The PROSPECTOR is published quarterly in Jan., Apr., Jul., and Oct. Copies are free to members and $3 each for non-members.

A membership list is included in the Special Surname issue published in January.

CCNGS, a nonprofit organization, meets on the 3rd Saturday of each month, at the Conference Room, Paseo Verde Library, 280 S. Green Valley Parkway, Henderson, Nevada, at 10:00 A.M. Monthly meetings begin with a fifteen minute program followed by the Society Announcements, refreshments and concludes with the long program/speaker. Our purpose is to provide instruction for collecting, preserving and publicizing genealogical, historical and geographical materials.

Yearly memberships:

Single	$ 18.00
Family	$ 21.00

Life Memberships:

Individual	$ 250.00
Family	$ 300.00

Prospector only $ 15.00

QUERIES are free to CCNGS members and $1.00 for nonmembers. There is a limit of (3) three queries per issue, per person. Queries must be re-submitted to reappear. Deadline for PROSPECTOR material is the 15th of the month prior to the month of issue.

FROM THE PRESIDENT:

I am excited about the New Year for CCNGS. We have the National Genealogy Society coming 8-11 May 2013 for its annual conference. Just a reminder, if you would like to volunteer at the NGS conference (they are looking for 200 from this area) please go to http://www.ngsgenealogy.org/cs/volunteer_form to sign up. The details for volunteers are on that page.

Jerry KUNZMAN, our Vice President, has lined up many great speakers and topics for our monthly meetings. If you have suggestions for topic or speaker (including yourself) please let Jerry know at jamke@cox.net.

We had a good seminar in October and our next seminar is set for 19 October 2013 with two very knowledgeable speakers: Dan PUFFENBERGER of Family Search and Crista COWAN of Ancestry. Do mark your calendar for Saturday 19 October 2013. It promises to be a great seminar.

We now have Facebook (www.facebook.com/ccngs.nv) and Twitter (<https://twitter.com/ccnvgensoe>) sites. Walt Quering will be giving details at up coming meetings for those of us who are not daily 'tweeters'. He has also set up a Blog site for us also and will demonstrate how you can use it most efficiently.

Margaret LOUIS, President

JOIN THE PROSPECTOR STAFF

Bob KENNARD and Helen SMITH are requesting that CCNGS members join them in publishing The Prospector. Helen has been working as the Editor, while Bob works as the Publisher.

Articles for The PROSPECTOR are ferreted out by Bob and Helen and also by CCNGS members who find or write articles on various topics about or relating to genealogy.

The PROSPECTOR is produced four times a year: January, April, July and October. We are hoping that those who are interested in helping to continue the publication will step up and learn what the process is so that they would be able to step into positions in the future.

If you like journalism, editing, and publishing (software) and would like to join us, speak with Bob KENNARD (522-0073) or Helen SMITH (458-5540) or notify someone on the Board of CCNGS of your interest. We would love to have you become a member of the team.

2013 NGS Conference in Las Vegas

By Betteann MEYERS

(Publicity Chair of the Local Host Societies for the NGS 2013 Family History Conference in Las Vegas, Nevada)

The NGS 2013 Family History Conference, Building New Bridges, will be held 8-11 May 2013 in Las Vegas, Nevada. The Mike O'CALLAGHAN-Pat TILLMAN Memorial Bridge spans the Colorado River on Native American land, connects the Las Vegas Valley to historic Route 66 and embodies the West as a timeless "bridge" where nations, cultures and technologies connect. Nearby Hoover Dam opened the Southwest to urban and agricultural growth when it harnessed the water and power of the Colorado River. Similarly, the four-day NGS conference offers lectures that emphasize the diversity of the West, the movement of people, the places they settled, and the records they left behind.

Migration tracks on Thursday and Friday include lectures on the Civil war in the West, Homesteads, migration to and from the Ohio country, and more. In a one-day track featuring the West, learn about the lives of miners lured west by the promise of gold and silver, discover repositories that hold records of Americans who lived or traveled in New Spain, and more. California lectures cover topics like the demographic richness of Los Angeles, records available in Southern California, the Great Register of California voter registration records, African American Civil Rights leaders who migrated to California, and more.

A one-day track devoted to New York research lets genealogists from all regions explore their New York roots, and fifteen lectures feature case studies, record groups, and methodologies pertinent to researching African American, Chinese, Hispanic, Irish, Japanese, and Native American lineages. Ten lectures focus on records and methodologies related to researching your ancestors' faiths, whether they were "Bible Thumpers," Catholic, Jewish, Quaker, or members of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

The Board for Certification of Genealogists (BGG) Skillbuilding track features seventeen lectures for attendees who seek to improve their research and analytical techniques; they also offer the popular certification seminar. A DNA track offers lectures on various ways DNA testing, Y chromosome studies, and autosomal testing can further genealogical research. GenTech lectures highlight new technologies that ease the task of collecting evidence, analyzing it, and applying it to the correct individuals or research question.

Marian SMITH, Chief of the Historical Branch, US Citizenship and Immigration Services will open the conference, Wednesday, 8 May 2013, at 8:00 a.m. Smith's Opening Session lecture uses immigration to highlight how policy changes made at the national level dictated what records were created and who administered them. Each national-level decision shaped the lives of individuals on the ground—our ancestors—and determined where or if we will find the records.

Friday evening, 10 May 2013, the NGS Banquet offers two popular speakers. Based on the monthly grant awards program she began in 2000, writer, speaker, and genealogist Megan SMOLENYAK SMOLENYAK will briefly share highlights and look forward in "Lucky 13: A Modest Proposal Regarding Genealogy Grants and Pawn Stores." Historian Mark P. HALL-PATTON, Clark County museums administrator and frequent guest on the History Channel's Pawn Stars, follows with a lighthearted approach to research and artifact authentication, television style.

TUESDAY, 7 MAY 2013, PRE-CONFERENCE TOURS

Three great tours have been scheduled for those who wish to experience the old and new of Clark County, Nevada. You do not need to register for the conference to attend these tours, but ticket sales close 22 April 2013.

Hoover Dam and Ethel M. Chocolates Tour

This six-hour tour starts with a bus ride to Hoover Dam, the Depression-era engineering feat that opened the American Southwest to settlement. The tour includes admission to the Visitor Center, the Dam Tour and the Power Plant Tour. Be sure to check out the Plaza Monument with the mosaic floor and bronze sculptures.

Next participants will go to the Fiesta Festival Casino a buffet lunch offering Mexican, Italian, American and Chinese cuisine at six cooking stations. The final stop of this tour is the Ethel M. Chocolate Factory, where visitors may stroll through the Botanical and Cacti Gardens while enjoying a free sample of chocolate.

This $74 walking tour includes all admissions and the Fiesta buffet lunch.

Museums Tour

This five-hour tour includes two Las Vegas area museums, which take Clark County history from pre-historic times to the beginnings of the space age. The first stop is the thirty-acre Clark County Museum, which is directed by Friday evening's banquet speaker, Mark HALL-PATTON, authenticator of artifacts on the popular television show, Pawn Stars. Visit the exhibit hall and wander down a street lined with restored historic buildings that depict daily life in southern Nevada through several decades.

The tour continues to the National Atomic Testing Museum, where more than 12,000 artifacts are offered in interactive displays that present the history of the development and testing of the nuclear bomb. Ask about the role the Nevada Test Site played in the famous moon walk. Astronaut Neil Armstrong trained for that walk right at the test site. A special exhibit, "Area 51: Myth or Reality" sheds light on one of the most secret places in America

On the way back to the hotel the coaches will take passengers by the Cleveland Clinic Lou RUVO Center for Brain Health, designed by world-renowned architect, Frank GEHRY.

The tour involves walking, and the cost of $48 per person includes museum admissions and the special exhibit.

NIGHT TOUR

Night time in Las Vegas is magic! Bright neon displays and shooting water shows light up the dessert skies. This tour's first stop is the Gold and Silver Pawn Shop, site of the History Channel's Pawn Stars. The shop has granted participants immediate access to browse for one-half hour before leaving for the "Fabulous Las Vegas" sign, where passengers may snap photos. Coaches continue to the Bellagio Dancing Fountains, where passengers disembark to enjoy the free sidewalk show and explore the Bellagio Gardens. In Downtown Las Vegas passengers will enjoy the two million overhead lights and state-of-the-art sound system of the Fremont Street Experience. There will be time to browse some of the shops and kiosks before returning to the hotel.

This tour requires walking, and routes may vary. The cost is $58 per person.

Betteann MEYERS is Publicity Chair of the Local Host Societies for the NGS 2013 Family History Conference in Las Vegas, Nevada. She is president of the Centennial Las Vegas Genealogy Society, one of the Local Host Societies. Betteann was a Woman Marine during the Korean War. She began her career as a civilian federal employee in 1956 and retired in 1993. It was then she started he family history search. Betteann believes her experience as an analyst has been an asset in her genealogy activities. She looks forward to welcoming NGS Magazine readers to Las Vegas in May 2013!

The Henderson Library District recently installed an on-line registration process that allows individuals to register for various programs and events, including those sponsored by CCNGS. Follow these steps to view library events and to register:

Go to the Libraries' website at <http://www.mypubliclibrary.com>
 Under "Events and Classes", select "Events and Programs"
 In the "Keyword" box on the left, enter 'Genealogy' and click "Find"
 Scroll through the months until you find something you want to register for; once you find the class, click on it. You will be taken to a registration screen to complete the process.

Be sure to enter your telephone number and Email address so you can be contacted, if necessary. With this information the instructor can obtain a listing of those who have signed up for the class, allowing for better management of the entire process.

Writing Tips for Genealogy Researchers

Make sure all the time and effort you've put into researching your family history isn't forgotten. Preserve it for future generations by writing a book.

Abbott Press, a division of Writer's Digest, offers these three tips to help get you started:

Tip #1: Find Your Focus

Do you have a feisty great-great grandmother you admire? A long line of war veterans? Decide what topic is most noteworthy and branch off from it to discuss your other research.

Tip #2: Create an Outline

Don't get too detailed, but decide how you'll divide the chapters (chronologically, by branch, geographically, etc.), and what sort of information you'll want to include.

Tip #3: JUST WRITE

There's no magic formula. Set aside time each day to write, and keep these additional tips in mind as you do:

- Vary sentence length and structure, breaking up lists with colorful details.
- Cite sources as you go (use footnotes or an appendix).
- Enlist someone to read your early drafts and offer guidance

Brickwall problems?

By Lisa ALZO, Internet Genealogy and Family Chronicle author

You may be too close to the research. Take a break and seek a fresh pair of eyes to review your data. A fellow researcher may be able to help you spot any missed details, see problems with your conclusions, and suggest new solutions. Don't forget to return the favor.

Don't forget the power of a wildcard

By Diane L. RICHARD, Internet Genealogy author

Don't forget the power of a wildcard when searching online databases! Most databases will allow you the option of using a wildcard. All too often, a surname (or forename) can be spelled a lot of different ways. For example, Wr*ford can give me Wreyford, Wraford, etc. While R*ford gets Rayford, Raiford, Reyford, etc. It's a lot easier to use wildcards than to try and think of every possible name permutation.

GENEALOGY TIP of the DAY

by Michael John NEILL

START LOCAL

When trying to obtain a copy of a vital record, begin searching at the local level first (town, county, etc.), then try the state records office. Avoiding search firms that advertise for "immediate" delivery will be easier on your pocketbook. Determine if any records are available online or on microfilm via FamilySearch (<http://www.familysearch.org>).

Chances are you do not need the death certificate tomorrow, via overnight mail. Don't pay for services you do not need.

How Did It Get To You?

by Michael John NEILL

Do you think about how a picture or other item came into your possession? Did the person who gave you the image really know who it was? How was the picture or other item identified? Just because someone on the internet said it was a picture of your great-great-grandpa does not necessarily mean that it was.

Most of the time things things are right, but occasionally errors are made. At least give a moment's thought to the possibility that the picture might be labelled incorrectly.

Try and Do It Right

Posted by Michael John NEILL

We don't try and "do" genealogy accurately because it is a game to see who is the most accurate and to see who can "judge" another's work. We try our best to be as accurate as we can be in order to reach the most accurate picture of our ancestors as possible. Often as we learn new information, our picture of our ancestor changes--at least slightly. When we do shoddy work and research by grabbing whatever we can without analyzing it, we can indicate great-great-grandpa had wives he did not have, lived in places he did not live, and lived a lifestyle he never would have lived.

Sure, it takes longer to be as accurate as we can be. And all of us will make mistakes--beginners and experienced researchers alike. But do you want your descendant to merge your life with that of your cousin of the same name whom you cannot stand? Do you want your descendant to create a picture of you that is completely and totally inaccurate?

Our ancestors deserve that option as well.

5 GOLDEN RULES OF GENEALOGY

- #1 Leave no stone unturned, unless it is a headstone.
- #2 Handwriting legibility is inversely proportional to a documents importance.
- #3 The further away a cemetery or library is, the more awkward the opening hours will be.
- #4 The relative you most need to talk with is the one whose funeral you are currently attending.
- #5 Wherever you find two or more siblings, there also will you find two or more surname spellings.
