Sandy Ford to Reign Over Homecoming Celebration

By BLAINE ECKMAN

Miss Sandy Ford as Homecoming queen, attended by her court, Miss Johan Tournabene, senior; Miss Shelley Leggett, junior; Miss Bobbie Reynolds, sophomore; and Miss Debbie Oakley, freshman, will reign over the festivities of Homecoming at Basic high school tomorrow night.

The Dixie Flyers from St. George, Utah will provide the competition for the Wolves in the Homecoming game which will begin at 8 p.m. on the local field.

This year's activities at half-time will include performances by the Desertaires, the band and cheerleaders, with the theme of "The Golden Age." The Basic Alumni will be the guests of honor.

As the Flyers invade the city, Basic assumes the role as underdog in a clash that should provide a colorful display of football. The Flyers are enjoying an eight-game winning streak, having lost their opening game of the season.

Coach Joe Blockovich sees a ray of hope since Basic's schedule has been more competitive than has Dixie's schedule. Basic's tremendous display against Verbum Dei has earned many plaudits from several sources.

With this being the case, the game should be rather close and not a Dixie romp as some would expect.

Basic's seniors will be playing their last varsity game. The likes of Lefler, Armstrong, Zajac, Kester, Nelson, etc., should be fired up to provide the spark for a Basic triumph. Also, since this is homecoming, the stimulus for greater performances is provided.

Dixie's last victory was a 58-14 drubbing of arch foe, Cedar City.

"Our greatest solace will be that the Flyers will be looking forward to Utah State Championship laurels and take Basic as a practice game to pad their record," Blockovich said.

Any way the game is anticipated, it's surely to be a slam-banging affair. All Basic alumni are invited to recall pleasant experiences of past high school days.

Auction Planned By BC

The City of Boulder City will hold an auction at 10 a.m. Nov. 7 at the city garage on surplus property which is miscellaneous enough to appeal to "the most discriminating tastes."

If someone has a need for 85 old fire hydrants, a tired concrete mixer or an old sewer lift station, the city garage is the place to go. Everything will be sold "as is."

Other items which will go under the hammer held by City Engineer Larry Hampton will be seven vehicles, two portable generators, a water truck, extinguishers, a traffic line marker, 173 used electric meters, two gate valves, etc.

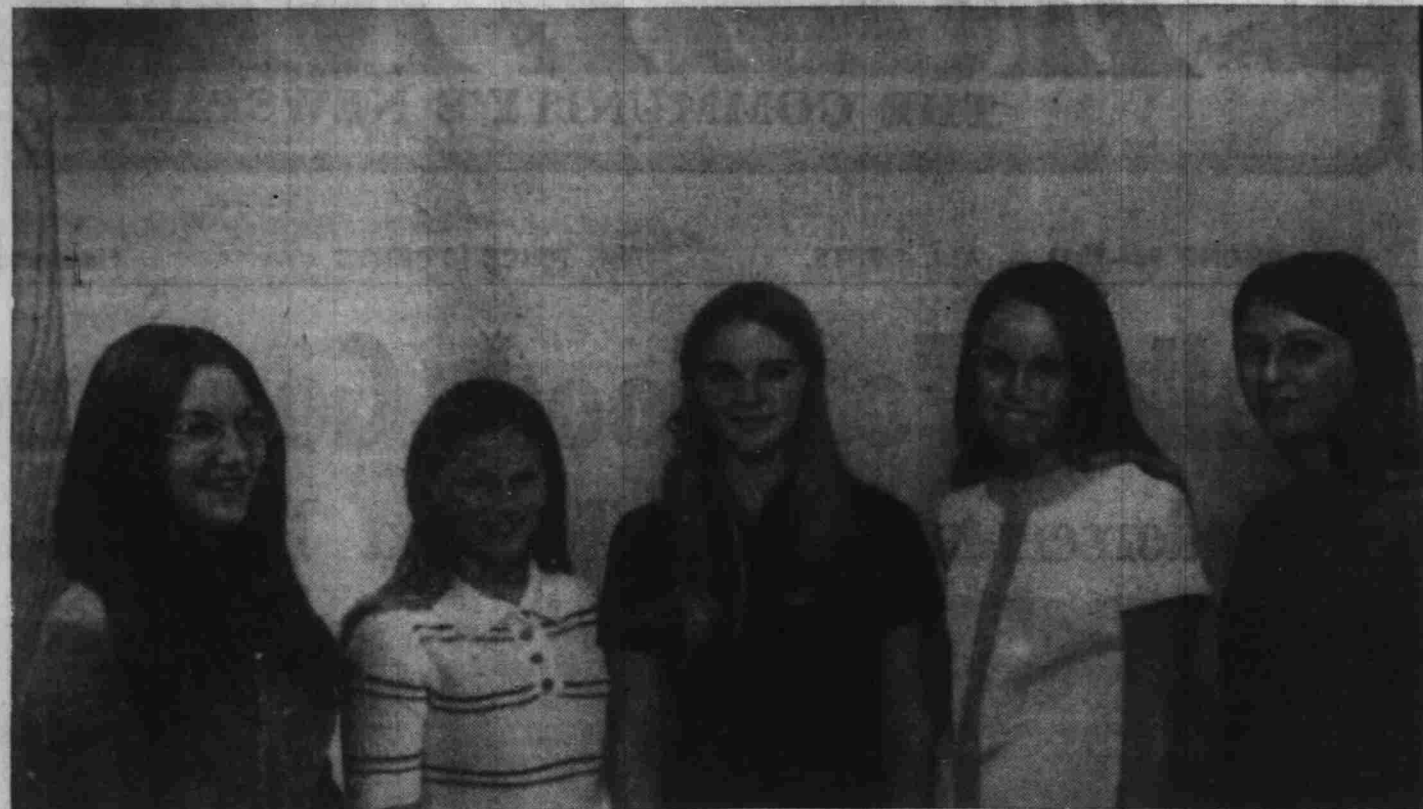

The fire hydrants are a package deal to the highest bidder. No minimum bid has been set on the hydrants. Some are damaged and some are missing parts.

Minimum bids have been set on the following: 1965 Olds sedan, $200; 1962 Ford sedan, $100; 1961 Ford sedan, $100; 1958 Ford sedan, $50; 1951 dump truck, $150; 1950 International water truck, $150 and 1963 Ford sedan, $150.

A minimum bid of $1,200 has been set for the sewer lift station which needs extensive repairs.

Items may be inspected prior to the auction at the city garage in the fire station between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m.

Morry's Story

By MORRY ZENOFF

We today, with the presentation of one of the most unusual front pages in newspaper history, suggest to the voters this newspaper's pick of the candidates — all of it meant to possibly assist citizens in determining where their X's will mark the spot next Tuesday.

In a few cases we did not insert an X, like in the supreme court race I felt that wherever I would put my mark, I might be accused of being influenced by opinions of my judge brother. He has made no expression pro or con.

Or like in Boulder City, the race between Tom Warburton and Juanita White for the assembly — we felt the arguments for both candidates were equal, Tom representing the young new action type of politico and Juanita representing the conservative but highly educated type of candidate. Both are experienced in serving — one as regent, one as councilman.

We believe Mike O'Callaghan is an outstanding candidate for governor and that people should then move over and select Bob Broadbent from the Republican side — as they did for years when Rex Bell was alive — as the balance wheel as it-governor.

Should misfortune or accident — heaven forbid — overtake our governor I wish to feel secure about who stands in the wings to take over and run the state. Broadbent would best fit such an emergency. Meanwhile, as second ranking man, he will, if elected, help Mike accomplish the fine program he plans for the state. Bob and Mike would work hand and glove.

Henderson's fine legislative team of Jim Gibson, Hal Smith and Art Espinosa won such plaudits in the last legislature that they all were appointed to the committee that handles legislative matters between sessions.

The team handled local requests pronto and on matters requiring their educating the other assemblymen and then winning their votes, the job was done. On matters concerning the state — the team often stood up and fought either for or against, never pussy-footing in fear of reprisal or criticism.

In this race, voters select two men . . . from the three in the contest. The third candidate is Jim Smalley, Henderson school teacher.

Howard Cannon's bid for reelection rates local backing to the hilt. He has championed the titanium industry in the aircraft field and he is anxious to put the unemployed here back to work. He is one of the ablest senators in Washington and his seniority thru reelection will bring Nevada equal ranking with major states.

Henderson and Boulder voters have in their hands on Tuesday the key to the winners.

If both cities unite on O'

Callaghan and Broadbent, and give the two candidates a plurality of six thousand votes — they will overcome what their opponents add up in Vegas. Both are far ahead in polls in the north, the cow counties and in Henderson-Boulder. Both need a near 100 per cent home town vote to win.

Our selections on page one also give our opinions on the proposed constitutional amendments. You will notice we have changed our minds from a month ago on the matter of annual sessions of the legislature as against once in two years.

We have learned that annual sessions will get the job done better, that long sessions will not be needed — thus the charge that it will be too costly is not valid.

This being a fast changing state, and times being fast changing and full of problems — annual sessions seem the only way. Besides, we all would like to have the chance to check the work of our elected officials annually — instead of waiting two years.

While the page one recommendations may or may not help you — they are meant to do so — and we feel they are the pick of the fine list of men and women who offer to serve you.

Because your vote may be the one to decide the close elections expected in several races — you ought to be sure to go to the polls and "speak your piece" behind the private curtain.

Like no other time in our memory, your vote this year is so very, very important.

City Develops 6 Miles Of New Roadways Here

The City of Henderson has hard surfaced six miles of roadway into its undeveloped land, according to City Manager Don Dawson.

Dawson said the paving has been done to both encourage development and reduce maintenance costs.

"These roads extend into very desirable residential-zoned properties and provide access for potential builders and investors," reported Dawson.

The city council has adopted a general policy to review annually the development of its lands within the boundaries of the city and provide this type of surfacing until permanent improvements are necessary.

At this time 12 to 14 building permits have been issued for residential construction.

Several of these properties have been developed and others are in the construction stage and are located in these areas.

Greenway Drive, south of the golf course, and Pacific avenue to the south, have been paved for construction in that area. Other roads have been improved in the Valley View area of the city.

Abe Schneider Speaker For Foursquare Church On Sunday

Abe Schneider, President of the Hebrew Messianic Center in Los Angeles, whose ministry is international in scope, with expression in Israel, will be the guest of Rev. Don Frazier of the Foursquare Church in Henderson, corner of Pacific and Basic on Sunday, Nov. 1. He will be speaking in the 10:45 service and also the 7 p.m. evening service.

Mr. Schneider was born in an orthodox Jewish home and raised in the Jewish tradition. When he was thirty he became a "completed Jew" by accepting God's Messiah, Mr. Schneider says.

Making personal the Old and the New Testament concepts of fasting, Abe Schneider established the practice of fasting 3 days each week and praying on those days until 4:00 a.m. the following morning. He prays for requests which come to him from all over the country and receives many testimonies of victorious answers to these prayers.

Nearly 20 years ago Mr. Schneider made a vow to God that he would tell at least one person a day about the love of his Messiah, a vow which he has kept without a single failure. Hundreds of friendships have resulted. Under his direction the Hebrew Messianic Center conducts a telephone and visitation ministry which provides spiritual counsel to 6,000 or more persons each year. His Southern California radio ministry is heard by an estimated 30,000 listeners daily.

You will enjoy his report of the faithfulness of God to a Jewish man in the twentieth century.

Lone Thief Takes $100 Sunday

Approximately $100 was taken Sunday in the robbery of the Texaco service station on Boulder highway and Case Parkway, according to Henderson police.

According to Cpl. W. Miller, a lone man about 27, walked into the station at approximately 3:30 p.m., and ordered station attendant Ray Edward Tennant, 18, to "Give me your green stuff."

The victim opened the cash box and gave him the money. He was then taken to the rear of the lube room to a small office and ordered to stay there, "or else."

According to police, the suspect at no time showed a weapon, however, he had his right hand in the right pocket of the blue jacket simulating a weapon.

The robber walked away and no vehicle was seen. The suspect was described as about six foot one, thin, with brown hair, wearing a blue jacket zipped up the front. He had a light complexion.

Utility Fund Use Questioned

By Virginia Morrison
BOULDER CITY — A gentle rain fell on the large crowd of members of the Municipal Golf Association Tuesday night when their spokesman, Red Lansford, presented the proposition to the City Council for a city-owned nine hole golf course.

The dampness set in when financing was discussed.

MGA proposed that the present $24,000 fund from the Las Vegas Convention Authority, plus the $20,000 promised the city this year, be augmented by $50,000 from the utility fund. The latter would be paid back to the fund from green fees.

Two councilmen, Tom Cooper and Tom Warburton, favored the proposition, and moved for approval. An amendment was suggested which failed to pass, and the first motion did pass. So, the issue became confusing at that point.

There is some question as to how much the city is committed to spend on other recreation from LVCA funds; would the transfer from utilities be legal and should the proposition be put up to the voters. It was decided that MGA spokesmen, the city attorney, city manager and the Recreation Board will get together next Monday night to go into the matter more thoroughly.

City Manager Dick Isenberg, who favors a golf course, not only for residential recreation but as a tourist attraction, put in a strong bid to the council for approval, stating that the city's utility fund can well afford to be spent for such a project, and that there would still be $250,000 left.

He suggested that the MGA should formally organize and come to the council with firm plans.

The city attorney, fearful of the legality of withdrawing utility funds for this purpose without a vote of the people, suggested a deeper study be made before the council commits itself.

Ken Andree, Black Canyon Country Club member, stated he has been waiting for 13 years, in fact, ever since he paid a $500 membership fee to join the country club, to play golf in Boulder City, and he has given up hope that its course will ever be built.

Black Canyon was the first private organization to purchase land from the city after incorporation. It owns 206 acres in the heart of the municipality and the land is 50 members, some scattered now for sale. The club has all over the United States since joining.

A site chosen by MGA is located near the sewer ponds where the area is open and the soil is sandy and conducive to good greens and fairways. It also abuts the Black Canyon property.

Rodriguez Outlines Xmas Mail Procedures

Officer in charge Joe Rodriguez today listed six tips on how residents of Henderson can help meet tight Christmas budgets this year by careful mailing of cards and parcels.

For the most efficient mailing, Rodriguez suggested the following steps:

1. For servicemen overseas — "SAM" (Space Available Mail) Christmas parcels can be sent until Nov. 23 for only the small domestic parcel post charge involved from Henderson to East or West Coast points of embarkation for military mail. Parcels up to 5 pounds and 69 inches in combined length and girth are accepted at this low rate.

2. Larger parcels (up to 30 pounds with the same length and girth limitations) can be sent as "PAL" (Parcel Airlift) mail, provided they are mailed by Nov. 27. The charge is only $1 per parcel, plus the regular domestic parcel post postage — much less than charges that would apply later if straight airmail service must be provided.

3. For all packaging, invest in good quality, sturdy wrapping materials. This small investment can help insure undamaged delivery of valuable gifts and prevent delays which might result if rewrapping were required in transit.

4. Insure parcels realistically to cover full value but do not overinsure. A $10 gift, for example, can bring only $10 compensation, if lost, even if "insured" for $100.

5. Get plenty of stamps on your first trip to the post office to avoid the time and expense of additional trips.

6. Use ZIP Code as a tool for economy in mailing. When it is used consistently on parcels and cards, ZIP Code helps prevent errors in delivery and expedites handling. If only a few Christmas cards go astray, an investment of several dollars may be lost, for example.

"The key to efficient Christmas mailing," Rodriguez commented, "is to mail early and carefully. Clear addressing, with the ZIP Codes, proper packaging and early depositing can prevent most problems and provide the greatest value for money spent for postage."

Sets School

The Clark County Election Department will hold a school for all appointed and prospective Election Board Officers and Poll Guards, Thursday, Oct. 29, in the Gold Room of the Convention Center.

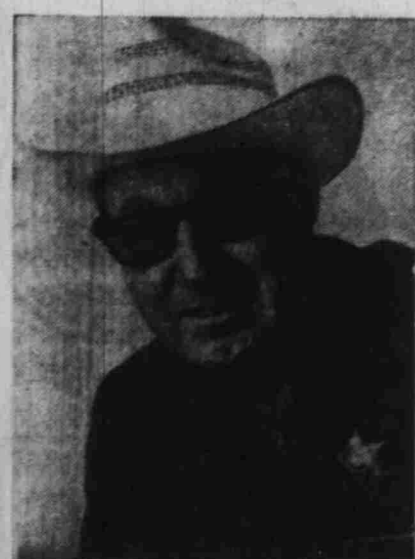

The school, as required by law, will be divided into two sessions; 2:30 p.m. and 7:30 p.m., and attendance is required at only one of the two sessions.

Attendance at the school is most important, so that those who staff the Election Day Boards are instructed in changes of procedure.

NEVADA HIGHWAY WRECK — Fire Dept. Capt. John Clark is shown examining Dennis W. Ballew of Henderson following a grisly wreck on Nevada Highway westbound last Sunday night. Driver of the car was Nelson T. Soehlke, also of Henderson. The car went out of control and after sliding several hundred feet in one direction, spun around and slid broadside another 211 feet, winding up in a culvert. Both are listed in satisfactory condition at Boulder City Hospital. (Knighton photo)

Time Out For Beauty

By Dorothy Gray

The Delicate Eye

Eyes—once called the mirrors of the soul—are a dead giveaway about your moods, your personality, your age. Eyes can be winking at blinking, darting and darting, enticing, smiling, beguiling—and Irish. But at some point sooner or later all those pretty eyes have one thing in common: the delicate area surrounding the eye can wrinkle. Perhaps the first ever-so-slight sign are the minuscule feathery lines at the corners, or the hint of puffiness in the morning, or the tiny pouch under the eye, or the less-than-smooth lid over it. And it's nothing to be ashamed of because it eventually happens to everyone as an irreversible part of maturing. The skin loses a little of its elasticity, natural oils, moisture and the result means that the skin around the eye tends to become thin, translucent and wrinkled. At one time women resigned themselves to it all—but now with the proper care of the delicate eye, it's possible to stave off and minimize the problem.

BOULDER CITY — Next Tuesday more than half the population of Boulder City, it is hoped, will exercise its right to determine what candidates will hold national, state, county and township offices.

Polling places will remain the same — the high school gym and the former elementary school gym. Precincts 1, 4, 5 and 6 will be on Arizona St. and Precincts 2, 3, 7, 8, 9 and 10 will be at the high school. Polls open at 7 a.m. and close at 7 p.m., and the election is being conducted by Registrar of Voters Tom Mulroy.

The city's first mayor, Bob Broadbent, is running a grinding campaign to become lieutenant governor, and thus bring prestige to Boulder City. His opponent is Harry Reid, a Democrat formerly of Henderson, and a member of the Nevada Assembly. Broadbent holds the position of County Commissioner-at-large.

A tight race is predicted between Councilman Thomas Warburton and Dr. Juanita White for Assembly District 1 and both are conducting a hard hitting campaign in Boulder City and towns in Moapa Valley.

Cliff Segerblom and Perle Morris are both running for justice of peace and constable of Nelson Township respectively with no opposition. Votes garnered will be a matter of token appreciation only.

In the top state race it is the present lieutenant governor, Ed Fike, Mike O'Callaghan, Republican and Demo-

DEMO UNITY — Showing the unity of the Democratic Party, Hank Thornley is pictured with gubernatorial candidate Mike O'Callaghan. Other political candidates in the party gathered at the City Park Sunday at a Democratic Candidates Picnic which was sponsored by the Southern Nevada Democrats.

Kathy Mains Weds L.V. Lad

HENDERSON — Afternoon vows on October 17 united Kathy June Mains and Joseph John Alexander in marriage.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William T. Mains of Henderson. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Alexander of Las Vegas.

Rev. John L. Corredato performed the double-ring ceremony in the St. Viator Guardian Angel Shrine which was decorated in yellow and green flowers. One hundred and fifty attended the wedding. Sharon Thompson, organist, played the traditional Bridal March.

Kathy, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of white satin, covered with white lace with soft imprints. The long-sleeved dress came to a V in the front. The white floor-length veil was held by a bow on top. She carried a bouquet of yellow carnations set in green.

crat, and Independent candidates Daniel Hansen and Charles Springer seeking the governorship.

William Raggio, Republican, hopes to overthrow Howard Cannon's try for a third term as U.S. Senator on the Democratic ticket.

Voters have received their sample ballots sent out from Mulroy's office and it is suggested they be studied carefully before going to the polls.

The astronomical number of candidates seeking office and the nine special questions to be voted on have made the ballot the largest in the state's history and in order to expedite the voting Tuesday, it is hoped that electors will have pretty well digested their choices before going behind the curtain.

Those able to vote during the quiet hours of the day at the polls are asked to do so in order to avoid the lengthy lines which form when the 5 p.m. work day closes. Many Boulderites are employed out of town and are unable to get to the polls until late in the afternoon.

Mrs. Frank Terrano was matron of honor. She wore a floor-length gown of green satin in the empire design and puff sleeves. Her small green veil was held by a bow.

Cynthia Kabasan and Davonna Damron were bridesmaids. These attendants wore yellow satin gowns and veils of the same design as Mrs. Terrano's. The three each carried a yellow rose set in green.

Miss Linda Raner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Alexander of Henderson, was flower girl. The ring bearer was Miss Mary Ann Alexander, sister of the groom. Both Linda and Mary Ann wore green satin gowns matching the bridesmaids.

Steve Blakeman was best man with David Cash and Red Alexander as ushers.

Mrs. Mains chose a beige dress with matching accessories for the wedding. The groom's mother wore a blue with silver imprint dress and silver shoes. Both mothers had white carnation corsages.

The Mesquite Club was decorated in yellow and green decorations with white bells for the reception.

The chocolate wedding cake was iced in white and decorated in yellow flowers and green leaves. The three-tiered cake was topped by doves in a dale. Two of Kathy's friends served the cake and Tom Murray served the drinks. Mrs. Jake Raner was in charge of the guest book.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Witt, Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Whitman, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dreyer, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Mains, and Donald Sullivan.

After a honeymoon trip in Las Vegas and California, the newlyweds are making their first home in Gardina, California.

Judge Tabor Discusses Court Plans

BOULDER CITY — Judge Harold L. Tabor discussed modernization of the Nevada court system at the Oct. 21 meeting of the Rotary Club. Judge Tabor, former district attorney of Washoe County, former district judge and past president of the Nevada State Bar Association is chairman of the Citizens Conference for the modernization of the Nevada Court System and is a candidate for the State Court.

The present judicial system dates back to 1864, with adoption of the state constitution, he said. With Nevada being the fastest growing state in the nation, it is necessary to provide for the future. The citizens committee made a number of recommendations to the 1967 state legislature, most of which fell by the wayside. A subcommittee was appointed to study problems in the interim between 1967 and 1969 legislatures.

The report was submitted to the 1969 legislature which took a jaundiced view of many of the recommendations and proposed a joint resolution for a constitutional amendment which would completely revise the judicial system, Judge Tabor told the group.

Contributions of the $1. per member were solicited for a district project of providing food to the Hopi Indians, who are suffering extreme hardship as a result of heavy rains destroying their winter food crop. President Denny Pease attended the installation meeting of the District 530's newest club, the Cucamonga Area Rotary Club on Oct. 21. The Boulder City Rotary Club shared with other clubs in providing a road sign for the new club.

Visiting Rotarians were Ernie Moritz, honorary member; Henry Curtis, Henderson; and Carl Cesla, North Portland, Oreg. Guests were Jack Napier, Sacramento, and Bob Owens and Alvin Wartman, Las Vegas.

Seniors present as guests of the club were Vic Farris, Tom Connors, Russell Foreman and Greg Frisco.

TO THE EDITOR

Dear Mrs. Kesterson —

It's much the better way to pay for a paper, for all concerned. Right? Never let Mr. Zenoff consider making it a daily. We have cut our "big" paper down to twice a week from a newstand, since wastepaper is such a problem.

That Mr. Harris has good ideas of what to do about pollution. I wish he, or someone, would organize us to recycle our waste, and the small size of Henderson should help make us a model city on this.

We like your "Best of the News" feature. How about a reprint from the Aug. American Legion Magazine on the Kayser Hospital PLAN? When we are free to move we intend to find a place where this is available.

And can't something be done about the kookie way we cross a double highway on either the right or left side of the crossing? Involving more than one car it gets pretty weird.

I could raise other questions, but I'll give you a rest for now.

Sincerely - Helen Warner

Students Conduct Election

BOULDER CITY — Interested in the current political campaign, students of Mrs. Gene Segerblom's government class have been campaigning on their own in class for the candidates of their choice.

Sherry Sorenson spoke out for Ed Pike, while his opponent Mike O'Callaghan was represented by Cindy R. u. a. Bob Broadbent and Harry Reid were represented by Kay Littleton and Mary Shope, respectively, while Bill Raggio and Howard Cannon were spoken for by Bob Armburst and Cindy Harries. Tom Connors and Mary Shope also spoke for their other candidates, Thomas Warburton and Dr. Juanita White.

After hearing all the speeches, one student remarked that he never thought very much about politics until now. Many students felt that the project gave them an opportunity of know candidates of their choice better.

The students will hold their own election and will vote on Oct. 30.

Traffic Award

BOULDER CITY — A Triple A award to the City of Boulder City and Police Chief H. G. Smith in particular for a no fatality record relating to pedestrians led off the City Council agenda Tuesday night.

The award covered the years of 1968 and 1969 and included all age levels.

Mayor Jim French thanked the AAA representative and stated that people in Boulder City can possibly run faster than residents of other cities.

Two bills were introduced for the purchase of buildings on Avenue B, the former Emporium and the site next to the Recreation Tavern. The money will be transferred from the utility fund.

The city plans to tear them down, realize some salvage, and make room for direct access to parking facilities in the plaza between Avenue B and the Boulder City Inn.

LOOKING AROUND

From the News Desk

By LORNA KESTERSON—NEWS Editor

Everyone has written a political column except me. I feel that I can't let the election go without offering some sage observations. Not that anyone asked me, you understand, I just thought I would.

First of all, I would label the year 1970 as the "musical" year.

All of the politicians have a song. If you aren't musically inclined or don't have some "group" on your side, forget the politics. It's not your year.

If you have an unmusical name like Kesterson, forget it also. What could rhyme Kesterson? And who could sing it all in one breath?

I guess I should make it clear that I hadn't really planned on running for anything anyhow, but if I were, I would wait until the year is not so musical.

After all, if you don't carry enough weight to win election to the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce, who would think of running for Governor?

I have given some thought to calling in the Women's Lib movement on the Chamber of Commerce. Out of eight people running for the four seats on board of directors, only two were women and neither was elected. Taking the percentage of women around, to that of men, I think that Mrs. Roberts and I were dealt with unjustly and our minority group should do something about the discrimination.

be willing to meet with prospective Henderson Lib workers in front of the Chamber office, complete with signs.

There is something about being a journalist that does not lend to popularity or politics. As I go down in defeat from the Chamber, I join a nice group of my peers who were also unsuccessful in bids to elections... let's take Hank Greenspan and his bid for the governorship; Morry Zenoff and his bid for the state senate; Hank Thornley and his bid for the governorship; Paul Price and his bid for a commissioner seat.

There is comfort in defeat. I say this to all you candidates who find sadness on election night.

City Councilman Pratt Prince, known for saying what he thinks whether it is popular or not, brought down the house Monday night at the council meeting.

In talking about the Stewart Brothers request to purchase land, Engineer Bob McNutt, representing the firm, said that it might be possible for the firm to add a two cent a yard royalty to the contract for the city on all concrete gravel.

"That's kinda Chintzy isn't it?" asked Prince.

McNutt assured him that the price received by the firm was about ten cents, so it is fair.

With some urging, I would

Masons Conduct Webb Services

BOULDER CITY —
by ESTHER SHIPP.

Masonic funeral rites were held yesterday afternoon for Richard "Dick" Sidney Webb, 71, at the Palm Chapel in Henderson. They were conducted by Wilfred "Bill" Voss, past grand master of the Masons of Nevada; Harry Overbey, deputy grand master; and Robert "Bob" Parker, past master of Boulder Lodge No. 37, F. & A.M. They also officiated at the interment in Boulder City Cemetery.

Pallbearers were N. W. Jack Arnold, William Art Hurt, John Layton, Horace Ward, Carl Merrill and Jack Caldwell.

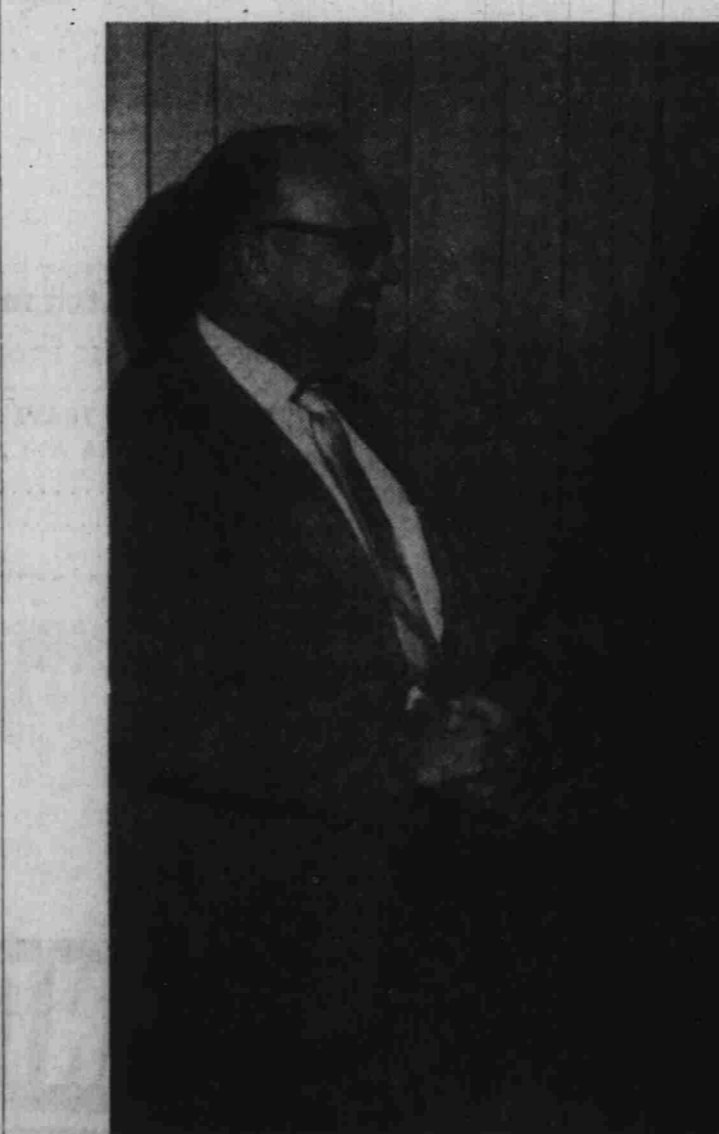

Dick was born October 23, 1899 in Kansas City, Kansas, and attended school in Ocean Park, Calif. He was a graduate of Purdue University, with a degree in engineering, and joined Lafayette Lodge No. 123, F. & A.M. in Indiana. As a master Mason he belonged to the national Acacia Fraternity.

Dick married Thelma "Sammy" Tilton, September 25, 1926. They had one son, Robert, born in Peru, where Dick worked for seven years at the Cerro De Pasco copper smelter in Aroya. After the Webb family moved to Boulder City in 1938, Bob attended the local schools and was a star athlete in high school.

The whole Webb family was interested in sports, and "followed the team" out of town for many years.

Dick and Sammy were on a hunting trip in the Ruby Mountains of northern Nevada when he became ill, Oct. 13. He was given medical care in Ely, then brought by ambulance to Boulder City. Their trailer was brought back home by his son.

Dick came to Nevada to do construction work with his brother, the late Paul S. Jim Webb, a Boulder pioneer, and many of the largest buildings in town were erected by them,

Old Officers Board Train in Farewell

BOULDER CITY —
Mrs. Madelaine Garrett, worthy matron, and Charles Sweet, worthy patron, of Desert Chapter 22, presided at their last meeting of the eastern star year on Oct. 19.

Mrs. Garrett presented an original skit written by her to say farewell to her officers. At the close of the meeting, much to the surprise of all those present, she donned a train engineer's cap, carried a huge flashlight and asked her patron to be the baggage man for the mythical train that was about to wend its way around the chapter room.

The baggage cart was filled with beautiful candles for each officer. The officers used these to carry out the lighted train idea. As the officers were approached by the engineer, a personal tribute was paid to them in recognition of their devotion and loyalty to the work of the order this year.

The climax came when petite Terri Reid, dressed in a beautiful red velvet dress, was given an old fashioned lantern, and asked to be the "caboose" of the train. The members on the sidelines provided the "chug chugs," and appropriate whistles. While Lu Robinson, at the organ, played with great feeling "I've been working on the railroad," as the "train" filed out of the room.

The honored guests in the east were: Bernice Fenlon, Wilfred Voss, Charlotte Taylor, Anne Donnelly, and Mildred Runyan.

First time visitors were: Blanche Honeycutt, Wagner Chapter No. 111 Springhill, La.; Margaret Massey, Ruth Chapter No. 305, South San Francisco; Theodore Moe, Martha Chapter No. 22, Hot Springs, S. D.; Gertrude Steiner, Southgate No. 18, Las Vegas, and Mildred Runyan of Havasu Chapter No. 61, Lake Havasu City.

Four persons were initiated into the order and Lillian Honeycutt substituted as Ruth.

The refreshment committee served the traditional dessert for October, pumpkin pie, whipped cream and coffee. The committee was composed of: Rose Lawson, Jessie Lewis, Doris Maddux, Irene Singleton and Donna Gilmore. The serving tables were decorated with bowls of flowers in the autumn colors.

The next regular meeting of the chapter will be held on Nov. 2 when the new officers will preside.

NEW FASHION LOOK FOR TOMORROW'S WORKING MAN

What will the working man of tomorrow wear? A group of top designers just came up with a startling answer. No more drab grays or olive greens. He'll wear white, they say. And they've created a forecast collection of white uniforms for David Kidd created a uniform for the gas station attendant of tomorrow—white with red and blue trim. Leo Narducci's mailman looks like a musical star. Betsy Johnson's 1972 gardener has see-through pockets for seed packets. And John Weitz' sanitation man in his pith helmet could be on a high-fashion safari.

John Weitz' sanitation man
David Kidd's gas station attendant
Leo Narducci's mailman
Betsy Johnson's gardener
Cock Howard's foreman
Van Lupa's ship steward
Some two dozen occupations—from firemen to foreman, from sanitation man to research scientist.

The designers say there's no reason for today's working man to feel unattractive in dull, ill-fitting clothes just because his wife figures that they won't show the dirt. They point out that today's cold water laundering makes the idea of all-white work clothes not only possible but practical. The designers found that the modern Cold Power formula is especially effective in cleaning and brightening today's cotton-synthetic blends.

Ken O'Keefe, Fashion Director of the Men's Fashion Association says, "Many women have so associated Cold Power laundering with colored clothes that they forget it's for the whole laundry—and that means whites that wives can launder in cold water right along with the towels, sheets, shirts and kids' underthings." Does this mean the end of the blue collar worker?

ONE MAN'S OPINION

The Third Stool

by AL LANGLEY

I just got it figured out how a politishun cud git himself elected an' re-elected. All he has to do is promise to let us keep our clocks in one position the year around.

There ain't nuthin' that upsets me more than gittin' up twice a year at 2 a.m. and changin' the dad blame things.

I got me one of them Spiro Agnew watches but I didn't hafta set it back, it wuz already an hour late.

Speakin' of politishuns, I met one of the nicest fellers the other day in Judge Tabor. He didn't have that politishun handshake or a big black cigar to give away. He wuz jest plain folks.

He's lookin' fer a seat on the supreme court bench and I hope he don't git' scrouge off.

Well, let's see, let's talk golf. Right after my first colyum a spell back it seems a few folks figured I still ain't fer a golf course.

Now that ain't right, I said the city manager wud hit a bull's eye with this golf course if it ain't presented to the voters like the last one wud.

I understand this course, without a clubhouse, will cost less than one quarter of wot the last one wud.

I also understand most of the funds are comin' from the Convention Center cash register. If it's built under them condishuns I'll caddy fer the finance officer and the city engineer six months fer free. I'll even toss the city manager in.

After the fine job he's been don' I think he deserves sumpin' nice.

Speakin' of the city manager, I think he's been so busy with paper work lately he ain't had time to inspect our street face liftin' job. When he duz find the time he might git on the city engineer like a turke yon a june bug.

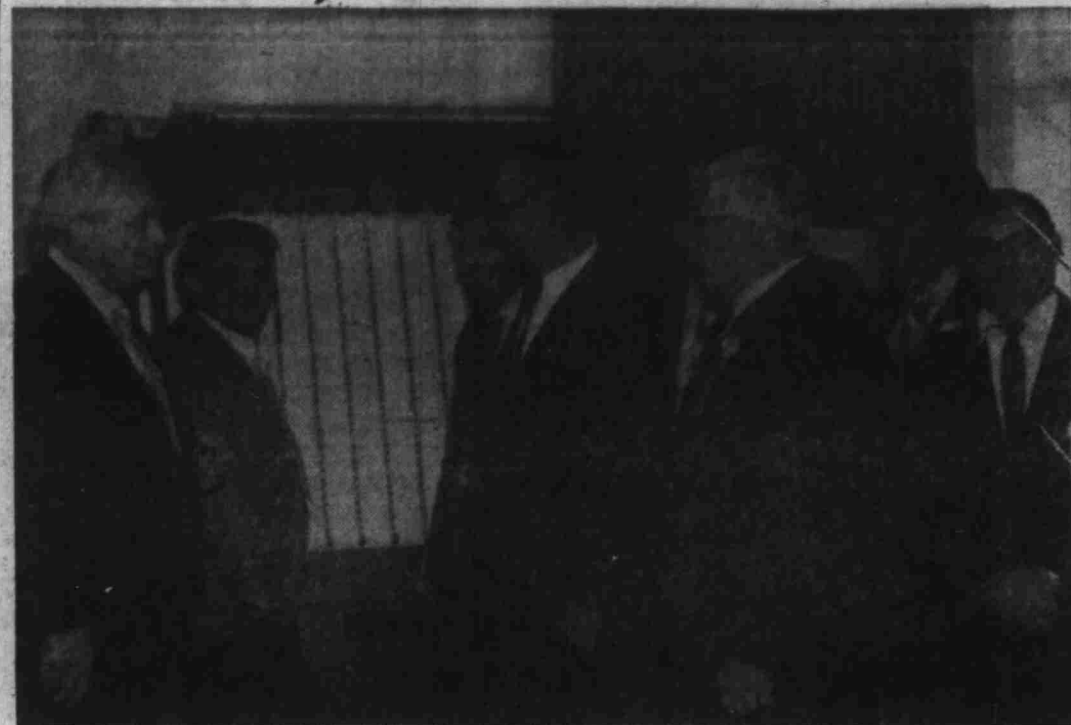

I have seen some mistakes covered up before but this last go around is a bigger mess than a sow's bed.

I hate to keep harpin' on this street job and I also hate to see the taxpayers shell out omeny for sumpin' they ain't gittin'.

Like I said a spell back, I dunno where some of these city employees come from.

Well, let's see, I guess I had better git over to Morry's office and pick up my big fat check fer my colyum writin'. The way I got it figured, I ain't got much comin', yu see he pays me by the inch.

Good Nite,
Al Langley

Harry Springer Has Had Life Of Service

Harry Eugene Springer, candidate for the state inspector of mines, has a long history of distinguished service to his country and an interest in mines.

A story in the Nevada State Journal in 1945, carried the story of FPC. Springer, who was then 19, of Hawthorne, capturing seven Japanese soldiers, near a vital bridge in Okinawa.

Springer was assisted in the capture by a squad of men and a war dog. When the dog alerted in front of the cave, Springer tossed in a smoke grenade, and the seven Japanese men came out.

At the age of 13, Springer was the youngest prospector in Nevada, having made a shipment of ore from Mina.

Young Springer and 80-year-old Al Lacey screened 15 tons of ore from old dumps in the camp which had been overlooked by others, and it was sent to the Mineral Refining company at Bent on,

The mess in Henderson

By DON HUNTER
If everyone is so much against pollution, how come there is so much junk blowing. Every time the wind blows, my yard is a mess of papers. Grocery bags, old yellow pages from newspapers, bills, letters, even a check one day. (Yes, I could have cached it, but I handed it over to the writer.) We have a Beautification Committee, but unless something is done about all the junk blowing round, it won't do much good. Much of the trouble comes from the garbage cans without lids. In case you haven't noticed, they are the major ity. People just throw the trash in, then along comes the wind, and out it all goes again. We do have an ordinance against this sort of thing. All cans are supposed to have lids. When more prosperous times return to this community, I suggest that this law be enforced.

I always use supermarket bags to hold my trash, then dump bag and trash right in the can. In that way, even if the lid is missing, the wind can't blow it around. Also, if dogs upset the can, the stuff doesn't get strewn around. I have three cans, all with lids, and rarely have trouble this way.

Another development that I would like to see ruled upon is the use of plastic bags to hold trash. Because such bags can be tied at the top when full, the problem of stuff blowing out again does not arise. However, least anyone think that the perfect answer has arrived to trash disposal, there is one snag with these bags that I have noticed.

They tear. To be specific, dogs can tear them, and if they smell meat inside, will rip open the plastic bags and scatter the contents all over. For this reason I think we need a ruling on whether these plastic bags are legal. Another problem that might have been stopped at the beginning, if somebody in Government had used their commonsense, is throwaway products — bottles and cans in particular.

Exactly why industry should have invented these is not hard to see. They are popular. Nobody wants to lug bottles back to the store. Unfortunately, the throwaway age arrived just about the time that people became aware that there no longer was an 'away.'

I recently read an article, which stated that 90 percent of trash today is re-usable. Personally I would favor outlawing throwaway bottles. They get thrown away all over the place. Our cities are littered with broken glass from these one way products.

Alternatively, suppose we put a state tax on these bottles — say ten cents each — which would be refunded upon return. This would encourage youngsters to collect and return them, just like they did in the past.

Cans are a different problem, at least they don't break. The problem of aluminum cans may solve itself, because the price of aluminum is sufficiently high that it already pays to try and reclaim them. Eventually I think that we shall have to segregate waste metal products, to facilitate reclaiming. The rubbish dumps of today may be the ore deposits of tomorrow.

Lest this sounds exaggerated, one copper company in Arizona is already looking into the treatment of its tailings from ore that was treated prior to 1940. Apparently re-treatment is now an economic proposition.

Something that might solve the problem of excessive trash in the downtown section of Henderson would be more trash cans or baskets. Have you ever been to Disneyland? Every few yards there is a container for trash, that is one reason why Disneyland is so clean. We definitely could use more around the center of town. Painting the containers bright colors was a good idea, perhaps a psychedelic design would go over even better. Oh yes — they need to be emptied more frequently too!

With the shortage of newsprint that is expected in the future, segregation of paper products may also be required in the future. Bags, newspapers, wrappers, cardboard boxes, you name it, if its made of paper it could be re-used.

While on this subject, I would also like to touch on the latest fad of certain members of our society, 'trashing' them to pick up so many property just because impossible demands cannot be granted at once. What does this remind you of? The temper tantrums of a two year old child! Instead of imposing fines, how about sentencing the mto pick up so many cubic yards of trash? I'm all for making the punishment match the offense. If we match it well enough, we might not have the offense at all.

So, to summarize my suggestions on how to clean up the mess in Henderson, we need household trash cans with lids on them. We need to determine whether plastic bags for containing trash should be allowed. (Why not use them for lining metal trash cans, then the bag could be lifted out of the can by the disposal company? This seems a good compromise.)

A statewide tax on throwaway bottles might prevent much of the litter from these. And for the downtown section, we need more trash cans, brightly colored so that people can see them.

This would at least help to clear up the mess. What we could do to make the town look better — to encourage tourists — will be the subject of a future article.

DA Wins Grand Jury Struggle

Dist. Judge William Compton Monday called a grand jury after Dist. Atty. George Franklin presented petitions to the county clerk forcing a mandatory call. Franklin presented petitions containing 4,260 signatures, but only 3,791 were necessary to require impalement of the jury.

at the meeting to serve on the jury. Each commissioner and the judge will choose six persons. A week to 10 days after the Dec. 22 meeting, 17 regular members of the jury and 12 alternates will be selected by the judge from the original 36. Franklin estimated that the jury would not be ready to function until sometime between Jan. 1 and 10 of next year.

Court judges formally rejected his request that they call a jury voluntarily. The district attorney indicated his motive in seeking impalement of a jury was to expedite a large backlog of cases in District Court. On Sept. 20, the six District Court judges had turned down Franklin's request that they call a jury voluntarily, claiming they were already overworked. The rejection was contained in a four-page letter to Franklin which was signed by four of the judges and previously endorsed by a fifth, with only Judge Compton favoring impalement of a jury.

County Grand Jury doing yeoman chores

When the district attorney George Franklin called for a Clark County grand jury nearly one year ago many people, including this newspaper, thought the DA wanted it in order to further his political career. We said so in print at the time. Well, if Franklin did call the jury for such a purpose it hasn't been evident. Anyway, not so far. However, in the meantime this grand jury has been one of the best impaled around here for some time. They are doing exactly what Franklin wanted them to do — the heavy work load off of the justice courts and get some cases into the district courts.

The jury recently released a report showing how many cases have been brought before them and their dispositions. As far as we can see the jurors are going about in a business like manner, they are not conducting witch-hunts, and they interested in the case before them. It is refreshing to see a jury like this because the community benefits. Too often politics and special interest groups make grand juries ineffective. This doesn't seem to be the case with this jury. As far as Franklin goes, we'll admit we are a little surprised he didn't try to grab a headline or two with a jury he was forced to get by petition. On the other hand we're also a little bit proud of him. The main thing we are proud of is the workmanlike way the jury has been going about its business. Or rather we should say "all of your business."

DA's Image

Harry Claiborne, for 20 years one of Las Vegas' top criminal lawyers, complained to a district judge here yesterday that lately he is at a disadvantage in trying criminal cases because juries are inclined to believe whatever Dist. Atty. George Franklin tells them.

"... He has probably the best image of any district attorney we have ever had as long as I have been an attorney. ... But it matters little because the effect is the same. Most people in this county, I think, because of the very fine image he occupies in this community, if the chips were down and had to believe me or George Franklin would make a choice quickly of believing George Franklin.

"Most of them, if Franklin said something is so, would say it is so. He could probably secure a conviction by throwing a blank piece of paper into court. I don't mind saying I am exceedingly envious. I would like to have that image."

Sept. 24, 1970

Another name that should be automatic — George Franklin, district attorney.

"... may be in the headlines more than you like — he may knock heads and face up to the facts more than you are used to. But — for sure — this man Franklin is dedicated, too, bound and determined to do a big job in a responsible position.

He is not afraid of criticism, nor does he seek your praises. He knows the law, knows his job is to protect Clark County society, and, he speaks out so that all can hear and know. Far back George ran for county commissioner and beat down rough opposition to win. He served well, was in on the early growth of Vegas and if any man knows where the bodies lie and how to smoke out the bums — Franklin is the man. This newspaper was in his corner in the 50s, 60s and now the 70s. He'll serve us well — as d.a., or in any job he wants to run for."

GEO. FRANKLIN HEADLINE SEEKER?

Dist. Atty. George Franklin is what the news media calls "good copy," a news-maker. Franklin, a Republican, has also been accused of being a headline seeker. In the general election in November he faces Democrat Justice of the Peace Roy Woolter, who until he ran for this office worked for Franklin as a deputy district attorney.

Woolter has been charging his former boss with just "sounding off." Well, in order to make news one has to be doing something, and George Franklin is not only a man of words, but a man of action. Franklin is not afraid to take a stand even though many times these stands have not been popular or politically wise. But he does take them. He has been a controversial DA who has a campaign slogan which reads, "He Tells It Like It Is." With his obvious politics and the law, we feel he should be returned to office.

There have been times when we disagreed with George, and there have been times when he disagreed with this newspaper. We let him know it both verbally and in print, and he did likewise.

We feel Franklin has done a good job during his term as district attorney. He has proven his ability. In November we urge the voters of Clark County to return George Franklin to office. He really does "tell it like it is."

Junior Varsity Gridders Take On Rancho Rams Here Tonight

By BLAINE ECKMAN

Basic's fine Jayvee team will be tested to the utmost this evening at 7 p.m. in tangling with Rancho's undefeated team.

Basic has been impressive this season and especially the last two outings.

Coach Rosch has brought this forces along well this year and the coaches foresee great prospects for varsity material for 1971. Their hopes must be high, inasmuch as Basic plays Rancho, Clark, and Las Vegas next year.

Basic's strength has been the determination displayed by several of the junior varsity players. No sign of let-down has been in evidence during the current campaign. Every game has been tight and interesting. The Rancho game should be the best of the year.

Quarterback Kemp has been great all season. His backup man, Swackhamer, has provided several thrills. Jim Lautin's running ability, the punting of Terry Dalton, pass snagging of several ends, and sterling line defensive play have added greatly to the team's success of Coach Rosch's gridders.

Pure limestone water. Part of the Beam family art for 175 years.

Baker Beam and Booker are out on Beam's own fresh-water lake, collecting a water sample. Sweet, soft, and iron-free, it's as much a part of the Beam formula as the measures of choice grains. Together, Booker and Baker represent the sixth generation of the only Kentucky family that's made the same Bourbon since 1795. So when you sip Jim Beam, savor its quality and its light taste. That's what we mean when we say it's a 175-year-old family art.

Letter to Editor

To The Editor:
Let me tell you something about the type of person Mike O'Callaghan, the man, was long before he was Mike O'Callaghan, the politician.

He was my teacher at Basic High School in 1957 and 1958. I don't know of a student who didn't love and respect him, not only because of his tremendous teaching ability in the field of American History and United States Government, but because of the personal interest he took in each of his students. He instilled in us a true love of our country and a pride to be a part of this United States of America. Because of his enthusiasm, we likewise became enthusiastic and eager to learn. His interest in his students didn't end in the classroom. He was always willing to discuss solutions to the everyday problems all teenagers have. His time was our time. We knew this and respected him as an individual as well as a teacher.

Mrs. Roosevelt came to Las Vegas and gave a Press Conference and spoke at a luncheon given in her behalf regarding the United Nations. We were studying the United Nations during that time and he and his lovely wife took the two students with the highest grade averages to the Press conference and to the luncheon. At the end of the year, he gave the student with the highest average a lovely book: "The American Heritage, Book of the Revolution," which he personally paid $12.50 for and

... In Faded Clippings

Newspapering has its own peculiar trials and tribulations, but it has its own rewards, too, that can't quite be matched in any other field of endeavor. One of our rewards is the opportunity to bring to the people of the community vital commercial information — what is for sale, how much it costs, and where it can be bought. It is no idle boast that the cornerstone of the free enterprise system is our free and independent press. Likewise it is true that the conduct of government by the people is largely dependent upon the newspaper for information on government and legal transactions, candidates and issues, so that the people can make wise decisions based upon accurate information.

Our commercial advertising, in turn, enables us to gather and publish information about people, places and news." Then we have the privilege to express our independent opinions and thoughts on all manner of things under the heading of editorials.

Not the least of our joys is that of passing on to our friends various and sundry items which hopefully, may serve to inspire, challenge or to cheer, prompt a chuckle or a smile. We never cease to be amazed — and gratified — at the appearance of an old, faded clipping from some cherished hiding place; an old Bible, a treasure chest, a scrapbook or a diary — even a cookbook.

A message found in such an ancient clipping, of unknown vintage or origin, seems most appropriate at this time of year, when so many of our youth have left school to embark upon the rocky road of life. Do you remember it?

"May you have . . .
Enough happiness to keep you sweet,
Enough trials to keep you strong,
Enough sorrow to keep you human,

Enough hope to keep you happy.

Enough failure to keep you humble.

Enough success to keep you eager.

Enough friends to give you comfort.

Enough wealth to meet your needs.

Enough faith to banish depression.

Enough determination to make each day better than yesterday."

CIBOLA LAKE DREDGING COMPLETED

Dredging operations have been completed on 600-acre Cibola Lake, adjacent to the Colorado River about 30 miles south of Blythe, California. Acting Regional Director E. A. Lundberg of the Bureau of Reclamation's Region 3 announced today.

Lundberg pointed out that over a period of years, the fish and wildlife values have gradually been reduced as a result of siltation and encroachment of emergent vegetation.

Wildlife biologists in the Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife designed a dredge plan that would maximize fish and wildlife habitat in Cibola Lake. Dredging operations began the last week in February 1970, and were completed recently. The 20-inch dredge "The Colorado" removed 1,785,293 cubic yards of soil from a 20,100-foot channel system 16 feet deep.

Refuge Manager Evan V. Klett of the Cibola National Wildlife Refuge participated in the development of the plan for deepening Cibola Lake and worked with the Bureau of Reclamation's Project Engineer Lawrence King to resolve minor deviations during the deepening process. Klett and King stated that they are highly satisfied with the completed work

SCIENCE SERVICE

The importance of nations as well as individuals being just and right will be emphasized Sunday in all Christian Science churches.

Keynoting the Lesson-Sermon on "Everlasting Punishment" is the Golden Text from Proverbs: "Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people."

A passage to be read from Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy states: "Through

The completed work should improve the water quality in Cibola Lake, slow down the intrusion of cattails, and provide for a deepened area in the lake that will be a permanent water area during lower areas along the lower Colorado River in the Palo Verde Division were recently deepened for fish and wildlife habitat improvement.

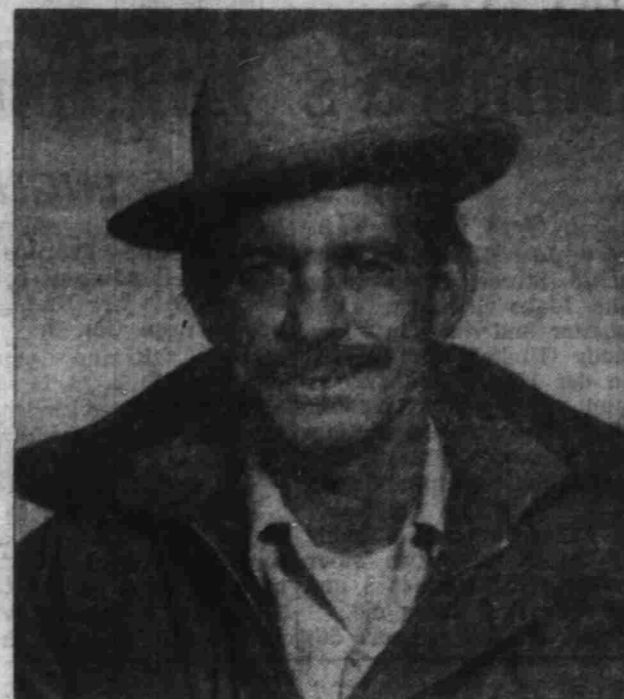

Ford Pinto To Be Rainbow Prize

This Sunday night, the Rainbow Club in downtown Henderson will again have its first of the month give-away with the Grand Prize being a 1971 Ford Pinto automobile. The special prize will be a G. E. color television set. The Rainbow Club drawings will be held every 15 minutes for other valuable gifts starting at 8:30 and continuing through 12:30. This is another of the monthly gigantic give-aways being held by the Rainbow Club on the first Sunday of every month throughout 1970.

The wholesome chastisements of Love, we are helped onward in the march towards righteousness, peace, and purity, which are the landmarks of Science.

Trumbo's Home-Town Horses Provided Way to 'Forget' Politics ... Editor Experiences All-Sports Weekend From Here To There And Back

by MORRY ZENOFF
The thrill of watching two born-in Henderson horses race at the world famous Tijuana, Mexico Caliente race track was all mine Saturday and Sunday as we chose to enjoy a sports weekend to get away from politics for a moment.

First — on Friday night — the weekend started with seeing Henderson's high school football team enjoy one of its finest hours of the year — playing the crack Los Angeles boys school Verbum Dei all-Catholic-all-Negro team to a standstill until the final minutes, and then losing 16-0.

With one more game to go — against Dixie as the local homecoming attraction this week — Basic, under its new coach, Joe Blockovich, showed a sharp defense last Friday and had it not been for pass interceptions, the game might have ended only 3-0 California.

What Basic will have next year besides some returning lettermen is Lefty Hoensch, who looks like he'll join the names of Hall of Farmers in Basic history. As a sophomore this year, he showed he can run, punt, block, tackle and use his head in a hurry. He has as a student shown fine grades, equal fine talent at golf, baseball and wrestling.

Learning that a few horses that I had seen as babies at the Hilltop Stables of Hersh Trumbo were now entered on the weekend Caliente program, I rushed down to track-side to see Henderson's colors paraded before the international crowd that has made the track as famous as Santa Anita.

On Saturday Hersh and his trainer Jim Logan entered Golden Lode, a white faced filly, in the ninth race. Golden Lode, by the way, was the name of Mrs. Mildred Trumbo's high school annual back in her South Dakota high school. We all stood at the rail when the famous "They're off!" sounded throughout the jam-packed stands. Golden Lode was running her first race at a mile and 70 yards. The last time out, two weeks ago, she won a three quarter mile event.

Jockey Munoz, an apprentice weighing 109 pounds was up, and he came out of the gate tied with the leader, Official. The two horses were neck and neck in the eight horse battle. At the half mile the Henderson horse moved up and at the three quarter it nosed into the lead.

"There's Henderson! There's Henderson out there on that track!"

It was good old Hersh shouting and pointing proudly. My tired old eyes could only hear the stomping of the hooves and screams of the crowd as everyone hugged the rail and made detailed watching too difficult.

I fastened my eyes on the finish line.

Here they came. Official first, Old Times second, My Fleet third, Golden Lode fourth!

"What happened Hersh, your horse was ahead at the three-quarter mile?" I asked, while handing Mrs. Millie Trumbo a handkerchief to dry some tears she was shedding for her baby's loss.

That's true — every horse that she has raised from birth up at the Hilltop stables — is like a baby to her. She has fed them, cleaned them, bedded them down, nurtured them to where they now are running on the turfs of the world, fighting against the best blood, best handled race horses.

"Let's wait and ask the jockey and the grooms and the trainers," the dejected Hersh said to me as we talked over to the barns where the Trumbo section has control of 10 stalls and a tack room. "The horse tired and quit at the three quarter pole," was Jockey Munoz' verdict as well as veteran trainer Jim Logan's.

So we tore up our betting tickets, walked thru the barns and studied Hersh's other horses who are spending this month and next in Mexico to learn the feel of big time racing, either by actual racing or by early morning tryouts against the stop watches. (This goes on at 5:30 a. m. and there is where you also see Hersh each weekend — checking his pride and joys one by one, first from a distance, and then, at the finish — when they're in their stalls being groomed after the day's run.)

Then, a fast run 135 miles up against the heavy traffic to the Los Angeles Coliseum, there to watch Stanford and UCLA fight for a Rose Bowl spot, there to see for the first time the fabulous Indian Jim Plunkett who has been rated the year's most exciting footballer.

He showed me nothing. His passes were too far, too wide, too short of their targets and he was outplayed by UCLA's passer.

But UCLA didn't have a runner and didn't have a field goal kicker as good as Steve Horowitz of Stanford so the Indians won 9 to 7.

I then beat the 83,000 people out of the stands, hustled back down the freeway to Mexico, so that the next day in the third race I could watch a second Henderson born horse — Elf Green — run.

Elf Green never had a chance but did wind up fifth. "Great experience for her though," Hersh said. "She'll win time."

This confidence and this love for his horse — children has made the Trumbo stables the most talked about of the new racing stables in the entire west. Experts are pointing to Best of Luck now. This is the horse Hersh bought at an auction for $12,000 and which is now bringing offers of $100,000 because he is the brother of June Darling, the horse which Saturday in the East won its sixth straight big race. It seems that Best of Luck is the last male able to carry on the famous blood line and in horse race financing — it is the blood line that counts at breeding time.

Other horses Hersh has living the life of Reilly at Tijuana are Beverly B., Dealing in Dough, Tony Valentine, Romper Boots, ShotGun Millie, Preacher Smith and Kitty Prowl.

Hersh is high on Tony Valentine — and even mentioned Tony as a possible Kentucky Derby entry.

Tony was born two years ago on a cold and windy night up on Black Mountain. He may learn enough this year in Mexico to go to Santa Anita with a few other Trumbo candidates. "I'd love to have a Henderson horse win at Santa Anita," Hersh whispered as I jumped into a Dick Stewart Dart and headed up 395 for the HOME NEWS office . . . tired, broke, happy after a long sports weekend.

Letter to The Editor...

Dear Sir:
The Nevada State Welfare Department, by approval of state law, applies restrictions to children from the ages of 16 to 21, which directly serves to both prevent these children from pursuing college educations as well as to encourage children to quit High School.

1. One policy of the welfare Department is stated in the official Welfare Division Manual (Section 202.23) as follows: "A child 16 to 21 years of age is eligible for ADC (Aid to Dependent Children) only if he is regularly attending school and obtaining passing grades..."

As with all students, many of our children have difficulties with school work. But this welfare policy places a very unfair burden on ADC children because if they fail, the Welfare Department will cut their grant and cause a desperate family situation and a threat to the family health and existence in many cases. This is an educational disadvantage imposed upon ADC children by the Welfare Department. No other child has to carry the worry of such drastic results as well as the immediate worry of school problems which are often difficult enough for some children to handle.

If any other child fails, academically in school, the School District will provide ways in which he can try again until he can do better and graduate. But very often the ADC child is forced to quit school as an immediate result of the reduced amount of money which is vital to the family, and he cannot take advantage of the choice to remain in school. Instead he will have to quit and take a menial job so as not to endanger the existence of the family.

This is one of the many ways in which the present policies and administration of the Welfare Department in Nevada serves to keep people in poverty and on welfare, now and in future generations. Such practices cost in the state of Nevada many tax dollars by keeping people in the poverty cycle. The child who quits school to find a menial job will be forced to hold such insecure employment for the rest of his life (if he can even find such jobs). Because of welfare division policy many children will be denied the benefits and credentials of an education which should be an equal right for all members of society. But the Welfare Department and state legislators take the prerogative to deny poor children this right. Although the means they take to do this may seem indirect to someone who reads the policy, the actual result of the applied policy serves to specifically and directly deprive the poor of their rights as well as to keep the poor down in poverty.

2. The State Welfare Division maintains a policy which serves to prevent or deter ADC children from pursuing college educations.

The Welfare Manual (Section 202.23) says "A 16 to 21 year old child is eligible for ADC if he is in high school or vocational training, and he is receiving passing grades..."

Some of our children do choose to take vocational training courses after high school. Those who do, must continue to carry the unfair burden of the Welfare Department's threat to reduce the family's check if they fail or have trouble with grades.

But many of our children have the desire and ability to get a college education and credentials which are necessary to get good jobs, professional positions, and a better future. But the Welfare Department says an ADC child cannot enroll in an academic course, if he does the ADC grant will be cut. The Welfare Department is purposely placing an unfair obstacle in the way of poor children. The Welfare Department is acting to deny poor people the right to a college education and again, they are using policies which serve to keep poor people down.

All of this costs the taxpayers money. Here is a chance for children of the poor to become teachers, doctors, lawyers, businessmen, etc. In such positions they will be able to support their families, keep them out of the poverty cycle and off of welfare. Instead, the welfare policies that are now practiced keep families poor and on welfare and insure that many of the children of these families will remain in the same drastic predicament.

It is the obligation of the State Legislature as well as the County School Districts, University, and all citizens to work immediately for the correction of this detrimental situation.

City Goes Modern, Junior High to Sponsor Book Fair Thru This Week

Bills Will Be By Computer

City Auditor Alfred Human announced this week that the City is renting computer equipment which will, among other accounting functions, produce the city's utility bills.

The bills will be mailed to all customers in blue envelopes. Inside the envelopes are the following: waste and blue utility bill, small white prepunched payment card and return envelope, (also colored blue).

In paying the utility bill, Hyman said, the customer should enclose the small white prepunched payment card, together with a check, in the return envelope. This will insure that the account will be properly credited with the payment.

Utility customers are cautioned that according to the city charter, a ten percent late charge will be added on all utility bills over 30 days

The Henderson Junior High School will sponsor a student book fair from Oct. 26 to Oct. 30.

Students will be able to browse and order books. The book fair will be open during the lunch hours. Books will be on display outside room

Election Dept. Sets School

Need Election Workers For Nov. 3 Work

Tom Mulroy, Registrar of Voters, has announced that the Election Board for the General election of Nov. 3rd are now being recruited.

Some ladies' clubs have volunteered to serve on Boards, finding the work interesting and a means of raising funds for their programs. Each worker is paid $20 by the Election Department, and it is only necessary that such persons be registered voters. Application as an Election Board Officer may be made at 382-4982.

The Clark County Election Department will hold a school for all appointed and prospective Election Board Officers and Poll Guards, Thursday, Oct. 29, in the Gold Room of the Convention Center.

The school, as required by law, will be divided into two sessions; 2:30 p.m. and 7:30 p.m., and attendance is required at only one of the two sessions.

Attendance at the school is most important, so that those who staff the Election Day Boards are instructed in changes of procedure.

POLICE REPORT

ARREST REPORT

On 10-11-70, at approximately 1 a.m., the undersigned arrested Abel James Paez, MMA, DOB 1-8-46, of 34 E. Atlantic, for Contributing to the Delinquency of a minor, in violation of HMC 8.12.010, and Assault with a deadly weapon, in violation of NRS 200.400.

On 10-11-70, at approximately 12:05 a.m., Officer Vittek was dispatched to the 711 Store on Nevada 41 at Case Parkway in reference to the complaint of minors in possession. He was told upon arrival, that the above arrestee had entered the store and purchased a 6 pack of beer, when he observed arrestee Paez walk outside of the store and hand the alcoholic beverage to four juveniles, two WML's, and two WFJ's, occupying a yellow convertible which had been parked in the area of the front of the store. At this time, the store keeper went outside and asked the suspect to come inside and wait for the Police to arrive. Subject grabbed the suspect by the arm to take him inside, and the suspect then pulled away. At this time, the suspect, later identified as the above arrestee, turned around, brandishing a switchblade knife, and confronted the victim, stating, "I'll kill you." Subject then fled inside the store and the suspect fled in the above described 1960 Volkswagen Van, blue in color, bearing 1970 Nevada CF 7853. Subject stated that the knife which the suspect had brandished was approximately 4 to 5 inches in length, a switchblade knife. An attempt to locate the suspect vehicle was put out by Dispatcher Petty. At approximately 12:50 a.m. this date, while on routine patrol in the area of the City park, the undersigned observed the suspect vehicle traveling south in the City Park area toward Major Street. I then effected a traffic stop in City Park, due to the possibility that the suspect was driving the vehicle. At this time, Officer Kuningas arrived, and we removed the suspect at this time, failed to produce any weapons of any nature.

At this time, we requested suspect Paez to return with us to the 711 Store, located at Nevada 41 and Case Parkway, to which he consented. Upon arrival at the store, the subject Paez alighted from his vehicle along with these officers from our patrol units. At this time, subject was inside the 711 Store, where he observed these officers and subject Paez standing at the front of the store. Without any questioning of any nature, the above subject walked outside the store, took a very close look at the suspect vehicle, and also a very close look at the suspect, and definitely identified him as the subject who had brandished the knife and stated, "I will kill you."

At this time, the undersigned officer placed the above arrestee under arrest on the above charge and transported him to the Henderson Police Department, where he was subsequently booked and incarcerated. It should be noted that the traffic stop was made in the City Park, and at that time there were two passengers in the vehicle. Due to the fact that these subjects were occupants of the vehicle at the time of subject Paez's arrest, the above juveniles were placed under arrest for Curfew, and an additional charge of contributing to the delinquency of a minor was lodged against the subject Paez.

The juveniles were transported to the Police Station, where they were issued Juvenile Citations 5459 and 5460.

ELECT JAMES "JIM" SMALLEY For ASSEMBLY

DEMOCRAT

PAID BY SMALLEY FOR ASSEMBLY COMMITTEE

Scouting the Scouts

Today is the day for our Henderson Neighborhood Association meeting. This group is composed of the service team, leaders, co-leaders, and also to any active adult in Henderson, troop committee members, Council Delegates and special chairmen. Refreshments and get-acquainted time is from 9:00-9:30 with the meeting itself beginning at 9:30. Today we plan to show the leaders a proper flag ceremony, discuss investitures and rededications and to welcome and invest all new volunteer adults into Girl Scouting.

Today's "Daisy" goes to everyone who is fighting pollution in any way. Let's each and every one of us do our part in making "our little corner of the world" a prettier place! A "Cactus" to you lazy people who toss paper, empty cans and other litter from your cars. The insides of your cars might look clean but what about your countryside?

TROOP NEWS: Junior Troop No. 101 is made up of girls who go to Gordon M. McCaw School. Mrs. Della Rudolph is the leader of this troop. Della worked with this troop last year and also was the business manager at our Day Camp this summer. The co-leader of No. 101 is a newcomer to our town and we welcome her and her family. Her name is Mrs. Elaine Combs and she comes all the way from Florida. She was a Brownie Girl Scout leader there and we are delighted to have her here.

This troop has begun work on My Trefol badge. The purpose of this badge is "To discover and practice more ways to carry out the Girl Scout Promise." One of the requirements is to start a scrapbook illustrating the Promise. Each patrol has a scrapbook and a contest is being held concerning them. Mrs. Grimm, Junior Troop Consultant and I have been asked to judge the accomplishments and the patrol winning will receive a special prize. (Della, can't there be four winners?)

Four patrols make up this troop. In the Green Leaves Patrol, we find Patrol Leader Debbie Peart with Roberta Lucero as the assistant. Erin Watson, Kelly Haines, Sylvia Jones, Monnie Hardy and Elaine Coronoes are the other members. The Rosie Posies are led by Anita Neill with Julia LaCroix as assistant, with Susie Crossley, Candy Van Muyden, Laurie Draper, Jana Ruliffson and Jacquita Bearup as patrol members. Now the Fruity Frogs have Ann Baker and Brenda Ulrich leaping around running things with Betty Combs, Terri Varick, Wendy Rudolph, Michelle Davis and Barbara Walmsley hopping around too. The Dilly Daisy Patrol follows the lead of Irene Maestas and her assistant Gaylynn Luks. Sandra Peart, June Woodriddle, Mary Jean Munford and Lisa Harrison are members of this patrol.

Terri Varick serves ably as the Troop Treasurer with Erin Watson taking on the Scribe duties. Rededication ceremonies for Sandra and Debbie Peart are to be held soon. Also plans for a big Halloween Party are in the activities with the Fruity Frogs planning a "big, scary surprise", the Dilly Daisy and Green Leaves Patrols are handling the refreshments and the Rosie Posies came up with the clean-up but also the decorations. Have fun, you all!

The sister troop to No. 101 is Brownie Troop No. 109. This troop is being led by two very interested and willing women. Mrs. Ruth Farnworth has worked as a Physical Science Tech. with the Public Health Department and her co-leader Mrs. Carol Neill, who has attended local schools and worked at times in Henderson. These two women are new to Girl Scouting leadership and are doing just great. Their troop of second and third graders are busily preparing for the investiture of all of the new members. Parents are invited and the girls have been practicing the Brownie Promise and Three B's in anticipation. The date for the ceremony is October 29th.

Members of No. 109 are: Mary Davis, Nancy Hall, Lori Harrison, Donna Neill, Bobbette Ulrich, Jennifer Foster, Janet Rudolph, Heather Watson, Karuna Hardy, Lisa Farnsworth, Shauna McCullough, Debra Becknell, Joanna Corn, Jennifer Buettner, Cheri Wentz, Lynette Osko and Danielle Ford.

The following interview story was compiled by three members of our Henderson Girl Scout Cadette Troop No. 118 as a requirement for one of their badges.

HERE COME THE OSMONDS
Las Vegas is fun, but for some of us teens it was a slow, slow summer 'till five groovy guys came to give Las Vegas their talent. The Osmonds were a real "smash hit" while performing at Caesars Palace, but you couldn't begin to count the fans who gathered at our local Boulevard Shopping Mall when they made a personal appearance there. They looked great! (Don't they always?)

Now don't get upset if you've missed seeing this famous brother act on the American Bandstand in September, or on Glen Campbell in October, because they are scheduled to be on Kraft Music Hall in December and January. Naturally all true fans will keep a check on the guest list for the Andy Williams Show as the boys are frequent visitors on this T.V. program. And say, we found out there's a good chance that we will be treated to their own "special" in January, so keep your fingers crossed!

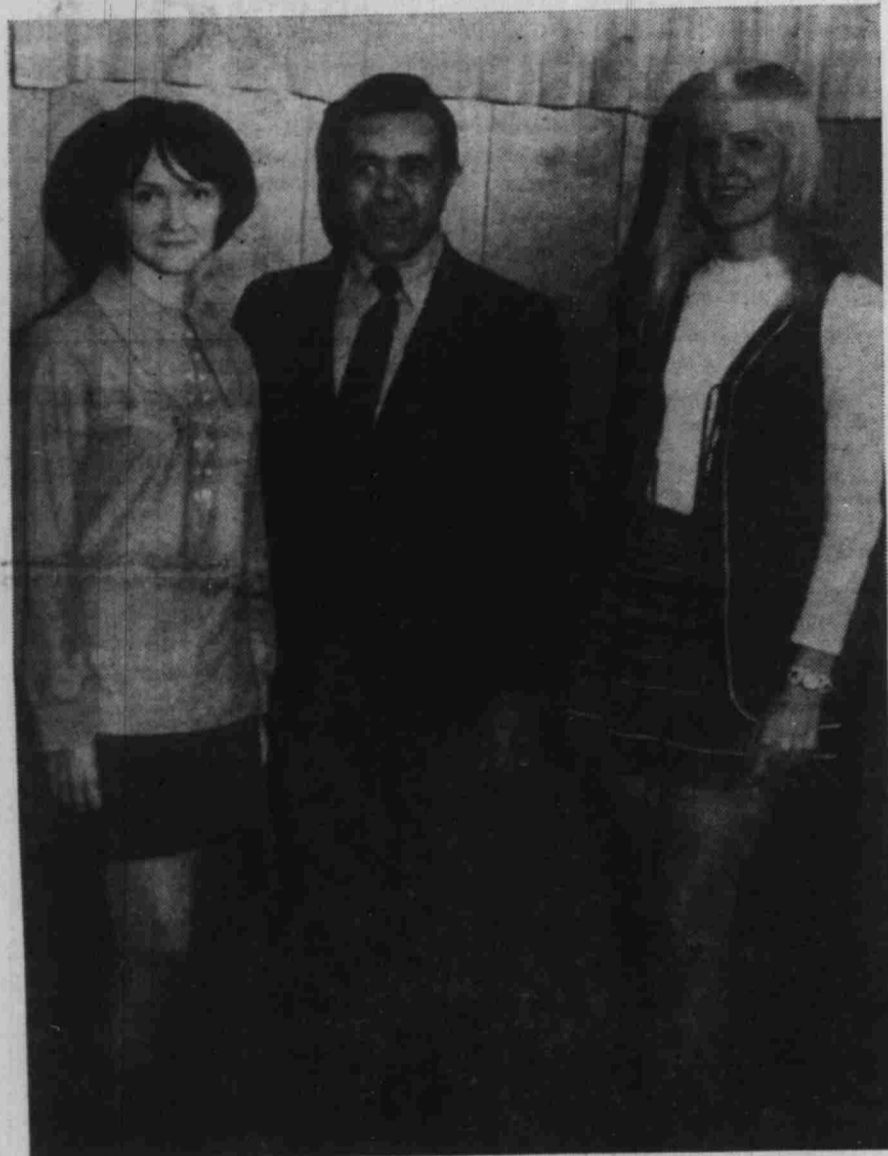

Anyone going to England? Look for the Osmonds taping a show with Tom Jones. They really get around! They're even going to be in Japan.

We learned that the Osmonds write many of their own songs, and will soon have a new album out. The most recent new hit is a smashing new 45 called "Movin' Along". If you want to move along with the Osmonds, write to: Osmond Fan Club, P. O. Box 4950, Panorama City, Calif., 90412.

Don't look now, but the Osmond Brothers are sure to come your way. We're sure glad they came ours.

Special thanks to Bill Sammeth and the Osmonds for their great help in preparing this interview.

When you're not like yourself, Lydia Pinkham understands

All of a sudden you might feel you're changing—not a good feeling. You're tired, edgy, out of sorts and that's not you. Lydia Pinkham understands.

A long time ago, when ladies couldn't be as frank as we can today, Lydia Pinkham recognized the problem and set about finding a remedy. She knew it was not natural for women to have to suffer with what was obviously a natural process.

So she turned to nature for a remedy. She developed a marvelous compound of medicinal roots and herbs that turned the trick for the women she knew. Because it is a natural answer to your natural problems, it can turn the trick for you, too.

Try Lydia Pinkham's root and herb remedy to help you feel better, more like yourself.

Nine Propositions Face Voters on Ballot Tuesday

Henderson HOME NEW, Henderson, Nevada
Thursday, October 29, 1970

Nevadans must decide the fate of nine propositions when they go to the polls Nov. 3, including the possible return of the voting franchise in Presidential elections to newcomers to the state.

Question No. 1 on your ballot involves your vote for President and Vice President. It would amend the Constitution to allow those persons who have not been in Nevada for a period of six months and who are not qualified to vote in another state to at least vote for their President and Vice President.

Question No. 2 relates to the recall of public officers by clarifying the qualifications of petitioners required to recall public officers.

A majority vote of YES would amend the state Constitution to read that "not less than 25 per cent of the registered voters who actually voted at the last general election" would be required to sign a petition to give it effect.

At present the Constitution reads "not less than 25 per cent of the qualified electors who vote in the preceding election in the state, county district or municipality electing the officer in question."

Question No. 3, if passed, would amend the state Constitution to limit the terms in office which a person may hold as governor to two terms. It would also provide that no one who has held the office of governor for more than two years of a term for which another person was elected may then be elected to the office of governor more than once.

Question No. 4 would eliminate the constitutional restriction against paying a legislator for more than 60 days in any regular session of the legislature or 20 days in any special session.

It would also eliminate the $90 per session limitation on clerical expenses of legislators and permit them to pass laws for their compensation and reimbursement for travel and living expenses and to limit the extent and effective date of any change in compensation.

To make those changes the legislators would have to muster a two-thirds vote in each house.

Question No. 5 would amend the Constitution of the State of Nevada to require annual rather than biennial sessions of the Legislature.

Question No. 6 would add a section to the state Constitution which would require the legislature to establish a state merit system governing employment of persons in the executive branch of government.

Question No. 7 would require the legislature after each decennial census to reapportion its members in both houses among the legislative districts established by law, based on population, in order to conform to the requirements of the U.S. Constitution as interpreted by the U.S. Supreme Court.

Question No. 8 would amend the Sale Use Tax Act of 1965.

It would exempt prescription medicines from the taxes effective Jan. 1, 1971, and impose such taxes on sales of periodical publications effective Jan. 1, 1971.

Question No. 9 would allow the state to sell general obligation bonds of not more than $5 million for the purpose of buying property for parks throughout the state.

Hehers Married 50 Years

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Heher, pioneer residents of this area, will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary on Sunday, Nov. 1 in Las Vegas.

They will attend a Mass at St. Anne's Catholic Church at 3 p.m., and a reception will follow at their home at 1804 South 8th street, Las Vegas.

Mr. and Mrs. Heher were married in Wilkesburg, Pa., and have four living children, all of whom will be at the celebration. They are John F. Heher, Stanford, Conn.; David Michael, Las Vegas; Herbert M., Los Angeles, and Mrs. William Gillis, Lancaster, Calif., and they have 11 grandchildren.

Heher came to Henderson in 1941 and has also lived in Boulder City, where they have been active in community affairs. Heher was the former veteran's commissioner for Southern Nevada, but is now retired.

Relatives from Buffalo, N.Y., and Cleveland, Ohio will be present for the observance.

Bazaar, Dinner, Set For LDS Church Friday

An old fashioned Bazaar, featuring a ham dinner and bake sale, will be held Friday, Oct. 30, beginning at 5 p.m. at the LDS Cholla St. Church, according to Lorna Kesterson, Relief Society President.

Sponsored by the Henderson LDS Third Ward Relief Society, there will be all types of home-sewn items for the home or gift-giving, including quilts, pillow cases, dish towels, and other fancy-work.

Included in the bake sale will be home-dipped chocolates, other candy, bread and cakes, and other goodies.

Tickets for the dinner are $1.50 for adults, $5 for a family and 75 cents for children under 12.

ENDORSES WIESNER FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER

James Nolan this week endorsed Republican Tom Wiesner for the At-Large seat on the Clark County Commission. In urging all his friends to vote for Wiesner in the general election, Nolan gave his blanket approval to his Republican running-mate.

"I am pleased to join with every other candidate, Republican and Democrat, who ran against Lamb by offering my wholehearted support to Tom Wiesner."

Other candidates who have joined the swelling ranks of Wiesner backers since the primary election are: Steve Reinbolt; Alec Johnstone; Ed Jory and Larry Fransworth.

"Wiesner was the only candidate willing to stand up and be counted in regard to the problems surrounding the proposed transfer of the Southern Nevada Memorial Hospital. And, along those same lines Wiesner has been the only one to continually challenge Lamb's constant conflicts of interest. It is this kind of outspoken and trustworthy community leader that will lend guidance and new leadership to the county commission and once again lead that group to legislate in the best interests of the people of Clark County."

Nolan went on to say that, "Wiesner is one of the brightest, ambitious and honest candidates that the Republican party has offered during the last several elections and we can ill afford to lose such a fine young community leader. His opponent has continually been surrounded by a cloud of sinister dealings and obvious self-service which reek of political pressures."

"I feel that Tom Wiesner is the MAN to restore honesty, and integrity to county government. He has strong new programs that show unusual foresight for someone so new to the political arena and I, for one, feel that he can effect these programs better than anyone else. It is also the feeling of all my opponents since they have collectively, as a group, totally endorsed Tom Wiesner and urged their thousands of followers to vote for Tom Wiesner for County Commission on election day."

Insurachat

A steam boiler policy covers damage to the boiler itself, as well as bodily injury liability and damage to the property of others.

A comedian once said that the best gift for "the man who has everything" is a burglar alarm. In one suburban community, home burglaries dropped 72 per cent after good alarm systems were installed.

2,000 people die every year from clothing fires. Most of the victims are very old or very young.

Construction loans from insurance companies build hospitals, churches, schools and homes.

A periodic review of dwelling coverages is essential in this era of inflation.

Fly Dogpatch Airlines Round Trip...It's a Time Saver

PATRONIZE OUR ADVERTISERS

By DON HUNTER
Authors Note: This article was originally given before the Basic Toastmasters Club of Henderson in a Humorous Speech Contest.

As everybody knows, cost-cutting is the order of the day. Sometimes I think they carry this thing too far. For example, did you hear about the time my Company tried to same money on trips? I got a call when planning a trip to San Diego, they wanted me to try this unscheduled airline. Let's call it Dogpatch Airline. Being all ways willing, I said I would give it a go.

So bright and early one morning (not too bright, and far too early) I called up this airline for a reservation. Now you know when you call the big airlines, the phone hardly has a chance to ring before a musical voice answers you. Well, Dogpatch Airlines does it a little different.

The phone rang, and rang and rang. Finally, just as I was about to put the receiver down, it was picked up at the other end and a surly voice snarled "What the heck do you want?"

A little taken aback, I asked, "What time does your flight to San Diego leave tomorrow?" The surly voice answered "When the Captain is sober."

Well, I let that one go past — I'm not easily discouraged. "And how much is it?" "Fifty bucks round trip. Now that did pull me up short. I thought you were a cut-rate airline. Can you break that price down into individual items?"

"Sure — its two dollars for the trip, and forty-eight dollars for flight insurance."

As I said earlier, I am the persistent type. So on the appointed day there I was. And we waited for a couple of hours until the Captain weaved in. More or less sober, anyhow.

At that point we had to undergo the toudching ceremony that Dogpatch Airlines always performed before embarkation. The passengers all kneel and pray for a safe arrival. Now that isn't so bad, but when you see the pilot and crew joining, praying as earnestly as anybody, it kind of shakes your confidence.

The take-off is unique — on most airlines, they tell you to sit down and fasten your seat belt. On Dogpatch Airlines you all stand, so when the plane starts off down the runway, everyone is jerked off his feet and lands in a heap at the rear of the plane. This alters the center of gravity of the plane, and it takes off almost vertically. So you can't say that they aren't progressive.

When we were aloft, the speaker system came to life. "This is your (hic!) Captain speaking — where are we supposed to be going?" So one of the passengers enlightened him. "Ah yes, San Diego — Lindbergh Field." At this point I thought I would have a word with the Captain. Trying to be sociable, I asked him "Did you ever meet Lindbergh?"

"Met him?" said our pilot. "I taught him to fly!"

So I took another look at the pilot, and he did seem a little odd. I figured I had better leave him alone. Just then one of the stewardesses asked me what I wanted — booze or marijuana. I asked what the Captain was having. "He always takes both," said the Stewardess. "He gave up LSD — said he couldn't stand it when the landing field turned bright purple and tried to wrap itself around the plane."

Naturally, we got a hijack attempt. A small kid stuck a water pistol in the Captain's ear and yelled "Change course to Disney land!" "That's where we are right now" responded the Captain,

"throw him out the door!" Well, they got that one settled, and after a while the Captain figured he was lost and had flown into Mexico. So he turned around, and flew back along the coast.

Just when I was figuring out when they were going to land, I realized that they seemed to be heading right back again. I asked the Captain about it. "We only sell round-trip tickets, didn't they tell you this was a non-stop flight?" So the stewardess grabbed me, all 250 pounds of her, and strapped a parachute on my back, and opened the door.

"Oh no you don't!" I shouted, "skydiving isn't for me. You're over the harbour anyhow . . . Just then somebody shoved a foot in my back, and out I went.

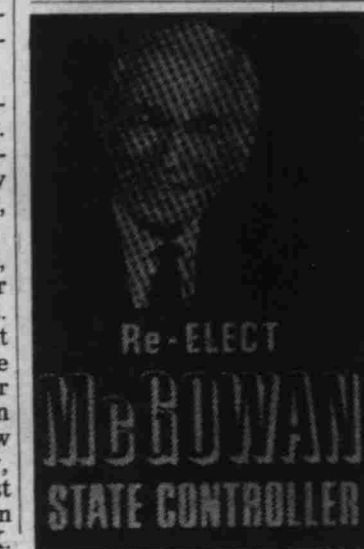

The parachute worked fine, but like I said they were over the harbour, and in I went. However, a launch came out rapidly and they hauled me aboard. "Thanks fellows for saving my life . . ." I began but was cut short. "We know your type" said one fellow, who I realized was a Coast Guard. "Trying to smuggle in drugs from Mexico!" O. K.

men — strip him and find the drugs!"

Perhaps it would have been better if they had left me to drown.

Sure, they let me tell it to the Judge, but who would believe a tale like that? Of course, they let me go on that charge; the one they're holding me now on is trying to commit mayhem.

How come? Quite simple — they arranged for my return trip to be on Dogpatch Airlines!

Letters to the Editor

Dear Mr. Zenoff:

I am writing you in order to support the candidacy of Phil C. Hulse for the office of Nevada State Mine Inspector. I have known Phil Hulse for many years and worked with him at the Nevada Test Site at Mercury and at a Utah silver mine.

As a Mining Engineer for the Reynolds Electric and Engineering Co. at the Nevada Test Site Phil Hulse played an active part in many Tunnel and Shaft operations and to my knowledge made a large contribution to the development of several of the mining methods.

Phil Hulse holds a certificate from the U.S. Bureau of Mines for Mine Rescue Training. This training he put to good use in the re-entry of one Northern Nevada Mine.

Phil Hulse has worked as a Mining Engineer and Mine Manager in several mining operations in Nevada and Utah. He graduated from the Mackay School of Mines, University of Nevada at Reno. Phil was born and raised in Pioche, Nevada.

I believe as a Mining Engineer that it is important that Nevada Mines and Miners have as highly training and experienced engineer as Phil Hulse in the office of State Mine Inspector and urge everyone to vote for him.

Respectfully yours,
George F. Zerfoss
Mining Engineer

COMM. FOR THE RE-ELECTION OF W.S.B.—
Lou Dollard, Chairman

Meeting Dates for School Board Changed for Nov.-Dec.

Meeting dates for the Clark County Board of School Trustees have been changed for November and December to conform to the Thanksgiving and Christmas holiday seasons, according to Dell Robison, school board clerk.

The only November meeting will be held Thursday, Nov. 12, and in December the school board will meet Dec. 3 and 17. All meetings will begin at 8 p.m. in the Board Room of the Education Center, 2832 East Flamingo Road.

Normally the school board meets the second and fourth Thursday of every month.

Persons wishing to address the board are welcome, and audience participation cards are provided in every school. These cards should be filed with the Superintendent's Office not later than 5 p.m. the day preceding the meeting.

C. MORTON IS BRIDE OF HENDERSONIAN

Coraleen Morton of Boulder City and Harlan J. Peter of Henderson were married Saturday, Oct. 24, at 4 p.m. at Grace Community Church. The Rev. Guy Holliday officiated and attendants were Paula Morton and Dr. Thomas S. White.

The bride is employed as a medical secretary for Dr. White and her husband is in the construction business in Las Vegas. The newlyweds, following a hunting and fishing trip, will make their home in Boulder City.

HERE'S WHERE ED FIKE STANDS...

NEVADA LAND AND AGRICULTURE:

With more than 86 per cent of Nevada's land owned by the federal government, our state has been denied the true sovereignty that should rightfully be ours. As governor, my administration will press for transfer of authority and jurisdiction over all Nevada land from the federal government, except that needed for national defense and national park requirements. Private and state ownership of federal land and resources on a multiple use basis is a goal we will actively pursue. Revenue from the sale or lease of federal lands within Nevada will be allocated to public needs within Nevada, i.e., schools, roads, environmental programs. Nevada citizens can do a better job of managing our land and resources than bureaucrats in Washington.

FOREIGN BEEF IMPORTS:

I am opposed to the importation of foreign beef so long as it endangers the economic stability of the Nevada cattle industry as it does today. We should either eliminate entirely or place stringent restrictions on imports when domestic prices are below parity or the cost of production. The very least that should be done is the tightening of the present beef quota law. The quotas themselves are the best of a bad deal, but they should at least be set on a quarterly rather than annual basis in order to avoid glutting the market during certain periods.

REAPPORTIONMENT:

The law states that we must reapportion the legislature again. But I will work to see that any plan adopted gives the fullest possible consideration to the needs of every geographic area of the state. In addition, as governor I will do my best to maintain the traditional and fair patterns of representation on all State Boards, Committees and Commissions. One man, one vote is fair. But we also must recognize that various areas of the state contribute to Nevada's well being in far greater proportion than the size of their population indicates, and are due consideration on that basis too. My administration will do everything it can to bolster rural, as well as urban life in Nevada — and that means working for the small counties. My administration will be aware — of the problems of the small counties and go to bat for them.

THE TABLE TAX:

The distributive table tax is essential to the financial well being of the small counties. It must not be tampered with in any way. As governor, I would veto any bill that would return it to the county of origin.

REPEAL OF GROCERY TAX:

As governor, I will see repeal of the state's two-percent sales tax on groceries. Nevada is in the best financial condition in its history. We have a very substantial surplus in the state treasury. It is time to reverse the trend of more and bigger taxes, and instead reduce the tax burden on the people. While cutting the grocery tax, my administration will still be able to keep its pledge to increase aid to education and meet all of the growing needs of Nevada. We are not going to jeopardize services to the people.

SENIOR CITIZENS:

Nevada's senior citizens should have more opportunity to participate in our society. We cannot continue to put people on the shelf just because they reach age 65. The state must end job discrimination against senior citizens because of their age. As governor, I also would propose special legislation providing tax relief to senior citizens. In addition, we must work for national laws that allow older people to earn as much as they can without jeopardizing their Social Security payments.

WHAT ED FIKE WILL DO AS GOVERNOR:

- Provide adequate services for all Nevadans, but at the same time maintain the fiscal integrity of the state so that we can avoid undue taxation of Nevadans.
- Work to improve the environment of our state. Establish a cabinet level post on environment. Support the enactment of realistic and effective legislation that will help prevent air, water and scenic pollution of Nevada.
- Expand the state's effort to curb drug abuse. Establish new programs of drug education and rehabilitation of drug users.
- Expand the state's role in helping to combat crime and improve the effectiveness of law enforcement agencies in Nevada. Support court reform and modernization of systems to bring about speedier justice.
- The initiation of policies and programs aimed at expanding Nevada's economy and broadening the state's tax base.
- Improved educational opportunities for all Nevadans, with emphasis on quality education and local control of the schools. A reduction of the pupil-teacher ratios where possible.
- The enactment of realistic legislation for consumer protection at the state level.
- Protection of Nevada from unwarranted federal intrusion into our gaming industry.
- Expansion of the office of the State Labor Commissioner; and revisions of the state minimum wage law.
- Improved social programs in the areas of public health, housing, mental retardation, the handicapped, senior citizens and juvenile delinquency.
- An effective program to reduce the tragic loss of lives on Nevada's highways.
- Continued efforts to improve Nevada's national image and promote the expansion of tourism.

CANNON OF NEVADA

Much of Nevada's progress is closely tied to policies set 2,600 miles away in Washington, D.C. . . . The Federal government owns 87% of the State's land, directly employs 16,500 people with an annual payroll of $110 million . . . The annual Federal investment in the construction and operation of facilities in Nevada totals nearly $660 million . . . Washington decisions in matters ranging from tourism to pollution affect everyone in the state . . . When the decisions are being made, three men represent all the people of the State . . . With so much at stake, Nevadans insist that these men be reliable, responsible, moderate and independent . . . Here's how one of them—Senator Howard Cannon—uses his experience and seniority to get the job done for Nevada.

The Nevada Congressional delegation meets frequently to discuss needs of the State. From left, Representative Walter S. Baring, Senator Howard Cannon and Senator Alan Bible.

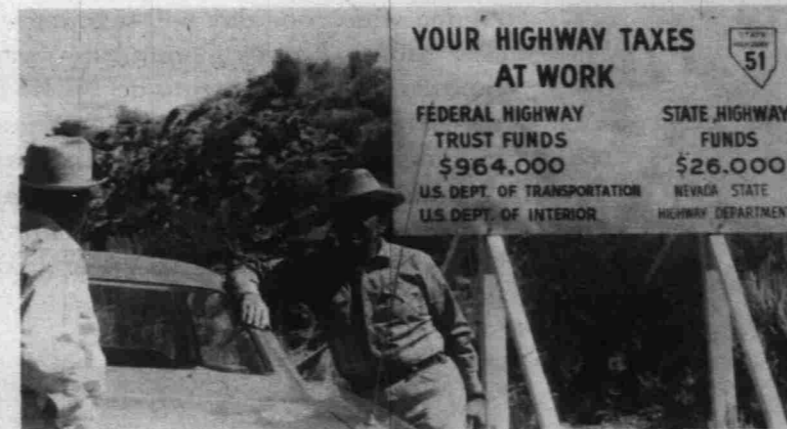

Behind the Boom in Tourism— Fine Airports and Highways

Each year 22 million people visit Nevada and spend $640 million while they're here . . . one-fourth of them come by air, most of the rest over our highways. As Vice Chairman of the Senate's Aviation Subcommittee and ranking member of the Surface Transportation Subcommittee, Senator Cannon works to improve Nevada's airports and highways.

The results speak for themselves: In 1969, the Federal government invested $1,408,000 in Nevada airports, $32,754,000 in our highways. 6,000 miles of Federal highways cross Nevada, including more than 400 of the authorized 535 miles of the Interstate Highway System.

Senator Cannon was co-sponsor of legislation creating the U.S. Travel Service, now leads efforts to make the U.S. and Nevada the focal point of world tourism.

Senator Cannon strongly supports efforts of the State of Nevada to obtain more than 6 million additional acres of land from the Federal government to use for parks, recreation and income for the schools.

Space

Beautiful, timeless, untouched—the open spaces of Nevada and the deep space of the heavens. Both are priceless resources, curiously related to each other and to the economy of Nevada.

Already the Federal government has invested more than one billion dollars in the NERVA nuclear engine which one day will take man to the stars. The Atomic Energy Commission installations in Southern Nevada, including NERVA, employ many thousands of people, provide an annual payroll topping $180 million. As a member of both the Aeronautical and Space Sciences Committee and the Armed Services Committee, Senator Cannon is a key policy maker for NERVA and related defense activities.

The astronauts of Apollo 11, Neil Armstrong, Michael Collins and Edwin Aldrin warmly greet Senator Cannon following their successful moon landing. Future astronauts will depend on the NERVA engine now being developed and tested in Nevada.

Nevada and the Nation Work Together for Defense

In 1969, the government spent over $73 million for construction and operation of national defense facilities in Nevada. Senator Cannon is a member of the Armed Services Committee, Chairman of the Tactical Air Power Subcommittee, Chairman of the Stockpile Subcommittee and ranking member of the Military Construction Subcommittee.

Extremely sensitive to the needs of American servicemen, Senator Cannon's military awards include the Distinguished Flying Cross, Air Medal with 2 Oak Leaf Clusters, Purple Heart, European Theatre Ribbon with 8 Battle Stars, and the French Croix de Guerre with Silver Star. During World War II, he was shot down over Holland and evaded capture for 42 days before reaching Allied lines. He supports ending the war in Indochina without delay and returning all American boys home as rapidly as possible.

In conferences with such officials as Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield and General Westmoreland, Senator Cannon keeps informed on the nation's domestic and defense needs. He supports reduction of American troops in Europe, pointing to our new airlift capability of readily moving troops if needed.

Senator Cannon keeps up his flying proficiency as a civilian and military pilot. He has logged more than 5,000 hours of flying time since he first soloed in 1937.

Nevadans Have Range of Interests, Needs, Concerns

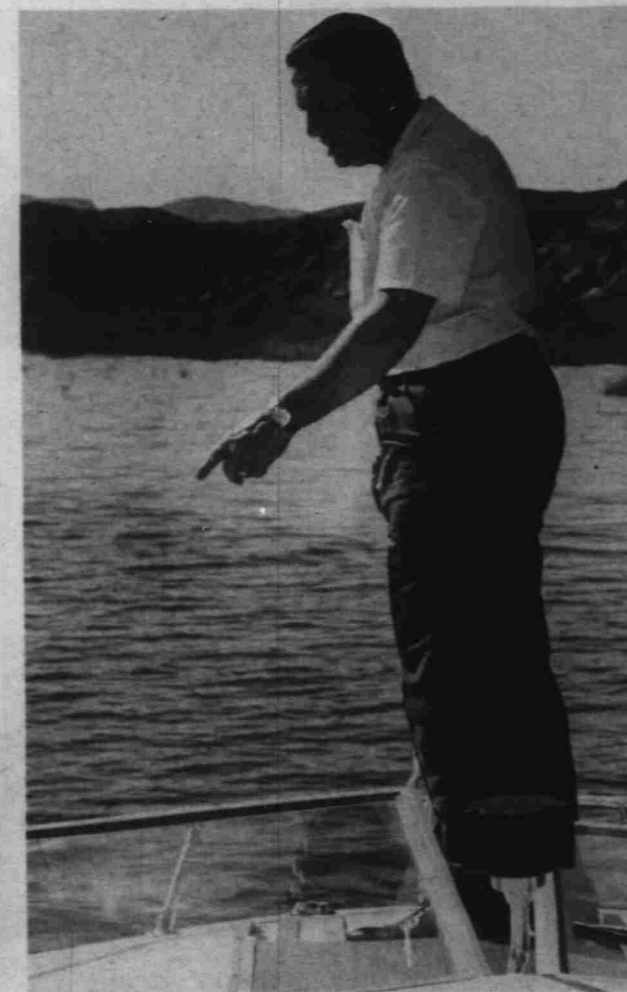

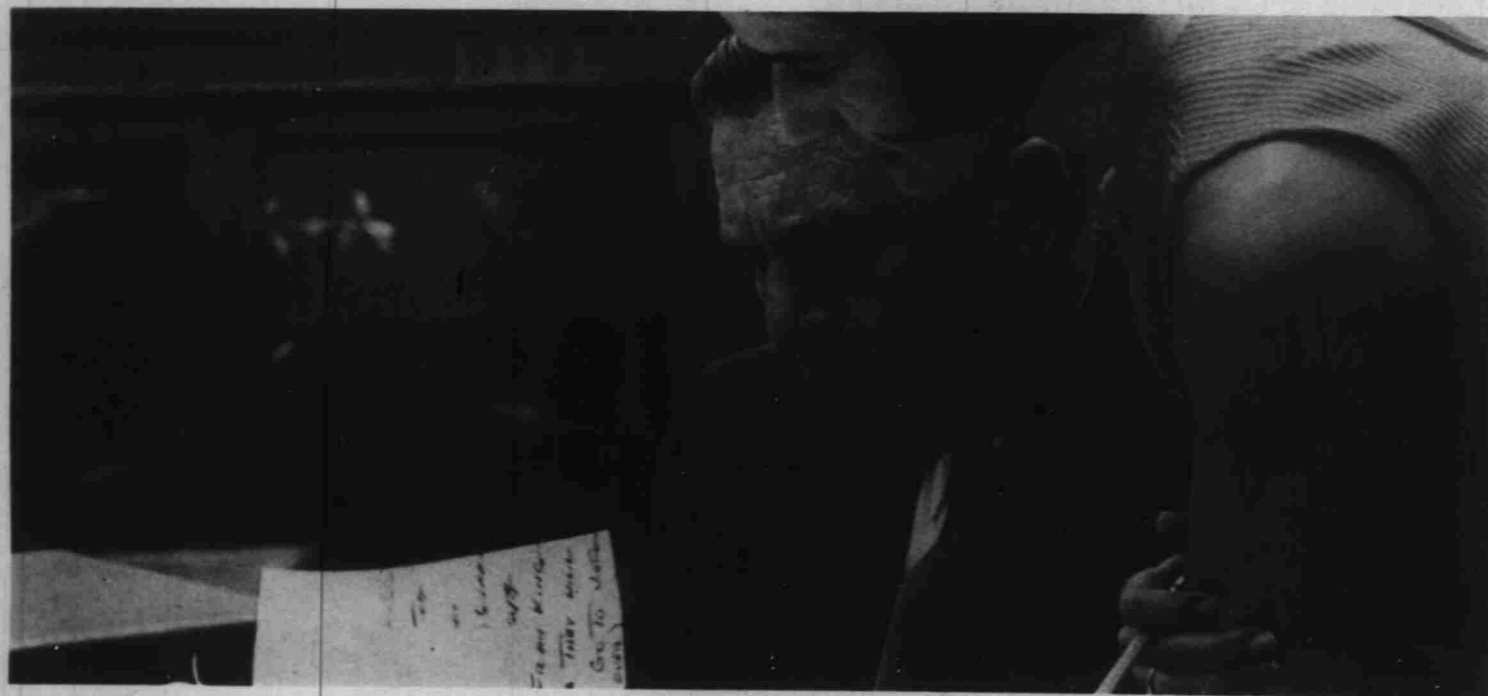

The people of Nevada are concerned with a wide range of issues, including aid for the elderly, inflation, consumer protection, crime and law enforcement and rural development. Senator Cannon studies the problems, takes the lead in helping solve them.

Senator Cannon is a sponsor of legislation to deal with lawlessness and disorder and fought for the Safe Streets Act and other measures to assist local police.

He has taken a special interest in the needs of elderly people and consumers. He has introduced bills to increase Social Security benefits, require national standards for manufacturers' warranties, and increase personal income tax exemptions. He strongly supports efforts to strengthen and expand the economic base of rural communities, including encouragement for domestic mining and protection for the livestock industry.

On frequent trips to Nevada, Senator Cannon makes a point of seeking the views of his constituents. Others bring their problems to him in Washington. All of them get prompt attention. Sometimes the Senator can help with just a phone call from his office, but some matters require a conference with colleagues or agency officials or even a Senate hearing.

In addition to economic benefits, Washington decisions vitally affect the well-being of Nevadans in dozens of other ways. Senator Cannon is constantly on the move, meeting the people of the state, discussing their problems, then taking action in the Senate to meet their needs. ■ Senator Cannon is in the forefront of the fight to protect the environment from pollution. At top right he points out for newsmen the murky green algae which is rapidly multiplying in Lake Mead and Lake Tahoe. ■ In meetings with students, Senator Cannon listens to their concerns and exchanges views on current issues. He has vigorously opposed cuts in the impacted school aid program and co-sponsored legislation to provide loans to college students. He is a leader of the successful efforts to make Nevada schools as fine as any in the nation.

Rare
Moments to Relax
with Family, Friends

In rare moments when the pressure eases, Senator Cannon likes to relax in quiet ways—a walk with wife Dorothy, a backyard barbecue with family and friends.

You can have a part in retaining Nevada's strength, seniority and teamwork in Washington by supporting Howard Cannon's Senate Campaign with your vote and influence among neighbors. Support him also with your contribution. Send your pledge today by mailing in this coupon.
