Gertrude Stein, Gertrude Stein, Gertrude Stein, at Reed Whipple

After a year of playing to standing room only audiences in New York City, Pat Carroll has taken her successful one woman show, "GERTRUDE STEIN, GERTRUDE STEIN, GERTRUDE STEIN" on tour and now it's coming to Las Vegas.

"GERTRUDE STEIN, GERTRUDE STEIN, GERTRUDE STEIN" with Pat Carroll, winner of the New York Drama Critics Best Actress Award will be presented free of charge, for one night only, February 3 at 8 p.m., at Reed Whipple Cultural Center. The play was chosen as "the most outstanding play" of the season" by the Outer Critics Circle and is being made possible by funding from the Nevada Humanities Committee, Inc., the City of Las Vegas, and the Allied Arts Council.

Seating will be limited and early arrival is encouraged.

On Wednesday, February 4, Pat Carroll will give a free lecture on Gertrude Stein the Writer at the Reed Whipple Cultural Center, at 11 a.m. For more information on either the one night performance or the lecture program contact the center at 386-6211.

UNLV Theatre Dept. Premieres New Comedy

The world premier of "The Total Immersion of Madeleine Favorini" will open January 29 - February 3 at the Judy Bayley Theatre on the UNLV campus. Frank Gagliano wrote the original script which was chosen from a field of eight competing works, and will conduct a special theatre course at UNLV from January 5 - 16.

Dr. Jerry Crawford, chairman of the theatre department made the announcement explaining "It is the first year we have chosen to produce an original script during our regular season".

Tickets may be reserved at 739-3641.

"DANIEL BOONE"

"Daniel Boone", the exciting musical as performed by the Performing Arts Repertory Theatre from New York will be presented in two performances at 9:30 a.m. and 12 p.m. on February 17 at Civic Center Auditorium in Henderson. The play explores the man behind the myth within the framework of a court-martial where Boone has been charged with treason. "Daniel Boone" is being presented for free by the City of Henderson Parks and Recreation Department, and may be reached at 565-8921 for further information.

NSCA Community Forum & Grants Sessions

Nevada State Council on the Arts will present a Community Forum on proposed changes in their grant guidelines on January 22, from 10 a.m. - 4 p.m. at the Musician's Union. Local organizations and artists are encouraged to attend the forum and offer their opinions on improving the guidelines.

Prior to the community forum, NSCA Deputy Director, Bill Fox, will be available to meet with potential NSCA applicants and to offer technical assistance with their grant requests. Fox will be available January 21, for one hour appointments at Reed Whipple Cultural Center. Appointments may be made by contacting Bill Fox at the NSCA office, 1-784-6231.

Cultural Focus: 'Other Side Of Las Vegas'

OUR HOME TOWN THEN AND NOW: A half day narrated tour of historic landmarks and art centers, with opportunities to see and buy the work of local artists and craftsmen — loaded with local hospitality.

OASIS SAFARI: A truly western experience that explores both desert and small town life in Southern Nevada. Stops are made at the National Park Service Visitors' Center, the quaint shops of Boulder City, the Desert Research Institute and Clark County Museum. Lunch is included.

CANYON/RANCH COUNTRY: A 5 hour tour amidst the breathtaking beauty of Redrock Canyon and historic Spring Mountain Ranch State Park is highlighted by a guided tour of the beautiful Ranch House and original ranch buildings.

Box lunch is included. This tour is available as a 3 hour tour without box lunch.

CLASSIC EVENING: An evening of fine dining in a select local restaurant, coupled with Ballet, Symphony or Theater in an off-strip performing arts center. A delightful blend of the best of two worlds.

To arrange a group tour call 392-7198.

KLVX & KNPR

PBS Entertains and Educates

The farewell performance of Beverly Sills from Lincoln Center, "The Taming of the Shrew", and unique programs that entertain and educate are offered by KLVX, TV-10, during January and February. For a copy of the station's program guide, call KLVX at 737-1010.

Mass Migration of Orchestras?

The Metropolitan Opera, the Boston, Chicago and Cleveland Orchestras, along with the Los Angeles Philharmonic and most of the world's outstanding jazz artists moved two months ago when Las Vegas public radio station KNPR moved into its brand new broadcast facility and took all of these excellent performers with them. Hundreds more of the world's outstanding musicians, conductors, composers, dramatists, poets and journalists are expected to join their colleagues throughout 1981 as KNPR brings the best in fine arts programming to the Las Vegas area.

To join this mass migration to art in radio, tune to KNPR, 89.5 FM. A copy of "Earbome", the station's program guide is available to subscribers by calling 456-6695, or drop by the new facility at 5151 Boulder Highway, next door to Sam's Town.

In February the museum will present oils and serigraphs by Raymond Howell of San Francisco in the main gallery, and etchings by Rod Beasley and oils by Elizabeth Castle in the Nevada Artist's Gallery. Oil and watercolor classes will be offered throughout the month, 647-4300 for times and fees.

MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY, UNLV has the following exhibits: Desert Animals, Pre-Columbian Pottery, Las Vegas Fort: Old Values, New Meanings, The Meadows, Las Vegas Watershed, Southern Nevada: A Half Century of Images, Navajo Rugs, Kachinas, and Ichthyosaur. Tours for school children and lecture presentations can be arranged by calling 739-3381.

OLD LAS VEGAS FORT is currently under renovation and will reopen in the spring. For information on the renovation process, contact the Preservation Association of Clark County, 649-8726.

New Publications

The 1980 revision of Arts Management: An Annotated Bibliography, a bestseller in its original edition is available from the Center for Arts Information, 625 Broadway, New York City, 10012, for $5.00. A companion publication, Management Assistance for the Arts, is available for $4.00.

Thank-You Everyone!

The strength of the arts council lies in it's ability to offer unique services to the members, and the community at large. It has been through a tremendous effort by our corps of volunteers that the council was able to continue providing the ongoing services, launch a major membership drive, and carry out the daily duties inherent in operating any organization.

Our sincerest thanks go to our volunteers for going to bat to help the arts council during the past three months.

Thank-you Yvonne, Bonnie Beatow, Mary Kline, Bruce Shapolsky, Kathy Galbreth and her mom, Rosemary Sansone, Mr. and Mrs. Granruth, Jean Bratten, Bill Jasper, Marta Gnomes, Linda Coulton, Espie Lozano, Bernice Draper, Mary Gettings, Bette and Claude Clement, and Susie Conkern for helping to address, stuff, seal, and mail out the 3000 plus recruitment letters.

Thank-you board members for helping with the recruitment letters and the signature ad, and special thanks to Marta, Helene and Al for their support and willingness to help when needed.

Thank-you Las Vegas Senior Citizen Center and Retired Senior Volunteer Program for helping to coordinate the work with your volunteers.

We also want to thank Cultural Focus for providing the needed funds to buy the paper and envelopes for the mailings. It is noteworthy that to date the program has handled 72 tours and promotions involving over 3000 tour takers, and recently handled tours for nine repeating conventions. Proceeds from the program to The Allied Arts Council have totaled $7,918. Additional proceeds of $4,211 have gone to organization stops along the tour routes, and another $10,604 to the business community involved with the tours - a remarkable effort by Jeanne Clark and her staff.
