Assembly Starts Study Today on "Hal and Art" Case

Morry'Story

By MORRY ZENOFF

Dear Sisters of St. Dominic: Thank you for your invitation to help celebrate the arrival for duty of your new associate administrator, W. J. Sthultz - at Rose de

But are you sure you shouldn't ask the man to change his name to Shultz? Twice vesterday our linotype operator spelled it Shultz and when I sent out the corrected proof the operator looked at me and shook his head-as if to say I was lunaticky.

Yesterday's Art and Hal vote of 21-19 was predicted exactly-a month ago. Like Joe Namath predicted Baltimore would win by a field goal. Our second guessing that game: seems Morton's call of a pass from his own territory when his team was ahead by 7 points was a bad call. He should have run the ball three times, then punted and made Baltimore. come to him. His pass was intercepted and led to the tieing touchdown. When you're ahead in the final quarter, you should protect the lead by playing it safe.

One of the greatest mothers in town - she has ten beautiful childrenis going to become a grandmother! - Margaret Graham! Biii, her husband, is also so young looking he will have to carry proof when he becomes a grandpa.

Hourly workers were the ones called back to work by Titanium - we forgot to mention the fact in last week's story.

Boulder City's leaders are gung ho as new builders are pushing the doors down to start developments . . . the chamber ran its installation party Saturday and the motif showed the growth spirit . . . beautiful decor around the theme "The Impossible Dream" - as the step by step progress was portrayed from the 1932 day when Bill Harrison was its first president to now as John Brown takes over. 40 years later . . . Outgoing president and builder, Curly Smith, said the recent Demon Days pro motion brought in 19,200 tickets showing a million dollars in business . . . with 98 merchants taking part. The chamber has 120 members. Emil de Vylder, who with his wife are about to become American Citizens since they are Canadian natives, was in charge of the decorations and general program . . . Basic meets Western in a soccer game at Basic Field at 3:00 tomorrow. Bob Anderson and Tom Sparks were players of the week for their performance against Rancho last week.

The final score was Rancho 3, Basic 1.

Winners Elks Youth Leadership Contest . . .

Shown here are Basic High School students Carol Stapleton and Ross Kesterson being congratulated by contest judge Mrs. Bob Olsen and Hal Smith. Looking on is Jim Moore, chairman of the Youth Activities Committee of the Henderson Elks Lodge No. 1956. Contestants are judged on their leadership abilities as exhibitedin a brochure which they submit. Each will receive a $100 US Savings Bond from the local lodge. Their brochures have now been entered in the state contest. Success there will entitle them to entry in the National contest. The local lodge extends congratulations and good luck to these future leaders of America. Sincere appreciation is also expressed to the judges for their donation of time and effort in the difficult task of making these choices.

Corky Williams Seriously III

Loren "Corky" Williams, Jr. son of city councilman Loren and Mrs. Williams, lies in a Salt Lake hospital in serious physical condition, this newspaper was informed last night.

Corky, now 25, a popular local citizen who has been a resident since birth, was taken suddenly ill last week and his parents immediately took him to Salt Lake specialists.

He has been in a coma and hospital officials told his parents who are with their son at bedside, that Corky is in very serious condtion.

Special to the HOME NEWS CARSON CITY - The battle for a seat in the legislature between Henderson's Art Espinoza and Hal Smith went undecided yesterday as the state legislature went into session for the first time.

The assembly immediately took the matter under discussion and decided that neither man should hold a seat until a study of the case was made by a legislative committee, which would make its report which would then be followed by a decision.

The study will be made this week, if possible, and the committee is due to come into the Vegas area today this newspaper was told.

The voting machine which Smith contends was malfunctioning enough to cost him the election will be studied, as will all other facets of the case, it was reported.

Meanwhile, both Espinoza and Smith were waiting in the wings here ready to take the one seat in the brand new assembly chamberwhen and if the decision comes.

The assembly voted 21 to 19 not to seat Espinoza yesterday, even for an interim period. Instead a seven man committee, four of them Republicans, three as Democrats, will conduct the study starting today.

For a brief spell yesterday Espinoza sat in the coveted seat, but left it when the 21-19 vote was

Dear Mr. Zenoff:

In your recent column about the local High School you stated that a public appeal should be made to the Chief of Schools and "a letter will do it . . if you care . . or believe."

I definiately do believe that a letter should be written, but not to the Chief of Schools, but to people who print stupid statements like you do.

It is statements like you you made in the Thursday, Jan. 14th edition of the Home News that have made our schools, now run by the whims of the students rather than by the trained teachers that were educated in schools that were run by rules, regu-
