

Council Denies Trumbo Development Rezoning

Before a standing room only crowd, the City Council voted 43 to 1 to deny the zone change requested by Hershel Trumbo for a townhouse planned unit development.

Voting against the zone change were Mayor Lorin Williams, making his first appearance at a council meeting since suffering a heart attack last July, and Councilmen Carlton Lawrence, Gary Price and Lorna Kesterson.

Favoring the rezoning, which would have changed the approximately 15 acres from individual residential to multiple dwelling, was Councilman Phil Stout. The controversial zoning had been approved by the city planning commission by a vote of 4-2.

Attorney Harry Reid, former Basic High School graduate and Lt. Governor of Nevada and now Chairman of the State Gaming Commission, appeared on behalf of Trumbo.

"The project is not generated by someone who just came to town and is out to make a quick buck," Reid said in presenting his client as a longtime resident of Henderson who has given much towards the development of the city.

"We will also show that the development will improve the property values of the surrounding area," was another point in the argument presented by Reid.

Franklin J. Bills, who worked on the master plan for Henderson in 1969, also spoke on behalf of the project saying, "I would not represent a plan if I didn't know it would be good for Henderson."

He provided statistics showing the development would be compatible with a low density use plan.

Gary Kent, one of two members in Clark County of the American Institute of Real Estate Appraisers, said the development would improve property values in the area basing his opinion on the similarity of Trumbo's project to the Sunrise Villa Townhouse development in Las Vegas.

Three homeowners of the affected area, who have spoken out against the development since it first came before the planning commission, represented 30 of their neighbors at the meeting.

Ray Wilke of 290 E. Delamar said "there is no guarantee, if this development is approved for rezoning, that future proposals would be as nice." He continued saying that he and his wife had chosen that particular location for building their home because of the zoning.

Phil Butler of 230 Desert Rose said, "there is a difference in the lifestyle of ranch estate homeowners and condominium owners and it

Downtown Civic-Center Plans Revealed

The stock market goes down but the sun shines for you in retaliation as you walk the grounds of Boulder's Art Show and see where the committee was wise in yet another move to upgrade its fine offering... first by moving the site from high school park to government park, now by splitting the arts from the crafts... giving artists from both backgrounds what they wanted. Buy something? Of course, everyone bought something... Art? yes -- a hand painted welcome sign on an old piece of wood... crafts? yes -- another pair of those Alaskan hand made knee-length sheepskin lined boots... just wore the other ones once -- at the inauguration... and they paid their way -- in addition to drawing raves from ex-Carter chief Lance and others... now brother Bill has them to wear at the Packer games, which he sees weekly in Green Bay... and its cold up there in old Wisconsin... what to do with these new ones -- in sunny Mexico... like serving ice to an Eskimo is the expression... wait 'n see... can always make a trade with trusty shoe expert Van Valey... what'll he do with them?.. if nothing more... a topic of conversation and a butt for jokes... of which he has plenty of butts.

The guerillas high-jack and hold passengers aboard a plane at gun-point -- but the sun shines for you in retaliation as you attend the band concert featuring the United States Army field unit band... and see neighbors in unison applauding their efforts as their date here opposes on time and date the opening game of the Dodgers and Phillies series... while the band concert lost in attendance to the Dodgers, it won in admiration from the crowd... it was our very deep pleasure to host this event as a public service from our papers...

The rapist attacks two more at knife-point, causing fine girls to be mutilated by the scum of society -- but the sun shines for you in retaliation as you watch your buddies from the police force, the air base, the senior citizens club load up their vans, jeeps, trucks for the chase of the hunt... it's deer season and bird season, fellow... and there's no stopping any living person this week... be it sadness over there... it's return to the woods over here where

by Virgil McKinney

North of Pittman lies a weird, spine-chilling, swampy area, lush with water-loving plants. There's a small, contaminated lake, a little stream, equally contaminated. Creepy, crawly animal life slithers about in the dark shelter of the vegetation. The dank air reeks with acrid odors. All-in-all, it's a delightful place.

Delightful, that is, to young boys from 12 through their middle teens, not only because of the eerie character of the place, but also because of the few narrow roads which provide such a fine place to ride their dirt bikes. (Of course, the rider must take care not to let his machine wander off the road into the swamp.) The area also offers, occasionally, an opportunity for these youthful riders to discharge a civic duty.

Such a chance presented itself at about noon, last Saturday, to three young Henderson boys, Brian Laugeson, 13, Richard Price, 14, and Danny Bruner, 12. While riding the swamp roads, they spied a yellow-and-white Volkswagen bug, sans wheels and tires, standing beside a stream, its trunk lid gaping open as though silently begging to be taken out of that dismal place.

At first, the boys thought it was a junked car. On closer examination, though, they saw that the engine was still there, as was the radio, complete with its twin speakers. Such items would surely have been removed if the car had been junked. They decided to inform the Henderson police of their find -- a wise decision.

As it turned out, the car had been reported stolen two days earlier. Brian, Richard, and Danny deserve a pat on the back and a thank you for becoming involved. They did the right thing. Congratulations, boys.

Thank You, Lord, For These Kidney Machines

I walked right up and began again,
For in the dialysis room was our son, Ken.
I looked around and on machines were ten.
I looked up and said "Thank you, Lord, for these kidney machines,
Now these people can live again."

I paused as I entered the dialysis door,
I remember distinctly of being here before
With another son, Dick, who has gone on before.

I pushed back the tears and asked the Lord to stay near,
"Please Lord, give us strength to carry on
And live near day by day and be strong.

We have done it before and we can do it again,
So please, Dear Lord, be kind to Ken.
Thank you, Lord, for all you have done;
For the battles we have lost and those we have won,
Thank you, Lord, again and again, most of all for our son, Ken."
By his mother, Bonnie Turner

BY MARY STAFFORD

"It's going to work! I'm going to do it and with God's help I'm going to make it," declared Kenneth Turner emphatically and unequivocally.

Turner, 34, has just begun undergoing dialysis treatment for a kidney condition he has known about for the past nine years but which has now reached the stage where he must have the treatment in order to sustain life.

His particular kidney condition is called hereditary nephritis and his older brother, Dick, died last May 25 as a result of the disease. Dick had a kidney transplant ten years earlier, however the medicines he took to keep his body from rejecting the kidney eventually caused brain damage which led to his eventual death.

"But even though he was blind and suffering at the last, Dick had a great sense of humor and gave us the strength to face what I had to do," Turner said.

"After returning home from a wonderful vacation with my three teenage children, a 4100

New Commercial Building Designs Approved

Architectural designs for a new commercial building on Water Street and an office building located at Sunset Road and Parkson Street were approved by the city council Monday night.

The office building on Sunset is owned by Lyle Smith and the commercial building, to be located at 18 Water Street is owned by Realtor Duane G. Laubach.

A sign to be located at Sunset and Mountain Vista for Buster Brown Textiles, American Nevada Corp. for the regional distributing center, was also approved.

Preliminary plans for a downtown civic center for city, state, county and possibly federal offices, were viewed and discussed by city and business leaders at a meeting held Wednesday morning in the planning commission chambers.

City Manager Bob Campbell, in introducing the plans which were presented, said, "we are talking purely concepts, one in which the community should be involved in."

He said the final concept, when it is completed, will be implementing as time and finances are available.

Planning Director Bob Gordon said the sketches presented were only a starting point and the plan could be revised after input from the community.

The plan for the civic center contains the 12 acres in downtown Henderson and cost $6,000 from a 701 federal planning grant.

The discussion included the immediate needs of parking in the downtown area, a mini convention center, a highrise office building, and other office buildings.

One plan showed the city offices separated into various buildings around a courtyard. The other showed the city offices contained in a triangular building.

The possibility of moving the city complex to another site was discussed also.

"I had passed the dialysis room at Southern Nevada Memorial Hospital many times when visiting my doctor but would never go in and really look...I knew I'd be there one day and that would be soon enough," he related.

"That first time I was scared to death, just like a little kid...afraid of the unknown...and it wasn't the most pleasant experience. My blood pressure dropped...I felt nauseous...but after the first dialysis, I went to work and worked 13 hours," Turner recounted.

Many people use the kidney machine as an alternate to a transplant or while awaiting a kidney transplant. The human kidney contains more than one million hair-fine tubes through which all the blood in the body passes. As the blood flows through the tubes, waste materials pass through the microscopically thin walls to be eliminated from the body in the urine while cleansed blood returns into circulation.

The "artificial kidney" or kidney machine duplicates this process almost exactly.

The intake tube of the machine is connected to an artery and the natural pump-

Turner explained that the ends of the nerves in the feet pick up deposits which causes the pain and is one of the first signs that the kidneys are not functioning adequately.

Phelps Claims Truck Destroyed on Faulty Street

A claim of $1,750 against the City for "total destruction of his 1972 International 4-wheel drive pickup," was turned over to the City's insurance carrier by the City Council Monday night.

Tommy L. Phelps, 730 Center St., said in the claim submitted that he was traveling northbound on Lamb Blvd. on September 12 at noon when he passed another car on a downgrade. Before he was able to stop, his vehicle struck a washout caused by flash flooding two days prior. He claimed he saw no warning signs indicating the presence of road damage.

Phelps claimed his truck was totally destroyed. Blue book value of the truck is $2,250 with a salvage value of $500.

Ever Hear Of A Wheel Chair C - B'er? Henderson's Jim Heller Is One

By Lorna Kesterson

Not all C-B enthusiasts are truck drivers, nor do they drive pick-ups or Cadillacs, Henderson artist Jim Heller, has one attached to his wheel chair and he keeps in touch with all sorts of people.

Heller, 40, of 215 W. Pacific Street, has been confined to the chair most of his life because of muscular dystrophy, but that doesn't slow him down too much. His philosophy is "Take life as it is and do the best we can."

As a professional artist, Heller does a lot of research at the local library and he has been instrumental in getting a new ramp installed which would accommodate his wheel chair. He does commercial art, does portraits, and especially enjoys doing western art. He looks up pictures of Indians at the Library, xeroxes them and then paints them at his leisure. This way he feels his paintings are authentic. He also makes cards for C-Bers. He enjoys the mediums of oil, water colors, pen and ink.

Prior to moving to Henderson seven years ago, Heller and his parents lived in Las Vegas. When his father passed away, he and his mother moved to Henderson. They have been in the area for 27 years.

He knows a lot of people in Henderson and likes it here. He is a familiar sight as he guides his chair through the city. He only hopes the city will make some curb cuts to make it more convenient for disabled persons, not only wheel chair people but the elderly.

Heller did a portrait of Jerry Lewis and the poster child as a gift to Lewis and he treasures a letter of thanks he received from the comedian. He has displayed his art at the local library, at the Boulder City art show, and at the Mall.

Heller claims he's not a philosopher or anything but he takes life as it is and improves on it and he uses his talent to the fullest.

happiness, contentment, excitement abounds...

The bribes to foreign buyers goes in among our big industries, but the sun shines for you in retaliation as you turn away from crime to hear a San Diegan tell you that city has the fastest growth factor of all as retirees and investors and health-seekers rush in. We study it again and again and find it is true... what they say about San Diego county ... it has the best weather year round in the USA ... it has coolness all the time ... it has green, it has vegetables and fruit home grown, it has parks and zoos and whales and sharks in captivity ... it has events for all ... like 18 golf courses ... pro teams ... new stadium ... colleges close by to develop even more the mind God gave you ... our tip to those seeking weather or any of the above ... and not wanting to stay here -- then let it be La-Jolla, Del Mar, La Costa, San Diego and its environs. But it takes more money to buy, now-a-days, since others have discovered it -- as we have .. with many studies.

Bums caught selling dope, but the sun shines for you as you turn away from society's dark side and see Santini about to make the big decision whether to go for governor and stay in congress ... we'll bet you dollars to doughnuts it'll be stay in congress ... and rightfully so, as as governor he can't do as good a job ... in our opinion .. he's not an administrator as much as he is a politician ...

with a good legal mind ... so who should run for governor besides Lt. Gov. Rose and Atty.-Gen. List. Why naturally it should be Bob Broadbent for the Repubs and Ralph Denton for the Demos. Both could do the job. Each has the talent the public needs in office. Both need your encouragement and money to urge them to try. Talk about talent in office helping to solve the troubles of our world ... here's talent that equals List and Rose.

Seven injured as drunken driver crosses over to other lane -- and you turn to the sunshine over there in order to forget .. and hear telephone man King say Vegas has added 3900 phones this month and now has 376,000 phones in use ... and you walk the gravel grounds where Levi Strauss is a-building and see your state assemblyman Jack Jeffrey in overalls and hard hat -- installing basic electric lines .. and you talk about the recent legislative behind the scenes shuffling for power .. and he says, as we hoped he'd say, I don't want any part of it.. I'll go with the best men and stand by them even if they're voted down the tube ... and you open a letter from a friend who reminds you how Bert Todkill opened up his home to you at

Rancho Bernardo, took you to horse stables, thru the barns at the race track and explained the difference between jumpers and runners .. and you learn now that Bert died last week, just like that, up and dropped dead, while enjoying a travel trip thru Spain on a charter trip with his friends ... you too might have once had a car that had a license plate sign reading -- Todkill Lincoln Mercury ...

The city council has some decisions to make -- in both Boulder and Henderson ... as growth items crowd the agenda ... what to do ...it's here ... growth ... we say watch it, help it grow, put as much property as you can on the tax rolls so that the tax load we all carry can be lighter ... but still keep control growth in mind with each decision ... housing of all sorts .. from trailers to government projects to conventional homes ... should be given fast go-aheads .. as building costs spiral so fast that buyers may lose their ability to buy for lack of finances ... and the work force coming in must be sheltered or we'll lose them to other areas ... homes, condos, apartments, trailer courts ... give 'em all a fast yes -- have them each stick to rigid building regulations and then have them all install the extras that bring beauty and warmth ... trees, shrubs, play areas ... give people a chance to live among us ... you'll find as we do and we'll find as you do -- they're as talented, as neighborly, as human and as dedicated American home-owners as we are.

Don't forget to wear those red hunting caps -- and here's hoping you bring home the bacon ... deer-bacon, that is.

Henderson Chapter American War Mothers Install Officers

The Henderson Chapter of American War Mothers installed a new slate of officers for the year 1977-'78 at the Civic Center, Room 7 on Monday evening October 3.

Incoming officers are Frances Kisan, President; Evelyn Mazrimas, Vice-President; Lorraine Danielson, Recording Secretary; Thelma Stokes, Corresponding Secretary; Jane Shulty, Treasurer; Mabel Newton, Chaplain; Kathy Weese, Historian. Mrs. Kisan appointed committee chairmen as follows: Americanism, Evelyn Mazrimas; Sargent of Arms, Helen Richard. Rhea Johnson was presented with a Past President pin during the ceremony. Guests were Dale Johnson, son of Rhea Johnson, Don Hanson, son of Lolita Constantine, Gladys Giberson and Florence Palsgrove, who will be reinstated. The Charter was draped for Cordelia Nomeland, who passed away last month. The floral march was won by Mabel Newton. Refreshments were served by Doris Pritchard, Lorraine Danielson and Thea Bowler.

There will be the annual trip to the Whipple Veterans Hospital in Prescott, Arizona on Wednesday, Oct. 12. Mothers wishing to go will meet at the Safeway parking lot at 5 a.m. All mothers of the chapter are asked to bake cookies for the veterans.

ing action of the heart drives the blood into the machine where it's passed between sheets of cellophane or similar material immersed in a specially prepared cleansing solution.

The urinary wastes pass through the membrane and are carried away by the solution which is continuously circulated. The cleansed blood is warmed to body temperature by a heating device, then returned to the body through a vein.

The connections are made through plastic tubes permanently embedded in the forearm and when not in use, they are joined together in a U-shaped shunt to maintain circulation.

"Now it's like old homeweeek in the dialysis room with everyone talking, laughing and kidding. There are ten of us together at the same time. The staff are a great bunch of people, friends always making sure everything is going as it should. It's taking awhile to get me stabilized...my blood clots now and then and the plastic kidney has to be cleaned out and replaced but they are working hard at getting it straightened out," Turner said. Right now he goes on dialysis two times a week for four hours each session. "But I know I'm going to have to go three times a week before long."

On dialysis days he arises at 5:30 a.m., and is at the hospital and ready for the machine by 6:30. Following the four hours in dialysis he leaves for work where he drives a truck for United Parcel Service, the run to Beaver, Utah and back a 454 mile trip, arriving home about 11:30 p.m.

"The UPS folks are the finest bunch of people...I can't say enough about how great and understanding they have been...when Dick was sick...and now helping me with my schedule. I've been working for them for 11 years now and they're just great," Turner reiterated.

"I feel better today than I have felt in five years," he continued. One of the other fellows, a man who has been on dialysis for a year, and I are thinking of working out at the YMCA...really feel good and want to keep my muscles toned," he said with a grin.

Turner's parents, Bonnie and Dale Turner, who have been residents since 1945, have been his Rock of Gibraltar all through his life. "My mom is one hell of a lady...Dad gives me strength, Mom compassion...and from both -- faith in God. They always told us we'll help you but you've got to do it yourself. So with the faith of my parents and the help of my kids, I'm going to make it."

Perhaps in another five or six years Turner will consider a kidney transplant. Dick's recent death is still too fresh in his memory.

Hopefully in another five or six years medical science will have devised an artificial kidney that doesn't carry the risk one takes with a transplant.

In the meantime, "Thank you, Lord, for these kidney machines."

Moseley, Osborn Appointed

Sister Riccarda Moseley and Police Chief Floyd Osborn of Henderson, were appointed to three year terms on the 17-member commission on crime, delinquency and corrections, by Governor Mike O'Callaghan.

Letters To The Editor:

We are the players on the Women's Varsity Basketball team for Basic High who had the ultimate misfortune of reading last week's letter in this paper concerning our team and our coach.

We were amazed at the nerve of whoever it was who wrote that letter. In the first place, the person who calls themselves a "Concerned Spectator" knows virtually nothing of the going ons of our team. Secondly, our coach is a very concerned with how well we played a game, whether it was a win or a loss. Of course she is concerned with winning, but she is equally concerned when the game develops into a loss. Our coach is always ready to pay us a compliment on a particularly splendid play and is always ready to help us when we do something wrong.

Running the three miles, which we only did once, was not for punishment, but to try and help us get into better physical shape, thus enabling us to endure a hard 4-quarter game without being too tired or worked over afterwards.

As for our bad passes, we are working very hard in the gym daily on passing the ball and shooting baskets. As you can tell in our game against Vo-Tech we have greatly improved on these two items. And to me, "this makes sense!"

We are a team, we lose as a team and we win as a team. If there is one girl that seems to make most of the bad passes, or bad plays we suffer for her mistakes as she will do for ours, because we are a team.

We greatly respect our coach. She has done a tremendous job with us and will continue to do so without any assistance from anyone or anybody at anytime. We are a very aggressive and self-assured ball team. We are confident that the remainder of our season will be greatly improved over the past.

When we look up in the stands during a game we are very pleased to see the amount of people there. We look up and see many of our parents and friends. We feel that our games are greatly supported by parents, friends, and faculty.

Basic does need the moral support of Henderson, but not when it results in the writing of an article such as the one that appeared in this paper last week about our team and our coach. This is the kind of support we can do without.

Our losing season has nothing to do with our coach or how bad our practices are, the results of our games are determined by how well we played that night. In our opinion we have one of the best coaches in the whole Clark County.

The letter that we are concerned with that appeared in last weeks paper greatly offended and disturbed our coach and ourselves. We hope that if this should happen a second time maybe "Concerned Spectator" will have the decency to keep his or her opinions to themselves and not advertise them in a local newspaper.

Our games are played at 7:30 p.m. on Tuesdays and Thursdays. J.V. is played at 5:30 p.m. on these same evenings. If you are at all concerned, please come out and support our team.

Signed,
Basic High Women's Varsity Basketball Team

Welding Service Available

"Most of my work is lake related," explained Wayne Randall, welder and owner of The Welding Shop at 1136 N. Boulder Highway.

"A large percentage of the people who come to me need boat repairs or gas tanks and trailer hitches welded but I can do most any type of job they require." Randall opened his shop about a year and a half ago and does arc and heliarc welding, depending upon the process needed, plus he has a portable welder and can go to the customer in a situation where they can't get to him.

Welding has been used extensively for the past 30 to 40 years now and Randall learned the trade in college when living in California. However, he has been a resident of Nevada since 1948 and lists handball as a favorite hobby.

The Welding Shop is open Monday through Friday, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. and is located next door to Trophy Auto. Randall also has a 24 hour emergency service should the need arise.

Ramp Completed For Handicapped At Local Library

Just in time for "Awareness Day" for the handicapped, the ramp in front of the Henderson Library has been completed.

With the new installation, handicapped persons, either on crutches or in wheel chairs, can gain entrance into the library with ease where before it was prohibitive with steps.

A number of local people have contributed time and effort in getting the ramp installed. The project has been sponsored and spearheaded, and to a big extent, funded, by the Henderson Rotary Club.

A need for the ramp was expressed by Jim Heller, who is confined to a wheel chair, over a year ago and Librarian Tom Hollis contacted several city officials and others to find out about getting it put in. Through the efforts of a lot of people, it is now completed.

On hand for opening ceremonies were Karen L. Goodiell, Miss Wheelchair Nevada 1978, of Las Vegas, who works for the Nevada State Department of Agriculture; Jim Heller, local artist, Donna McIntire, Governor's Committee for the employment of the Handicapped; Duane Laubach, president of the Henderson Rotary Club; Lee Zike, vice president of the Henderson Rotary Club; Tom Hollis, librarian.

Costumed Pet Parade "Aloha Hawaii"

A costumed Pet Parade will be held at 12 noon, Saturday, October 22. The Parade will begin in the Small Animal Area and parade throughout the Expo premises. The Parade will be judged on the basis of best dress up and costumes of pet, owner and apparatus. Theme of the parade will be: "ALOHA HAWAII." Pets may be carried, led or pulled in or on a cart or wagon.

WOLVES FACE WILDCATS TOMORROW NITE

BY KEITH MARCHER

Basic High School's Varsity Football Team will take on a very tough Las Vegas High School team tomorrow night at Vegas. Kickoff time is scheduled for 8 p.m.

The Las Vegas Wildcats come into tomorrow night's game with a respectable 2-2 record, boasting wins over Rancho and Eldorado High Schools.

Las Vegas Head Coach Joe Fromhart isn't going to be taking the Wolves lightly just because they're having an off year. He states that Basic has always been very competitive and could surprise a team at any time.

Two key players in the Wildcat attack will be Seniors Lorenzo Baker and Angell Smith.

Baker, a defensive tackle, has played exceptionally well in all of Vegas' previous games.

Smith is the major gainer for the Wildcats, and he will be the man Basic must stop.

Basic will come into tomorrow night's contest with a 1-4 record. Their only win came against Bonanza High School, when the Bengals were forced to hand the Wolves the game despite a 39-0 score in Bonanza's favor. The Bengals were forced to forfeit the contest because of having both an illegal coach and an illegal player on the field.

Basic Coach Emilio Camillone, however, says that he and his team will not accept the forfeit as a win. In their minds the Wolves will still be trying pick up their first victory tomorrow night.

Camillone is trying to get his team to "Utilize its full potential," and states that although the Wolves play to win, they just haven't gotten it together

yet. Camillone's team hasn't been very successful this season mostly due to the fact that they don't have the speed.

Another determining factor in the disappointing Basic season is the size difference between Henderson and Las Vegas players. Las Vegas players not only have the advantage of height on the Wolves but also the weight.

Camillone feels that a tough game lies ahead for his team when they step on the field against Las Vegas tomorrow night.

"The Wildcats should be unbeaten. They have just had some bad luck which aided other teams in defeating them," Camillone states. The coach goes on to say that tomorrow night's game will be a very physical one.

Camillone feels that the Wolves' chances are good as long as several of his most consistent players perform well.

Senior Robin Glabick, who plays end and linebacker has done an excellent job for the Wolves this year.

Also, Senior Henry

James has been an asset to the team this season. James will be starting at safety and flanker positions in tomorrow night's contest.

Other outstanding players include Randy Roche, running back; Lenny Lomprey, defensive tackle; Eric Doberstein, offensive tackle; and John Hauge, who leads the team in tackles.

Cross-Country Track Team Meets Valley and LV. High Schools

by Keith Marcher

Basic High School's Cross Country Track Team will be in for one of their toughest matches of the season when they meet Valley and Las Vegas High School's tomorrow at 3 p.m. at Valley.

Valley has a strong team this year and Head Coach Richard Crane expects to top both Basic and Vegas in tomorrow's contest.

Seniors Jay Dettri and Mike Garrison, along with Sophomore Hans Muser will be definite factors in Valley's chance for a win. Valley has an outstanding 3-0 record, and boasts wins over Clark, Eldorado, and Las Vegas.

Basic has compiled a 6-3 record so far this year and Coach Richard Huggins expects this match to be a rough one.

Basic's top three runners are Dave Lammers, the new school record holder, Ken Briggs and Bruce Sillitoe.

Henderson Women's Bowling Association Meeting Held

At the open meeting of the Henderson Women's Bowling Association September 27, activities for the current season were discussed and voted on although attendance was small.

New president, LaVon Holmes, presided as the members decided on an annual awards night for all leagues that desire to invite their team sponsors and give out trophies won for the year. More details on this at a later date.

No member from Henderson desired to attend the WIBC Tournament and Convention in Miami, Florida, next Spring, so Special Projects funds raised for that purpose will accumulate until 1979 when the meetings will be held in Tucson, Arizona.

HWBA delegates to Nevada WBA in Ely next May were elected. They are: Betty Wages, Etta Woods, Lynn Coggins and Shirley Kaempfer. Alternates are Jacque Robinson, Sally Leming, LaVon Holmes and Ruth Soehlke.

Judy Quadlin suggested a larger donation by our association to the Bowlers Victory Legion, an organization to help disabled veterans. As a result HWBA will hold a special BVL Week October 23 to 28 during which time each bowler will pledge in advance a penny per point for any one game bowled on that particular league. If you should bowl a 300 then $3.00 would be your donation. And you would be so proud to give it, right? Sally Leming will chair this event, with representatives from each league assisting.

Ruth Soehlke was appointed publicity chairman, so pass along any information you would like put in the paper.

J.V.'s Tangle With LV. Tonite

by Keith Marcher

Having lost only one game this season, the Basic High School JV Football team will face Las Vegas High School tonight at 7 p.m. in Las Vegas.

The team has compiled a 3-1 record, and its only loss came in its last game when it was upset by Valley High School.

The Vikings did have an 0-3 record coming into the game against Basic and the Wolves may have been a little overconfident.

Basic Head Coach Frank Hester expects his team to forget about its first loss and play good football against Las Vegas tonight.

Wolves players who should be dominating tonight's contest are Sophomores Leo Hernandez, Otto Kelley, Bud Goldsby, and Dan Elliot.

Expo "Aloha"

Some lucky couple will win a "Magic Week" in Hawaii via Western Airlines and the Henderson Chamber of Commerce.

The lucky couple will enjoy a paid round trip to Hawaii including a Lei greeting at the Honolulu Airport and seven

(7) lovely nights in Waikiki.

The tickets will be on sale for the drawing at the R.S.V.P. Booth at the Expo '77. Price for the tickets will be $1.00.

The winning name will be drawn on Sunday afternoon October 23, at 4:30 p.m. and the winner need not be present.

THE BEACH AT WAIKIKI beckons Aloha to some lucky Expo winner. See the story for further details. It could be you.

EXPO, Oct. 21, 22 and 23

The 4th annual Henderson Expo is planned October 21, 22, and 23 at the Civic Center in Henderson. It provides businesses, organizations and service groups a festive setting to display their merchandise or service and to meet members of the community. A trip to Hawaii will be given to some lucky winner during Henderson Expo '77.

Contests, games and entertainment will promote a Hawaiian atmosphere at Expo '77. The Little Miss and Mini Miss Expo Contests will give the ladies of the commu-ity an opportunity to participate in a contest.

A "Food Fair" of tasty treats for the whole family in an innovation for the Henderson Expo '77. All foods will be sold in a separate room called the "Food Fair."

There are still many choice booth spaces available. Those interested in obtaining more information and reserving a space are urged to contact the Henderson Chamber of Commerce 208 S. Boulder Highway, St. Peter's Church Complex, 565-8951.

R.S.V.P.

by Edna Deardoff

Isn't this weather delightful? It is so nice to have windows open and enjoy this wonderful Nevada air. It just made me realize how lucky I am to be living here in the desert, when I talked to my son back in Iowa and he told me it was heavy cast weather there - cold and damp. Anyway we had 32 Seniors come to our Pot-Luck and enjoy the beautiful food. Plates were heaped and groans were heard because they had eaten too much! Wish you had joined us.

The usual games of Bingo were enjoyed with prizes going to Anna Worswick, Anna Walsh, Verl Nielson, Edmund Walsh, Vira Vasser, Clarence Vliet. Small picture frame - Edna Deardoff - Letter T Game Peggy Vliet - Cover All Edith Will - Door Prize was claimed by Vira Vasser. Jean Eckley was the caller assisted by Ann Fletcher.

There will be blood pressures taken free at R.S.V.P. Room 29 Civic Center on Oct. 19 from 1-3 p.m.

Don't forget the Square Dance Lessons next Sunday, Oct. 9 from 2-4 p.m. in Room 6 Civic Center. We really have a good time and it is good for the circulation and it is all free. All Senior Citizens invited.

On Monday, Oct. 31, there is to be a Halloween Party at St. Peter's Senior Citizen Center sponsored by the Senior Nutrition Program. Plan a costume and come and join us. The hours are from 4-6 and the Swinging Ramblers will be there to play for us. Refreshments and prizes.

For all Senior Citizens - Crime Prevention Kits, consisting of a peep hole viewer for the front door; a sliding glass door lock; a flip lock for the bedroom door, and a barrel bolt for the back door has been assembled and it available to Seniors at cost, $3.32.

In addition, the Steelworker will be able to install these Crime Prevention Kits items free - Call 876-7820 or 565-0669 to order your kit or request installation.

Join us next Tuesday for an afternoon of fun when Edna Deardoff and Peggy Vliet will be your hostesses.

WINNERS AGAIN

Basic High School's Pam Tabar fired the low round of the day, yesterday, to lead Basic's Women's Golf Team to a 282-384 victory over Gorman at Black Mountain Golf Course.

Basic - Pam Tabar 40; Val Blackburn 49; Jamie Trumbo 52; Jenifer Foster 65; Mary Cowan 76.

Gorman - Sarah Marshall 66; Joie Janos 71; Suzie LaPointe 90; Rose Page 76; Bridget Hughes 81.

Medalist - Tabar 40.

FRESH LOOK FOR FOURTH GRID VICTORY

by Keith Marcher

Still undefeated, the Basic High School Freshman Football Team will take the field at 5 p.m. against Las Vegas High School in Las Vegas.

The young team has an impressive 3-0 record, and has recorded wins against Bonanza High School 22-6, Clark High School 12-6, and Valley High School 36-6.

Las Vegas' team has a dismal 0-3 record but Basic's Freshman Coach Dan Cahill says he is not taking any team lightly.

Basic's Freshman Squad is composed of 63 team members who have outscored their opponents by a margin of 70-18 thus far.

The team also has over 1,000 yards total offense in just three games, and has held its opponents to just under 100 yards per game.

The team will be led into battle this evening by Quarterback Randy Garrison, who Coach Cahill thinks is doing an excellent job.

Running Back James Bess, who has gained an incredible 412 yards in just three match-ups, will also be taking the field for the Wolves in tonight's contest.

Basic's other top running back, Mike Jose, has gained 250 yards in the three games so far, and as Coach Cahill describes is "an amazing blocker."

The Wolves' defensive squad is just as impressive as the offensive team. The first string defense has only been scored on once, and that was at the hands of Clark High School.

After tonight, the Wolves have three tough games left in the 1977 season. They will be facing Western, Rancho, and Chaparral High Schools.

Pet Show At Expo '77 A Big Feature:

Cats, rats, dogs, frogs, tortoises, skunks, or any animal that can be caged is welcome to the Henderson Expo '77 Pet Show on Saturday, October 23 at the Henderson Civic Center.

Judges see the pet through the eyes of its owner, not through the eyes of an adult.

The show will be held in a sheltered outdoor area and will begin a morning of Expo activities for all the family.

Coordinator for this event is John Coe.

Pets will be caged starting at 9 a.m. and judging will begin at 10:30 a.m. All animals will be caged and will remain at the Expo until 3 p.m. Pets are judged by competent judges using the "Danish System." Each pet is rated individually on grooming, general appearance and the love of its owner. They are not judged in competition.

Smiles Cunningham Attends A.W.M. National Convention

Smiles Cunningham, American War Mothers State President, recently returned from the National Convention of the American War Mothers, held at the Buena Park Convention Center, Buena Park, California.

The convention opened Sunday, September 25 with registrations and practice for the formal opening and memorial.

Business begin on Monday with the formal opening of the presentation of National and State colors and banners. Reports were heard from State presidents, National and state chairman. Also informative workshops were held.

There was a VAVS and a president's luncheon, a gold and silver star dinner and the formal dinner which closed the business session, followed by the installation of officers for the two years, 1977 through '79.

Friday the ladies were taken on a tour of NBC-4 TV studio, then on to Universal Studio where they had lunch before touring the studios, prop and costume sections.

"Buses took us over the huge Universal City and came so close to the ocean that Jaws snapped at us," Smiles said.

Syble White, Victoria Herrmann and Rilda Dattge of Las Vegas also attended with Mrs. Dattge returning home with Mrs. Cunningham.

Smiles Cunningham, State President of the American War Mothers.

Wyoming Explorer
Have you felt that electric current in the air lately? I do believe that it is called "Hunting Season!" In any case, it surely has affected a great segment of the population. Seems like many are either going, or have been or will go. Richie Walker took his Dad, David and they went into the wilds of Wyoming seeking the big game, the Elk. That sounds so great.

Moving to Georgia
Jay and Kay Henderson, long time residents of Henderson and active in our town for some time are now planning a temporary move to the state of Georgia where Jay will be on active duty with the National Guard for at least two years. He has been active in the Guard for many years and is an officer. Kay is a well known beautician. We wish them both much success in their venture.

Under the Weather
Two young people who have been ill but on the mend now are Robin Porter and Bonnie Smith. Hope they will soon be all well.

Birthdays
There's something about a birthday! Everyone has one, yet that one day is an especial personal day for every person and it means something individual. Don't you feel drawn (even a little) toward something who shares that date with you? Sure you do. Last week at least three youngsters left childhood behind and entered the teen years -- they were Carma Jean Call, Tony Hafen and Rick Bennett. They are all native born, too, having made their appearance at Rose de Lima Hospital. A belated birthday greeting to them. And to Susie Davis, too, I heard.

Social At Community Church

The Community Church of Henderson, United Church of Christ, would like to invite all members and friends to a Social Get Together, Sunday, October 9, at 4 p.m. in Gilbert Hall. There will be a pot-luck dinner, drawings for prizes, and the fun of just being together, getting acquainted and re-acquainted. Bring your own meat, (bar-b-ques will be provided) and a salad. If you want dessert, bring enough to serve your own family. The salads and desserts will all go together and be shared.

We wish to extend our sympathy along with many friends and relatives to the family of Kurt Christensen, who died as the result of an auto accident last Saturday in Las Vegas.

Traveling to South America
Rodney Burr, son of Lynn and JoAnne Burr received his visa to go to Lima, Peru where he will be for a couple of years. What an exciting future. Best wishes to Rodney.

California Visitor
Norene Chiniguy, formerly Langford, with little Robert Mark stopped briefly in Henderson to visit parents, Elaine and Ron Langford. She was on the way to Cedar City, Utah to visit a couple of her sisters, Janet Hughes and Kathryn Rhee.

At Rose de Lima
A temporary visitor in the hospital was Gene Kittell and Lee Dickinson who were assigned the same room. Both are recovering now at home. Get well wishes go out from many friends.

One of Henderson's Realtors, Mrs. Magda Potter is also in Rose de Lima for some minor surgery. Hope that she will soon be well and up and about.

"From Junk, God Makes People of Spunk!" Pastor's Topic.
Pastor Joel Rivers will be speaking on the topic of

"From Junk, God Makes People of Spunk!" at the 10 a.m. Morning Worship Service at Vegas Valley Christian Church, 5515

Mountain Vista, the gateway to Las Vegas and Henderson. Bible School Services are held each Sunday at 9 a.m.

The Lord's Supper is served to all believers at each service of the church.

Youth Services begin at 5:30 p.m. with Junior and Senior High School Groups meeting also at Wednesday at 5:30 p.m.

At 4 p.m., the Board of Directors will be meeting at their monthly meeting to review the work of the church.

7 p.m. will see the Fellowship Hour of the Church Convene with Miss Annette Turcotte leading the monthly music and devotional program. Folk wishing to perform should contact her for inclusion on the program.

On October 10th, the Ladies Dorcas Circle will meet at the home of Jeanne Hackett, gifts for Atascadero Senior Home should be brought in before this date if possible.

Western Days

The Church of God of Prophecy, located at 416 Perlite Way, is planning a Western Days celebration October 9. Everyone is to come dressed in western or old fashioned clothes.

Things will start with Sunday School at 10 a.m. and morning worship at 11. Mary Miller conducts childrens church at this time also. Rev. David Delaria will be acting as sheriff to keep law and order.

There will be a barbecue following morning worship. We also have fun time planned and everyone over the age of 50 is to bring their instrument for "Old Timers Band". Everyone is invited to attend.

Senior Citizens

The S.C.S.C. will be celebrating the birthdays of the month this Friday, Oct. 7. Hostess for this meeting is Lois Rinker.

Attendance at the last meeting indicated the return of members from summer vacations. Hostess was Margaret Taylor.

Henderson - Its Economic History

Part 26 of a Series

By Maryellen Vallier Sadovich

Maryellen Vallier Sadovich, a noted Nevada historian, and a Henderson resident since 1954, treated our readers with a most unique bicentennial series during 1976. This year, she has researched the local newspaper files and the archives of Henderson's City Hall, the Chamber of Commerce, and BMI, to produce an economic history of Henderson from the first day of incorporation to the present.

The county in turn promised to accept the expenses of developing the fifteen acre tract into a park at a cost of $75,564 which was Henderson's portion of the Clark County recreation bonds.

Ground for the park was broken on March 19, 1958. When completed during the next 90 days, City Park included facilities for tennis, volleyball, badminton, basketball and horseshoes, as well as a baseball and softball diamond. Barbecue pits, picnic tables, childrens' playground and wading pool were also installed, and the entire area was planted with shrubs, trees and oleanders, to create a beautiful and valuable addition to the city.

Still the beautification continued. On November 4, 1957, the Council voted to donate $750 for buying and planting 300 Siberian Elms, 14 feet tall and five inches thick, along Boulder Highway from the East city limits all the way to the Water Street intersection. During the early months of 1958, BMI donated money for purchase and planting of another 500 trees along the plant side of the road from Boulder Highway, up the Water Street extension to Frontier Boulevard (Lake Mead Drive now) and then all the way out to the last group of homes on the Boulevard.

Even before the trees were planted, in September 1957, a group of golf enthusiasts organized and incorporated the Black Mountain Golf and Country Club which would bring still another beautification project to Henderson.

"If the project is a success ... immeasurable benefit will accrue to our town with a cool, green golf course on its flanks, a place where locals and tourists can enjoy themselves sans the hectic personality of the Las Vegas courses," a local editor wrote.

Land for the project was purchased from BMI, and numerous homesites of more than 1/2 acres each were designated to surround the proposed nine hole golf course and club house.

Soon all was ready. The Black Mountain Golf and Country Club complete with smooth greens, sprinkler system, and flourishing young elm trees, separated only by a graded dirt road from the sage and sand of the desert was dedicated on June 14, 1958.

In a period of eighteen months Henderson acquired several elegant beautification projects that remain today invaluable additions to the city one could say that it's really happening with the Californians and they give God all the credit. So don't miss your opportunity to see and hear the Californians in concert proclaiming the message of Jesus Christ and His saving grace through their musical ministry.

The Californians have recorded several long play albums and record with Manna Records of Hollywood, California. To sum it all up, I think

Rebekah's Put On Feed-bag Wednesday

Cactus Rebekah Lodge No. 40, I.O.O.F. entertained nearly 30 guests at a planned pot luck dinner, Wednesday night in the Legion Hall. Several of these were members of the ball team sponsored by Boulder Lodge No. 50, Independent Order of Odd Fellows. They were introduced by Noble Grand Linda Cooper.

Following the meal, the visitors received an explanation of why the members of the Order were called "Odd", because they have always believed in helping people both in and out of the Lodge.

Coach Chuck Baker was presented with a

Charley Brown statuette, by John Shipp, Noble Grand of the Odd Fellows Lodge.

A quiz game and spelling bee were played, with prizes going to several players.

Cactus Rebekah Lodge will honor State Officers, and have roll call at the meeting of Wednesday, Oct. 12, in the Legion Hall. Visitors are welcome.

City beautification plans for Henderson continued during 1957. At the first meeting of the year, the Council unanimously voted to create two assessment districts for sidewalks and curbs, gutters and paved streets in the business section of the townsite. Estimated cost of the districts was $210,000 to be paid by property owners adjacent to the improvements. Work began late in March, and was completed in the fall.

On October 4, Atomic Street was the scene of a grand "Henderson New Look" celebration with bands, entertainment, speeches and prizes marking this completion of the paving of the streets in the down town area of the city's first assessment district. Senator George Malone was the guest speaker, congratulating the city officials, and predicting that within the next twenty years Henderson would have a population of at least a quarter of a million.

The very next month, the Council took the first step towards the completion of streets and sidewalks in the balance of the townsite by adopting a resolution for the formation of another assessment district.

But improvements invariably created the need for more expenses that had not been included in the city budget. Before the streets in the new assessment district were completed, Council approved purchase of a street sweeper for $10,666 payable at $331.87 a month.

Meanwhile, during October 1957, the Clark County School Board agreed to surrender title to approximately fifteen acres of land adjoining the Park Village School and give it to Clark County.

HENDERSON PARKS AND RECREATION NEWS

SECOND ANNUAL ANTIQUE AND COLLECTABLE SHOW AND SALE

An Antique and Collectable Show and Sale is being cosponsored by Alpha Beta Sorority and the Henderson Parks and Recreation Department. The show is scheduled for Sunday, October 16 in the Civic Center Gymnasium, 201 Lead Street, Henderson, Nevada. Booths will be set up at 7 a.m. and removed at the close of the show.

For additional information as to the cost per table, necessary forms to be signed, please contact

Lee England, 564-1068.

HENDERSON REPERTORY THEATRE PLAY CANCELLED

The Henderson Parks and Recreation Department regrets to inform you the performance by the Henderson Repertory Theatre has been cancelled. They are planning to present the play "The Man Who Came to Dinner" by George S. Kaufman and Moss Hart but are unable to present it to you as scheduled on October 7 & 8, 1977. Watch for further information as when they will be able to present another fabulous live production.

NOTICE

O'CALLAGHAN PARK

Citizens are requested to understand that the tennis facility is the only area of O'Callaghan that is open for use by the public at the present time. They should not take children or pets to the tennis courts anticipating additional play areas. The remainder of the park has not been completed and will not be open until some time next spring, 1978. All gates will remain closed and locked with the exception of the Horizon Drive walkway entrance. This will assure that the grass, trees and shrubs will have the best possible chance for survival. A little more patience and cooperation now by all citizens will go a long way towards assuring that the park will be in the best possible condition when it does open.

It is expected that all tennis court users will display proper courtesy and consideration for others waiting to use the courts. Tennis etiquette suggests that courts should be used for doubles play when several players are waiting on the sidelines.

Everyone's cooperation will be greatly appreciated by the Henderson Parks and Recreation Department and the City of Henderson.

SWIM PASSES

Lorin L. Williams Indoor Pool is the place to be to get those warm heat spells out of your system by jumping into the pool.

The Henderson Parks and Recreation Department, would like to help you out by offering all avid swimmers the opportunity to take advantage of this reduced swim rate. New Comer>Welcome
Elva M. Fisher, a new resident of Henderson, has just come back from a fishing trip to West Port, Washington. Elva tells me that she caught a couple of really big ones.

Brother is Visiting
John Elliott of Winchester, is visiting in Henderson with his brother Russell Elliott. John is 88 years young and this is his first visit to Nevada. Family took him to see Boulder Dam and the casinos of Las Vegas.

New Baby
Mr. and Mrs. Joe Tibbets are the proud parents of a beautiful baby girl named Jill Lyn. She was born at the St. Rose de Lima Hospital, weighed in at 8 lbs. and 3 oz. I heard that 4 1/2 year old sister, Tonya, is having some mixed feelings about the new baby. Mrs. Toni Tibbets, formerly Toni Watson, was a long time employer of the Telephone Company.

B/P Representative
Free blood pressure readings for all Senior Citizens are starting Tuesday, October 11 at the Espinoza Site; on Wednesday, October 12 at the Boulder City site; on Thursday, October 13 at the East Las Vegas site; on Friday, October 14 at the St. Peter's site. Time at all site is 11 to 12 noon. This free service is offered by the Senior Nutrition Program.

Birthday Greetings
Happy Birthday wishes go out to Debbie Thompson from her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Thompson. A party with school friends as being arranged on October 10. Debbie will be 10 years old on October 10. How about that?

Wedding Anniversary
Wishes for a big day and many more to come go out to Marie and Jack Standy. The big day will be on October 13. Heard that a night in Las Vegas, (Dinner and a Show) with daughter and son-in-law will be the big event.

Winning at Bingo
Following are the lucky bingo winners from the Espinoza's Friday afternoon games ... Marie Radford, Elvira Medina, Dorothy Winninghoff, Leoneta, Fern Reagor, John May, Murney Elliott, and Edith Way. The cover alls were won by Tony Gongalas and Dorothy Winninghoff.

Fruit County
Veil Neilson has just returned from a trip to Washington, Utah. Veil said that Washington is a beautiful little city, a place where you can still buy the best tasting fresh fruit.

Back in Henderson
Jesus and Lola Archuleta have just returned from a trip to New Mexico and Colorado where they visited with friends and relations. Both were happy to be home again. On returning home Jesus was admitted into the St. Rose de Lima Hospital for some check-up work. Friends send good wishes and want you to know that you are missed.

Senior Swimming Lesson
The Senior Citizen Swimming Classes will begin on October 17 at the Indoor Williams Pool. Lessons will be from 3-4 p.m. on Mondays and Fridays. Sign-up is held at the Recreation Department. Lessons are $3 for the complete class. A section of the pool has been assigned for the seniors so come out and put it to good use.

So Sorry
Friends report to me that Minnie Beadle just fell and broke some bones in her arm, she will be home-bound for a few days. Speedy recovery wishes coming your way Minnie.

Congratulations
Congratulations to Sammy Medina, heard from a dear friend that you are the owner of a new pick-up truck. Sammy works as a butcher in the Henderson Albertson Store.

Special Birthday
A special birthday party is being arranged for Jammie Masterson who will be celebrating his fifth birthday. Grandpa and Grandma from California and two aunts from Salt Lake City will be arriving for the October 9 birthday.

The WASHINGTON POST reported that Senator Paul Laxalt's declaration of total opposition to the Panama Canal Treaty in a speech delivered before an enthusiastic California State Republican Convention this past weekend set the tone for the gathering which passed an Anti-Canal Treaty Resolution.

Laxalt, who is leading the Senate opposition to the Treaty's ratification, told the convention that, "I've heard the argument that our boys will be involved in another war if we don't give-away the Canal. Well, besides the fact that this is blatant blackmail, let me tell you mothers and fathers that your boys will be in far more jeopardy if the Treaty is ratified. Those who believe that should the Treaty be passed the terrorists will go on a 23-year siesta until the Canal is turned over to Panama lock, stock and barrel are kidding themselves. The moment that document is ratified extreme pressure will be on to remove the Gringos 'Pronto.' Then we are faced with the prospect of going back in to protect our rights under the Treaty and that most probably wouldn't be a quiet return."

Senator Laxalt also said that the debate over the Canal has taken a wrong turn. He believes the Panamanians should carry the burden of proving "Why" the United States should relinquish control after 75 years of efficient, fair and secure management. To date, Laxalt said, "We've been busy answering those who say "Why not" and even offering Panama huge sums of our taxpayers' monies to take the waterway. It's a weird situation."

NATIONAL UNICEF DAY/HALLOWEEN

David Hartman, chairman of the 1977 UNICEF Day Campaign, happily accepts the first contribution to the annual effort to raise funds for the world's neediest children from UN Secretary-General Kurt Waldheim. The host of "Good Morning, America" hopes to win increased national support for the month-long drive, which culminates in the traditional Trick or Treat for UNICEF collection on Halloween. Let's Play Golf

By Viv and Bill Phillips

The annual two-woman best ball LADIES ASSOCIATION PAST-PRESIDENTS' TOURNAMENT was won by Dorothy Perry and Alice Hewitt. The teams of Elaine Raney and Annette Brereton, and Gerry Gardner and Helen Bowser tied for second place with 130.

THE MEN'S ASSOCIATION over the past few weeks has been running the Captain's Cup match play tournament. The winners are: Bob Hamilton, first flight; Art Neely, second flight; and Jess Meyers, third flight.

In the Men's Association regular monthly medal of golf tournament, Stu Reid won first flight gross honors, and Lyle Hamiter won low gross in the second flight. The garbage can received additional details of the tournament before we did. Better coverage next month is promised.

THE ANNUAL SILVER STATE GLASS GOLF TOURNEY will be October 22 and 23. It will be a 4-person team scramble with ABC and D players drawn according to handicaps. No more than one lady to a team. Entry blanks are available at the Pro Shop.

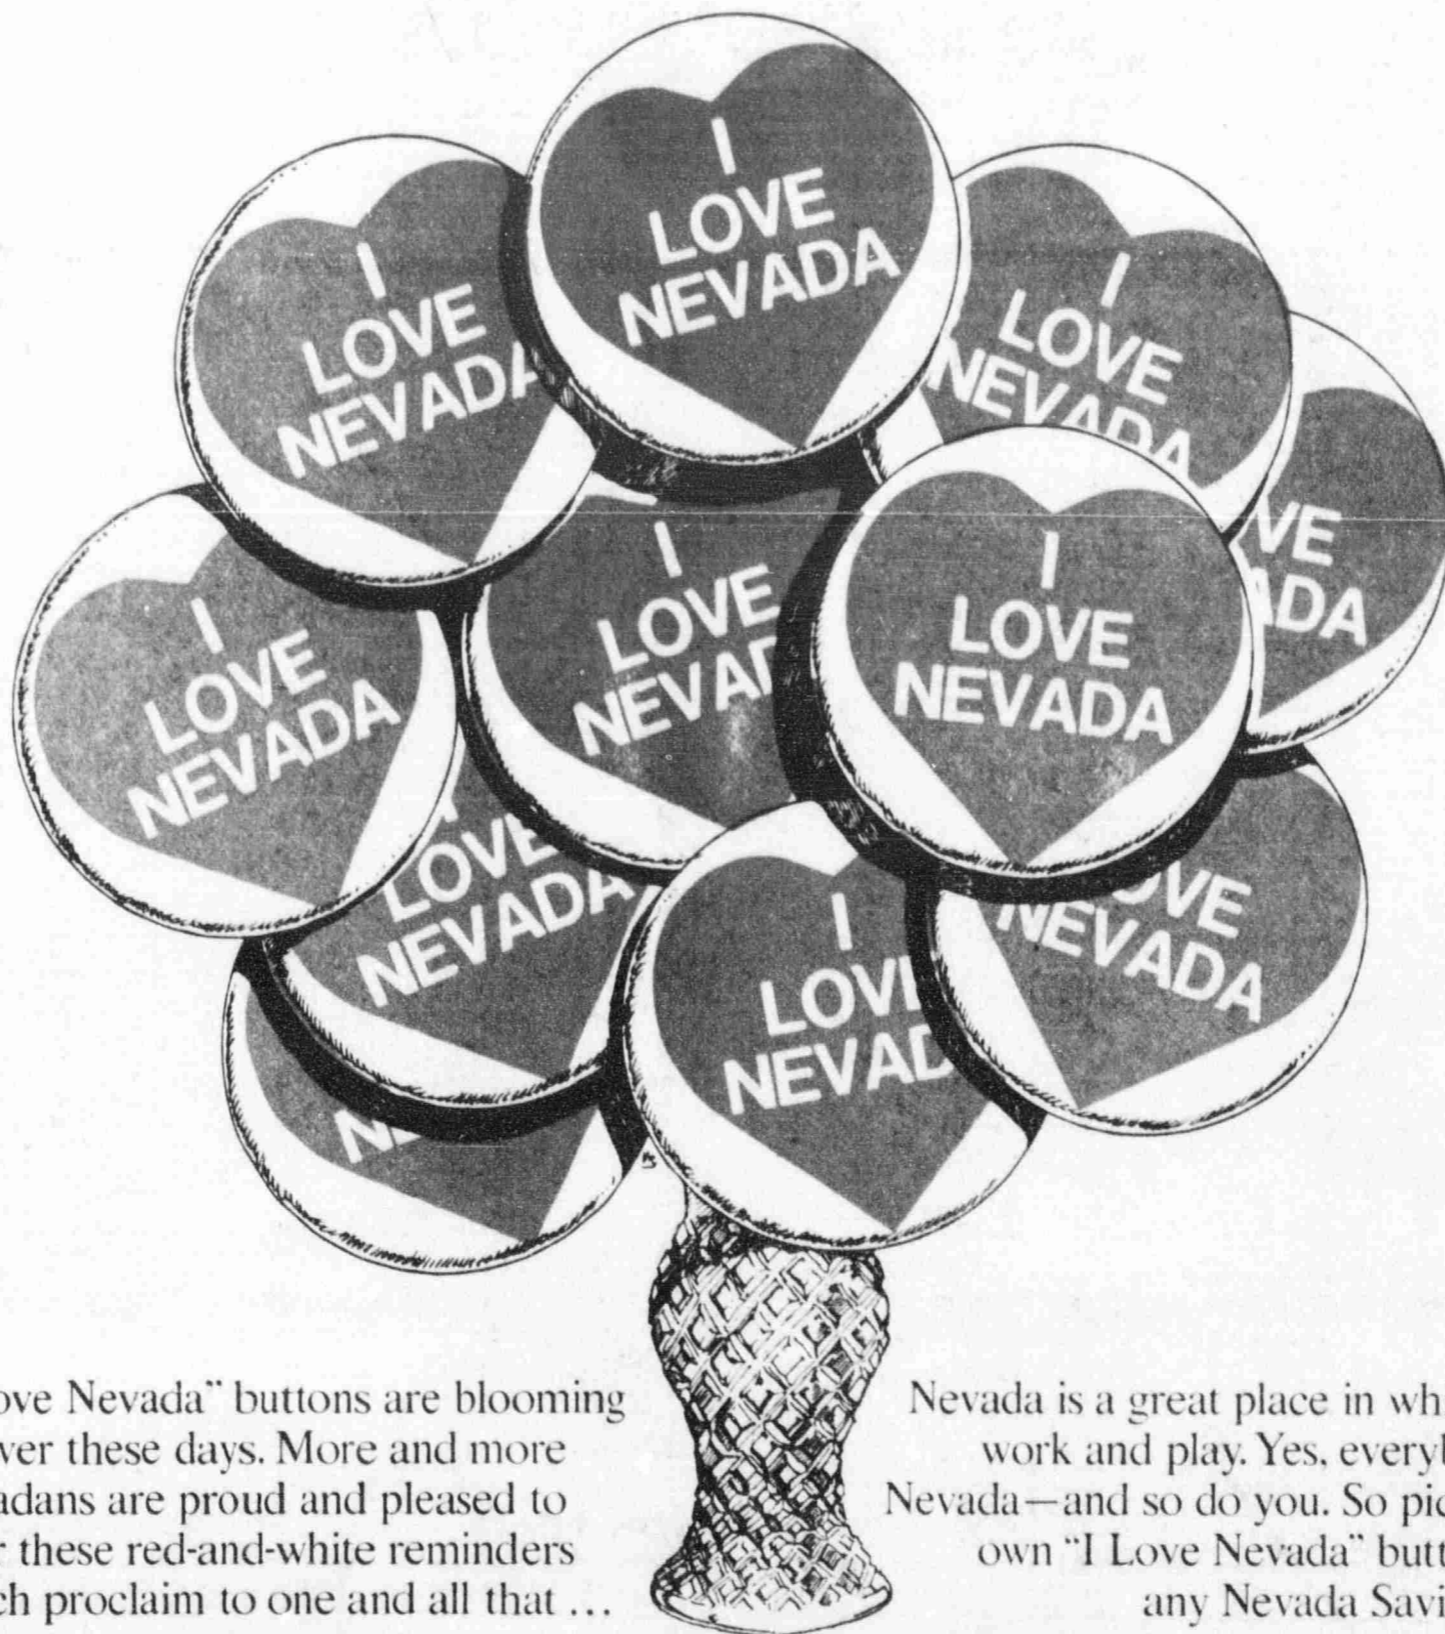

The annual BANK OF NEVADA GOLF TOURNAMENT was held on the Black Mountain course this year. Forty participants played a 4-person scramble tournament. The winning team was P.W. Wilke, Hugh Fraser, Clara Sturgis, and Ralph Thomas. Runner-up was the team of Troy Bartlett, Ray Collins, Carl Dybdahl, and Steve Cole. A luncheon was served at the Club House afterwards.

The big annual battle between teams of the LADIES ASSOCIATION PAST PRESIDENTS and teams of the COUNTRY CLUB PAST PRESIDENTS will be held Saturday, October 8th. It is a 5-person team scramble with a 1:30 p.m. shotgun start. The losers serve dinner to the winners. A special effort is being made to have all new members participate.

The new CITY RECREATION DEPARTMENT GOLF PROGRAM leaves no one hankering to learn to hit that little white ball an excuse not to do so. Both morning and evening classes are offered young people and adults at very reasonable prices. We understand the response is good considering the short time it has been in operation.

The SOUTHERN NEVADA CLAIMS ASSOCIATION is having a tournament on the Black Mountain course tomorrow afternoon, October 7th, followed by a dinner on the driving range.

The Friday night dinner at the Club House will be as usual.

Solar Hairstyles Designed to Create Feelings of Warmth for Fall-Winter

Solar Hair is here to add warmth to the cold Fall-Winter months ahead, according to the 64,000-member National Hairdressers and Cosmetologists Association (NHCA). Solar Hair is the name for a collection of NHCA hairstyles created as Fall-Winter styling inspiration for cosmetologists throughout the country.

(The styles will be presented to the nation's leading cosmetologists July 16-19 at the Hotel St. Francis in San Francisco, during the 57th Annual Convention of the National Hairdressers and Cosmetologists Association.) Solar Hair features longer hair lengths than seen in shorter styles, such as the wedge, the nova, and the scoop. Shorter hairstyles of the recent past left necklines open to the bitter cold. The longer lengths make every woman's winter a little warmer.

Action-packed curls and waves create energy-filled feelings, "with all the warmth of the sun."

The curls and waves reveal new feelings of vibrancy, resulting from the latest in advanced perming techniques and controlled crimping methods, according to NHCA Styles Director Lylal McCaig of Omaha, Nebraska.

"Solar Hair is longer, free-flowing, soft and particularly designed for the self-assured woman, who wants a little added warmth and excitement in her life," McCaig said.

Solar Hair styles were created by McCaig and the four-member NHCA Fall-Winter Coiffure Design Committee. They are Leslie Bryner of Pittsburgh, Pa.; Shirley Gossett of Columbia, S.C.; Michael Taylor of Denver, Colo.; and Alida Weerang of Hudson, N.H.

McCaig explained that Solar Hair features curled volume on both the sides and the back of the head.

Occasionally, the volume curls are styled to one side of the head, a lively asymmetrical look.

"The volume is necessary to balance the heavy full and blouson fashion designed for Fall-Winter. The volume of fashion apparel demands greater hair volume," McCaig said.

"Fashion designers are showing us the importance of sweaters, wools, and knits for Fall-Winter. This means volume and warmth, which are the highlights of the Solar Hairfashions for Fall-Winter," McCaig added.

"Both fashion designers and hairstylists are remembering the effects of this past year's cold winter, and both are going to insulate the American woman from another frigid winter," McCaig said.

Decorative additions to Fall-Winter Solar Hair include jewelry and shiny metal combs, feathers, the "ponytail on-the-side," macrame headpieces, hair braids, and a method of intertwining long, living hair, described as "macramed hair." Solar Hair lengths vary from "just-below-the-shoulder" in length to "earlength," with a renewed emphasis on the longer looks. Even the shortest styles carry wisps of action-packed curls that generate feelings of warmth.

Solar Hair is professionally colored and conditioned to reflect light, especially natural sun-rays. Popular Fall-Winter colors are in the blonde-brown and warmer tones.

Henna, one of the warm coloring tones, continues its strong popularity and is predicted to be a "hot color for Solar Hair this Fall-Winter. Henna-colored hair receives extra-powerful brilliance when illuminated by natural sunbeams.

Healthy hair is what Solar Hair is all about. Cosmetologists throughout the country are trained to provide the American woman with the best possible hair and scalp treatment methods, techniques and conditioning products.

Scientology Ministers Ordained

At an ordination ceremony held on Sunday September 18, 1977 at the Church of Scientology of Nevada three ministers were newly ordained into the Church's ministry. The three have very recently completed their ministerial training at the Church located at 2108 Industrial Road here in Las Vegas. Ordained were the Rev. Jonathan Collin, the Rev. Monty Dixon, and the Rev. Chuck Martins. All plan to continue their ministerial work in the Church. Following the ceremony the Rev. William Null conducted the regular Sunday evening church service.

Scientology is the fastest growing religion today with a membership of over 4.2 million in the world and over 3.1 million in the United States. In Las Vegas there is the area Church plus two missions.

HELPFUL SUGGESTIONS
The maximum amount of money you may borrow from a financial institution is called your "line of credit." Without credit, most of us would not be able to buy homes or cars.

Remember, credit costs money. It's wise to know how much, and to be sure that having the goods or service now is worth the extra cost.

One place that charges low interest on loans, and a place that many borrowers overlook as a source of credit, is a credit union. These are non-profit organizations which will return any money made as a profit to the borrowers, again reducing the cost of a loan.

Contract Awarded for Water Project II

The Department of the Interior today announced the award of the first major contract to begin construction on the $110 million Southern Nevada Water Project's second stage that will deliver additional Colorado River water to the Las Vegas metropolitan area.

Commissioner of Reclamation R. Keith Higginson said the contract goes to a joint venture of the Kordick and Rados, Irvine, California, on its bid of $3,216,238, lowest of 14 submitted in an opening last July 28 in Boulder City, Nevada.

Kasler Corp., San Bernardino, California, was second low with a bid of $3,250,174 and Hood Corp., Whittier, California, was third with $3,390,000. The engineer's estimate was $3,853,475.

Higginson said the contract calls for construction of the Southern Nevada Water Project's second stage Main Aqueduct "B" Line, about 19 miles east of Las Vegas. The "B" Line will begin at the site of proposed Pumping Plant 1B to be built at the Alfred Merritt Smith Water Treatment Facility near Lake Mead behind San Hoover Dam. It will extend to Regulating Tank No. 2 adjacent to the east portal of the Project's River Mountains Tunnel. The "B" Line will parallel the existing first stage Main Aqueduct "A" Line.

The job requires excavation and backfill for pipe trenches and structures, furnishing and laying about 2.3 miles of 96- and 102-inch-diameter line pipe of embedded cylinder prestressed concrete type, noncylinder prestressed concrete pipe, or steel line type.

The contractor has 400 days to complete the work after he receives a notice to proceed.

Cost of the second stage works includes $88 million in Federal funds and $22 million funded by the State of Nevada through its Division of Colorado River Resources. Besides the "B" Line, the second stage will consist of five new pumping plants, modifications to four existing first stage pumping plants, and 30 miles of aqueduct and pipelines. To process the additional water, the State of Nevada will double the capacity of its Alfred Merritt Smith Water Treatment Facility to 400 million gallons per day, at an estimated cost of $40 million.

Construction of the second stage is scheduled to be completed in the early 1980's to meet the water needs of the growing Las Vegas metropolitan area. The first stage began delivering water to the Las Vegas Valley Water District, North Las Vegas, Henderson, Boulder City, and Nellis Air Force Base in 1971.

The two stages will be capable of delivering up to 299,000 acre-feet of Colorado River water annually to the southern Nevada area.

Most Southern Nevada soils contain less than one percent organic matter. According to Allen D. Boettcher, Horticulture Agent for the Cooperative Extension Service, organic matter influences the physical and chemical properties of our soils, making them more suitable for plant growth.

Soil organic matter consists of animal and plant remains in various stages of decomposition. Fungi and bacteria micro-organisms break down the organic matter. The end product of this decomposition is humus. Humus is dark brown to black and does not decompose any further. This is the component responsible for making soils appear dark.

Adding organic matter to our soils on a regular basis helps build a better soil structure. Root development for plants is better in a well structured soil.

Boettcher states that organic matter can provide some of the important plant elements necessary for plants. Decomposing organic matter supplies nitrogen, phosphorus, sulfur and other plant nutrients. In addition, organic acids released during organic matter decomposition helps release nutrients from the mineral portion of the soil.

Alpha Beta Discusses Marriage

Henderson

The meeting was held at Andrea Joslin's home where we elected our Valentine Queen for 1978. Pam Olson was selected from many nominees and I'd like to say that Pam's beauty isn't only skin deep. She is as sweet as she is beautiful.

I know it may seem early for a decision on a Valentine Queen; but pictures must be sent to our International Office where a movie star will choose a Queen from Beta Sigma Phis all over the world.

After Pam was presented with a bouquet of flowers, Bobbie Bayley and Sherry Peck presented a program on marriage. They discussed a few of the things from the book, "Total Woman," and their suggestions for a happy marriage.

After enjoying some yummy cherry crepes, we headed home thinking of ways to keep our tigers happy.

Those attending were: Torrie Anderson, Bobbie Bayley, Mrs. Burkholder, Margaret Childs, Jacque Dillard, Lee England, Karen Hopkins, Andrea Joslin, Jerry Lomprey, Pam Olson, Sherry Peck, Toni Purtil, Pat Rawson, Terry Smith and Betty Stewart.

Henderson

Family picnics are always fun. And when fifteen sorority sisters and their families get together there is double fun. Such was the case when Xi Sigma chapter of Beta Sigma Phi held a family picnic.

Members and their families met at Morrell Park in Henderson one recent Sunday. The fun started with trying to gather enough picnic tables into one large shady area.

Hamburgers and hot dogs were the main fare, with plenty of assorted salads, baked beans and cakes for dessert. Potato chips and canned pop were also in plentiful supply.

The kids played football, tug 'o war, baseball and volleyball. Gary Hunley and his mother-in-law were the first ones to the finish line in the three-legged race. The younger children played on the big piece of playground equipment, the "Mark IV."

The Great Randini, a local magician, presented a show of magic and illusion. The children were delighted and even some adults could be heard to say, "How did he do that?"

There were too many people in attendance to list here individually. But a big thank you should go to the social chairman, Colleen Hunley and her committee for a very enjoyable successful family picnic.

Expo '77

The Henderson Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring the Fourth annual Henderson Expo '77. Doors open on the community event at 5 p.m. October 21 closing on the 23.

Supervision of the Mini Fair is by Vicky Newell of the Southern Nevada Cooperative Extension Service. Entry information may be obtained from the Cooperative Extension Service or the Henderson Chamber of Commerce office 208 S. Boulder Highway, St.

"INSURACHAT"

Mopeds -- the new, popular means of transportation and fun -- are usually NOT covered on your regular family automobile policy, and your homeowner's policy does not cover their use on public streets. For safety's sake, you ought to have liability coverage.

Why insurance rates rise: the expense of a hospital room went up 79 percent between 1971 and 1976.

Most auto policies pay only for any part of the car's equipment that is stolen. Luggage is usually covered under your homeowner's policy; insurer will pay if there is evidence of forcible entry. (Lock your car; keep luggage in the trunk).

Best position for a smoke detector is on the ceiling or the wall six to twelve inches below the ceiling, between the bedroom area and the rest of the house.

If a home in a cold-weather area will be unoccupied for any extended time this winter, be sure to leave the heat on or drain all water systems and shut off the water supply. Otherwise, you may nullify your coverage against freezing damage to the water system.

We'll help you sort out your insurance questions at LaPorta Insurance Agency, 129 Water Street, Henderson, Nevada 89015, Phone 565-6411.

Come in and talk insurance with our experts.

WORKING IT OUT.....

by Mel Thompson

Dear Mr. Thompson: I just read your column and realize that I am in the same position as one of your contributors. I have been actively searching for employment for about 4 months now with no success. Since I graduated in June with a B.S. in mechanical engineering I supposedly have employment potential, however, I have been given rejections ranging from "you should have researched our company better" to "you just don't look like an engineer." I accept none of these reasons as valid causes most of the problems. Closing means asking for the job - getting the order. And more jobs go begging because applicants don't "close" than for all other reasons combined.

Dear Mr. Thompson: We have noted your excellent answers to many older peoples' problems, and hope you have an answer to ours. I shall retire from teaching in another year and would like to work at home for a publishing company, a company that proof reads, or a business that prepares manuscripts for publication.

R.C.

Dear R: Since the interviewers who turned you down are the only ones who know the real reasons behind their actions, start with them. Many times, the interviewers who turn you down provide the best source of help in correcting flaws in your self-marketing techniques, and in getting referrals to other prospective employers. But because job candidates are prone to take rejection as a personal slap in the face, not many of them are inclined to enlist the aid of their rejectors. Oversimplified, selling yourself in the job market is a matter of emphasizing your strengths, de-emphasizing your weaknesses, overcoming objections, and closing. It's the last of these acts, closing, that develop a short form letter stating your objections and mount your campaign first by mail, then follow up the responses by phone.

Dear Mr. Thompson: Since you are in the career management business maybe you can answer this question. Do career management companies place people in jobs or not? And do they get paid by employers or job candidates?

Mr. G.T.B.

Dear Mr. B: Such firms do not place job candidates, they guide and assist. Their fees are paid by their individuals job seeking clients and not by employers. In most cases employers are not even aware of the client relationship.

Mrs. L.S.

Dear Mrs. S: Your local phone book and Chamber of Commerce Industrial Directory can put you in touch with publishers in your area. Also, contact local libraries, newspapers, magazines, printing shops, college or university departments of journalism, author groups, trade unions, and the Writer's Guild if there is one in your area. These contacts may not be able to employ you directly, however, they are good sources for referrals. I suggest you court your identity would no longer be protected, of course, but don't let that stop you.

Dear Mel: I am a management consultant, female, and I have a problem related to my male clients. A lot of my business is done over lunch and invariably as I am fumbling for my purse, the waiter automatically hands the check to my client when it is a man. I feel that when I invite a man to lunch and he pays, my status subtly changes from that of a consultant to that of a date. Needless to say, that's not good for my business. Any suggestions?

E.J.

Dear E: Instead of fumbling for your purse, have your money or credit card ready before the check arrives. You can also tell whoever serves you (before the meal if possible) to deliver the check to you.

Realtors Tell How to Choose Home

By Las Vegas Board of REALTORS, president, Duane Laubach.

Monthly mortgage payments are probably the largest single expenses in a homeowner's budget.

Determining how much you can afford to allot to this all-important item requires considering a number of factors beyond the basic asking price of the home.

The Las Vegas Board of Realtors offers two yardsticks for deciding how much you can afford to spend for a home. Neither is designed to be an iron-clad rule, but each provides helpful guidelines. And, when figuring income, remember that lenders have to consider the total for husband and wife.

One way of estimating how much home you can afford is to multiply your gross yearly income by two or two-and-a-half. If your annual income is $15,000, for example, you probably could afford a house costing between $30,000 and $37,000.

A second method is to limit your total housing expenses -- including mortgage payments, utility bills, average maintenance and repair expenses, property taxes and insurance -- to no more than 20 to 25 percent of your gross monthly income. Experts estimate that mortgage payments alone account for more than 60 percent of total homeownership costs, giving you an idea of what would be left over for other expenses of ownership.

With housing costs, property taxes and utility bills rising rapidly, lenders have not adhered rigidly to these guidelines, according to the National Association of Realtors' Department of Economics and Research. Many lenders have been willing to stretch the yardstick to 30 percent or one-third of the mortgage applicant's gross monthly income, the department said. Whichever yardstick you use, individual circumstances have to be considered before making the final determination of your housing budget.

If your income is steadily increasing and is likely to continue to do so, you might be able to afford a home priced at the top of the range suggested by either guideline.

However, if your income is erratic, if you have or anticipate a heavy debt load, or if the home you are planning to purchase needs extensive repairs or renovation, you might need to stick closer to the bottom of the range.

If you don't keep detailed financial records on past expenses, an evening spent reviewing your cancelled checks for the past year will give you an idea how you spend your money and the major expense categories to expect in the future.

First, total your monthly living expenses for all items except housing. Don't forget to include insurance premiums, charitable contributions, savings, transportation expenses, medical and dental costs, entertainment expenses and even money spent for such incidentals as dry cleaning or magazine subscriptions.

Next, subtract the total from your net pay, and you'll have an idea of how much is left for housing expenses. Remember that you with estimates of this amount should cover average monthly mortgage payments at the prevailing interest rate in your area for a specific size loan. This will give you a further idea of how much home you can afford.

The meeting will be preceeded by a pot-luck so bring a dish to share and your own plates and silverware. Ham will be furnished for this meeting by the chapter.

If you have a transportation problem or have any questions on the meeting or the organization, please contact Commander Bill Kaats, 734-6332 or Herman Molen, 643-3990, 4299 Calimesa St., Las Vegas, Nevada 89110.

DEAN MOSSER, NEW MANAGER OF VALLEY AUTO HERE

Dean Mosser, who has lived in Minnesota for 35 years, is making Henderson his home after his employment as general manager of Lake Mead Auto Parts, Valley Auto Body Shop and Valley Auto.

Mosser comes to Henderson with a variety and wide experience in the automotive business. He worked in business for himself for five years, worked for the Chevrolet agency for three years and Buick for one year.

He lived in a farming community and decided, he wanted to live the west in a growing area. He had a friend in Henderson, John Sullivan, who encouraged him to come.

The Mossers said they plan to build a home here for their six children. The oldest one is a senior at Basic and the youngest is in the first grade. They live at 112 Glenoak. He says it is nice to be in a growing area although he said they will miss snowmobiling, fishing and hunting and the greenery.

In Chinese writing, the symbol of two women means quarrel, of three women gossip.

Beauty Salon Week

Beauty Salon Week is being celebrated throughout Henderson and Boulder City next week from October 9 through 15. The owners of the various shops invite all, men, women and children, to drop by and visit and several of the shops are having special offers during the week, for their customers and those who wish to get acquainted. (See the full page ad for further details.)

In Boulder City there is The Hair Palace, Boulder Beauty Salon, Styles, Etc., Emma's Beauty Salon and La Petite Beauty Salon. Each shop has a qualified staff of beauticians well versed in the latest of hair styling, cuts, coloring and all most willing to make you look your very best.

To help yourself drive through snow, place extra weight in the back, over—or slightly behind—the rear wheels.

"No man does anything from a single motive."

From The Crime Prevention Unit Henderson Police Department

"What Everyone Should Know About Vandalism" Officer Robert Lindsey

What is vandalism? It's the deliberate and pointless damaging of property, sometimes called "ripping up", "trashing", "yard farming" etc. Whatever it is called, vandalism is not a "harmless prank". It's a crime that wastes time and money that causes suffering, even death. In cities, suburbs and towns throughout America, vandalism is rapidly increasing. Millions of incidents are reported every year. At least twice as many are unreported, and types of vandalism are becoming more vicious, such as:

- (a) Cruelty to animals.
 - (b) Damage to vital emergency equipment.
- Whenever vandalism occurs, you pay directly when your own property is damaged. Indirectly you pay via higher taxes to repair and replace public property through higher insurance costs.
- Who vandalizes? Most vandals are youngsters. There is no "typical" vandal. Involved are girls and boys, good students and drop-outs, whites, blacks or Latins, the well-to-do and the poor.

(a) Grade school children as young as 6 or 7 may vandalize schools, parks, etc. It is hard to believe that young children can be deliberately destructive, and harder to decide how to correct the problem.

(b) Teenagers often have "growing up" problems which may lead them to act more destructively, misusing vehicles, spraying graffiti in public places, etc.

(c) Older youths account for more serious damage involving vehicles and machinery. They may also be involved in such crimes as burglary, arson, etc.

Vandals often work in groups (gangs, packs). They often damage property on a dare, or as part of being initiated. A group usually feels "braver" than a single person would, so incidents may happen more often and damage may be more serious.

Why do people vandalize? Most vandals don't have a clear motive; they don't know why they vandalize. Probably because of basic social problems, attitudes are at the root of the vandalism.

(a) Anger against society in several may cause a desire to "strike back."

(b) Boredom is a major problem for youngsters, both in ghettos with few recreational facilities, high unemployment and, in wealthier areas, where they have few responsibilities and much free time.

(c) Drug abuse and alcohol abuse make vandalism more likely. Youths who are feeling "high" may use less judgment, act irresponsibly. Vandalism is sometimes connected with thefts for drug money.

(d) Disciplinary problems, when discipline is too strict, is lacking, or is inconsistent, may cause children to rebel via acts of vandalism.

(e) Personal problems such as family difficulties, school or social troubles, may be behind acts of vandalism.

Parents and everyone in the community can help prevent vandalism. The best time to fight vandalism is before children begin to vandalize. From early childhood through the growing up years, parents and all members of the community, teachers, community leaders, neighbors, etc. can make the kind of world in which children have no "need" to vandalize.

(a) Teach by example. Example is the most important influence on children's behavior.

(b) Be a responsible citizen; show that vandalism is no solution to problems or to anger against society. Work for constructive change: Be informed, take the time to think about what's happening, discuss your thoughts with local, state, national powers, vote responsibly.

In the meantime, everyone can help fight vandalism when it does occur. Today, vandalism has reached epidemic proportions. We must take effective action now, individually and as a whole, to combat this senseless crime. Individuals should be alert and act promptly. Protect personal property against vandalism. Keep gates, garages locked, use out-door lighting, always remove keys from parked cars. Contribute your time and energy to youth programs which provide young people with constructive alternatives to vandalism. Report suspicious persons or activities around your home (or your neighbors'). If you spot unusual activity at odd hours, in school, church, etc., notify authorities. Cooperate with law enforcement personnel and other concerned groups in their efforts to stamp out vandalism. So help keep our community safe from vandalism. Know why vandalism happens, who is involved and what you can do to help prevent it. Report vandalism when you see it happening. Join in community efforts to stop vandalism.

"The Bad News Bears In Breaking Training" Opens Sunday At The Rainbow Theatre

Paramount Pictures' "The Bad News Bears in Breaking Training," the all-new comic and poignant adventures of the pint-sized sandlot ballplayers, will open Sun. at the Rainbow Theatre. It is the second in a series of films initiated with the smash success "The Bad News Bears."

Written by Paul Brickman based upon characters created by Bill Lancaster, "The Bad News Bears in Breaking Training" picks up the Bears career a year after their infamous second-place finish in the North Valley League. Faced with a chance to play the Houston Toros for a shot at the Japanese champs, they devise a way to get to Texas to play at the famed Astrodome.

"The Bad News Bears in Breaking Training" was produced by Leonard Goldberg and directed by Michael Pressman. Starring are William Devane, Clifton James, Jackie Earle Haley, Jimmy Baio, Chris Barnes, Erin Blunt, Jaime O. Escobedo, George Gonzales, Alfred Lutter, Brett Marx, David Pollock, Quinn Smith, David Stambaugh and Jeffrey Louis Starr. On their pilgrimage to Houston, the Bears gain a new coach; dump that coach; add a new pitcher who can't get his fastball over the plate; find another coach who shows him how it's done, and go on to a comeback victory with all eyes on Japan.

The music in "The Bad News Bears in Breaking Training" is adapted and scored by Craig Safan and the director of photography is Fred J. Koenekamp, A.S.C. The initial weeks of filming took place on the now-famous sandlot ballfield in the Los Angeles suburb of Chatsworth. The field was constructed by Paramount specifically for the Bears series. Additional weeks in the greater Los Angeles area included locations such as the Pasadena Hilton and various private homes in Chatsworth. Subsequently, the production moved on to the metropolitan area of Houston, Texas for five weeks of shooting. Special sequences were filmed in the Houston Astrodome. A week in El Paso, Texas, completed principal photography.

Talents At Expo Shown

Henderson entries for judging at the Henderson Expo '77 Mini Fair may be entered by juniors and seniors at Room 6 Henderson Civic Center, Thursday October 20 between 5 p.m. and 8 p.m. Entries will be tagged and judged by members of the Southern Nevada Chapter of the Home Economic Association using the American System of judging with a Champion, and first, second, and third place ribbons awarded in each section.

Freedom (Because) Of The Press

BY Bill Boykin, Executive Director, Inland Daily Press Association

It's the year 2084 A.D. Orwell was just 100 years late with his prediction.

Freedom of the press is a thing of the past. The "press" is obsolete. All news is transmitted electronically.

Fiction? Hardly. Speakers at 1977 newspaper association meetings talk about SEEFAX, TELETEX.

News and information in the future will be transmitted via satellite and telephone wires, they tell us.

If those processes eliminate the printed page during the next 100 years, the Federal Communications Commission will license all news media.

We need to remind ourselves during this National Newspaper Week that the printed page is the only unlicensed "free press" we have left in this country.

If by the year 2084 A.D., our printing processes and distribution methods are obsolete, those who want to license, regulate and control the press will have their way. Orwell predicted it, and we thought it was fiction.

Chilling thought isn't it?

NATIONAL NEWSPAPER WEEK EDITORIAL

Every once in a while a classic letter comes along, one that is always good for a real chuckle. Most are well meaning and serious, but to people who live here, well...

One of these classics arrived last week. "My husband and I want to move to your area for reasons of health. What kind of entertainment and gambling do you have there? Bingo? Five or ten cent slot machines? Races of any kind? Is it true that prostitution is legal in the state of Nevada? I am not interested in doing this line of work. I just wondered."

It's gems like this one, although only part of a four-page letter full of questions, that keep life interesting at the chamber.

TOPICS FOR TAXPAYERS

by Ernest L. Newton

The United States Senate is locked in a fight to the death over President Carter's energy "program." The outcome is weeks away. When the Senate completes its work, if it does, then a conference committee will go to work on the bills and then the two houses will be faced with a major show-down on the adoption of the conference committee report. It is a confrontation of basic economics with populist demagogery. And neither side presents a united front.

President Carter is adamant in his demand for continued price controls on interstate, domestic natural gas. The present stance is for a controlled price of $1.75 per thousand cubic feet (mcf). Intra-state gas is uncontrolled and producer states have plenty for their own use. Off-shore gas and gas moving in interstate commerce is controlled by the Federal Power Commission as the result of a court decision that the FPC is not particularly happy with, either. The administration is joined (somewhat half-heartedly) by a small group of producers and marketers of liquified natural gas who have an enormous investment in transportation equipment for that product.

Domestic producers of price-controlled gas insist that there is ample gas available. Their position is bolstered by two competent and comprehensive and creditable studies undertaken by government-employed researchers. But it cannot be brought out of the ground at the controlled price.

Much is made of the proposed trans-Canada natural gas pipeline which could bring in the enormous reserves from Alaska. But that line is not going to be built in the near future. The cost of such a line would be enormous. Amortization of that cost into the price of the gas that could eventually flow through it would make the cost of gas prohibitive (in competition with other forms of energy).

President Carter seems to resent the efforts of gas producers to operate at a profit; even when the producers are willing to be required to use those profits (or a major portion of them) to seek additional supplies of gas. And it is a popular ploy to castigate the "greedy" producers, even if they are providing a product or service at a price that customers are willing to pay.

A basic fact is that natural gas from whatever source is going to have to compete with other forms of energy. If coal (all things considered) is more efficient, coal will be used. If nuclear energy is more efficient, it will be used.

The only force that will screw things up is when government steps in and attempts to distort the normal, natural forces of the marketplace.

VFW Leader Calls For Campbell to Enforce Veterans Preference Law

"Using misleading statistics and generalizations, Alan K. Campbell, the Chairman of the Civil Service Commission -- the group who is supposed to uphold the laws concerning veterans preference in federal jobs -- is undertaking a vengeful attack to do away with these laws as we know them today," said Al Allemen, a member of the National Legislative Committee of the V.F.W. He said, "His actions do a disservice directly to those the President says he wants to help. It is the young Vietnam Era veteran who will benefit from a veterans preference -- a group which contains men and women veterans, black and other minorities. To do away with a veterans preference for them would only be another slap to those who served honorably. Veterans preference is not applicable in promotions. The reason why veterans hold senior jobs in civil service is because they earned the promotion because of qualification. His undeserved attack on those retired from the military and are employed by federal government fails to point out that they bring expert training to their jobs and that regular retired military lose much of their retired pay while working, thereby saving the government that portion of their pension.

To receive veterans preference, a veteran must be basically qualified in the first place before receiving the additional preference. An unqualified veteran is not hired ahead of a qualified nonveteran.

Retention rights are not absolute. Statistics show that the reductions in force and grade levels affect veterans almost as much as nonveterans.

There are tens of thousands of women in the federal work force who used veterans preference to enter and a half million eligible who have not used their right. Women and minorities have found that veterans preference aids them in overcoming discrimination in hiring.

I call upon Mr. Campbell to start doing his job that of enforcing the veterans preference law and to stop trying to hurt the Vietnam Era veteran by changing the law.

Or, step down and let someone who can handle the job take over."

Footsteps Of Magellan

Once in every lifetime, each man and woman feels compelled to indulge themselves in at least one great adventure.

On February 1st, a small group of adventurers will have the opportunity to embark on one of the greatest sea experiences of the decade as Windjammer Cruises' 180 foot motor yacht, YANKEE TRADER, sets sail for a 10 month odyssey around the world.

Seventy five passengers will sign aboard for a voyage that promises to take them in the footsteps of some of the past's greatest explorers -- men like Magellan, Darwin and Captain Cook. The itinerary includes ports of call in the Bahamas, Haiti, Jamaica, the Cayman Islands, Easter Island, Samoa, Fiji, Cook Island, New Hebrides, Guadalcanal, New Guinea, the Great Barrier Reef, Thursday Island, Darwin, Djakarta, Singapore, Sri Lanka, The Seychelles, Kenya, South Africa, St. Helena, Rio de Janeiro, Martinique, Antigua and home to Freeport.

A former Coast Guard vessel, the YANKEE TRADER is already a legend among sea scientists and researchers from every corner of the globe. As HYDROGRAPHER, she visited the waters of the Atlantic, Pacific, Antarctic, and Cape Horn. The YANKEE TRADER is one of the few motor yachts afloat that is ideally suited for a journey of such magnitude. She is a dry ship in any weather and her rugged, steel hull makes her capable of maneuvering the roughest seas and also sailing at a full 12 knots.

Following the well established Windjammer tradition, the Journey will be leisurely and carefree. The ship's equatorial route almost guarantees a casual wardrobe -- most likely the uniform of the day will be shorts and slacks. Shipmates will also be given the opportunity to mix with the crew and learn many of the traditional skills of seamanship if they desire.

Cost per passenger is $7,850.00 or a mere $24 a day for all expenses aboard ship and ten months of rare excitement and exploration. Excursions and shopping ashore will, of course be optional.

In order to qualify for the cruise, interested parties must be in good physical condition and send a personal outline of themselves to Captain Burke along with a recent photograph and a $500 deposit.

Applications will be carefully considered, and in the event a prospect is not chosen for the cruise, the deposit will be refunded. Several 90 day minimum periods with the ship will be available in various parts of the world.

Further information on the YANKEE TRADER and sister ship's cruises in the Bahamas, Virgin Islands, West Indies and Spanish Main, can be obtained by contacting: WINDJAMMER CRUISES, P.O. Box 120, Miami Beach, Florida 33139.

To Breed or Not To Breed

Part I

So Posey is in heat again, and the kids are begging you to let her have a litter of puppies. Buddy says imploringly, "I know lots of guys who would like to have one of her puppies." Maybe the answer to this one is, "O.K. you tell those guys that if they'll each give us a $25 deposit, non-refundable, we'll think about finding a nice mate for Posey." Not practical? Maybe, but it makes better sense than going ahead, and then finding that there are already seven ads in the paper for your breed, and that you can't even give your litter away, much less sell it.

This column has preached spay-neuter for so long, that it's time to consider those dogs that possibly should be permitted to reproduce. How do you tell whether or not Posey is worth breeding?

1. Is she registered with the American Kennel Club? 2. Is she completely matured physically, and already been through her first heat period normally? 3. Is she sound, both physically and mentally? (Is she neurotic or vicious?) 4. Have you ever shown her and had a judge's opinion of her? 5. Does she meet the breed "Standard," the official description of the breed? 6. If she is of a large (Labrador) or giant (St. Bernard) breed, has she been x-rayed to be sure she is free of the dread hip dysplasia? An x-ray under anesthetic is the only way to be sure. 7.

E.O.B. OFFERS STERILIZATION

The Economic Opportunity Board of Clark County offers sterilization services which include tubal ligations and vasectomies to low income clients in Clark County who are within the income guidelines. The Title XX Family Planning staff screens their clients for financial eligibility, however they must be approved by State Welfare before services can be administered.

The Agency contracts the services through local physicians, who in turn perform required and follow-up services for each client. The Title XX Family Planning staff are here to serve you, for more information on the above and other programs offered by EOB Title XX contact 647-2171.

EOB Helps Community Food Bank

The EOB announced it has obtained a federal plant grant to help support the Community Food Bank.

Dr. Claude Perkins Chairman of EOB, said "We have long recognized the worthiness of the Food Bank and the dedication of the people who have worked tirelessly to maintain this service in our community. It has been more than a year ago since we first went to bat for the Food Bank but funds were initially unavailable," noted Perkins. "However, staff and board concern for the program did not diminish, and our most recent effort was successful. This new program funding, obtained through the diligence of EOB, serves as further evidence of EOB's commitment to assisting all other groups in the county, whether they are formally a part of EOB or whether they are outside agencies needing assistance."

The $37,732 Community Services Administration grant which EOB will direct into the Food Bank operation is subject to only one-year's duration.

We recognize that the problems of malnutrition in Southern Nevada will not be cured within this time, observed Perkins, but we expect that EOB's assistance will have significant impact on continuing the Community Food Bank program.

What They Don't Know Won't Hurt Them

By George Joplin
President
National Newspaper Association

The hour was late, the streets were dark and empty. A night watchman made his rounds from door to door of the downtown businesses. Most people had been home for hours, many of them already in bed asleep. But the lights still shone brightly in the newspaper office and the old manual typewriter clickety clacked away as the editor recorded what action had been taken at city council meeting that night.

Soon, thousands of people would read that story and learn what city council had done to perhaps change their lifestyle, alter their business routine or lower their insurance rates. They would learn how each councilman voted on an issue and who they should contact if they disagreed with the position a councilman took. The people wanted this information and knew they could find it in their newspaper.

That's why the lights burned late in the newspaper office, because an editor was dedicated to giving his subscribers a detailed accounting of just what transpired at that council meeting. The next night it would be a school board meeting, the next a civic club dinner, then a meeting of the planning and zoning commission and on and on. The newspaper would be represented at each of these. Stories would be written and published so the people would be informed of what was going on in their community.

"Congress shall make no law ... abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press" the First Amendment to the Constitution states — the cornerstone of our democracy. Without this, all of our liberties would be insecure. Yet these freedoms are being threatened by representatives in government who assume the attitude that it is better for the people to not know what is going on, what action they are considering or have already taken. "What they don't know won't hurt them," they boast. But what they really mean is that if they transact their business under a cloak of secrecy, no one will know what they are doing and they can run the government as they darn well please.

How many times in recent years has it been noted in stories that a school board, city council, fiscal court or some other governing body has gone into executive session to discuss a problem, a situation that possibly would be embarrassing? All too many! If it is public business they are discussing, then rarely should it be conducted behind closed doors.

When you pick up a newspaper today you have freedom in your hands, but will you still have that freedom of information tomorrow if governmental bodies are allowed to go unchallenged into one secret executive session after another?

The threat, the challenge rests in the hands of the people and if they — you and I — don't speak up and tell our representatives how we feel, personally or through editorials and letters to the editor, then we may soon find ourselves without a right to know ... unable to hold freedom in our hands.

Then there will be no need for the lights to burn into the wee hours of the night in the newspaper office, no need for the typewriter to clickety clack. In fact, there will be no need for the night watchman to make his rounds.

'SINBAD AND THE EYE OF THE TIGER' OPENS WED. — AT THE RAINBOW THEATRE

"Sinbad and the Eye of the Tiger," a fantasy-filled new adventure of mythology's favorite seafarer from Columbia Pictures, will open Wed. at the Rainbow Theatre.

Patrick Wayne stars as Sinbad, with Taryn Power costarred as the ethereal beauty who joins him on a voyage to the northern edge of the ancient world. Also starred are Margaret Whiting as the claw-legged sorceress, Zenobia; Jane Seymour as Sinbad's bride-to-be, the beautiful Princess Farah, and Patrick Troughton as the alchemist, Melanthus.

Filmed in Dynarama, "Sinbad and the Eye of the Tiger" abounds with myths and monsters, including the Minotaur, a metallic colossus with the head of an enraged bull; an ice-age walrus the size of a sailing ship, the ghouls, spectral assassins without flesh or feeling, and the fierce prehistoric sabre-tooth tiger.

Produced by Charles H. Schneer and Ray Harryhausen, the fantasy film was directed by Sam Wanamaker on locations in the Jordanian plain of Petra, the Pyrenees Mountains, on Malta, and other locales throughout the Mediterranean. The screenplay by Beverley Cross is based on a story by Cross and Harryhausen.

Creator-developer of Dynarama, Harryhausen also is the Creator of Special Visual Effects.

"Sinbad and the Eye of the Tiger" is a Charles H. Schneer Production with production services by the Devon Company/Perky-Bright. It is rated G by the M.P.A.A.

Freedom In Our Hands

By William A. Steiger, M.C. (Wis.)

The strength of the United States over the more than 200 years of our nation's existence has been its faithful commitment to the belief in the freedom of the individual. Our founding fathers provided us with a system which has fostered individual rights and permitted maximum opportunity for all to participate in the governmental process.

Making that system work is the responsibility of each of us as citizens. The spirit of the Washingtons, Jeffersons, Adamsses and Franklins must be no less strong today. Every American has a stake in the successful administration of the nation's laws and in retaining the rights provided us under the Constitution.

Each of us must make a personal commitment to make full use of the rights and obligations of living in a free society. If the democratic process is to function effectively — and to prevail — we must all play a part in it. That extends beyond taking advantage of our privilege to vote. If we feel strongly about a cause, we must speak out and work on behalf of our belief.

We can be encouraged by what seems to be renewed interest in fully participating in the political process. Increasingly, citizens are writing, calling and visiting with their elected representatives. Increasingly, they are actively working for causes in which they believe.

The late Robert Maynard Hutchins, shortly before leaving his post as president of the University of Chicago, offered a message that sums up the American ideal: "How is the educated man to show the fruits of his education in times like these? He must not acquiesce in injustice, nor turn his back on it, when he sees it happening. He must cling fast to his faith in freedom. He must insist that freedom is the chief glory of mankind, and that to repress it is to repress the human spirit itself."

Handicapped Needed For Basketball

The Nevada Association of the Physically Handicapped is currently searching the greater Las Vegas area for individuals who would like to play wheelchair basketball. No experience necessary. Any male or female individual who because of permanent severe leg disability or paralysis of the lower portion of his/her body will benefit through participation in wheelchair basketball and who would be denied the opportunity to play basketball were it not for the wheelchair adaption is eligible.

For further information contact the Nevada Association of the Physically Handicapped at 385-0220.

America's institutions of higher education spend over $1.3 billion on libraries and similar services.

Many college libraries have books to help students find jobs. One book lists more than 2,000 top companies and 200 large trade associations under 37 types of industry, as well as alphabetically and geographically. It's the 1977 edition of "O'Dwyer's Directory of Corporate Communications," available for $60 from J. R. O'Dwyer Co., Inc., 271 Madison Ave., New York, N.Y. 10016.

The first library building at a university was the library of the University of South Carolina, completed May 6, 1840.
