HENDERSON HEARSAY --- --- By Betty Wilkins

Wednesday evening it was Deputy Aubrey Pagen to the rescue when the firemen couldn't make it. . . result: one scared cat rescued from one tall telephone pole in front of the Stanley Meluski's Victory Village apartment. Reward came in the form of a wedge of home-made lemon pie served by Greta Meluski. Stan and Greta had just returned from Pomona. . . visiting his sister's family, the Frank Cullens. . . television and catching up on the news with another branch of the family from Camden, New Jersey, occupied most of their five-day vacation.

Jean and John Coe celebrated her birthday Monday evening by attending the opening of the Little Theater's Christmas production, "Little Women". . . also in the party were Floyd and Rachel Hicks, Letha and Harry Parsons, Mrs. Marcia Compton, and the Elmer Hilsingers also had first - night reservations. Mrs. Dale Miller's boy, Pat Patterson. . . fresh from California. . . has been lending a willing hand . . . rounding out the Hendersonites helping put it over.

They say business is better than even the Christmas uptrend should have caused. . . Henderson is coming into its own. . . do your gift shopping locally. . . good slogan to follow. . . The Junior Carnival really hit a high mark in success. . . one new auditorium curtain to follow shortly. . . Glad to greet Christine Saunders back on the office nursing job after minor (!) surgery. . . Don't miss the Christmas festival at the elementary school. . . everybody is somebody. . . after all, Christmas is for the kids and all that, so they're learning about the greatest story in a first hand way, acting it out.

FILLERS Tuberculosis assn. The forthcoming Christmas Seal Sale will be the 43rd for America and the 27th for Nevada.
