in Las Vegas.

KELLER - CODDING MASTERPOINT BRIDGE WINNERS

Lee Keller and Maude Coddington were first place winners of the Basic Bridge Club masterpoint game. Lucille Salter and Mildred Downing were second, Davada Duncan and Miriam Giles third, Carmen Petersen and Steve Turner fourth.

Basic Bridge Club meets each Thursday evening at 7:45 p.m. at 548 Burton Street. All area bridge enthusiasts are invited to attend. For partnership arrangements phone 564-9563, Miriam Giles, teacher-director.

The American Legion and Basic Bridge Club will sponsor a new series of basic bridge lessons beginning Monday, November 4, 7 p.m. at the American Legion Hall in Las Vegas. Each lesson will be followed by a duplicate bridge game restricted to advanced players playing with a student of the game. Davada Duncan, Lee Keller and Maude Coddington were introduced as first time visitors to the club.

EASTERN STARS HOLD 2ND OFFICER INSTALLATION HERE

The 32nd installation was held last Friday night, by Desert Chapter, No. 22. Order of Eastern Star, in the Masonic Temple. Mrs. Lyn Rodgers was installed worthy matron and Wilfred T. Voss was installed worthy patron.

Mrs. Gayle Havrilla and Nicholas Havrilla, junior past matron and patron, presided over the opening ceremonies with Mrs. Havrilla giving the address of welcome.

The past matron and patron introduced and had seated in the East the following distinguished guests: associate grand matron, Helen Askew, and associate grand patron, Thirmon Parsons; grand treasurer, Ann Dohrenwend; Gladys Sweet, grand representative to Michigan; worthy matron, Southgate, Wilber grand marshal, Zoe Overbey, installing grand chaplain, Lillian Honeycutt, installing grand secretary, Miriam Burkholder, installing grand organist.

The Bible Bearer was Judy Ann Laughery, and the Bible Escorts were Vickie Ellsworth, and Nancy Lyn Laughery.

The worthy matron chose for her colors for the coming year, blue, white or silver, in honor of the Nevada Centennial year, and yellow or gold. Her watch words and emblems are Sincerity, with the star, and Faith, with the anchor. Yellow roses carry out her color theme with the gold star and the silver, blue, and white anchors.

Officers installed for the coming year were: Lyn Rodgers, worthy matron, and Wilfred T. Voss, worthy patron. Ida Mae Williams will be associate matron, and Douglas Robinson will be associate patron.

The secretary is Marjory Prunty, and treasurer, Mabel Gilmore with conductress Dianne Bergemeyer, and associate conductress, Helen Relham.

Phillips Named Assistant At Bureau of Reclamation

William L. Phillips, a 29-year Federal service veteran and Regional Personnel Officer here the past seven years, has been appointed Assistant to the Regional Director for the Bureau of Reclamation's Region 3 in the Pacific Southwest.

Regional Director A. B. West announced Phillips' selection for the newly created key position here today. Phillips was chosen under the Bureau of Reclamation's merit promotion system from applicants throughout the nation because of his long and outstanding career in administrative positions West said.

The position was created to meet the needs of the Bureau of Reclamation's expanding water resources investigations, construction, operation and maintenance program in the lower Colorado River basin, and adjacent areas in Region 3, he explained.

Phillips will serve as principal adviser to Director West for administrative management at all levels of the regional organization engaged in the planning, design, construction, operation and maintenance of irrigation, municipal and industrial water, hydroelectric power and other related multipurpose water and land resource development within Region 3.

Phillips' background of 17 years of personnel and management administration in Region 3 has qualified him well for the new position," West stated. "The Bureau of Reclamation is indeed fortunate to have the benefit of his experience and ability in meeting the complex management and organizational problems connected with its expanded activities."

Except for service as an officer in the U. S. Army during World War II from January 1942 to April 1946, Phillips has been with the Department of the Interior since January 1935. He received his education in business and public administration at Brigham Young University, Provo, Utah, and at George Washington University, Washington, D. C. He joined the Bureau of Reclamation's Region 3 Personnel Branch in Boulder City immediately upon his release from the Army in 1946, serving as Assistant until his appointment as Regional Personnel Officer in July 1956.

NEW LAS VEGAS HOME OFFICE BUILDING

PIONEER TITLE INSURANCE COMPANY OF NEVADA

Nevada's oldest, most dependable Title Insurance Company

Six decades can bring a lot of changes. But we at Pioneer Title are pleased to look back and see that most of our changes have been in appearance and size only—NOT in our basic services. These simply have grown. In 1962, we built a modern office building in Reno. Pictured above is our new home office now under construction in Las Vegas. And so the best meaning of our past is what it gives our future—enabling us to continue to provide Nevada's most dependable, only statewide title service.

VAUD LARSON GLEN CANYON FIELD CHIEF

The appointment of Vaud E. Larson as Chief of the new Glen Canyon Field Division was announced at Salt Lake City recently by F. M. Cointon, Regional Director, Region 4, Bureau of Reclamation. "With the construction of Glen Canyon Dam nearing completion and the installation of generating units in the powerhouse going ahead rapidly, Mr. Larson's appointment to head the organization to operate and maintain Glen Canyon Dam and Powerplant is now necessary and timely," Regional Director Clinton said.

L. F. Wylie, Project Construction Engineer for Glen Canyon Dam, will continue in charge of all construction activities involved in completing Glen Canyon Dam and Powerplant. Larson will head the newly established operations organization which will gradually take over as construction is completed. A Chief of the new Glen Canyon Field Division, Larson will be responsible to the Project Manager at the CRSP Power Operations office now under construction at Montrose, Colorado, which will be the central dispatching and operations center for the five-state CRSP Interconnected Transmission System.

Larson will also handle the management of the City of Page, Arizona, located at Glen Canyon Dam. The Bureau of Reclamation now administers the city government of Page, a community largely built by the Federal Government for housing of workers and others involved in construction of Glen Canyon Dam. The Federal Government intends to transform Page, Arizona, from a government-operated town to a city incorporated under the laws of the State of Arizona at the earliest appropriate time.

Canyon Dam and is therefore quite familiar with all features of the dam and powerplant which he will be operating.

Larson, a native of Utah, graduated from Utah State University in 1930 as a Civil Engineer. His first job was as a Junior Engineer on the Bureau of Reclamation's Minidoka Project in southern Idaho. As a planning engineer at the Bureau of Reclamation office in Phoenix, Arizona, Larson made some of the early engineering surveys that lead to the selection of the site for Glen Canyon Dam.

"With 33 years of broad planning and construction experience as a career employee of the Bureau of Reclamation, Larson is a fine selection to head the Glen Canyon Field Division," Regional Director Clinton said. Clinton further noted that Mr. Larson was Assistant Regional Director for the Bureau of Reclamation's Region 3 office in Boulder City, Nevada, during the time when that Government community near Hoover Dam was transferred to the status of a private municipality under Nevada state laws. In addition Larson has been Assistant Project Construction Engineer for Glen

CASINO SIGN HIT BY TRUCK

It wasn't an elephant that shoved the Railroad Pass Casino's sign so badly out of shape. It was bent by the corner of a big truck driven by a hungry man. Howard L. Linsley of Costa Mesa, Calif., driver for Global Van Lines, pulled his truck up close to the front of the Casino preparing to park it when he heard an awful lot of noise and felt the sign collide with his truck.

Estimated damage to the sign was judged to be about $750. Apparently all this didn't spoil Linsley's appetite as he reportedly ordered a good-sized meal after the excitement died down. The accident occurred Sunday, October 13 about 9:00 p.m.

but where's the money going to come from?"

See us. There's more where this came from.

Isn't there something you'd love to get—or do—if you had the money? Sure there is.

Well, why not use our money?

You can get a Bank of Nevada loan for almost anything you could think of. Bank loans aren't limited to "important" purchases like cars or homes. You name it, and chances are we can help you get it.

Perhaps you're wondering, "Is it hard to get a loan from Bank of Nevada?"

The answer is no, not when you're known as a person who pays his bills, and you have the ability to repay the money in reasonable installments.

(By the way, that's one reason we encourage people to do all their banking at a full-service bank like Bank of Nevada. If you have checking and savings accounts at the same bank, it's easier to borrow money when you want it—the people at the bank already know you.)

At Bank of Nevada, we think it's a shame to let money stand between you and the things you want. That's why we have a Loan Department. It's another way we help you get the things you want.

So, if there's something you'd love to get—if you had the money—remember this: we have the money. And we'd love to help you.

The Third Stool

My feelin's are hurt, a feller sent me a letter by mail the other day an told me to take my column an go jump in the lake with it. I wish them kinda folks wud sign their names. I don't know which column he means, becauz I've wrote a whole bunch of 'em.

It ain't the jumpin' in the lake part that bothers me but I wud like to know who I'm doin' it fer. Well, bub, you jest keep on readin' 'em an I'll keep on writin' 'em, o.k.?

I ain't sure but I think Morry told me to cover the football game we had here last Friday night. I kept tellin' him I don't know nothin' about football and am gettin' too old to learn. He sez to try and make it anyway becauz them boys are a real nice bunch of fellas an deserve a whole lot of attention. Well, Morry, we went, an I'm tellin you them fellers that wuz dressed in pajama tops and golf pants shuld never be permitted on the field.

Evertime the players wuz fightin' over that lil ole ball these fellers wud rush in an take it away frum 'em an' the excitement wud stop.

Mama sez we had better get to the game at least a half hour early so we cud get a seat. I'm glad she came up with that idea becauz that's jest about all the time we used it.

The rest of the time wuz spent gettin' up and down. About the only time we stayed put wuz when a couple of fellers frum each team met in the middle of the field, shook hands and started to flip a coin to pass the time till the game starts.

Them fellers that had them pajama tops and golf pants on wuz in on that too. The players cudn't do nothin' without them fellers stickin' their nose in it. If I wuz a coach I betcha they wudden't be on the field at the next game.

If one wuzen't throwin' a red rag in the air, the other one wuz. All they done wuz add confusion to the whole thing.

One of these guys kinda reminded me of a councilman, it didn't make no difference wot decision he made one side or the other wuz ready to jump on him.

I heard the announcer say sumpin' about one of the fella's eatin' the ball. I wish my son wud eat a couple durin' the game, maybe he wudden't hit the ice box so heavy when he comes home.

I picked the wrong end of them seats to set on. Most of the plain went on clear outta sight. We wuz lucky fer awhile, they played right in front of us but somebody spoiled it by shootin' a pistol an' turnin' a little red light on that they had on their sign board at the other end of the field they went.

An' talk about numbers, I ain't seen so many since my last game of Keno. They had dem scattered all over the place. Up one side of the field an down the other, on each players back, they even had the sign board fixed to where they could be changed. I think it's a good idea to teach em about numbers while they are still in school becauz jest the minute they get out an start workin or doin anything they have to trade their name fer one. I felt kinda sorry fer one of our players that got hurt.

A couple of fellers carried him off of the field an' stretched him out on a bench and then stood in front of him so he couldn't watch the next play. I guess he figured the only way to see the in there an play an that's jest wot he done.

All at once every player left the field an' I started to leave too but mama sez, sit down, this is jest half of it. That made me feel better becauz I noticed he numbers wuz different on the sign board after the other half wuz played.

That same feller shot the pistol again an everybody went home, includin me.

I want to be a star reporter so bad an, Morry, if I didn't cover this game to suit you, jest let me know an' we will correct some things before you go to press.

I wish they wud leave the dad-gum time alone, this is Sunday nite an I've been up since 2:00 a.m. I got up to change the clock an never cud go back to sleep.

Good - nite
Al Langley
P. S. Don't you papa and mama Elk's forget the Halloween party fer your kiddies to - nite. 6:30 p.m.

Home Buyers Have Access To Unique Credit Program

Nevada home buyers have been granted home loans totaling over a million dollars through the help of the Voluntary Home Mortgage Credit Program, and now have access to a sizable new source of money, according to J. G. Melville, Regional Administrator of the Housing and Home Finance Agency in San Francisco.

The Voluntary Home Mortgage Credit Program is a unique organization within the Housing and Home Finance Agency which assists potential home buyers in small cities and towns to locate funds for FHA-insured and VA-guaranteed loans.

John G. Anderson, representative of the VHMCP in the Western United States, states that 94 loans totaling $1,141,100 had been placed in Nevada since the program started.

With the entry of a large insurance company into VHMCP participation in Nevada, Anderson says his program will have better lender support in such communities as Boulder City, Carson City, Elko, Eureka, Fernley, Fallon, Hawthorne, Lovelock, Minden, Reno, Sparks, Winnemucca and other Nevada towns.

Nevada counties have received the largest volume of loans have been: Washoe, $443,000; Churchill, $290,000, and Clark, $221,000.

The program is a unique partnership between private industry and the Federal Government.

The system works as follows:

An applicant unable to get an FHA or VA loan from a local lending source contacts the VHMCP office in San Francisco. Information and application forms are furnished promptly. When the prospective borrower returns the application forms to the VHMCP office, the application is referred to banks, savings and loan associations, insurance companies and other mortgage lending facilities. The lender who accepts the application negotiates directly with the applicant or his real estate broker.

Both veterans and non-veterans unable to obtain long-term Government-backed loans may apply, as may members of minority groups.

Information and application forms may be received by writing:

John G. Anderson, Executive Secretary, Voluntary Home Mortgage Credit Program, 989 Market Street, Room 323, San Francisco 3, California.

YMCA Studies Feasibility Of

A committee of around a dozen local citizens are gathering data concerning the City to present to the YMCA group in Las Vegas for an evaluation to be made to see if it would be feasible to establish a YMCA here.

According to Bob Dietrich, who served as temporary chairman, the information concerned the population of the city, number of children in school; age classification of the youngsters; the recreation activities of the city and how many youngsters participate, and church membership.

Dietrich complimented the Las Vegas group of the YMCA, stating that they had a real desire to help Henderson in the establishment of a YMCA. They have offered to furnish advice and supervision, technical assistance for organizing an association, and possibly some of their personnel.

Dietrich explained that

SIX LOCAL MEN RELEASED FROM ARMED FORCES

Six local men were among 87 Nevadans released from the Armed Forces during the past six weeks, it was announced by Major General James A. May, State Director of Selective Service.

Released from the U. S. Navy were, James O. Frei, 138 Grove Street; Robert L. Enright, 6-A Allen Project, Victory Village; Anthony B. Broyles, 4-C Allen Project, Victory Village; and Joseph A. Mills, 321 Lake Mead Drive.

David E. Gailey, 300 Park Avenue and Maurice T. Kinsey, 230 Nebraska Street, were released from the U.S. Air Force.

Establishing Local Branch

feels that it can supplement the city program to provide more activities for the citizens of the city.

"My hope is that between the two, the City Recreation and the YMCA, we can come up with a better program for the youngsters," Dietrich said.

The survey and the study of it to decide if it can be accomplished, will take time. Dietrich said.

Senate Whip Says Reduce Taxes Now

By Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D., Minn.)
U.S. Senate Majority Whip

Tax reduction is necessary now. The essential reason is that this nation still has about five million men and women unemployed. This is a personal tragedy for each one of the jobless citizens.

Our unemployment rate also offers proof that the economy is not growing and expanding fast enough to achieve and maintain full employment and full use of our plant capacity.

The $11 billion tax cut program means that $11 billion will be freed to go to work on our economy—to boost purchasing power, to increase production, to create jobs for all citizens, and ultimately to strengthen the United States with a more sound economic basis.

The basic reason for excessive unemployment is that economic activity is not expanding rapidly enough—that our economy is not growing fast enough—to use our productive resources fully.

Let none of us believe for a moment that only the unemployed are hurt by idle manpower and plant production. The Council of Economic Advisors tells us that our annual rate of production is now $30 to $40 billion short of maximum production; other economists estimate it higher.

Taking the midpoint of competent estimates, we have during the past decade, in consequence of the low economic growth, forfeited about $330 billion worth of total production.

In other words, we wasted that amount of money. Waste anywhere should not be condoned. However, the waste of manpower and plant capacity to the tune of $300 billion in 10 years is unpardonable.

Let us not forget that this is production, these wages and these jobs are irretrievably lost regardless of what action the 88th Congress takes in regard to tax reduction.

What is wrong with our economic thinking and action? We are acting, in our economy, as if the age of automation had not arrived. We are acting, in our economic structure, as if the rate of investment should remain as it was 20 years ago. Everyone knows these conditions no longer prevail.

Where we are today is the platform from which we shall grow slowly or vigorously in the years ahead. A midpoint of competent estimates is that, if the economic performance of the past decade is repeated, we could forfeit during the next four years another 16 million man-years of employment opportunity and another $206 billion worth of total national production. In that event, by 1966, unemployment could be a full 50 percent higher than it is now.

The reduction of unemployed, the acceleration of economic growth is a positive goal. It reflects our awareness that, with new science and the new technology, we can within a few short years solve "the most pressing economic problem" in the United States.

Those who say that Congress will not act on tax reduction this year are engaging in political maneuvering and tricks of propaganda. The leaders of Congress do not accept such cynical assessments. We do not believe Congress and the Nation are so naive or indifferent that they will ignore the tax reduction program.

We have now within our grasp the opportunity for every American citizen to live a secure, challenging, productive and meaningful life.

With such possibilities within our grasp, Congress should need no marching orders. We know what must be done. And now is the time to get on with it.

HAWAII UNVEILS MODEL FOR N.Y. WORLD'S FAIR

The Hawaii Exhibit model for the New York World's Fair 1964-65 has now been unveiled in Honolulu. The overall theme is "Aloha," the universally recognized Hawaiian expression of friendship.

The main entrance will be guarded by an eighty foot high Akua Tower illuminated at night by flaming torches.

The Meadow Lake frontage of 543 feet will contain the layout of an ancient Hawaiian village (center right) which will portray village life and crafts before the white men came and an open air amphitheatre for entertainment, "the Aloha Theatre."

A round-roofed building shelters the Industrial displays in a 5,000 square foot central area. Behind it will be several shops sheltered in a fan-shaped building with an undulating roof.

The five stunted towers (upper left in this picture) are part of the roof area of the Restaurant of the Five Volcanoes while the large hexagonal-roofed building (upper right) is the Aloha Theme Pavilion containing exhibits which are to trace the history and cultural development of Hawaii over a thousand years.

The Exhibit will cover 109,200 square feet (2 1/2 acres) and will cost nearly $3 million.

Picture of Progress

The first three-engine transport built in the U. S. since the thirties, American Airlines' 727 Astrojet, lines up alongside the most famous of the earlier airplanes, a Ford Tri-Motor. Occasion was the rollout at Renton, Wash., of the first of 25 Boeing jetliners to be delivered to American for service beginning early in 1964. The 600 mile an hour airliner, the nation's newest, will seat more than 90 passengers. The Ford shown here was built in 1929 and flew for American's immediate predecessor, American Airways, from 1931 to 1935. A year ago, the company repurchased and restored the airplane and it has been visiting airports throughout the country. Eventually it will be presented to the Smithsonian Institution's National Air Museum to be built in Washington, D. C.

 Raisin Bran Flake Cereal Sticks

Raisin Bran Flake Sticks are Muffins in a Fun Shape—
 Muffins made with bran flakes or raisin bran flakes are a popular breakfast treat, and with reason. The texture is firm yet tender. When broken, they do not scatter crumbs. The color, flavor and eating quality all fulfill the requirements of a good 'breakfast' bread. When baked in corn stick pans as a change from regular muffin cups, bran muffins are a gay food that will please the family and make the breakfast table attractive. All breakfast cereals are excellent for ingredient use in recipes because they are inexpensive, convenient, and make nutritional contributions of protein, important B vitamins, essential minerals and food energy.

Bran Muffin Sticks
 1 cup sifted flour 1 egg, beaten
 2 1/2 teaspoons baking powder 1/4 cup milk
 1/2 teaspoon salt 1/4 cup melted shortening
 1/2 cup sugar 1 1/2 cups bran flakes or raisin bran flakes

Sift together flour, baking powder, salt and 1/4 cup sugar. Combine egg, milk and slightly cooled shortening. Add to flour mixture, stir only until dry ingredients are moistened. Fold in bran flakes, being careful not to overmix. Fill well-greased corn stick pans 3/4 full. Sprinkle top of each muffin stick with sugar. Bake in hot oven (400° F) until done, 10 to 12 minutes. Yield: 12 muffin sticks.

COUNTRY STORE BIGGEST EVER ANNUAL EVENT DRAWS HUNDREDS

By Barbara O'Kelley

October 24 was a special day. It was the opening of the Grace Community Church's Country Store and it was a whopping success!

Many who attended that day will insist the word 'whopping' should be changed to 'crushing'.

Using the 'power of the press' I got into the sale rooms early. The variety of stuff for sale was amazing. There were framed pictures, matching curtain and bed-spread sets, hand-painted ties hidden from view for years were there, lovely old and recent fashionable clothing, roller skates, radios, toy revolvers, jewelry, shoes, holiday decorations, records, a sleeper couch, bathroom fixtures, stoves and even the proverbial kitchen sink.

Then ten o'clock came. How could one tell without looking at your watch it was time for the sale to begin? Easy! You couldn't move. Suddenly you were surrounded by people of all sizes and shapes looking at items as varied as themselves.

Always cool under pressure I immediately grabbed a load of goodies and headed for the saleslady. So did everyone else. Then back we all went for more.

Ladies, I tried to get to a lovely white squaw dress I saw for sale but it disappeared before I could move. Oh, well, there was a cute knit suit hanging there. I let go when I found there were two others holding on to it. Let them arm wrestle it all. 'Sides they were both stronger than me.

One lady emerged with her arms piled high with clothes; said she wanted to buy that doghouse outside next. She was too late. Another one found a baby bed she wanted. On her way to the saleslady she simply filled the bed with items too valuable to pass by.

The men were there too. One found a lamp he'd needed and his wife was delighted. The lampshade would fit perfectly with their present decor.

One young boy bought a man's old suit jacket for one cent during his school lunch hour. He took it to a friend who is a painter by trade and sold it to him for a dollar. Both were happy. One will be warm when he paints, this winter, the other could now buy more loot.

The little kids were overwhelmed with it all and stayed close to Mama hanging to her skirt in desperation. One was bumped loose and down by the crowd but in a flash she was back on her feet with a vise rip on the mother's skirt she thought. It wasn't Mother. She suddenly realized this and grabbed her own Mother tightly around one leg, then set down to Mother's foot. Now let the crowds crowd. She was safe and secure she knew.

The toy department was just as popular as everything else — jammed. Chemistry sets, ladies purses, games, dolls, rocking horses, they simply melted away. The grab bags vanished too. Halloween costumes, hula skirts, airplanes.....wow, did they disappear fast! The toy shop was such a success it was completely sold out the first day.

On to the plants. Ever hear of a Christmas Cactus? It resembles a short string of leaves joined together and ironed flat. Supposed to bloom at Christmas time. Never saw one before but I own one now. And a parsley plant and a water plant shaped like fat modern sculpture with lovely fern-like roots. There were many kinds of plants for sale, including blooming rose bushes.

Next to the bakery and there too everything was selling almost as fast as it came in. The refreshment booth was busy as tired shoppers came for a cup of coffee and pie to recharge them for the next fray.

Checked with Mrs. Mae Hudson who was in charge of the whole thing on the evening of the 25th and asked if she had any comments to pass along to the general public.

She took a look around the huge hall nearly vacant now with its empty boxes. "Yes," she said "please say that we of Country Store would like to thank all of Southern Nevada for their support in making this a most successful affair. Each chairman I've talked to has given me a glowing report. So much was sold by 9 p.m. of the first day we were amazed. We are completely sold out of almost everything. The clothing that is left will be given to the Navajo Indians."

Launch Your Clean-Up Campaign

A girl can do herself a real service by launching a personal clean-up and fresh-up campaign, becoming accustomed to its routine before facing college or the first job interview. Cleanliness and freshness are important ingredients of the new natural look.

A basic course in laundry at the home washbasin and automatic washer pays off. The chemical sleight of hand which produces fabric-safe, dry chlorine bleach and detergents makes it easy to keep gloves, socks, lingerie and blouses startling white or, if colored, sparkling bright. These laundry aids are conveniently pre-measured and pre-packaged for sessions at the automatic washer.

Today's natural look starts in person with a soap and water facial, and with a wash and easy-to-set hair style. A plastic portable hair dryer with vinyl bouffant bonnet reduces hair-do time to minutes. Lightweight and quiet, it goes practically anywhere and does not interfere with studying, manicuring or phone calls.

Scores of products have been specially formulated to help a girl achieve her goal to look and feel her loveliest. Deodorant soaps, shampoos, face powders and cleansing lotions are available. These, used regularly, check bacteria, known to cause skin irritations and infections. Bacteria are also the major source of perspiration odor.

The State of Being Young

I do not ask that you grow old too soon.

Your shoulders should not carry world affairs.

For time adjusts the child in such a way

That, overnight, we find a grownup there.

But, noting that a weakened dam will break

And water - trickle turn to raging sound

Of devastating flood that sweeps along

With no regard, when once the wall is down;

Then wisely "think before you take one step,

You might begin to run and never stop;

Think "well" before some small delinquent act

Has changed your "debut chance" into a flop.

The time will come when you must take a stand.

Deciding for yourself which way to go.

You may feel hurt some gang has passed you by—

But you'll be strong because you can say "No!"

So always keep your standards polished bright.

And choose your friends with care to share your cup;

But if you see someone along the way

Who needs a hand — reach down and help him up.

And try to have more patience with your folks

In thought and talk and all you try to do.

I think it's hard to realize sometimes

That "Mom" and "Pop" are only humans, too.

Now let this time of youth be yours alone.

An unaffected, natural, happy day.

With school and church and your fair share of work,

(And extra portions full of laugh and play.)

Enjoy while you can this gift of God.

For youth is kin indeed to grass and sun.

To you belongs the treasure-chest of dreams.

And silver-dusted night when day is done.

Wayne Kirch Details of Polar Bear Hunting

(Editor's note — Wayne Kirch, pioneer Southern Nevada and a member of the state's Fish & Game Commission for years, not too long ago invited me to take a trip to hunt polar bears in the Arctic. I chickened out for obvious reasons and I've never heard the last of it. I recently asked Wayne to write about what I missed—and following is his story, via a letter and a picture — M.M. Zenoff)

Dear Morry:

Enclosed you will find a photograph of myself and the polar bear I filled in March approximately 150 miles out on the ice from Kotzebue, Alaska. The other gentleman in the picture is Mr. A. Bishoff, of the Bishoff Taxidermy Studio in Los Angeles, who personally did the taxidermy work on this trophy.

My purpose in sending you this picture and writing this letter is more or less to needle you just a little bit in the friendly manner because as you will recall, I invited you to accompany me on this trip and at one time you were seriously contemplating making the trip with me. For your information, you have missed a wonderful experience and I would like to point out some of the experiences we enjoyed on this trip.

First off, our flight to Alaska started on an Electra Jet here in Las Vegas on Western Airlines, and upon our arrival in Los Angeles, we transferred to United Airlines superjet nonstop for Seattle, and after a wait of ten minutes, we boarded Alaska Airlines Golden Jet for Fairbanks. We left Las Vegas after a slight delay in schedule at approximately 2:30 and at 10 o'clock that same night arrived in Fairbanks, Alaska. The temperature when we left Las Vegas was in the 80's and when we arrived in Fairbanks it was 28 degrees below zero.

We intended to spend one day in Fairbanks to complete our outfit before departing for Kotzebue. However, due to aircraft mechanical difficulty incurred by Wein Airlines, we were forced to stay two additional days in Fairbanks. This afforded us time to attend the Winter Carnival in Fairbanks where we witnessed a beauty parade complete with all the trimmings at 26 below zero, and the beauties were garbed in parkas and colorful fur attire rather than the usual Las Vegas bathing suits. The entire parade was very colorful and we were fortunate in being present and assisting in the judging of the final contestants for the beauty pageant. Knowing your great talents in this connection, I am sure you would have fitted in exceptionally well on this occasion.

We also witnessed the finals of the Women's Division of the North American Sled Dog Champion Races and I was especially amazed at the skill and endurance of the ladies who participated in this rugged sport. We were fortunate we saw the race where the world's record for women contestants was broken.

Following our stay in Fairbanks, we departed via Wein Airlines for Nome where we stayed for approximately one-half day and had ample opportunity to photograph the entire city and to make numerous acquaintances. Also, we flew over the Ne-nanna River, the site of the largest and the original ice pool waging in Alaska. We also flew almost the entire length of the Yukon River and crossed the Yukon Kuskoquim Delta country which, historically, has been the source of most of the water fowl production for the Pacific flyway states. You have no idea of the amount of water that the Yukon River carries or the abundance of water fowl habitat in this area between Fairbanks and Nome. Even though it was completely frozen at this time, it was a wonderful opportunity to see the country which has been so important to conservationists these many years.

I might also state that we had the site of the proposed Rampart Dam pointed out to us by the pilot of our airplane. It would appear to me that to complete a dam in this area would be an almost insurmountable undertaking due to the remoteness of the area and the adverse weather to be encountered most of the year.

From Nome to Kotzebue is a flight by F27 Prop Jet of approximately one hour and ten minutes. Upon our arrival at Kotzebue, we landed on a runway completely covered by ice and snow, and the temperature was approximately 30 below zero. The weather during our entire flight from Fairbanks to Kotzebue was clear and afforded us the opportunity to take many wonderful pictures. There are no roads in Kotzebue and the only motor vehicles in the vicinity are those of the Federal Government engaged in air force, defence and Dew Line activities plus a couple of privately owned vehicles, one of which is the village taxicab, and one four-wheel drive pickup owned by the Alaska State Policeman stationed in Kotzebue who, by the way, is a brother-in-law of Zel Lowman of Las Vegas. I made his acquaintance upon leaving Kotzebue and made a portion of my return trip to Fairbanks with him. He has probably the largest area to police anywhere in the United States, his territory encompassing some two thousand square miles.

We met our guide and outfitter, Tommy Thompson, at the airport and he informed us that weather permitting, we would embark on our polar bear hunt the following morning. Upon our arrival the following morning, the weather was clear and extremely cold and we left Kotzebue at approximately 6:30 a.m. flying in two Piper Cub aeroplanes outfitted with skis and the entire baggage compartment loaded with extra gasoline and emergency gear, also including heating equipment to assist in starting the aeroplanes if it became necessary to stop the engines. We flew out towards Siberia approximately one hundred miles at an altitude of approximately five hundred feet where we descended to approximately one hundred feet and started hunting for polar bear tracks in the snow and ice.

Just a word to describe this area. It is entirely a jumble of packed ice anywhere from two to five feet thick and it is extremely difficult to find a place to land an aeroplane after a bear is sighted. The area that we were flying is known as the Chukchi Sea. If you will look on a map of Alaska, you will see that this is north of the Arctic Circle between Russia and Alaska, and most of our hunting was done closer to Siberia than to Alaska.

We sighted eleven bears the first day and I shot the seventh one that we saw, which I am sure, was the largest bear that we saw all day. We hurriedly skinned the bear and loaded the hide in the aeroplane and flew back to Kotzebue where the native women and children complete the job of fleshing out the hide. This is one operation that you certainly should have seen, inasmuch as the family who prepared my bearskin consisted of the mother and five children of various sizes and ages who all pitched in and helped, the oldest child being approximately eight or nine years old.

During the day that we were on the ice hunting, we saw eskimos with dog teams approximately 50 miles from the native villages searching for seal and fishing. It is amazing that these people can survive the extreme cold and storms so far from home with the only resource of fish and game and depending entirely upon their dogs for transportation and survival.

The following morning we had planned to make a trip to hunt wolves and wolverene but the weather forecast was for extremely high winds and increased cold weather and our pilot felt that it was best to remain indoors until the weather modified. However, a blizzard came in from Siberia and we were snowed in for ten days during which time visibility was almost zero and winds up to 75 miles an hour. If you think it gets cold in Las Vegas sometimes, just think how you would react to this abrupt change. During the blizzard, we were able to make acquaintance with other guides and outfitters and other bear hunters who were in the area, and to observe many of the local customs and traditions. We were able to also take many photographs, which in spite of the bad weather, turned out in a very respectable manner.

When the weather finally broke, our time had expired and we were unable to do any further hunting and returned home via Nome, Fairbanks, Seattle, San Francisco and Las Vegas.

One last remark, the night that I stayed in Fairbanks on my return journey, the weather set a new record for that date in Fairbanks being 32 below zero at 6 o'clock in the morning when I got up for breakfast.

We had many more unique and unusual experiences on this "safari" including enjoying the rare and unusual native foods such as caribou, reindeer, Shee-fish and Muk-tuk, and I just wanted to tell you of a few that you missed.

My kindest personal regards.

Yours truly,
Wayne E. Kirch

Milk Drinking Is Still Number One In America

It seems that the average American votes right along with the average American service man when it comes to the selection of his or her favorite beverage. The latest poll conducted by Uncle Sam shows that American servicemen again have placed milk in the first place as their most popular food item.

Now, we look at the popular beverages in our nation, and find that milk drinking is number one on the list with most of us. Leading the list of beverages in the nation, on a yearly basis, is milk, with an average consumption last year at 32.1 gallons per person. Coffee is next at 28.3 gallons, with beer and ale in third place at 15.1 gallons. Fourth in line are the soft drinks, with 12.5 gallons ingested yearly, followed by tea, at 6.8 gallons, distilled spirits at 1.4 gallons, and wine at nine-tenths of a gallon annually.

New Dairy Foods To Be Consumer Tested Soon

New convenience foods, developed at the dairy research laboratories at Michigan State University, are soon to be consumer tested before introduction to the general market. Some of these new foods include a product called instant cheese made by spray-drying pure powdered cheddar or blue cheese. The product needs only water added to produce a cheese sauce, ideal for countless uses.

Another new idea is called Frumil, a dairy fruit mix, to be used as a snack, appetizer, confection, dessert or salad ingredient. One feature of the product is that, when warmed, it can be remolded into almost any shape.

One that is almost sure to be immediately a success is frozen whipped cream. This needs only to be squeezed from a tube to be used as a food topping. Can be easily refrozen for later use.

What Have We Here?

Rover may only be admiring himself in the mirror, but that harmless looking handbag could be his "Pandora's Box." Authorities at the Purina Pet Care Center say Mother's pocketbook contains potential dangers—sharp nail files and toxic cosmetics to mention just a few. The moral: don't leave Maw's handbag within paw's reach.
