Also discussed was the continuance of the gift shop located in the bell-tower at the rear of the church. The pro-working position all of the time without being in the way. This room is papered in a gay modern pattern as is the new bathroom next to it.

The master bedroom is at the end of the hall beyond this bathroom. This is the ype of home many archiects strive for, where the parents room is away from he children's rooms to insure a mutual respect of pri-

At the end of the walled-in back yard is a little house that might have been a guest cottage but Joan assured me that it was her husband's work shop. It was finished off the same as the house.

"I wish that you had come when my irises were in Joan lamented, bloom." 'They were lovely." There were still a few in back of the garage and she was right. They were lovely.

Leaving the house I could not resist looking back over my shoulder. From the street no one could ever guess that there was so much house behind that front door.

Commodity Food At Carver Soon

Citizens for Community Action Chairman Herman Van Betten has announced that commodity foods will be distributed regularly in Henderson at 7A Washington in Carver Park.

Van Betten said that the Clark County Social Services Program was cooperating in the food distribution.

Families that have children qualify for the program can receive commodities of food on the last Friday of the month, beginning on April

If men and women older than 55 those with no children qualify for the food distribution program, they can pick up their supplies on the secand Friday of the month, beginning May 12.

Ms. Darlene Fortney and Clemencia Jabbs, along with the county Social Services program were cited by Van Betten for their work in making the food available.
