

Dorothy Dorothy Says -- About Whitnev

I wish his car would break down again. Why? Because when John Mueller's car broke down, he and S. R. "Stub" Du Bravac were dropper-inners and stayed long enough to have a nice QSO (that's ham language for "conversation"). We were lucky enough to catch him when he had to sit down for a spell until a car could be brought to him.

Another dropper-inner was our congressman, Walter S. Baring. As busy as he is, he took time out to drop in and have a QSO with us. Congressman Baring came to Las Vegas to attend the Legion convention.

As if commuting 160 miles a day (to Davis dam and back) to work (six days a week) isn't enough for Roy Adair, he uses many of his allocated sleeping hours to work in the maternal Order of the Eagles Aerie 2672 donating blood (23 transfusions to date!) and seeing to it that the Las Vegas Air Base hospital library has current magazines, etc. By the way, you can help if you will give magazines and books to this cause. Bring them to me, or let Roy know where he can pick them up. It will help more than you realize. Roy gives them to children in other hospitals, too. Roy and Doris were dropper-inners. They are doing a wonderful job. Everett Kraus, Bob Zuber and Bill Payton are Whitney Eagles.

Happy birthday to Cleo Hach and Pat Cassidy. Also, here's not only wishing Doreen Adair a happy birthday, but hoping she can blow those 11 candles out with one blow so she will get her wish. Doreen's mamma gave a surprise party to the not surprised daughter who gets a nice party every year.
I'll be seeing you . . .

Democrat Club Holds Party

The Henderson Democrat Club beach party scheduled for August 13 will be held tomorrow, starting at 5 p.m. Free refreshments and beer at cost will be on the program. Featured event will be a drawing for these Westinghouse items: an electric roaster, electric food mixer with juicer attachment, coffee maker, pop-up toaster and portable radio. Everyone is invited, with a real bang-up program arranged for the enjoyment of all.

HENDERSON HEARSAY - - -

If your junior miss or master is too young for regular kindergarten, call Marge DeWolf or Jean DuBravac. Mr. Ben Church has offered the services of a qualified, accredited teacher for special two-hour classes to be held in the Carver Park administration building . . . tuition is $5 a month.

MISS VFW

Bonnie Yeager was crowned Miss VFW of Henderson with Nancy Otero and Merle Bracken sharing the judges' approbation. Bonnie will represent the VFW in the Boulder City Jaycee contest later this month. All the girls who participated in the VFW carnival beauty parade will be entered in the Boulder City event. Last Saturday's carnival set a successful pattern for a yearly event. Lots of hard work . . . but what fun for the kids . . . and those bingo prizes were really prizes . . . thanks to the generous Henderson and Las Vegas merchants. Topping it off was the dance at the cafeteria with Tommy Nelson's band. . . . Thanks goes out from the committee to all who donated so generously of time, et al.

FIGHTS

Saturday night Carlyle Sullivan, local fistic-fireman, is scheduled to meet Indian Peterson Charles in a 10-round light-heavyweight match at the Hotel Last Frontier Sportsdrome. Benefit of the Basic Eagles lodge . . . and a chance at the '49 Studebaker they're giving as a door prize. Sullivan won the last three fights he essayed, while the Indian has beaten nearly every challenger in southern Utah. Should be a good fight . . . goes without saying. . . . The Eagles are doing a lot of fine things here. . . . Their appeal for magazines, books and what have you that someone else may use to better advantage has been generously answered. Mrs. J. B. Kimball, 418 Ash Street, Boulder City, presented them with a brand new set of Grolier encyclopedia. The Air Base personnel were most grateful . . . as are the Eagles, who wish to thank her publicly. . . . Incidentally, there's a two-year-old blonde at the juvenile home who needs a rocking chair in the worst way. . . . Afraid she'll be there for quite a while . . . so if you have one, or any toys her size, call Roy Adair, number one in the Henderson telephone book. The Eagles are still looking for a piano for the juvenile home. . . . We have a bet on that surely there's one in Boulder City or Henderson that you'd be glad to have moved for such a worthy cause.

DILEMMA

Rose de Lima's in a dilemma . . . the hospital, that is. . . . The rope on the flagpole is broken.

No ladders to reach that high. . . . Wanted: One steeplejack, call 621. Even the intrepid members of the Holy Name Society at St. Peter's Catholic Church haven't figured a way of replacing the rope. They've put the roof on the new garage back of the hospital. . . . Should be finished soon the way they're going at it. Hear they're organizing a Boy Scout troop out here. . . . There's still room for lots of youth work.

HOW ABOUT IT

Which reminds us that the Episcopal church is doing a bang-up job at the Carver Park administration building. More than 60 children from Carver and Victory Village have come in off the streets. . . . Heretofore their only playground, Mrs. Manuel Peralto is there every afternoon . . . but she could use some assistance. . . . How about it, you busy mamas? One afternoon a week is worth trading for a safe place for junior after school and Saturdays. Wednesday afternoon the children picnicked and swam at Vegas Wash. . . . And more fun planned in the future. "Recreation for Health and Happiness" is their slogan.

News Notes of the Townsite

TO UNIVERSITY

William Rizzo, Jr., of 19 Basic Road, goes back to the University of Arizona's Business Administration School on a scholarship this fall. Bill's been working at Inyokern this summer. . . . Finishes up this year at the university.

PICNIC

Today's the big MIA picnic at the church ranch in Paradise Valley. Bring your own sandwiches and a blanket . . . there aren't any benches. Be there before 7 p.m. so the serving can start on time. Transportation will be furnished if you'll call any member of the MIA or the bishopric.

BPW

President Thelma Sturm was hostess to the BPW Monday evening. . . . They're getting set for the fall season. First regular meeting will be at Ruth Ball's, 27 Nevada Way. . . . All employed women invited. . . . It'll be a pol-luck dinner and special program.

SWIM MEET

Bob Miller won the senior life saver's trophy at the first annual swim meet last Saturday. The racing sprint for beginners found Art Fumagalli first, Barbara Burkland second, and Wanda Walker third. In the intermediate sprint Richard Vey, Bernie Fumagalli and James Wells came in that order, while Paul Wachter, Elaine McCain, and Gene Highfill shared honors in the swimmer's class. The junior life savers' 50-meter racing sprint found Billy Bowser first, Gerald Yates second and Bruce Kressler third, while Betty Byers, Marjorie Mainor and Nancy Weber placed in that order in the girls' sprint.

Bob Miller and Ray Lind-schoten tied for first place in the senior life savers' sprint, with Bob Herman and Jerry Kizzia second and third.

WATER QUEEN

Julie Edmondson was named water queen for the event, her crown of flowers presented by Joan Miller, and Marlene Blakely and Marjorie Mainor as attendants. The program included all children who took part in the swimming program this year. . . . Their certificates will be issued soon after school starts. So many local people and organizations worked so hard . . . thanks from all of us.
