Manera, Key Speaker At Assembly

Key speaker at the circuit assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses will be A. C. Manera, district overseer for the Witnesses in the southwestern states.

Sixteen congregations will attend the gathering at the new Lion's Memorial Center at 2nd and "A" streets, Brawley, Calif. Inclusive dates will run from Friday evening, April 4 through 6.

Manera, a native of Rhode Island, has been in the ministry since 1939 and has served as a traveling representative for the Watchtower Bible & Tract Society in 26 states. His address, to be delivered Sunday at 3 p.m., will be of interest to all peace-loving people. It is entitled, "Law and Order-When and How?'

Commenting on the critical need for order in our society, Joe Bromley, Bible study director for the Henderson congregation, called attention to a report in Weekend Magazine. "This report", said Bromley, "shows the United States as leading the 'so called civilized world' in crime. 6,500 citizens were murdered in this country during 1967. This compares with only 30 in England.

"What is striking," Bromley continued, "is that the poputlation of the United States. Hotel.
