Henderson Hearsay

--- By Betty Wilkins

September has been a lean month so far for the boys in the baby department at Rose de Lima Hospital . . . Irene and George Schmidt, 94-D, Victory Village, were very happy to add a feminine member to their family of two boys on Sunday, September 4 . . . Beryl and Verdel Hinton made it a twosome on September 7 when their second girl arrived . . . That leaves Master Small, of the Small twins, born August 25, in command of the nursery. Monica and Richard Small, 115 Copper, weren't too surprised, and Verie and Michael seem satisfied, but definitely, with their new brother and sister.

Now that summer's over . . . lots of activities gathering steam . . . The Community Chest's Board of Directors met Tuesday evening to set their goal of $5,000 and appoint a chairman and assistants. The annual drive, which opens September 15, running to October 15, will be directed by Assistants Teddy Handy, Lyle Burkeholder, Ben Church and Gordon McCaw, with a chairman still to be appointed. The Publicity Committee claims Grace Byrnes and your local correspondent as members.

The staff of the Rose de Lima Hospital have resumed their monthly meetings; the first of the season was last Tuesday. Dr. E. A. MacCormack and Dr. Chester Lockwood were appointed as the executive committee . . . their function being to work with the chief of staff, Dr. R. W. Hemington, and the hospital administrator, on matters pertaining to the staff and general management of the hospital.

Orville Dean Wiedeman, just back from the Pacific, brought half of the Chinese curio shops with him . . . but best of all is the little white brocade suit, classic Chinese style, and hand-made shoes he ear-marked for sister-in-law Beth's expected. Made of black velvet, all hand-stitched felt soles and bright embroidery, the shoes represent little pigs, complete to ears and a tiny tail at the heel.

Mrs. Marie Kressler, mother of Ed Kressler, 307 Tungsten, returns to New York City next week . . . but under protest. . . This is her first trip west . . . and a case of love at first view. Mrs. K. insists she'll be back, although she may have to wait until she can clip coupons . . . but the desert has done it again.

The former national chess champion of Switzerland, Maurice Gedance, now president of the Las Vegas Chess Club, has offered to take on any two members of our Henderson group at St. Peter's Church . . . not to belittle our abilities, but he plans to allow himself to be blindfolded, too! Never mind, we're learning . . . and having a very nice time at it. What about you Boulder City people . . . the Henderson Chess Club extends a cordial invitation to anyone who's interested . . . lots of beginners, as well as several qualified and willing teachers. Tonight, and every Friday, at 7:30, St. Peter's Rectory.

Coach McDoniel Eyes Newcomers

Coach Estes McDoniel is watching several new men hopefully as he gets the Basic football team in shape for the first game of the season, with St. George on September 16.

Larry Standart and Benny Murry are two attention-catchers who are being eyed for tackle positions.

The team will center again around Chuck Galloway at quarterback. The mighty passer seems in just as good or better form than last year, McDoniel declared.

Spotted for backfield positions are Keith Lopenan, Cliff Hunter, Allen Cureton, and Tom Barri-leaux. Aaron Morris and George Rostine probably will appear in wing positions, and Tom Sims at end. Jerry Kissia, playing for the second year, is a good end prospect, also.

Troy Croft, second year man, has a cinch on one tackle spot, and the other will go to either Bob Miller, Bob Herman or Billy Edison.

Unforgotten for his performance last season, Jim Anderson will probably play guard this year, as will Herb Heher, and probably Leonard Spirling. Sid Pickard will move from backfield to center, McDoniel said.

Dorothy Dorothy Says

A lakeshore birthday party was held for Lona Brenner who is one round dozen years old as of now. Dorothy Gunn, Lena Sanderson, Erlene Gille, Rose Brenner, Jane West, Pat Cassidy and Frank Brenner roasted weiners, topped with watermelon and cake after swimming and playing games in, and on the shore of Lake Mead.

Former Whitneys Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Beeman were not only dropper-inners, but were with us for the holiday making the rounds greeting old time friends. From here they moved to Davis Dam.

The first meeting of the Y's menette club for the pre fall back-in-the-harness reminder will be held in the Silver City hotel on Thursday, September 15, at 8 p. m. Election of officers will be the top priority subject. (besides eating.) Remember the date.

The first meeting for the Whitney Democratic club will be held in the Whitney town hall (Silver City hotel) on Friday September 9, (tonight) at 8 p. m. At this meeting we will outline (among other things) the plans for the coming Democratic dinner to be held in the Thunderbird hotel September 27. All Democrats should attend.

Happy birthday to Frank Erway. Dorothy Gunn had to celebrate her birthday by going to school (darn it) but a party is in the office 'tis whispered. Ora Pritchard and Ethel McCarthy have their natal day September 9.

After a very lazy summer, Whitney is whipping into action and the calendar from now on looks like a reporter's notebook. It was nice to be idle, but it seems good to get active again. You will be hearing about it soon.

I'll be seeing you . . .
