PAUL, MADGE, JIM and PIXIE OPEN SUNDAYS and HOLIDAYS

HERNDSON HEARSAY - - - - - - By Betty Wilkins

Cindy's back and Michael sends thanks to all those nice people who brought cocker spaniels of all sizes and colors for him to view . . . many thanks to Grace Byrne for her appealing article in the local daily and to the Thomas Haytons who adopted the homeless black pup . . . Then gave her up. Did you hear about Mary Chase, she of the Rose de Lima nursing staff, who wrote the clever jingle that won her a Crosley refrigerator, nine fat no less? Her ditty about the termites of high school age who infested her refrigerator won the above as well as a chance at some $20,000 in prizes . . . Mary and daughter Gail plan a trip to Europe just in case . . . Just said welcome last week to Dr. William V. Relyea who joined the doctors working here in Henderson . . . and now it's von voyage, but only for a week. Dr. R. en-planed for Buffalo and home for Christmas. He back Tuesday. Speaking of doctors . . . Two of them talked their small fry into wanting real life miniature trains for Christmas . . . the children can't read directions so of course fathers must set up the toys . . . The Walter Saunders have all four grandparents with them for Christmas . . . which really keeps daughter Joy busy . . . as well as cousin Danny Muldoon. Mrs. Betty Fritz arrived from Cleveland Monday. Mr. and Mrs. John Sauchuck recently Easterners now thinking of locating in San Diego . . . here also for the holidays.

More Christmas visitors . . . Mr. and Mrs. Francis Black, Trona, California . . . drove up to see daughter Margaret Zlatnik and grandson Donald . . . 315 Water . . . Dolores and Jimmie Hullum, Victory Village housing office, are going the other way. First stop Van Nuys to see his people, then Colton, and finally Death Valley for a New Year's Eve get-together. The Tom Millers, 210 Atlantic, and son Jimmie left for Fillmore, California and Christmas at son Barton's house today. Among others journeying in all directions for the long vacation are several Henderson teachers. The Don Babsts headed for Oregon, leaving Estes McDonald to see that the basketball boys worked out properly. Janie Blackburn is with her family in Kansas and Phyllis Green is doing the same in Reno. Miss Bird Lyng is planning a San Francisco Christmas while Iris Jennings chose Los Angeles Ruth Chestem set out for Nebraska to see her family. Bob Taylor is probably in New Mexico by now, and Dorothy Boice and family headed California way.

The Boy Scouts of Troop 23, Ray Shutt is the leader, enjoyed a Christmas party at the Scout house Tuesday. Mothers served soft drinks, cookies and coffee. Bags of candy and nuts came from the Eagles Lodge and Prime Meats sent a basket of big red apples.

Proceeds from the Colorado River Commission's annual Christmas party went toward the Christmas basket fund, turned over to the Henderson Coordinating Council. About $75 was realized from the sale of tickets and refreshments and a good time was had by all last Friday at the BMI cafeteria building. More than 200 guests were present, each bringing a gift to put under the huge Christmas tree which was the center of the decorating scheme. Now back to those last minute Christmas cards . . . and holly and mistletoe. Merry Christmas and many more of them.

BPW Holds Annual Christmas Party
The members of the Business and Professional Women's club held their annual children's Christmas party for various youngsters of the townsite. The Townsite's apartment lounge was the site Thursday evening. Katie Butler and Belle Adams co-chaired the arrangement committee. Each member was responsible for one child, and Santa Claus distributed presents from under a large tree.

HOLD XMAS PARTY
The Mineralogical Society of Nevada held its annual Christmas party last Saturday at Railroad Pass.

To our many friends in Boulder City and Henderson
MERRY CHRISTMAS BOULDER CLUB

VFW to Give City Gala New Year's

Hendersonites will have their own special New Year's Eve celebration when the V.F.W. and the American Legion join forces at the BMI cafeteria building next Saturday night. Beginning about 9:30 until the last whistle blows down their will be fun for all. Jack Hurt's orchestra from Boulder City has promised to stay on the job until the wee hours. Refreshments of the gayer type will be furnished as well as the more prosaic coffee and sandwiches . . . all this for just 75c per person . . . hats and noise-makers included. Don't drive to town plan a New Year's Eve party near home.

Other Boulder News Items

ROTARIANS PARTY
Rotarians and their wives and guests enjoyed a hearty annual Christmas party at the hotel here Wednesday night with Mort Wagner serving as toastmaster, the Sullivan Sisters and Russell Farnsworth offering the music.

TEEN-AGE DANCE
The Teen-agers of Boulder City will dance to the music of Tommy Nelson's orchestra tonight at the American Legion hall. Admission will be a twenty-five cent toy, which the Legion national office will send overseas to underprivileged children. There will be door prizes and entertainment.

The Boulder-Vegas Shrine club held its annual meeting Wednesday night at the Last Frontier and held its election of officers. Leonard Fayle was made president, Kenneth Zahn, vice president and Kenneth Saxon, secretary-treasurer.

Lions to Have Lionesses

The Lions club will soon have an auxiliary unit, it was determined this week as wives of members were feted at the annual Christmas luncheon. The auxiliary will be formed for the duration of the state convention planning and actual operation, with wives of past presidents acting as the committee in charge.

Offer Scouts Plan For Trip East

At least three Boulder City Boy Scouts will have an opportunity to attend the second National Jamboree at Valley Forge State Park in Pennsylvania next June 30 through July 6, Scout District Chairman L. R. Douglass announced today.

Plans for sending scouts from the Boulder Dam Area Council to the mammoth youth gathering, which will be attended by some 40,000 boys, were laid before the local committee by Council Executive James Moss at a luncheon meeting Wednesday. Each scout and explorer unit in the city must make application for one of the three places allocated to the community prior to January 1.

Sings "Messiah"

The Church choir and other townsite singers joined forces last Sunday evening at the Community Church to present selections from "The Messiah". With Joe Leming, basso and Virginia Barquist, soprano, as soloists the performance was well received. Mrs. Kermit Gammethaler, who was to sing the alto solos was unable to be there because of illness. The choir was exceptionally good and showed the great amount of attention and time spent by Kermit Gammethaler and Mrs. Miriam Burkholder, directors.

Although this is the first year the choir has presented the difficult numbers, the response was so fine with many people from Boulder City and Las Vegas present, that "The Messiah" may become an annual affair in Henderson.

Barbara Brown Is Feted at Party

Honored guest at a shower given by Miss Helen Haven and Miss Celia Gonzales was Miss Barbara Brown, whose marriage to J. K. Bayne will be a Christmas Day event. Given at the Haven home, 311 aKinas street, the gathering included Nancy Haight, Aracelia Apodaca, Mary Lou Krenner, Billie Moine, Betty Osterlander, Betty Childs, Thelma Herman, Virginia McGinty, Judy Galloway, Marcia Malcolm, Faye Mann, Mrs. C. E. Brown, Barbara's mother, Mrs. I. L. Brown, Mrs. Elias Gonzales, Mrs. Ruth Ball and Mrs. Robert Haven.

On Oct. 1, 1949, public attendance in Nevada showed 20,160 elementary pupils, and 6,034 high school pupils.
