HENDERSON NEWS NOTES

The Basic high school Commercial Club will stage "The Stenographers' Variety Show" April 23 in the high school auditorium. There will be two performances, a matinee at 1 p.m. and an evening performance at 8.

The purpose of the show is to raise funds for a $50 scholarship for the best shorthand-typing student. A gold locket will be given to the best typing student of the senior class, to be presented at the graduation exercises. "The Stenographers' Variety Show" was written by Rita Fumagalli and is directed by Mrs. Warner, Mr. Gamenthaler and Rita Fumagalli.

According to Coach Estes McDoniel, the Basic Wolves may surprise some people at the Boulder City track meet this afternoon and evenings. Unable to field a complete team, McDoniel is depending upon Lopeman in the 100 and 220 yard dashes, Hunter in the 880, Cureton in the 440 yard and mile runs and Ybarra in the 100, 220 and broad jump. All four boys are also entered in the relay. Based upon past performances, the boys from Boulder City are favored to win the invitational meet, but keep your eyes on Lopeman in the 100 yard dash and Hunter in the 880.

Another in the series of parties being given for the benefit of the Altar Society of St. Peter's church was held Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. H. J. Gaspari. The evening was spent in sewing on articles for the annual Thanksgiving dance and turkey pull. Refreshments were served to the following: Mrs. James McKay, Mrs. Ben Church, Mrs. Charles McNamara, Mrs. Robert Swift, Mrs. Hugh Manion, Mrs. Art Lubinski and Mrs. Bert Harden.

Members of the Altar Society of St. Peter's Church are making plans to honor the first communion class at a breakfast in the parish hall following services on Sunday, May 1. The Sisters of the Holy Family are giving special instructions to a class of forty on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays. Mrs. Jack Muldoon is chairman of the committee planning the breakfast.

Plans are being completed by members of the Altar and Rosary Society of St. Peter the Apostle's Church for a May Day festival and silver tea to be held Sunday, May 1, from 3 to 5 p.m., in the high school auditorium. Participants will be the newly opened shops in Henderson, with a teenage and women's fashions being shown by Desertwear Ladies Shop and Thelma's Style Shop. Helldorado suits for little boys and girls' play clothes by Dave Isaac's department store; shoes by O. J. Van Valey shoe department, Christenson Jewelers, and all makeup by the Merle Norman Cosmetic Salon of Henderson. Corsages and decorations for the tea tables will be furnished by Mrs. Dorothy Mason co-owner of Evergreen Gardens and Dot's Floral Shop in Las Vegas. Mrs. Mason who has had many years' experience in conducting fashion shows in the East will act as commentator. The Sullivan Sisters will furnish music for the occasion.

Mrs. Bert Harden, president of the Altar Society, will be assisted by Mrs. Earl Keenan, chairman of arrangements; Mrs. Ben Church, decorations chairman, and Mrs. Robert Swift, refreshment chairman.

Local women, teen age girls and children will be selected as models for the show, which will be open to the public.

HISTORIC PAPER

An original copy of the "Ulster County (N. Y.) Gazette" dated January, 1800, is now in the possession of Ray Cooper, of Lead street. In a remarkable state of preservation, this 149 year old paper gives a graphic account of the funeral of George Washington, written in a style long since outmoded.

two year period and has been under the constant direction and supervision of Director of Power C. P. Christensen, who also can be credited with founding and fathering the project.

It is stressed here now, by this writer, who has the thrilling moment of portraying to our little world this wonderful story, that we can all help this plan greatly by staying "out of the hair" of all government offices until Congress has made its decision. Requests for advance information first chances at leases, etc., cannot be handled—because of the uncertainty of the result.

If and when Congress passes the measure, then the government offices will offer equal chances for all, with special favors to none.

That this story is not an official release, has been learned by me from unofficial sources, but has been checked for its authenticity with the powers-that-be, so that I am satisfied that all facts herewith presented are true.

Whitney Holds Sunrise Service

Easter Sunrise Services will be held on the Ira Carter Ranch at 5:15 a.m. There will be markers on the road to designate the turn-off. All neighboring communities are invited. (Mrs.) Carrie Elizabeth Ovall of the First Methodist Church in Las Vegas will conduct the services. Dorize Peterson has charge of the chorus. This is the first year such services will be held in Whitney. A White Cross was made and donated by B. G. Dorothy and will be used to mark a permanent spot for future years.

The installation of Democratic Officers of Whitney has been postponed until April 19, at 8 p.m., Silver City Hotel, Whitney. All Democrats are invited. Belle Keeler of Las Vegas will conduct the ceremony of installation. Mrs. Thresa McGovern of Las Vegas will be the honored guest. John W. Bonner, state chairman, and Thomas J. McLaughlin, secretary, will also be present.

GRAND OPENING

Georgeson's Men's Store will have its grand opening on Thursday, April 21. The store will be located in the Henderson Department Store. The store will feature men's dress and work clothes of all national advertised lines. Fleming B. Hubbard will be the store manager.

CHURCH SERVICES—EASTER

St. Timothy's Episcopal Church—Sunrise service, 6 a.m. at Community Church. Children's services at High school football field. Mass at the Chapel at 11 a.m. St. Peter's Catholic Church—Low mass at 8 a.m. High mass at 10 a.m.

LDS ON QUILTS

The LDS Relief Society met yesterday at 1:30 at the LDS Chapel. Teresa Denning was in charge of the work on the quilts that are being made for the bazaar to be held on April 23, according to Mrs. Carl Carpenter.

AH-CHOO!

Hay—and that ain't hay — but hay fever we're talking about as we took over the latest report of Oren C. Durham, which was printed in the American Medical Association Journal, telling about the great relief quarters there are in this nation for hay fever victims.

The man says that our national parks are ideal as ragweed hay fever refuges.

An index rating sheet shows that a 10 rating area is not recommended. Preference should be given to parks with indexes less than 5.

You know what the Lake Mead recreational area rates? Four!

So then—there's another reason why our oasis out here will be a mecca some day—as a refuge for hay fever victims.

Other choice spots are parks in the Rocky Mountain, Cascade, Olympic and Sierra regions.

MORRY'S STORY

the community as the door flew open on one occasion and one of our leading high school girls fell halfway out and had to be rescued by someone climbing a pole and shoving the terrified girl back into the car.

The women barkers at the gypsy fortune telling tent used come on tactics to try and lure our young men and boys into their lair.

The wild animal show was ludicrous to the point of shame as a bear was put on display to wave its paws at the customers. The poor animal was mangy and looked like a well-worn rug. Its neck was so thin you could have put your hand around it. Its seat was worn of all fur and looked like bare black leather. A humane society detective would have closed the show for its owners being unkind to animals.

THE city should have carnivals. They're such fun and the country is full of dandy shows that appear in communities this size. It might be wise to seek the opinions of other cities' officials about certain shows before they are contracted. It might be wise to have health inspection, wire inspection, machine inspection, personal health inspection of a traveling show before it is allowed to open for operation—regardless of how much money an organization can make.
