

Dorothy Dorothy Says -- About Whitney

It is the season of picnics. So, a picnic it was. Gladys and Ed Morley and son, Edward; Sou Saville, of Henderson, joined Myrtle and (believe it or not) Dad Dorothy; Ruth and Dottie Lou Blanchard, of Anchorage, Alaska; Dianna Jo and Deanna Kay Riggs and Leanne Miller down in the Boulder Beach picnic park by the lake shore and fun they did have.

Dolly Landingham, of Los Angeles, is visiting Joe and Bernie Riggs, having made the trip back with the Riggs family last week while they were flitting around down that-a-way. Dolly will spend most of her vacation here, or, until her mother drives over to visit and take daughter Dolly home.

By the way: When someone is coming to Las Vegas or Whitney from Los Angeles, is it "over"—"up"—or "down"? It is confusing. I would say that "over to Los Angeles" would be nearest correct.

Bride and bridegroom Lois and Dale Foley breezed in for a short visit with Doc and Blanch Jenkins this week when they sprang the news of their secret marriage of early April in Kingman, Arizona.

After almost six years of loyal devotion and hard work, Carrie Elizabeth Overall left us. Mrs. Overall has never missed a week holding Sunday school in Whitney during those years. On the very few occasions when she couldn't be present, she sent someone. Her untiring efforts included picking up the youngsters in her station wagon and leaving them at their door after the services... Christmas, Easter and Valentine parties... taking them in to Las Vegas to roller skating parties... surprises. Mrs. Overall was transferred in her ministry work to California. Our loss is their gain as she devotes her life to helping others. Until next week...

Serving Henderson (Basic Townsite, Victory Village, Carver Park, Pittman, Whitney.)

HENDERSON HEARSAY ---

How green grows the grass in Henderson, or is it those new sun glasses? Don't let those hard-working gardeners hear you, though. The Dr. R. C. Nelsons, 286 Tungsten, have the best bet with that new walking hose... just turn it on, set the course, and go to the office. While at Fish Lake, Utah, last week 'tis said that they just turned it on, left it a saucer of cream and locked up the house... incidentally they Hungry? Hope you didn't miss the Eagles' watermelon feed held last Wednesday at the softball diamond with, naturally, the help of the auxiliary. But read on if you've missed dinner.

This rates a paragraph all its own... The annual ice cream social at Ruth Ball's place, 27 Nevada Way... look for the Chinese lanterns... TONIGHT. Real froze-by-hand ice cream and home-made cake and coffee. The BPW has been working on this shindig since May and while you eat you can feel virtuous... it's for the benefit of their youth work.

Allen Derochie will show you how, to Jim Murcheson's music, an some kidly local merchant will duplicate Charles Collins'... Henderson Department Store... gesture of donating a door prize. By the way, the Sheriff's softball team is still looking for someone to beat them. They're playing intramural just now for lack of challengers.

Our town is due for a quiet week come August 1... The Christian Endeavor kids... 16 to 25 years... are leaving for Camp Big Bear, auspices Community Church. Jody and Chuck Gallo-way, Janet Van Valey, Betty Rig-gins, Merle Bracken, Allen Curen and Virginia Gorin are getting those pink slips completed.

It's too hot to have company they tell us, so no out-of-towners reported this week.

Our Henderson kids go social early... Marcia Compton, age 4 1/2 years, gave an outdoor luncheon in honor of Larry and Donnie Lavers, Wednesday. Tony Kibbee, Gene Alley, Randy Mainor, Michael Wilkins, Jada Kubie, Margy and Punky Butler, and Joy Saunders sang songs and told stories after creamed chicken and trimmings... Been a busy week for the kids... Swimming class for beginners, luncheons and our Mike (Wilkins) had a party at Twin Lakes on his sixth birthday. Janet, Barbara, Ronnie, Judy and Donnie Burkland, Marcia Compton, Larry and Keith Coleman, Pat Simmons, JoElla Eves, shepherded by Marjorie Friend, Molly Burkland, Barbara Eves and your correspondent, did the usual birthday things. Complete with candles, watermelon and whistles, the party was fun even for the shepherdesses.
