VOLUME II FIVE CENTS HENDERSON, NEVADA FRIDAY, APRIL 29, 1949 FIVE CENTS

PIOCHE FIRM STILL INTERESTED IN BASIC OPERATIONS

Senator Pat MacCarran pulled no announcements out of his pocket on his recent visit to this community, at least none for publication concerning Henderson, but the NEWS again learned this week that Combined Metals of Pioche is still considering the Basic plant for future operations.

Last week the NEWS published a rewrite of a story that had been printed in the Tonopah Times-Bonanza which explained Basic Reduction's plans for a zinc oxide treatment plant, and also Combined Metals' interest.

Though the story was listed as erroneous, according to last Friday's Review-Journal, this newspaper contends Henderson people ought to know what's going on so they can plan their daily life, thus goes a step further today to state we talked with one authority this week who explained that Combined Metals is interested and may come in.

The NEWS also learned that the Three Kids Mine will be taken over by the Colorado River Commission to add facilities for interested industries in this area.

Meanwhile, the big deal arranged by the commission with the government making it possible to take over the land and buildings for re-sale is still awaiting completion of final details in Washington.

HERE'S MORT'S ANGLE

(Continued from Page 14) the outgo. It's about time that some consideration was given the internal problems confronting this country instead of endeavoring to find additional means of raising taxes to spend in other countries and peoples all of the world. This long after the war it is about time that at least some of the countries of Europe were made to realize they will have to become self supporting, and soon.

-HELLDORADO-

In addition to all this, life in Las Vegas, which is never dull, goes on as usual. The Helldorado visitor however, is assured of all the excitement that can possibly be packed into four days.

The annual fete celebrates the birthday of this resort, 44 years ago. Once just a whistle stop on the Union Pacific railroad, this desert oasis currently has a permanent population of 25,000 citizens who expect to be hosts to the biggest crowd ever to throng the city for Helldorado week this year.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE IN THE BOULDER CITY NEWS

Dorothy Dorothy Says - - - - About Whitney

He has told us many times we could have it and we're actually going to take advantage of his offer. I'm talking about Gene Ward. And I'm referring to his offer to let Whitney use his hall in Pittman to hold dances. So, lick your pencil and put this date down: Friday, May 6, 1949, Pittman, Nevada. That's the date and place of the Y'smenette dance. Seems like old times for us to hold a dance again doesn't? A Whitney dance in Pittman is a little confusing but you won't be confused when you get there and swing that cute little filly on the corner to the rhythm of the Sagebrush Serenaders.

On May 7, the kids are having another food sale. Candy, cookies, every kind of goodies. All of this is to raise money for the Helldorado float which will be a beauty.

Mildred Russell, social service worker, Clark county general hospital, was the speaker at the Y'smenette meeting held in the Silver City Hotel. Carrie Elizabeth Oval brought as her guests,

Mary Clement and Delorez Dibble of Las Vegas. Mary De Laney, Whitney school principal was present—natch—as were 17 local members. Delorez Dibble is making yarn dolls for the Helldorado booth for us. Aren't people wonderful? To go back to Mildred Russell, it would amaze you the work she carries on, and the money she saves us poor taxpayers (unless, of course, you are familiar with her work.)

Dorothy Gunn came tripping back into town after spending a few days with her auntie, Mrs. George Spear in Glendora, California, among the citrus trees. With Dorothy, in the prune picking state, were her cousin Caroline Eckert of Las Vegas, and grandpa F. F. Gunn of Oogden, Utah.

Whitney sent out a blanket, verbal invitation to ALL towns and communities to attend the formal installation of the officers of the Whitney democrats. Only Henderson responded. None (Continued on Page 2)

MORRY'S STORY

HERE'S an idea for lots of fun for one and all—a worthwhile community project that would automatically promote unity and comraderie . . . Saturday night street dances in Western motif including old time, this time and future dancing . . . sponsored by the Women's club, the Legion, the Elks, the Business and Professional Women, the VFW . . . and any others that wanted to tie in . . . all proceeds to charity . . . Arizona street from Central to the school to Central Market would handle it . . . what sayest thou?

THE ball game last Saturday provided fun for all . . . there's nothing like seeing your neighbor up at bat—striking out, or hitting a homer . . . Luke

Men Party Notes

Hello Everybody,
It's time for cotton lingerie—and you'll love it this year—in ice-cream pastels, trimmed with frosty white eyelet.
Have some frilly half slips in cotton with ruffle and eyelet trim at only 1.95 and 2.95 in all sizes. Elasticized waistline—so if you happen to eat too much—it won't matter!
Then in the gowns, we've just received some adorable numbers in soft, cool batiste—beautifully designed in your favorite pastels, with a smart eyelet trim in the front at the bustline. For the final touch of femininity, you'll find a large ruffle at the bottom of these gowns—all this for only 2.95. Be sure to see them soon, for they won't last long.
Bye now

Whalen's young boys challenged the old-times to a game . . . Will some club please sponsor?

Dorothy Dorothy Says:

of us can figure that one out.

Mom (Moitle the toitle) Dorothy and I attended the Sunshine party in Henderson which was given in honor of Mom's very best friend, Gladys Morley who got herself all smashed up in an automobile wreck and is serving a broken bone sentence in the Kingman hospital along with her hubby who also is all messed up. Everything was perfect at that party except that Gladys wasn't there. We had fun, ate cake, played bridge and won prizes while bones were knitting in Kingman.
See you next week . . .

NOTICE Teen Age Girls

According to Erma A. Godbey, Teen Age Director, all Boulder City and Henderson Teen Age Girls are cordially invited to attend a dance in honor of the Senior Boy Scouts who are guests of honor of the Boulder Dam Council for the Lake Mead Aquarado. The dance will be held at the Little Theater, Saturday night at 8:30 p. m.

BRIDGE

Starting off on the last four-week tournament of the season last Wednesday night, Boulder Bridgers winners were: North-South, first—Connolly-Moller, second—the Rosenbaums, third—Rickhill-Wartman. East-West, first, the Vanderlaans, second—Cook-Carter, third—the Voss's.

High School Students in Pre-registration Planning

Plans are now underway for a pre-registration program for high school students for the next school year, according to Elbert Edwards, superintendent.

All students will be asked to fill out schedule and program blanks indicating their preference in subjects for the next school term. On the basis of this registration the class schedule will be made out.

Some of the subjects listed are required by state law, while others are required on the basis of general college entrance requirements and are considered essential for general education. All students are expected to enroll in five subjects (4 1-2 units of credit). Fifteen units of credit exclusive of physical education will be required for graduation next year, and the following year 16 such units will be required.

Ninth graders will be expected to enroll in English, mathematics (general math or algebra, depending on their aptitude as determined by an algebra prognosis test), physical education, and two electives from the following: general science, foreign language, world history, art, shop, home economic and music.

For the 10th grade: English, mathematics (advanced arithmetic, algebra or plane geometry, depending on the aptitude of the student as determined by the testing program), physical education, and two electives from the following: foreign language, biology, typing, and those subjects listed as elective for the ninth grade. Eleventh grade students will enroll in English, health, physical education, and two electives from among science, commercial subjects, math, social studies, and other elective subjects previously listed.

Twelfth grade subjects required are English or public speaking, American history and American government, physical education, and electives from among those elective subjects generally available and physics, solid geometry, trigonometry, and mechanical drawing.

AAUW Delegates In Vegas Meeting

Delegates who will represent the local branch of the American Association of University Women at the state convention to be held in Las Vegas tonight and tomorrow are Mrs. H. H. Pelham, president; Mrs. Ernest Parkinson, past president; Mrs. E. W. Fambrough, president-elect; Mrs. N. O. Thompson, vice-president-elect, and Mrs. Vernon Bell, treasurer-elect.

About 16 members are planning to attend some of the meetings, the barbecue tonight at the Last Frontier, and the banquet tomorrow night at the Thunderbird hotel, it was learned.

Business sessions will be held at the Bird Cage theater, and there will be a luncheon Saturday noon at the Flamingo.

V. F. W. MEETS TONIGHT

The V. F. W. District Meeting will be held tonight at 8 p. m. at the Henderson High School. All District officers for the next two years will be elected. All past commanders of Boulder City are urged to attend, according to Jim Adams, Commander.

RED CROSS MEETS

The Red Cross Production Unit will meet at the Legion Hall today at 2 p. m. Volunteer workers are invited according to Florence Lindsey, Chairman.
