'MEET ME IN ST. LOUIS'

Meet Me in St. Louis, a three act comedy adapted from the original screen play by Sally Ben_ son, will be presented by the sen_ ior class in the multi-purpose room of the high school on the evening of December 8, at 8:15.

Members of the cast include: Dwain Smith, Mr. Smith, a St. Louis business man; Wuanita Combs, his wife; their daughters -. Rose (Sheila Brancfield), Esther (Arlene Coleman), Agnes (Donna Bogut), and Tootie (Mary Jo Campbell); their son, Lon (Bill Witt), Mrs. Smith's father (Rodney Blue); Mrs. Waughop (Barbara Shepherd), an irate neighbor; Ida Booth by (Maurine Jack" son), sweet on Lon; Lucille Pentard (Gail Scott), an Eastern siren; John Shepherd (John Staley), Rose's beau; Fred Gregory (Phil Hicks), Esthers' boy friend; Katie (Constance Hadley), an Irish maid; Mr. Dodge (Ronald Nevin), Mr. Smith's boss; Mr. Duffy (Tony Bastenchury), a "Yes" man; and the conductor, Bill Forshee.

VETERAN'S DAY OBSERVED HERE

"They shall not have died in Vain", was the theme of the addresses given by Lyal Burkholder, Herb Crosby, Frank Heber and the Honorable James French, Mayor of Henderson at the first Veteran's Day observance held in the multi-purpose room of Basic high school on November 11, 1954.

Members of the local Veterans of Foreign Wars, the Amerian Legion, and the auxiliaries of both organizations were in charge of the program, with Carl Blake, Commander of Post 40 of the American Legion as master of ceremonies.

Prayers were offered by the Reverend Ford Gilbert and Father Peter Moran.

The setting is in that romantic period at the turn of the century, early 1900's. The place is St. Louis during the World's Fair. The story tells how a typical family arrived at the solution of a most difficult decision, with the aid of biting children, irate neighbors, and a story-telling grandfather, to say nothing of the daughter who packs a mean right.

Production staff members are: Bob Riggins, Sherron Green, and La Juana Mathewson, properties; Bruce Meeks, stage manager; Sandra Smith, Lillian Bauer, and Patty Pool, publicity; Shirley Dunn, Alyce Helmboldt, Jan Pipes, makeup; Rosine Lindsey and Sandra Mathewson, costumes: Alta Newell, Penny Crane, and John Korthius, tickets and programs.

Mrs. May Carpenter will direct the play, assisted by Miss Gertrude Dedrich. Student directors will be Darla Haverberg and Sandra Smith. Makeup will be supervised by John Beatty.

Juniors Present 'Show Business'

"There's No Business Like Show Business" was the theme of the junior class assembly presented on November 19 under the direction of Mr. John Beatty and Miss Joanne Gnatovich, class sponsors.

Pantomines; "And the Curtain Fell"; a musical number, "The Purple Cow"; "The Subway Scene," "The Cuckoo Burglars"; Hamlet; an old time minisitrel show; "Frankie and Johnnie"; and "There's No Business Like Show Business" made up the numbers on the program. Musical accompaniments were by the junior class band and orchestra.

Movie stars, lovers. murderers, and animals were presented in pantomine to show the types and trials of show business. These

PARENTS GET VIEW OF BASIC HIGH

Basic High School welcomed parents for the first time in its new home, November $10 . \mathrm{Mr}$. John A. Dooley, principal, Mr. Estes McDoniel, vice - principal, all teachers and Usherettes were on hand to greet the visitors.
Many rooms had interesting displays. Mr. John Shaw, chem istry and physics teacher, and Mr . Don Smith, general science, showed films on friction; and ex periments in physics and chemistry. Many animal specimens as well as a human model, were shown to the parents by Mr. Les, ter Burgwart, biology teacher in room 2.

Journalism class, under Mrs. May Carpenter, displayed troph_ ies received for the Lobo News and the "old typewriter." Next door in Room 10, Mrs. Dorothy Robinson, history teacher, had an interesting projector that can show pages from magazines to the whole class.

Basic now has a gymnasium: second to none in Nevada! Its facilities for physical education are modern and unequaled in this area. These will prove a welcome change to instructors and stu dents.

Of special interest is the basketball court. Its overall dimersions are ten feet longer than the one in the old gymnasium. It is fifty by ninety feet, with cross courts measuring eighty by forty. five feet.

Due to the breakage of the glass backboards, while in storage in Salt Lake City, wooden backboards constructed by the wood and machine shop classes have been installed as a temporary measure.
On December 14, a game between the Harlem Musicians and the "All Stars" of this area will: initiate the use of the court. This event is sponsored by the Rollerettes.

A shower room with twenty five individual showers has beent provided for the girls. Their uniforms and supplies will be kept in basket type lockers with combination locks. Provision has been made for 480 lockers.

Count Your Blessings

BY MARY JO CAMPBELL
"Let all of us in full accord
Give grateful thanks unto the Lord -"
You all know the story of how Thanksgiving originated - how the Pilgrims were thankful for the good land to which God had sent them; and the bountiful harvest he had given them, so they dedicated a day to thank Him.

Yes, that's the story, but stop and think for a moment. The good land they were in was filled with the unknown. It was filled with heartache, sickness and death. Yet they were thankful because at last they were someplace where they could worship as they pleased.

The bountiful harvest was no doubt wonderful to them, but to us it would be rather disappointing, accustomed as we are to the best of everything.

We, today, have so much more to be thankful for, and yet we think of Thanksgiving as just anather holiday with a nice big tur. key dinner to eat. The pilgrims had only the barest necessities while we hav eall sorts of conveniences to make life easier for us. Shouldh't we then be twice as thankful as they were? This Thanksgiving when we sit down to that "old bird," let's says a prayer of thanks and really mean it!!

YOUR OBLIGATION

By JOHN STALEY

Boys, have you considered your obligation to your country?
Mayor James French in his Veterans Day address pointed the way to fulfillment of one's personal obligation to mankind. He said man's stay on earth should be one of service.

This should be of personal significance to every junior and seni ior boy. The time is fast approaching when you will be called upon to serve eight years in the service of your country. This includes two or three years of active duty, and the remainder in the reserve forces of your choice.

It is surprising how many juniors and seniors of seventeen are uninformed on this subject. The law states that evey male citiizen must serve eight years in the armed forces if mentally and physically fit. He must report to his local draft board no later than five days after his eighteenth birthday. If he does not, he is classified as delinquent, and is up for immediate draft.

Too many moys are afraid to face facts. They think that by joining the reserve forces, they immediately make themselves subfect to draft. Contact the reserve units in this area to ascertain the true facts.

Dr. French stated that his five and one half years were among the most informative and satisfying of his career. Perhaps, you, too, can find personal satisfaction in serving while fulfilling an obligation to your country.

"Pass the peas, please."
This was heard many times No vember 17, at the FHA pot_luck held at the Home Economics cottage at $5: 30$. Honored guest was Mrs. Genevieve Pieretti, State FHA Advisor.

Officers planned and presented the main course and program. Members brought their own desserts, salads, and vegetables.

Following a film on family friendship, a panel discussion was led by Mrs. Pieretti. Panelists were: Eloise Lamoreaux, Deanna Williams, Geneva Gunter, Margaret Sendlien, Nancy Watts, Marilyn Williams, and the two chapter mothers, Mrs. Leo M Coombs and Mrs. S. Watts.

At the November 3 meeting, future plans were presented to the chapter. Among them is a Christmas party, December 8, Sweetheart dance, February 12, and faculty tea; and a car wash in early spring.

LACK OF FACILITIES HALTS GAA

Drastic things are happening around Basic these days. For the first time since organizing in 1944, the GAA is not having weekly meetings.
Due to lack of facilities, meetings have been postponed until the new gym is completed. Betty Fdmondson, president, passed smelling salts to all members (most of whom fainted at the news) after making the startling announcement.
However, it is expected that enthusiasm and co-operation will pick up when meetings and activities are again resumed.

Hutson Picks Performers

Now that the skates have been received and distributed, Miss Pat Hutson, sponsor, will begin to choose the girls who will definite_ ly be in the acts for basketball season.
All of the girls are excited and working very hard.

Jim Miller, a Basic high senior was voted into the club last week, and all the members were happy to welcome him. We are sure he will make a fine Char_ ioteer.

Ronnie Nelson's '51 Mercury was on display at the Silver State 100 Mile Race held Novemver 14 , along with other cars in the Southern Nevada area.
The Charioteers think the Moto rama was real "great." After see_ ing the best car show in the world, we were off to the drag strip. We did all right, but didn't get any trophies. So, we're going under the hoods, getting ready for the next trip down.!

COMMERCIAL CLUB

 SELLS ICE CREAMCommercial club has been car_ rying on one of Basic's newer additions to school life - the sale of ice cream. The club is selling "America's favorite dessert" every noon in the multi-purpose room. According to Penny Crane, president, the club isn't making much of a profit from this, but the customers seem to like it.
Though the Commercial club has held no meetings recently, they have several important things coming up in the near future. The planning of the annual Christmas assembly and the Sock Hop are on the agenda for the latter part of November and the first part of December.

SHUTTERBUGS OFFER CAMERA SERVICE

Roving photographers, Don Bearup and Robert Hayden have been chosen by the SHUTTER_ BUGS, camera club, to snap pic_ tures on Tuesday and Thursday, during the noon hour. A nominal feet of twentv-five cents for the first print, and ten cents for each additional copy will be charged. Proceeds from these pictures will be donated to the warkroom fund. The goal for this being fifty dollars.
This would make it possible for the members to develop their own prints, and be of real ser_ vice to the school. Support Your Shutterbugs!
Pictures will be taken at the Sophomore Reverse. Be sure to order at least one of you and your date for your memory book.

Dooley Praises Student Body

Mr. John Dooley, in a personal interview, wants to point out and talk with you on several prob_ lems which he felt you could help solve.

He stated that clubs should try to conform to their program schedule more closely. School projects are interdependent on each other, that is, they are scheduled so there will be no conflict. However, if an activity is postponed to a later date, it disturbs other class programs and functions.

Probably the problem which concerns the majority of us, is traffic. Every student at Basic is expected to follow the rules which have been set up for his protection. Persons who do not attend school are also under these same rules. They do not have any other privileges than the students, while on the campus. The speed limit is to be obeyed by everyone who drives on the road. Students have presidence over outsiders as far as parking, right of way and use of the lot.

Please remind your transportation of these facts. Anyone who does not obey the rules set up should be reminded, that a citi zen arrest may be performed by teachers and students alike.

Mr. Dooley, who has been an educator for many years, praised the student body's co-operative attitude and said, in his opinion, it ranked with, or was better than the leading schools in the nation. your principal offered a little gem of wisdom, "Beat Blythe."

TABLES TURN ON BOYS

The boys in fourth period $\mathrm{Hu}_{-}$ man Relations class had the privilege of helping Mrs. Marjorie Peck clean the Home Economics cottage Friday, November 12.

Lazar Speaks at Basic

Dr. Irving Lazar, psychologist delivered an impromptu speech to the Human Relations classes of Basic High, on November 1.

When the classes discovered they could name their own topics, the almost unanimous deisions were Juvenile Delinquency, and types of interviews used on patients.
Dr. Lazar informed the classes that juvenile delinquents are uswally the result of broken homes, inadequate attention at home, or poor community situations.
Juvenile delinquency in Southern Nevada is no greater than any other section of the country. Very few high school students take dope or get continually drunk-Those few cases are magnified, Most of the trouble is caused by teenagers who have quit school and have no employment, usually drifters.
If there are not facilities to keep teen-agers busy and give them the feeling they belong, either in the home or the comnuunity, the rate of juvenile delinquency is apt to climb.

Dr. Lazar also briefed the elesses on a few of the physcholo. gial tests ued to determine mental problems.

Bury them!! Was what the mothers must have said when Basics' teenagers wandered home last Saturday night. (Or was it Sunday morning??)
But aside from the fact that the bottoms of the socks were the blackest, the tops were really the "Most". Boys and girls alike, entered the contest for the prizes donated by Henderson merchants.
Van Valeys' came through with a pair of boys argyles - girls fuzzy nylon anklets; Desertwear -- a scarf; "A" and "B" Supply - a ball point pen; and Richard_ son's - merchandise certificate.

Wanda Henderson and Steve Sendlien took top places for the prettiest socks while Maggie and Steve (again) came in for the prize with the craziest.

HERE'S MORE ON WITH THE COUNCIL
They are for Basic high school students only.
Exceptions to this rule are alumni of the two previous years; dates of Basic students; and proph. erly identified students from other schools.
Students must take full responsibility for the actions of their guests at the dance.
Students from other schools must be able to produce a stu_ dent body or identification card for the current school year.
Faculty sponsors will screen al persons entering the place where the dance is to be held.
One of the most disturbing problems to be discussed was the lack of enthusiasm at the pep as. semblies, especially in the senior and freshman classes.

No decision was reached on the question of Sadie Hawkins Day.

In our last issue, girls were asked the question, "If you could have one wish, what would it be?" Now the question is put to the boys. The results are interesting. Girls, sports, and cars came in for their share of inter. est as follows:
Rod Blue - That all my wishes would come true.

Eddie Johnson - Someone mighty fine, about eleven miles away.

Al Albrechtsen - The state kasketball trophy.

Bob Riggins - Championship and an " A " in chemistry.
J. D. Walker - I wish I had graduated and had a good job.

Be Kind to Wasps!

By SHERMAN LUDWIG

I was sittting in my seat 4th period in study hall and I looked down to pick up my notebook on it sat a baby wasp. I bent over with my notebook to pick it up, when at the same time a girl student jumped up, as it started to fly. Just a split seond later, she sat right down on top of it, trying to kill it. But she didn't succeed, she just broke its hind legs. Then I picked it up to lessen the pain, when a teacher hopped off her chair and flew down the steps and tried to stomp on it. Twice this poor creature's life had been threatened, so I put it in my hand to protect it. Again, for the third time, the girl tried to take its' life by stabbing it with a pencil, but she missed and hit my hand.

Then the teacher with her au_ thority told me to put it in the wastepaper basket, so I took it very carefully and put it out of its misery.

The moral of my story is: give the small animals a chance, they don't hurt you, why hurt them?

Junior Varsity Has Good Season

Basic's J.Vi's started the '54 gridiron season with a bang as they dumped Rancho High 6_0.

After three quarters of bitter battle, Ray Ware hit pay dirt for the winning margin - the Pup's only tally.

In their second encounter of the year the Pups bowed to the Las Vegas Junior Cats, 20-7 John Konthius put in a fine pass_ snagging performance to high ligh't the aerial game for the Junior Wolves.

Victory hungry, Basic's J. V marched to Hooverville, and trounced the Boulder City Junior Birdmen, 34_8 for their sec_ ond victory of the campaign. The combination of Russ Williams and Charles Cottam proved disastrous to the Birds.

The Pups made it two in a row as they harnessed the Needles J.V. 31-0. The Tartanmen thoroughly tromped the Ponies, as Ray Ware again took the spotlight by scoring two T.D.'s.

With revenge in their eyes after a slim victory in their en counter, the J.V.'s squad rapped Rancho High 42_0, behind the spirited signal calling of Don Wilson, sophomore wonder boy.

Basic made a clean sweep of their last four games, as they edged Bishop Gorman, 7.6 in their last tilt of the season. Outstand ing line play by Bill Jamieson was featured throughout the game. The final victory of the season came on Coach Tartan's birthday, November 6.

Our congratulations to the future Varsity gridders and Coach Tartan, as they turned in an im_ pressive $5-1$ season record.

After the complete destruction of the Eagles, Basic earned themselves a post-season title clash with the Blythe Yellowjackets. for the Tri_State League champ_ ionship, at Needles, November 24.
The Wolves showed renewed enthusiasm as they steam-rolled over the Stonemen in the second half, after a slim lead 19_12 half_ time lead. The winner's came out with their fangs sharpened, with one thought in mind, to make it a miserable Homecoming.

Basic Out for Blood

 "Blythe's Blood!"By downing Boulder City's Eagles, Basic earned a rematch with the Blythe Yellowjackets at Needles, November 24. Tonight's game will decide the Tri-State Championship, which was thrown into a confusion when Blythe tromped the Wolves 39-14, November 5 .
Since Blythe, sporting a 2-1 league record, did not play a complete schedule, the present playoff has been arranged.
Basic having won three out of four of their league games, has the better percentage, but after their loss to Blythe, the league officials voted to have a playoff for the :title. The winner will meet Bellarmine - Jefferson in C.I.F. playoffs. Victory by the Wolves would prove interesting, as Gus Braun, head coach here last year, is the Bellarine - Jefferson mentor.

Basic Bows in Defeat  To Blythe

Ray Martin and team defeated Basic by a score of 39.14 .
The victory threw the Tri_ State League standings into a bit of confusion with Basic and Blythe each haying one defeat!
Basic made a determined bła at the start of the contest, driv_ ing to score on the opening kickoff but could not match Martin, who boosted the Yellowjackets into a 12-7 halftime lead and then threw three touchdown passes in the third quarter. Martin also converted three times.
Eddie Johnson, Rodney Blue, Dave Anderson, and Bob Barker alternated carrying the ball until Johnson wound up and spotted Norm Craft, high scoring Basic end, in the land of chalk and lime from 34 yards out two minutes into the game. Craft's boot was good.

Basic's final score came after the Wolves fullback, Rodney Blue, Basic's most consistent performer all night tore up 69 yards to the one foot line where Johnson moved in for the score. Craft converted making the score 33-14. Reserve back Phil Maddox, in for Martin, emulated the Jacket starter, by tearing off 58 yards for the finale.
