Henderson Friends and Families Gather For Holiday Fun and Festivities

The Christmas season will bring families back home to Henderson from far off places throughout the world, to enjoy the holiday spirit.

transferred from Vietnam. The Gar Rosequist family at 104 Joshua, who had planned to talk to their son, will not be able to because it is too difficult for him to get to the station.

Many of the churches held services last evening to commemorate the birth of Christ, and some services will be held today.

Tip From Boulder Police Results in Trio's Arrest

A tip from Boulder City police to Henderson, that a van containing all types of weapons and other merchandise was progressing towards this city, resulted in the arrest of two men and a woman Tuesday afternoon.

Confiscated by police were numerous burglary tools which they believe have been used recently, cameras, walkie-talkies, silverware, radios, guns and knives, and numerous other items.

The trio stopped in Boulder City to get gas and tried to sell the service station attendant a television set. He called police.

Morrays' Story

by MORRY ZENOFF

It is Christmas day and you are happy as heck about your new necktie the kids gave you, and the 40 horse Mercury your wife slipped under your pillow, or the brilliant Gahagan diamond the husband swung around your pinkie, and you are not interested in listening to horror stories from this old Scrooge at the typewriter. . . at such a time of merriment.

some immediate action would result. This week we have assurance that Polk must put up financial guarantees he will finish the off-site improvements and we have assurance the city council and the city administration will not fall asleep at the switch in handling the details of a newly constructed project.

A Walk And Talk With Our Merchants

By MARGARET GRAHAM
I honestly didn't walk and talk this week, I ran and waded.

customer. But, all that frantic scramble is behind us now and it is time to sit back, relax and enjoy the pleasures of this Christmas season.

Revelation by this newspaper of the living conditions at the trailer estates subdivision, and of the mistakes previous administrations made in building ordinances will probably do more to guarantee proper building in the future than you can measure.

So — results — on this Christmas day. While we'd rather talk of the pretty gifts we did or didn't get, we find we're more wont to tell you there's need for all residents to be alert to the community musts — in order that the fine city we'll all have here some day — will not be sidetracked.

Arrested were Donnie Gene Steen, 22, of Phoenix, on charges of having unregistered firearms, carrying a concealed weapon, and possession of burglary tools; Linda Jo Moss 21, of Ft. Worth Texas, carrying a concealed weapon and possession of burglary tools, and Thomas W. Paduano, 20, for unregistered firearms and possession of burglary tools. He is from Portland, Oregon.

Everyone was so busy — thank goodness — with the last minute flurry of Christmas shopping, myself included that we didn't have time to chat very much.

My wish for all of you this Christmas is what I have—a warm, if messy, house, the aroma of good food permeating every room and best of all, my whole family surrounding me all full of love and happiness.

Some other little items that may interest you are: The city may be hurt economically as a result of its delay in selling land to the Wild Wild West group of millionaire backers. Whereas their project would have been well under construction months ago if they had been sold the land, now it may never come to pass because two of the three millionaires are ill, one seriously.

Arresting Officer J. H. Brown, said the trio is being held in the Henderson jail in lieu of bond. They will be transferred to Las Vegas for arraignment in justice court. Steen is also being held as a fugitive from Arizona.

I observed many things though, particularly the courteous, friendly manner the sales personnel and staff treated all their customers, and heard many comments about several trips into Vegas, with no results except the crush of crowds and the unfriendly rude manner of the clerks.

Our policy is to reflect to you the news, the happenings, the feelings of the community — so that you can determine your own route you want to take.

According to Brown when he approached the van, Steen had a knife by him on the seat, and the woman was sitting on two loaded pistols.

There were several other instances which only proved that it pays to shop in Henderson first.

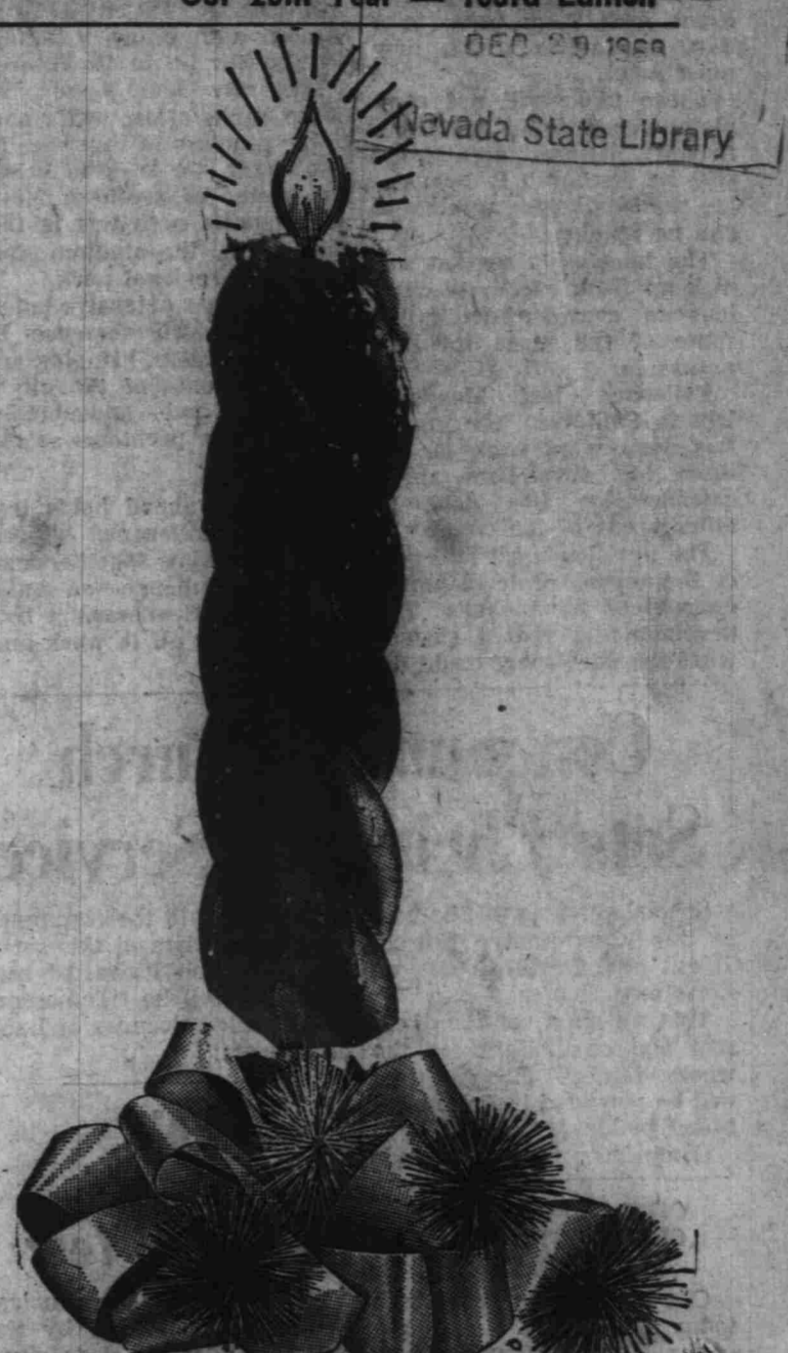

What we printed the story and the kids at Vo-Tech thought the chief was going to phase-out the school. They got up in arms, called him in for a big meeting and he was forced to start doing something now rather than later.

WHAT DO YOU WANT? Santa is busy trying to fine out what little Tanya Green wants for Christmas. Santa will relax after his duties today until the next year rolls around. —a Woodruff photo

Christmas vacation for city councilmen will end Monday night when they meet to discuss land matters and discuss terms of a contract with the city firemen and their new local.

Straight from the Mayor

by JO McDONIEL

Monday night's council study meeting has two purposes to discuss certain areas of agreement with the newly organized firemen's Local No. 1883 and to continue consideration of land sales proposals.

Representatives of the firemen asked that the council consider some budgetary items with them prior to a Jan. 6 deadline which they must meet.

These talks will not complete negotiations with the firemen, as many areas must still be discussed in bargaining sessions before agreement can be reached.

The land sales session will pick up from earlier discussions to consider details of some of the more involved proposals.

Following last Monday's trip to California, the mayor has seen what each of the three big developers under consideration has done in other areas of the country.

The decision must still rest on the amount of development guaranteed for the city. The developments visited showed what the developers could do.

The proposals before the council outline what they will do here.

It is upon the council's careful consideration of the development guaranteed in these proposals that the decision must be made.

As 1970 approaches, many problems face the city of Henderson and many exciting possibilities lie in its future.

The city has people to house, air to clean, water and sewer systems to improve. It also holds the keys to being the center of southern Nevada's sports activities in the race track, the stadium and perhaps a regional park.

The city has extensive lands for sale which someone is going to develop, bringing answers to some of the city's problems and undoubtedly creating new problems as the area grows.

The year ahead holds tremendous challenges. All the people working together can meet the challenge and make the city of Henderson a better place for all to work and to live.

Above, David Gilmore (right) of the Henderson Boys' Club is shown in action in last year's Golden Gloves tournament. David went on to win the championship. David will be in the main event against Norman Arnold of Salem, Ore. Arnold has won 25 bouts.

This will set up the rubber match at the Boys' Club Dec. 29th at 7:30 p.m. Admission is $1 for adults, 50 cents for students. The evening of boxing will feature 14 bouts. ## Around Town

By SHIRLEY VEACH

The Boys' Club is a very worthy organization. One that really deserves everyone's support because it works for and with our young people.

It works in many different ways to make decent, upstanding citizens of the youth who will someday run this great nation of ours.

The Boys' Club teaches self assurance and responsibility while at the same time keeping the boys off the streets and giving them things to do that are fun and interesting.

Our Henderson Boys' Club has a membership of over 600 boys. In a town this size that is something to be proud of.

Their schedule is varied to suit everyone's taste. For example here is the schedule of events covering two weeks.

Last Friday evening, Dec. 19th, there was a Christmas party with 185 in attendance. The boys were given candy and other goodies and games were played for prizes. There were also drawings for prizes.

Sam Scheppe, the cook for the Henderson Police Department, brought Santa as a surprise for everyone.

Friday evening, Dec. 26, at 6 p.m., Henderson Policemen and Firemen compete with the boys in a games room tournament. They will compete in games such as eight ball, shuffleboard, bumper pool, checkers, and ping pong.

GREETINGS—When Christmas comes, or New Years, it always seems like I am the last one to remember to say "I hope you have a Merry Christmas," so I'm going to get my word in first.

I've only had one request to old Santa all year and my conduct must not have been too good because I'm still without my wish.

All I wanted to do was go on a free trip and look at some land with the city council. Is that too much to ask? The only trips I ever get as a reporter for this organization are to appear at court or other such interesting places.

There must be something I am doing wrong—anyhow, at the top of my list for another year will be a trip out of town for pleasure purposes, (nothing legal.) Mayor McDoniel—Please note.

—I'm going to wish a special Merry Christmas to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Beaver.

I was swamped at Thanksgiving with all my family here, like parents, sisters, brother, and their children, and here they came with two cakes and a delicious potato salad.

They repeated it today. Do you have friends like that? I also wish Ruth, Genevieve and Mary Taylor a merry Christmas. They loaned us their home during my crisis.

Well—so as not to forget anyone—I wish everyone a happy holiday!

Student-Teacher Ratio Reduces School Status

Six Clark County School District high schools had their accreditation status reduced from "fully approved" to "advised" by the Northwest Association of Secondary and Higher Schools Dec. 10. This means the schools do not meet the minimum standards of the association in one or more aspects of the school program.

Western, Las Vegas, Rancho, Clark, Valley and Basic High Schools were reduced in status because of the high teacher-pupil ratio in Clark County schools. Northwest accrediting standards stipulate that high schools should have at least one staff member for each 25 students, and that no teacher should meet more than 160 students during an instructional day. Exceptions are made for such large-group activities as music and physical education.

The student-staff ration in the six schools is one to 26, and many of the teachers are meeting more than 160 students per day. The Clark County School District has requested Governor Paul Laxalt to convene a special legislative session to provide money to hire more teachers, and the Vegas Area Council of Parent-Teacher Associations is circulating a petition asking community support for the special session.

Reduction in status does not jeopardize college admission for the graduates of the six schools, according to Clark Zone Supt. Theron Swainston, who is also a member of the nine-man Board of Trustees of the Northwest Association. He was careful to point out that all Clark County high schools are accredited. If, however, the situation does not improve over 2 years the 6 schools might be reduced in status again. The association "advises" schools hoping that they will be able to remove the deficiency the next year and return to fully approved status.

The Northwest Association is one of six regional agencies that grant accreditation to high schools and colleges in the United States. Approximately 2,000 high schools and higher educational institutions in Nevada, Utah, Idaho, Montana, Oregon, Washington and Alaska are members of the association, which is a voluntary professional corporation responsible to no political organization. Action taken on the accreditation of the six local schools came at the annual meeting of the association in Portland, Oregon, which was attended by Swainston, principals Larry Olson of Rancho High, Nils Bayles of Western High, Vince Cortney of Las Vegas High, and assistant principal Dick Paulin of Clark High School.

member for each 25 students, and that no teacher should meet more than 160 students during an instructional day. Exceptions are made for such large-group activities as music and physical education.

The student-staff ration in the six schools is one to 26, and many of the teachers are meeting more than 160 students per day. The Clark County School District has requested Governor Paul Laxalt to convene a special legislative session to provide money to hire more teachers, and the Vegas Area Council of Parent-Teacher Associations is circulating a petition asking community support for the special session.

Reduction in status does not jeopardize college admission for the graduates of the six schools, according to Clark Zone Supt. Theron Swainston, who is also a member of the nine-man Board of Trustees of the Northwest Association. He was careful to point out that all Clark County high schools are accredited. If, however, the situation does not improve over 2 years the 6 schools might be reduced in status again. The association "advises" schools hoping that they will be able to remove the deficiency the next year and return to fully approved status.

The Northwest Association is one of six regional agencies that grant accreditation to high schools and colleges in the United States. Approximately 2,000 high schools and higher educational institutions in Nevada, Utah, Idaho, Montana, Oregon, Washington and Alaska are members of the association, which is a voluntary professional corporation responsible to no political organization. Action taken on the accreditation of the six local schools came at the annual meeting of the association in Portland, Oregon, which was attended by Swainston, principals Larry Olson of Rancho High, Nils Bayles of Western High, Vince Cortney of Las Vegas High, and assistant principal Dick Paulin of Clark High School.

Hunters Warned To Keep Dogs From Poison

Hunters, rockhounds and just plain lovers of the outdoors that take their dogs into the field, are cautioned to keep their eyes open for predator control poison stations.

Such stations can be readily identified by a red topped post that is within ten feet of the poison bait. There are always signs that give notice that poison is in the immediate area and there are also notices posted along roads giving the direction and distance to the nearest poison station.

The predator control program is administered by the U.S. Department of the Interior Wildlife Services in cooperation with the livestock industry and the Department of Fish and Game.

There are about 1000 poison stations in the State of Nevada at the present time. Predatory animal control as it pertains to coyotes, bobcats and mountain lions covers three major areas.

Residents Potential Jurors

Three people from Henderson and one from Boulder City have been named as possible Grand Jury members among the 34 named by the five county commissioners and District Judge William Crompton.

Each of the five commissioners and the judge will choose six potential jurors. Seventeen jurors and 12 alternates will be selected later from the original 34. All must be verified as registered voters in the county.

Dave Jamison, 63 Church street, was a choice of Judge Crompton. Among Bob Broad-bent's choices were James Crawford, 501 National, and Jack Hallahan, 400 Burton street. From Boulder City he selected Albert Hamilton, former head of the water and power department for Hoover Dam. He resides at 630 Arizona street.

To Be a Christmas Tree

By RUTH MCGINTY
Oh dear little tree
So tall and so bold,
With branches all tinsel
With silver and gold,
You have left your dear
forest.
And come to us here,
And brought us your tidings
Of real Christmas cheer.
You have sheltered the birds,
And shaded the flowers,
And the wind softly sang
In your green leafy bowers.
But now you stand stately,
With beauty divine,
Your warm friendly
welcome
Forever to shine.

Oh dear little tree
Keep shining so bright,
You have made us so happy
On this Christmas night.
You give us warm comfort,
Such joy so complete,
From the star on your forehead,

To the gifts at your feet.
We love you so dearly,
But sad is our heart,
For we know that from us
You soon will depart.
But each Christmas time,
Yes, there you shall be,
In our thoughts, and our hearts,
The same dear little tree.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Mr. Zenoff:
As you know by now, the 1969 Clark County United Fund Drive was a success. It was one of the few in the country this year to not only reach its goal but to surpass it.

This year's goal of $1,068,344 was the highest in the local United Fund's eleven year history. It doubled in six short years but the demands on it tripled.

Because the goal was exceeded, it is assured that each of the 25 agencies of the United Fund will receive its recommended allocation; and in turn, no services will be curtailed.

Without your help this achievement could in no way have been possible. The excellent cooperation given the United Fund in publicizing its drive, we feel, was directly responsible for its success. We extend our heartfelt thanks along with those of every Clark County resident and visitor who will be helped by United Fund's health, welfare and character-building agencies.

$100 Reward Offered For Man Who Mutilated Dog

HENDERSON — A $100 reward is being offered for information leading to the arrest and conviction of a man who is believed to have skinned a dog alive near the golf course last Saturday. It was announced by Police Chief Bill Allen.

The reward is being offered by the owner of the dog, John Leveritt, who has offered $50, and Mrs. Cole of the Clark County Humane Society, who also has offered $50.

The dog was found by several youths who were shooting in the area beyond Chismo Homes development. They told police they heard a dog barking and then thought they heard him whimpering and went to investigate. They saw a man flee the area in a maroon-colored pick-up.

They found numerous patches of fresh blood and amounts of hair. They also saw some intestines on the ground and drag marks as if the body had been dragged.

They found the Beagle dog which was badly mutilated. The stomach area had been opened by an unknown means and the intestines were hanging out. The rib cage had been pulled from the chest cavity area and the front legs of the animal had hair and skin peeled from the bones. The youths removed the tags from the dog collar to see who owned the dog and notified Leveritt.

Chief of Police Allen reported that the dog had been missing since Wednesday or Thursday and no one had reported seeing him so it is believed that he could have been in someone's possession during that time. The dog was found on Saturday by the boys who notified the owner, but police were not notified until Sunday. Police believe the boys may be able to identify the pick-up and possibly the man.

Anyone having any information is asked to contact the police department.

Advice at Christmas

Read this — Live by it—
And You Will Be Forever Happy

(Found in Old Saint Paul's Church, Baltimore, Dated 1692)

Go placidly amid the noise and haste, and remember what peace there may be in silence.

As far as possible without surrender be on good terms with all persons.

Speak your truth quietly and clearly and listen to others, even the dull and ignorant; they too have their story.

Avoid loud and aggressive persons, they are vexations to the spirit.

If you compare yourself with others, you may become vain and bitter; for always there will be greater and lesser persons than yourself.

Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans. Keep interested in your own career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time.

Exercise caution in your business affairs; for the world is full of trickery. But let this not blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals; and everywhere life is full of heroism.

Be yourself. Especially, do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity and disenchantment it is perennial as the grass.

Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth.

Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness.

Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself. You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should.

Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive HIM to be, and whatever your labors and aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life keep pace with your soul.

With all its sham, drudgery and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world. Be careful. Strive to be happy.

Santa rings out Christmas tidings, for it's the merriest season of all! To that, add our best wishes.

Season's Best Wishes to Our Friends and Customers

ELTON M.
GARRETT
REALTY

554 Nevada Hwy.
Boulder City—293-3333

By ROBERT L. HENRY, SR.
The lantern was lit
And hung by the gate
To guide happy carollers,
When the hour was late.

The soft lights from the farmhouse,
Gleamed rosy and warm,
And their beams danced and sparkled

In the midst of the storm,
The wind dies away
The snow flurries cease.
On this evening of Christ's birth
The world is at peace.

All that afternoon
Ma had baked pies of pumpkin and mince
Raided the cellar
For jams of cranberry and quince.

The afternoon sun, snow all a gleam
Dad cracked walnuts and hazelnuts,
Read aloud of the Three Wisemen's dream.

Fords rattle up the lane
As evening draws near,
Cries of "Hi, Ma!" and "Hi
Pa!"
From children and grandchildren dear.

Quits down from the closets
Sheets fresh from the shelf
Children's laughter ringing
From each fairy and elf.

Evening supper over
Each child tucked a bed,
Softly talking mother and daughters
And the things pa and the son-in-laws said.

Carols echo then, across
silent snows,
Present wrappings and stockings to fill.
Finally finish, and now to repose,
The Eve of Christmas is silent and still.

Pa stays awake
Thanks GOD for his blessings
this fall,
With worked-gnarled hands
clasped in prayer
He knows that giving to those that you love,
Is the greatest blessing of all.

"SANTA'S OTHER HALF"

By LOIS WALLING

Well Mr. Claus, your job is done —
And for awhile you can relax.
But grant me, if you will,
dear Sir, —

This little thought to ponder—
While you 'turn off' just to
"un-tax" —

Who is that I see yonder?
Well, bless my heart,
as you do pause, —
Still on her feet, —
Is Mrs. Claus!

Her baking not quite done—
And crying from her youngest one—
She smiles while you munch toffee—

and pins on a diaper, while making your coffee.
She isn't a 'GENT'—
To blink off the mess—
Made of her house—

By the children, I guess!
And yet comes the dawn,
and explosion of chatter—
And no body sees her—
But that doesn't matter.

She's straightened her house—
And she's happy, it's true,—
But still she wonders—
Will I ever be through?

With dinner ahead,—
And breakfast to get—
She won't get to play—
With the children, I bet!

But no — she will manage —
To get it all done —
While loving her family —
With actions and puns!

Through laughter and tears—
Of children excited—
She'll keep her composure—
Even while those invited—
Join in for the day's celebration—

Aunts, Uncles and cousins —
And all those relations!
Oh yes, at last it is over, —
And Santa, your idea is right
Now watch Mrs. Claus clear a path and move 'Rover', —
And flop by your side for the night!

LIFE'S GREATEST GIFT
There's a precious gift within my heart . . .
I've had it all life long:
It's lit with shining
candlelight
Gold stars and living song.

It's buried deep within a wreath
Tied with a large red bow,
While underneath is silken
straw
And sprigs of Mistletoe.

You know this gift, 'tis yours
also.
Each person finds his own;
'Tis buried deep within each soul
Because a lone star shone.

He gave it to us long ago
And still some strive and seek
For peace, contentment, joy and faith.
Like blind and wandering
sheep.

Mary understood this meaning
And when the Angel spoke,
Within her arms love was embraced because the Christ child woke.

And so from this, God's gift
was given,
That peace to us could come.
Permitting love to rule . . . we give.

As He, who gave His Son,

No One Knew His Coming

By Rev. Alfred Radke, Pastor Highway to Heaven Chapel
It's Christmas time again and perhaps the busiest time of the year. Another year has gone by so swiftly. . . . One of the thoughts that has always puzzled me was that no one knew His coming into the world. Prophecy had foretold that a Virgin would bring forth a savior, also Bethlehem would be the place. Yet no one knew except Mary, Joseph and the Cousin of Mary. But the Angels sang and told the shepherds and they also rejoiced. There have been many prophecies concerning the destruction and the second coming of the Lord and men have prophesied many things to happen to this present world, yet they have all been in vain up til now. But folks, just as surely as Jesus made his advent almost 2,000 years ago, he will come again as he said he would. So many things have happened this year that have caused us to draw nearer to the master than ever before, especially at this time of the year when so many will be sending gifts one to another, let us give ourselves as never before to the Master and in so doing may help to send this same peace across the nation.

Holy Worldliness

By Chris L. Parker
Salvation Army

Prayer: Father, forgive us if we have allowed the tinsel, the excitement and the personal gain of Christmas to obscure the true glory of Thy coming in Christ to dwell in our midst and, if we are willing, to transform our lives. Teach us how to distinguish between shadow and substance.

When God became man, He did not leave a pathway that He might escape the miseries of human existence. He committed Himself irrevocably at every point of man's need.

Failing to understand this, some Christians have separated life itself into categories of sacred and secular, thus pushing God out of His world into restricted areas deemed to be worthy of His presence and consistent with their piety. They have separated religion from life. The birth of Jesus, or Incarnation, teaches us that God is involved in all the affairs of men. He is in the Church and in the world, in the sacred and the secular, with believers and unbelievers, saints and sinners; for His love compels Him to be identified with the lowest and the most needy.

This is the meaning of holy worldliness, the spirit that plunges the Christian compassionately into the world, but saves him from it; the spirit that involves him redemptively in the lives of sinners. If we know nothing of such personal and costly involvement, we might well ask whether we have ever grasped, or been grasped by, the essential meaning of Christmas.

Story of Christmas

By James L. Gibson, President Lake Mead Stake, LDS Church

The great story of the true Christmas season is the continuance of mankind's search for, and yearning for peace with his fellowmen and peace and direction within his own soul. The example of Christ, in His life and His teachings, prompt to the thought that mankind's search would be more productive and successful if he would turn to the example of Christ and conform his life more nearly to the principles the Savior espoused.

Certainly a person would find some progress in his life's direction if he would use the influence of this season to do a little searching and a little comparing of his own life to that which Christ encouraged, and which is still encouraged by the scripture which give us His teachings, and reveal His life and its significance to us.

The Master's birth, which we celebrate at this season of the year, was heralded by the Angels, singing "Peace on Earth," and his last earthly bequest to His followers was "Peace, I leave with you, my peace I give unto you; not as the world giveth, give I unto you." (John 14:27.) Again he said, "These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace." (John 16:33)

To follow after Christ's example requires a way of life which must be born and nourished in the soul and dedicated to the love and service of fellowmen. One must hunger and thirst after righteousness and develop a spirit of mercy and a determination to be pure in heart, even as he was.

The longing for Peace is something people of all countries share. It is a primary religious impulse, and like man's instinctive faith in immortality, finds its base in human nature. Its realization, which is elusive, is very essential to the dignity, freedom, security and salvation of the individual.

At this Christmas season, in addition to sharing our yearning for peace, we can join in a prayer that all men might commit their lives and their ever-expanding knowledge and understanding to the cause of truth and righteousness and to bringing peace and good will to all men. Our hope is that His peace, pure and simple, might be sought for and enjoyed by all men everywhere.

By David Massey Church of Christ

December 25th has come to be known as the birthdate of Jesus. History tells us it has not always been so.

In the 4th century a Roman feast, dedicated to Saturnus the god of agriculture, held in mid-December gave first the model for many Christmas customs. It was during this period the date of December 25 came into prominence.

In the 5th century a day known as the "Birth of the Sun" was suggested as the day Jesus was born since even then no certain knowledge of the actual date existed.

It was not until the 11th century that the term "Christmas" came into use. This name is actually a joining of two terms given to the world by the Roman Catholic Church. The religious activity known at that time as "Christes maesse" or in English "Christ's mass" has come to be known as Christmas.

While I am not against the spirit of holiday giving and joy, I do not believe the Lord intended man to honor his birth for no where in the Bible or the traditions of the days of Christ can the date be found. If we want to honor his birth, then give thanks EVERY DAY that Jesus has come.

The Gift of God

By Rev. James M. Eagle, Church of God of Prophecy.

For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder; and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, the Mighty God, the Everlasting Father, the Prince of Peace. Isaiah 9:6.

For unto you is born this day in the City of David, a Savior, which is Christ the Lord. And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger.

And suddenly there was with the Angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God and saying, Glory to God in the highest, and on earth, peace, good will toward men. St. Luke 2:11-14

Jesus took our burdens and sins and nailed them to the cross. What greater love than this, God's gift to the world was his son, The Lord Jesus Christ.

MERRY CHRISTMAS

Call It Merry Giftmas

By Jim Reid, Faith Baptist Church.

I'm not sure when the tradition of exchanging gifts to commemorate the Supreme Gift God gave us that first Christmas began.

But it seems that in recent years that which the giving is supposed to commemorate has long since been buried in an avalanche of "make-a-buck" merchandising which our materialistic society has produced. The Christ whose birthday we celebrate has long ago ceased to be the focal point of our celebration. And really, why should we celebrate the birthday of one we completely ignore the rest of the year? I think we would come a whole lot closer to being honest if we would just exchange our presents, wish one another a "Merry Giftmas", and quit pretending that this is a Christian Holiday commemorating anything.

MERRY CHRISTMAS

Santa has a message for his reindeer... "Be quick, step lively, it's Christmas!" And because it's Christmas, we have a message for you, and for all our wonderful customers and friends. We'd like to wish you every joy of the season, with much thanks for the joy of serving you.

A SERMONETTE
THE IMPORTANCE OF CHRISTMAS
 Calvary Foursquare Gospel Church
 Rev. Gene Holman
 The celebration of the birth of Jesus Christ, each December 25th focuses the attention of the world on many important claims of the Christian faith. Every Christmas for example, we are reminded of the claims of Christianity in regards to the miraculous virgin birth of the Savior. The question of whether Jesus was borne of a virgin, or not is very significant for it is at this point that a division occurs between those who acknowledge Him as the Divine and eternal Son of God equal with the Father, and those who, even though professing to be a Christian, nevertheless regard Him as less than Lord and Savior—"God with us". Even more significant is that one's doctrine of the virgin birth clearly reveals his faith (or lack of faith) in the authority of the Bible, for the Scripture records that, "the birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise; when as his mother Mary was espoused to Joseph, before they came together, she was found with child of the Holy Ghost."

Another extraordinary claim of the Faith is that from his lowly birth and ultimate crucifixion he should rise before the acknowledgement of the whole world as King of kings and Lord of lords. Although this is to be fulfilled at His second coming after long delay and rejection, still it is truly astonishing that although kingdoms and governments have come and gone, the influence of one who was born nearly 2000 years ago continues through countless schools, hospitals, and churches wherever the gospel is preached around the world, and even time itself is based upon the date of His birth—1969 A.D.

Then too, how meaningful it really is, that at Christmas we have made such a deep and beautiful tradition of the exchange of gifts. Although we are all aware of the excesses, perversions, and distortions that have crept into the custom, yet each year we are reminded that the treasures of the wise men could not compare to the precious gift of salvation which Christ Jesus represented. For in Him, "we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins according to the riches of His grace." "For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish but have everlasting life." Have you received God's Christmas present to you? Merry Christmas to All.

St. Jude's Ranch for Children
The Rev. Harry Neeley,
Director

On a cold night in November several years ago, I was flying to Sheridan, Wyoming. The night was clear as crystal, and the sky was thick with stars. Everything was going smoothly; apparently we were on schedule. But when the time came to land we did not go down; we kept going. After a while I called the stewardess and said, "What about Sheridan?" She replied, "I am terribly sorry. We couldn't land because a ground blizzard came up quite suddenly and we couldn't get down." I asked, "Where are we going?" "We are going to land in Billings," she answered. There was no blizzard over Billings so we landed there. The next morning I got up and went back to Sheridan.

There was a sort of a ground blizzard over Bethlehem 2000 years ago. It was a small village in a small country and it would never have been heard of if it hadn't been the birthplace of David the King. Now it was only a town with its future behind it, a town in a country occupied by a foreign power — the Roman Empire. Resistance was out of the question; acceptance was the only alternative. The Temple was not what it used to be. People said that the priesthood was a racket and the sacrificial cult was only a pious routine. There was not much to look forward to. It was hard to find your way around because so many of the familiar landmarks had disappeared.

There was just this sort of blizzard of difficult times over Bethlehem some 1900 plus years ago, but God made a landing just the same. When he could not get down in the village inn he landed in a stable. He had no instrument panel, nor was he flying "blind". His guide was love: the love of a man for his bride, the love of a good man for his country. He did what it asked him to do—to register in spite of the inconvenience and the trouble it caused him, he did it. The decency of an innkeeper for a couple who came too late for the inn was already full; but he had the grace to give them the only place he had. Love of a mother for a baby, no matter where she was or what the conditions were, or how uncomfortable she might be.

This was the only landing instrument God had then. The point is that He landed in spite of the blizzard. It is the only landing instrument he has now.

There is still a blizzard clinging to this earth of ours, particularly thick and murky today. It is a compound of discontent and disenchantment. It is a combination of uncertainty and uneasiness, but God still makes a landing, still comes down through the blizzard. He still has only one landing instrument, the same one—love. It is the love of one person like you for another; for someone, perhaps far away, in a dangerous place; or for someone long since gone; or for someone who is in desperate need, physical or emotional; or a person that you would give your life for if you had to; the love of people like you for the land they were born in, the place where they were raised, the place that gave them everything they have, in spite of its blunders and blindness. The love of people, people like you, who may read this Christmas message, for something that money cannot buy. In spite of the affluence that we hear so much about and the materialism that begets an insatiable desire for the things that money can buy, there is in people like you and me — deep, sometimes so deep we do not know it is there — there is a love for things that money cannot buy. For something more precious than gold or silver, something more lasting than happiness, something more powerful than any bomb or protest against those bombs. People, just people, down deep in us, have a desire for something better than sensuality, more beautiful than anything we can conceive or make. We desire what was once called "the beauty of holiness".

This is God's landing instrument. This is what draws Him to the right place, where the people need Him most. If He has any other way of knowing how to get through the blizzard, it is his own love, the love of a father for his child, for the child who needs him most. He comes down to his child. We are not supposed to talk about "up" and "down" anymore, but how else can we talk about it? He comes down to his child when the blizzard is thickest, when the child needs him most, and when he comes he brings with him some of the brightness of the "upper air". That is why we sing for joy during this Christmas season. We remember that God always finds a way to land when and where He is needed most. We of St. Jude's experience these landings frequently, for without them we could not live. From the children, the Sisters and myself, God bless you in this holiday season and in the new year ahead.

The Birth of Jesus

By Louis Gerdes, Pastor
First Southern Baptist Church
The Birth of Jesus — at that time Emperor Augustus sent out an order for all the citizens of the Empire to register themselves for the census. When this first census took place, Quirinius was the governor of Syria. Everyone, then, went to register himself, each of his own town.

Joseph went from the town of Nazareth, in Galilee, to Judea, to the town named Bethlehem, where King David was born. Joseph went there because he himself was a descendant of David. He went to register himself with Mary, who was promised in marriage to him. She was pregnant, and while they were in Bethlehem, the time came for her to have her baby. She gave birth to her first son, wrapped him in cloths and laid him in a manger—there was no room for them to stay in the inn.

There were some shepherds in that part of the country who were spending the night in the fields, taking care of their flocks. An angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone over them. They were terribly afraid, but the angel said to them: "Don't be afraid! For I am here with good news for you, which will bring great joy to all the people. This very night in David's town your Savior was born—Christ the Lord! This is what will prove it to you: you will find a baby wrapped in cloths and lying in a manger."

Suddenly a great army of heaven's angels appeared with the angel, singing praises to God:

"Glory to God in the highest heaven!

And peace on earth to men with whom he is pleased!"

When the angels went away from them back into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, "Let us go to Bethlehem and see this thing that has happened, that the Lord has told us." So they hurried off and found Mary and Joseph, and saw the baby lying in the manger. When the shepherds saw him they told them what the angel had said about this child. All who heard it were filled with wonder at what the shepherds told them. Mary remembered all these things, and thought deeply about them. The shepherds went back, singing praises to God for all they had heard and seen; it had been just as the angel had told them.

A week later, when the time came for the baby to be circumcised, he was named Jesus—the name which the angel had given him before he had been conceived.

The time came for Joseph and Mary to do what the Law of Moses commanded and perform the ceremony of purification. So they took the child to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord. This is what is written in the law of the Lord: "Every first-born male shall be dedicated to the Lord." They also went to offer a sacrifice as required by the law of the Lord: "A pair of doves or two young pigeons."

Now there was a man living in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon. He was a good and God-fearing man, and was waiting for Israel to be saved. The Holy Spirit was with him, and he had been assured by the Holy Spirit that he would not die before he had seen the Lord's promised Messiah. Led by the Spirit, Simeon went into the Temple. When the parents brought the child Jesus into the Temple to do for him what the Law required, Simeon took the child in his arms, and gave thanks to God:

"Now, Lord, you have kept your promise, and you may let your servant go in peace.

For with my own eyes I have seen your salvation, which you have made ready in the presence of all people:

A light to reveal your way to the Gentiles, and to give glory to your people Israel."

The child's father and mother were amazed at the things Simeon said about him. Simeon blessed them and said to Mary, his mother: "This child is chosen by God for the destruction and the salvation of many in Israel; he will be a sign from God which many people will speak against, and so reveal their secret thoughts. And sorrow, like a sharp sword, will break your own heart."

There was a prophetess named Anna, daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was an old woman who had been married for seven years, and then had been a widow for eighty-four years. She never left the Temple; day and night she worshiped God, fasting and praying. That very same hour she arrived and gave thanks to God, and spoke about the child to all who were waiting for God to redeem Jerusalem.

When they finished doing all that was required by the law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, to their home town of Nazareth. And the child grew and became strong; he was full of wisdom, and God's blessings were with him.

Christmas Meditations

By Roland M. Becker, Pastor
Church of the Nazarene
I like Christmas lights, Christmas trees, Christmas programs, Christmas parties, Christmas giving and Christmas singing.

For I really know in a personal way the Christ of Christmas as my Savior and Lord. And every real born-again Christian rejoices in Christ and the salvation plan that God fulfilled in the Christmas event.

But multitudes of modern Americans every year go through all these Christmas celebrations and never come to realize that Christmas means that the miracle born Christ of the Virgin Mary means God wants to do a miracle in every person's heart and make it clean and holy and pure. But sadly to say, most religious Americans have not gone this far in their quest for knowing God. They receive and give gifts, but do not ask for God's Gift!

So the result is that even in this valley, the commemoration of Christ's birthday becomes nothing less than a drunken brawl. Once it was a season to be jolly—now 'tis the season to be gluttonous." Once we worked hard to secretly save for our wife's Christmas gift . . . and then bragged how good a wife we had. But now we have a night on the town and brag how drunk we got. Once we gathered the family and read the Christmas story from Luke, but now we watch TV and yell at the kids to be quiet.

Oh America, my America, What is happening to your soul?

A very happy holiday season to you from me. And let's take a look at the Bowl games the boob tube has to offer on New Year's Day: ... SUGAR BOWL (ABC) — Third-ranked Arkansas Razorbacks (9-1-0) are favored by three points over the 13th-ranked Mississippi Rebels (7-3-0) in New Orleans.

They played no common opponent, but the Mississippi schedule was much tougher than that played by Arkansas. The Razorbacks played only one team in the top 20 — Texas. The Rebels lost to 14th ranked Houston, but defeated seventh-ranked LSU and 11th ranked Tennessee. The Rebs lost a thriller to Alabama and dropped their other in an upset to Kentucky.

The Hogs should take this one, but could get trapped if they read their press clippings before kickoff.

COTTON BOWL (CBS) — National Champion Texas

Longhorns (10-0-0) are favored by 7½ over ninth-ranked Notre Dame Fighting Irish (8-1-1) in Dallas.

Navy is the only common opponent. The Midshipmen, who scored but 99 points all season, racked up 17 against Texas but failed to score on the Irish. On the other hand, Texas scored 56 on Navy, while the Irish tallied but 45.

The two blemished on Notre Dame's record came at the hands of the only two teams in the top 20 they met this year — a loss to Purdue (14-28) and the tie with USC (14-14). Texas only met one top team — Arkansas (15-14).

Each team met only three opponents who had winning seasons this year. In all, Notre Dame's opponents won 50 percent of their other games. Texas opponents won only 42 percent of their other games.

The Longhorns will be going all out to prove their No.

1 rating is no fluke. Notre Dame will be psyched to uphold the honor of the Irish. ROSE BOWL (NBC) — The guys who put their money on the line don't believe the so-called experts who compile the polls. Eighth ranked Michigan Wolverines (8-2-0) are favored by 4½ over fourth-ranked USC Trojans (9-0-1) in Pasadena.

Again, only one common opponent — Washington. The Wolves smashed the Huskies 45-7, while SC barely escaped Seattle on the long end of 16-7.

USC met four teams in the top 20, Michigan faced three. SC faced six opponents who had winning seasons this year; Michigan faced three. Each met two of the nation's top 10. USC's opponents won 57 percent of their other games.

All in all, Troy played a little tougher schedule, scoring an average of 25 points per game and giving up 13. The Wolves tallied 35 per game and gave up an average of 14.

ORANGE BOWL (NBC) — Again, the gamblers didn't read the polls. Sixth-ranked Missouri Tigers (9-1-0) are favored by 2½ over second-ranked Penn State Nittany Lions (10-0-0), in Miami New Years night.

There are two common opponents — Colorado and Kansas State. Mizzou was upset (24-31) by the Buffalos at Boulder, while the Lions ran over the Buffs (27-3) at University Park. Both defeated K-State by the margin of a field goal. — Missouri (41-38), while Penn State faced six winners, including Ohio U. (not the Buckeyes!) and Boston College. I have seen both play this year and I believe the Tigers have a stronger offense and stronger defense.

HITS SANTA'S JACKPOT! — Loren Frogge, a new resident of Moore's Trailer Park and father of children 2, 3 and 4 years of age, was the winner of the seven-foot Christmas stocking at Boulder Appliance. Frogge was grateful for Santa's help because he hadn't done any shopping as yet and the stocking contains just about everything little ones would be happy to have.

Report From Walter Baring

Man has touched the moon in 1969. This is a dream fulfilled which proves the greatness of America. I, along with all Americans, am exhilarated with the success of Apollo 11 and Apollo 12.

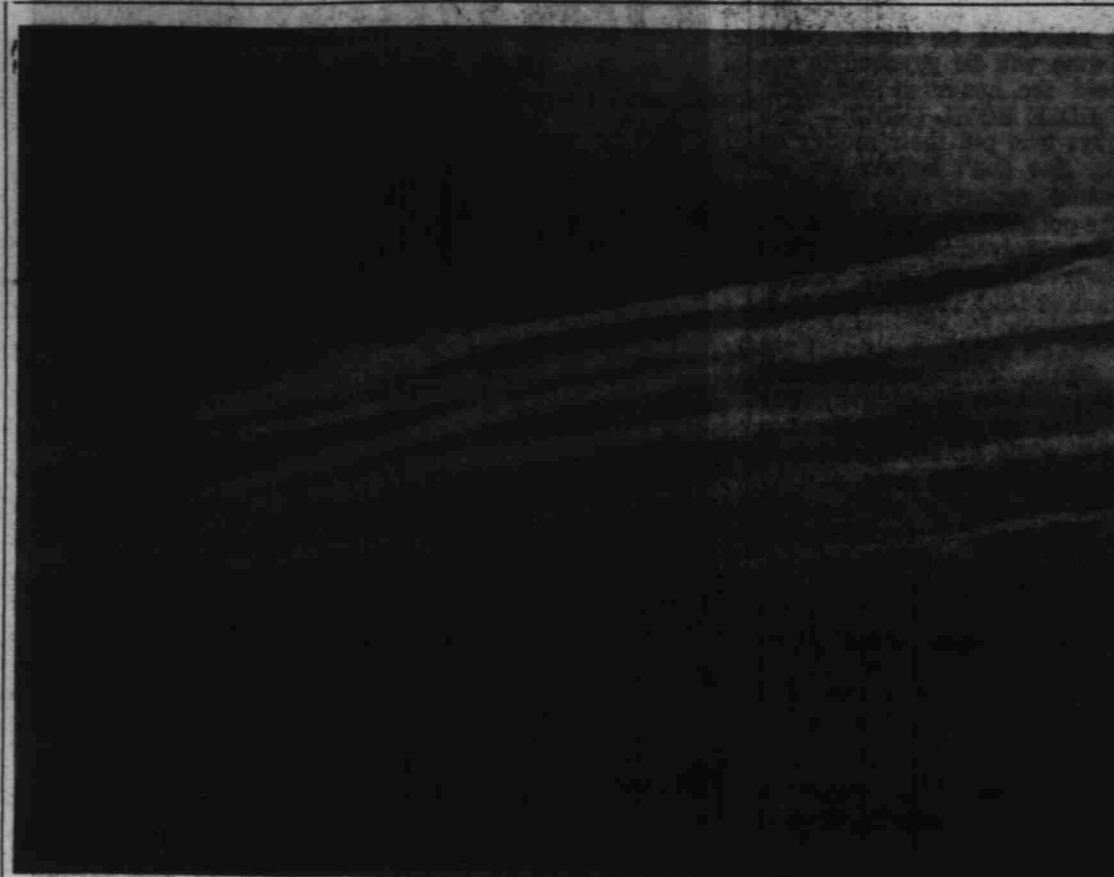

Now, let our departure from the Vietnam war and renewed attention to domestic needs of this nation make America even greater in the seventies. As we leave the sixties, we must work for a build up of the "Spirit of the Seventies."

In 1976 America celebrates the bi-centennial. So, this coming decade, I feel, must truly be one dedicated to Americans and the strengthening of America economically and concentrated home-front defense protection.

On the major issue of Vietnam, I have made it clear that I stand for our current policy of gradual withdrawal. But, it must be a safe and honorable departure during which we must stand strong and united, ready to defend ourselves.

In the approximately eight long years of U.S. involvement in Vietnam there has been no concerted military attempt by an administration to win a military victory over the communists invading Sth. Vietnam from the north. First we sent thousands of troops to fight and increased the bombing attacks against North Vietnam. I feel we could have and should have had a military win and that it could have been accomplished in a matter of months. But no, former Secretary of Defense McNamara halted the bombing raids, thus halting the US and our allies' chances of ending the war. The enemy then had the time to rebuild its war supply needs and come back to fight and kill our boys. Now, it is murderous under the new American Vietnam policy for the U.S. to remain in South Vietnam any longer than is deemed necessary for a safe, orderly withdrawal.

An immediate withdrawal of all our troops is impossible. The U.S. does not have enough ships and planes, according to the Defense Department, to handle such a monumental logistical problem all at once. It must be safely

The taxpayer asks...

Q — I paid someone to help me with a holiday party. Is what I paid subject to the Social Security tax on household employees?

A — Probably not. The tax on household employees only applies when cash wages of $50 or more are paid to a person for household services during a three-month calendar quarter.

If what you paid the person you hired to help out at the party came to $50 or more, then you would be liable. You also would be liable if you had employed the same person other times this fall and your total payments amounted to $50 or more during October, November and December.

Use Form 942, Employer's Quarterly Tax Return for Household Employees, to report and pay this tax by February 2, 1970. The tax rate is 4.8 percent for the employer and 4.8 percent for the employee.

Q — When is a year-end dividend on stock taxable, the year it is declared or the year it is received?

A — A dividend, like other income, is generally taxable the year it is received. In the case of year-end dividends, the stockholder usually does not receive his check until the following year. This would make the dividend taxable the year following the one in which it was declared.

Q — Does inherited property have to be reported on my income tax return?

A — A dividend, like other income, is generally taxable the year it is received. In the case of year-end dividends, the stockholder usually does not receive his check until the following year. This would make the dividend taxable the year following the one in which it was declared.

Q — My husband is in Vietnam. Are we required to file a return?

A — No, you may wait until 180 days after he leaves Vietnam before sending in your joint 1969 income tax return.

Q — If you do want to file a joint return earlier because you are expecting a refund, indicate in the space where your husband would sign that he is serving in Vietnam.

Q — Some of my income is from a little farm, though most of it comes from other sources. Do I have to file my income tax return in February instead of April?

A — The February requirement only applies to those who receive at least two-thirds of their gross income from farming or fishing and who did not file declarations of estimated income tax and pay the tax due by January 15th.

Q — The AAA noted that at least 365 million animals, mostly wildlife species, were killed by vehicles in the U.S. in 1968. Statistics show that during 1967, for example, vehicles in Pennsylvania killed 22,610 deer and 37 bears. During a single day in Florida, authorities reported that vehicles killed 5,000 quail, 250 turkeys and about 2,000 rabbits plus songbirds and squirrels.

Q — Though there are few statistics in Nevada we know that the toll on wildlife is extremely high, especially during the winter months when deer are on their winter ranges.

paced according to a timetable the President has assured us has been agreed to by the allies in Vietnam. A massive overnight pullout of troops would surely forsake the people of a small country. We have fought and died to protect them and other nearby Southeast Asia nations from the evils of Communism.

The war has caused inflation, high interest rates, and higher taxes and dissension. Of this, we all complain bitterly. But even worse are the some 40,000 lives of American men lost in Vietnam while, at the same time, unpatriotic dissenters disrupted life and morale here at home in the sixties. The people who marched in Washington, D.C. and elsewhere in the nation, against the current American withdrawal peace policy are the causes, I believe, of many of the U.S.'s foreign and domestic problems and are responsible for prolonging the war. The so-called demonstrations have been playing right into the hands of Hanoi and communism. Too many of these participants are either in the anti-American Vietnam policy movement for their own personal gain or are so horrendously misled that they can do nothing else but march around carrying an enemy, Viet Cong, flag. Remember, the Viet Cong have been shooting at our boys, not with our boys against the Communists of North Vietnam.

America must stand UNITED to end this war, and I feel our very cautious plan today to extricate American troops from the war is good, safe, honorable and should lead to a just peace for America.

More Animals Killed by Guns Than Cars

"We kill more animals with our cars than our hunters do with guns," according to a report of the American Automobile Association.

The AAA noted that at least 365 million animals, mostly wildlife species, were killed by vehicles in the U.S. in 1968. Statistics show that during 1967, for example, vehicles in Pennsylvania killed 22,610 deer and 37 bears. During a single day in Florida, authorities reported that vehicles killed 5,000 quail, 250 turkeys and about 2,000 rabbits plus songbirds and squirrels.

Though there are few statistics in Nevada we know that the toll on wildlife is extremely high, especially during the winter months when deer are on their winter ranges.

Q — No, this does not have to be reported. However, if the property is sold later for more than its fair market value when the decedent died, then the gain on the sale has to be reported.

Q — I have an expense account and make several business trips a year for my company. How do I handle this for tax purposes?

A — As a general rule, include reimbursements and allowances for travel, etc., expenses in your income. However, you do not have to report this on your tax return if you account to your company for your expenses.

If your reimbursements exceed your expenses, then the excess must be reported as income on your return. If your allowable expenses exceed your reimbursements, report the reimbursements as income, but also deduct the expenses.

Q — My husband is in Vietnam. Are we required to file a return?

A — No, you may wait until 180 days after he leaves Vietnam before sending in your joint 1969 income tax return.

Q — If you do want to file a joint return earlier because you are expecting a refund, indicate in the space where your husband would sign that he is serving in Vietnam.

Change Driver's Licenses

Nevada's Motor Vehicle Department inaugurates on January 1 a new program of driver licensing, marking another step in this state's effort to comply with federal highway safety regulations.

Director James C. Bailey says the plan, authorized by the 1969 legislature, calls for the licensing of a driver for the type or class of vehicle he operates. Affected first will be those drivers whose licenses expire starting Jan. 1, 1970. All renewals thereafter will be according to the type of vehicle driven. Eventually all licensees in the state will be covered. Under the new plan, licensees will be in five classifications. Two generally deal with trucks and buses; a third concerns passenger cars and light trucks; a fourth involves motorcycles and a fifth, power cycles.

Most stringent control will be exercised over holders of truck-bus licenses, in addition to written examination, applicants must have satisfactorily passed a physical examination during the past three years and shall be required to renew the exam every three years thereafter.

power cycles will, for the first time, be required to get permits to operate that type of equipment. Applicants for motorcycle licenses must be at least 16 years old and pass a written examination. Those operating power cycles must be at least 14 years of age and pass a written exam. Written examinations are not required on renewals.

Currently, a person holding a drivers license can operate a motorcycle or power cycle. After January 1, however, licensees who wish to operate that type of equipment must be tested. If they pass the required examination, the fact will be so noted on their drivers license.

"This is a much more realistic approach to the matter of vehicle licensing," Bailey said. "We hope that it will help make highways safer for travel and cut down on the incidence of fatalities and injuries."

SHARING ...

By EARL ELEZAR HARRIS
Boulder City

To give, just to give for the love of the giving,

To share with each other the good that derives,

To give from the heart, no rich thought withholding,

Enriches our natures, ennobles our lives.

Receiving is blessed, gifts sent us in love,

'Tis the thought that comes with it that gives it its worth,

An expression of gratitude that flows from above,

Is like a great fountain whose waters pour forth.

Now, gifts are not always wrapped up with a cord,

It may be a smile to gladden the heart,

It may be, for instance, a deed or a word,

Or an unselfish thought that's not even heard.

To share, just to share for the love of the sharing,

Is more blessed for us than gifts we receive.

So let's be alert, always Love's channels preparing,

That such riches be shared with all whom we meet.

Watch Those Car License Renewals

CARSON CITY. . . Close attention should be paid to instructions on motor vehicle registration renewal forms currently in the mail statewide, the Nevada Department of Motor Vehicle advises. Such things as the expiration date on your present vehicle registration receipt will assist you in determining whether you should be receiving a renewal notification.

Nazarenes Surge Ahead In Decade Of '60s

The relatively young Church of the Nazarene scored impressive gains during the decade of 1960-69, reports from denominational offices in Kansas City, Mo., showed this week.

During the 10-year period, Nazarene church membership and Sunday school enrollment increased 30 per cent while giving for all purposes nearly doubled. Per capita giving was up 57 per cent. Highlights:

World membership reached 471,846 persons — an increase of 110,202, or 30 percent ahead of the 361,644 total in 1959. Sunday school enrollment climbed 228,601, or 29 per cent to a total of 1,013,724.

Per capita giving hit a record $213.26 in 1969 — or $77.75, 57 per cent, more than the $135.51 figure in 1960.

Giving for all purposes was $82,309,225 in '69 — an increase of $40,125,871, or 95 per cent ahead of the $42,183,554 given in '59.

The three new colleges started in 1967 and 1968 helped to raise enrollment at Nazarene colleges to more than 9000 students in 1969. The denomination also had more than 9,000 young men serving in the Armed Forces and 73 gold stars on its Vietnam war memorial roll.

The statistical report came from the office of the general secretary, Dr. B. Edgar Johnson.

The Church of the Nazarene was organized in 1908. It holds to all the historic doctrines of the New Testament and has become the largest denomination in the United States that stands for scriptural holiness in the Wesleyan tradition.

It is affiliated with the National Holiness Association.

If you have moved in the last year, and have failed to notify the Department of Motor Vehicles, you will not receive a renewal slip and should take your 1969 registration receipt to your County Assessor, or branch office of the Department of Motor Vehicles to renew your registration.

All 1970 registration renewals should be received by December 22. Already over 310,000 have been mailed. Those people who do not get registration forms should take their present registration slip to the Assessor of the county of residence, or to the branch offices of the Department of Motor Vehicles in Clark and Washoe Counties.

Another instruction encourages renewal by mail, in an effort to avoid the traditional last minute rush anticipated on or about January 31, the license deadline. A penalty of $3 is affixed after that date.

Nevadans will not get new plates for 1970. Renewals will be in the form of an orange and black sticker, to be applied in the upper right-hand corner of the present plate. New registrations will get the customary silver and blue plate, and a 1970 sticker.

Indicative of Nevada's growing population, vehicle registration during 1970 is expected to be around 375,000, a record number and about 40,000 more than 1969.

Drive Carefully
Special caution must be taken while driving under sometimes hazardous holiday conditions, warns Liberty Mutual Insurance Companies. The other driver may well intend to do the right thing but bad brakes or too much holiday "cheer" could cause him to make a mistake which could cost you dearly.

"Women are learning to express outrage," says the writer of a magazine article. He erred greatly in using the present instead of the past tense.

REFLECTIONS AT CHRISTMAS

By DOROTHY VONDENBRINK

On a night when the sky was clear and cold,
Came a gift not measured by silver or gold.
Small, pink and helpless—in infant form
The Word became flesh,
And salvation was born.

A humble beginning —
And a death of scorn.
A joyous night
And triumphant morn.
A life of obedience,
Where God held full sway,
No wonder there's joy —
When we celebrate Christmas day!

Christ was born for all men
Oh! Bells ring out joyfully,
And tell all the world
God's love has made all men free.

Aliens Must Report Addresses

The law requires all aliens in the United States, with few exceptions, to report their addresses each January. Throughout the United States, almost 40 percent more applications for naturalization are received during the months of January, February and March than are received during other months.

Aliens not required to make this report are diplomats and those persons accredited to certain international organizations.

Forms for making the reports will be available to aliens at all post offices and offices of the Immigration and Naturalization Service during the month of January. All aliens desiring information concerning naturalization or similar matters should obtain the forms at an office of the Immigration and Naturalization Service where personnel trained in these fields will be available to answer inquiries.

Store Your Mementos

Christmas presents are a great way to share the holiday joy, but loose wrappings and paper can become a real fire hazard, warns Liberty Mutual Insurance Companies. Christmas morning confusion can have the house in an uproar and a lighted match or cigarette that is carelessly dropped in the wrappings can have the house in flames. If you are a memento collector, store these "goodies" in a safe place.

Some Land Sales Bear Investigation

FROM NAT'L OBSERVER
By AUGUST GRIBBIN
Rome, Maine.

"You are the winner of the homesite which is circled. . . If you choose to accept the winning lot send $270. . . to cover deed costs."

That unexpected announcement from the Charles Endicott Development Co. went to the New Jersey home of a young businessman. With it was a brochure explaining that the prize lot was near here in Black Horse Acres, "Maine's newest vacation development."

The "winner" was tempted to send a check, figuring that for $270 he couldn't lose. But he resisted the temptation and did what many other potential land buyers couldn't or wouldn't do: He came to Maine to see for himself what it was all about. To be certain he wouldn't miss a good thing, he brought along the required $270.

In succeeding days, the Jersey became acquainted with one of the newer gimmicks in a land-sales business already noted for "free" offers, strident sales pitches, and shady practitioners. The technique consists essentially in keeping needed information from would-be buyers while enticing them with vague promises in slick brochures and unwritten commitments.

New Law Isn't Much Help

Complaints about such practices have been flowing of late in many parts of the country. Federal and state officials report the complainers usually say they have bought lots and the developers have failed to deliver the deeds to the land or have reneged on development promises. The Interstate Land Sales Full Disclosure Act, which is now eight months old, hasn't been of much help to unwary buyers.

Typically, the New Jersey "winner" could not recall entering any land-give-away contest, nor could his wife. He did vaguely recall giving his name and address a few weeks earlier to a sporting-goods booth at a county fair. As he found out later, other "winners" had done that too. The prize lot was in a development about 15 miles northwest of Waterville on the fringe of Little Pond, an appendage of North Pond. At the entrance was a Black Horse Acres billboard with a smaller "member of the Portsmouth, N.H., Chamber of Commerce" sign nestled in the corner.

A visitors' parking area had been scraped out of the woods. A widened logging road plunged from the unpaved main road two miles to the lake's edge. Surveyor's stakes and lot-number, street-name, and "lot-sold" signs dotted the woods. A bulldozer sat idle. But there wasn't a soul from the development's staff around.

Surprisingly, for it was a drizzly Monday, several other "winners" showed up with letters. One, a hotel owner from Connecticut, carried letters from three neighbors who asked her to check out their winnings.

Were There Just 50 Winners?

The winners pooled information. They knew only that the names of all winners had been drawn at county fairs each had visited. They believed there were just 50 winners who received half-acre back lots normally selling for $2,475. They were given to believe waterfront lots cost more and were selling fast.

Their brochures implied land in the area was appreciating at about 9 per cent a year. Wells, said the literature, could be driven for $150, and electricity would be available at or near the development. The winners had the impression the developer would build roads and beaches.

Each one present had tried to confirm these data with Charles Endicott, who signed the winners' letters. But no one had succeeded in reaching him at the telephone number on the letter. One person did reach the "development surveyor's" wife who told him he definitely should visit Black Horse Acres soon and that there would be someone at hand to show him his plot.

Neither the inability to reach Mr. Endicott nor the absence of a salesman bothered the winners greatly. They felt they would get a good deal if only a fraction of their information proved correct. And the signs of road and parking area construction at the site tended to convince them the developer was serious about his plans.

Still, the New Jersey man hesitated. He called the developer at the number given on the letter a couple of times. Finally, a week after leaving messages with the answering service that responded, he got a call from Boston.

HAWAIIAN CARD — This beautiful Christmas card was sent from Hawaii to Mildred Brown of 335 Atlantic Ave. The colorful card, in red and green, says Merry Christmas on the front.

Editor's note—It has always been this newspaper's fondest hope that the daily papers would background all of us on world and national news, leaving our job to bring you the community news plus state and county when we deemed certain items important enough. But the importance of world affair and the situation in the US has caused us many sleepless nights and constant worry—and when you look to the dailies, you get lots of stories but none handled like you want them—interpreted by experts. We, therefore, have returned to combing the nation's press to find articles which will allow us to better understand, better background our thinking. We found the following which is timely and which we bring to you in the public interest.

It was a girl who said she represented the Endicott company.

The Construction Plans

She confirmed the information in the letter and brochure. Then she added that the Black Horse Acres operation began six months ago. It involved the sale of 1,000 acres and more than 90 lots. She said plans called for construction of three beaches, a tarred main road and numerous gravel-top "stem roads." She said the developer would bring in electricity and all work would be completed "in two or three months."

She said, however, there was no property report or other literature detailing the company's plans.

Further inquiry of area residents indicated that all Black Horse Acres buyers were "winners" who paid $270. Deed preparation for other transactions in the area usually cost from $10 to $25, not $270. The operation had been going just three months, not six. Normally wells in the area cost $7 a foot to dig and water lay from 70 to 100 feet down. Thus wells were likely to cost from $500 to $700, not $150. Furthermore, work at the site had stopped "for the winter."

Although these were rather discouraging facts, the New Jersey man still was not dissuaded from believing the $270 might yet be a good investment. One thing that bothered him, though, was the puzzling absence of a property report.

What the Law Requires
The Interstate Land Sales Full Disclosure Act requires that most developers dealing in interstate commerce and offering to sell more than 50 lots of less than five acres in size must give buyers a property report. Such reports must contain explicit data about the developer's background, the land, nearby utilities, and other community facilities.

Developers who have to give reports also must register with the Department of Housing and Urban Development's (HUD) Office of Interstate Land Sales Registration, the enforcer of the law. Despite reminders from the office, the Charles Endicott Development Co., it turned out, had not registered, or issued property reports, or explained why not.

In this and other ways, the Endicott operation strikingly resembles the promotions of Charles Geotis, a formerly bankrupt furniture and home-siding salesman. Mr. Geotis and the man known as Mr. Endicott both work the county-fair-winner gimmick. Both list post-office boxes as company addresses and give answering-service numbers as company telephone numbers. "Mr. Endicott" sends out brochures that are all but identical to Mr. Geotis'. He apparently uses construction equipment, check forms, and at least one automobile owned by one or another of Mr. Geotis' enterprises.

Though Mr. Geotis privately denies it, he is, in fact, Charles Endicott. On Dec. 4, in compliance with New Hampshire law, he registered as owner-operator of the Charles Endicott Development Co. Postal authorities and officials in HUD confirm that Mr. Geotis is Mr. Endicott.

BEST OF THE PRESS

Recently Mr. Geotis has promoted sales of vacation land at Buckingham Shores, near Fayette, Maine. He offered 112 lots, costing $1,350 for 20 per cent down and $20 a month. As a lure, he mailed $500 "credit checks" to persons whose names were drawn at county fairs. These "runner-up prizes" could be used toward purchase of one of the lots after the winner paid a $25 deposit and agreed to visit the subdivision. The deposit was to be returned at the subdivision.

Property Is Still Primeval

Buckingham Shores salesmen told prospects the development would have tarred roads, two swimming pools, a cabana, a community center, a restaurant, a marina, and tennis courts. Work on the development was to have been finished in 1967. Right now Buckingham Shores is in the same nearly primeval state as Black Horse Acres.

Purchasers have told state officials that salesmen made misrepresentations, and that the Buckingham Shores company kept their deposits and didn't issue deeds as agreed.

Similar things happened at Brandywine, a Geotis promotion near Winthrop, Maine. When Winthrop officials intervened, Mid-Atlantic Lumber, Inc., Salem, N.H., took over promotion, changing the development's name to Brigham Estates. State officials in Maine and Massachusetts insist that Mid-Atlantic is one of Mr. Geotis' companies. Others are the Maine Central Lakes Development Corp. the Great American Discount Corp., and U.S. General Development Corp., (not to be confused with General Development Corp. of Miami).

The brochures sent by these companies to plug various Geotis subdivisions use the same five color pictures and the same format and phraseology as the brochures sent by "Charles Endicott" to lure prospects to Black Horse Acres and Hemlock Acres, another Endicott enterprise near Detroit, Maine. Only the names of the developments and directions for getting to them vary.

Rejected by Chamber of Commerce

The Endicott company has advertised itself as a member of the Portsmouth Chamber of Commerce. It isn't; it was rejected for membership. And the Massachusetts Real Estate Board of Registrations says at least two persons have "won" the same lot at Black Horse Acres.

A buyer who might like to confront an official of the Endicott company will find it uncommonly difficult to find one. The phone company in Seabrook, N.H., has no listing for Charles Endicott or for the Charles Endicott Development Co. The phone number given on Endicott letters connects callers with a Portsmouth, N.H., answering service, which takes messages and mails them to the Seabrook post office.

The Endicott company rents office space in the Lattin Realty Building, a one-floor house on U.S. Highway 1, some 200 yards from the Massachusetts state line. There are no chairs nor phones in the office. And the man believed to be the company's sole employe stops by just once a day to pick up the mail; stays only long enough to initial the registered mail list sent by the post office with the mail packet. Most of the mail comes in the self-addressed Endicott Co. envelopes purchasers are told to use in returning their $270 certified checks. When the New Jersey "winner" learned all this, he decided not to buy. But without help or without investing much time and effort, he wouldn't have gotten this information. Nor would anyone else—despite the new land-sales law.

The Government warns, in fact, that buyers still must be wary.
