Dear Carole,

A finally finished product that took longer than a 9 month pregnancy, but at least it is ready to go. We will start distributing next week and can hardly wait for a response. Whether or not it actually brings families into the library, I feel we are giving something that will be used.

The family literacy morning was a standout for me at ALA. I didn't attend another program that had much to offer except your wonderfully informative and inspiring one. Every aspect was perfect. I do hope that we get our grant so that we can finally get started, though I know the work will be overwhelming.

Cordially,

Carroll Gardner
